20 1 Introduction

21 Since 1909, there has been a concerted, systematic effort by members of the legal profession to transform what 22 started out as a constitutional government into essentially a for-profit private corporate monopoly. That 23 transformation is largely complete and has occurred in small steps that have largely been ignored and overlooked
24 by the average American. The methods of transformation are not taught in any of the history books or even in 25 law school curricular. The implications of this transformation are vast and far-reaching and affect every aspect of 26 life as we know it today here in America. In fact, we allege that:

- 27 1. What most people call "government" is now nothing but a giant private corporate monopoly which violates the Sherman 28 Antitrust Act.
  - 29 1.1. We call this corporate monopoly "CorpGov" within this document.
  - 30 1.2. All of its activities are perpetuated through "adhesion contracts" forced upon the populace by:
    - 31 1.2.1. Privatized enforcement agents in the private sector.
    - 32 1.2.2. A virtual monopoly in the services it offers
- 33 2. The original republican government which was created by the Constitution:
  - 34 2.1. Went bankrupt in 1933 when lawful money was outlawed.
  - 35 2.2. Is now effectively disestablished for all intents and purposes.
  - 36 2.3. Has been replaced with a legislative socialist democracy which is a political, corporate, and not geographic entity 37 functioning entirely and only through your right to contract.
- 38 3. States of the Union mentioned in the Constitution have become private, for-profit federal corporations.
  - 39 3.1. This corporation is a "virtual state" within a geographical state and a political and legal body but not a territorial 40 body.
  - 41 3.2. This corporation is founded on the constitutions enacted by states of the Union after the Civil War, in which the 42 boundaries of the states were omitted.
  - 43 3.3. This corporation is called the "State of _____" rather than simply the name of the state.
  - 44 3.4. Those who are "citizens" or "residents" of this state are actually de facto officers of the corporation.
  - 45 3.5. The term "residence" really means a position of employment within this corporation, and not physical presence 46 within a geographic entity. All "residents" are federal contractors rather than members of a body politic.
  - 47 3.6. The term "State" in most state law has been redefined to mean federal territory within the exterior borders of the 48 state:

49 California Revenue and Taxation Code

50 6017. "In this State" or "in the State" means within the exterior [outside] limits of the [Sovereign] state of 51 California and includes [only] all territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States

52 17018. "State" includes the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States.

- 1 4. All the services offered by the original government have been systematically replaced with STATUTORY “franchises”,
 2 all of which require a mandatory fee paid either directly or indirectly.
 3 4.1. Only those who become “employees” or “officers” of the corporation can partake of any of the “benefits” of these 4 franchises.
 5 4.2. The definition of “employee” found in 5 U.S.C. §2105 confirms that all “employees” under 5 U.S.C. are in fact
 6 “public officers”.
- 7 5. What used to be CONSTITUTIONAL “citizens” and “residents” and “inhabitants” are all now synonymous with:
 8 5.1. STATUTORY “employees” or “officers” of the “United States” federal corporation.
 9 5.2. “customers” of the private, legislatively foreign, for-profit federal corporation.
 10 5.3. Statutory artificial “persons” domiciled on federal territory not protected by the Constitution.
- 11 6. PRIVATE Human beings have been replaced with a PUBLIC “straw man”:
 12 6.1. The “straw man” is a public office in the government.
 13 6.2. The human being is a public officer and surety for the actions of the office he occupies, which is a government
 14 franchise.
 15 6.3. The application for the benefit or franchise established a partnership between the U.S. Inc. federal corporation,
 16 which is a public office, and the human being filling the office. The only human beings subject to governmental 17 civil law are those who consent to exercise agency on behalf of the government. Those people are mentioned in 18 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7343.
 19 6.4. “Sui juris” status has been replaced with “pro per” and “pro se” because the human being has to “represent” the 20 straw man and the public office that is his statutory interface to CorpGov.

21 “Sui juris. Of his own right; possessing full social and civil rights; not under any legal disability, or the power
 22 of another, or guardianship. Having capacity to manage one’s own affairs; not under legal disability to act for 23 one’s self.”
 24 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1434]

25 The existence of the “straw man” is exhaustively proven in:

Proof That There Is a “Straw Man”, Form #05.042
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 26 7. Private rights, private property, and personal responsibility have been effectively outlawed, for all intents and purposes
 27 because:
 28 7.1. All options for selecting one’s status on government forms include only statutory public entities and not private 29 human beings. There are no nontaxpayer or private human being options on government forms, for instance.
 30 7.2. De facto government FRAUD and propaganda cause financial institutions and private employers to unlawfully and 31 criminally compel the use of government identifying numbers. All such numbers may only lawfully be used in 32 connection with a public office in the U.S. government, and hence, everyone is compelled to occupy a public office
 33 and to surrender their private status.
 34 7.3. All remedies for the protection or private rights and private property have been carefully hidden and/or eliminated
 35 entirely. For instance:
 36 7.3.1. Common law remedies for the protection of private rights are actively interfered with and penalized by de 37 facto franchise judges.
 38 7.3.2. Constitutional courts have been replaced with legislative franchise courts.
 39 7.3.3. Members of the legal profession are no longer taught about common law remedies, eliminating the ability of 40 anyone to hire an attorney to implement them.
 41 7.4. The filing of knowingly false information returns connecting otherwise private property and private rights to a
 42 public office in the U.S. government are encouraged by FRAUD and protected by de facto officers of the de facto
 43 government.
 44 7.5. There is no method to have a government identifying number as a nontaxpayer or “non-resident non-person”. All
 45 numbers offered are only for “taxpayers”, which is why they are called “Taxpayer Identification Numbers”. IRS
 46 refuses to allow people to change the number to that of a nontaxpayer.
 47 7.6. Enforcement penalties that may only lawfully be imposed upon statutory public officer franchisees called 48 “taxpayers” are unlawfully applied to “nontaxpayers” who are private persons not subject to federal jurisdiction,
 49 making it impossible to survive as or be recognized as a private human being. See Form #05.010.

50 For a complete description of the illegal methods of destroying the PRIVATE and eliminating the separation between 51 PUBLIC and PRIVATE, see:

Separation Between Public and Private, Form #12.025
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 1 8. Those who refuse to become STATUTORY government “employees” or “officers” of the CorpGov or refuse to 2 participate in government franchises:
- 3 8.1. Have no legal existence and no protection for any of their rights in any of CorpGov’s “franchise courts”.
4 8.2. Become the illegal target of enforcement actions and are unlawfully terrorized and penalized by the high cost of 5 litigation for insisting that their rights be protected and respected.
6 8.3. Are unlawfully compelled to participate in the franchise by third party FALSE information returns connecting them
7 to a public office in the corporation. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns , Form #04.001 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
---
- 8 8.4. Are unlawfully compelled to participate in franchises by third party FALSE Currency Transaction Reports (CTRs)
9 connecting them to a public office in the corporation. See:

Demand for Verified Evidence of “Trade or Business” Activity: Currency Transaction Report , Form #04.008 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 10 8.5. Are effectively punished by being deprived of a legal remedy in courts of justice. Most courts have security 11 checkpoints that require government ID that connects you to franchises and Social Security Numbers in order to 12 even enter the court building.
13 8.6. Are effectively punished by being deprived of a means to conduct commerce where they live, because the 14 government refuses to issue ID to either nonresidents or those without government identifying numbers. Financial 15 institutions will not open accounts for those who don’t have government ID. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent , Form #05.002, Section 13 http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm
--
- 16 9. The court system has been replaced with “franchise courts” and what started out as Constitutional judges have now
17 become franchise administrators serving in the Executive Branch of the government:
- 18 9.1. Judges are no longer impartial, because they participate in the franchises that they officiate over. This is a CRIME
19 in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208 and a conflict of interest in violation of 28 U.S.C. §§144, and 455.
20 9.2. Franchise administrators called “judges” routinely commit “judicial verbicide” to perpetuate the sham “public trust”
21 they administer by abusing “words of art” and deliberate vagueness in their rulings. See the following tool which 22 you can attach to your pleadings to prevent this sort of abuse:

Rules of Presumption and Statutory Interpretation , Litigation Tool #01.006 http://sedm.org/Litigation/LitIndex.htm
---
- 23 9.3. The separation of powers between the judicial branch and other branches has been completely destroyed because 24 constitutional judges are no longer necessary in a community comprised exclusively of “franchisees” in receipt of 25 government privileges.
26 For further details on the above, see:

What Happened to Justice? , Form #06.012 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 27 10. What used to be called “money” is now just a corporate bond or promissory note backed by nothing and which can only 28 be paid to or used by “officers of the corporation” called “public officers”. A “public officer” in law is, after all, someone 29 who manages the property of the public and the corporate bond is considered property. See:

The Money Scam , Form #05.041 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
---
- 30 11. The income tax system has become a compelled franchise:
- 31 11.1. Its main goal is to redistribute wealth according to public policy and political whim and to regulate the supply of 32 fiat currency.
33 11.2. It doesn’t pay for government services, but rather subsidizes political favors which benefit only those who patronize
34 and subsidize CorpGov.
35 11.3. It is implemented as a “public officer kickback program” in which officers of the corporation rebate a portion of 36 their pay back to the mother corporation. See Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 5.6.10.
37 11.4. False information returns and government propaganda are used to compel people to participate in this franchise.
38 12. Banks, financial institutions, and private employers have become the main method to recruit people into public office
39 within the mother de facto “state of” federal corporation:
40 12.1. This is called “privatized enforcement”. Others call it “corporate fascism”.
41 12.2. The method of recruitment is the compelled use of Social Security Number and Taxpayer Identification Number in 42 order to work, engage in commerce, or open an account. See:

About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence , Form #05.012 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm

1 12.3. These institutions refuse to recognize that businesses and individuals either are or can be statutory “non-resident
2 non-persons” not engaged in the “trade or business” franchise who have no need for a number and no tax liability
3 even though the law allows for it. See:

Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

4 12.4. The federal government has become a big “Kelley Girl” to sell your labor as an officer of Uncle to private
5 employers. Everyone who signs an IRS Form W-4 works for the government instead of their private employer.

6 12.5. “Selective enforcement” by the IRS and Department of Justice is the main mechanism that keeps these institutions
7 in fear and which causes them to continue to act as compelled employment (public officer) recruiters for the federal
8 government. The failure and absolute refusal of the Department of Justice and the IRS to prosecute private 9 employers or financial institutions who file false information returns or compel use of identifying numbers is what
10 causes them to continue being compelled employment recruiters for the government as a method of risk avoidance.

11 13. The notion of equal protection which is the foundation of the United States Constitution has now been rendered largely 12 irrelevant, because:

13 13.1. Equal protection does not constrain the administration of any franchise. By that we mean PRIVATE, non-resident,
14 non-franchisees aren’t recognized or protected AT ALL.

15 13.2. All slaves on the federal plantation are, in fact “equal”, but they are still slaves of the government.

16 13.3. The government they allegedly “created” as “We the People” is no longer one of delegated powers, but a “parens 17 patriae” and a pagan deity that is far more “equal” than any of the people it derives its alleged authority from.

18 For details, see:

Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

19 14. The term “general welfare” found in the Constitution has been redefined by the U.S. Supreme Court in the 1930’s to 20 imply the ability of the national government to offer and enforce national franchises and “benefits” within 21 CONSTITUTIONAL states of the Union.

22 14.1. These cases are called the “switch in time” cases. See:

23 14.1.1. United States v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1, 56 S.Ct. 312 (1936).

26 14.1.4. Ashwander v. Tennessee Valley Authority, 297 U.S. 288, 56 S.Ct. 466 (1936).

27 14.2. The franchise statutes (e.g. Social Security, etc) STILL reflect that such franchises can only be offered on federal 28 territory to those DOMICILED on federal territory.

29 14.3. The geographical limitations of these statues are being ILLEGALLY circumvented through the following methods:

30 14.3.1. Equivocation and deception, federal territory and constitutional states are made to appear equivalent by 31 corrupt courts and judges with a criminal financial conflict of interest.

32 14.3.2. Financial coercion, people who sign up for these “benefits” in a constitutional state, are PRESUMED to 33 consent and switch their effective domicile and choice of law to federal territory. This is IN SPITE of the fact
34 that the Declaration of Independence says their rights are “INALIENABLE”, meaning INCAPABLE of being 35 bargained away. The Declaration of Independence is ORGANIC law appearing in the first official act of 36 Congress, and it is routinely being violated every time franchises are offered or enforced in a
37 CONSTITUTIONAL state.

38 See the following document that proves these assertions:

U.S.A. v. U.S., Richard Dwight Kegley, TJ Henderson, Edward Wahler, HKW Publishers

39 15. The legal profession has been turned into a franchise and become a subsidiary of CorpGov through licensing to practice 40 law.

41 15.1. Attorney licensing is only intended to regulate attorneys who manage or protect PUBLIC property, but it is being 42 abused to regulate the management of ALL property.

43 15.2. Attorneys with a law license have a financial conflict of interest in the case of anyone seeking to protect PRIVATE 44 rights because their first allegiance is to the GOVERNMENT and not their CLIENT.

45 15.3. This ability to regulate the legal profession has become the main method by which attorneys who discover the truths 46 documented herein are effectively “gagged” and discredited by pulling their license and rendering them poor and 47 unable to practice law.

48 16. The distinction between the DE FACTO corporate government and the DE JURE CONSTITUTIONAL governments
49 are being carefully concealed using the following techniques of deception:

50 16.1. Equivocation, in which the DE FACTO and DE JURE state are made indistinguishable.

1 16.2. Abuse of the words “includes” and “including” to extend the jurisdiction of the DE FACTO corporation into the 2 DE JURE constitutional territory.

3 16.3. Confusion of geographical and citizenship terms to make the DE FACTO and DE JURE appear indistinguishable.

4 16.4. Hiding or removing definitions in the statutes that would clarify the distinction.

5 The above techniques are exhaustively described in:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

6 Welcome to the matrix, Neo! That matrix is described in the following FASCINATING video:

It's An Illusion, John Harris
<https://youtu.be/spf4d6pG7ek>

7 If you would like to see graphically how the above occurred, read the following succinct article:

How Scoundrels Corrupted Our Republican Form of Government, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/HowScCorruptOurRepubGovt.htm>

8 Understanding how these transformations occurred is important to the historian and also provides a valuable tool
9 for the freedom fighter in defending his or her PRIVATE rights in court. We will provide all the evidence we 10 have found here in order to help those who want to effectively use these materials in court.

11 2 Corporation Franchises are the main method of transforming a Free Society into a Collectivist 12 Society

13 The heart of every kind of corrupt, fascist, or totalitarian governmental system is collectivism. Here is the definition of 14 collectivism:

15 “Collectivism: a political or economic theory advocating collective control [e.g. OWNERSHIP] esp. over 16 production and distribution or a system marked by such control.”
17 [Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, 1983, ISBN 0-87779-510-X, p. 259]

19 “Collectivism is any philosophic, political, religious, economic, or social outlook that emphasizes the 20 interdependence of every human. Collectivism is a basic cultural element that exists as the reverse of 21 individualism in human nature (in the same way high context culture exists as the reverse of low context culture).
22 Collectivist orientations stress the importance of cohesion within social groups (such as an “in-group”, in what 23 specific context it is defined) and in some cases, the priority of group goals over individual goals. Collectivists
24 often focus on community, society, nation or country. It has been used as an element in many different and diverse 25 types of government and political, economic and educational philosophies throughout history and most human 26 societies in practice contain elements of both individualism and collectivism. Some examples of collectivist
27 cultures include Pakistan, India and Japan.

28 Collectivism can be divided into horizontal (or egalitarian) collectivism and vertical (or hierarchical)
29 collectivism. Horizontal collectivism stresses collective decision-making among equal individuals, and is thus 30 usually based on decentralization and egalitarianism. Vertical collectivism is based on hierarchical structures of 31 power and on moral and cultural conformity, and is therefore based on centralization and hierarchy. A 32 cooperative enterprise would be an example of horizontal collectivism, whereas a military hierarchy would be 33 an example of vertical collectivism.<sup>[1]</sup>
34 [Wikipedia: Collectivism, Downloaded 8/21/2014; SOURCE: <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Collectivism>]

35 Communism, socialism, and fascism are merely types of collectivist governments. This is powerfully illustrated 36 in the following video:

Fatima: The Path To Peace Conference - The Financial Enslavement of the West, G. Edward Griffin
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q-uCUjurKOW>

37 All collectivist governments presume that:

1. All property is either owned or at least controlled by the state. Control is synonymous with ownership, because the essence of ownership is the right to exclude. That right to exclude BEGINS with the right to exclude GOVERNMENT from using or benefitting from the use of the property.

*Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat & Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with it. [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]*

2. There is no PRIVATE property. PRIVATE property is property whose ownership is ABSOLUTE rather than QUALIFIED, and which is not shared with any government.

Ownership. Collection of rights to use and enjoy property, including right to transmit it to others. Trustees of Phillips Exeter Academy v. Exeter, 92 N.H. 473, 33 A.2d. 665, 673. The complete dominion, title, or proprietary right in a thing or claim. The entirety of the powers of use and disposal allowed by law.

The right of one or more persons to possess and use a thing to the exclusion of others. The right by which a thing belongs to someone in particular, to the exclusion of all other persons. The exclusive right of possession, enjoyment, and disposal; involving as an essential attribute the right to control, handle, and dispose.

Ownership of property is either absolute or qualified. The ownership of property is absolute when a single person has the absolute dominion over it, and may use it or dispose of it according to his pleasure, subject only to general laws. The ownership is qualified when it is shared with one or more persons, when the time of enjoyment is deferred or limited, or when the use is restricted. Calif. Civil Code, §§678-680.

3. People are NOT INDEPENDENT in their control over their rights or property. Instead, they are DEPENDENT. The above definition of collectivism is deceptive because rather than INTERDEPENDENT, they really mean GOVERNMENT DEPENDENT. That dependence or interdependence is created by connecting the title or ownership of said property with a public office in the government. All such offices are created through the abuse of franchises, as you will learn later. The change in title to ownership is done through the abuse of government identifying numbers such as SSNs, TINs, and EINs, which are government property that transmute ownership of otherwise PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property.

"Collectivism is any philosophic, political, religious, economic, or social outlook that emphasizes the interdependence of every human. Collectivism is a basic cultural element that exists as the reverse of individualism in human nature (in the same way high context culture exists as the reverse of low context culture)."

The foundation of freedom is INDIVIDUALISM and EQUALITY between the governed and the governors. COLLECTIVISM destroys freedom by destroying EQUALITY and making the government SUPERIOR to and an OWNER of those governed. All COLLECTIVIST systems are implemented by destroying EQUALITY and converting all PRIVATE property into PUBLIC property whose ownership and use depends on the EXPRESS CONSENT or PERMISSION of the government. We prove this in:

Foundations of Freedom, Video 1: Introduction, Form #12.021
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The method of implementing collectivism in an otherwise free society is therefore to:

1. Make government into corporation franchises. Franchises are the main method of introducing DEPENDENCE into an otherwise free society. For details on franchises, see:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The original American Colonists, in fact, broke away from England in part because the English King was abusing franchises to license Pastors to preach, and thus to stifle their biblical opposition to the King. Those who refused to get "licenses" to preach had their churches burned down!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mTjIEouy86I>

- 1 2. Confuse CONSTITUTIONAL citizens with STATUTORY citizens by:
2 2.1. Presuming that CONSTITUTIONAL and STATUTORY citizens and residents are equivalent , even though they 3 are not.
4 2.2. Presuming that "United States" in the Constitution and "United States" in statutes are equivalent, even though
5 they are not.
6 2.3. Presuming that NATIONALITY and DOMICILE are equivalent, even though they are not.

7 For details on how this is done, see:

Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 8 3. Convert all PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property and undermine the protection of PRIVATE property by:
9 3.1. Eliminating constitutional courts and replacing them with franchise courts.
10 3.2. Creating criminal financial conflicts of interest in court decision makers so they will always benefit the 11 government at the expense of the citizen.
12 3.3. Illegally compelling the use of government identifying numbers in connection with all property transactions. This 13 causes all property to transmute from PRIVATE to PUBLIC and clouds the title to the property so that it appears 14 to be held by a public officer instead of a private human. See:

About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 15 3.4. Offering or enforcing NATIONAL franchises within states of the Union or outside of the federal territory and 16 federal domiciliaries that they are limited to. This results in a destruction of the separation of powers.
17 3.5. Enforcing franchises, such as a "trade or business" without requiring explicit written consent in some form, such 18 as the issuance and voluntary signing of an application for a license.
19 3.6. Forcing non-franchisees into franchise courts against their consent. This is a violation of the Fifth Amendment
20 takings clause and the prohibition against eminent domain.
21 3.7. Refusing to satisfy the burden of proof upon government opponents in a franchise court that the owner of the 22 property subject to the dispute VOLUNTARILY donated it to a public use, public purpose, and public office. In 23 other words, that all property is PRIVATE until it is proven on the record with evidence that the owner
24 EXPRESSLY AND VOLUNTARILY DONATED it to PUBLIC use and thereby made it subject to government
25 jurisdiction.
26 3.8. Abusing sovereign immunity to protect franchise administrators such as the IRS from illegal enforcement of the
27 franchise against non-franchisees. All franchises are PRIVATE rather than GOVERNMENTAL in nature and 28 governments who offer them drop down to the level of ordinary persons when they offer them.
29 3.9. Refusing to provide a way to quit franchises or hiding forms for doing so.
30 3.10. PRESUMING or pretending like there is no such thing as a non-franchisee or non-taxpayer or that EVERYONE
31 is a statutory "taxpayer". This compels people to contract with the government and interferes with their First 32 Amendment right to legally and politically associate. See Your Exclusive Right to Declare or Establish Your 33 Civil Status, Form #13.008.
34 3.11. Attorney licensing, which destroys the integrity of the legal profession in its role as a check and balance when the 35 government or especially the judiciary becomes corrupt as it is now.
36 3.12. Abuse of the federal income tax system, which is a franchise and an excise, to bribe states of the Union to give up
37 their sovereignty, act like federal "States" and territories, and accept what amounts to federal bribes to disrespect
38 the rights of those under their care and protection.

State Income Taxes, Form #05.031

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 39 3.13. Refusing to recognize or protect PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights, the essence of which is the RIGHT TO 40 EXCLUDE anyone and everyone from using or benefitting from the use of the property.
41 3.14. PRESUMING that "a government OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, and FOR THE PEOPLE" is a 42 government in which everyone is a public officer.
43 3.15. Refusing to recognize or allow constitutional remedies and instead substituting STATUTORY remedies available 44 only to public officers.
45 3.16. Interfering with introduction of evidence that the court or forum is ONLY allowed to hear disputes involving 46 public officers in the government.
47 3.17. PRESUMING or ASSUMING that the ownership of the property subject to dispute is QUALIFIED rather than 48 ABSOLUTE and that the party the ownership is shared with is the government.

- 1 3.18. Allowing government "benefit" recipients to be decision makers in cases involving PRIVATE rights. This is a
 2 denial of a republican form of government, which is founded on impartial decision makers. See Sinking Fund
 3 Cases, 99 U.S. 700 \(1878\).
- 4 3.19. Interfering with or sanctioning litigants who insist on discussing the laws that have been violated in the courtroom
 5 or prohibiting jurists from reading the laws in question or accessing the law library in the courthouse while 6 serving as jurists. This transforms a society of law into a society of men and allows the judge to substitute HIS 7 will in place of what the law expressly requires.
- 8 3.20. Interfering with ways to change or correct your citizenship or statutory status in government records. That 9 "status" is the "res" to which all franchise rights attach, usually ILLEGALLY.
- 10 3.21. Illegally and unconstitutionally invoking the Declaratory Judgments Act or the Anti-Injunction Act as an excuse
 11 to NOT protect PRIVATE rights from government interference in the case of EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE people
 12 who are NOT statutory "taxpayers". See Flawed Tax Arguments to Avoid, Form #08.004, Sections 6.10 and 13 6.11.
- 14 3.22. Convert a commodity-based money system such as gold or silver into a fiat paper currency system. Inflate the 15 money supply to drive up prices so high that the average citizen has to do deep into debt and use a government 16 identifying number to qualify for the debt.
- 17 3.23. Make banks and financial institutions essentially into government employment recruiters by forcing new 18 applicants for accounts or services to provide or use government identifying numbers and be subject to reporting 19 to the government.
- 20 4. Make all CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens" and "residents" into STATUTORY "citizens" and "residents" into public 21 offices in the national government. Those public offices, in turn, are "officers of a corporation" because the 22 government itself is a corporation. This is done usually by judicial fiat in courtrooms across America and it is a form
 23 of CRIMINAL IDENTITY THEFT. The U.S. Supreme Court said this was illegal:

24 *"But if the plain dictates of our senses be relied on, what state of facts have we exhibited here? 898*898 Making
 25 a person, makes a case; and thus, a government which cannot exercise jurisdiction unless an alien or citizen of*
 26 another State be a party, makes a party which is neither alien nor citizen, and then claims jurisdiction because it
 27 *has made a case. If this be true, why not make every citizen a corporation sole, and thus bring them all into the 28 Courts of the United States quo minus? Nay, it is still worse, for there is not only an evasion of the 29 constitution implied in this doctrine, but a positive power to violate it. Suppose every 30 individual of this corporation were citizens of Ohio, or, as applicable to the other case, were citizens of Georgia,
 31 the United States could not give any one of them, individually, the right to sue a citizen of the same State in 32 the Courts of the United States; then, on what principle could that right be communicated to them in a body?
 33 But the question is equally unanswerable, if any single member of the corporation is of the same State with 34 the defendant, as has been repeatedly adjudged."
 35 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S. , 22 U.S. 738 (1824); SOURCE: <http://scholar.google...760256043512250>]

36 It may also interest the reader to note that the infamous "Babylon the Great Harlot" found in the Bible book of 37 Revelation specifically defines this HARLOT essentially as a corporation:

38 "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the 39 earth committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her fornication."
 40 [Rev. 17:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

41 "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues.
 42 [Rev. 17:15, Bible, NKJV]

43 These people are "fornicating" with the "beast". The "beast" is defined as the government or civil rulers and 44 "fornication" is legally defined as "commerce". The commerce is government franchises!

45 "And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who 46 sat on the horse and against His army."
 47 [Rev. 19:19, Bible, NKJV]

48 "Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or
 49 inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the
 50 instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it
 51 is carried on..."
 52 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

53 The above group of people is further described in the following scripture:

1                    "My son, if sinners [socialists, in this case] entice you,
2                    Do not consent [do not abuse your power of choice]
3                    If they say, "Come with us,
4                    Let us lie in wait to shed blood [of innocent "nontaxpayers"];
5                    Let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
6                    Let us swallow them alive like Sheol,
7                    And whole, like those who go down to the Pit:
8                    We shall fill our houses with spoil [plunder];
9                    Cast in your lot among us,
10                    Let us all have one purse [share the stolen LOOT]"--

11                    My son, do not walk in the way with them [do not ASSOCIATE with them and don't let the government
12                    FORCE you to associate with them either by forcing you to become a "taxpayer"/government whore or a 13                    "U.S. citizen".
14                    Keep your foot from their path;
15                    For their feet run to evil,
16                    And they make haste to shed blood.
17                    Surely, in vain the net is spread
18                    In the sight of any bird;
19                    But they lie in wait for their own blood.
20                    They lurk secretly for their own lives.
21                    So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain [or unearned government benefits];
22                    It takes away the life of its owners."
23                    [Proverbs 1:10-19, Bible, NKJV]

24                    The Bible also says Christians must come out of Babylon, meaning break every tie, contract, and commercial 25                    relationship with any and every government.

26                    "And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and
27                    lest you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her
28                    iniquities. Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup
29                    which she has mixed, mix double for her. In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the 30                    same measure give her torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will 31                    not see sorrow.' Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be 32                    utterly burned with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her."
33                    [Rev. 18:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

34                    The phrase above "Render to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works" means 35                    Christians should:

- 36                    1. Use the corrupt de facto government's own words and laws against them.
- 37                    2. Use franchises to create and enforce your superiority over them instead of the other way around. See Form #05.030 on 38                    how to do this.
- 39                    3. Use anti-franchises to fight their franchises. See Form #06.027 as an example of how to do this.

40                    The above is exactly what this ministry does, which is why what we do counts as a "religious practice". The 41                    phrase "repay her double" refers back to Exodus 22:7, which says that when a thief is found and convicted, which 42                    in this case is the collectivist government, they shall pay DOUBLE what they STOLE in restitution:

43                    "If a man delivers to his neighbor money or articles to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house, if the thief is 44                    found, he shall pay double."
45                    [Exodus 22:7, Bible, NKJV]

46                    God also said indirectly that leaving Babylon and the collectivist governments that implement it was His main 47                    mission and should be the main mission of Christians. This mission and how to do it is the basis for the story of 48                    Moses and the Israelites, leaving Egypt/Babylon in fact:

49                    "Is this not the fast [act of faith, worship, and OBEDIENCE] that I [God] have chosen [for believers]:
50                    To loose the [legal] bonds of wickedness,
51                    To undo the heavy burdens,
52                    To let the oppressed go free,
53                    And that you break every yoke [franchise, contract, tie, dependency, or "benefit" with the government]?"
54                    [Isaiah 58:6, Bible, NKJV]

1                   "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me,
2                   *Because the Lord has anointed Me
3                   To preach good tidings to the poor;
4                   He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted,
5                   To proclaim liberty to the [government] captives
6                   And the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
7                   To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,
8                   And the day of vengeance of our God;"
9                   [Isaiah 61:1-2, Bible, NKJV]

10 An important purpose of this ministry is to restore PRIVATE property and INDIVIDUALISM and FREEDOM
11 to America by opposing all the above. Opposing the above, in fact, is within our SEDM Mission Statement on 12 the SEDM About Us Page, Section 2 of our website. This document primarily describes the techniques in items
13 3 and 4 above. For more details on collectivism, see:

20 3 Corporate Feudalism has replaced the English Monarchy We Fought a War to Abandon<sup>1</sup>

21 “Commercial Feudalism” describes the evil predicament we find ourselves in now. It’s very simple. We have 22 allowed corporations to act as kings, and they are now doing what kings do to subjects. They are doing this in the 23 name of profits instead of bloodlines, but it is the same system and has the same results as it did in the Dark Ages.

24 Think:

25 Under the auspices of the United Nations, National leaders get together and make more agreements for us. A new 26 treaty or trade agreement---or so they call it. Every time I hear about this, a grim and evil wave of sarcasm washes
27 over me: as if we hadn’t had more than enough treaties already? . .As if any of them were ever honored?

28 The words of crooks are never worth the paper they are printed on, not two hundred years ago, not now, not ever.
29 It’s all deceit:

30 Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud , Form #05.014 31 https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--

32 And calling it a “treaty” doesn’t make it one. In case you forgot, actual sovereign governments make treaties.
33 Corporations do not.

34 Now ask yourselves what does “national leader” mean?

35 It turns out that all these “national leaders” are representing corporations--- not nations of people and not countries.
36 They are deciding the future of CANADA (INC.) and CHINA (INC.), for example, not Canada and China--- but 37 they sanctimoniously and willingly pretend that they have been granted delegated authority to make decisions for 38 the people and the sovereign governments---when in fact they do not. In fact, it is a universal law of contract that 39 you must expressly consent to join a group and delegate authority to its leader to contract on your behalf before any such agreement can be binding on you personally. On this basis alone, the Constitution doesn’t bind anyone, as freedom attorney and founder of libertarianism Lysander Spooner proves in the following:

1 Picture the situation: you have a committee of Robber Barons all getting together with the Pirate King and foisting
2 off their activities as the lawful process of actual sovereign governments --- and the victims are too dumbed down
3 and complacent to realize that they are being cheated out of everything by these corporate suits and charlatans.
4 Here's a description of this Pirate King:

Pirates and Emperors
<http://famguardian1.org/Mirror/SEDM/LibertyU/PiratesAndEmperors.mp4>

5 The UNITED STATES (INC.) is not our government, and neither is the USA (INC.) and neither is THE UNITED 6 STATES OF AMERICA (INC.) and neither is THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT (INC.) and so on and 7 on. Look these fictitious corporations up in Dunn and Bradstreet yourself! Our actual government is not and has 8 never been and can never be incorporated. Period. See section 5 later.

9 So how can this be happening?

10 Pretend that you are an alien from outer space and you are confused. You look around and you see all these huge 11 American corporations so you assume that they represent America, right? Kinda like the alien fellow in the video
12 below:

Government Explained, Larken Rose
<https://youtu.be/EUS1m5MSt9k>

13 In a sense, they do, but in the sense of being our rightful government, they do not. Therein lies the rub. Every 14 real "government" is a combination of a body politic and a body corporate, and the body politic and body corporate 15 cannot overlap and must be separate.

16 Both before and after the time when the Dictionary Act and § 1983 were passed, the phrase "bodies politic and
17 corporate" was understood to include the [governments of the] States. See, e.g., J. Bouvier, 1 A Law Dictionary
18 Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America 185 (11th ed. 1866); W. Shumaker & G.

21 675 (1851) ("Every sovereign State is of necessity a body politic, or artificial person"); Poindexter v. Greenhow,
22 114 U.S. 270, 288, 5 S.Ct. 903, 29 L.Ed. 185 (1885); McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 24, 13 S.Ct. 3, 6, 36
23 L.Ed. 869 (1892); Heim v. McCall, 239 U.S. 175, 188, 36 S.Ct. 78, 82, 60 L.Ed. 206 (1915). See also United
24 States v. Maurice, 2 Brock. 96, 109, 26 F.Cas. 1211 (CC Va.1823) (Marshall, C.J.) ("The United States is a
25 government, and, consequently, a body politic and corporate"); Van Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154,
26 6 S.Ct. 670, 672, 29 L.Ed. 845 (1886) (same). Indeed, the very legislators who passed § 1 referred to States in
27 *these terms. See, e.g., Cong. Globe, 42d Cong., 1st Sess., 661-662 (1871) (Sen. Vickers) ("What is a State? Is *79*
28 it not a body politic and corporate?"); id., at 696 (Sen. Edmunds) ("A State is a corporation").

29 [Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich.,1989)]

30 The foundation of the separation between the body corporate and the body politic is, in fact, the separation between 31 public and private described in the presentation below. If there is no private property, there can be no separation,
32 in which case there is no TRUE de jure government:

Separation Between Public and Private, Form #12.025
<https://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 Today's feudal corporate fiefdoms are only body corporates because the body politic has been assimilated into 34 the body corporate. Everyone is on the government payroll FULL TIME receiving public "benefits" as corporate 35 officers who must obey their "employment agreement", which is the civil statutory code as described in:

1 In a REAL “government” there is absolute separation between the body corporate and the body politic, and that
2 separation only overlaps when citizens serve as jurists and voters and at NO OTHER TIME. If it overlaps more
3 than this, such as by employing franchises such as public offices, then such jurists and voters must recuse
4 themselves because they will have a criminal conflict of interest in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208 and they will
5 violate due process if they rule as a juror in that capacity because of such conflict of interest. Here’s the proof:

31 MARTIN, Chief Justice. In this case the United States appeals from a judgment of the Supreme Court of the
32 District of Columbia, sustaining a plea in abatement and quashing an indictment, upon the ground that one of 33 the members of the grand jury which returned the indictment was disqualified by law.

34 The indictment in question was returned on March 9, 1921. It charged the defendants therein, now the appellees,
35 with a conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce in coal in the District of Columbia. On May 16, 1921, the
36 defendants filed a plea in abatement, alleging and contending that one George H. Van Kirk had served as a
37 member of the grand jury in the finding of the indictment, whereas at that time he was a paid employee of the
38 United States, and consequently was not competent or qualified to act as a grand juror in the case. The defendants
39 averred that they had not learned of these facts until four days before the filing of the plea, and that they thereupon
40 presented it as speedily as could be. The government filed a replication denying these allegations, and issue was
41 joined, whereupon the court sustained the plea, quashed the indictment, and discharged the defendants. From 42 that order the government has appealed.

43 It appears without dispute that for some years prior to July 28, 1920, the grand juror in question was a resident
44 of the District of Columbia, and was employed at an annual salary as a stenographer, typist, and clerk in the War
45 Department of the United States; that on the day named, because of disabilities, he filed with the United States

1 Employees' Compensation Commission an application for disability compensation, under the act of Congress
2 entitled "An act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the
3 performance of their duties, and for other purposes," approved September 7, 1916 (39 Statutes at Large, 742, c.
4 458 [Comp. St. §§ 8932a - 8932uu]); that on October 22, 1920, the commission awarded him disability
5 compensation at the rate of $66.67 per month, being a rate based upon the salary which he was receiving at the
6 time of his disability; and that he was carried at that rate upon the United States employees' disability rolls at 7 and during the time of his service as grand juror in this case.

8 [1.] The act aforesaid provides that the United States shall pay compensation for the disability of an employee
9 resulting from a personal injury sustained while in the performance of duty; that the amount thereof shall be
10 adjusted by the commission according to the monthly pay of the employee; that the commission may, from time
11 to time, require a partially disabled employee to report the wages he is then receiving, and if he refuses to seek
12 suitable work, or refuses or neglects to work after suitable work is offered to him, he shall not be entitled to any
13 compensation; that the commission may determine whether the wage-earning capacity of the disabled employee
14 has decreased on account of old age, irrespective of the injury, and may reduce his disability compensation
15 accordingly; and that at any time, upon its own motion or on an application the commission may review the
16 award, and in accordance with the facts found by it, may end, diminish, or increase the compensation previously
17 awarded.

18 It thus appears that at the time in question the government was paying the juror a monthly stipend as employee's
19 compensation, reserving the authority to control his conduct in certain particulars, and with power to increase,
20 diminish, or terminate the compensation at discretion. In our opinion that relationship, whatever be the technical
21 name which may most narrowly describe it, did in effect constitute the juror an employee of the United States
22 within the sense in which that term is here used.

23 [2] The next question is whether an employee of the government is disqualified under the law to serve as a juror
24 in the District of Columbia. The following sections of the District Code relate to this question, to wit:

25 "Sec. 215. Qualifications. - No person shall be competent to act as a juror unless he be a citizen of the United
26 States, a resident of the District of Columbia, over twenty-one and under sixty-five years of age, able to read and
27 write and to understand the English language, and a good and lawful man, who has never been convicted of a
28 felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude."

29 "Sec. 217. All executive and judicial officers, salaried officers of the government of the United States and of the 30 District of Columbia and those connected with the police or fire departments, counselors and attorneys at law in
31 actual practice, ministers of the gospel and clergymen of every denomination, practicing physicians and surgeons,
32 keepers of hospitals, asylums, alms-houses, or other charitable institutions created by or under the laws relating
33 to the District, captains and masters and other persons employed on vessels navigating the waters of the District
34 shall be exempt from jury duty, and their names shall not be placed on the jury lists."

35 In Crawford v. United States, 212 U.S. 183, 195, 29 S.Ct. 260, 267 (53 L.Ed. 465, 15 Ann.Cas. 392) an accused
36 had been convicted of a crime in the District of Columbia by a petit jury one member of which was at the time a
37 United States postal employee. The accused had challenged the juror for that cause, but the challenge was
38 overruled upon the ground that sections 215 and 217, supra, did not include such relationship within the list of
39 disqualifications. The Supreme Court however held that under the common law of the District independently of
40 those enactments, "one is not a competent juror on a case if he is master, servant, steward, counsellor or attorney
41 of either party." Accordingly the conviction was reversed. The following extract is taken from the opinion in that
42 case, written by Mr. Justice Peckham:

43 "We do not think that section 215 of the Code of the District includes the whole subject of the qualifications of 44 jurors in that District. If that section, together with section 217, were alone to be considered, it might be that the 45 juror was qualified. But, by the common law, a further qualification exists. If that law remains in force in this
46 regard in this District a different decision is called for from that made in this case. The common law in force in
47 Maryland, February 27, 1801, remains in force here, except as the same may be inconsistent with or replaced by
48 some provision of the Code for the District, Code, § 1, c. 1, p. 5. It has not been contended that the common law
49 upon the subject of jurors was not in force in Maryland at the above-named date, or that it did not remain in force
50 here, at least up to the time of the passage of the Code. Jurors must at least have the qualifications mentioned in
51 section 215, but that section does not, in our opinion, so far alter the common law upon the subject as to exclude
52 its rule that one is not a competent juror in a case if he is master, servant, steward, counsellor or attorney of
53 either party. In such case a juror may be challenged for principal cause as an absolute disqualification of the 54 *juror. 3 Blackstone (Cooley's 4th Ed.) p. 363; Block v. State, 100 Indiana, 357, 362. * * * This rule applies as* 55 well to criminal as to civil cases."

56 The foregoing decision is authority for the conclusion that a United States employee is not qualified to serve
57 as a member of the petit jury in the trial of a criminal case in the District of Columbia, and that a challenge
58 seasonably made by the accused upon that ground should be sustained. See also, Miller v. United States, 38
59 App. D.C. 36.

1 [3] The question next arises whether such an employee is likewise disqualified from serving as a grand juror in
2 the District, and whether an accused may present his objections to such a juror by a plea in abatement. In answer
3 to this we may say that in general the term "juror" is held to include alike both petit and grand jurors, and that
4 objections to the qualifications of grand jurors, under circumstances such as these may be made by a plea in
5 abatement. Spencer v. United States, 169 F. 562 565, 95 C. C. A. 60; Williams v. United States (C. C. A.), 275 F.
6 129, 131; Clawson v. United States, 114 U.S. 477, 483, 5 S.Ct. 919, 29 L.Ed. 179; Agnew v. United States. 165
7 U.S. 35, 44, 17 S.Ct. 235, 41 L.Ed. 624; Crowley v. United States, 194 U.S. 461, 24 S.Ct. 731, 48 L.Ed. 1075.

8 In Clawson v. United States, supra, a case arising in the then territory of Utah, the Supreme Court considered
9 section 5 of the Act of Congress of March 22, 1882, 22 Stat. 30 (Comp. St. § 1265), which provides "that in any
10 prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, it shall be
11 sufficient cause of challenge to any person drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman, * * * that he believes
12 it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at the same time." It was held that the terms
13 "juryman or talesman" included both grand and petit jurors. The following extract is taken from the opinion by 14 Mr. Justice Blatchford in that case:

15 "It is also urged that § 5 does not apply to grand jurors. The language is, 'any person drawn or summoned as a
16 juryman or talesman'—'any person appearing or offered as a juror or talesman.' In view of the fact that by
17 section 4 of the Act of June 23, 1874, both grand jurors and petit jurors are to be drawn from the box containing
18 the two hundred names, and are to be summoned under venire, and are to constitute the regular grand and petit
19 juries for the term, and of the further fact that the persons to be challenged and excluded are persons not likely
20 to find indictments for the offenses named in section 5, we cannot doubt that the words 'juryman' and 'juror'
21 include a grand juror as well as a petit juror. There is as much ground for holding that it includes the former
22 alone, as the latter alone, if it is to include but one. It must, include one at least, and we think it includes both.
23 The purpose and reason of the section include the grand juror; and there is nothing in the language repugnant
24 to such view. The use of the words 'drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman,' and of the words 'appearing
25 or offered as a juror or talesman,' does not have the effect of confining the meaning of 'juror' to 'petit juror,' on
26 the view that the ordinary meaning of 'talesman' refers to a petit juror. A grand juror is a juryman and a juror,
27 and is drawn and summoned, and it might well have been thought wisest to mention a 'tales-man' specifically,
28 lest the words 'juryman' and 'juror' might be supposed not to include him."

29 It may be noted that sections 198, 199, 203, 204, 215, 216, and 217 of the District Code, providing for the drawing
30 and selection of "jurors" all apply alike to grand and petit jurors. In Crowley v. United States, supra, it was held
31 by the Supreme Court that an objection by plea in abatement, before the arraignment of the accused, to an
32 indictment on the ground that some of the grand jurors were disqualified by law, was in due time, and was made
33 in a proper way, and also that the disqualification of a grand juror prescribed by statute is a matter of substance,
34 which cannot be regarded as a mere defect or imperfection, within the meaning of section 1025, Rev. Stat. (Comp.
35 St. § 1691). The latter statement likewise applies to a disqualification like this under the common law.

36 In our opinion, therefore, the trial court rightly sustained the plea in abatement, and its judgment is affirmed.

37 [United States v. Griffith et al., 55 App.D.C. 123, 2 F.2d. 925 (1924)]

38 In a feudal system there is a King who extracts labor and money from his subjects to run the kingdom. In the 39 realm of commercial or corporate feudalism, the parent corporation extracts money and labor from its franchisees
40 to run the operation and pay all the taxes needed to subsidize Uncle's perks. There is no practical difference.

41 Corporations force their workers to become the MAIN source of income tax revenue by forcing them to fill out a
42 W-4. They have turned the right to support yourself into a government privilege so they could deflect their portion 43 of the "fair share" that supports all the subsidies and perks they receive from the government. They essentially
44 forced all their workers to become "Kelly Girl" temps leased out from Uncle Sam using the W-4 so they don't 45 have to manage or fund their retirement directly. At that point, they become merely farm animals leased from 46 Uncle's plantation called "human resources". What's wrong with calling them merely "men or women" or 47 PEOPLE? That's too dignified for farm animals.

48 The various Presidents and CEOs are elected instead of inheriting their office, but so what? Once in office they 49 act as kings and queens: name their nobles as senior vice-presidents, secretaries of this and that, district managers,
50 and partners, establish corporate "policies" as laws, form alliances with some companies, declare "war" on others,
51 and most importantly for this discussion --- tax, traffic, obligate, and parasitize their employees to gain their 52 objectives.

53 This may somewhat be condoned as it applies to actual employees, as the actual employees have knowingly and 54 voluntarily agreed to exchange their rights for benefits and have sold their time on Earth for a price---but what

1 about the serfs? ---people who don't get a paycheck from the corporation and who are simply bullied into giving
2 time and money to the corporation as a result of racketeering and extortion by bands of paid thugs? They are
3 "employees" and officers of the public corporation without even knowing it, in most cases. The SSN and the TIN
4 is their franchise license number and "employee" number, in fact. The Federal Trade Commission calls these a 5 "franchise mark":

6 *"A franchise entails the right to operate a business that is "identified or associated with the franchisor's
7 trademark, or to offer, sell, or distribute goods, services, or commodities that are identified or associated with
8 the franchisor's trademark." The term "trademark" is intended to be read broadly to cover not only trademarks,
9 but any service mark, trade name, or other advertising or commercial symbol. This is generally referred to as the 10 "trademark" or "mark" element.*

11 The franchisor [the government] need not own the mark itself, but at the very least must have the right to
12 license the use of the mark to others. Indeed, the right to use the franchisor's mark in the operation of the
13 business - either by selling goods or performing services identified with the mark or by using the mark, in
14 whole or in part, in the business' name - is an integral part of franchising. In fact, a supplier can avoid Rule
15 coverage of a particular distribution arrangement by expressly prohibiting the distributor from using its mark."

18 IRS Agents or Inquisitors. Flip a coin. It's the same system. It functions in exactly the same way.

19 The same unbridled, lawless, uncontrolled lusts for power and money that drove the feudal European Monarchies
20 have been carried forward globally by corporations today, to create their own form of feudalism.

21 And we, the people and actual governments that allegedly charter these organizations as our delegated agents are 22 being enslaved, just as the serfs were enslaved--- only worse. The servant has become the master and taken over 23 the house and sent its master out to live in the barn with the animals.

24 The most abused serfs in Europe during the Middle Ages gave up 25% of the value of their labor and time to the 25 King. Today, it is not uncommon for people to be taxed over 60% of their labor and time to support various levels
26 and layers of incorporated government--- and the perpetrators who benefit from this system tell us that this is 27 "voluntary" while they put their boots to our throats, press-gang us into military service, steal our identities and 28 traffic our children as industrial products of sweat labor contracts. Here's an example of the deceitful hype they 29 use to sell such as system:

30 They have even gone so far as to proclaim that we have no private rights at all. And no ability to absolutely own
31 private property. And that we are incompetent. In effect, all constitutional rights have been replaced by statutory 32 privileges incident to franchises where the choice of law has been shifted to federal territory to take you away
33 from the protections of the Constitution. This is just as the U.S. Supreme Court predicted:

34 "I take leave to say that, if the principles thus announced should ever receive the sanction of a majority of this
35 court, a radical and mischievous change in our system of government will result. We will, in that event, pass

7 By any rational standard, these people are criminals. Al Capone would blush.

8 But hey, if you are content to be a mindless serf in a feudal system, the modern corporations are well on their way
9 to creating a seamless program of indoctrination and “life-cycle harvesting” ---their exact words--- designed to 10 make false commercial claims against you and your natural assets from the moment of your conception.

23 [Pierre-Joseph Proudhon (born A. D. 1809 - died A. D. 1865)]

24 Let’s give you just one simple and old (circa 1700) example of this organized criminality and the reason they want 25 to kill billions of people now.

26 Once they have glommed onto your Given Name and created a franchise and public office for themselves named
27 after you, they issue bonds based on the estimated value of your lifetime labor and estate. They deposit these 28 bonds with the Depository Trust Corporation which then issues the credit to the perpetrators. At the same time,
29 they take out million dollar life insurance policies on their new chattel. They in effect have created as “straw
30 man” public office using compelled W-4 withholding and have made it and the human behind it into involuntary
31 surety for it and all public debt. If you aren’t smart enough to know the W-4 form is the WRONG withholding
32 form for a PRIVATE man or woman and that most information returns such as the W-2 are FALSE then a cage
33 is reserved for you on the government plantation. Lower life forms must live in government cages because they 34 are incapable of functioning on their own or governing their own lives. The cage is a legal one called a franchise.

35 This whole government farm scheme using corporate feudalism to recruit the farm animals is criminal “human 36 trafficking”. In Supreme Court parlance, this it is called “peonage” and it’s a CRIME under 18 U.S.C. §1581 and
37 42 U.S.C. §1994:

38 “The constitutionality and scope of sections 1990 and 5526 present the first questions for our consideration.
39 They prohibit peonage. What is peonage? It may be defined as a state or condition of compulsory service,
40 based upon the indebtedness of the peon to the master. The basal fact is indebtedness. As said by Judge
41 Benedict, delivering the opinion in Jaramillo v. Romero, 1 N.Mex. 190, 194: ‘One fact existed universally; all
42 were indebted to their masters. This was the cord by which they seemed bound to their masters’ service.’ Upon 43 this is based a condition of compulsory service. Peonage is sometimes classified as voluntary or involuntary,
44 but this implies simply a difference in the mode of origin, but not in the character of the servitude. The one
45 exists where the debtor voluntarily contracts to enter the service of his creditor. The other is forced upon the 46 debtor by some provision of law. But peonage, however created, is compulsory service, involuntary servitude.
47 The peon can release himself therefrom, it is true, by the payment of the debt, but otherwise the service is

1 enforced. A clear distinction exists between peonage and the voluntary performance of labor or rendering of
2 services in payment of a debt. In the latter case the debtor, though contracting to pay his indebtedness by labor
3 or service, and subject like any other contractor to an action for damages for breach of that contract, can elect
4 at any time to break it, and no law or force compels performance or continuance of the service.”
5 [Clyatt v. U.S., 197 U.S. 207 (1905)]

6 “That it does not conflict with the Thirteenth Amendment, which abolished slavery and involuntary servitude,
7 except as a punishment for crime, is too clear for argument. Slavery implies involuntary servitude—a state of 8 bondage; the ownership of mankind as a chattel, or at least the control of the labor and services of one man for 9 the benefit of another, and the absence of a legal right to the disposal of his own person, property, and services
10 [in their entirety]. This amendment was said in the Slaughter House Cases, 16 Wall, 36, to have been intended
11 primarily to abolish slavery, as it had been previously known in this country, and that it equally forbade Mexican 12 peonage or the Chinese coolie trade, when they amounted to slavery or involuntary servitude and that the use of 13 the word ‘servitude’ was intended to prohibit the use of all forms of involuntary slavery, of whatever class or 14 name.”
15 [Plessy v. Ferguson, 163 U.S. 537, 542 (1896)]

16 See the schtick now? They just pledged your lifetime earnings and the value of whatever assets you might own to 17 investors ---and got paid for selling an interest in “YOU”--- and then they turned around and set up a life insurance
18 policy on “YOU”. See:

19 Talk about a safe bet, no? When you die, they are guaranteed to make back the bond amount plus a tidy profit.
20 And if you die sooner, they turn their profit sooner. That’s why the emphasis on infanticide and baby killing.

21 Not only that, if they kill their Priority Creditors they don’t have to pay back what they already owe to them, get 22 to claim all the “abandoned” assets left behind by the victims of whatever economic Holocaust they unleash, and,
23 they get to charge all their expenses off onto the survivors – as payment owed for the service of killing everyone.
24 In political terms, this is called “socializing the risk and privatizing the reward”.

25 Of course, according to them, there is always some noble purpose involved in this filthy business, and just as 26 predictably, there never is. Instead, they are at war with the God and His law, just as the book of Revelation
27 describes them:

28 “And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who 29 sat on the horse and against His army.”
30 [Rev. 19:19, Bible, NKJV]

31 Now the criminals responsible for these vile practices and evil circumstances are throwing fits and making threats,
32 as their plans have failed and all their aims have gone astray. They are going to destroy the world, they brag, as 33 if this were something notable and good---or even anything different from all that they’ve ever done. They have 34 created a dastardly Matrix to entrap everyone, which is described below:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P772Eb63qIY&>

35 The U.S. Supreme Court calls this Matrix a “springe” in Green v. Brennan, 136 S.Ct. 1769 (2016). The Bible
36 predicted this Matrix as follows:

37 *‘For among My [God’s] people are found wicked [covetous public servant] men; They lie in wait as one who 38 sets snares; They set a trap; They catch men. As a cage is full of birds, So their houses are full of deceit.
39 Therefore they have become great and grown rich. They have grown fat, they are sleek; Yes, they surpass the 40 *deeds of the wicked; They do not plead the cause, The cause of the fatherless [or the innocent, widows, or the 41 nontaxpayer]; Yet they prosper, And the right of the needy they do not defend. Shall I not punish them for these 42 things?’ says the Lord. ‘Shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?’

1 “An astonishing and horrible thing Has been committed in the land: The prophets prophesy falsely, And the
2 priests [judges in franchise courts that worship government as a pagan deity] rule by their own power; And
3 My people love to have it so. But what will you do in the end?”
4 [Jer. 5:26-31, Bible, NKJV]

5 No matter what they say, the horrors of Corporate Feudalism will not be allowed: the Lion of Judah stands in their
6 way and the Kingdom of Heaven has come, so they must flee like empty shadows and soon they will be gone.
7 The emissaries of Jesus are here to flip over the tables of the money changers set up in civic temple is Washington,
8 D.C., just as their boss did 2,000 years ago. The “D.C.” in “Washington, D.C.” has become what Mark Twain
9 called “the District of Criminals”.

10 As long as the animals on the government plantation are kept legally ignorant and distracted with sin, gadgets,
11 video games, pornography, television, sports, and what the Romans called “the bread and circus”, then they will 12 never be able to rattle or leave their cage.

18 The Narrow Way

19 “Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many 20 who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who

22 [Matt. 7:13-14, Bible, NKJV]

23 4 Being a federal corporation is the ONLY way provided in federal statutes to transition from 24 being legislatively “foreign” to “domestic”

25 The definitions found within the Internal Revenue Code and the rules of statutory construction betray the fact that 26 the only way to be “domestic” in relation to the national government is to be national corporation registered in the 27 District of Columbia.

28 26 U.S. Code § 7701 - Definitions

29 (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent
30 thereof—

31 (3) Corporation

1 The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

2 (4) Domestic

3 The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United
4 States or under the law of the United States or of any State unless, in the case of a partnership, the Secretary
5 provides otherwise by regulations.

6 (5) Foreign

7 The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is 8 not domestic.

9 The rules of statutory construction forbid extending the statutory term defined above to include anything OTHER
10 than that defined above, including PRIVATE human beings. Therefore, the ONLY thing "domestic" are national 11 corporations. All human beings are therefore FOREIGN for legislative purposes.

12 "When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's
13 ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition
14 of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a
15 rule, a definition which declares what a term "means" . . . excludes any meaning that is not stated"); Western
16 Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945); Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96
17 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152,
18 and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S.
19 943] (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney
20 General's restriction -- "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
21 [Stenberg v. Carhart, 530 U.S. 914 (2000)]

22 "Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one
23 thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles,
24 170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or
25 things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be
26 inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects
27 of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded."
28 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

29 Everything that is either NOT a corporation or NOT registered in the District of Columbia as a national corporation
30 is therefore legislatively "foreign" for the purpose of the Internal Revenue Code. This is also consistent with the 31 fact that "income" is defined in the Internal Revenue Code and by the U.S. Supreme Court as profit in connection 32 with a federal corporation or business trust.

33 "The Sixteenth Amendment declares that Congress shall have power to levy and collect taxes on income, "from 34 [271 U.S. 174] whatever source derived," without apportionment among the several states and without regard to 35 any census or enumeration. It was not the purpose or effect of that amendment to bring any new subject within 36 the taxing power. Congress already had power to tax all incomes. But taxes on incomes from some sources had 37 been held to be "direct taxes" within the meaning of the constitutional requirement as to apportionment. Art. 1, §
38 2, cl. 3, § 9, cl. 4; Pollock v. Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., 158 U.S. 601. The Amendment relieved from that 39 requirement, and obliterated the distinction in that respect between taxes on income that are direct taxes and 40 those that are not, and so put on the same basis all incomes "from whatever source derived." Brushaber v. Union
41 P. R. Co., 240 U.S. 1, 17. "Income" has been taken to mean the same thing as used in the Corporation Excise
42 Tax Act of 1909, in the Sixteenth Amendment, and in the various revenue acts subsequently passed. Southern 43 Pacific Co. v. Lowe, 247 U.S. 330, 335; Merchants' L. & T. Co. v. Smietanka, 255 U.S. 509, 219. After full
44 consideration, this Court declared that income may be defined as gain derived from capital, from labor, or 45 from both combined, including profit gained through sale or conversion of capital. Stratton's Independence v.
46 Howbert, 231 U.S. 399, 415; Doyle v. Mitchell Brothers Co., 247 U.S. 179, 185; Eisner v. Macomber, 252 U.S.
47 189, 207. And that definition has been adhered to and applied repeatedly. See, e.g., Merchants' L. & T. Co. v.
48 Smietanka, supra; 518; Goodrich v. Edwards, 255 U.S. 527, 535; United States v. Phellis, 257 U.S. 156, 169;

2 (b) Income

3 For purposes of this subpart and subparts B, C, and D, the term “income”, when not preceded by the words
4 “taxable”, “distributable net”, “undistributed net”, or “gross”, means the amount of income of the estate or
5 trust for the taxable year determined under the terms of the governing instrument and applicable local law.
6 Items of gross income constituting extraordinary dividends or taxable stock dividends which the fiduciary, acting
7 in good faith, determines to be allocable to corpus under the terms of the governing instrument and applicable
8 local law shall not be considered income.

9 That “trust” described above in turn is ONLY a PUBLIC trust, meaning the “United States corporation”. The 10 definition of “person” within the Internal Revenue Code confirm this:

19 Sec. 7343. - Definition of term "person"

20 The term "person" as used in this chapter [Chapter 75] includes an officer or employee of a corporation [U.S.
21 Inc.], or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to 22 perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs

23 The PRIVILEGE of exercising the “functions of a public office” is the PRIVILEGE being taxed. That “privilege”
24 is legally defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as a “trade or business”:

25 “As repeatedly pointed out by this court, the Corporation Tax Law of 1909..imposed an excise or privilege tax,
26 and not in any sense, a tax upon property or upon income merely as income. It was enacted in view of the 27 decision of Pollock v. Farmer’s Loan & T. Co., 157 U.S. 429, 29 L.Ed. 759, 15 Sup.St.Rep. 673, 158 U.S. 601, 39
28 L.Ed. 1108, 15 Sup.Ct.Rep. 912, which held the income tax provisions of a previous law to be unconstitutional
29 because amounting in effect to a direct tax upon property within the meaning of the Constitution, and because 30 not apportioned in the manner required by that instrument.”
31 [U.S. v. Whiteridge, 231 U.S. 144, 34 S.Sup. Ct. 24 \(1913\)]

32 Congress can only tax or regulate what it creates, and it didn’t create you. Corporations and offices within the 33 government in fact are the only legal “persons” they can lawfully create and therefore tax. This is explained in:

Hierarchy of Sovereignty: The Power to Create Is The Power To Tax, Family Guardian Fellowship
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Remedies/PowerToCreate.htm>

34 Everything the government DIDN’T create is therefore PRIVATE and legislatively FOREIGN. The U.S.
35 Supreme Court confirmed that the tax is upon AGENCY as a PUBLIC OFFICE in the national government when 36 they held that the tax can lawfully extend ONLY where the government itself extends, but no further.

37 “Loughborough v. Blake, 5 Wheat. 317, 5 L.Ed. 98, was an action of trespass or, as appears by the original
38 record, replevin, brought in the circuit court for the District of Columbia to try the right of Congress to impose a
39 direct tax for general purposes on that District. 3 Stat. at L. 216, chap. 60. It was insisted that Congress could 40 act in a double capacity: in one as legislating [182 U.S. 244, 260] for the states; in the other as a local legislature
41 for the District of Columbia. In the latter character, it was admitted that the power of levying direct taxes might 42 be exercised, but for District purposes only, as a state legislature might tax for state purposes; but that it could 43 not legislate for the District under art. 1, 8, giving to Congress the power 'to lay and collect taxes, imposts, and
44 excises,' which 'shall be uniform throughout the United States,' inasmuch as the District was no part of the 45 United States [described in the Constitution]. It was held that the grant of this power was a general one without 46 limitation as to place, and consequently extended to all places over which the government extends; and that it

1 extended to the District of Columbia as a constituent part of the United States. The fact that art. 1, 2, declares
2 that 'representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states . . . according to their
3 respective numbers' furnished a standard by which taxes were apportioned, but not to exempt any part of the 4 country from their operation. 'The words used do not mean that direct taxes shall be imposed on states only which 5 are represented, or shall be apportioned to representatives; but that direct taxation, in its application to states,
6 shall be apportioned to numbers.' That art. 1, 9, 4, declaring that direct taxes shall be laid in proportion to the 7 census, was applicable to the District of Columbia, 'and will enable Congress to apportion on it its just and equal
8 share of the burden, with the same accuracy as on the respective states. If the tax be laid in this proportion, it is 9 within the very words of the restriction. It is a tax in proportion to the census or enumeration referred to.' It was 10 further held that the words of the 9th section did not 'in terms require that the system of direct taxation, when 11 resorted to, shall be extended to the territories, as the words of the 2d section require that it shall be extended to 12 all the states. They therefore may, without violence, be understood to give a rule when the territories shall be 13 taxed, without imposing the necessity of taxing them.'"
14 Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

15 The phrase "extended to all places over which the government extends" means where the OFFICES and therefore 16 STATUTORY "persons" of the government extend. Those offices, as indicated above, can be exercised
17 ANYWHERE, but Congress MUST EXPRESSLY authorize their exercise in a SPECIFIC geographic place and 18 cause those exercising it to take an oath, as required by 4 U.S.C. §72 and 5 U.S.C. §3331 respectively. Those 19 offices, in turn, are "officers of a corporation" because the government itself is a corporation as held by the U.S.
20 Supreme Court:

21 "Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created by
22 usage and common consent, or grants and charters which create a body politic for prescribed purposes; but
23 whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise of
24 power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the 25 instrument by which the incorporation is made. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is
26 a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all
27 persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 Inst.
28 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same footing
29 of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect that of
30 individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law, is a
31 principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the federal 32 government, by the amendments to the constitution."

40 (15) "United States" means -
41 (A) a Federal corporation;
42 (B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or 43 (C) an instrumentality of the United States.

44 5 The Founding Fathers rejected the idea of a government that is a corporate franchise<sup>2</sup>

45 As already explained, the Framers enumerated the power "To coin Money" among the "legislative" powers of 46 Congress because that power originally had been part of the English King's "executive" prerogative.<sup>3</sup> So, too, 47 had been the power of incorporation. As Blackstone wrote, because "[t]he king * * * the fountain of honour, of 48 office, and of privilege", "the king has * * * the prerogative of conferring privileges on private persons", including 49 "the prerogative of erecting corporations; whereby a number of private persons are united and knit together, and
50 enjoy many liberties, powers, and immunities in their political capacity which they were utterly incapable of in 51 their natural".<sup>4</sup> Further, "the king's consent is absolutely necessary to the erection of any corporation, either

1                   The methods by which the king's consent is expressly given, are either by act of parliament or charter. By act of
2 parliament, of which the royal assent is a necessary ingredient, corporations may undoubtedly be created: but it
3 is observable, that most of these statutes, which are usually cited as having created corporations, do either
4 *confirm such as have been created by the king * * * or, they permit the king to erect a corporation in future * **
5 \ as is the case of the bank of England * * *. So the immediate creative act is usually performed by the king*
6 alone, in virtue of his royal prerogative.<sup>5</sup>

7 Blackstone noted that “[t]he parliament * * * by its absolute and transcendent authority, may perform this [i.e., an 8 act of incorporation] * * * and actually did perform it to a great extent” in the cases of “hospitals and houses of 9 correction founded by charitable persons” and “in other cases of charitable foundations. But otherwise it has not 10 formerly been usual thus to entrench upon the prerogative of the crown, and the king may prevent it when he 11 pleases.”<sup>6</sup> Thus, the power to incorporate under English law was not, or at least not exclusively, “legislative”
12 power. For, even when a corporate charter found its genesis in an actual Act of Parliament, as with any other
13 statute it nevertheless needed the “royal assent [as] a necessary ingredient”.<sup>7</sup>

14 Therefore, had the Framers desired to include a power to incorporate among the “legislative” powers of Congress
15 under Article I of the Constitution, they would have had to exclude that power by implication from the “executive”
16 powers of the President in Article II by explicitly enumerating it in Article I, just as they did with the power “To 17 coin Money”. Moreover, they would also have had explicitly to prohibit any exercise of that power by the 18 President—because, under the historic English law, even if a corporation received its charter by Act of Parliament,
19 “the king may prevent it when he pleases”. That is, if Congress received the power to incorporate only by an 20 implied grant under the Necessary and Proper Clause,<sup>8</sup> as the Supreme Court later held in McCulloch v.
21 Maryland,<sup>9</sup> then arguably the President retained an implied negative power over legislative incorporations in his 22 general “executive Power”<sup>10</sup>—a power of disallowance going beyond his normal power to veto other kinds of 23 legislation.

24 After Colonies’ Declaration of Independence from Britain, no power of incorporation appeared in the Articles of 25 Confederation. Notwithstanding that, Congress incorporated the Bank of North America. In McCulloch, 26 however, Chief Justice Marshall recognized that, “[u]nder the confederation, Congress, justifying the measure by 27 its necessity, transcended perhaps its powers to obtain the advantage of a bank”.<sup>11</sup> In the States, the power was 28 apparently often deemed “legislative”, rather than “executive” (although on what ground, given the antecedent
29 English law, is unclear).<sup>12</sup> But, even had the power somehow been transformed into a purely “legislative” one
30 there, it had not automatically and sub silentio pass to Congress on ratification of the Constitution, because Article
31 I states that only “[a]ll legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in * * * Congress”,<sup>13</sup> not all conceivable
32 “legislative Powers”. And the power to incorporate nowhere appears in haec verba in the Constitution.

33 Conceivably, the absence of an enumerated Congressional power to incorporate stemmed from the notion that,
34 because the power of incorporation as exercised by the King had been a power of dispensing with the common
35 law in favor of corporators, and because an implied “dispensing” power in the “executive Power” was inconsistent
36 with the President’s duty to “take Care that the Laws be faithfully executed”,<sup>14</sup> the power to incorporate need not

1 have been enumerated.<sup>15</sup> This argument, however, is doubly defective. First, at most of it contends only (but does
2 not, of course, prove) that the President’s implied “executive Power” to incorporate was negated. It does not even
3 assert, however, that the President’s implied “executive Power” to prevent incorporation was extinguished. For 4 the power to prevent incorporation could in some cases be seen as a power “faithfully [to] executive] ]” the 5 “Laws”- for instance, where Congress attempted to create a corporation with monopoly powers, in violation of 6 the Constitution’s limitation on grants and monopolies.

7 Second, this argument overlooks how, in the Federal Convention, the Framers actually considered, but rejected, a
8 Congressional power of incorporation. The power was proposed in two forms: “To grant charters of incorporation
9 in cases where the public good may require them, and the authority of a single State may be incompetent”, and 10 simply “To grant charters of incorporation”,<sup>16</sup> Working on the Committee of Style’s proposed draft of the 11 Constitution, which included no such power:

12 Doc. Franklin moved to add after the words “post roads” Art. I, Section 8. “a power to provide for cutting canals 13 where deemed necessary”

14 Mr Wilson [seconded] the motion.

15 Mr Sherman objected. The expence in such cases will fall on the U. States, and the benefit accrue to the places 16 where the canals may be cut.

17 Mr Wilson. Instead of being an expence to the U.S. they may be made a source of revenue.

18 Mr Madison suggested an enlargement of the motion into a power “to grant charters of incorporation where the 19 interest of the U.S. might require & the legislative provisions of individual States may be incompetent.” His 20 primary object was however to secure an easy communication between the States which the free intercourse now
21 to be opened, seemed to call for. The political obstacles being removed, a removal of the natural ones as far as 22 possible ought to follow. Mr Randolph [seconded] the proposition.

23 Mr King thought the power unnecessary.

25 Mr. King. The States will be prejudiced and divided into parties by it. In Philad[elphia] & New York, It will be 26 referred to the establishment of a Bank, which has been a subject of contention in those Cities. In other places, 27 it will be referred to mercantile monopolies.

28 Mr. Wilson mentioned the importance of facilitating by canals, the communication with the Western Settlements.
29 As to Banks he did not think with Mr. King that the Power in that point of view would excite the prejudices &
30 parties apprehended. As to mercantile monopolies they are already included in the power to regulate trade.

31 Col: Mason was for limiting the power to the single case of Canals. He was afraid of monopolies of every sort,
32 which he did not think were by any means already implied by the Constitution as supposed by Mr. Wilson.

33 The motions being so modified as to admit a distinct question specifying & limited to the case of canals, N[ew]
34 H[ampshire] no. Mas[sachusetts] no. C[onnecticut] no. N[ew] J[ersey] no. P[ennsylvania] ay. Del[aware]
35 no. M[aryland] no. V[irginia] ay. N[orth] C[arolina] no. S[outh] C[arolina] no. Geo[rgia] ay.

36 The other part fell of course, as including the power rejected.<sup>17</sup>

37 Interestingly in this debate, neither James Wilson (a proponent of a Congressional power of incorporation) nor 38 anyone else said that a general power of incorporation, or a specific power to incorporate a bank, was already 39 included, explicitly or by implication, in some other power the Constitution granted. Quite the contrary: Rufus
40 King opposed adding a power of incorporation precisely because “[i]t will be referred to the establishment of a

1 Bank” and to “mercantile monopolies”. Wilson replied that “the power in that point of view”—that is, the power
2 granted under James Madison’s motion as applied specifically to banks—“would excite the prejudices & parties
3 apprehended”. So, Wilson apparently believed that a new power, not already included in the Constitution, was 4 necessary for incorporation “in that point of view”. George Mason denied that the power to create “mercantile
5 monopolies” other than banks was implied, as Wilson argued, in the power “to regulate trade”. And even Wilson’s
6 position was equivocal. For he supported Benjamin Franklin’s and James Madison’s motions with an eye towards 7 the creation of canals, thereby evidencing his disbelief that, without the powers one of those motions proposed,
8 Congress would be unable to create canals. Yet, obviously, a canal in any particular place would almost certainly
9 be, in a practical if not a strictly legal sense, a “mercantile monopol[y]”—which, according to Wilson Congress
10 supposedly could authorize under the power “to regulate trade”.

11 The short of it all was that several proposals to empower Congress to incorporate were put forward—and the 12 Framers disapproved every one. That the proposals were advanced at all evidences their proponent’s belief,
13 correct in light of the standing Anglo-American law, that they were necessary, either to incorporate canals or 14 banks, or to incorporate a “mercantile monopol[y]”. And that the proposals were voted down proves that the 15 Constitution contains no authority, express or implied, for Congress to incorporate in general, or specifically to 16 incorporate banks. These conclusions are confirmed by the U.S. Supreme Court in the Legal Tender Cases as 17 follows:

18 “And after the first clause of the tenth section of the first article had been reported in the form in which it now
19 stands, forbidding the states to make anything but gold or silver coin a tender in payment of debts, or to pass
20 **444 any law impairing the obligation of contracts, when Mr. Gerry, as reported by Mr. Madison, ‘entered into* 21 observations inculcating the importance of public faith, and the propriety of the restraint put on the states from
22 impairing the obligation of contracts; alleging that congress ought to be laid under the like prohibitions;’ and
23 *made a motion to **128 that effect; he was not seconded. Id. 546. As an illustration of the danger of giving too*
24 much weight, upon such a question, to the debates and the votes in the convention, it may also be observed that 25 propositions to authorize congress to grant charters of incorporation for national objects were strongly 26 opposed, especially as regarded banks, and defeated. Id. 440, 543, 544.”
27 [Legal Tender Cases, 110 U.S. 421, 443-444, 4 S.Ct. 122 (1884)]

28 The most complete treatment of the power of the government to create corporations is found in the U.S. Supreme 29 Court case of M’Culloch v. State, 17 U.S. 316, 1819 WL 2135 (U.S.,1819). In that case, the following about the 30 authority of Congress to establish corporations:

- 31 1. The power to create corporations is nowhere expressly conferred within the United States Constitution.
- 32 2. The power is implied within the “necessary and proper” clauses of the constitution.
- 33 3. The power is regularly exercised by the state governments both before and after the Constitution was ratified and also is 34 not mentioned in the state constitutions ratified before the federal constitution was ratified either.

35 Below is a concise excerpt from the above case explaining why the court believed that the U.S. government had 36 the right to create corporations:

37 It is objected, that this act creates a corporation; which, being an exercise of a fundamental power of 38 sovereignty, can only be claimed by congress, under their grant of specific powers. But to have enumerated the 39 power of establishing corporations, among the specific powers of congress, would have been to change the 40 whole plan of the constitution; to destroy its simplicity, and load it with all the complex details of a code of 41 private jurisprudence. The power of establishing corporations is not one of the ends of government; it is only a
42 *class of means for accomplishing its ends. An enumeration *358 of this particular class of means, omitting all*
43 others, would have been a useless anomaly in the constitution. It is admitted, that this is an act to sovereignty,
44 and so is any other law; if the authority of establishing corporations be a sovereign power, the United States are 45 sovereign, as to all the powers specifically given to their government, and as to all others necessary and proper
46 to carry into effect those specified. If the power of chartering a corporation be necessary and proper for this 47 purpose, congress has it to an extent as ample as any other sovereign legislature. Any government of limited
48 sovereignty can create corporations only with reference to the limited powers that government possesses. The 49 inquiry then reverts, whether the power of incorporating a banking company, be a necessary and proper means
50 of executing the specific powers of the national government. The immense powers incontestably given, show that 51 there was a disposition, on the part of the people, to give ample means to carry those powers into effect. A state
52 can create a corporation, in virtue of its sovereignty, without any specific authority for that purpose, conferred
53 in the state constitutions. The United States are sovereign as to certain specific objects, and may, therefore,
54 erect a corporation for the purpose of effecting those objects. If the incorporating power had been expressly

1 granted as an end, it would have conferred a power not intended; if granted as a means, it would have conferred
2 nothing more than was before given by necessary implication.

3 Nor does the rule of interpretation we contend for, sanction any usurpation, on the part of the national 4 government; since, if the argument be, that the *359 implied powers of the constitution may be assumed and
5 exercised, for purposes not really connected with the powers specifically granted, under color of some imaginary
6 relation between them, the answer is, that this is nothing more than arguing from the abuse of constitutional
7 powers, which would equally apply against the use of those that are confessedly granted to the national 8 government; that the danger of the abuse will be checked by the judicial department, which, by comparing the 9 means with the proposed end, will decide, whether the connection is real, or assumed as the pretext for the 10 usurpation of powers not belonging to the government; and that, whatever may be the magnitude of the danger
11 from this quarter, it is not equal to that of annihilating the powers of the government, to which the opposite 12 doctrine would inevitably tend.

13 [ . . . ]

14 The state powers are much less in point of magnitude, though greater in number; yet it is supposed, the states
15 possess the authority of establishing corporations, whilst it is denied to the general government. It is conceded
16 to the state legislatures, though not specifically granted, because it is said to be an incident of state sovereignty;
17 but it *383 is refused to congress, because it is not specifically granted, though it may be necessary and proper
18 to execute the powers which are specifically granted. But the authority of legislation in the state government is 19 not unlimited; there are several limitations to their legislative authority. First, from the nature of all government, 20 especially, of republican government, in which the residuary powers of sovereignty, not granted specifically, by 21 inevitable implication, are reserved to the people. Secondly, from the express limitations contained in the state
22 constitutions. And thirdly, from the express prohibitions to the states contained in the United States constitution.
23 The power of erecting corporations is nowhere expressly granted to the legislatures of the states in their 24 constitutions; it is taken by necessary implication: but it cannot be exercised to accomplish any of the ends
25 which are beyond the sphere of their constitutional authority. The power of erecting corporations is not an end
26 of any government; it is a necessary means of accomplishing the ends of all governments. It is an authority 27 inherent in, and incident to, all sovereignty.

28 **23 The history of corporations will illustrate this position. They were transplanted from the Roman law into 29 the common law of England, and all the municipal codes of modern Europe. From England, they were derived to 30 this country. But in the civil law, a corporation could be created by a mere voluntary association of individuals.
31 1 Bl. Com. 471. And in England, the authority of parliament *384 is not necessary to create a corporate body.
32 The king may do it, and may communicate his power to a subject (1 Bl. Com. 474), so little is this regarded as a
33 transcendent power of sovereignty, in the British constitution. So also, in our constitution, it ought to be regarded 34 as but a subordinate power to carry into effect the great objects of government. The state governments cannot 35 establish corporations to carry into effect the national powers given to congress, nor can congress create 36 corporations to execute the peculiar duties of the state governments. But so much of the power or faculty of 37 incorporation as concerns national objects has passed away from the state legislatures, and is vested in the 38 national government. An act of incorporation is but a law, and laws are but means to promote the legitimate
39 end of all government—the felicity of the people. All powers are given to the national government, as the people
40 will. The reservation in the 10th amendment to the constitution, of ‘powers not delegated to the United States,’ 41 is not confined to powers not expressly delegated. Such an amendment was indeed proposed; but it was 42 perceived, that it would strip the government of some of its most essential powers, and it was rejected. Unless 43 a specific means be expressly prohibited to the general government, it has it, within the sphere of its specified
44 powers. Many particular means are, of course, involved in the general means necessary to carry into effect the 45 powers expressly granted, and in that case, the general means become *385 the end, and the smaller objects the 46 means.

47 It was impossible for the framers of the constitution to specify, prospectively, all these means, both because it
48 would have involved an immense variety of details, and because it would have been impossible for them to 49 foresee the infinite variety of circumstances, in such an unexampled state of political society as ours, for ever
50 changing and forever improving. How unwise would it have been, to legislate immutably for exigencies which 51 had not then occurred, and which must have been foreseen but dimly and imperfectly! The security against abuse
52 is to be found in the constitution and nature of the government, in its popular character and structure. The statute
53 book of the United States is filled with powers derived from implication. The power to lay and collect taxes will 54 not execute itself. Congress must designate in detail all the means of collection. So also, the power of establishing 55 post-offices and post-roads, involves that of punishing the offence of robbing the mail. But there is no more
56 necessary connection between the punishment of mail-robbers, and the power to establish post-roads, than there 57 is between the institution of a bank, and the collection of the revenue and payment of the public debts and 58 expenses. So, light-houses, beacons, buoys and public piers, have all been established, under the general power
59 to regulate commerce. But they are not indispensably necessary to commerce. It might linger on, without these 60 aids, though exposed to more perils and losses. So, congress has authority to coin money, and to guard the purity
61 of the circulating medium, by providing for the punishment *386 of counterfeiting the current coin; but laws are 62 also made for punishing the offence of uttering and passing the coin thus counterfeited. It is the duty of the court
63 to construe the constitutional powers of the national government liberally, and to mould them so as to effectuate
64 its great objects. Whence is derived the power to punish smuggling? It does not collect the impost, but it is a

1 means more effectually to prevent the collection from being diminished in amount, by frauds upon the revenue
2 laws. Powers, as means, may then be implied in many cases. And if so, why not in this case as well as any other?

3 **24 The power of making all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory of the United States, is
4 one of the specified powers of congress. Under this power, it has never been doubted, that congress had
5 authority to establish corporations in the territorial governments. But this power is derived entirely from 6 implication. It is assumed, as an incident to the principal power. If it may be assumed, in that case, upon the 7 ground, that it is a necessary means of carrying into effect the power expressly granted, why may it not be
8 assumed, in the present case, upon a similar ground? It is readily admitted, there must be a relation, in the nature
9 and fitness of things between the means used and the end to be accomplished. But the question is, whether the 10 necessity which will justify a resort to a certain means, must be an absolute, indispensable, inevitable necessity?
11 The power of passing all laws necessary and proper to carry into effect the other powers specifically granted, is 12 a political power; it *387 is a matter of legislative discretion, and those who exercise it, have a wide range of 13 choice in selecting means. In its exercise, the mind must compare means with each other. But absolute necessity
14 excludes all choice; and therefore, it cannot be this species of necessity which is required. Congress alone has 15 the fit means of inquiry and decision. The more or less of necessity never can enter as an ingredient into judicial 16 decision. Even absolute necessity cannot be judged of here; still less, can practical necessity be determined in a
17 judicial forum. The judiciary may, indeed, and must, see that what has been done is not a mere evasive pretext,
18 under which the national legislature travels out of the prescribed bounds of its authority, and encroaches upon
19 state sovereignty, or the rights of the people. For this purpose, it must inquire, whether the means assumed have 20 a connection, in the nature and fitness of things, with the end to be accomplished. The vast variety of possible
21 means, excludes the practicability of judicial determination as to the fitness of a particular means. It is sufficient,
22 that it does not appear to be violently and unnaturally forced into the service, or fraudulently assumed, in order
23 to usurp a new substantive power of sovereignty. A philological analysis of the terms 'necessary and proper' will 24 illustrate the argument. Compare these terms as they are used in that part of the constitution now in question,
25 with the qualified manner in which they are used in the 10th section of the same article. In the latter, it is provided
26 that 'no state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports *388 or exports, except 27 what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws.' In the clause in question, congress is invested
28 with the power 'to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing
29 powers,' &c. There is here then, no qualification of the necessity; it need not be absolute; it may be taken in its 30 ordinary grammatical sense. The word necessary, standing by itself, has no inflexible meaning; it is used in a
31 sense more or less strict, according to the subject. This, like many other words, has a primitive sense, and another
32 figurative and more relaxed; it may be qualified by the addition of adverbs of diminution or enlargement, such
33 as very, indispensably, more, less, or absolutely necessary; which last is the sense in which it is used in the 10th
34 section of this article of the constitution. But that it is not always used in this strict and rigorous sense, may be 35 proved, by tracing its definition, and etymology in every human language.

36 [ . . . ]

37 Among the enumerated powers, we do not find that of establishing a bank or creating a corporation. But there
38 is no phrase in the instrument which, like the articles of confederation, excludes incidental or implied powers;
39 and which requires that everything granted shall be expressly and minutely described. Even the 10th
40 amendment, which was framed for the purpose of quieting the excessive jealousies which had been excited,
41 omits the word 'expressly,' and declares only, that the powers 'not delegated to the United States, nor prohibited
42 to the states, are reserved to the states or to the people;' thus leaving the question, whether the particular power
43 which may become the subject of contest, has been delegated to the one government, or prohibited to the other,
44 to depend on a fair construction of the whole instrument. The men who drew and adopted this amendment had 45 experienced the embarrassments resulting from the insertion of this word in the articles *407 of confederation,
46 and probably omitted it, to avoid those embarrassments. A constitution, to contain an accurate detail of all the 47 subdivisions of which its great powers will admit, and of all the means by which they may be carried into 48 execution, would partake of the prolixity of a legal code, and could scarcely be embraced by the human mind. It
49 would, probably, never be understood by the public. Its nature, therefore, requires, that only its great outlines 50 should be marked, its important objects designated, and the minor ingredients which compose those objects, be 51 deduced from the nature of the objects themselves. That this idea was entertained by the framers of the American
52 constitution, is not only to be inferred from the nature of the instrument, but from the language. Why else were 53 some of the limitations, found in the 9th section of the 1st article, introduced? It is also, in some degree, warranted, 54 by their having omitted to use any restrictive term which might prevent its receiving a fair and just interpretation.
55 In considering this question, then, we must never forget that it is a constitution we are expounding."
56 [M'Culloch v. State, 17 U.S. 316, 1819 WL 2135 (U.S.,1819)]

57 6 Three Main Corporate Entities: "State", "United States", and "United States of America"

58 The U.S. Supreme Court has recognized that all governments are corporations when it ruled the following:

59 "Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created by 60 usage and common consent, or grants and charters which create a body politic for prescribed purposes; but
61 whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise of 62 power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the 63 instrument by which the incorporation is made. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is

1 a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all
2 persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 Inst.
3 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same footing
4 of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect that of
5 individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law, is a
6 principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the federal
7 government, by the amendments to the constitution."
8 [Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of Warren Bridge, 36 U.S. 420 (1837)]

9 Not only are all governments corporations, but they are also "bodies politic". If you remove the "body politic"
10 characteristic of a government, the only thing you have left is simply a private corporation no different from 11 FedEx, Enron, or any other private corporation:

12 Both before and after the time when the Dictionary Act and § 1983 were passed, the phrase "bodies politic and 13 corporate" was understood to include the [governments of the] States. See, e.g., J. Bouvier, 1 A Law Dictionary
14 Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America 185 (11th ed. 1866); W. Shumaker & G.
15 Longsdorf, Cyclopedic Dictionary of Law 104 (1901); Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. (2 Dall.) 419, 447, 1 L.Ed.
16 440 (1793) (Iredell, J.); id., at 468 (Cushing, J.); Cotton v. United States, 52 U.S. (11 How.) 229, 231, 13 L.Ed.
17 675 (1851) ("Every sovereign State is of necessity a body politic, or artificial person"); Poindexter v. Greenhow,
18 114 U.S. 270, 288, 5 S.Ct. 903, 29 L.Ed. 185 (1885); McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 24, 13 S.Ct. 3, 6, 36
19 L.Ed. 869 (1892); Heim v. McCall, 239 U.S. 175, 188, 36 S.Ct. 78, 82, 60 L.Ed. 206 (1915). See also United
20 States v. Maurice, 2 Brock. 96, 109, 26 F.Cas. 1211 (CC Va.1823) (Marshall, C.J.) ("The United States is a
21 government, and, consequently, a body politic and corporate"); Van Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154,
22 6 S.Ct. 670, 672, 29 L.Ed. 845 (1886) (same). Indeed, the very legislators who passed § 1 referred to States in
23 *these terms. See, e.g., Cong. Globe, 42d Cong., 1st Sess., 661-662 (1871) (Sen. Vickers) ("What is a State? Is *79*
24 it not a body politic and corporate?"); id., at 696 (Sen. Edmunds) ("A State is a corporation").

25 The reason why States are "bodies politic and corporate" is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can
26 act only through its agents, "[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can
27 command only by laws." Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black's
28 Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) ("[B]ody politic or corporate": "A social compact by which the whole people
29 covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for
30 the common good"). As a "body politic and corporate," a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act's
31 definition of a "person."

32 While it is certainly true that the phrase "bodies politic and corporate" referred to private and public
33 corporations, see ante, at 2311, and n. 9, this fact does not draw into question the conclusion that this phrase
34 also applied to the States. Phrases may, of course, have multiple referents. Indeed, each and every dictionary
35 *cited by the Court accords a broader realm-one **2317 that comfortably, and in most cases explicitly, includes*
36 the sovereign-to this phrase than the Court gives it today. See 1B. Abbott, Dictionary of Terms and Phrases Used
37 in American or English Jurisprudence 155 (1879) ("[T]he term body politic is often used in a general way, as
38 meaning the state or the sovereign power, or the city government, without implying any distinct express
39 incorporation"); W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 127 (1893) ("[B]ody politic": "The governmental, sovereign
40 power: a city or a State"); Black's Law Dictionary 143 (1891) ("[B]ody politic": "It is often used, in a rather
41 loose way, to designate the state or nation or sovereign power, or the government of a county or municipality,
42 without distinctly connoting any express and individual corporate charter"); 1A. Burrill, A Law Dictionary and 43 Glossary 212 (2d ed. 1871) ("[B]ody politic": "A body to take in succession, framed by policy";
44 *"[p]articularly*80 applied, in the old books, to a Corporation sole"); id., at 383 ("Corporation sole" includes*
45 the sovereign in England).
46 [Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich.,1989)]

47 Our system of republican government is comprised of three main types of government corporations, listed below
48 in the order they were created:

- 49 1. "States": States of the Union, which existed before the Articles of Confederation and the United States Constitution.
- 50 2. "United States of America": The states of the Union in their corporate or consolidated capacity.
- 51 3. "United States": The political entity created by the "United States of America" which was delegated exclusive authority
52 over all matters external to the states of the Union and foreign in respect to them.

53 The U.S. Supreme Court eloquently explained the relationship between these three corporate entities in the case
54 of United States v. Curtiss-Wright Export Corporation, 299 U.S. 304 (1936):

55 "It will contribute to the elucidation of the question if we first consider the differences between the powers of 56 the federal government in respect of foreign or external affairs and those in respect of domestic or internal 57 affairs. That there are differences between them, and that these differences are fundamental, may not be doubted.

1 The two classes of powers are different, both in respect of their origin and their nature. The broad statement that
2 the federal government can exercise no powers except [299 U.S. 304, 316] those specifically enumerated in
3 the Constitution, and such implied powers as are necessary and proper to carry into effect the enumerated
4 powers, is categorically true only in respect of our internal affairs. In that field, the primary purpose of the 5 Constitution was to carve from the general mass of legislative powers then possessed by the states such portions
6 as it was thought desirable to vest in the federal government, leaving those not included in the enumeration
7 still in the states. Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238, 294, 56 S.Ct. 855, 865. That this doctrine applies only
8 to powers which the states had is self-evident. And since the states severally never possessed international powers, 9 such powers could not have been carved from the mass of state powers but obviously were transmitted to the 10 United States from some other source. During the Colonial period, those powers were possessed exclusively by 11 and were entirely under the control of the Crown. By the Declaration of Independence, 'the Representatives of 12 the United States of America' declared the United (not the several) Colonies to be free and independent states,
13 and as such to have 'full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce and to do
14 all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do.'

15 As a result of the separation from Great Britain by the colonies, acting as a unit, the powers of external
16 sovereignty passed from the Crown not to the colonies severally, but to the colonies in their collective and
17 corporate capacity as the United States of America. Even before the Declaration, the colonies were a unit in 18 foreign affairs, acting through a common agency-namely, the Continental Congress, composed of delegates
19 from the thirteen colonies. That agency exercised the powers of war and peace, raised an army, created a navy, 20 and finally adopted the Declaration of Independence. Rulers come and go; governments end and forms of 21 government change; but sovereignty survives. A political society cannot endure [299 U.S. 304, 317] without a
22 supreme will somewhere. Sovereignty is never held in suspense. When, therefore, the external sovereignty of 23 Great Britain in respect of the colonies ceased, it immediately passed to the Union. See Penhallow v. Doane, 3
24 Dall. 54, 80, 81, Fed.Cas. No. 10925. That fact was given practical application almost at once. The treaty of
25 peace, made on September 3, 1783, was concluded between his Britannic Majesty and the 'United States of 26 America.' 8 Stat., European Treaties, 80.

27 The Union existed before the Constitution, which was ordained and established among other things to form 'a
28 more perfect Union.' Prior to that event, it is clear that the Union, declared by the Articles of Confederation to
29 be 'perpetual,' was the sole possessor of external sovereignty, and in the Union it remained without change
30 save in so far as the Constitution in express terms qualified its exercise. The Framers' Convention was called
31 and exerted its powers upon the irrefutable postulate that though the states were several their people in respect
32 of foreign affairs were one. Compare The Chinese Exclusion Case, 130 U.S. 581, 604, 606 S., 9 S.Ct. 623. In 33 that convention, the entire absence of state power to deal with those affairs was thus forcefully stated by Rufus 34 King:

35 'The states were not 'sovereigns' in the sense contended for by some. They did not possess the 36 peculiar features of [external] sovereignty,-they could not make war, nor peace, nor alliances, 37 nor treaties. Considering them as political beings, they were dumb, for they could not speak to 38 any foreign sovereign whatever. They were deaf, for they could not hear any propositions from 39 such sovereign. They had not even the organs or faculties of defence or offence, for they could 40 not of themselves raise troops, or equip vessels, for war.' 5 Elliot's Debates, 212.1 [299 U.S.
41 304, 318] It results that the investment of the federal government with the powers of external
42 sovereignty did not depend upon the affirmative grants of the Constitution. The powers to declare 43 and wage war, to conclude peace, to make treaties, to maintain diplomatic relations with other 44 sovereignties, if they had never been mentioned in the Constitution, would have vested in the 45 federal government as necessary concomitants of nationality. Neither the Constitution nor the 46 laws passed in pursuance of it have any force in foreign territory unless in respect of our own
47 citizens (see American Banana Co. v. United Fruit Co., 213 U.S. 347, 356, 29 S.Ct. 511, 16
48 Ann.Cas. 1047); and operations of the nation in such territory must be governed by treaties,
49 international understandings and compacts, and the principles of international law. As a
50 member of the family of nations, the right and power of the United States in that field are equal 51 to the right and power of the other members of the international family. Otherwise, the United 52 States is not completely sovereign. The power to acquire territory by discovery and occupation
53 (Jones v. United States, 137 U.S. 202, 212, 11 S.Ct. 80), the power to expel undesirable aliens
54 (Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698, 705 et seq., 13 S.Ct. 1016), the power to make 55 such international agreements as do not constitute treaties in the constitutional sense (Altman
56 & Co. v. United States, 224 U.S. 583, 600, 601 S., 32 S.Ct. 593; Crandall, Treaties, Their Making 57 and Enforcement (2d Ed.) p. 102 and note 1), none of which is expressly affirmed by the 58 Constitution, nevertheless exist as inherently inseparable from the conception of nationality.
59 This the court recognized, and in each of the cases cited found the warrant for its conclusions
60 not in the provisions of the Constitution, but in the law of nations.

61 In Burnet v. Brooks, 288 U.S. 378, 396, 53 S.Ct. 457, 461, 86 A.L.R. 747, we said, 'As a nation with all the 62 attributes of sovereignty, the United States is vested with all the powers of government necessary to maintain an
63 effective control of international relations.' Cf. Carter v. Carter Coal Co., supra, 298 U.S. 238, at page 295, 56
64 S.Ct. 855, 865. [299 U.S. 304, 319] Not only, as we have shown, is the federal power over external affairs in
65 origin and essential character different from that over internal affairs, but participation in the exercise of the 66 power is significantly limited. In this vast external realm, with its important, complicated, delicate and manifold
67 problems, the President alone has the power to speak or listen as a representative of the nation. He makes

1 treaties with the advice and consent of the Senate; but he alone negotiates. Into the field of negotiation the
2 Senate cannot intrude; and Congress itself is powerless to invade it. As Marshall said in his great argument of 3 March 7, 1800, in the House of Representatives, 'The President is the sole organ of the nation in its external
4 relations, and its sole representative with foreign nations.' Annals, 6th Cong., col. 613. The Senate Committee
5 on Foreign Relations at a very early day in our history ( February 15, 1816), reported to the Senate, among other
6 things, as follows:

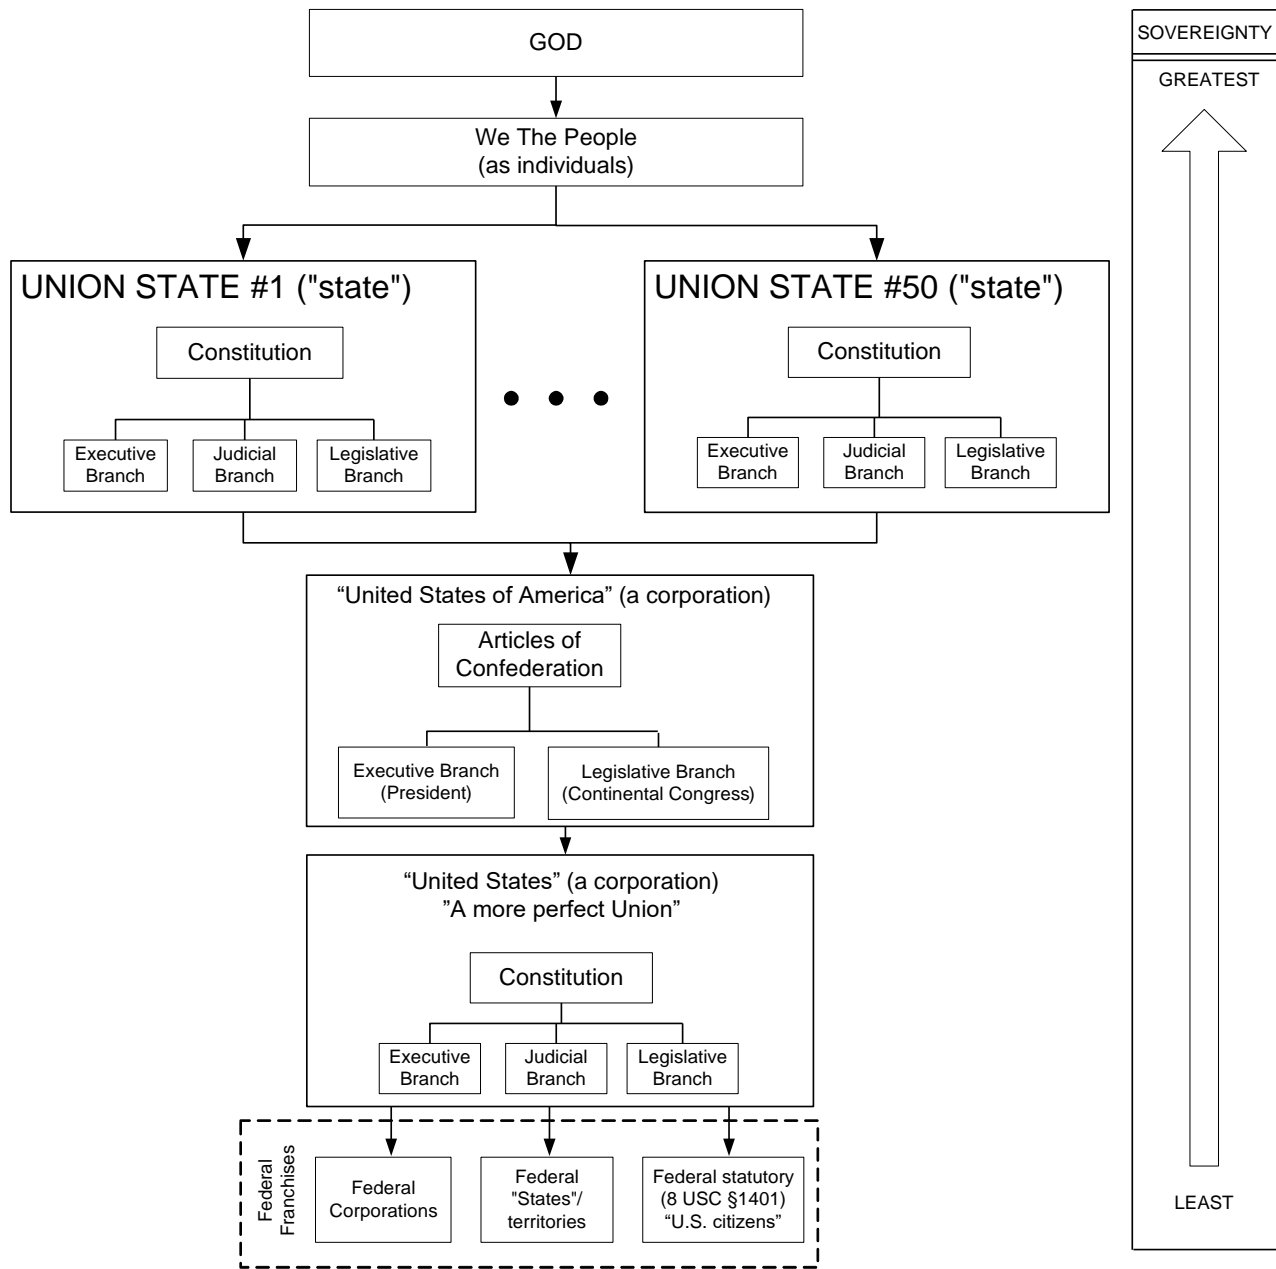

7 'The President is the constitutional representative of the United States with regard to foreign 8 nations. He manages our concerns with foreign nations and must necessarily be most 9 competent to determine when, how, and upon what subjects negotiation may be urged with the 10 greatest prospect of success. For his conduct he is responsible to the Constitution. The 11 committee considers this responsibility the surest pledge for the faithful discharge of his duty.
12 They think the interference of the Senate in the direction of foreign negotiations calculated to 13 diminish that responsibility and thereby to impair the best security for the national safety. The 14 nature of transactions with foreign nations, moreover, requires caution and unity of design, and 15 their success frequently depends on secrecy and dispatch.' 8 U.S.Sen.Reports Comm. on Foreign 16 Relations, p. 24.

17 It is important to bear in mind that we are here dealing not alone with an authority vested in the President by an 18 [299 U.S. 304, 320] exertion of legislative power, but with such an authority plus the very delicate, plenary and 19 exclusive power of the President as the sole organ of the federal government in the field of international relations-
20 a power which does not require as a basis for its exercise an act of Congress, but which, of course, like every 21 other governmental power, must be exercised in subordination to the applicable provisions of the Constitution. It
22 is quite apparent that if, in the maintenance of our international relations, embarrassment-perhaps serious
23 embarrassment-is to be avoided and success for our aims achieved, congressional legislation which is to be made
24 effective through negotiation and inquiry within the international field must often accord to the President a degree
25 of discretion and freedom from statutory restriction which would not be admissible were domestic affairs alone
26 involved. Moreover, he, not Congress, has the better opportunity of knowing the conditions which prevail in 27 foreign countries, and especially is this true in time of war. He has his confidential sources of information. He 28 has his agents in the form of diplomatic, consular and other officials. Secrecy in respect of information gathered
29 by them may be highly necessary, and the premature disclosure of it productive of harmful results. Indeed, so
30 clearly is this true that the first President refused to accede to a request to lay before the House of Representatives
31 the instructions, correspondence and documents relating to the negotiation of the Jay Treaty-a refusal the wisdom
32 of which was recognized by the House itself and has never since been doubted. In his reply to the request, 33 President Washington said:

34 'The nature of foreign negotiations requires caution, and their success must often depend on 35 secrecy; and even when brought to a conclusion a full disclosure of all the measures, demands, 36 or eventual concessions which may have been proposed or contemplated would be extremely 37 [299 U.S. 304, 321] impolitic; for this might have a pernicious influence on future negotiations, 38 or produce immediate inconveniences, perhaps danger and mischief, in relation to other powers.
39 The necessity of such caution and secrecy was one cogent reason for vesting the power of making
40 treaties in the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, the principle on which that 41 body was formed confining it to a small number of members. To admit, then, a right in the House
42 of Representatives to demand and to have as a matter of course all the papers respecting a 43 negotiation with a foreign power would be to establish a dangerous precedent.' 1 Messages and 44 Papers of the Presidents, p. 194.

45 The marked difference between foreign affairs and domestic affairs in this respect is recognized by both houses
46 of Congress in the very form of their requisitions for information from the executive departments. In the case
47 of every department except the Department of State, the resolution directs the official to furnish the information.
48 In the case of the State Department, dealing with foreign affairs, the President is requested to furnish the 49 information 'if not incompatible with the public interest.' A statement that to furnish the information is not 50 compatible with the public interest rarely, if ever, is questioned. "
51 [United States v. Curtiss-Wright Export Corporation, 299 U.S. 304 (1936)]

52 A diagram of the hierarchical relationship between these corporate entities may be helpful to solidify what we 53 have learned in this section:

1

2 Some people question the validity of showing the Articles of Confederation in the above diagram because they 3 assume that the Constitution repealed these Articles. It is a fact that:

- 4 1. The Articles of Confederation identify themselves as “perpetual” in the preamble.
- 5 2. The Articles of Confederation are published in the Statutes at Large in the very first enactment of Congress, and 6 therefore are “law”.
- 7 3. The Articles of Confederation to this day are published on most legal reference sites. Why would this be if they are 8 repealed?
- 9 4. The Articles of Confederation were never expressly repealed and therefore remain in full force.
- 10 5. The Articles of Confederation are the only origin of the use of the phrase “United States of America” that we know of.

7 Public v. Private

A very important subject is the division of legal authority between PUBLIC and PRIVATE rights. On this subject the U.S. Supreme Court held:

*"A private person cannot make constitutions or laws, nor can he with authority construe them, nor can he administer or execute them."
[United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 1 S.Ct. 601, 27 L.Ed. 290 (1883)]*

If you can't "execute" them, then you ALSO can't enforce them against ANYONE else. Some people might be tempted to say that we all construe them against the private person daily, but in fact we can't do that WITHOUT being a public officer WITHIN the government.

*"The reason why States are "bodies politic and corporate" is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can act only through its agents, "[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can command only by laws." Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black's Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) ("[B]ody politic or corporate": "A social compact by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good"). As a "body politic and corporate," a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act's definition of a "person."

If we do enforce the law as a private nonresident human, we are criminally impersonating a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. Other U.S. Supreme Court cites also confirm why this must be:

*"All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made with [private] individuals."
[Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]*

"...we are of the opinion that there is a clear distinction in this particular between an [PRIVATE] individual and a [PUBLIC] corporation, and that the latter has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an examination at the suit of the state. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty to the state or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the state, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the organization of the state, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.

*"Upon the other hand, the [PUBLIC] corporation is a creature of the state. It is presumed to be incorporated for the benefit of the public. It receives certain special privileges and franchises, and holds them subject to the laws of the state and the limitations of its charter. Its powers are limited by law. It can make no contract not authorized by its charter. Its rights to [201 U.S. 43, 75] act as a corporation are only preserved to it so long as it obeys the laws of its creation. There is a reserved right in the legislature to investigate its contracts and find out whether it has exceeded its powers. It would be a strange anomaly to hold that a state, having chartered a corporation to make use of certain franchises, could not, in the exercise of its sovereignty, inquire how these franchises had been employed, and whether they had been abused, and demand the production of the corporate books and papers for that purpose. The defense amounts to this: That an officer of a corporation which is charged with a criminal violation of the statute, may plead the criminality of such corporation as a refusal to produce its books. To state this proposition is to answer it. While an individual may lawfully refuse to answer incriminating questions unless protected by an immunity statute, it does not follow that a corporation, vested with special privileges and franchises, may refuse to show its hand when charged with an abuse of such privileges. "

You MUST therefore be an agent of the government and therefore a PUBLIC officer in order to "make constitutions or laws or administer, execute, or ENFORCE EITHER". Here is more proof:

"A defendant sued as a wrong-doer, who seeks to substitute the state in his place, or to justify by the authority of the state, or to defend on the ground that the state has adopted his act and exonerated him, cannot rest on the bare assertion of his defense. He is bound to establish it. The state is a political corporate body, can act only

1 through agents, and can command only by laws. It is necessary, therefore, for such a defendant, in order to
2 complete his defense, to produce a law of the state which constitutes his commission as its agent, and a warrant
3 for his act.”
4 [Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270 (1885)]

5 By “act” above, they implicitly also include “enforce”. If you aren’t an agent of the state, they can’t enforce 6 against you. Examples of “agents” or “public officers” of the government include all the following:

- 7 1. “person” (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(1)).
- 8 2. “individual” (26 C.F.R. §1441-1(c)(3)).
- 9 3. “taxpayer” (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14)).
- 10 4. “withholding agent” (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(16)).

11 “The government thus lays a tax, through the [GOVERNMENT] instrumentality [PUBLIC OFFICE] of the 12 company [a FEDERAL and not STATE corporation], upon the income of a non-resident alien over whom it 13 cannot justly exercise any control, nor upon whom it can justly lay any burden.”
14 [United States v. Erie R. Co., 106 U.S. 327 (1882)]

15 So how do you “OBEY” a law without “EXECUTING” it? We’ll give you a hint: It CAN’T BE DONE!

16 Likewise, if ONLY public officers can “administer, execute, or enforce” the law, then the following additional requirements
17 of the law are unavoidable and also implied:

- 18 1. Congress cannot impose DUTIES against private persons through the civil law. Otherwise the Thirteenth Amendment 19 would be violated and the party executing said duties would be criminally impersonating an agent or officer of the 20 government in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912.
- 21 2. Congress can only impose DUTIES upon public officers through the civil statutory law.
- 22 3. The civil statutory law is law for GOVERNMENT, and not PRIVATE persons. See:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons , Form #05.037 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
--
- 24 4. Those who enforce any civil statutory duties against you are PRESUMING that you occupy a public office.
- 25 5. You cannot unilaterally “elect” yourself into a public office in the government by filling out a government form, even 26 if you consent to volunteer.
- 27 6. Even if you ARE a public officer, you can only execute the office in a place EXPRESSLY authorized by Congress per 4 U.S.C. §72, which means ONLY the District of Columbia and “not elsewhere”.

28 TITLE 4 > CHAPTER 3 > § 72
29 § 72. Public offices; at seat of Government

30 All offices attached to the seat of government shall be exercised in the District of Columbia, and not elsewhere,
31 except as otherwise expressly provided by law.

- 32 7. If you are “construing, administering, or executing” the laws, then you are doing so as a public officer and:
  - 33 7.1. You are bound and constrained in all your actions by the constitution like every OTHER public officer while on 34 official business interacting with PRIVATE humans.
  - 35 7.2. The Public Records exception to the Hearsay Exceptions Rule, Federal Rule of Evidence 803(8) applies.
36 EVERYTHING you produce in the process of “construing, administering, or executing” the laws is instantly
37 admissible and cannot be excluded from the record by any judge. If a judge interferes with the admission of such 38 evidence, he is:
    - 39 7.2.1. Interfering with the duties of a coordinate branch of the government in violation of the Separation of 40 Powers.
    - 41 7.2.2. Criminally obstructing justice.

11 7.1 Introduction

12 In order to fully understand and comprehend the nature of franchises, it is essential to thoroughly understand the 13 distinctions between PUBLIC and PRIVATE property. The following subsections will deal with this important 14 subject extensively. In the following subsections, we will establish the following facts:

- 15 1. There are TWO types of property:
  - 16 1.1. Public property. This type of property is protected by the CIVIL law.
  - 17 1.2. Private property. This type of property is protected by the COMMON law.
- 18 2. Specific legal rights attach to EACH of the two types of property. These “rights” in turn, are ALSO property as legally 19 defined.

20 Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict
 21 legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. *Fulton Light, Heat
 22 & Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable
 23 right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to
 24 dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with it.
 25 That dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular things or 26 subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a man can have
 27 to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or chattels, which no
 28 way depends on another man's courtesy.

29 *The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal,
 30 tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which
 31 goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real
 32 and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of 33 one's property rights by actionable wrong. *Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d. 180, 332
 34 P.2d. 250, 252, 254.

35 [ . . . ]

36 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]

- 37 3. Human beings can simultaneously be in possession of BOTH PUBLIC and PRIVATE rights. This gives rise to TWO 38 legal “persons”: PUBLIC and PRIVATE.
  - 39 3.1. The CIVIL law attaches to the PUBLIC person.
  - 40 3.2. The COMMON law and the Constitution attach to and protect the PRIVATE person.
- 41 This is consistent with the following maxim of law.

42 Quando duo juro concurrunt in und personâ, aequum est ac si essent in diversis.
 43 *When two rights [public right v. private right] concur in one person, it is the same as if they were two separate
 44 persons. 4 Co. 118.
 45 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
 46 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouvierMaxims.htm>]

- 47 4. That the purpose of the Constitution and the establishment of government itself is to protect EXCLUSIVELY
 48 PRIVATE rights.

49 *“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
 50 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure

1 these [EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE, God-given] rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their
2 just powers from the consent of the governed, -"
3 [Declaration of Independence, 1776]

4 The VERY FIRST step in protecting PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property is to prevent such property from being
5 converted to PUBLIC property or PUBLIC rights without the consent of the owner. In other words, the VERY FIRST
6 step in protecting PRIVATE rights is to protect you from the GOVERNMENT'S OWN theft. Obviously, if a
7 government becomes corrupted and refuses to protect PRIVATE rights or recognize them, there is absolutely no reason
8 you can or should want to hire them to protect you from ANYONE ELSE.

- 9 5. The main method for protecting PRIVATE rights is to impose the following burden of proof and presumption upon 10 any entity or person claiming to be "government":

11 "All rights and property are PRESUMED to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and beyond the control of government
12 or the CIVIL law unless and until the government meets the burden of proving, WITH EVIDENCE, on the record 13 of the proceeding that:

- 14 1. A SPECIFIC formerly PRIVATE owner consented IN WRITING to convert said property to PUBLIC property.
15 2. The owner was either abroad, domiciled on, or at least PRESENT on federal territory NOT protected by the 16 Constitution and therefore had the legal capacity to ALIENATE a Constitutional right or relieve a public
17 servant of the fiduciary obligation to respect and protect the right. Those physically present but not necessarily 18 domiciled in a constitutional but not statutory state protected by the constitution cannot lawfully alienate rights
19 to a real, de jure government, even WITH their consent.
20 3. If the government refuses to meet the above burden of proof, it shall be CONCLUSIVELY PRESUMED to be 21 operating in a PRIVATE, corporate capacity on an EQUAL footing with every other private corporation and 22 which is therefore NOT protected by official, judicial, or sovereign immunity.

- 23 6. That the ability to regulate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE conduct is repugnant to the constitution and therefore such 24 conduct cannot lawfully become the subject of any civil statutory law.

25 "Under basic rules of construction, statutory laws enacted by legislative bodies cannot impair rights given under 26 a constitution. 194 B.R. at 925. "
27 [In re Young, 235 B.R. 666 (Bankr.M.D.Fla., 1999)]

- 28 7. That the terms "person", "persons", "individual", "individuals" as used within the civil statutory law by default imply
29 PUBLIC "persons" and therefore public offices within the government and not PRIVATE human beings. All such 30 offices are creations and franchises of the government and therefore property of the government subject to its exclusive 31 control.
- 32 8. That if the government wants to call you a statutory "person" or "individual" under the civil law, then:
33 8.1. You must volunteer or consent at some point to occupy a public office in the government while situated 34 physically in a place not protected by the USA Constitution and the Bill of Rights...namely, federal territory. In 35 some cases, that public office is also called a "citizen" or "resident".
36 8.2. If you don't volunteer, they are essentially exercising unconstitutional "eminent domain" over your PRIVATE 37 property. Keep in mind that rights protected by the Constitution are PRIVATE PROPERTY.
- 38 9. That there are VERY SPECIFIC and well defined rules for converting PRIVATE property into PUBLIC PROPERTY
39 and OFFICES, and that all such rules require your express consent except when a crime is involved.
- 40 10. That if a corrupted judge or public servant imposes upon you any civil statutory status, including that of "person" or 41 "individual" without your consent, they are:
42 10.1. Violating due process of law.
43 10.2. Imposing involuntary servitude.
44 10.3. STEALING property from you. We call this "theft by presumption".
45 10.4. Kidnapping your identity and moving it to federal territory.
46 10.5. Instituting eminent domain over EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property.
- 47 11. That within the common law, the main mechanism for PREVENTING the conversion of PRIVATE property to 48 PUBLIC property through government franchises are the following maxims of law. These maxims of law MANDATE
49 that all governments must protect your right NOT to participate in franchises or be held accountable for the 50 consequences of receiving a "benefit" you did not consent to receive and/or regarded as an INJURY rather than a 51 "benefit":

52 Invito beneficium non datur.
53 No one is obliged to accept a benefit against his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 69. But if he does not dissent he will be 54 considered as assenting. Vide Assent.

1 Quilibet potest renunciare juri pro se inducto.
2 Any one may renounce a law introduced for his own benefit. To this rule there are some exceptions. See 1 Bouv.
3 Inst. n. 83.
4 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856,
5 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

6 For an example of how this phenomenon works in the case of the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A and C “trade 7 or business” franchise, see:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

8 As an example of why an understanding of this subject is EXTREMELY important, consider the following dialog
9 at an IRS audit in which the FIRST question out of the mouth of the agent is ALWAYS “What is YOUR Social 10 Security Number?”:

11 _____
12 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

13 What is YOUR Social Security Number?

14 YOUR ANSWER:

15 20 C.F.R. §422.103(d) says the “Social Security Number Card” but NOT the STATUTORY SSN belongs to the 16 government. Since you didn’t ask me for the card but the number, then you aren’t asking me for government
17 property you can place conditions on the use of. The only way the SSN could therefore be MY number as you
18 call it is if I am the ABSOLUTE and PRIVATE owner of the number and the associated franchise it connects to 19 and am appearing here today as a Merchant offering billable services to you under MY franchise contract. Thank 20 you for inviting me here today to do business with you as a Merchant who makes all the rules and conditions
21 under which I render services to you as the absolute owner and seller of myself and all of my property.

22 On the other hand, if you are going to use the SSN to connect me to YOUR Social Security franchise contract in 23 Title 42 that only you own and control, then I don’t HAVE THAT account number and there is no such thing, 24 because:

25 My participation is clearly illegal, and an illegal act is not an official act you or I can lawfully participate in or use 26 for profit.

27 My God forbids me to act as a Buyer of anything you own or control, to surrender constitutional or natural rights
28 to you, or to allow you to make rules or laws that circumvent His holy laws. He is my ONLY CIVIL lawgiver
29 according to the Bible.

30 Which of the two types of Social Security Numbers are you therefore asking me for today: PUBLIC
31 STATUTORY number under your franchise contract or PRIVATE number under MY franchise contract? This 32 will determine who is in charge of making the rules for use of the Number under these circumstances.

33 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

34 The only thing we can talk about here today are STATUTORY Social Security Numbers. The civil statutes
35 enacted by Congress including the Social Security franchise in Title 42 are the source of our authority.

36 YOUR ANSWER:

37 Well then you are asking me to consent to participate in something that is clearly illegal and which I also have no
38 delegated authority to do from My God as His full-time trustee. In which case, I don’t HAVE a STATUTORY

1 Social Security Number since participation is clearly ILLEGAL. Please destroy any records that I am eligible and
2 stop using it for PUBLIC purposes or civil enforcement purposes outside the government. This is clearly criminal
3 identity theft, which I have already notified you of on IRS Form 14039. [See our Form #14.020]. Further, I as a
4 “nonresident alien” not engaged in a “trade or business” who consents to NOTHING you offer me and elects
5 NOTHING am excluded by law from the requirement to furnish a Social Security Number per 26 C.F.R.
6 §301.6109-1(b). So why do you even need such a number under the circumstances?

7 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

8 That’s ridiculous. Everyone HAS a STATUTORY SSN. How else are we going to manage our relationship with 9 you without one?

10 YOUR ANSWER:

11 When are you going to get it through your thick skull that I don’t WANT ANY COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIP
12 with you and simply want to be CIVILLY LEFT ALONE as justice itself requires? The fact that no one else
13 realizes that or takes that approach and blindly uses SSNs to become government cattle on the government
14 plantation doesn’t mean I have to. Unlike the rest of the stupid cattle you “service” who volunteer to be cattle,
15 I’m not your stupid whore who volunteers to work for free or donates my entire body to a public use without 16 compensation. I as the exclusive and absolute owner of myself under the Thirteenth Amendment decide what my 17 services to you or the use of my property are worth, not you, and they aren’t free. The charge for my services to 18 act as a federal “employee” or officer or trustee in possession of public property such as a STATUTORY SSN is 19 documented in the following agreement:

Injury Defense Franchise and Agreement, Form #06.027

20 Will you agree in writing to the above agreement to act essentially as your federal coworker, because if you don’t,
21 then it’s not MY number?

22 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

23 Don’t play word games with me. It’s YOUR number and we have a RIGHT to use it.

24 YOUR ANSWER:

25 Well good. Then if it’s MY number and MY property, then I have EXCLUSIVE control and use over it and may 26 LICENSE its use to you. That is what the word “property” implies. That means I, and not you, am the only one 27 who may control or regulate its use under the following franchise:

28 If it’s MY property as you indicate, then your job as an alleged “government” is to protect me from abuses of MY 29 property. If you don’t want to do that job, you’re not really a government, but a de facto government. If you can 30 control and penalize me for misusing YOUR procedures and forms, which are YOUR property, then I am
31 EQUALLY entitled to penalize you for misusing MY property. I can’t be free unless I’m at least equal to you,
32 according to Supreme Court:

33 No duty rests more imperatively upon the courts than the enforcement of those constitutional provisions intended
34 to secure that equality of rights which is the foundation of free government.”
35 [Gulf, C. & S. F. R. Co. v. Ellis, 165 U.S. 150 (1897)]

1 Are you willing to sign an agreement in writing to pay for the beneficial use of what you call MY property such 2 as the NON-STATUTORY SSN, because if you aren't, you are depriving me of exclusive use and control over
3 MY property and depriving me of the equal right to prevent abuses of my property, my identity, and my life??

4 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

5 OK, well it's OUR number. Sorry for deceiving you. Can you give us OUR number that WE assigned to you?

6 YOUR ANSWER:

7 I can find no statutory proof that the STATUTORY SSN ALONE absent the "Social Security Number CARD" is 8 your property. Please provide evidence of same. And if it IS in fact YOUR property or PUBLIC property, why
9 do you LIE to me by calling it MY property and MY number?

10 If the STATUTORY SSN is PUBLIC or GOVERNMENT property, then you can't allow me to use it as a private 11 person, which is what I am appearing here today as. You can't lawfully issue public property such as an SSN to 12 a private person or allow them to use it for a private purpose. That's criminal embezzlement. Therefore, the only 13 way that PUBLIC property such as what you allege is a STATUTORY SSN could have been assigned to me is if 14 I'm acting as a "public officer" or federal employee at this moment, and I am NOT. I am here as a private person
15 and not a public employee who retains ONLY constitutional and not STATUTORY protections. Therefore, it 16 couldn't have been lawfully issued to me.

17 Keep this up, and I'm going to file a criminal complaint with the U.S. Attorney for embezzlement in violation of 18 18 U.S.C. §641 and impersonating a public officer in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912. I'm not here as a public officer
19 and you are asking me to act like one without compensation that only I can determine and without demonstrated
20 legal authority. Where is the compensation that I demand to act as a fiduciary and trustee over your STINKING
21 number, which you claim is public property without proof? I remind you that the very purpose why governments
22 are created is to PROTECT and maintain the separation between "public property" and "private property" in order
23 to preserve my inalienable constitutional rights that you took an oath to support and defend. Why do you continue
24 to insist on co-mingling and confusing them in order to STEAL my labor, property, and money without 25 compensation in violation of the Fifth Amendment takings clause?

26 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

27 We have received third party reports relating to tax withholding or reporting that connect you to a STATUTORY 28 SSN and indirectly, to a "trade or business" per 26 U.S.C. §6041(a). We therefore have reasonable cause to 29 inquire of you about these reports and any possible income tax liability attached to the transactions they document.

30 YOUR ANSWER:

31 Third party information returns are classified by the courts as "lay legal opinions". That means none of the 32 LABELS on the form can have any actionable effect and are therefore not necessarily statutory terms. 26 U.S.C.
33 §6041(a) connects the FILER of the information return to a "trade or business" and a public office under 26 U.S.C.
34 §7701(a)(26), and NOT the TARGET of the report. These reports also do NOT authorize the FILER to convert 35 PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property and a PUBLIC office without the consent of the ABSOLUTE owner, 36 which is me. Further, even the FILER is not lawfully engaged in a "trade or business" and public office as 37 someone who was never lawfully appointed or elected to a public office and is not serving in the District of 38 Columbia as required by 4 U.S.C. §72. So these reports are hereby declared to be false and also possibly 39 FRAUDULENT under penalty of perjury. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<https://sedm.org/Forms/04-Tax/0-CorrErrInfoRtns/CorrErrInfoRtns.pdf>

1 The 1040NR return acknowledges that these information return reports do NOT necessarily connect me to such a
2 public office by calling the earnings on the return "EFFECTIVELY connected" rather than merely "ACTUALLY
3 connected". If I enter the amounts reported on these false information returns onto the 1040NR return, I am "in 4 effect" and "effectively" donating the PRIVATE property they describe to a PUBLIC use, a PUBLIC purpose,
5 and a PUBLIC office and thus subjecting them to income taxation and governmental control. I DO NOT consent
6 to do that because all my earnings are EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPT from taxation as a nonresident alien not 7 engaged in a "trade or business"/public office and whose earnings do not originate from the statutory geographical 8 "United States" under 26 U.S.C. §871. See:

Excluded Earnings and People, Form #14.019
<https://sedm.org/Forms/14-PropProtection/ExcludedEarningsAndPeople.pdf>

9 I don't need your stinking exemptions or deductions on the 1040NR form if all my earnings are lawfully excluded 10 under:

- 11 1. Earnings originate from outside:
  - 12 1.1. The STATUTORY "United States**" as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) (federal zone) and
  - 13 1.2. The U.S. government federal corporation as a privileged legal fiction.
14 Thus, their earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from "gross income" under 26 U.S.C. §871
15 and are a "foreign estate" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(31). See 26 U.S.C. §872 and 26 C.F.R. §1.872-2(f) and 26 C.F.R.
16 §1.871-7(a)(4) and 26 U.S.C. §861(a)(3)(C)(i) for proof.
- 17 2. Earnings are expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from STATUTORY "wages" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
18 §3401(a) because all services performed outside the STATUTORY "United States**" as defined in 26 U.S.C.
19 §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10) (federal zone) and the CORPORATION "United States" as a legal fiction. Therefore, not 20 subject to "wage" withholding of any kind for such services per:
  - 21 2.1. 26 C.F.R. §31.3401(a)(6)-1(b) in the case of income tax.
  - 22 2.2. 26 C.F.R. §31.3121(b)-3(c)(1) in the case of Social Security.
- 23 3. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from income tax reporting under:
  - 24 3.1. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(b)(5)(i).
  - 25 3.2. 26 C.F.R. §1.1441-1(e)(1)(ii)(A)(1).
  - 26 3.3. 26 C.F.R. §1.6041-4(a)(1).
- 27 4. Expressly EXCLUDED rather than EXEMPTED from backup withholding because earnings are not reportable by 26
28 U.S.C. §3406 and 26 C.F.R. §31.3406(g)-1(e). Only "reportable payments" are subject to such withholding.

29 My earnings are excluded, by the way, because they are PRIVATE and the owner who is me never consented to 30 convert them to PUBLIC. Stop engaging in sophistry to rope me into your servitude and pay money I don't owe.
31 This is despicable!

32 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

33 Even if your participation in Social Security is illegal, everyone still uses Social Security Numbers at least for 34 financial, banking, or lending purposes. If your participation is illegal, then how can you bank or get a loan?

35 YOUR ANSWER:

36 Your question presupposes that my activities in getting a loan or opening a financial account are PUBLIC activities
37 using PUBLIC property and that I am therefore subject to taxation and regulation in doing so. I and not you get 38 to decide when I am acting in a PRIVATE or PUBLIC capacity and to define the meaning of all terms that affect 39 the enjoyment of my ABSOLUTELY OWNED PRIVATE PROPERTY and LABOR. YOU have NO
40 AUTHORITY to write definitions affecting property that you have no ownership interest in, because doing so
41 would be an interference with the absolute control over said property and therefore for a THEFT of property. I
42 use ownership and control synonymously here. You even admit in IRM 4.10.7.2.8 that no one should trust any 43 of your forms, which means no one should trust the WORDS or LABELS on the forms either, including but not 44 limited to "Social Security Number", "Taxpayer", etc. If the forms and the labels on the forms are not

1 ACTIONABLE or even factual, then my writing on the form even under penalty of perjury doesn't make them
2 actionable either or connect them to a civil statutory context unless I expressly do so myself, which I DO NOT.

3 We have already established that the NUMBER is NOT public property under 20 C.F.R. §422.103(d), and that
4 only the CARD is PUBLIC property. You have also essentially admitted that the NUMBER is MY absolutely
5 owned property and therefore not YOURS or the GOVERNMENT'S or PUBLIC property by calling it "YOUR 6 Social Security Number". And if it is "MY ABSOLUTELY OWNED PROPERTY" as you call it, then I have 7 the right as the only lawful owner to control ANY and ALL commercial uses of it by ANYONE and EVERYONE,
8 including banks or lenders and even YOU and every government. I exercise that control by specifying all the 9 definitions affecting its use and the CONTEXT of those definitions: PUBLIC or PRIVATE. If I don't have a
10 right to control my identity, my reputation, and the commercial use of information about me that might damage
11 me through no act of my own, then you can turn the SSN into a vehicle for criminal identity theft. That appears
12 to be what you are doing here and now. I remind you that you appear to be using this proceeding to IN FACT
13 engage in criminal identity theft, and that you are trying to get my permission to allow you to abuse aspects of my 14 identity and reputation for an unauthorized commercial use and for ILLEGAL tax enforcement purposes. By 15 "illegal" I mean NON-CONSENSUAL purposes.

16 Calling myself a CIVIL STATUTORY "taxpayer", "person", "citizen", or "resident" are methods of manifesting
17 consent to privileges and taxation, but I don't claim the "benefit" of ANY connection to ANY CIVIL statutory 18 status within any government law or franchise, or a connection to any aspect of my identity to the CIVIL statutory 19 protection of any government. The authority to do this is my First Amendment right to NOT civilly or legally
20 associate and my right to NOT contract with you. Thus, I am exclusively PRIVATE in the context of this 21 interaction, and you must leave me alone in the interests of JUSTICE, which is legally defined as "the right to be 22 left alone". Since it costs you NOTHING to simply LEAVE ME ALONE, then you can't claim I owe you anything
23 for it or that it is a privilege that I have to pay for in the form of "taxes". YES, a "taxpayer" is someone subject
24 to a tax, but the decision to BECOME a "taxpayer" is voluntary. This is proven by:

- 25 1. Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002;
26 <https://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>.
- 27 2. How State Nationals Volunteer to Pay Income Tax, Form #08.024
28 <https://sedm.org/Forms/08-PolicyDocs/HowYouVolForIncomeTax.pdf>

29 Either I own my life and am in charge of it and everything that affects it through my own actions, or I'm a slave 30 and a peon and you are a tyrant. It can't be both. Welcome to The Matrix, Neo.

31 IRS AGENT QUESTION:

32 Do we have permission to use YOUR number as private property for a commercial use to tax you with your 33 permission?

34 YOUR ANSWER:

35 Absolutely not! My God forbids me to act as a Buyer or user of government property or services of any king.
36 Violating that edict constitutes treason and comes the most heinous curse in the Holy Bible in Deuteronomy 28:43-
37 51. If you really are a legitimate government, you will do your ONLY real job of protecting private property,
38 leaving it and me alone. The government's only job according to the Declaration of Independence is to protect 39 PRIVATE property. The first step in delivering that PRIVATE property protection is to keep the property from 40 being converted from PRIVATE to PUBLIC property or governmental control without the consent of the owner.
41 It is your MAIN JOB to keep PUBLIC and PRIVATE separate at all times. See: Separation Between Public and 42 Private Course, Form #12.025; <https://sedm.org/LibertyU/SeparatingPublicPrivate.pdf> . If you won't do YOUR 43 ONLY job of maintaining that separation, then why the HELL would I want to hire you as a security guard to 44 protect my PRIVATE property from anyone ELSE's theft? I remind you that income taxation is the 45 institutionalized process of converting PRIVATE to PUBLIC in order to fund the government. That conversion

1 MUST be consensual or we are all SLAVES and PEONS in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment. It is an
2 oxymoron to implement tax SLAVERY to pay for FREEDOM from slavery. Are you crazy? What have you
3 been smoking?

4 I don't want your CIVIL statutory protection and I have the right to reject its benefits in favor of the common law
5 or private contracts. At the same time, I'm NOT saying you don't deserve to be paid for the protection you provide 6 in the form of the criminal law, the common law, or the military. It would be irresponsible of me to object to 7 NOT paying for that. A workman is always worthy of his hire, according to the Bible. HOWEVER, I must have 8 the discretion to decide WHAT I want to hire you to protect at least in a CIVIL statutory context. If I don't have 9 that degree of discretion and autonomy, then I'm a slave and government chattel. The scenario where I do have 10 that protection I identify as "natural law". For a definition of "natural law", see:

Disclaimer, Section 4.31: Natural law
<https://sedm.org/disclaimer.htm#4.31>. Natural law

11
12 Usually, after the above interchange, the IRS agent will realize he is digging a DEEP hole for himself and will
13 abruptly end that sort of inquiry, and many times will also end his collection efforts. When you get him to admit 14 on the record that he is committing crimes, he no longer has a plausible deniability defense if he ends up in front of 15 a jury.

16 7.2 What is "Property"?

17 Property is legally defined as follows:

18 *Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict
19 legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. *Fulton Light, Heat
20 & Power Co. v. State*, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable
21 right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to
22 dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with it.
23 That dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular things or
24 subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a man can have
25 to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or chattels, which no
26 way depends on another man's courtesy.*

27 *The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal,
28 tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which
29 goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real
30 and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of
31 one's property rights by actionable wrong. Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d. 180, 332
32 P.2d. 250, 252, 254.*

33 *Property embraces everything which is or may be the subject of ownership, whether a legal ownership, or whether
34 beneficial, or a private ownership. Davis v. Davis. TexCiv-App., 495 S.W.2d. 607, 611. Term includes not only
35 ownership and possession but also the right of use and enjoyment for lawful purposes. Hoffmann v. Kinealy, Mo.,
36 389 S.W.2d. 745, 752.*

37 *Property, within constitutional protection, denotes group of rights inhering in citizen's relation to physical thing,
38 as right to possess, use and dispose of it. Cereghino v. State By and Through State Highway Commission, 230
39 Or. 439, 370 P.2d. 694, 697.*

40 *Goodwill is property, Howell v. Bowden, TexCiv. App., 368 S.W.2d. 842, &18; as is an insurance policy and 41 rights incident thereto, including a right to the proceeds, Harris v. Harris, 83 N.M. 441,493 P.2d. 407, 408.*

42 *Criminal code. "Property" means anything of value. including real estate, tangible and intangible personal
43 property, contract rights, choses-in-action and other interests in or claims to wealth, admission or transportation
44 tickets, captured or domestic animals, food and drink, electric or other power. Model Penal Code. Q 223.0. See
45 also Property of another, infra. Dusts. Under definition in Restatement, Second, Trusts, Q 2(c), it denotes interest 46 in things and not the things themselves.*

47 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]

1 Keep in mind the following critical facts about “property” as legally defined:

- 2 1. The essence of the “property” right, also called “ownership”, is the RIGHT TO EXCLUDE others from using or 3 benefitting from the use of the property.

4 “We have repeatedly held that, as to property reserved by its owner for private use, ‘the right to exclude [others
5 is] ‘one of the most essential sticks in the bundle of rights that are commonly characterized as property.’”
6 Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419, 433 (1982), quoting Kaiser Aetna v. United 7 States, 444 U.S. 164, 176 (1979). “
8 [Nollan v. California Coastal Comm’n, 483 U.S. 825 (1987)]

9
10 “In this case, we hold that the ‘right to exclude,’ so universally held to be a fundamental element of the 11 property right,<sup>[11]</sup> falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without 12 compensation.”
13 [Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979)]

14 [11] See, e. g., United States v. Pueblo of San Ildefonso, 206 Ct.Cl. 649, 669-670, 513 F.2d. 1383, 1394 (1975);
15 United States v. Lutz, 295 F.2d. 736, 740 (CA5 1961). As stated by Mr. Justice Brandeis, “[a]n essential element
16 of individual property is the legal right to exclude others from enjoying it.” International News Service v.
17 Associated Press, 248 U.S. 215, 250 (1918) (dissenting opinion).

- 18 2. It’s NOT your property if you can’t exclude the GOVERNMENT from using, benefitting from the use, or taxing the 19 specific property.
20 3. All constitutional rights and statutory privileges are property.
21 4. Anything that conveys a right or privilege is property.
22 5. Contracts convey rights or privileges and are therefore property.
23 6. All franchises are contracts between the grantor and the grantee and therefore property.

24 7.3 “Public” v. “Private” property ownership

25 Next, we would like to compare the two types of property: Public v. Private. There are two types of ownership 26 of “property”: Absolute and Qualified. The following definition describes and compares these two types of 27 ownership:

28 Ownership. Collection of rights to use and enjoy property, including right to transmit it to others. Trustees of 29 Phillips Exeter Academy v. Exeter, 92 N.H. 473, 33 A.2d. 665, 673. The complete dominion, title, or proprietary
30 right in a thing or claim. The entirety of the powers of use and disposal allowed by law.

31 The right of one or more persons to possess and use a thing to the exclusion of others. The right by which a thing
32 belongs to someone in particular, to the exclusion of all other persons. The exclusive right of possession, 33 enjoyment, and disposal; involving as an essential attribute the right to control, handle, and dispose.

34 Ownership of property is either absolute or qualified. The ownership of property is absolute when a single
35 person has the absolute dominion over it, and may use it or dispose of it according to his pleasure, subject only 36 to general laws. The ownership is qualified when it is shared with one or more persons, when the time of 37 enjoyment is deferred or limited, or when the use is restricted. Calif. Civil Code, §§678-680.

38 There may be ownership of all inanimate things which are capable of appropriation or of manual delivery; of all 39 domestic animals; of all obligations; of such products of labor or skill as the composition of an author, the 40 goodwill of a business, trademarks and signs, and of rights created or granted by statute. Calif. Civil Code, §655.

41 In connection with burglary, “ownership” means any possession which is rightful as against the burglar.

42 See also Equitable ownership; Exclusive ownership; Hold; Incident of ownership; Interest; Interval ownership;
43 Ostensible ownership; Owner; Possession; Title.
44 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1106]

45 Participation in franchises causes PRIVATE property to transmute into PUBLIC property. Below is a table 46 comparing these two great classes of property and the legal aspects of their status.

2

Table 1: Public v. Private Property

#	Characteristic	Public	Private
1	Authority for ownership comes from	Grantor/ creator of franchise	God/natural law
2	Type of ownership	Qualified	Absolute
3	Law protecting ownership	Statutory franchises	Bill of Rights (First Ten Amendments to the U.S. Constitution)
4	Owner is	The public as LEGAL owner and the human being as EQUITABLE owner	A single person as LEGAL owner
5	Ownership is a	Privilege/franchise	Right
6	Courts protecting ownership	Franchise court (Article 4 of the USA Constitution)	Constitutional court
7	Subject to taxation?	Yes	No (you have the right EXCLUDE government from using or benefitting from it)
8	Title held by	Statutory citizen (Statutory citizens are public officers)	Constitutional citizen (Constitutional citizens are human beings and may NOT be public officers)
9	Character of YOUR/HUMAN title	Equitable	Legal
10	Conversion to opposite type of property by	1. Removing government identifying number. 2. Donation.	1. Associating with government identifying number. <sup>18</sup> 2. Donation. 3. Eminent domain (with compensation). 4. THEFT (Internal Revenue Service).

3 Private and Public property MUST, at all times, remain completely separate from each other. If in fact rights are 4 UNALIENABLE as declared in the Declaration of Independence, then you aren't allowed legally to consent to 5 donate them to any government. Hence, they must remain private. You can't delegate that authority to anyone 6 else either, because you can't delegate what you don't have:

7 "Derativa potestas non potest esse major primitiva.
8 The power which is derived cannot be greater than that from which it is derived."

9 "Nemo plus juris ad alienum transfere potest, quam ispe habent.
10 One cannot transfer to another a right which he has not. Dig. 50, 17, 54; 10 Pet. 161, 175."
11 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
12 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

13 For a fascinating and powerful presentation showing why private and public are separate, how to keep them that 14 way, and how governments illegally try to convert PRIVATE to PUBLIC in order to STEAL from you, see:

1 7.4 The purpose and foundation of de jure government: Protection of EXCLUSIVELY
2 PRIVATE rights

3 The main purpose for which all governments are established is the protection of EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE 4 rights and property. This purpose is the foundation of all the just authority of any government as held by the
5 Declaration of Independence:

6 *“We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
7 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
8 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the 9 governed, -”
10 [Declaration of Independence, 1776]*

11 The fiduciary duty that a public officer who works for the government has is founded upon the requirement to 12 protect PRIVATE property.

13 *“As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be
14 exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer. <sup>19</sup>
15 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
16 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under
17 every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal financial gain
18 from a discharge of their trusts. <sup>20</sup> That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship to the political 19 entity on whose behalf he or she serves. <sup>21</sup> and owes a fiduciary duty to the public. <sup>22</sup> It has been said that the 20 fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private individual. <sup>23</sup> Furthermore,
21 it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which tends to weaken public confidence
22 and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public policy. <sup>24</sup>”
23 [63C American Jurisprudence 2d., Public Officers and Employees, §247 (1999)]*

24 The VERY FIRST step that any lawful de jure government must take in protecting PRIVATE property and 25 PRIVATE rights is to protect it from being converted to PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT property. After all: If the 26 people you hire to protect you won't even do the job of protecting you from THEM, why should you hire them to 27 protect you from ANYONE ELSE?

28 The U.S. Supreme Court has also affirmed that the protection of PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property is “the 29 foundation of the government” when it held the following. The case below was a challenge to the constitutionality
30 of the first national income tax, and the U.S. government rightfully lost that challenge:

31 “Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that they go down to the very 32 foundations of the government. If the provisions of the Constitution can be set aside by an act of Congress, where 33 is the course of usurpation to end?”

34 The present assault upon capital [THEFT! and WEALTH TRANSFER by unconstitutional CONVERSION of 35 PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property] is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping stone to others larger 36 and more sweeping, until our political contest will become war of the poor against the rich; a war of growing 37 intensity and bitterness.”

3 UNCONSTITUTIONAL, by the way]

4 In the above landmark case, the lawyer for the petitioner, Mr. Choate, even referred to the income tax as 5 COMMUNISM, and he was obviously right! Why? Because communism like socialism operates upon the 6 following political premises:

- 7 1. All property is PUBLIC property and there IS no PRIVATE property.
- 8 2. The government owns and/or controls all property and said property is GRANTED to the people with strings or 9 conditions attached.
- 10 3. The government and/or the collective has rights superior to those of the individual. There is and can be NO equality or 11 equal protection under the law without the right of PRIVATE property. In that sense, the government or the "state" is 12 a pagan idol with "supernatural powers" because human beings are "natural" and they are inferior to the collective.
- 13 4. Control is synonymous with ownership. If the government CONTROLS the property but the citizen "owns" it, then:
14 4.1. The REAL owner is the government.
15 4.2. The ownership of the property is QUALIFIED rather than ABSOLUTE.
16 4.3. The person holding the property is a mere CUSTODIAN over GOVERNMENT property and has EQUITABLE
17 rather than LEGAL ownership. Hence, their name in combination with the Social Security Number constitutes a 18 PUBLIC office synonymous with the government itself.
- 19 5. Everyone in temporary use of said property is an officer and agent of the state. A "public officer", after all, is someone 20 who is in charge of the PROPERTY of the public. It is otherwise a crime to use public property for a PRIVATE use or 21 benefit. That crime is called theft or conversion:

22 "Public office. The right, authority, and duty created and conferred by law, by which for a given period, either
23 fixed by law or enduring at the pleasure of the creating power, an individual is invested with some portion of the 24 sovereign functions of government for the benefit of the public. Walker v. Rich, 79 Cal.App. 139, 249 P. 56, 58.
25 An agency for the state, the duties of which involve in their performance the exercise of some portion of the 26 sovereign power, either great or small. Yaselli v. Goff, C.C.A., 12 F.2d. 396, 403, 56 A.L.R. 1239; Lacey v. State,
27 13 Ala.App. 212, 68 So. 706, 710; Curtin v. State, 61 Cal.App. 377, 214 P. 1030, 1035; Shelmadine v. City of 28 Elkhart, 75 Ind.App. 493, 129 N.E. 878. State ex rel. Colorado River Commission v. Frohmiller, 46 Ariz. 413, 52
29 P.2d. 483, 486. Where, by virtue of law, a person is clothed, not as an incidental or transient authority, but for 30 such time as de- notes duration and continuance, with Independent power to control the property of the public,
31 or with public functions to be exercised in the supposed interest of the people, the service to be compensated by 32 a stated yearly salary, and the occupant having a designation or title, the position so created is a public office.
33 State v. Brennan, 49 Ohio.St. 33, 29 N.E. 593.

35 Look at some of the planks of the Communist Manifesto, Karl Marx and confirm the above for yourself:

- 36 1. Abolition of property in land and application of all rents of land to public purposes.
- 37 2. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

41 The legal definition of "property" confirms that one who OWNS a thing has the EXCLUSIVE right to use and 42 dispose of and CONTROL the use of his or her or its property and ALL the fruits and "benefits" associated with 43 the use of such property . The implication is that you as the PRIVATE owner have a right to EXCLUDE ALL
44 OTHERS including all governments from using, benefitting from, or controlling your property. Governments,
45 after all, are simply legal "persons" and the constitution guarantees that ALL "persons" are equal. If your neighbor
46 can't benefit from your property without your consent, then neither can any so-called "government".

47 Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict
48 legal sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat
49 & Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable
50 right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to
51 dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with 52 it. That dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular
53 things or subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a 54 man can have to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or 55 chattels, which no way depends on another man's courtesy.

1           The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal,
2           tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which
3           goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real
4           and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of
5           one's property rights by actionable wrong. Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d. 180, 332
6           P.2d. 250, 252, 254.

7           Property embraces everything which is or may be the subject of ownership, whether a legal ownership, or whether
8           beneficial, or a private ownership. Davis v. Davis. TexCiv-App., 495 S.W.2d. 607. 611. Term includes not only
9           ownership and possession but also the right of use and enjoyment for lawful purposes. Hoffmann v. Kinealy, Mo.,
10          389 S.W.2d. 745, 752.

11          Property, within constitutional protection, denotes group of rights inhering in citizen's relation to physical thing,
12          as right to possess, use and dispose of it. Cereghino v. State By and Through State Highway Commission, 230
13          Or. 439, 370 P.2d. 694, 697.

14          [. . .]

15          [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]

16          In a lawful de jure government under our constitution:

- 17          1. All "persons" are absolutely equal under the law. No government can have any more rights than a single human being,
18          no matter how many people make up that government. If your neighbor can't take your property without your consent,
19          then neither can the government. The only exception to this requirement of equality is that artificial persons do not 20          have constitutional rights, but only such "privileges" as statutory law grants them. See:

21          Requirement for Equal Protection and Equal Treatment, Form #05.033
22          <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 23          2. All property is CONCLUSIVELY presumed to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE until the GOVERNMENT meets the 24          burden of proof on the record of the legal proceeding that you EXPRESSLY consented IN WRITING to donate the 25          property or use of the property to the PUBLIC:

26          "Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, - 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
27          *and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
28          man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it
29          to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his 30          neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL SECURITY, Medicare, and every other
31          public "benefit"]; second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control 32          that use; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due
33          compensation."

34          Budd v. People of State of New York, [143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

- 35          3. You have to knowingly and intentionally DONATE your PRIVATE property to a public use and a PUBLIC purpose
36          before the government can lawfully REGULATE its use. In other words, you have to at least SHARE your ownership
37          of otherwise private property with the government and become an EQUITABLE rather than ABSOLUTE owner of the 38          property before they can acquire the right to regulate its use or impose obligations or duties upon its original owner.
39          4. That donation ordinarily occurs by applying for and/or using a license in connection with the use of SPECIFIC 40          otherwise PRIVATE property.
41          5. The process of applying for or using a license and thereby converting PRIVATE into PUBLIC cannot be compelled. If 42          it is, the constitutional violation is called "eminent domain" without compensation or STEALING, in violation of the 43          Fifth Amendment takings clause.
44          6. You have a PUBLIC persona (office) and a PRIVATE persona (human) at all times.
45          6.1. That which you VOLUNTARILY attach a government license number to, such as a Social Security Number or 46          Taxpayer Identification Number, becomes PRIVATE property donated to a public use to procure the benefits of a
47          PUBLIC franchise. That property, in turn, is effectively OWNED by the government grantor of your public 48          persona and the public office it represents.
49          6.2. If you were compelled to use a government license number, such as an SSN or TIN, then a theft and taking 50          without compensation has occurred, because all property associated with such numbers was unlawfully converted 51          and STOLEN.

- 1 7. If the right to contract of the parties conducting any business transaction has any meaning at all, it implies the right to 2 EXCLUDE the government from participation in their relationship.
 3 7.1. You can write the contract such that neither party may use or invoke a license number, or complain to a licensing
 4 board, about the transaction, and thus the government is CONTRACTED OUT of the otherwise PRIVATE
 5 relationship. Consequently, the transaction becomes EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE, and government may not tax or 6 regulate or arbitrate the relationship in any way under the terms of the license franchise.
 7 7.2. Every consumer of your services has a right to do business with those who are unlicensed. This right is a natural
 8 consequence of the right to CONTRACT and NOT CONTRACT. The thing they are NOT contracting with is the 9 GOVERNMENT, and the thing they are not contracting FOR is STATUTORY/FRANCHISE “protection”.
 10 Therefore, even those who have applied for government license numbers are NOT obligated to use them in 11 connection with any specific transaction and may not have their licenses suspended or revoked for failure or 12 refusal to use them for a specific transaction.
 13 8. If the government invades the commercial relationship between you and those you do business with by forcing either 14 party to use or invoke the license number or pursue remedies or “benefits” under the license, they are:
 15 8.1. Interfering with your UNALIENABLE right to contract.
 16 8.2. Compelling you to donate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property to a PUBLIC use.
 17 8.3. Exercising unconstitutional eminent domain over your otherwise PRIVATE property.
 18 8.4. Compelling you to accept a public “benefit”, where the “protection” afforded by the license is the “benefit”.

19 The above requirements of the USA Constitution are circumvented with nothing more than the simple
 20 PRESUMPTION, usually on the part of the IRS and corrupted judges who want to STEAL from you, that the 21 GOVERNMENT owns it and that you have to prove that they CONSENTED to let you keep the fruits of it. They 22 can’t and never have proven that they have such a right, and all such presumptions are a violation of due process 23 of law.

24 (1) [8:4993] Conclusive presumptions affecting protected interests:

25 A conclusive presumption may be defeated where its application would impair a party's constitutionally-protected
 26 *liberty or property interests. In such cases, conclusive presumptions have been held to violate a party's due
 27 process and equal protection rights. [Vlandis v. Kline (1973) 412 U.S. 441, 449, 93 S.Ct. 2230, 2235; Cleveland*
 28 Bed. of Ed. v. LaFleur (1974) 414 U.S. 632, 639-640, 94 S.Ct. 1208, 1215-presumption under Illinois law that 29 unmarried fathers are unfit violates process]
 30 [Federal Civil Trials and Evidence, Rutter Group, paragraph 8:4993, p. 8K-34]

31 In order to unconstitutionally and TREASONOUSLY circumvent the above limitation on their right to presume, 32 corrupt governments and government actors will play “word games” with citizenship and key definitions in the 33 ENCRYPTED “code” in order to KIDNAP your legal identity and place it OUTSIDE the above protections of 34 the constitution by:

- 35 1. PRESUMING that you are a public officer and therefore, that everything held in your name is PUBLIC property of the 36 GOVERNMENT and not YOUR PRIVATE PROPERTY. See:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a “Public Officer” for Income Tax Purposes , Form #05.008 FORMS PAGE: http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm DIRECT LINK: http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/WhyThiefOrPubOfficer.pdf

 37 2. Abusing fraudulent information returns to criminally and unlawfully “elect” you into public offices in the government:

 38 3. PRESUMING that because you did not rebut evidence connecting you to a public office, then you CONSENT to 39 occupy the office.
 40 4. PRESUMING that ALL of the four contexts for "United States" are equivalent.
 41 5. PRESUME that CONSTITUTIONAL citizens and STATUTORY citizens are EQUIVALENT under federal law. They 42 are NOT. A CONSTITUTIONAL citizen is a "non-resident " under federal civil law and NOT a STATUTORY 43 "national and citizen of the United States** at birth" per 8 U.S.C. §1401. See the document below:

1 6. PRESUMING that "nationality" and "domicile" are equivalent. They are NOT. See:

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>

2 7. Using the word "citizenship" in place of "nationality" OR "domicile", and refusing to disclose WHICH of the two they 3 mean in EVERY context.

4 8. Confusing the POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL meaning of words with the civil STATUTORY context. For 5 instance, asking on government forms whether you are a POLITICAL/CONSTITUTIONAL citizen and then
6 FALSELY PRESUMING that you are a STATUTORY citizen under 8 U.S.C. §1401.

7 9. Confusing the words "domicile" and "residence" or impute either to you without satisfying the burden of proving that 8 you EXPRESSLY CONSENTED to it and thereby illegally kidnap your civil legal identity against your will. One can 9 have only one "domicile" but many "residences" and BOTH require your consent. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/Domicile.pdf>

10 10. Adding things or classes of things to the meaning of statutory terms that do not EXPRESSLY appear in their 11 definitions, in violation of the rules of statutory construction. See:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014

12 11. Refusing to allow the jury to read the definitions in the law and then give them a definition that is in conflict with the 13 statutory definition. This substitutes the JUDGES will for what the law expressly says and thereby substitutes PUBLIC
14 POLICY for the written law.

15 12. Publishing deceptive government publications that are in deliberate conflict with what the statutes define "United 16 States" as and then tell the public that they CANNOT rely on the publication. The IRS does this with ALL of their

18 This kind of arbitrary discretion is PROHIBITED by the Constitution, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court:

19 "When we consider the nature and the theory of our institutions of government, the principles upon which they 20 *are supposed to rest, and review the history of their development, we are constrained to conclude that they do
21 not mean to leave room for the play and action of purely personal and arbitrary power."*
22 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356, 369, 6 S. Sup.Ct. 1064, 1071]

23 Thomas Jefferson, our most revered founding father, precisely predicted the above abuses when he astutely said:

24 "It has long been my opinion, and I have never shrunk from its expression,... that the germ of dissolution of our 25 Federal Government is in the constitution of the Federal Judiciary--an irresponsible body (for impeachment is 26 *scarcely a scare-crow), working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow,

29 [Thomas Jefferson to Charles Hammond, 1821. ME 15:331]

30 "Contrary to all correct example, [the Federal judiciary] are in the habit of going out of the question before them,
31 *to throw an anchor ahead and grapple further hold for future advances of power. They are then in fact the corps
32 of sappers and miners, steadily working to undermine the independent rights of the States and to consolidate 33 all power in the hands of that government in which they have so important a freehold estate."
34 [Thomas Jefferson: Autobiography, 1821. ME 1:121]

35 "The judiciary of the United States is the subtle corps of sappers and miners constantly working under ground to 36 undermine the foundations of our confederated fabric. They are construing our Constitution from a co-ordination
37 *of a general and special government to a general and supreme one alone. This will lay all things at their feet,
38 and they are too well versed in English law to forget the maxim, 'boni judicis est ampliari jurisdictionem.'"*
39 [Thomas Jefferson to Thomas Ritchie, 1820. ME 15:297]

40 "When all government, domestic and foreign, in little as in great things, shall be drawn to Washington as the 41 center of all power, it will render powerless the checks provided of one government on another and will become 42 as venal and oppressive as the government from which we separated."

1 [Thomas Jefferson to Charles Hammond, 1821. ME 15:332]

2 "What an augmentation of the field for jobbing, speculating, plundering, office-building ["trade or business"
3 scam] and office-hunting would be produced by an assumption [PRESUMPTION] of all the State powers into the 4 hands of the General Government!"

5 [Thomas Jefferson to Gideon Granger, 1800. ME 10:168]

6 The key to preventing the unconstitutional abuse of presumption by the corrupted judiciary and IRS to STEAL
7 from people is to completely understand the content of the following memorandum of law and consistently apply
8 it in every interaction with the government:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

9 It ought to be very obvious to the reader that:

- 10 1. The rules for converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property ought to be consistently, completely, clearly, and 11 unambiguously defined by every government officer you come in contact with, and ESPECIALLY in court. These 12 rules ought to be DEMANDED to be declared EVEN BEFORE you enter a plea in a criminal case.
- 13 2. If the government asserts any right over your PRIVATE property, they are PRESUMING they are the LEGAL owner
14 and relegating you to EQUITABLE ownership. This presumption should be forcefully challenged.
- 15 3. If they won't expressly define the rules, or try to cloud the rules for converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC 16 property, then they are:
  - 17 3.1. Defeating the very purpose for which they were established as a "government". Hence, they are not a true
18 "government" but a de facto private corporation PRETENDING to be a "government", which is a CRIME under 19 18 U.S.C. §912.
  - 20 3.2. Exercising unconstitutional eminent domain over private property without the consent of the owner and without 21 compensation.
  - 22 3.3. Trying to STEAL from you.
  - 23 3.4. Violating their fiduciary duty to the public.

24 7.5 The Right to be left alone

25 The purpose of the Constitution of the United States of America is to confer the "right to be left alone", which is 26 the essence of being sovereign:

27 *"The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
28 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
29 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
30 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the 31 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized
32 men."*

33 Olmstead v. United States, [277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting) ; see also Washington v. Harper,
34 494 U.S. 210 (1990)]

35 The legal definition of "justice" confirms that its purpose is to protect your right to be "left alone":

36 PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly's translation), chap. 9.

37 *"Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing the 38 lives and interests of others, and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This virtue
39 springs from the individual's respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The different
40 spheres of interests may be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended individual
41 life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or
42 the possibility of fashioning one's life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise
43 to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To violate the rights,
44 to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the
45 neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the individual's own
46 life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong yourself, and
47 permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and protect the right."
48 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 2]*

1 The Bible also states the foundation of justice by saying:

2 "Do not strive with [or try to regulate or control or enslave] a man without cause, if he has done you no harm."
3 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

4 And finally, Thomas Jefferson agreed with the above by defining "justice" as follows in his First Inaugural 5 Address:

6 "With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing
7 more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall
8 leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from
9 the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close
10 the circle of our felicities."
11 [Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

12 Therefore, the word "injustice" means interference with the equal rights of others absent their consent and which 13 constitutes an injury NOT as any law defines it, but as the PERSON who is injured defines it. Under this 14 conception of "justice", anything done with your consent cannot be classified as "injustice" or an injury.

15 Those who are "private persons" fit in the category of people who must be left alone as a matter of law:

16 "There is a clear distinction in this particular case between an individual and a corporation, and that the latter
17 has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an examination at the suit of the State. The individual
18 may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private business in his own
19 way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no such duty to the State, since he receives nothing therefrom,
20 beyond the protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long
21 antecedent to the organization of the State, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in 22 accordance with the constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of 23 himself and his property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public
24 so long as he does not trespass upon their rights."
25 Hale v. Henkel, [201 U.S. 43, 74 (1906)]

33 The U.S. Supreme Court has also held that the ability to regulate what it calls "private conduct" is repugnant to 34 the constitution. It is the differentiation between PRIVATE rights and PUBLIC rights, in fact, that forms the basis
35 for enforcing your right to be left alone:

36 "The power to "legislate generally upon" life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the "power to provide modes
37 of redress" against offensive state action, was "repugnant" to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States
38 *v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876); United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883); James v. Bowman, 190 U.S.
39 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or modified, see,*
40 e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964); United States v. Guest, 383 U.S. 745
41 (1966), their treatment of Congress' §5 power as corrective or preventive, not definitional, has not been 42 questioned."
43 City of Boerne v. Flores, Archbishop of San Antonio, [521 U.S. 507 (1997)]

44 Only by taking on a "public character" or engaging in "public conduct" rather than a "private" character may our 45 actions become the proper or lawful subject of federal or state legislation or regulation.

46 "One great object of the Constitution is to permit citizens to structure their private relations as they choose
47 subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law. [500 U.S. 614, 620]

48 To implement these principles, courts must consider from time to time where the governmental sphere [e.g.
49 "public purpose" and "public office"] ends and the private sphere begins. Although the conduct of private

1 parties lies beyond the Constitution's scope in most instances, governmental authority may dominate an activity
2 to such an extent that its participants must be deemed to act with the authority of the government and, as a
3 result, be subject to constitutional constraints. This is the jurisprudence of state action, which explores the 4 "essential dichotomy" between the private sphere and the public sphere, with all its attendant constitutional
5 obligations. Moose Lodge, supra, at 172. "

6 [ . . . ]

7 Given that the statutory authorization for the challenges exercised in this case is clear, the remainder of our state
8 action analysis centers around the second part of the Lugar test, whether a private litigant, in all fairness, must
9 be deemed a government actor in the use of peremptory challenges. Although we have recognized that this aspect
10 of the analysis is often a fact-bound inquiry, see Lugar, supra, 457 U.S. at 939, our cases disclose certain
11 principles of general application. Our precedents establish that, in determining whether a particular action or 12 course of conduct is governmental in character, it is relevant to examine the following: the extent to which the 13 actor relies on governmental assistance and benefits, see Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 14 485 U.S. 478 (1988); Burton v. Wilmington Parking Authority, 365 U.S. 715 (1961); whether the actor is 15 performing a traditional governmental function, see Terry v. Adams, 345 U.S. 461 (1953); Marsh v. Alabama, 16 326 U.S. 501 (1946); cf. San Francisco Arts & Athletics, Inc. v. United States Olympic [500 U.S. 614,
17 622] Committee, 483 U.S. 522, 544 -545 (1987); and whether the injury caused is aggravated in a unique way
18 by the incidents of governmental authority, see Shelley v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1 (1948). Based on our application 19 of these three principles to the circumstances here, we hold that the exercise of peremptory challenges by the 20 defendant in the District Court was pursuant to a course of state action.
21 [Edmonson v. Leesville Concrete Company, 500 U.S. 614 (1991)]

22 The phrase "subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law" refers ONLY to statutes or court 23 decisions that pertain to licensed or privileged activities or franchises, all of which:

- 24 1. Cause the licensee or franchisee to represent a "public office" and work for the government.
- 25 2. Cause the licensee or franchisee to act in a representative capacity as an officer of the government, which is a federal 26 corporation and therefore he or she becomes an "officer or employee of a corporation" acting in a representative capacity.
27 See 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7434, which both define a "person" within the I.R.C. criminal and penalty 28 provisions as an officer or employee of a corporation.
- 29 3. Change the effective domicile of the "office" or "public office" of the licensee or franchisee to federal territory pursuant 30 to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39), and 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).

31 IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.

32 (b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

33 Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

34 (1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

35 (2) for a corporation for the officers or "public officers" of the corporation], by the law under which it was 36 organized; and

37 (3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

38 (A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or 39 be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or 40 laws; and

41 (B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or 42 be sued in a United States court.

- 43 4. Create a "res" or "office" which is the subject of federal legislation and a "person" or "individual" within federal statutes.
44 For instance, the definition of "individual" within 5 U.S.C. §552(a)(2) reveals that it is a government employee with a
45 domicile in the statutory "United States", which is federal territory. Notice that the statute below is in Title 5, which is 46 "Government Organization and Employees", and that "citizens and residents of the United States" share in common a 47 legal domicile on federal territory. An "individual" is an officer of the government, and not a natural man or woman.
48 The office is the "individual", and not the man or woman who fills it:

49 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a
50 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals

51 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

52 (2) the term "individual" means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent
53 residence;

1 If you don't maintain a domicile on federal territory, which is called the "United States" in the U.S. Code, or you
2 don't work for the government by participating in its franchises, then the government has NO AUTHORITY to
3 even keep records on you under the authority of the Privacy Act and you would be committing perjury under 4 penalty of perjury to call yourself an "individual" on a government form. Why? Because you are the sovereign
5 and the sovereign is not the subject of the law, but the author of the law!

6 "Since in common usage, the term person does not include the sovereign, statutes not employing the phrase are
7 ordinarily construed to exclude it."
8 [United States v. Cooper Corporation, 312 U.S. 600 (1941)]

9 "There is no such thing as a power of inherent Sovereignty in the government of the United States. In this country
10 sovereignty resides in the People, and Congress can exercise no power which they have not, by their Constitution
11 entrusted to it: All else is withheld."
12 [Juilliard v. Greenman, 110 U.S. 421 (1884)]

13 "Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law for it is the author and source of law;"
14 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

15 "Under our form of government, the legislature is NOT supreme. It is only one of the organs of that ABSOLUTE
16 SOVEREIGNTY which resides in the whole body of the PEOPLE; like other bodies of the government, it can only 17 exercise such powers as have been delegated to it, and when it steps beyond that boundary, its acts.. are utterly 18 VOID."
19 [Billings v. Hall, 7 CA. 1]

20 "In Europe, the executive is synonymous with the sovereign power of a state...where it is too commonly acquired
21 by force or fraud, or both...In America, however the case is widely different. Our government is founded upon 22 compact. Sovereignty was, and is, in the people."
23 [The Betsy, 3 Dall 6]

24 In summary, the only way the government can control you through civil law is to connect you to public conduct
25 or a "public office" within the government executed on federal territory. If they are asserting jurisdiction that you 26 believe they don't have, it is probably because:

- 27 1. You misrepresented your domicile as being on federal territory within the "United States" or the "State of ___" by 28 declaring yourself to be either a statutory "U.S. citizen" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 or a statutory "resident" (alien)
29 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A). This made you subject to their laws and put you into a privileged state.
- 30 2. You filled out a government application for a franchise, which includes government benefits, professional licenses, 31 driver's licenses, marriage licenses, etc.
- 32 3. Someone else filed a document with the government which connected you to a franchise, even though you never 33 consented to participate in the franchise. For instance, IRS information returns such as W-2, 1042S, 1098, and 1099
34 presumptively connect you to a "trade or business" in the U.S. government pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6041. A "trade or 35 business" is then defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office". The only way to prevent this 36 evidence from creating a liability under the franchise agreement provisions is to rebut it promptly. See:

37 7.6 The PUBLIC You (straw man) vs. the PRIVATE You (human)

38 It is extremely important to know the difference between PRIVATE and PUBLIC "persons", because we all have private and 39 public identities. This division of our identities is recognized in the following maxim of law:

40 Quando duo juro concurrunt in und personâ, aequum est ac si essent in diversis.

41 When two rights [public right v. private right] concur in one person, it is the same as if they were two separate
42 persons. 4 Co. 118.

43 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

44 SOURCE: <http://fanguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

45 The U.S. Supreme Court also recognizes the division of PUBLIC v. PRIVATE:

46 "A private person cannot make constitutions or laws, nor can he with authority construe them, nor can he 47 administer or execute them."

1 [United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 1 S.Ct. 601, 27 L.Ed. 290 (1883)]

2 “All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be
3 carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made
4 with [private] individuals.”

6
7 “...we are of the opinion that there is a clear distinction in this particular between an [PRIVATE] individual
8 and a [PUBLIC] corporation, and that the latter has no right to refuse to submit its books and papers for an
9 examination at the suit of the state. The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is 10 entitled to carry on his private business in his own way. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty to 11 the state or to his neighbors to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may 12 tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the state, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the
13 protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the 14 organization of the state, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the 15 Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his 16 property from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public so long as he 17 does not trespass upon their rights.

18 “Upon the other hand, the [PUBLIC] corporation is a creature of the state. It is presumed to be incorporated
19 for the benefit of the public. It receives certain special privileges and franchises, and holds them subject to the 20 laws of the state and the limitations of its charter. Its powers are limited by law. It can make no contract not 21 authorized by its charter. Its rights to [201 U.S. 43, 75] act as a corporation are only preserved to it so long
22 as it obeys the laws of its creation. There is a reserved right in the legislature to investigate its contracts and 23 find out whether it has exceeded its powers. It would be a strange anomaly to hold that a state, having chartered 24 a corporation to make use of certain franchises, could not, in the exercise of its sovereignty, inquire how these 25 franchises had been employed, and whether they had been abused, and demand the production of the corporate
26 books and papers for that purpose. The defense amounts to this: That an officer of a corporation which is charged 27 with a criminal violation of the statute, may plead the criminality of such corporation as a refusal to produce its 28 books. To state this proposition is to answer it. While an individual may lawfully refuse to answer incriminating
29 questions unless protected by an immunity statute, it does not follow that a corporation, vested with special 30 privileges and franchises, may refuse to show its hand when charged with an abuse of such privileges.”
31 [Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43 (1906)]

32 The next time you are in court as a PRIVATE person, here are some questions for the next jury, judge, or government
33 prosecutor trying to enforce a civil obligation upon you as a PRESUMED public officer called a “citizen”, “resident”, 34 “person”, or “taxpayer”:

- 35 1. How do you, a PRIVATE human, “OBEY” a law without “EXECUTING” it? We’ll give you a hint: It CAN’T BE 36 DONE!
- 37 2. What “public office” or franchise does the government claim to have “created” and therefore have the right to control
38 in the context of my otherwise exclusively PRIVATE property and PRIVATE rights under the Constitution?
- 39 3. Who is the “customer” in the context of the IRS: The STATUTORY “taxpayer” public office or the PRIVATE human 40 filling the office?
- 41 4. Who gets to define what a “benefit” is in the context of “customers”? Isn’t it the human volunteering to be surety for 42 the “taxpayer” office and not the government grantor of the public office franchise?
- 43 5. What if I as the human compelled to become surety for the office define that compulsion as an INJURY rather than a 44 BENEFIT? Does that “end the privilege” and the jurisdiction to tax and regulate?
- 45 6. Does the national government claim the right to create franchises within a constitutional state in order to tax them?
46 The Constitution says they CANNOT and that this is an “invasion” within the meaning of Article 4, Section 4 of the 47 Constitution:

48 *“Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and
49 with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to
50 trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive
51 power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the 52 granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and give rights to the licensee.*

53 *But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this
54 commerce and trade Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs
55 exclusively to the States. No interference by Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State
56 is warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly incidental to the exercise of powers clearly
57 granted to the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly repugnant to the exclusive*

1 power of the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive power. It
2 is given in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports,
3 and it must impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus
4 limited, and thus only, it reaches every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing 5 subjects. Congress cannot authorize a trade or business within a State in order to tax it.
6 License Tax Cases, [72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866)]

- 7 7. Isn't a judge compelling you to violate your religious beliefs by compelling you to serve in a public office or accept the 8 DUTES of the office? Isn't this a violation of the First Commandment NOT to serve "other gods", which can and does 9 mean civil rulers or governments?

10 *But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." So Samuel prayed to the Lord. And 11 the Lord said to Samuel, "Heed the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have rejected Me
12 [God], that I should not reign over them. According to all the works which they have done since the day that I
13 brought them up out of Egypt, even to this day—with which they have forsaken Me and served other gods [Kings,
14 in this case]—so they are doing to you also [government becoming idolatry]. Now therefore, heed their voice.
15 However, you shall solemnly forewarn them, and show them the behavior of the king who will reign over 16 them."*
17 [1 Sam. 8:6-9, Bible, NKJV]

- 18 8. How can one UNILATERALLY ELECT themselves into public office by filling out a government form? The form 19 isn't even signed by anyone in the government, such as a tax form or social security application, and therefore couldn't
20 POSSIBLY be a valid contract anyway? Isn't this a FRAUD upon the United States and criminal bribery, using illegal
21 "withholdings" to bribe someone to TREAT you as a public officer? See 18 U.S.C. §211.
22 9. How can a judge enforce civil statutory law that only applies to public officers without requiring proof on the record
23 that you are CONSENSUALLY and LAWFULLY engaged in a public office? In other words, that you waived 24 sovereign immunity by entering into a contract with the government.

25 "It is true, that the person who accepts an office may be supposed to enter into a compact to be answerable to 26 the government, which he serves, for any violation of his duty; and, having taken the oath of office, he would
27 unquestionably be liable, in such case, to a prosecution for perjury in the Federal Courts. But because one
28 man, by his own act [CONSENT], renders himself amenable to a particular jurisdiction, shall another man,
29 who has not incurred a similar obligation, be implicated? If, in other words, it is sufficient to vest a jurisdiction
30 in this court, that a Federal Officer is concerned; if it is a sufficient proof of a case arising under a law of the 31 United States to affect other persons, that such officer is bound, by law, to discharge his duty with fidelity; a 32 source of jurisdiction is opened, which must inevitably overflow and destroy all the barriers between the judicial
33 authorities of the State and the general government. Anything which can prevent a Federal Officer from the 34 punctual, as well as from an impartial, performance of his duty; an assault and battery; or the recovery of a debt,
35 as well as the offer of a bribe, may be made a foundation of the jurisdiction of this court; and, considering the 36 constant disposition of power to extend the sphere of its influence, fictions will be resorted to, when real cases
37 cease to occur. A mere fiction, that the defendant is in the custody of the marshal, has rendered the jurisdiction
38 of the King's Bench universal in all personal actions."

- 41 10. Isn't this involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment to serve in a public office if you DON'T 42 consent and they won't let you TALK about the ABSENCE of your consent?
43 11. Isn't it a violation of due process of law to PRESUME that you are public officer WITHOUT EVIDENCE on the 44 record from an unbiased witness who has no financial interest in the outcome?

45 "A presumption is an assumption of fact that the law requires to be made from another fact or group of facts
46 found or otherwise established in the action. A presumption is not evidence."
47 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1185]

49 "If any question of fact or liability be conclusively presumed [rather than proven] against him, this is not due
50 *process of law. [ . . . ] the presumption of innocence under which guilt must be proven by legally obtained
51 evidence and the verdict must be supported by the evidence presented; rights at the earliest stage of the criminal 53 jeopardy).

54 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 500]

- 3 12. If the judge won't enforce the requirement that the government as moving party has the burden of proving WITH 4 EVIDENCE that you were LAWFULLY "appointed or elected" to a public office, aren't you therefore PRESUMED to 5 be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and therefore beyond the reach of the civil statutory law?
6 13. Isn't the judge criminally obstructing justice to interfere with requiring evidence on the record that you lawfully
7 occupy a public office? See 18 U.S.C. §1503, whereby the judge is criminally "influencing" the PUBLIC you.
8 14. Isn't an unsupported presumption that prejudices a PRIVATE right a violation of the Constitution and doesn't the 9 rights that UNCONSTITUTIONAL presumption prejudicially conveys to the government constitute a taking of rights
10 without just compensation in violation of the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause?
11 15. Don't the rights that UNCONSTITUTIONAL presumptions prejudicially convey to the government constitute a taking 12 of rights without just compensation in violation of the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause?
13 16. By what authority does the judge impose federal civil law within a constitutional state of the Union because:
14 16.1. Constitutional states are legislatively but not constitutionally foreign jurisdiction.
15 16.2. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b) requires that those with a domicile outside of federal territory cannot be 16 sued under federal law.
17 16.3. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652 dictates that state rather than federal law applies.
18 16.4. National franchises and the PRIVATE law that implements them cannot be offered or enforced within 19 constitutional states per License Tax Cases, 72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866).
20 17. Even if we ARE lawfully serving in a public office, don't we have the right to:
21 17.1. Be off duty?
22 17.2. Choose WHEN we want to be off duty?
23 17.3. Choose WHAT financial transactions we want to connect to the office?
24 17.4. Be protected in NOT volunteering to connect a specific activity to the public office? Governments LIE by calling 25 something "voluntary" and yet refusing to protect those who do NOT consent to "volunteer", don't they?
26 17.5. Not be coerced to sign up for OTHER, unrelated public offices when we sign up for a single office? For instance,
27 do we have a right not become a FEDERAL officer when we sign up for a STATE "driver license" and "public
28 office" that ALSO requires us to have a Social Security Number to get the license, and therefore to ALSO 29 become a FEDERAL officer at the same time.
30 If the answer to all the above is NO, then there ARE no PRIVATE rights or PRIVATE property and there IS no
31 "government" because governments only protect PRIVATE rights and private property!

32 We'd love to hear a jury, judge, or prosecutor address this subject before they haul him away in a straight jacket
33 to the nuthouse because of a completely irrational and maybe even criminal answer.

34 The next time you end up in front of a judge or government attorney enforcing a civil statute against you, you might want to 35 insist on proof in the record during the process of challenging jurisdiction as a defendant or respondent:

- 36 1. WHICH of the two "persons" they are addressing or enforcing against.
37 2. How the two statuses, PUBLIC v. PRIVATE, became connected.
38 3. What specific act of EXPRESS consent connected the two. PRESUMPTION alone on the part of government can't. A
39 presumption that the two became connected WITHOUT consent is an unconstitutional eminent domain in violation of 40 the Fifth Amendment Takings Clause.

41 In a criminal trial, such a question would be called a "bill of particulars".

42 We can handle private and public affairs from the private, but we cannot handle private affairs from the public. The latter is 43 one of the biggest mistakes many people make when trying to handle their commercial and lawful (private) or legal (public)
44 affairs. Those who use PUBLIC property for PRIVATE gain in fact are STEALING and such stealing has always been a 45 crime.

Co., 155 Me 349, 155 A.2d. 721, 85 A.L.R.2d. 703 (superseded by statute on other grounds as stated in Poitras v. R. E. Glidden Body Shop, Inc. (Me) 430 A.2d. 1113); Connizzo v. General American Life Ins. Co. (Mo App), 520 S.W.2d. 661.

1 In law, all rights attach to LAND, and all privileges attach to one's STATUS under voluntary civil franchises. An example
2 of privileged statuses include "taxpayer" (under the tax code), "person", "individual", "driver" (under the vehicle code),
3 "spouse" (under the family code). Rights are PRIVATE, PRIVILEGES are PUBLIC.

4 In our society, the PRIVATE "straw man" was created by the application for the birth certificate. It is a legal person under
5 contract law and under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.), with capacity to sue or be sued under the common law. It
6 is PRIVATE PROPERTY of the human being described in the birth certificate.

7 The PUBLIC officer "straw man" (e.g. statutory "taxpayer") was created by the Application for the Social Security Card,
8 SSA Form SS-5. It is a privileged STATUS under an unconstitutional national franchise of the de facto government. It is 9 PROPERTY of the national government. The PUBLIC "straw man" is thoroughly described in:

Proof That There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

10 The PRIVATE "John Doe" is a statutory "non-resident non-person" not engaged in the "trade or business"/PUBLIC
11 OFFICER franchise in relation to the PUBLIC. He exists in the republic and is a free inhabitant under the Articles of 12 Confederation. He has inalienable rights and unlimited liabilities. Those unlimited liabilities are described in

The Unlimited Liability Universe
<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/Articles/UnlimitedLiabilityUniverse.htm>

13 The PUBLIC "JOHN DOE" is a public office in the government corporation and statutory "U.S. citizen" per 8 U.S.C. §1401,
14 26 U.S.C. §3121(e), and 26 C.F.R. §1.1-1(c). He exists in the privileged socialist democracy. He has "benefits", franchises, 15 obligations, immunities, and limited liability.

16 In the PRIVATE, money is an ASSET and always in the form of something that has intrinsic value, i.e. gold or silver. Payment 17 for anything is in the form of commercial set off.

18 In the PUBLIC, money is a LIABILITY or debt and normally takes the form of a promissory note, i.e. a Federal Reserve
19 Note (FRN), a check, bond or note. Payment is in the form of discharge in the future.

20 The PRIVATE realm is the basis for all contract and commerce under the Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.). The PUBLIC
21 realm was created by the bankruptcy of the PRIVATE entity. Generally, creditors can operate from the PRIVATE. PUBLIC
22 entities are all debtors (or slaves). The exercise of the right to contract by the PRIVATE straw man makes human beings into 23 SURETY for the PUBLIC straw man.

24 Your judicious exercise of your right to contract and the requirement for consent that protects it is the main thing that keeps 25 the PUBLIC separate from the PRIVATE. See:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

26 Be careful how you use your right to contract! It is the most DANGEROUS right you have because it can destroy ALL 27 of your PRIVATE rights by converting them to PUBLIC rights and offices.

28 "These general rules are well settled:

14 Franchises include Social Security, income taxation ("trade or business"/public office franchise), unemployment insurance,
15 driver licensing ("driver" franchise), and marriage licensing ("spouse" franchise).

16 "You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan

22 Governments become corrupt by:

- 23 1. Refusing to recognize the PRIVATE.
- 24 2. Undermining or interfering with the invocation of the common law in courts of justice.
- 25 3. Allowing false information returns to be abused to convert the PRIVATE into the PUBLIC without the consent of the 26 owner.
- 27 4. Destroying or undermining remedies for the protection of PRIVATE rights.
- 28 5. Replacing CONSTITUTIONAL courts with LEGISLATIVE FRANCHISE courts.
- 29 6. Making judges into statutory franchisees such as "taxpayers", through which they are compelled to have a conflict of 30 interest that ultimately destroys or undermines all private rights. This is a crime and a civil offense in violation of 18
31 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §144, and 28 U.S.C. §455.
- 32 7. Offering or enforcing government franchises to people not domiciled on federal territory. This breaks down the 33 separation of powers and enforces franchise law extraterritorially.
- 34 8. Abusing "words of art" to blur or confuse the separation between the PUBLIC and the PRIVATE. (deception)
- 35 9. Removing the domicile prerequisite for participation in government franchises through policy and not law, thus 36 converting them into essentially PRIVATE business ventures that operate entirely through the right to contract.
- 37 10. Abusing sovereign immunity to protect PRIVATE government business ventures, thus destroying competition and 38 implementing a state-sponsored monopoly.
- 39 11. Refusing to criminally prosecute those who compel participation in government franchises.
- 40 12. Turning citizenship into a statutory franchise, and thus causing people who claim citizen status to unwittingly become 41 PUBLIC officers.
- 42 13. Allowing presumption to be used as a substitute for evidence in any proceeding to enforce government franchises
43 against an otherwise PRIVATE party. This violates due process of law, unfairly advantages the government, and 44 imputes to the government supernatural powers as an object of religious worship.

1 Therefore, it is important to learn how to be EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and a CREDITOR in all of our affairs. Freedom is
2 possible in the PRIVATE; it is not even a valid fantasy in the realm of the PUBLIC.

3 7.7 All PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT law attaches to government territory, all PRIVATE law
4 attaches to your right to contract

5 A very important consideration to understand is that:

- 6 1. All EXCLUSIVELY PUBLIC LAW attaches to the government’s own territory. By “PUBLIC”, we mean law that 7 runs the government and ONLY the government.
8 2. All EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE law attaches to one of the following:
9 2.1. The exercise of your right to contract with others.
10 2.2. The property you own and lend out to others based on specific conditions.

11 Item 2.2 needs further attention. Here is how that mechanism works:

12 “How, then, are purely equitable obligations created? For the most part, either by the acts of third persons or by 13 *equity alone. But how can one person impose an obligation upon another? By giving property to the latter on
14 the terms of his assuming an obligation in respect to it. At law there are only two means by which the object of 15 the donor could be at all accomplished, consistently with the entire ownership of the property passing to the
16 donee, namely: first, by imposing a real obligation upon the property; secondly, by subjecting the title of the 17 donee to a condition subsequent. The first of these the law does not permit; the second is entirely inadequate.*
18 Equity, however, can secure most of the objects of the doner, and yet avoid the mischiefs of real obligations by 19 imposing upon the donee (and upon all persons to whom the property shall afterwards come without value or 20 with notice) a personal obligation with respect to the property; and accordingly this is what equity does. It is in 21 this way that all trusts are created, and all equitable charges made (i.e., equitable hypothecations or liens created)
22 by testators in their wills. In this way, also, most trusts are created by acts inter vivos, except in those cases in
23 *which the trustee incurs a legal as well as an equitable obligation. In short, as property is the subject of every 24 equitable obligation, so the owner of property is the only person whose act or acts can be the means of creating
25 an obligation in respect to that property. Moreover, the owner of property can create an obligation in respect
26 to it in only two ways: first, by incurring the obligation himself, in which case he commonly also incurs a legal 27 obligation; secondly, by imposing the obligation upon some third person; and this he does in the way just 28 explained.”

29 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 543]

1 Next, we must describe exactly what we mean by “territory”, and the three types of “territory” identified by the
 2 U.S. Supreme Court in relation to the term “United States”. Below is how the united States Supreme Court
 3 addressed the question of the meaning of the term “United States” (see Black’s Law Dictionary) in the famous
 4 case of Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, 324 U.S. 652 (1945). The Court ruled that the term United States has 5 three uses:

6 "The term 'United States' may be used in any one of several senses. It may be merely the name of a sovereign
 7 occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in the family of nations. It may designate the 8 territory over which the sovereignty of the United States extends, or it may be the collective name of the states
 9 which are united by and under the Constitution."
 10 [Hooven & Allison Co. v. Evatt, 324 U.S. 652 \(1945\)]

11 We will now break the above definition into its three contexts and show what each means.

12 Table 3: Meanings assigned to "United States" by the U.S. Supreme Court in Hooven & Allison v. Evatt

#	U.S. Supreme Court Definition of “United States” in Hooven	Context in which usually used	Referred to in this article as	Interpretation
1	“It may be merely the name of a sovereign occupying the position analogous to that of other sovereigns in the family of nations.”	International law	“United States”	“These united States ,” when traveling abroad, you come under the jurisdiction of the President through his agents in the U.S. State Department, where “U.S.” refers to the sovereign society. You are a “Citizen of the United States” like someone is a Citizen of France, or England. We identify this version of “United States” with a single asterisk after its name: “United States*” throughout this article.
2	“It may designate the territory over which the sovereignty of the United States extends, or”	Federal law Federal forms	“United States”	“The United States (the District of Columbia, possessions and territories)”. Here Congress has exclusive legislative jurisdiction. In this sense, the term “United States” is a singular noun. You are a person residing in the District of Columbia, one of its Territories or Federal areas (enclaves). Hence, even a person living in the one of the sovereign States could still be a member of the Federal area and therefore a “citizen of the United States.” This is the definition used in most “Acts of Congress” and federal statutes. We identify this version of “United States” with two asterisks after its name: “United States” throughout this article. This definition is also synonymous with the “United States” corporation found in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A).
3	“...as the collective name for the states which are united by and under the Constitution.”	Constitution of the United States	“United States*”	“The several States which is the united States of America .” Referring to the 50 sovereign States , which are united under the Constitution of the United States of America . The federal areas within these states are not included in this definition because the Congress does not have exclusive legislative authority over any of the 50 sovereign States within the Union of States . Rights are retained by the States in the 9th and 10th Amendments, and you are a “Citizen of these united States .” This is the definition used in the Constitution for the United States of America. We identify this version of “United States” with a three asterisks after its name: “United States” throughout this article.

13 The way our present system functions, all PUBLIC rights are attached to federal territory. They cannot lawfully
 14 attach to EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property because the right to regulate EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE rights
 15 is repugnant to the constitution, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court.

16 Lastly, when the government enters the realm of commerce and private business activity, it operates in equity and 17 is treated as EQUAL in every respect to everyone else. ONLY in this capacity can it enact law that does NOT 18 attach to its own territory and to those DOMICILED on its territory:

19 See also Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363, 369 (1943) (“The United States does business on 20 business terms”) (quoting United States v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 270 U.S. 527, 534 (1926));
 21 Perry v. United States, supra at 352 (1935) (“When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes
 22 contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such
 23 instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the United States cannot be sued without its consent”)
 24 (citation omitted); United States v. Bostwick, 94 U.S. 53, 66 (1877) (“The United States, when they contract with 25 their citizens, are controlled by the same laws that govern the citizen in that behalf”); Cooke v. United States,
 26 91 U.S. 389, 398 (1875) (explaining that when the United States “comes down from its position of sovereignty,
 27 and enters the domain of commerce, it submits itself to the same laws that govern individuals there”).

1 See Jones, 1 Cl.Ct. at 85 ("Wherever the public and private acts of the government seem to commingle, a citizen
2 or corporate body must by supposition be substituted in its place, and then the question be determined whether
3 the action will lie against the supposed defendant"; O'Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 (1982)
4 (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, "[w]here [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the party hurt
5 by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing action"). The
6 dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz drew its
7 reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize the need
8 to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.
9 [\[United States v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839 \(1996\).\]](#)

10 If a government wants to reach outside its territory and create PRIVATE law for those who have not consented to 11 its jurisdiction by choosing a domicile on its territory, the ONLY method it has for doing this is to exercise its 12 right to contract.

13 Debt and contract [franchise agreement, in this case] are of no particular place.

14 Locus contractus regit actum.

16 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;

17 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

18 The most important method by which governments exercise their PRIVATE right to contract and disassociate 19 with the territorial limitation upon their lawmaking powers is through the use or abuse of franchises, which are 20 contracts.

21 *As a rule, franchises spring from contracts between the sovereign power and private citizens, made upon
22 valuable considerations, for purposes of individual advantage as well as public benefit,<sup>28</sup> and thus a franchise
23 partakes of a double nature and character. So far as it affects or concerns the public, it is publici juris and is 24 subject to governmental control. The legislature may prescribe the manner of granting it, to whom it may be 25 granted, the conditions and terms upon which it may be held, and the duty of the grantee to the public in 26 exercising it, and may also provide for its forfeiture upon the failure of the grantee to perform that duty. But 27 when granted, it becomes the property of the grantee, and is a private right, subject only to the governmental 28 control growing out of its other nature as publici juris.<sup>29</sup>
29 *[American Jurisprudence 2d., Franchises, §4: Generally (1999)]

30 7.8 The Ability to Regulate Private Rights and Private Conduct is Repugnant to the 31 Constitution

32 The following cite establishes that private rights and private property are entirely beyond the control of the 33 government:

34 When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges which, as an
35 individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain. "A body politic," as aptly defined in the 36 preamble of the Constitution of Massachusetts, "is a social compact by which the whole people covenants with
37 each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common
38 good." This does not confer power upon the whole people to control rights which are purely and exclusively
39 private, Thorpe v. R. & B. Railroad Co., 27 Vt. 143; but it does authorize the establishment of laws requiring 40 each citizen to so conduct himself, and so use his own property, as not unnecessarily to injure another. This is 41 the very essence of government, and 125*125 has found expression in the maxim sic utere tuo ut alienum non
42 lædas. From this source come the police powers, which, as was said by Mr. Chief Justice Taney in the License
43 Cases, 5 How. 583, "are nothing more or less than the powers of government inherent in every sovereignty, . .
44 . that is to say, . . . the power to govern men and things." Under these powers the government regulates the* 45 conduct of its citizens one towards another, and the manner in which each shall use his own property, when such
46 regulation becomes necessary for the public good. In their exercise it has been customary in England from time
47 immemorial, and in this country from its first colonization, to regulate ferries, common carriers, hackmen, bakers,
48 millers, wharfingers, innkeepers, &c., and in so doing to fix a maximum of charge to be made for services
49 rendered, accommodations furnished, and articles sold. To this day, statutes are to be found in many of the States
50 upon some or all these subjects; and we think it has never yet been successfully contended that such legislation
51 came within any of the constitutional prohibitions against interference with private property. With the Fifth

8 Notice that they say that the ONLY basis to regulate private rights is to prevent injury of one man to another by 9 the use of said property. They say that this authority is the origin of the "police powers" of the state. What they
10 hide, however, is that these same POLICE POWERS involve the CRIMINAL laws and EXCLUDE the CIVIL 11 laws or even franchises. You can TELL they are trying to hide something because around this subject they invoke
12 the Latin language that is unknown to most Americans to conceal the nature of what they are doing. Whenever 13 anyone invokes Latin in a legal setting, a red flag ought to go up because you KNOW they are trying to hide a 14 KEY fact. Here is the Latin they invoked:

15 "sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas"

16 The other phrase to notice in the Munn case above is the use of the word "social compact". A compact is legally 17 defined as a contract.

18 "Compact, n. An agreement or contract between persons, nations, or states. Commonly applied to working
19 agreements between and among states concerning matters of mutual concern. A contract between parties, which 20 creates obligations and rights capable of being enforced and contemplated as such between the parties, in their 21 distinct and independent characters. A mutual consent of parties concerned respecting some property or right
22 that is the object of the stipulation, or something that is to be done or forborne. See also Compact clause;
23 Confederacy; Interstate compact; Treaty."
24 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 281]

25 Therefore, one cannot exercise their First Amendment right to legally associate with or contract with a SOCIETY
26 and thereby become a party to the "social compact/contract" without ALSO becoming a STATUTORY "citizen".
27 By statutory citizen, we really mean a domiciliary of a SPECIFIC municipal jurisdiction, and not someone who 28 was born or naturalized in that place. Hence, by STATUTORY citizen we mean a person who:

- 29 1. Has voluntarily chosen a civil domicile within a specific municipal jurisdiction and thereby become a "citizen" or 30 "resident" of said jurisdiction. "citizens" or "residents" collectively are called "inhabitants".
- 31 2. Has indicated their choice of domicile on government forms in the block called "residence" or "permanent address".
- 32 3. CONSENTS to be protected by the regional civil laws of a SPECIFIC municipal government.

33 A CONSTITUTIONAL citizen, on the other hand, is someone who cannot consent to choose the place of their 34 birth. These people in federal statutes are called "non-residents". Neither BEING BORN nor being 35 PHYSICALLY PRESENT in a place is an express exercise of one's discretion or an act of CONSENT, and 36 therefore cannot make one a government contractor called a statutory "U.S. citizen". That is why birth or 37 naturalization determines nationality but not their status under the CIVIL laws. All civil jurisdiction is based on 38 "consent of the governed", as the Declaration of Independence indicates. Those who do NOT consent to the civil 39 laws that implement the social compact of the municipal government they are PHYSICALLY situated within are 40 called "free inhabitants", "nonresidents", "transient foreigners", or "foreign sovereigns". These "free inhabitants"
41 are mentioned in the Articles of Confederation, which continue to this day and they are NOT the same and 42 mutually exclusive to a statutory "U.S. citizen". These "free inhabitants" instead are CIVILLY governed by the 43 common law RATHER than the civil law.

44 Policemen are NOT allowed to involve themselves in CIVIL disputes and may ONLY intervene or arrest anyone
45 when a CRIME has been committed. They CANNOT arrest for an "infraction", which is a word designed to hide
46 the fact that the statute being enforced is a CIVIL or FRANCHISE statute not involving the CRIMINAL "police 47 powers". Hence, civil jurisdiction over PRIVATE rights is NOT authorized among those who HAVE such rights.
48 Only those who know those rights and claim and enforce them, not through attorneys but in their proper person,

1 have such rights. Nor can those PRIVATE rights lawfully be surrendered to a REAL, de jure government, even 2 WITH consent, if they are, in fact UNALIENABLE as the Declaration of Independence indicates.

3 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
4 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

5 The only people who can consent to give away a right are those who HAVE no rights because domiciled on federal 6 territory not protected by the Constitution or the Bill of Rights:

7 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform
8 to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or
9 conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every
10 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
11 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and
12 is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the
13 territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan,
14 Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing
15 a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative
16 power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not
17 until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the
18 people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress
19 thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that
20 the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of 21 habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
22 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

23 To apply these concepts, the police enforce the "vehicle code", but most of the vehicle code is a civil franchise
24 that they may NOT enforce without ABUSING the police powers of the state. In recognition of these concepts,
25 the civil provisions of the vehicle code are called "infractions" rather than "crimes". AND, before the civil 26 provisions of the vehicle code may lawfully be enforced against those using the public roadways, one must be a
27 "resident" with a domicile not within the state, but on federal territory where rights don't exist. All civil law
28 attaches to SPECIFIC territory. That is why by applying for a driver's license, most state vehicle codes require 29 that the person must be a "resident" of the state, meaning a person with a domicile within the statutory but not 30 Constitutional "United States", meaning federal territory.

31 So what the vehicle codes in most states do is mix CRIMINAL and CIVIL and even PRIVATE franchise law all
32 into one title of code, call it the "Vehicle code", and make it extremely difficult for even the most law abiding
33 "citizen" to distinguish which provisions are CIVIL/FRANCHISES and which are CRIMINAL, because they want
34 to put the police force to an UNLAWFUL use enforcing CIVIL rather than CRIMINAL law. This has the practical 35 effect of making the "CODE" not only a deception, but void for vagueness on its face, because it fails to give 36 reasonable notice to the public at large, WHICH specific provisions pertain to EACH subset of the population.
37 That in fact, is why they have to call it "the code", rather than simply "law": Because the truth is encrypted and 38 hidden in order to unlawfully expand their otherwise extremely limited civil jurisdiction. The two subsets of the 39 population who they want to confuse and mix together in order to undermine your sovereignty are:

- 40 1. Those who consent to the "social compact" by choosing a domicile or residence within a specific municipal 41 jurisdiction. These people are identified by the following statutory terms:
  - 42 1.1. Individuals.
  - 43 1.2. Residents.
  - 44 1.3. Citizens.
  - 45 1.4. Inhabitants.
  - 46 1.5. PUBLIC officers serving as an instrumentality of the government.
- 47 2. Those who do NOT consent to the "social compact" and who therefore are called:
  - 48 2.1. Free inhabitants.
  - 49 2.2. Nonresidents.
  - 50 2.3. Transient foreigners.
  - 51 2.4. Sojourners.
  - 52 2.5. EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE human beings beyond the reach of the civil statutes implementing the social 53 compact.

1 So how can they reach those in constitutional states with the vehicle code who are neither domiciled on federal
2 territory nor representing a public office that is domiciled there? The way they get around the problem of only 3 being able to enforce the CIVIL provisions of the vehicle code against domiciliaries of the federal zone is to:

- 4 1. Force those who apply for driver licenses to misrepresent their status so they appear as either statutory citizens or 5 public officers on official business. This is done using the "permanent address" block and requiring a Social Security
6 Number to get a license.
- 7 2. Confuse CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens" with STATUTORY "citizens", to make them appear the same even though
8 they are NOT.
- 9 3. Arrest people domiciled in constitutional states for driving WITHOUT a license, even though technically these 10 provisions can only be enforceable against those who are acting as a public officer WHILE driving AND who are 11 STATUTORY but not CONSTITUTIONAL "citizens". This creates the false appearance that EVERYONE must have 12 a license, rather than only those domiciled on federal territory or representing an office domiciled there.

13 The act of "governing" WITHOUT consent therefore implies CRIMINAL governing, not CIVIL governing. To 14 procure CIVIL jurisdiction over a private right requires the CONSENT of the owner of the right. That is why the 15 U.S. Supreme Court states in Munn the following:

16 "When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges which, as an 17 individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain."
18 [Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876),
19 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar\_case?case=6419197193322400931]

20 Therefore, if one DOES NOT consent to join a "society" as a statutory citizen, he RETAINS those SOVEREIGN
21 rights that would otherwise be lost through the enforcement of the civil law. Here is how the U.S. Supreme Court
22 describes this requirement of law:

23 "Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, - 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
24 *and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
25 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations:

26 [1] First, that he shall not use it to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must 27 use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL SECURITY, Medicare, and 28 every other public "benefit"];

29 [2] second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and

30 [3] third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due compensation."
31 [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

32 A PRIVATE right that is unalienable cannot be given away by a citizen, even WITH consent, to a de jure
33 government. Hence, the only people that any government may CIVILLY govern are those without unalienable
34 rights, all of whom MUST therefore be domiciled on federal territory where CONSTITUTIONAL rights do not 35 exist.

36 Notice that when they are talking about "regulating" conduct using CIVIL law, all of a sudden they mention
37 "citizens" instead of ALL PEOPLE. These "citizens" are those with a DOMICILE within federal territory not 38 protected by the Constitution:

39 "Under these powers the government regulates the conduct of its citizens one towards another, and the manner
40 in which each shall use his own property, when such regulation becomes necessary for the public good."
41 [Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876),
42 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar\_case?case=6419197193322400931]

43 All "citizens" that they can regulate therefore must be WITHIN the government and be acting as public officers.
44 Otherwise, they would continue to be PRIVATE parties beyond the CIVIL control of any government. Hence, in 45 a Republican Form of Government where the People are sovereign:

- 1 1. The only "subjects" under the civil law are public officers in the government.
- 2 2. The government is counted as a STATUTORY "citizen" but not a CONSTITUTIONAL "citizen". All
- 3 CONSTITUTIONAL citizens are human beings and CANNOT be artificial entities. All STATUTORY citizens, on the
- 4 other hand, are artificial entities and franchises and NOT CONSTITUTIONAL citizens.

5 "A corporation [the U.S. government, and all those who represent it as public officers, is a federal corporation
6 per 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A) ] is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of 7 which it was created, and of that state or country only."
8 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §886 (2003)]

9
10 "Citizens of the United States within the meaning of this Amendment must be natural and not artificial 11 persons; a corporate body is not a citizen of the United States."<sup>14</sup>

12
13 <sup>14</sup> Insurance Co. v. New Orleans, 13 Fed.Cas. 67 (C.C.D.La. 1870). Not being citizens of the United States,
14 corporations accordingly have been declared unable "to claim the protection of that clause of the Fourteenth
15 Amendment which secures the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States against abridgment or 16 impairment by the law of a State." Orient Ins. Co. v. Daggs, 172 U.S. 557, 561 (1869) . This conclusion was in
17 harmony with the earlier holding in Paul v. Virginia, 75 U.S. (8 Wall.) 168 (1869), to the effect that corporations
18 were not within the scope of the privileges and immunities clause of state citizenship set out in Article IV, Sec. 2.

- 24 3. The only statutory "citizens" are public offices in the government.
- 25 4. By serving in a public office, one becomes the same type of "citizen" as the GOVERNMENT is.

26 These observations are consistent with the very word roots that form the word "republic". The following video
27 says the word origin comes from "res publica", which means a collection of PUBLIC rights shared by the public.
28 You must therefore JOIN "the public" and become a public officer before you can partake of said PUBLIC right.

Overview of America, SEDM Liberty University, Section 2.3
<http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

29 This gives a WHOLE NEW MEANING to Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, in which he refers to 30 American government as:

31 "A government of the people, by the people, and for the people."

32 You gotta volunteer as an uncompensated public officer for the government to CIVILLY govern you. Hence, the 33 only thing they can CIVILLY GOVERN, is the GOVERNMENT! Pretty sneaky, huh? Here is a whole 34 memorandum of law on this subject proving such a conclusion:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Form...StatLawGovt.pdf>

35 The other important point we wish to emphasize is that those who are EXCLUSIVELY private and therefore 36 beyond the reach of the civil law are:

- 37 1. Free inhabitants.
- 38 2. Not a statutory "person" under the civil law or franchise statute in question.
- 39 3. Not "individuals" under the CIVIL law if they are human beings. All statutory "individuals", in fact, are identified as 40 "employees" under 5 U.S.C. §2105(a). This is the ONLY statute that describes HOW one becomes a statutory 41 "individual" that we have been able to find.
- 42 4. "foreign", a "transient foreigner", and sovereign in respect to government CIVIL but not CRIMINAL jurisdiction.

1 5. NOT “subject to” but also not necessarily statutorily “exempt” under the civil or franchise statute in question.

2 For a VERY interesting background on the subject of this section, we recommend reading the following case:

Mugler v. Kansas, 123 U.S. 623 (1887)

3 7.9 “Political (PUBLIC) law” v. “civil (PRIVATE/COMMON) law”

4 Within our republican government, the founding fathers recognized three classes of law:

- 5 1. Criminal law. Protects both PUBLIC and PRIVATE rights.
- 6 2. Civil law. Protects exclusively PRIVATE rights. In effect, it implements ONLY the common law and does not 7 regulate the government at all.
- 8 3. Political law. Protects exclusively PUBLIC rights of public officers and offices within the government.

9 The above three types of law were identified in the following document upon which the founding fathers wrote
10 the constitution and based the design of our republican form of government:

The Spirit of Laws, Charles de Montesquieu, 1758
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/SpiritOfLaws/sol.htm>

11 The Spirit of Laws book is where the founding fathers got the idea of separation of powers and three branches of 12 government: Executive, Legislative, and Judicial. Montesquieu defines “political law” and “political liberty” as 13 follows:

14 I. A general Idea.

15 I make a distinction between the laws that establish political liberty, as it relates to the constitution, and those 16 by which it is established, as it relates to the citizen. The former shall be the subject of this book; the latter I shall 17 examine in the next.

18 [The Spirit of Laws, Charles de Montesquieu, 1758, Book XI, Section I;
19 SOURCE: http://famguardian.org/Publications/SpiritOfLaws/sol\_11.htm#001]

20 The Constitution in turn is a POLITICAL document which represents law EXCLUSIVELY for public officers
21 within the government. It does not obligate or abrogate any PRIVATE right. It defines what the courts call 22 “public rights”, meaning rights possessed and owned exclusively by the government ONLY.

23 “And the Constitution itself is in every real sense a law-the lawmakers being the people themselves, in whom 24 under our system all political power and sovereignty primarily resides, and through whom such power and 25 sovereignty primarily speaks. It is by that law, and not otherwise, that the legislative, executive, and judicial 26 agencies which it created exercise such political authority as they have been permitted to possess. The 27 Constitution speaks for itself in terms so plain that to misunderstand their import is not rationally possible.
28 ‘We the People of the United States,’ it says, ‘do ordain and establish this Constitution.’ Ordain and establish!
29 These are definite words of enactment, and without more would stamp what follows with the dignity and character
30 of law. The framers of the Constitution, however, were not content to let the matter rest here, but provided
31 explicitly-‘This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; ...
32 shall be the supreme Law of the Land.’ (Const. art. 6, cl. 2.) The supremacy of the Constitution as law is thus 33 declared without qualification. That supremacy is absolute; the supremacy of a statute enacted by Congress is 34 not absolute but conditioned upon its being made in pursuance of the Constitution. And a judicial tribunal,
35 clothed by that instrument with complete judicial power, and, therefore, by the very nature of the power, required
36 to ascertain and apply the law to the facts in every case or proceeding properly brought for adjudication, must 37 apply the supreme law and reject the inferior stat- [298 U.S. 238, 297] ute whenever the two conflict. In the 38 discharge of that duty, the opinion of the lawmakers that a statute passed by them is valid must be given great
39 weight, Adkins v. Children’s Hospital, 261 U.S. 525, 544, 43 S.Ct. 394, 24 A.L.R. 1238; but their opinion, or the 40 court’s opinion, that the statute will prove greatly or generally beneficial is wholly irrelevant to the inquiry.
41 Schechter Poultry Corp. v. United States, 295 U.S. 495, 549, 550 S., 55 S.Ct. 837, 97 A.L.R. 947. “
42 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 (1936)]

1 The vast majority of laws passed by Congress are what Montesquieu calls “political law” that is intended
2 exclusively for the government and not the private citizen. The authority for implementing such political law is 3 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. To wit:

4 United States Constitution
5 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

6 *The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the
7 Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed*
8 as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

9 Tax franchise codes such as the Internal Revenue Code, for instance, are what Montesquieu calls “political law”
10 exclusively for the government or public officer and not the private (CONSTITUTIONAL) citizen. Why?
11 Because:

- 12 1. The U.S. Supreme Court identified taxes as a “political matter”. “Political law”, “political questions”, and 13 “political matters” cannot be heard by true constitutional courts and may ONLY be heard in legislative 14 franchise courts officiated by the Executive and not Judicial branch:

15 “Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit
16 or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth
17 Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally
18 reciprocal duties of protection by the state and of allegiance and support by the citizen. The latter obviously
19 includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a political matter. Of course, the situs of 20 property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of the owner, the most obvious illustration 21 being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located.”

22 Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, [347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

- 23 2. The U.S. Tax Court:

24 2.1. Is an Article I Court in the EXECUTIVE and not JUDICIAL branch, and hence, can only officiate over 25 matters INTERNAL to the government. See 26 U.S.C. §7441.

26 2.2. Is a POLITICAL court in the POLITICAL branch of the government. Namely, the Executive branch.

27 2.3. Is limited to the District of Columbia because all public offices are limited to serve there per 4 U.S.C.
28 §72. It travels all over the country, but this is done ILLEGALLY and in violation of the separation of 29 powers.

- 30 3. The activity subject to excise taxation is limited exclusively to “public offices” in the government, which is 31 what a “trade or business” is statutorily defined as in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26).

32 26 U.S.C. Sec. 7701\(a\)\(26\)

33 “The term ‘trade or business’ includes the performance of the functions of a public office.”

34 In Book XXVI, Section 15 of the Spirit of Laws, Montesquieu says that POLITICAL laws should not be allowed
35 to regulate CIVIL conduct, meaning that POLITICAL laws limited exclusively to the government should not be 36 enforced upon the PRIVATE citizen or made to “appear” as though they are “civil law” that applies to everyone:

37 The Spirit of Laws, Book XXVI, Section 15

38 15. That we should not regulate by the Principles of political Law those Things which depend on the Principles
39 of civil Law.

40 As men have given up their natural independence to live under political laws, they have given up the natural 41 community of goods to live under civil laws.

42 By the first, they acquired [PUBLIC] liberty; by the second, [PRIVATE] property. We should not decide by the 43 laws of [PUBLIC] liberty, which, as we have already said, is only the government of the community, what 44 ought to be decided by the laws concerning [PRIVATE] property. It is a paralogism to say that the good of the 45 individual should give way to that of the public; this can never take place, except when the government of the 46 community, or, in other words, the liberty of the subject is concerned; this does not affect such cases as relate

1 to private property, because the public good consists in every one's having his property, which was given him
2 by the civil laws, invariably preserved.

3 Cicero maintains that the Agrarian laws were unjust; because the community was established with no other view
4 than that every one might be able to preserve his property.

5 Let us, therefore, lay down a certain maxim, that whenever the public good happens to be the matter in question,
6 it is not for the advantage of the public to deprive an individual of his property, or even to retrench the least
7 part of it by a law, or a political regulation. In this case we should follow the rigour of the civil law, which is 8 the Palladium of [PRIVATE] property.

9 Thus when the public has occasion for the estate of an individual, it ought never to act by the rigour of political 10 law; it is here that the civil law ought to triumph, which, with the eyes of a mother, regards every individual as 11 the whole community.

12 If the political magistrate would erect a public edifice, or make a new road, he must indemnify those who are 13 injured by it; the public is in this respect like an individual who treats with an individual. It is fully enough that 14 it can oblige a citizen to sell his inheritance, and that it can strip him of this great privilege which he holds from 15 the civil law, the not being forced to alienate his possessions.

16 After the nations which subverted the Roman empire had abused their very conquests, the spirit of liberty called
17 them back to that of equity. They exercised the most barbarous laws with moderation: and if any one should doubt
18 the truth of this, he need only read Beaumanoir's admirable work on jurisprudence, written in the twelfth century.

19 They mended the highways in his time as we do at present. He says, that when a highway could not be repaired,
20 they made a new one as near the old as possible; but indemnified the proprietors at the expense of those who 21 reaped any advantage from the road.<sup>43</sup> They determined at that time by the civil law; in our days, we determine 22 by the law of politics.

23 [The Spirit of Laws, Charles de Montesquieu, 1758, Book XXVI, Section 15;
24 SOURCE: http://famguardian.org/Publications/SpiritOfLaws/sol\_11.htm#001]

25 What Montesquieu is implying is what we have been saying all along, and he said it in 1758, which was even 26 before the Declaration of Independence was written:

- 27 1. The purpose of establishing government is exclusively to protect PRIVATE rights.
28 2. PRIVATE rights are protected by the CIVIL law. The civil law, in turn is based in EQUITY rather than PRIVILEGE:

29 “Thus when the public has occasion for the estate of an individual, it ought never to act by the rigour of 30 political law; it is here that the civil law ought to triumph, which, with the eyes of a mother, regards every 31 individual as the whole community.”

- 32 3. PUBLIC or government rights are protected by the PUBLIC or POLITICAL or GOVERNMENT law and NOT the 33 CIVIL law.
34 4. The first and most important role of government is to prevent the POLITICAL or GOVERNMENT law from being 35 used or especially ABUSED as an excuse to confiscate or jeopardize PRIVATE property.

36 Unfortunately, it is precisely the above type of corruption that Montesquieu describes that is the foundation of the 37 present de facto government, tax system, and money system. ALL of them treat every human being as a PUBLIC
38 officer against their consent, and impose what he calls the “rigors of the political law” upon them, in what amounts
39 to a THEFT and CONFISCATION of otherwise PRIVATE property by enforcing PUBLIC law against PRIVATE 40 people.

41 The implications of Montesquieu’s position are that the only areas where POLITICAL law and CIVIL law should 42 therefore overlap is in the exercise of the political rights to vote and serve on jury duty. Why? Because jurists
43 are regarded as public officers in 18 U.S.C. §201(a)(1):

44 TITLE 18 > PART 1 > CHAPTER 11 > § 201
45 § 201. Bribery of public officials and witnesses

46 (a) For the purpose of this section—

(1) the term "public official" means Member of Congress, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, either before or after such official has qualified, or an officer or employee or person acting for or on behalf of the United States, or any department, agency or branch of Government thereof, including the District of Columbia, in any official function, under or by authority of any such department, agency, or branch of Government, or a juror;

However, it has also repeatedly been held by the courts that poll taxes are unconstitutional. Hence, voters technically are NOT to be regarded as public officers or franchisees for any purpose OTHER than their role as a voter. Recall that all statutory "Taxpayers" are public officers in the government.

In the days since Montesquieu, the purpose and definition of what he has called the CIVIL law has since been purposefully and maliciously corrupted so that it no longer protects exclusively PRIVATE rights or implements the COMMON law, but rather protects mainly PUBLIC rights and POLITICAL officers in the government. In other words, society has become corrupted by the following means that he warned would happen:

1. What Montesquieu calls CIVIL law has become the POLITICAL law.
2. There is not CIVIL (common) law anymore as he defines it, because the courts interfere with the enforcement of the common law and the protection of PRIVATE rights.
3. The purpose of government has transformed from protecting mainly PRIVATE rights using the common law to that of protecting PUBLIC rights using the STATUTE law, which in turn has become exclusively POLITICAL law.
4. All those who insist on remaining exclusively private cannot utilize any government service, because the present government forms refuse to recognize such a status or provide services to those with such status.
5. Everyone who wants to call themselves a "citizen" is no longer PRIVATE, but PUBLIC. "citizen" has become a public officer in the government rather than a private human being.
6. All "citizens" are STATUTORY rather than CONSTITUTIONAL in nature.
  - 6.1. There are no longer any CONSTITUTIONAL citizens because the courts refuse to recognize or protect them.
  - 6.2. People are forced to accept the duties of a statutory "citizen" and public officer to get any remedy at all in court or in any government agency.

The above transformations are documented in the following memorandum of law on our site:

7.10 Lawful methods for converting PRIVATE property into PUBLIC property

Next, we must carefully consider all the rules by which EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE property is lawfully converted into PUBLIC property subject to government control or civil regulation. These rules are important, because the status of a particular type of property as either PRIVATE or PUBLIC determines whether either COMMON LAW or STATUTORY LAW apply respectively.

In general, only by either accepting physical property from the government or voluntarily applying for and claiming a status or right under a government franchise can one procure a PUBLIC status and be subject to STATUTORY civil law. If one wishes to be governed ONLY by the common law, then they must make their status very clear in every interaction with the government and on EVERY government form they fill out so as to avoid connecting them to any statutory franchise. Below is an example from a U.S. Department of Justice guide for prosecuting "sovereign citizens" that proves WHY this is the case:

"What evidence refutes a good faith defense will depend on the facts and circumstances of each case. It is often helpful to focus on evidence that shows the defendant knew the law but disregarded it or was simply defying it. For instance, evidence that the defendant received proper advice from a CPA or tax preparer, or that the defendant failed to consult legitimate sources about his or her understanding of the tax laws can be helpful. To refute claims that wages are not income, that the defendant did not understand the meaning of "wages," or that the defendant is a state citizen but not a citizen of the United States, look for loan applications during the prosecution period. Tax defiers and sovereign citizens never seem to have a problem understanding the definition of income on a loan application. They also do not hesitate to check the "yes" box to the question "are you a U.S. citizen." Any evidence that the defendant accepted Government benefits, such as

1 unemployment, Medicare, social security, or the Alaska Permanent Fund Dividend will also be helpful to refute
2 the defendant's claims that he or she is not a citizen subject to federal laws."
3 [Prosecuting Tax Defier and Sovereign Citizen Cases—Frequently Asked Questions, U.S. Attorneys Bulletin,
4 Volume 61, No. 2, March 2013, p. 48;
5 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/USAttyBulletins/usab6102.pdf>]

6 The bottom line is that if you accept a government benefit, they PRESUME the right to rape and pillage absolutely
7 ANYTHING you own. Our Path to Freedom, Form #09.015 process, by the way, makes the use of the above
8 OFFENSE by the government in prosecuting you IMPOSSIBLE. The exhaustive list of attachment forms we 9 provide which define the terms on all government forms they could use as evidence to prove the above also defeat
10 the above tactic by U.S. Attorneys. Also keep in mind that the above tactic is useful against the GOVERNMENT
11 as an offensive weapon. If your property is private, you can grant it to THEM with FRANCHISE conditions
12 found in Form #06.027. If they argue that you can't do it to them, indirectly they are destroying the main source
13 of THEIR jurisdiction as well. Let them shoot themselves in the foot in front of the jury!

14 Below is a detailed list of the rules for converting PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property:

- 15 1. The purpose for establishing governments is mainly to protect private property. The Declaration of Independence affirms 16 this:

17 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
18 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
19 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, 20 -"
21 [Declaration of Independence, 1776]

- 22 2. Government protects private rights by keeping "public [government] property" and "private property" separate and never 23 allowing them to be joined together. This is the heart of the separation of powers doctrine: separation of what is private 24 from what is public with the goal of protecting mainly what is private. See:

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 25 3. All property BEGINS as private property. The only way to lawfully change it to public property is through the exercise
26 of your unalienable constitutional right to contract. All franchises qualify as a type of contract, and therefore, franchises
27 are one of many methods to lawfully convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property. The exercise of the right to 28 contract, in turn, is an act of consent that eliminates any possibility of a legal remedy of the donor against the donee:

29 "Voluntati non fit injuria.
30 He who consents cannot receive an injury. 2 Bouv. Inst. n. 2279, 2327; 4 T. R. 657; Shelf. on mar. & Div. 449.

31 Consensus tollit errorem.
32 Consent removes or obviates a mistake. Co. Litt. 126.

33 Melius est omnia mala pati quam malo concentire.
34 It is better to suffer every wrong or ill, than to consent to it. 3 Co. Inst. 23.

35 Nemo videtur fraudare eos qui sciunt, et consentiunt.
36 One cannot complain of having been deceived when he knew the fact and gave his consent. Dig. 50, 17, 145."
37 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
38 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

- 39 4. In law, all rights are "property".

40 Property. That which is peculiar or proper to any person; that which belongs exclusively to one. In the strict legal
41 sense, an aggregate of rights which are guaranteed and protected by the government. Fulton Light, Heat &
42 Power Co. v. State, 65 Misc.Rep. 263, 121 N.Y.S. 536. The term is said to extend to every species of valuable
43 right and interest. More specifically, ownership; the unrestricted and exclusive right to a thing; the right to
44 dispose of a thing in every legal way, to possess it, to use it, and to exclude everyone else from interfering with it.
45 That dominion or indefinite right of use or disposition which one may lawfully exercise over particular things or
46 subjects. The exclusive right of possessing, enjoying, and disposing of a thing. The highest right a man can have
47 to anything; being used to refer to that right which one has to lands or tenements, goods or chattels, which no
48 way depends on another man's courtesy.

1 The word is also commonly used to denote everything which is the subject of ownership, corporeal or incorporeal,
2 tangible or intangible, visible or invisible, real or personal, everything that has an exchangeable value or which
3 goes to make up wealth or estate. It extends to every species of valuable right and interest, and includes real
4 and personal property, easements, franchises, and incorporeal hereditaments, and includes every invasion of
5 one's property rights by actionable wrong. Labberton v. General Cas. Co. of America, 53 Wash.2d. 180, 332
6 P.2d. 250, 252, 254.

7 Property embraces everything which is or may be the subject of ownership, whether a legal ownership, or whether
8 beneficial, or a private ownership. Davis v. Davis. TexCiv-App., 495 S.W.2d. 607. 611. Term includes not only
9 ownership and possession but also the right of use and enjoyment for lawful purposes. Hoffmann v. Kinealy, Mo.,
10 389 S.W.2d. 745, 752.

11 Property, within constitutional protection, denotes group of rights inhering in citizen's relation to physical
12 thing, as right to possess, use and dispose of it. Cereghino v. State By and Through State Highway Commission,
13 230 Or. 439, 370 P.2d. 694, 697.
14 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 1095]

15 By protecting your constitutional rights, the government is protecting your PRIVATE property. Your rights are private 16 property because they came from God, not from the government. Only what the government creates can become public
17 property. An example is corporations, which are a public franchise that makes officers of the corporation into public 18 officers.

- 19 5. The process of taxation is the process of converting “private property” into a “public use” and a “public purpose”. Below
20 are definitions of these terms for your enlightenment.

21 Public use. *Eminent domain. The constitutional and statutory basis for taking property by eminent domain. For
22 condemnation purposes, “public use” is one which confers some benefit or advantage to the public; it is not
23 confined to actual use by public. It is measured in terms of right of public to use proposed facilities for which
24 condemnation is sought and, as long as public has right of use, whether exercised by one or many members of
25 public, a “public advantage” or “public benefit” accrues sufficient to constitute a public use.* *Montana Power
26 Co. v. Bokma, Mont.*, 457 P.2d. 769, 772, 773.

27 Public use, in constitutional provisions restricting the exercise of the right to take property in virtue of eminent
28 domain, means a use concerning the whole community distinguished from particular individuals. But each and
29 every member of society need not be equally interested in such use, or be personally and directly affected by it;
30 if the object is to satisfy a great public want or exigency, that is sufficient. Ringe Co. v. Los Angeles County, 262
31 U.S. 700, 43 S.Ct. 689, 692, 67 L.Ed. 1186. The term may be said to mean public usefulness, utility, or advantage,
32 or what is productive of general benefit. It may be limited to the inhabitants of a small or restricted locality, but 33 must be in common, and not for a particular individual. The use must be a needful one for the public, which 34 cannot be surrendered without obvious general loss and inconvenience. A “public use” for which land may be
35 taken defies absolute definition for it changes with varying conditions of society, new appliances in the sciences,
36 changing conceptions of scope and functions of government, and other differing circumstances brought about by
37 an increase in population and new modes of communication and transportation. Katz v. Brandon, 156 Conn.
38 521, 245 A.2d. 579, 586.

39 See also Condemnation; Eminent domain.
40 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1232]

41
42 “Public purpose. *In the law of taxation, eminent domain, etc., this is a term of classification to distinguish the 43 objects for which, according to settled usage, the government is to provide, from those which, by the like usage,
44 are left to private interest, inclination, or liberality. The constitutional requirement that the purpose of any tax,
45 police regulation, or particular exertion of the power of eminent domain shall be the convenience, safety, or
46 welfare of the entire community and not the welfare of a specific individual or class of persons [such as, for
47 instance, federal benefit recipients as individuals]. “Public purpose” that will justify expenditure of public
48 money generally means such an activity as will serve as benefit to community as a body and which at same time
49 is directly related function of government.* Pack v. Southwestern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 Tenn. 503, 387 S.W.2d.
50 789, 794 .

51 The term is synonymous with governmental purpose. As employed to denote the objects for which taxes may be
52 levied, it has no relation to the urgency of the public need or to the extent of the public benefit which is to follow;
53 the essential requisite being that a public service or use shall affect the inhabitants as a community, and not
54 merely as individuals. A public purpose or public business has for its objective the promotion of the public
55 health, safety, morals, general welfare, security, prosperity, and contentment of all the inhabitants or residents
56 within a given political division, as, for example, a state, the sovereign powers of which are exercised to promote 57 such public purpose or public business.”
58 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1231, Emphasis added]

1 6. The federal government has no power of eminent domain within states of the Union. This means that they cannot 2 lawfully convert private property to a public use or a public purpose within the exclusive jurisdiction of states of the 3 Union:

4 “The United States have no constitutional capacity to exercise municipal jurisdiction, sovereignty, or eminent
5 domain, within the limits of a State or elsewhere, except in cases where it is delegated, and the court
6 denies the faculty of the Federal Government to add to its powers by treaty
7 or compact.”

8 [Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. 393, 508-509 (1856)]

9 7. The Fifth Amendment prohibits converting private property to a public use or a public purpose without just compensation
10 if the owner does not consent, and this prohibition applies to the Federal government as well as states of the Union. It
11 was made applicable to states of the Union by the Fourteenth Amendment in 1868.

12 Fifth Amendment - Rights of Persons

13 No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or 14 indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Militia, when in actual 15 service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in 16 jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be
17 deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public 18 use, without just compensation.

19 [United States Constitution, Fifth Amendment]

20 If the conversion of private property to public property is done without the express consent of the party affected by the 21 conversion and without compensation, then the following violations have occurred:

22 7.1. Violation of the Fifth Amendment “takings clause” above.

24 7.3. Theft.

25 8. Because taxation involves converting private property to a public use, public purpose, and public office, then it involves 26 eminent domain if the owner of the property did not expressly consent to the taking:

27 Eminent domain. The power to take private property for public use by the state, municipalities, and private* 28 persons or corporations authorized to exercise functions of public character. Housing Authority of Cherokee
29 National of Oklahoma v. Langley, Okl., 555 P.2d. 1025, 1028. Fifth Amendment, U.S. Constitution.

30 In the United States, the power of eminent domain is founded in both the federal (Fifth Amend.) and state
31 constitutions. However, the Constitution limits the power to taking for a public purpose and prohibits the 32 exercise of the power of eminent domain without just compensation to the owners of the property which is 33 taken. The process of exercising the power of eminent domain is commonly referred to as “condemnation”, 34 or, “expropriation”.

35 The right of eminent domain is the right of the state, through its regular organization, to reassert, either
36 temporarily or permanently, its dominion over any portion of the soil of the state on account of public exigency
37 and for the public good. Thus, in time of war or insurrection, the proper authorities may possess and hold any 38 part of the territory of the state for the common safety; and in time of peace the legislature may authorize the 39 appropriation of the same to public purposes, such as the opening of roads, construction of defenses, or providing 40 channels for trade or travel. Eminent domain is the highest and most exact idea of property remaining in the 41 government, or in the aggregate body of the people in their sovereign capacity. It gives a right to resume the 42 possession of the property in the manner directed by the constitution and the laws of the state, whenever the public
43 interest requires it.

44 See also Adequate compensation; Condemnation; Constructive taking; Damages; Expropriation; Fair market
45 value; Just compensation; Larger parcel; Public use; Take.

46 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition, p. 470]

47 9. The Fifth Amendment requires that any taking of private property without the consent of the owner must involve 48 compensation. The Constitution must be consistent with itself. The taxation clauses found in Article 1, Section 8,
49 Clauses 1 and 3 cannot conflict with the Fifth Amendment. The Fifth Amendment contains no exception to the 50 requirement for just compensation upon conversion of private property to a public use, even in the case of taxation. This 51 is why all taxes must be indirect excise taxes against people who provide their consent by applying for a license to engage

1 in the taxed activity: The application for the license constitutes constructive consent to donate the fruits of the activity
2 to a public use, public purpose, and public office.
3 10. There is only ONE condition in which the conversion of private property to public property does NOT require 4 compensation, which is when the owner donates the private property to a public use, public purpose, or public office.
5 To wit:

6 “Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;’
7 and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
8 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it
9 to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL
10 SECURITY, Medicare, and every other public “benefit”]; second, that if he devotes it to a public use, he gives 11 to the public a right to control that use; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take 12 it upon payment of due compensation.”

14 The above rules are summarized below:
15

Table 4: Rules for converting private property to a public use or a public office

1	The owner of property justly acquired enjoys full and exclusive use and control over the property. This right includes the right to exclude government uses or ownership of said property.	Yes
2	He may not use the property to injure the equal rights of his neighbor. For instance, when you murder someone, the government can take your liberty and labor from you by putting you in jail or your life from you by instituting the death penalty against you. Both your life and your labor are “property”. Therefore, the basis for the “taking” was violation of the equal rights of a fellow sovereign “neighbor”.	No
3	He cannot be compelled or required to use it to “benefit” his neighbor. That means he cannot be compelled to donate the property to any franchise that would “benefit” his neighbor such as Social Security, Medicare, etc.	Yes
4	If he donates it to a public use, he gives the public the right to control that use.	Yes
5	Whenever the public needs require, the public may take it without his consent upon payment of due compensation. E.g. “eminent domain”.	No

11. The following two methods are the ONLY methods involving consent of the owner that may be LAWFULLY employed to convert PRIVATE property into PUBLIC property. Anything else is unlawful and THEFT:

11.1. DIRECT CONVERSION: Owner donates the property by conveying title or possession to the government.<sup>30</sup>

11.2. INDIRECT CONVERSION: Owner assumes a PUBLIC status as a PUBLIC officer in the HOLDING of title to the property.<sup>31</sup> All such statuses and the rights that attach to it are creations and property of the government, the use of which is a privilege. The status and all PUBLIC RIGHTS that attach to it conveys a “benefit” for which the status user must pay an excise tax. The tax acts as a rental or use fee for the status, which is government property.

12. You and ONLY you can authorize your private property to be donated to a public use, public purpose, and public office. No third party can lawfully convert or donate your private property to a public use, public purpose, or public office without your knowledge and express consent. If they do, they are guilty of theft and conversion, and especially if they are acting in a quasi-governmental capacity as a “withholding agent” as defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(16).

12.1. A withholding agent cannot file an information return connecting your earnings to a “trade or business” without you actually occupying a “public office” in the government BEFORE you filled out any tax form.

12.2. A withholding agent cannot file IRS Form W-2 against your earnings if you didn’t sign an IRS Form W-4 contract and thereby consent to donate your private property to a public office in the U.S. government and therefore a “public use”.

12.3. That donation process is accomplished by your own voluntary self-assessment and ONLY by that method. Before such a self-assessment, you are a “nontaxpayer” and a private person. After the assessment, you become a “taxpayer” and a public officer in the government engaged in the “trade or business” franchise.

12.4. In order to have an income tax liability, you must complete, sign, and “file” an income tax return and thereby assess yourself:

[Flora v. U.S., 362 U.S. 145 (1960)]*

By assessing yourself, you implicitly give your consent to allow the public the right to control that use of the formerly PRIVATE property donated to a public use.

<sup>30</sup> An example of direct conversion would be the process of “registering” a vehicle with the Department of Motor Vehicles in your state. The act of registration constitutes consent by original ABSOLUTE owner to change the ownership of the property from ABSOLUTE to QUALIFIED and to convey legal title to the state and qualified title to himself.

1 A THEFT of property has occurred on behalf of the government if it attempts to do any of the following:

- 2 1. Circumvents any of the above rules.
- 3 2. Blurs, confuses, or obfuscates the distinction between PRIVATE property and PUBLIC property.
- 4 3. Refuses to identify EXACTLY which of the mechanisms identified in item 10 above was employed in EACH specific 5 case where it:
  - 6 3.1. Asserts a right to regulate the use of private property.
  - 7 3.2. Asserts a right to convert the character of property from PRIVATE to PUBLIC.
  - 8 3.3. Asserts a right to TAX what you THOUGHT was PRIVATE property.

9 The next time someone from the government asserts a tax obligation, you might want to ask them the following 10 very insightful questions based on the content of this section:

- 11 1. Please describe at EXACTLY what point in the taxation process my earnings were LAWFULLY converted from 12 EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE to PUBLIC and thereby became SUBJECT to civil statutory law and government
13 jurisdiction. Check one or more. If none are checked, it shall CONCLUSIVELY be PRESUMED that no tax is owed:
  - 14 1.1. ____ When I was born?
  - 15 1.2. ____ When I became a CONSTITUTIONAL citizen?
  - 16 1.3. ____ When I changed my domicile to a CONSTITUTIONAL and not STATUTORY “State”?
  - 17 1.4. ____ When I indicated “U.S. citizen” or “U.S. resident” on a government form, and the agent accepting it
18 FALSELY PRESUMED that meant I was a STATUTORY “national and citizen of the United States” per 8
19 U.S.C. §1401 rather than a CONSTITUTIONAL “citizen of the United States”?
  - 20 1.5. ____ When I disclosed and used a Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number to my otherwise 21 PRIVATE employer?
  - 22 1.6. ____ When I submitted my withholding documents, such as IRS Forms W-4 or W-8?
  - 23 1.7. ____ When the information return was filed against my otherwise PRIVATE earnings that connected my 24 otherwise PRIVATE earnings to a PUBLIC office in the national government?

7.11 Unlawful methods abused by government to convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property

There are a LOT more ways to UNLAWFULLY convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property than there are ways to do it lawfully. This section will address the most prevalent methods abused by state actors so that you will immediately recognize them when you are victimized by them. For the purposes of this section CONTROL and OWNERSHIP are synonymous. Hence, if the TITLE of the property remains in your name but there is any aspect of control over the USE of said property that does not demonstrably injure others, then the property ceases to be absolutely owned and therefore is owned by the government.

Based on the previous section, there is ONLY one condition in which PRIVATE property can be converted to PUBLIC property without the consent of the owner, which is when it is used to INJURE the rights of others. Any other type of conversion is THEFT. The U.S. Supreme Court describes that process of illegally CONVERTING property from PRIVATE to PUBLIC as follows. Notice that they only reference the “citizen” as being the object of regulation, which implies that those who are “nonresidents” and “transient foreigners” are beyond the control of those governments in whose territory they have not chosen a civil domicile:

“The doctrine that each one must so use his own as not to injure his neighbor — sic utere tuo ut alienum non lædas — is the rule by which every member of society must possess and enjoy his property; and all legislation essential to secure this common and equal enjoyment is a legitimate exercise of State authority. Except in cases where property may be destroyed to arrest a conflagration or the ravages of pestilence, or be taken under the pressure of an immediate and overwhelming necessity to prevent a public calamity, the power of the State over the property of the citizen [NOT EVERYONE, but only those consent to become citizens by choosing a domicile] does not extend beyond such limits.”
[Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876)]

Below is a list of the more prevalent means abused by corrupt and covetous governments to illegally convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC PROPERTY without the express consent of the owner. Many of these techniques are unrecognizable to the average American and therefore surreptitious, which is why they continue to be abused so regularly and chronically by public dis-servants:

1. Deceptively label statutory PRIVILEGES as RIGHTS.
2. Confuse STATUTORY citizenship with CONSTITUTIONAL citizenship.
3. Refuse to admit that the court you are litigating in is a FRANCHISE court that has no jurisdiction over non-franchisees or people who do not consent to the franchise.
4. Abuse the words “includes” and “including” to add anything they want to the definition of “person” or “individual” within the franchise. All such “persons” are public officers and not private human beings. See:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud , Form #05.014 http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm
---
5. Refuse to impose the burden of proof upon the government to show that you EXPRESSLY CONSENTED to convert PRIVATE property into PUBLIC property BEFORE they can claim jurisdiction over it.
6. Silently PRESUME that the property in question is PUBLIC property connected with the “trade or business” (public office per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)) franchise and force you to prove that it ISN’T by CHALLENGING false information returns filed against it, such as IRS Forms W-2, 1098, 1099, and K-1. See:

---
7. Presume that the STATUTORY and CONSTITUTIONAL contexts for geographical words are the same. They are NOT, and in fact are mutually exclusive.
8. Presume that because you submitted an application for a franchise, that you:
  - 8.1. CONSENTED to the franchise and were not under duress.
  - 8.2. Were requesting a “benefit” and therefore agreed to the obligations associated with the “benefit”.

CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE
DIVISION 3. OBLIGATIONS
PART 2. CONTRACTS
CHAPTER 3. CONSENT
Section 1589

1589. A voluntary acceptance of the benefit of a transaction is equivalent to a consent to all the obligations arising from it, so far as the facts are known, or ought to be known, to the person accepting.

8.3. Agree to accept the obligations associated with the status described on the application, such as “taxpayer”, “driver”, “spouse”.

If you want to prevent the above, reserve all your rights on the application, indicate duress, and define all terms on the form as NOT connected with any government or statutory law.

9. PRESUME that the OWNER has a civil statutory status that he or she did not consent to, such as:

9.1. “spouse” under the family code of your state, which is a franchise.

9.2. “driver” under the vehicle code of your state, which is a franchise.

9.3. “taxpayer” under the tax code of your state, which is a franchise.

10. PRESUME in the case of physical PROPERTY that it was situated on federal territory to which the general and exclusive jurisdiction of the national government applies, even though it is not. This is primarily done by playing word games with geographical “words of art” such as “State” and “United States”.

11. Refuse to satisfy the burden of proving that the owner of the property expressly consented in a manner that he/she prescribed to change the status of either himself or the property over which they claim a public interest.

12. Judges will interfere with attempts to introduce evidence in the proceeding that challenges any of the above presumptions.

13. Unlawfully compel the use of Social Security Numbers or Taxpayer Identification Numbers in violation of 42 U.S.C. §408(a)(8) in connection with specific property as a precondition of rendering a usually essential service. It will be illegally compelled because:

13.1. The party against whom it was compelled was not a statutory “Taxpayer” or “person” or “individual” or to whom a duty to furnish said number lawfully applies.

13.2. The property was not located on territory subject to the territorial jurisdiction of that national government.

14. Use one franchise as a way to recruit franchisees under OTHER franchises that are completely unrelated. For instance, they will enact a vehicle code statute that allows for confiscation of REGISTERED vehicles only that are being operated by UNLICENSED drivers. That way, everyone who wants to protect their vehicle also indirectly has to ALSO become a statutory “driver” using the public roadways for commercial activity and thus subject to regulation by the state, even though they in fact ARE NOT intending to do so.

15. Issue a license and then refuse to recognize the authority and ability in court of those possessing said license to act in an EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE capacity. For instance:

15.1. They may have a contractor’s license, but they are NOT allowed to operate as OTHER than a licensed contractor...OR are NOT allowed to operate in an exclusively PRIVATE capacity.

15.2. They may have a vehicle registration but are NOT allowed to remove it or NOT use it during times when they are NOT using the public roadways for hire, which is most of the time. In other words, the vehicle is the equivalent to “off duty” at some times. They allow police officers, who are PUBLIC officers, to be off duty, but not anyone who DOESN’T work for the government.

16. Issue or demand GOVERNMENT ID and then presume that the applicant is a statutory “resident” for ALL purposes, rather than JUST the specific reason the ID was issued. Since a “resident” is a public officer, in effect they are PRESUMING that you are a public officer 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and that you HAVE to assume this capacity without pay or “benefit” and without the ability to quit. See:

Why Domicile and Becoming a “Taxpayer” Require Your Consent, Form #05.002, Section 13.4
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

What all of the above government abuses have in common is that they do one or more of the following:

1. Involve PRESUMPTIONS which violate due process of law and are therefore UNCONSTITUTIONAL. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. Refuse to RECOGNIZE the existence of PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights.

3. Violate the very purpose of establishing government to begin with, which is to PROTECT PRIVATE property by LEAVING IT ALONE and not regulating or benefitting from its use or abuse until AFTER it has been used to injure the equal rights of anyone OTHER than the original owner.

4. Violate the Unconstitutional Conditions Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court.

5. Needlessly interfere with the ownership or control of otherwise PRIVATE property.

6. Often act upon property BEFORE it is used to institute an injury, instead of AFTER. Whenever the law acts to PREVENT future harm rather than CORRECT past harm, it requires the consent of the owner. The common law itself

1 only provides remedies for PAST harm and cannot act on future conduct, except in the case of injunctions where PAST
2 harm is already demonstrated.

- 3 7. Institute involuntary servitude against the owner in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment.
- 4 8. Represent an eminent domain over PRIVATE property in violation of the state constitution in most states.
- 5 9. Violate the takings clauses of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
- 6 10. Violate the maxim of law that the government has a duty to protect your right to NOT receive a “benefit” and NOT pay
7 for “benefits” that you don’t want or don’t need.

26 Below is how the U.S. Supreme Court characterizes efforts to violate the rules for converting PRIVATE property
27 into PUBLIC property listed above and thereby STEAL PRIVATE property. The text below the following line 28 up to the end of the section comes from the case indicated:

29 _____
30 Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876)

31 The question presented, therefore, is one of the greatest importance, — whether it is within the competency of a
32 State to fix the compensation which an individual may receive for the use of his own property in his private 33 business, and for his services in connection with it.

34 [. . .]

35 139*139 The validity of the legislation was, among other grounds, assailed in the State court as being in conflict
36 with that provision of the State Constitution which declares that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or 37 property without due process of law, and with that provision of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Federal 38 Constitution which imposes a similar restriction upon the action of the State. The State court held, in substance,
39 that the constitutional provision was not violated so long as the owner was not deprived of the title and possession
40 of his property; and that it did not deny to the legislature the power to make all needful rules and regulations
41 respecting the use and enjoyment of the property, referring, in support of the position, to instances of its action in 42 prescribing the interest on money, in establishing and regulating public ferries and public mills, and fixing the 43 compensation in the shape of tolls, and in delegating power to municipal bodies to regulate the charges of hackmen
44 and draymen, and the weight and price of bread. In this court the legislation was also assailed on the same ground,

1 our jurisdiction arising upon the clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, ordaining that no State shall deprive any
2 person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. But it would seem from its opinion that the court
3 holds that property loses something of its private character when employed in such a way as to be generally useful.
4 The doctrine declared is that property "becomes clothed with a public interest when used in a manner to make it
5 of public consequence, and affect the community at large;" and from such clothing the right of the legislature is 6 deduced to control the use of the property, and to determine the compensation which the owner may receive for 7 it. When Sir Matthew Hale, and the sages of the law in his day, spoke of property as affected by a public
8 interest, and ceasing from that cause to be juris privati solely, that is, ceasing to be held merely in private 9 right, they referred to property dedicated by the owner to public uses, or to property the use of which was 10 granted by the government, or in connection with which special privileges were conferred. Unless the 11 property was thus dedicated, or some right bestowed by the government was held with the property, either
12 by specific grant or by prescription of so long a time as 140*140 to imply a grant originally, the property
13 was not affected by any public interest so as to be taken out of the category of property held in private right.
14 But it is not in any such sense that the terms "clothing property with a public interest" are used in this case. From 15 the nature of the business under consideration — the storage of grain — which, in any sense in which the words
16 can be used, is a private business, in which the public are interested only as they are interested in the storage of 17 other products of the soil, or in articles of manufacture, it is clear that the court intended to declare that, whenever 18 one devotes his property to a business which is useful to the public, — "affects the community at large," — the 19 legislature can regulate the compensation which the owner may receive for its use, and for his own services in 20 connection with it. "When, therefore," says the court, "one devotes his property to a use in which the public has 21 an interest, he, in effect, grants to the public an interest in that use, and must submit to be controlled by the public
22 for the common good, to the extent of the interest he has thus created. He may withdraw his grant by discontinuing
23 the use; but, so long as he maintains the use, he must submit to the control." The building used by the defendants
24 was for the storage of grain: in such storage, says the court, the public has an interest; therefore the defendants,
25 by devoting the building to that storage, have granted the public an interest in that use, and must submit to have 26 their compensation regulated by the legislature.

27 If this be sound law, if there be no protection, either in the principles upon which our republican
28 government is founded, or in the prohibitions of the Constitution against such invasion of private rights, all
29 property and all business in the State are held at the mercy of a majority of its legislature. The public has 30 no greater interest in the use of buildings for the storage of grain than it has in the use of buildings for the residences
31 of families, nor, indeed, anything like so great an interest; and, according to the doctrine announced, the legislature
32 may fix the rent of all tenements used for residences, without reference to the cost of their erection. If the owner
33 does not like the rates prescribed, he may cease renting his houses. He has granted to the public, says the court,
34 an interest in the use of the 141*141 buildings, and "he may withdraw his grant by discontinuing the use; but, so 35 long as he maintains the use, he must submit to the control." The public is interested in the manufacture of cotton, 36 woollen, and silken fabrics, in the construction of machinery, in the printing and publication of books and 37 periodicals, and in the making of utensils of every variety, useful and ornamental; indeed, there is hardly an 38 enterprise or business engaging the attention and labor of any considerable portion of the community, in 39 which the public has not an interest in the sense in which that term is used by the court in its opinion; and 40 the doctrine which allows the legislature to interfere with and regulate the charges which the owners of 41 property thus employed shall make for its use, that is, the rates at which all these different kinds of business
42 shall be carried on, has never before been asserted, so far as I am aware, by any judicial tribunal in the 43 United States.

44 The doctrine of the State court, that no one is deprived of his property, within the meaning of the 45 constitutional inhibition, so long as he retains its title and possession, and the doctrine of this court, that,
46 whenever one's property is used in such a manner as to affect the community at large, it becomes by that
47 fact clothed with a public interest, and ceases to be juris privati only, appear to me to destroy, for all useful
48 purposes, the efficacy of the constitutional guaranty. All that is beneficial in property arises from its use,
49 and the fruits of that use; and whatever deprives a person of them deprives him of all that is desirable or 50 valuable in the title and possession. If the constitutional guaranty extends no further than to prevent a

1 deprivation of title and possession, and allows a deprivation of use, and the fruits of that use, it does not
2 merit the encomiums it has received. Unless I have misread the history of the provision now incorporated into
3 all our State constitutions, and by the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments into our Federal Constitution, and have 4 misunderstood the interpretation it has received, it is not thus limited in its scope, and thus impotent for good. It
5 has a much more extended operation than either court, State, or Federal has given to it. The provision, it is
6 to be observed, places property under the same protection as life and liberty. Except by due process of law,
7 no State can 142*142 deprive any person of either. The provision has been supposed to secure to every 8 individual the essential conditions for the pursuit of happiness; and for that reason has not been heretofore,
9 and should never be, construed in any narrow or restricted sense.

10 No State "shall deprive any person of life, liberty, or property without due process of law," says the Fourteenth
11 Amendment to the Constitution. By the term "life," as here used, something more is meant than mere animal
12 existence. The inhibition against its deprivation extends to all those limbs and faculties by which life is enjoyed.
13 The provision equally prohibits the mutilation of the body by the amputation of an arm or leg, or the putting out
14 of an eye, or the destruction of any other organ of the body through which the soul communicates with the outer
15 world. The deprivation not only of life, but of whatever God has given to everyone with life, for its growth and 16 enjoyment, is prohibited by the provision in question, if its efficacy be not frittered away by judicial decision.

17 By the term "liberty," as used in the provision, something more is meant than mere freedom from physical restraint
18 or the bounds of a prison. It means freedom to go where one may choose, and to act in such manner, not 19 inconsistent with the equal rights of others, as his judgment may dictate for the promotion of his happiness; that 20 is, to pursue such callings and avocations as may be most suitable to develop his capacities, and give to them their 21 highest enjoyment.

22 The same liberal construction which is required for the protection of life and liberty, in all particulars in 23 which life and liberty are of any value, should be applied to the protection of private property. If the 24 legislature of a State, under pretence of providing for the public good, or for any other reason, can 25 determine, against the consent of the owner, the uses to which private property shall be devoted, or the
26 prices which the owner shall receive for its uses, it can deprive him of the property as completely as by a
27 special act for its confiscation or destruction. If, for instance, the owner is prohibited from using his building
28 for the purposes for which it was designed, it is of little consequence that he is permitted to retain the 29 143*143 title and possession; or, if he is compelled to take as compensation for its use less than the expenses
30 to which he is subjected by its ownership, he is, for all practical purposes, deprived of the property, as 31 effectually as if the legislature had ordered his forcible dispossession. If it be admitted that the legislature
32 has any control over the compensation, the extent of that compensation becomes a mere matter of legislative 33 discretion. The amount fixed will operate as a partial destruction of the value of the property, if it fall below
34 the amount which the owner would obtain by contract, and, practically, as a complete destruction, if it be 35 less than the cost of retaining its possession. There is, indeed, no protection of any value under the 36 constitutional provision, which does not extend to the use and income of the property, as well as to its title
37 and possession.

38 This court has heretofore held in many instances that a constitutional provision intended for the protection of 39 rights of private property should be liberally construed. It has so held in the numerous cases where it has been 40 called upon to give effect to the provision prohibiting the States from legislation impairing the obligation of 41 contracts; the provision being construed to secure from direct attack not only the contract itself, but all the essential
42 incidents which give it value and enable its owner to enforce it. Thus, in Bronson v. Kinzie, reported in the 1st of 43 Howard, it was held that an act of the legislature of Illinois, giving to a mortgagor twelve months within which to 44 redeem his mortgaged property from a judicial sale, and prohibiting its sale for less than two-thirds of its appraised
45 value, was void as applied to mortgages executed prior to its passage. It was contended, in support of the act, that 46 it affected only the remedy of the mortgagee, and did not impair the contract; but the court replied that there was 47 no substantial difference between a retrospective law declaring a particular contract to be abrogated and void, and 48 one which took away all remedy to enforce it, or encumbered the remedy with conditions that rendered it useless

1 or impracticable to pursue it. And, referring to the constitutional provision, the court said, speaking through Mr.
2 Chief Justice Taney, that

3 "it would be unjust to the memory of the distinguished men who framed it, to suppose that it was designed to
4 *protect a mere barren and 144*144 abstract right, without any practical operation upon the business of life. It*
5 was undoubtedly adopted as a part of the Constitution for a great and useful purpose. It was to maintain the 6 integrity of contracts, and to secure their faithful execution throughout this Union, by placing them under the 7 protection of the Constitution of the United States. And it would but Ill. become this court, under any 8 circumstances, to depart from the plain meaning of the words used, and to sanction a distinction between the 9 right and the remedy, which would render this provision illusive and nugatory, mere words of form, affording no
10 protection and producing no practical result."

11 And in Pumpelly v. Green Bay Company, 13 Wall. 177, the language of the court is equally emphatic. That case
12 arose in Wisconsin, the constitution of which declares, like the constitutions of nearly all the States, that private 13 property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation; and this court held that the flooding of one's
14 land by a dam constructed across a river under a law of the State was a taking within the prohibition, and required
15 compensation to be made to the owner of the land thus flooded. The court, speaking through Mr. Justice Miller,
16 said: —

17 "It would be a very curious and unsatisfactory result, if, in construing a provision of constitutional law, always 18 understood to have been adopted for protection and security to the rights of the individual as against the 19 government, and which has received the commendation of jurists, statesmen, and commentators, as placing the 20 just principles of the common law on that subject beyond the power of ordinary legislation to change or control
21 them, it shall be held that, if the government refrains from the absolute conversion of real property to the uses of 22 the public, it can destroy its value entirely, can inflict irreparable and permanent injury to any extent, can, in
23 effect, subject it to total destruction without making any compensation, because, in the narrowest sense of the 24 *word, it is not taken for the public use. Such a construction would pervert the constitutional provision into a
25 restriction on the rights of the citizen, as those rights stood at the common law, instead of the government, and 26 make it an authority for invasion of private right under the pretext of the public good, which had no warrant 27 in the laws or practices of our ancestors."

28 The views expressed in these citations, applied to this case, would render the constitutional provision
29 invoked by the defendants effectual to protect them in the uses, income, and revenues of their property, as 30 well as in its title and possession. The construction actually given by the State court and by this court makes 31 the provision, in the language of Taney, a protection to "a mere barren and abstract right, without any 32 practical operation upon the business of life," and renders it "illusive and nugatory, mere words of form,
33 affording no protection and producing no practical result."

34 The power of the State over the property of the citizen under the constitutional guaranty is well defined. The State
35 may take his property for public uses, upon just compensation being made therefor. It may take a portion of his 36 property by way of taxation for the support of the government. It may control the use and possession of his 37 property, so far as may be necessary for the protection of the rights of others, and to secure to them the equal use
38 and enjoyment of their property. The doctrine that each one must so use his own as not to injure his neighbor
39 — sic utere tuo ut alienum non lædas — is the rule by which every member of society must possess and 40 enjoy his property; and all legislation essential to secure this common and equal enjoyment is a legitimate
41 exercise of State authority. Except in cases where property may be destroyed to arrest a conflagration or 42 the ravages of pestilence, or be taken under the pressure of an immediate and overwhelming necessity to 43 prevent a public calamity, the power of the State over the property of the citizen does not extend beyond 44 such limits.

45 It is true that the legislation which secures to all protection in their rights, and the equal use and enjoyment of their 46 property, embraces an almost infinite variety of subjects. Whatever affects the peace, good order, morals, and 47 health of the community, comes within its scope; and every one must use and enjoy his property subject to the 48 restrictions which such legislation imposes. What is termed the police power of the State, which, from the language
49 often used respecting it, one would suppose to be an undefined and irresponsible element in government, can only
50 interfere with the conduct of individuals in their intercourse with each other, and in the use of their property, so
51 far 146*146 as may be required to secure these objects. The compensation which the owners of property, not 52 having any special rights or privileges from the government in connection with it, may demand for its use,

1 or for their own services in union with it, forms no element of consideration in prescribing regulations for
2 that purpose. If one construct a building in a city, the State, or the municipality exercising a delegated power
3 from the State, may require its walls to be of sufficient thickness for the uses intended; it may forbid the 4 employment of inflammable materials in its construction, so as not to endanger the safety of his neighbors; if
5 designed as a theatre, church, or public hall, it may prescribe ample means of egress, so as to afford facility for 6 escape in case of accident; it may forbid the storage in it of powder, nitro-glycerine, or other explosive material;
7 it may require its occupants daily to remove decayed vegetable and animal matter, which would otherwise
8 accumulate and engender disease; it may exclude from it all occupations and business calculated to disturb the 9 neighborhood or infect the air. Indeed, there is no end of regulations with respect to the use of property which 10 may not be legitimately prescribed, having for their object the peace, good order, safety, and health of the 11 community, thus securing to all the equal enjoyment of their property; but in establishing these regulations it is
12 evident that compensation to the owner for the use of his property, or for his services in union with it, is not a 13 matter of any importance: whether it be one sum or another does not affect the regulation, either in respect to its 14 utility or mode of enforcement. One may go, in like manner, through the whole round of regulations authorized
15 by legislation, State or municipal, under what is termed the police power, and in no instance will he find that the 16 compensation of the owner for the use of his property has any influence in establishing them. It is only where 17 some right or privilege is conferred by the government or municipality upon the owner, which he can use
18 in connection with his property, or by means of which the use of his property is rendered more valuable to 19 him, or he thereby enjoys an advantage over others, that the compensation to be received by him becomes
20 a legitimate matter of regulation. Submission to the regulation of compensation in such cases is an implied
21 condition 147*147 of the grant, and the State, in exercising its power of prescribing the compensation, only
22 determines the conditions upon which its concession shall be enjoyed. When the privilege ends, the power 23 of regulation ceases.

24 Jurists and writers on public law find authority for the exercise of this police power of the State and the numerous
25 regulations which it prescribes in the doctrine already stated, that everyone must use and enjoy his property
26 consistently with the rights of others, and the equal use and enjoyment by them of their property. "The police
27 power of the State," says the Supreme Court of Vermont, "extends to the protection of the lives, limbs, health,
28 comfort, and quiet of all persons, and the protection of all property in the State. According to the maxim, sic utere
29 tuo ut alienum non lædas, which, being of universal application, it must, of course, be within the range of 30 legislative action to define the mode and manner in which every one may so use his own as not to injure others."
31 Thorpe v. Rutland & Burlington Railroad Co., 27 Vt. 149. "We think it a settled principle growing out of the 32 nature of well-ordered civil society," says the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, "that every holder of property,
33 however absolute and unqualified may be his title, holds it under the implied liability that his use of it shall not be
34 injurious to the equal enjoyment of others having an equal right to the enjoyment of their property, nor injurious
35 to the rights of the community." Commonwealth v. Alger, 7 Cush. 84. In his Commentaries, after speaking of the 36 protection afforded by the Constitution to private property, Chancellor Kent says: —

37 "But though property be thus protected, it is still to be understood that the law-giver has the right to prescribe
38 the mode and manner of using it, so far as may be necessary to prevent the abuse of the right, to the injury or 39 annoyance of others, or of the public. The government may, by general regulations, interdict such uses of property
40 as would create nuisances and become dangerous to the lives, or health, or peace, or comfort of the citizens.
41 Unwholesome trades, slaughter-houses, operations offensive to the senses, the deposit of powder, the application
42 of steam-power to propel cars, the building with combustible materials, and the burial of the dead, may all be
43 *interdicted by law, in the-midst of dense masses of population, 148*148 on the general and rational principle*
44 that every person ought so to use his property as not to injure his neighbors, and that private interests must be 45 made subservient to the general interests of the community. 2 Kent, 340.

46 The Italics in these citations are mine. The citations show what I have already stated to be the case, that the 47 regulations which the State, in the exercise of its police power, authorizes with respect to the use of property are 48 entirely independent of any question of compensation for such use, or for the services of the owner in connection 49 with it.

50 There is nothing in the character of the business of the defendants as warehousemen which called for the 51 interference complained of in this case. Their buildings are not nuisances; their occupation of receiving and storing

1 grain infringes upon no rights of others, disturbs no neighborhood, infects not the air, and in no respect prevents
2 others from using and enjoying their property as to them may seem best. The legislation in question is nothing
3 less than a bold assertion of absolute power by the State to control at its discretion the property and business
4 of the citizen, and fix the compensation he shall receive. The will of the legislature is made the condition
5 upon which the owner shall receive the fruits of his property and the just reward of his labor, industry, and 6 enterprise. "That government," says Story, "can scarcely be deemed to be free where the rights of property
7 are left solely dependent upon the will of a legislative body without any restraint. The fundamental maxims
8 of a free government seem to require that the rights of personal liberty and private property should be held
9 sacred." Wilkeson v. Leland, 2 Pet. 657. The decision of the court in this case gives unrestrained license to 10 legislative will.

11 The several instances mentioned by counsel in the argument and by the court in its opinion, in which legislation
12 has fixed the compensation which parties may receive for the use of their property and services, do not militate
13 against the views I have expressed of the power of the State over the property of the citizen. They were mostly 14 cases of public ferries, bridges, and turnpikes, of wharfingers, hackmen, and draymen, and of interest on money.
15 In all these cases, except that of interest on money, which I shall presently notice there was some special 149*149
16 privilege granted by the State or municipality; and no one, I suppose, has ever contended that the State had not a
17 right to prescribe the conditions upon which such privilege should be enjoyed. The State in such cases exercises
18 no greater right than an individual may exercise over the use of his own property when leased or loaned to 19 others. The conditions upon which the privilege shall be enjoyed being stated or implied in the legislation
20 authorizing its grant, no right is, of course, impaired by their enforcement. The recipient of the privilege,
21 in effect, stipulates to comply with the conditions. It matters not how limited the privilege conferred, its 22 acceptance implies an assent to the regulation of its use and the compensation for it. The privilege which the 23 hackman and drayman have to the use of stands on the public streets, not allowed to the ordinary coachman or 24 laborer with teams, constitutes a sufficient warrant for the regulation of their fares. In the case of the 25 warehousemen of Chicago, no right or privilege is conferred by the government upon them; and hence no assent
26 of theirs can be alleged to justify any interference with their charges for the use of their property.

27 The quotations from the writings of Sir Matthew Hale, so far from supporting the positions of the court, do not
28 recognize the interference of the government, even to the extent which I have admitted to be legitimate. They state
29 merely that the franchise of a public ferry belongs to the king, and cannot be used by the subject except by license
30 from him, or prescription time out of mind; and that when the subject has a public wharf by license from the king,
31 or from having dedicated his private wharf to the public, as in the case of a street opened by him through his own
32 land, he must allow the use of the wharf for reasonable and moderate charges. Thus, in the first quotation which 33 is taken from his treatise De Jure Maris, Hale says that the king has

34 "a right of franchise or privilege, that no man may set up a common ferry for all passengers without a prescription
35 time out of mind or a charter from the king. He may make a ferry for his own use or the use of his family, but not 36 for the common use of all the king's subjects passing that way; because it doth in consequent tend to a common
37 *charge, and is become a thing of public interest and use, and every man for his passage 150*150 pays a toll,*
38 which is a common charge, and every ferry ought to be under a public regulation, viz., that it give attendance at 39 due times, keep a boat in due order, and take but reasonable toll; for if he fail in these he is finable."

40 Of course, one who obtains a license from the king to establish a public ferry, at which "every man for his passage 41 pays a toll," must take it on condition that he charge only reasonable toll, and, indeed, subject to such regulations 42 as the king may prescribe.

43 In the second quotation, which is taken from his treatise De Portibus Maris, Hale says: —

44 "A man, for his own private advantage, may, in a port or town, set up a wharf or crane, and may take what rates
45 he and his customers can agree for cranage, wharfage, housellage, pesage; for he doth no more than is lawful
46 for any man to do, viz., makes the most of his own. If the king or subject have a public wharf, unto which all 47 persons that come to that port must come and unlade or lade their goods as for the purpose, because they are the 48 wharves only licensed by the king, or because there is no other wharf in that port, as it may fall out where a port
49 is newly erected, in that case there cannot be taken arbitrary and excessive duties for cranage, wharfage, pesage,
50 &c.; neither can they be enhanced to an immoderate rate, but the duties must be reasonable and moderate, though

1                   settled by the king's license or charter. For now the wharf and crane and other conveniences are affected with a
2                   public interest, and they cease to be juris privati only; as if a man set out a street in new building on his own land,
3                   it is now no longer bare private interest, but is affected by the public interest."

4     The purport of which is, that if one have a public wharf, by license from the government or his own dedication,
5     he must exact only reasonable compensation for its use. By its dedication to public use, a wharf is as much brought
6     under the common-law rule of subjection to reasonable charges as it would be if originally established or licensed
7     by the crown. All property dedicated to public use by an individual owner, as in the case of land for a park or 8     street, falls at once, by force of the dedication, under the law governing property appropriated by the government
9     for similar purposes.

10    I do not doubt the justice of the encomiums passed upon Sir 151*151 Matthew Hale as a learned jurist of his day;
11    but I am unable to perceive the pertinency of his observations upon public ferries and public wharves, found in 12    his treatises on "The Rights of the Sea" and on "The Ports of the Sea," to the questions presented by the 13    warehousing law of Illinois, undertaking to regulate the compensation received by the owners of private property,
14    when that property is used for private purposes.

15    The principal authority cited in support of the ruling of the court is that of Alnutt v. Inglis, decided by the King's 16    Bench, and reported in 12 East. But that case, so far from sustaining the ruling, establishes, in my judgment, the 17    doctrine that everyone has a right to charge for his property, or for its use, whatever he pleases, unless he enjoys
18    in connection with it some right or privilege from the government not accorded to others; and even then it only 19    decides what is above stated in the quotations from Sir Matthew Hale, that he must submit, so long as he retains 20    the right or privilege, to reasonable rates. In that case, the London Dock Company, under certain acts of 21    Parliament, possessed the exclusive right of receiving imported goods into their warehouses before the duties were 22    paid; and the question was whether the company was bound to receive them for a reasonable reward, or whether
23    it could arbitrarily fix its compensation. In deciding the case, the Chief Justice, Lord Ellenborough, said: —

24                   "There is no doubt that the general principle is favored, both in law and justice, that every man may fix what
25                   price he pleases upon his own property, or the use of it; but if, for a particular purpose, the public have a right
26                   to resort to his premises and make use of them, and he have a monopoly in them for that purpose, if he will take 27                   the benefit of that monopoly, he must, as an equivalent, perform the duty attached to it on reasonable terms."

28    And, coming to the conclusion that the company's warehouses were invested with "the monopoly of a public 29    privilege," he held that by law the company must confine itself to take reasonable rates; and added, that if the 30    crown should thereafter think it advisable to extend the privilege more generally to other persons and places, so 31    that the public would not be restrained from exercising a choice of warehouses for the purpose, the company might 32    be enfranchised from the restriction which 152*152 attached to a monopoly; but, so long as its warehouses were
33    the only places which could be resorted to for that purpose, the company was bound to let the trade have the use
34    of them for a reasonable hire and reward. The other judges of the court placed their concurrence in the decision
35    upon the ground that the company possessed a legal monopoly of the business, having the only warehouses where 36    goods imported could be lawfully received without previous payment of the duties. From this case it appears that 37    it is only where some privilege in the bestowal of the government is enjoyed in connection with the property, that 38    it is affected with a public interest in any proper sense of the terms. It is the public privilege conferred with the 39    use of the property which creates the public interest in it.

40    In the case decided by the Supreme Court of Alabama, where a power granted to the city of Mobile to license
41    bakers, and to regulate the weight and price of bread, was sustained so far as regulating the weight of the bread
42    was concerned, no question was made as to the right to regulate the price. 3 Ala. 137. There is no doubt of the 43    competency of the State to prescribe the weight of a loaf of bread, as it may declare what weight shall constitute 44    a pound or a ton. But I deny the power of any legislature under our government to fix the price which one shall 45    receive for his property of any kind. If the power can be exercised as to one article, it may as to all articles, and 46    the prices of everything, from a calico gown to a city mansion, may be the subject of legislative direction.

1 Other instances of a similar character may, no doubt, be cited of attempted legislative interference with the
2 rights of property. The act of Congress of 1820, mentioned by the court, is one of them. There Congress
3 undertook to confer upon the city of Washington power to regulate the rates of wharfage at private wharves, and
4 the fees for sweeping chimneys. Until some authoritative adjudication is had upon these and similar provisions, I
5 must adhere, notwithstanding the legislation, to my opinion, that those who own property have the right to fix the 6 compensation at which they will allow its use, and that those who control services have a right to fix the 7 compensation at which they will be rendered. The chimney-sweeps may, I think, safely claim all the compensation
8 which 153*153 they can obtain by bargain for their work. In the absence of any contract for property or services,
9 the law allows only a reasonable price or compensation; but what is a reasonable price in any case will depend
10 upon a variety of considerations, and is not a matter for legislative determination.

11 The practice of regulating by legislation the interest receivable for the use of money, when considered with 12 reference to its origin, is only the assertion of a right of the government to control the extent to which a
13 privilege granted by it may be exercised and enjoyed. By the ancient common law it was unlawful to take 14 any money for the use of money: all who did so were called usurers, a term of great reproach, and were
15 exposed to the censure of the church; and if, after the death of a person, it was discovered that he had been 16 a usurer whilst living, his chattels were forfeited to the king, and his lands escheated to the lord of the fee.
17 No action could be maintained on any promise to pay for the use of money, because of the unlawfulness of 18 the contract. Whilst the common law thus condemned all usury, Parliament interfered, and made it lawful
19 to take a limited amount of interest. It was not upon the theory that the legislature could arbitrarily fix the 20 compensation which one could receive for the use of property, which, by the general law, was the subject
21 of hire for compensation, that Parliament acted, but in order to confer a privilege which the common law
22 denied. The reasons which L.Ed. to this legislation originally have long since ceased to exist; and if the 23 legislation is still persisted in, it is because a long acquiescence in the exercise of a power, especially when 24 it was rightfully assumed in the first instance, is generally received as sufficient evidence of its continued
25 lawfulness. 10 Bac. Abr. 264.[*]

26 There were also recognized in England, by the ancient common law, certain privileges as belonging to the lord of 27 the manor, which grew out of the state of the country, the condition of the people, and the relation existing between 28 him and 154*154 his tenants under the feudal system. Among these was the right of the lord to compel all the 29 tenants within his manor to grind their corn at his mill. No one, therefore, could set up a mill except by his license, 30 or by the license of the crown, unless he claimed the right by prescription, which presupposed a grant from the 31 lord or crown, and, of course, with such license went the right to regulate the tolls to be received. Woolrych on 32 the Law of Waters, c. 6, of Mills. Hence originated the doctrine which at one time obtained generally in this 33 country, that there could be no mill to grind corn for the public, without a grant or license from the public
34 authorities. It is still, I believe, asserted in some States. This doctrine being recognized, all the rest followed. The 35 right to control the toll accompanied the right to control the establishment of the mill.

36 It requires no comment to point out the radical differences between the cases of public mills and interest on money,
37 and that of the warehouses in Chicago. No prerogative or privilege of the crown to establish warehouses was ever 38 asserted at the common law. The business of a warehouseman was, at common law, a private business and is 39 so in its nature. It has no special privileges connected with it, nor did the law ever extend to it any greater
40 protection than it extended to all other private business. No reason can be assigned to justify legislation
41 interfering with the legitimate profits of that business, that would not equally justify an intermeddling with 42 the business of every man in the community, so soon, at least, as his business became generally useful.

43 7.12 The franchisee is a public officer and a “fiction of law”

44 The U.S. Supreme Court acknowledged that a frequent source of unconstitutional activity by government actors 45 is to create fictitious offices, when it held:

46 "An unconstitutional act is not a law; it confers no rights; it imposes no duties; it affords no protection; it creates 47 no office; it is in legal contemplation, as inoperative as though it had never been passed."

An unlawfully created public office is sometimes called a “fiction of law”. All those engaged in franchises are public officers in the government. The fictitious public office and/or “trade or business” (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)) to which all the government’s enforcement rights attach is also called a “fiction of law” by some judges. Here is the definition:

“Fiction of law. An assumption or supposition of law that something which is or may be false is true, or that a state of facts exists which has never really taken place. An assumption [PRESUMPTION], for purposes of justice, of a fact that does not or may not exist. A rule of law which assumes as true, and will not allow to be disproved, something which is false, but not impossible. Ryan v. Motor Credit Co., 30 N.J.Eq. 531, 23 A.2d. 607, 621. These assumptions are of an innocent or even beneficial character, and are made for the advancement of the ends of justice. They secure this end chiefly by the extension of procedure from cases to which it is applicable to other cases to which it is not strictly applicable, the ground of inapplicability being some difference of an immaterial character. See also Legal fiction.”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 623]

The key elements of all fictions of law from the above are:

1. A PRESUMPTION of the existence or truth of an otherwise nonexistent thing.
2. The presumptions are of an INNOCENT or BENEFICIAL character.
3. The presumptions are made for the advancement of the ends of justice.
4. All of the above goals are satisfied against BOTH parties to the dispute, not just the government. Otherwise the constitutional requirement for equal protection and equal treatment has been transgressed.

The fictitious public office that forms the heart of the modern SCAM income tax clearly does not satisfy the elements for being a “fiction of law” because:

1. All presumptions that violate due process of law or result in an injury to EITHER party affected by the presumption are unconstitutional. See:

Presumption: Chief Weapon for Unlawfully Enlarging Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.017
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. The presumption does not benefit BOTH parties to a dispute that involves it. It ONLY benefits the government at the expense of innocent nontaxpayers and EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE parties.
3. The presumption of the existence of the BOGUS office does NOT advance justice for BOTH parties to any dispute involving it. The legal definition of justice is the RIGHT TO BE LEFT ALONE. The presumption of the existence of the BOGUS office ensures that those who do not want to volunteer for the office but who are the subject of FALSE information returns are NEVER left alone and are continually harassed illegally by the IRS. Here is the legal definition of “justice” so you can see for yourself:

“PAULSEN, ETHICS (Thilly’s translation), chap. 9.

Justice, as a moral habit, is that tendency of the will and mode of conduct which refrains from disturbing the lives and interests of others [INCLUDING us], and, as far as possible, hinders such interference on the part of others. This virtue springs from the individual’s respect for his fellows as ends in themselves and as his co equals. The different spheres of interests may be roughly classified as follows: body and life; the family, or the extended individual life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or the possibility of fashioning one’s life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To violate the rights, to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the individual’s own life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong yourself, and permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and protect the right.”
[Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 2]

Therefore it is clearly a CRUEL FRAUD for any judge to justify his PRESUMPTION of the existence of the BOGUS public office that is the subject of the excise tax by calling it a “fiction of law”.

If you want to see an example of WHY this fiction of law was created as a way to usurp jurisdiction, read the following U.S. Supreme Court cite:

“It is true, that the person who accepts an office may be supposed to enter into a compact to be answerable to the government, which he serves, for any violation of his duty; and, having taken the oath of office, he would unquestionably be liable, in such case, to a prosecution for perjury in the Federal Courts. But because one man, by his own act, renders himself amenable to a particular jurisdiction, shall another man, who has not incurred a similar obligation, be implicated? If, in other words, it is sufficient to vest a jurisdiction in this court, that a Federal Officer is concerned; if it is a sufficient proof of a case arising under a law of the United States to affect other persons, that such officer is bound, by law, to discharge his duty with fidelity; a source of jurisdiction is opened, which must inevitably overflow and destroy all the barriers between the judicial authorities of the State and the general government. Any thing which can prevent a Federal Officer from the punctual, as well as from an impartial, performance of his duty; an assault and battery; or the recovery of a debt, as well as the offer of a bribe, may be made a foundation of the jurisdiction of this court; and, considering the constant disposition of power to extend the sphere of its influence, fictions will be resorted to, when real cases cease to occur. A mere fiction, that the defendant is in the custody of the marshal, has rendered the jurisdiction of the King's Bench universal in all personal actions."

[United States v. Worrall, 2 U.S. 384 (1798)]

SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar\_case?case=3339893669697439168

The reason for the controversy in the above case was that a bribe occurred on state land by a nonresident domiciled in the state, and therefore that federal law did not apply. In the above case, the court admitted that a "fiction" was resorted to usurp jurisdiction because no legal authority could be found. The fact that the defendant was in custody created the jurisdiction. It didn't exist before they ILLEGALLY KIDNAPPED him. Notice also that they mention an implied "compact" or contract related to the office being exercised, and that THAT compact was the source of their jurisdiction over the officer who was bribed. This is the SAME contract to which all those who engage in a statutory "trade or business" are party to.

7.13 "Public" v. "Private" Franchises Compared

Another useful exercise is to compare PUBLIC franchises, meaning government franchise, with PRIVATE franchises that involve private parties exclusively. Understanding these distinctions is very important to those who want to be able to produce legally admissible evidence that governments are illegally implementing or enforcing their franchises. Below is a table summarizing the main differences between PUBLIC and PRIVATE franchises:

Table 5: Public v. Private Franchises Compared

Characteristic	PUBLIC/GOVERNMENT Franchise	PRIVATE Franchise
Franchise agreement is	Civil law associated with the domicile of those who are statutory but not constitutional "citizens" and "residents" within the venue of the GRANTOR	Private law among all those who expressly consented in writing

Courts officiating disputes operate in	POLITICAL context and issue [political] OPINIONS	LEGAL context and issue ORDERS
Parties to the contract	Are "public officers" within the government grantor of the franchise	Maintain their status as private parties
Domicile of franchise participants	Federal territory . See 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39) and §7408(d)	Wherever the parties declare it or express it in the franchise

1 How can we prove that a so-called “government” is operating a franchise as a PRIVATE company or corporation
2 in EQUITY rather than as a parens patriae protected by sovereign immunity? Below are the conditions that trigger
3 this status as we understand them so far:

- 4 1. When they are implementing the franchises against parties domiciled outside of their EXCLUSIVE rather than subject
5 matter jurisdiction. For instance, when the federal government implements or enforces a federal franchise within states
6 of the Union, then it is operating outside its territory and implicitly waives sovereign immunity. Hence, they are 7 “purposefully availing themselves” of commercial activity outside of their jurisdiction and waive immunity within the 8 jurisdiction they are operating. See:

Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 9 2. When domicile and one’s status as a statutory “citizen”, “resident”, or “U.S. person” under the civil laws of the 10 grantor:

- 11 2.1. Is not required in the franchise agreement itself.
12 2.2. Is in the franchise agreement but is ignored or disregarded as a matter of policy and not law by the government.
13 For instance, the government ignores the legal requirements of the franchise found in 20 C.F.R. §422.104 and 14 insists that EVERYONE is eligible and TO HELL with the law.

- 15 3. When any of the above conditions occur, then the government engaging in them:

- 16 3.1. Is engaging in PRIVATE business activity beyond its core purpose as a de jure “government”
17 3.2. Is operating in a de facto capacity and not as a “sovereign”. See:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 18 3.3. Is abusing its monopolistic authority to compete with private business concerns
19 3.4. Is “purposefully availing itself” of commerce in the foreign jurisdictions, such as states of the Union, that it
20 operates the franchise
21 3.5. Implicitly waives sovereign immunity under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act \(F.S.I.A.\), 28 U.S.C. Chapter
22 97 and its equivalent act in the foreign jurisdictions that it operates the franchise
23 3.6. Implicitly agrees to be sued IN EQUITY in a Constitutional court if it enforces the franchise against
24 NONRESIDENTS
25 3.7. Cannot truthfully identify the statutory FRANCHISE courts that administer the franchise as “government” courts,
26 but simply PRIVATE arbitration boards.

27 The following ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court confirms some of the above.

28 See also Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363, 369 (1943) (“The United States does business on 29 business terms”) (quoting United States v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 270 U.S. 527, 534 (1926));
30 Perry v. United States, supra at 352 (1935) (“When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes
31 contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such
32 instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the United States cannot be sued without its consent”)
33 (citation omitted); United States v. Bostwick, 94 U.S. 53, 66 (1877) (“The United States, when they contract with 34 their citizens, are controlled by the same laws that govern the citizen in that behalf”); Cooke v. United States,
35 91 U.S. 389, 398 (1875) (explaining that when the United States “comes down from its position of sovereignty,
36 and enters the domain of commerce, it submits itself to the same laws that govern individuals there”).

37 See Jones, 1 Cl.Ct. at 85 (“Wherever the public and private acts of the government seem to commingle, a citizen
38 or corporate body must by supposition be substituted in its place, and then the question be determined whether
39 the action will lie against the supposed defendant”); O’Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 (1982)
40 (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, “[w]ere [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the party hurt
41 by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing action”). The 42 dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz drew its 43 reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize the need
44 to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.
45 [United States v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839 (1996).]

46 Only one sentence in the above seems suspicious:

47 “When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities 48 similar to those of individuals who are parties to such instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the 49 United States cannot be sued [IN ITS OWN COURTS] without its consent”

1 What they are referring to above is that the “United States” federal corporation cannot be sued IN THEIR OWN
2 COURTS without their consent, not that they cannot be sued in EQUITY in a court of a constitutional state. The 3 federal government has no direct control over the courts of a legislatively “foreign state”, such as a state of the 4 Union. Hence, it cannot impede itself being sued directly there when it is operating a private business in 5 competition with other private businesses in a commercial marketplace. An example is “insurance services”, such
6 as Social Security, which is private insurance. The government deceptively calls the premiums a “tax” on the 800
7 line of Social Security, but in fact, they are simply PRIVATE insurance premiums. No one can make you buy
8 any commercial product the government offers, including private “Social Insurance”. Otherwise, we are talking
9 about THEFT and involuntary servitude. The definition of “State” found in the Social Security Act is entirely
10 consistent with these conclusions. “State” is nowhere defined to expressly include states of the Union and 11 therefore, they are NOT included under the rules of statutory construction. Hence, they are “foreign” for the 12 subject matter of Social Security, Medicare, and every other federal socialism program.

13 “Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one
14 thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles,
15 *170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or
16 things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be
17 inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects
18 of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded.”
19 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

20 A legal term useful in describing the proper operation of government franchises is “publici juris”. Here is a legal 21 definition:

22 “PUBLICI JURIS. Lat. Of public right. The word "public" in this sense means pertaining to the people, or 23 affecting the community at large [the SOCIALIST collective]; that which concerns a multitude of people; and the 24 word "right," as so used, means a well-founded claim; an interest; concern; advantage; benefit. State v. Lyon, 63
25 Okl. 285, 165 P. 419, 420.

26 This term, as applied to a thing or right [PRIVILEGE], means that it is open to or exercisable by all persons. It
27 designates things which are owned by "the public;" that is, the entire state or community, and not by any private
28 person. When a thing is common property, so that anyone can make use of it who likes, it is said to be publici
29 juris; as in the case of light, air, and public water. Sweet. “
30 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1397]

31 We allege that:

- 32 1. Associating anything with a government identifying number (SSN or TIN)
33 1.1. Changes the character of the thing so associated to “publici juris”
34 1.2. Donates and converts private property to a public use, public purpose, and public office
35 1.3. Makes you the trustee with equitable title over the thing donated, instead of the LEGAL OWNER of the property
36 2. The compelled, involuntary use of government identifying numbers therefore constitutes THEFT and CONVERSION, 37 which are CRIMES.

39 8 De Jure Government or Private Corporation?

40 8.1 What makes a “Corporation” into a De Jure “Government”?<sup>32</sup>

41 “In every government on earth is some trace of human weakness, some germ of corruption and degeneracy, which 42 cunning will discover, and wickedness insensibly open, cultivate and improve.”

<http://famguardian.org/Publications/GreatIRSHoax/GreatIRSHoax.htm>.

This section describes the elements necessary to transform a pure corporation into a government. Any alleged “government” that does not satisfy and implement ALL of the characteristics described herein we refer to as a private corporation and NOT a “government” as legally defined or classically understood.

The elements or characteristics essential to call a “corporation” a “government” are:

1. Requires three elements to be valid. If you take away any one or more of the following elements, you don’t have a “government”.

1.1. Territory. A valid government must have exclusive legislative jurisdiction within its own territory and no jurisdiction without its territory.

"Judge Story, in his treatise on the Conflicts of Laws, lays down, as the basis upon which all reasonings on the law of comity must necessarily rest, the following maxims: First 'that every nation possesses an exclusive sovereignty and jurisdiction within its own territory'; secondly, 'that no state or nation can by its laws directly affect or bind property out of its own territory, or bind persons not resident therein, whether they are natural born subjects or others.' The learned judge then adds: 'From these two maxims or propositions there follows a third, and that is that whatever force and obligation the laws of one country have in another depend solely upon the laws and municipal regulation of the latter; that is to say, upon its own proper jurisdiction and polity, and upon its own express or tacit consent.'" Story on Conflict of Laws §23.
[Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. v. Chambers, 73 Ohio.St. 16, 76 N.E. 91, 11 L.R.A., N.S., 1012 (1905)]

1.2. Laws. The civil laws of the government do not extend beyond the boundaries of the territory comprising the body politic.

1.3. People. These people are called “citizens”, “residents”, and inhabitants who all have in common that they have voluntarily chosen a domicile within the civil jurisdiction of the body politic and thereby joined and become a “member” of the body politic. Mere physical presence on the territory of the sovereign does NOT constitute an act of political association by itself, but must be accompanied by what the courts call “animus manendi”, which is intent to join the body politic. It is a financial conflict of interest for the People in the body politic to also serve as “employees” or officers of the corporation if they are voting on issues that directly affect their pay. See 18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §144, and 28 U.S.C. §455.

2. Main purpose of establishment is protection of private rights. This includes maintaining the separation between what is private and what is public with the goal of protecting mainly what is private.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men. . ."
[Declaration of Independence]

3. Rights are consistently recognized and protected as unalienable in relation to the government, which means they can’t be bargained away or sold to the government through any commercial process. This means that franchises may not lawfully be offered to those protected by the Constitution, because they are commercial processes. Notice the word “unalienable” in the Declaration of Independence above, which is defined as follows.

"Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

4. Equal protection and equal treatment of all those within the jurisdiction.

"No duty rests more imperatively upon the courts than the enforcement of those constitutional provisions intended to secure that equality of rights which is the foundation of free government."
[Gulf, C. & S. F. R. Co. v. Ellis, 165 U.S. 150 (1897) ]

5. Consent of the governed. The Declaration of Independence indicates that all just governments derive their authority from the “consent of the governed”:

"That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed."
[Declaration of Independence]

6. All powers are derived or delegated directly from the Sovereign People.

"It is again to antagonize Chief Justice Marshall, when he said: 'The government of the Union, then (whatever may be the influence of this fact on the case), is emphatically and truly a government of the people. In form and in substance it emanates from them. Its powers are granted by them, and are to be exercised directly on them and for their benefit. This government is acknowledged by all to be one of enumerated powers.'" 4 Wheat. 404, 4 L.Ed. 601."

Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901) ]

"The question is not what power the federal government ought to have, but what powers, in fact, have been given by the people... The federal union is a government of delegated powers. It has only such as are expressly conferred upon it, and such as are reasonably to be implied from those granted. In this respect, we differ radically from nations where all legislative power, without restriction or limitation, is vested in a parliament or other legislative body subject to no restriction except the discretion of its members." (Congress) [U.S. v. William M. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 (1936)]

"The Government of the United States is one of delegated powers alone. Its authority is defined and limited by the Constitution. All powers not granted to it by that instrument are reserved to the States or the people."

7. Consists of BOTH a "body politic" AND a body "corporate". If you take out the body politic, all you have left is a "body corporate" or simply a private corporation. The body politic, in turn, consists of "citizens" domiciled on the territory who participate directly in the affairs of the government as jurists and voters and NOT statutory "employees" or "officers" of the corporation.

Both before and after the time when the Dictionary Act and § 1983 were passed, the phrase "bodies politic and corporate" was understood to include the [governments of the] States. See, e.g., J. Bouvier, 1 A Law Dictionary Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America 185 (11th ed. 1866); W. Shumaker & G. Longsdorf, Cyclopedic Dictionary of Law 104 (1901); Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. \(2 Dall.\) 419, 447, 1 L.Ed. 440 \(1793\) (Iredell, J.); id., at 468 (Cushing, J.); Cotton v. United States, 52 U.S. \(11 How.\) 229, 231, 13 L.Ed. 675 \(1851\) ("Every sovereign State is of necessity a body politic, or artificial person"); Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 288, 5 S.Ct. 903, 29 L.Ed. 185 \(1885\); McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 24, 13 S.Ct. 3, 6, 36 L.Ed. 869 \(1892\); Heim v. McCall, 239 U.S. 175, 188, 36 S.Ct. 78, 82, 60 L.Ed. 206 \(1915\). See also United States v. Maurice, 2 Brock. 96, 109, 26 F.Cas. 1211 \(CC Va.1823\) (Marshall, C.J.) ("The United States is a government, and, consequently, a body politic and corporate"); Van Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154, 6 S.Ct. 670, 672, 29 L.Ed. 845 \(1886\) (same). Indeed, the very legislators who passed § 1 referred to States in these terms. See, e.g., Cong. Globe, 42d Cong., 1st Sess., 661-662 (1871) (Sen. Vickers) ("What is a State? Is *79 it not a body politic and corporate?"); id., at 696 (Sen. Edmunds) ("A State is a corporation").

The reason why States are "bodies politic and corporate" is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can act only through its agents, "[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can command only by laws." Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black's Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) ("Body politic or corporate": "A social compact by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good"). As a "body politic and corporate," a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act's definition of a "person."

While it is certainly true that the phrase "bodies politic and corporate" referred to private and public corporations, see ante, at 2311, and n. 9, this fact does not draw into question the conclusion that this phrase also applied to the States. Phrases may, of course, have multiple referents. Indeed, each and every dictionary cited by the Court accords a broader realm-one **2317 that comfortably, and in most cases explicitly, includes the sovereign-to this phrase than the Court gives it today. See 1B. Abbott, Dictionary of Terms and Phrases Used in American or English Jurisprudence 155 (1879) ("[T]he term body politic is often used in a general way, as meaning the state or the sovereign power, or the city government, without implying any distinct express incorporation"); W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 127 (1893) ("Body politic": "The governmental, sovereign power: a city or a State"); Black's Law Dictionary 143 (1891) ("Body politic": "It is often used, in a rather loose way, to designate the state or nation or sovereign power, or the government of a county or municipality, without distinctly connoting any express and individual corporate charter"); 1A. Burrill, A Law Dictionary and Glossary 212 (2d ed. 1871) ("Body politic": "A body to take in succession, framed by policy"; "[p]articularly*80 applied, in the old books, to a Corporation sole""); id., at 383 ("Corporation sole" includes the sovereign in England). [Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 \(U.S.Mich.,1989\)]

8. Officers of the "body corporate" are NOT allowed to serve as jurists within the body politic. Those who receive any government benefit or entitlement are included in this category, and are deemed to be employees of the government. Hence, most Americans would be ineligible for participation as a petit jurist or grand jurist or even a voter because they would have a criminal and financial conflict of interest in officiating over such matters pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §208:

22 Peyton Gordon, of Washington, D. C., for appellant.

23 Leon Tobriner, B. U. Graham, and J. L. Smith, all of Washington, D. C., for appellees.

24 Before MARTIN, Chief Justice, ROBB, Associate Justice, and SMITH, Judge of the United States Court of 25 Customs Appeals.

26 MARTIN, Chief Justice. In this case the United States appeals from a judgment of the Supreme Court of the
27 District of Columbia, sustaining a plea in abatement and quashing an indictment, upon the ground that one of 28 the members of the grand jury which returned the indictment was disqualified by law.

29 The indictment in question was returned on March 9, 1921. It charged the defendants therein, now the appellees,
30 with a conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce in coal in the District of Columbia. On May 16, 1921, the
31 defendants filed a plea in abatement, alleging and contending that one George H. Van Kirk had served as a
32 member of the grand jury in the finding of the indictment, whereas at that time he was a paid employee of the
33 United States, and consequently was not competent or qualified to act as a grand juror in the case. The defendants
34 averred that they had not learned of these facts until four days before the filing of the plea, and that they thereupon
35 presented it as speedily as could be. The government filed a replication denying these allegations, and issue was 36 joined, whereupon the court sustained the plea, quashed the indictment, and discharged the defendants. From 37 that order the government has appealed.

38 It appears without dispute that for some years prior to July 28, 1920, the grand juror in question was a resident
39 of the District of Columbia, and was employed at an annual salary as a stenographer, typist, and clerk in the War
40 Department of the United States; that on the day named, because of disabilities, he filed with the United States
41 Employees' Compensation Commission an application for disability compensation, under the act of Congress
42 entitled “An act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the 43 performance of their duties, and for other purposes,” approved September 7, 1916 (39 Statutes at Large, 742, c.
44 458 [Comp. St. §§ 8932a - 8932uu]); that on October 22, 1920, the commission awarded him disability
45 compensation at the rate of $66.67 per month, being a rate based upon the salary which he was receiving at the
46 time of his disability; and that he was carried at that rate upon the United States employees' disability rolls at 47 and during the time of his service as grand juror in this case.

48 [1.] The act aforesaid provides that the United States shall pay compensation for the disability of an employee
49 resulting from a personal injury sustained while in the performance of duty; that the amount thereof shall be
50 adjusted by the commission according to the monthly pay of the employee; that the commission may, from time
51 to time, require a partially disabled employee to report the wages he is then receiving, and if he refuses to seek

1 suitable work, or refuses or neglects to work after suitable work is offered to him, he shall not be entitled to any
2 compensation; that the commission may determine whether the wage-earning capacity of the disabled employee
3 has decreased on account of old age, irrespective of the injury, and may reduce his disability compensation
4 accordingly; and that at any time, upon its own motion or on an application the commission may review the
5 award, and in accordance with the facts found by it, may end, diminish, or increase the compensation previously
6 awarded.

7 It thus appears that at the time in question the government was paying the juror a monthly stipend as employee's
8 compensation, reserving the authority to control his conduct in certain particulars, and with power to increase,
9 diminish, or terminate the compensation at discretion. In our opinion that relationship, whatever be the technical
10 name which may most narrowly describe it, did in effect constitute the juror an employee of the United States
11 within the sense in which that term is here used.

12 [2] The next question is whether an employee of the government is disqualified under the law to serve as a juror
13 in the District of Columbia. The following sections of the District Code relate to this question, to wit:

14 "Sec. 215. Qualifications. - No person shall be competent to act as a juror unless he be a citizen of the United
15 States, a resident of the District of Columbia, over twenty-one and under sixty-five years of age, able to read and
16 write and to understand the English language, and a good and lawful man, who has never been convicted of a
17 felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude."

18 "Sec. 217. All executive and judicial officers, salaried officers of the government of the United States and of the
19 District of Columbia and those connected with the police or fire departments, counselors and attorneys at law in 20 actual practice, ministers of the gospel and clergymen of every denomination, practicing physicians and surgeons,
21 keepers of hospitals, asylums, alms-houses, or other charitable institutions created by or under the laws relating
22 to the District, captains and masters and other persons employed on vessels navigating the waters of the District
23 shall be exempt from jury duty, and their names shall not be placed on the jury lists."

24 In Crawford v. United States, 212 U.S. 183, 195, 29 S.Ct. 260, 267 (53 L.Ed. 465, 15 Ann.Cas. 392) an accused
25 had been convicted of a crime in the District of Columbia by a petit jury one member of which was at the time a
26 United States postal employee. The accused had challenged the juror for that cause, but the challenge was 27 overruled upon the ground that sections 215 and 217, supra, did not include such relationship within the list of
28 disqualifications. The Supreme Court however held that under the common law of the District independently of 29 those enactments, "one is not a competent juror on a case if he is master, servant, steward, counsellor or attorney
30 of either party." Accordingly the conviction was reversed. The following extract is taken from the opinion in that
31 case, written by Mr. Justice Peckham:

32 "We do not think that section 215 of the Code of the District includes the whole subject of the qualifications of 33 jurors in that District. If that section, together with section 217, were alone to be considered, it might be that the 34 juror was qualified. But, by the common law, a further qualification exists. If that law remains in force in this
35 regard in this District a different decision is called for from that made in this case. The common law in force in
36 Maryland, February 27, 1801, remains in force here, except as the same may be inconsistent with or replaced by
37 some provision of the Code for the District, Code, § 1, c. 1, p. 5. It has not been contended that the common law
38 upon the subject of jurors was not in force in Maryland at the above-named date, or that it did not remain in force
39 here, at least up to the time of the passage of the Code. Jurors must at least have the qualifications mentioned in
40 section 215, but that section does not, in our opinion, so far alter the common law upon the subject as to exclude
41 its rule that one is not a competent juror in a case if he is master, servant, steward, counsellor or attorney of
42 either party. In such case a juror may be challenged for principal cause as an absolute disqualification of the 43 juror. 3 Blackstone (Cooley's 4th Ed.) p. 363; Block v. State, 100 Indiana, 357, 362. * * * This rule applies as 44 well to criminal as to civil cases."

45 The foregoing decision is authority for the conclusion that a United States employee is not qualified to serve
46 as a member of the petit jury in the trial of a criminal case in the District of Columbia, and that a challenge
47 seasonably made by the accused upon that ground should be sustained. See also, Miller v. United States, 38
48 App. D.C. 36.

49 [3] The question next arises whether such an employee is likewise disqualified from serving as a grand juror in
50 the District, and whether an accused may present his objections to such a juror by a plea in abatement. In answer
51 to this we may say that in general the term "juror" is held to include alike both petit and grand jurors, and that
52 objections to the qualifications of grand jurors, under circumstances such as these may be made by a plea in
53 abatement. Spencer v. United States, 169 F. 562 565, 95 C. C. A. 60; Williams v. United States (C. C. A.), 275 F.
54 129, 131; Clawson v. United States, 114 U.S. 477, 483, 5 S.Ct. 919, 29 L.Ed. 179; Agnew v. United States, 165
55 U.S. 35, 44, 17 S.Ct. 235, 41 L.Ed. 624; Crowley v. United States, 194 U.S. 461, 24 S.Ct. 731, 48 L.Ed. 1075.

56 In Clawson v. United States, supra, a case arising in the then territory of Utah, the Supreme Court considered
57 section 5 of the Act of Congress of March 22, 1882, 22 Stat. 30 (Comp. St. § 1265), which provides "that in any
58 prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, it shall be
59 sufficient cause of challenge to any person drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman, * * * that he believes
60 it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at the same time." It was held that the terms

1 "juryman or talesman" included both grand and petit jurors. The following extract is taken from the opinion by
2 Mr. Justice Blatchford in that case:

3 "It is also urged that § 5 does not apply to grand jurors. The language is, 'any person drawn or summoned as a
4 juryman or talesman'—'any person appearing or offered as a juror or talesman.' In view of the fact that by
5 section 4 of the Act of June 23, 1874, both grand jurors and petit jurors are to be drawn from the box containing
6 the two hundred names, and are to be summoned under venires, and are to constitute the regular grand and petit
7 juries for the term, and of the further fact that the, persons to be challenged and excluded are persons not likely
8 to find indictments for the offenses named in section 5, we cannot doubt that the words 'juryman' and 'juror'
9 include a grand juror as well as a petit juror. There is as much ground for holding that it includes the former
10 alone, as the latter alone, if it is to include but one. It must, include one at least, and we think it includes both.
11 The purpose and reason of the section include the grand juror; and there is nothing in the language repugnant
12 to such view. The use of the words 'drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman,' and of the words 'appearing
13 or offered as a juror or talesman,' does not have the effect of confining the meaning of 'juror' to 'petit juror,' on
14 the view that the ordinary meaning of 'talesman' refers to a petit juror. A grand juror is a juryman and a juror,
15 and is drawn and summoned, and it might well have been thought wisest to mention a 'tales-man' specifically,
16 lest the words 'juryman' and 'juror' might be supposed not to include him."

17 It may be noted that sections 198, 199, 203, 204, 215, 216, and 217 of the District Code, providing for the drawing
18 and selection of "jurors" all apply alike to grand and petit jurors. In Crowley v. United States, supra, it was held
19 by the Supreme Court that an objection by plea in abatement, before the arraignment of the accused, to an
20 indictment on the ground that some of the grand jurors were disqualified by law, was in due time, and was made
21 in a proper way, and also that the disqualification of a grand juror prescribed by statute is a matter of substance,
22 which cannot be regarded as a mere defect or imperfection, within the meaning of section 1025, Rev. Stat. (Comp.
23 St. § 1691). The latter statement likewise applies to a disqualification like this under the common law.

24 In our opinion, therefore, the trial court rightly sustained the plea in abatement, and its judgment is affirmed.

- 25 9. Taxes collected are used ONLY for the support of government and not private citizens. This means that taxes may not 26 be used to pay "benefits" to private citizens, nor may benefit programs be used as a way to make private citizens into 27 public officers or employees and thereby destroy the separation of powers between what is public and what is private.

28 To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow
29 it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery
30 because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under 31 legislative forms.

32 Nor is it taxation. 'A tax,' says Webster's Dictionary, 'is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or
33 property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.' 'Taxes are burdens or charges imposed
34 by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.' Cooley, Const. Lim., 479.

35 Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John's Church, 13 Pa.St. 104 says, very forcibly, 'I think the common
36 mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the
37 government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they are
38 imposed for a public purpose.' See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St. 69; Matter of Mayor of N.Y., 11

44 "State. A people permanently occupying a fixed territory bound together by common-law habits and custom

15 8.2 Signs that a "government" is actually a private de facto corporation

16 Governments are formed EXCLUSIVELY to protect PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property. When such 17 governments become corrupt and want to STEAL from the people they are supposed to be protecting, they 18 surreptitiously convert ALL PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property into PUBLIC property using deception,
19 unconstitutional presumption, and words of art. Once they have accomplished that conversion, they procure the 20 right to tax the property and extract anything they want from it. Hence, corrupted governments conduct a WAR
21 on PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property, meaning they set out to do the OPPOSITE purpose for which they 22 were created. The U.S. Supreme Court identified the battle line of this war when they ruled on Congress' first 23 attempt to institute a national income tax and declared it unconstitutional:

24 "The present assault upon [PRIVATE] capital is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping stone to others 25 larger and more sweeping, until our political contest will become war of the poor against the rich; a war of 26 growing intensity and bitterness."
27 [Pollock v. Farmers' Loan & Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429, 158 U.S. 601 (1895).]

28 The "assault on capital" described above is really just an assault on PRIVATE capital by converting it to PUBLIC 29 OFFICES and PUBLIC FRANCHISES without the consent of the owner. We allege that ANYTHING that 30 converts PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights or PUBLIC OFFICES, or franchises
31 accomplishes a purpose OPPOSITE that for which governments are created and hence, constitutes PRIVATE 32 business activity that cannot and should not be protected with sovereign immunity. Even if it is attempted by a
33 government officer acting under the "color of law", it is STILL not "government activity" that can be protected
34 by sovereign immunity, but is mere PRIVATE business activity that operates at the same level as ANY OTHER 35 business must as a matter of equity.

36 See also Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363, 369 (1943) ("The United States does business on 37 business terms") (quoting United States v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 270 U.S. 527, 534 (1926));
38 Perry v. United States, supra at 352 (1935) ("When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes
39 contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such
40 instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the United States cannot be sued without its consent")
41 (citation omitted); United States v. Bostwick, 94 U.S. 53, 66 (1877) ("The United States, when they contract with 42 their citizens, are controlled by the same laws that govern the citizen in that behalf";) Cooke v. United States,
43 91 U.S. 389, 398 (1875) (explaining that when the United States "comes down from its position of sovereignty,
44 and enters the domain of commerce, it submits itself to the same laws that govern individuals there").

45 See Jones, 1 Cl.Ct. at 85 ("Wherever the public and private acts of the government seem to commingle, a citizen
46 or corporate body must by supposition be substituted in its place, and then the question be determined whether
47 the action will lie against the supposed defendant";) O'Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 (1982)
48 (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, "[w]ere [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the party hurt
49 by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing action"). The 50 dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz drew its 51 reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize the need
52 to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.

Based on the above, we can see that when one or more of the following occurs, we are no longer dealing with a “government”, but rather a private corporation and franchise or “employer” in which a “citizen” is really just an “employee” of the private pseudo-government corporation who has no choice but to do exactly and only what they are commanded to do through corporate policy disguised to “look” like public law but which in actuality is just special law or private law that is part of their employment agreement:

1. Taxing Power Abused to pay “benefits” to Private Citizens. It has always been a violation of the constitution to pay public monies to otherwise private citizens. This constraint is avoided by making EVERYONE into a statutory rather than constitutional citizen and defining such citizen as a public officer and/or statutory “employee” within the government. Such “benefits” include such things as Social Security, Medicare, etc. See:

The Government “Benefits” Scam, Form #05.040
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

2. Consent of the governed: Government refuses to acknowledge the requirement for consent of the governed. For instance:
  - 2.1. They do a tax assessment without respecting the requirement for consent to the assessment mandated by 26 U.S.C. §6020(b). See:

Why the Government Can't Lawfully Assess Human Beings With an Income Tax Liability Without Their Consent,
Form #05.011
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 2.2. Courts and administrative bodies refuse to meet the burden of proof as the moving party to demonstrate proof of consent in writing to the franchise agreement, such as I.R.C. Subtitles A and C BEFORE they attempt enforcement actions.

3. Requirement for EXPRESS CONSENT and INTENT ignored or interfered with in becoming a statutory “citizen” or “resident”. Domicile requires the coincidence of physical presence within the territory of the sovereign and an intention to join the political community that it is a part of. However, tyrants and dictators who rule by force and fraud disregard the intention requirement. If you have an “address” or physical presence on their territory, the government “presumes” that fact alone constitutes consent to become a “citizen”, “resident”, or “inhabitant”, thus ignoring the consent and intent portion of the domicile requirement. This has the practical effect of turning a republic consisting mainly of private property into a monarchy, where everything is public property because the king owns all the land and everyone is nothing more than a tenant subject to his whim and pleasure by divine right. British subjects can’t even expatriate from their country without permission of the king or queen in fact. They in effect are chattel property of the monarch. If you would like to see how much land the monarch of England owns, it currently stands at 6 Billion acres. God says that "all the earth is mine" (Exodus 19:5)...and the queen of England retorts..."except for the 6 billion 600 million acres I own which is 1/6th of the non-ocean surface of the earth.". For proof, see:

Who Owns the World
<http://www.whoownstheworld.com/about-the-book/largest-landowner/?ref=patrick.net>

4. Protection of private rights: Government refuses to acknowledge the protections of the Constitution for your private rights. For instance:

- 4.1. They make the false and self-serving presumption that everyone they interact with in the public is a public officer in the government and a franchisee called a “taxpayer” (26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(14)) or statutory but not constitutional “U.S. citizen” (8 U.S.C. §1401)
  - 4.2. They refuse to prosecute those who compel others to use government identifying numbers, thus forcing those so compelled to donate formerly private property to a public use, a public purpose, and a public office.
  - 4.3. They refuse to recognize the existence of “nontaxpayers” or defend their private rights. For instance, enforcing the Anti-Injunction Act, 26 U.S.C. §7421 to prevent private parties injured by zealous tax collectors from having their private property seized because they are the victim of FALSE information return reports that the IRS refuses to correct.
  - 4.4. They refuse to correct false information returns filed by third parties against those who are non-taxpayers, thus compelling private people to involuntarily assume the duties of a public office in the government. They also refuse to prosecute the filers of these false reports. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5. Unalienable rights: Government sets up a franchise or a business whose purpose essentially is to bribe or entice people to give up constitutionally protected rights. In modern day terms, that business is called a “franchise”. See section 13.6 later.

1 "It has long been established that a State may not impose a penalty upon those who exercise a right guaranteed
2 by the Constitution." Frost & Frost Trucking Co. v. Railroad Comm'n of California, 271 U.S. 583. "Constitutional
3 rights would be of little value if they could be indirectly denied,' Smith v. Allwright, 321 U.S. 649, 644, or 4 manipulated out of existence,' Gomillion v. Lightfoot, 364 U.S. 339, 345."
5 [Harman v. Forssenius, 380 U.S 528 at 540, 85 S.Ct. 1177, 1185 (1965)]

- 6 6. Equal protection: Government provides unequal protection or unequal benefit to those within its jurisdiction. For 7 instance:
8 6.1. Government imputes to itself sovereign immunity and the requirement to prove ITS consent when civilly sued, but 9 does not enforce the same EQUAL requirement when IT tries to enforce a civil obligation against a citizen.
10 6.2. Government allows otherwise PRIVATE Americans to be effectively elected into public office with FALSE
11 information return reports and without their consent but refuses to allow its own workers or itself to be elected into 12 servitude of anyone else.
13 6.3. One group of people pays a different percentage tax rate or amount than another or receives a different benefit in 14 exchange for the same amount of money paid in.
15 6.4. Franchises are abused to make FRANCHISEES inferior to the government grantor.
16 7. Franchises are abused to destroy CONSTITUTIONAL remedies and force people into an administrative franchise court
17 instead. The main abuse is offering or enforcing them to those domiciled OUTSIDE of federal territory and the 18 EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction of Congress.

19 "These general rules are well settled:

20 (1) That the United States, when it creates rights in individuals against itself [a "public right", which is a 21 euphemism for a "franchise" to help the court disguise the nature of the transaction], is under no obligation to

25 (2) That where a statute creates a right and provides a special remedy, that remedy is exclusive. Wilder

28 25 L.Ed. 212; Farmers' & Mechanics' National Bank v. Dearing, 91 U.S. 29, 35, 23 L.Ed. 196. Still the fact that

- 37 8. Courts are converted from CONSTITUTIONAL courts to STATUTORY FRANCHISE or ADMINISTRATIVE 38 FRANCHISE courts. Examples: 1. U.S. Tax Court; 2. Traffic court; 3. Family Court. Such courts are really just 39 binding arbitration boards for fellow public officers within the Executive Branch of the government. At the present time,
40 all United States District Courts and Circuit Courts are NOT expressly authorized by Congress to hear any Article III
41 Constitutional issue. Instead, they are legislative franchise courts that administer ONLY federal property under Article
42 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the USA Constitution. See the following for proof:
43 8.1. Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Sections 15 through 17
44 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
45 8.2. What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012-proves that there are NOT any constitutional courts left at the federal 46 level accessible to the average American.
47 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
48 9. There is no "body politic". All those who participate in the affairs of the government as statutory "voters" or "citizens"
49 are in fact franchisees and public officers of the government with a financial and personal conflict of interest.
50 9.1. There is no one outside the pseudo-government private corporation who any of the people in pseudo-government
51 can be or are accountable to, and certainly no one who has Constitutional rights.
52 9.2. They are violating their state constitutions, because most state constitutions forbid anyone from simultaneously
53 serving as a public officer in the federal government and the state government. Federal taxpayers are public officers
54 (engaged in a "trade or business" as define din 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26)) in the federal government while state
55 "taxpayers" are similarly public officers in the state government.

SEC. 7. A person holding a lucrative office under the United States or other power may not hold a civil office of profit [within the state government]. A local officer or postmaster whose compensation does not exceed 500 dollars per year or an officer in the militia or a member of a reserve component of the armed forces of the United States except where on active federal duty for more than 30 days in any year is not a holder of a lucrative office, nor is the holding of a civil office of profit affected by this military service.

9.3. Everyone who participates as a jurist or voter in any proceeding involving taxation and who is a recipient of federal “benefits” is committing a crime by having a conflict of interest in violation of:

9.3.1. 18 U.S.C. §208 in the case of statutory but not constitutional “citizens” and “taxpayers”.

9.3.2. 28 U.S.C. §144, and 28 U.S.C. §455 in the case of judges.

9.3.3. 18 U.S.C. §201: Bribery of public officials and witnesses. All jurists and all “taxpayers” are public officers in the government and receipt of federal “benefits” bribes them to perpetuate the “benefit” when taxes are at issue.

9.4. If you try to participate as a jurist or voter as a constitutional but not statutory citizen, the registrar of voters and the jury commissioner will expel you and refuse to address the legal evidence proving that he or she is committing a FRAUD upon the public by preventing REAL constitutional but not statutory citizens from participating. Consequently, any tax imposed upon constitutional citizens is taxation without representation. We have watched this process firsthand. See:

Jury Summons Response Attachment, Form #06.015

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

10. An enterprise or portion of the government is not a “body politic”, but only a “body corporate”. For instance, the “District of Columbia” is a “body corporate”, but NOT a “body politic”, as you will learn later in section 14.4, which means it is not part of the government, but a private corporation. Yet, sovereign immunity is abused by the corrupt corporate courts to protect the activities of this private corporation.

11. Practicing federal attorneys take an oath to the wrong sovereign. Their oath ought to be to the people and the “State” they serve, but instead is to the government. The two are not the same. See:

Petition for Admission to Practice, Family Guardian Fellowship

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/LegalEthics/PetForAdmToPractice-USDC.pdf>

12. “Words of Art” are abused to illegally expand definitions in such a way that PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE party unlawfully become the subject of any government enforcement authority. This kind of abuse is very commonly done with definitions in the Internal Revenue Code. The following document explains and proves this kind of abuse:

Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

13. All powers are derived or delegated directly from the people: Government arrogates authority to itself that it denies to others and thereby becomes the equivalent of a pagan deity and an object of idol worship.

14. Government dispenses with one or more of the three elements needed to make it valid: People, Laws, and Territory. For instance, if the government tries to setup a “virtual state” using territory borrowed from another government that is not its own, then it can no longer be called a government. This, in fact, is exactly how state income taxes function. State income taxes presume a domicile on federal territory borrowed from the federal government. State income taxes are imposed under the authority of the Buck Act of 1940 and the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939, which are codified at 4 U.S.C. §106 and 5 U.S.C. §5517. See:

State Income Taxes, Form #05.031

Next, we will provide a tabular comparison of a de jure government and a de facto private corporation to synthesize all the points in the previous subsections into one place:

1 Table 6: "De jure government" and "De Facto Private corporation" compared

#	Characteristic	De jure government	De facto private corporation
1	Territory, laws, and people?	Yes	No. Only contracts/franchises and corporate "employees" that do not attach to specific territory.
2	Purpose of establishment	Protect PRIVATE rights	1. Protect PUBLIC rights and convert all PRIVATE rights into PUBLIC rights/franchises. 2. Expand the corporation and centralize all power to the CEO/President.
3	Private rights are unalienable	Yes	No. All rights are PUBLIC/CORPORATE rights
4	Equal protection of all?	Yes	No. Only corporate "employees" are protected. All others are TERRORIZED until they join the corporation.
5	Civil laws based on consent of the governed?	Yes	No. All law is corporate policy that forms the employment agreement for officers of the corporation.
6	Powers derived from	The Sovereign People, both individually and collectively	CEO and Board of Directors of the Corporation. "Employees" must do as they are told or they are FIRED and/or persecuted
7	Body corporate?	Yes	Yes
8	Body politic?	Yes	No
9	Taxes used only for	Support of government	Support of employees and officers of the corporation, which is EVERYONE

2 8.3 The "Sovereign Acts Doctrine" of the U.S. Supreme Court

3 It is important to be able to distinguish in any given situation whether a government is:

- 4 1. Acting in its sovereign capacity as a "government" and thereby entitled to sovereign immunity.
5 2. Acting in its private capacity essentially as a corporation in equity.

6 The U.S. Supreme Court has defined what it calls the "Sovereign Acts Doctrine" as a means to determine which 7 of the above two capacities apply in any given situation. Understanding this doctrine is important, because it
8 helps to indirectly answer whether the government is acting as a private corporation, or a de jure government.

9 To start our analysis, we provide key cases on the subject that help explain the doctrine:

- 10 1. The preceding section made reference to the case of United States v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839 \(1996\) .

11 See also Clearfield Trust Co. v. United States, 318 U.S. 363, 369 (1943) ("The United States does business on 12 business terms") (quoting United States v. National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, 270 U.S. 527, 534 (1926));
13 Perry v. United States, supra at 352 (1935) ("When the United States, with constitutional authority, makes
14 contracts, it has rights and incurs responsibilities similar to those of individuals who are parties to such
15 instruments. There is no difference . . . except that the United States cannot be sued without its consent")
16 (citation omitted); United States v. Bostwick, 94 U.S. 53, 66 (1877) ("The United States, when they contract with
17 their citizens, are controlled by the same laws that govern the citizen in that behalf"); Cooke v. United States,
18 91 U.S. 389, 398 (1875) (explaining that when the United States "comes down from its position of sovereignty,
19 and enters the domain of commerce, it submits itself to the same laws that govern individuals there").

20 See Jones, 1 Cl.Ct. at 85 ("Wherever the public and private acts of the government seem to commingle, a citizen
21 or corporate body must by supposition be substituted in its place, and then the question be determined whether
22 the action will lie against the supposed defendant"); O'Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl. 823, 826 (1982)
23 (sovereign acts doctrine applies where, "[w]here [the] contracts exclusively between private parties, the party hurt

1 by such governing action could not claim compensation from the other party for the governing action"). The
2 dissent ignores these statements (including the statement from Jones, from which case Horowitz drew its
3 reasoning literally verbatim), when it says, post at 931, that the sovereign acts cases do not emphasize the need
4 to treat the government-as-contractor the same as a private party.
5 [United States v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839 (1996).]

6 2. U.S. v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839, 116 S.Ct. 2432, 135 L.Ed.2d 964 (1996)

7 The Government's final line of defense is the sovereign acts doctrine, to the effect that "[w]hatever acts the
8 government may do, be they legislative or executive, so long as they be public and general, cannot be deemed 9 especially to alter, modify, obstruct or violate the particular contracts into which it enters with private persons."
10 Horowitz v. United States, 267 U.S., at 461 (quoting Jones v. United States, 1 Ct.Cl. 383, 384 (1865)). Because 11 FIRREA's alteration of the regulatory capital requirements was a "public and general act," the Government says,
12 that act could not amount to a breach of the Government's contract with respondents.

13 The Government's position cannot prevail, however, for two independent reasons. The facts of this case do not
14 warrant application of the doctrine, and even if that were otherwise the doctrine would not suffice to excuse
15 liability under this governmental contract allocating risks of regulatory change in a highly regulated industry.

16 In Horowitz, the plaintiff sued to recover damages for breach of a contract to purchase silk from the Ordnance
17 Department. The agreement included a promise by the Department to ship the silk within a certain time, although 18 the manner of shipment does not appear to have been a subject of the contract. Shipment was delayed because 19 the United States Railroad Administration placed an embargo on shipments of silk by freight, and by the time the 20 silk reached Horowitz the price had fallen, rendering the deal unprofitable. This Court barred any damages
21 award for the delay, noting that "[i]t has long been held by the Court of Claims that the United States when sued
22 as a contractor cannot be held liable for an obstruction to the performance of the particular contract resulting 23 from its public and general acts as a sovereign." 267 U. S., at 461. This statement was not, however, meant to be
24 read as broadly as the Government urges, and the key to its proper scope is found in that portion of our opinion
25 explaining that the essential point was to put the Government in the same position that it would have enjoyed as 26 a private contractor:

27 "The two characters which the government possesses as a contractor and as a sovereign cannot be thus fused;
28 nor can the United States while sued in the one character be made liable in damages for their acts done in the 29 other. Whatever acts the government may do, be they legislative or executive, so long as they be public and 30 general, cannot be deemed specially to alter, modify, obstruct or violate the particular contracts into which it
31 enters with private persons. . . . In this court the United States appear simply as contractors; and they are to be 32 held liable only within the same limits that any other defendant would be in any other court. Though their 33 sovereign acts performed for the general good may work injury to some private contractors, such parties gain
34 nothing by having the United States as their defendants." Ibid. (quoting Jones v. United States, supra, at 384).

35 The early Court of Claims cases upon which Horowitz relied anticipated the Court's emphasis on the 36 Government's dual and distinguishable capacities and on the need to treat the government-as-contractor the 37 same as a private party. In Deming v. United States, 1 Ct.Cl. 190 (1865), the Court of Claims rejected a suit by 38 a supplier of army rations whose costs increased as a result of Congress's passage of the Legal Tender Act. The 39 Deming court thought it "grave error" to suppose that "general enactments of Congress are to be construed as 40 evasions of [the plaintiff's] particular contract." Id., at 191. "The United States as a contractor are not 41 responsible for the United States as a lawgiver," the court said. "In this court the United States can be held to 42 no greater liability than other contractors in other courts." Ibid. Similarly, Jones v. United States, supra refused
43 a suit by surveyors employed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, whose performance had been hindered by 44 the United States's withdrawal of troops from Indian country. "The United States as a contractor," the Claims
45 Court concluded, "cannot be held liable directly or indirectly for the public acts of the United States as a 46 sovereign." Id., at 385.

47 The Government argues that "[t]he relevant question [under these cases] is whether the impact [of governmental 48 action] . . . is caused by a law enacted to govern regulatory policy and to advance the general welfare." Brief for 49 United States 45. This understanding assumes that the dual characters of Government as contractor and
50 legislator are never "fused" (within the meaning of Horowitz) so long as the object of the statute is regulatory 51 and meant to accomplish some public good. That is, on the Government's reading, a regulatory object is proof
52 against treating the legislature as having acted to avoid the Government's contractual obligations, in which event
53 the sovereign acts defense would not be applicable. But the Government's position is open to serious objection.

54 As an initial matter, we have already expressed our doubt that a workable line can be drawn between the 55 Government's "regulatory" and "nonregulatory" capacities. In the present case, the Government chose to 56 regulate capital reserves to protect FSLIC's insurance fund, much as any insurer might impose restrictions on an 57 insured as a condition of the policy. The regulation thus protected the Government in its capacity analogous to a 58 private insurer, the same capacity in which it entered into supervisory merger agreements to convert some of its
59 financial insurance obligations into responsibilities of private entrepreneurs. In this respect, the supervisory
60 mergers bear some analogy to private contracts for reinsurance.<sup>37</sup> On the other hand, there is no question that 61 thrift regulation is, in fact, regulation, and that both the supervisory mergers of the 1980's and the subsequent

1 passage of FIRREA were meant to advance a broader public interest. The inescapable conclusion from all of
2 this is that the Government's "regulatory" and "nonregulatory" capacities were fused in the instances under
3 consideration, and we suspect that such fusion will be so common in the modern regulatory state as to leave a
4 criterion of "regulation" without much use in defining the scope of the sovereign acts doctrine.<sup>33</sup>

5 An even more serious objection is that allowing the Government to avoid contractual liability merely by passing
6 any "regulatory statute," would flaunt the general principle that, "[w]hen the United States enters into contract
7 relations, its rights and duties therein are governed generally by the law applicable to contracts between private
8 individuals." Lynch v. United States, 292 U. S., at 579.<sup>34</sup> Careful attention to the cases shows that the sovereign
9 acts doctrine was meant to serve this principle, not undermine it. In Horowitz, for example, if the defendant had 10 been a private shipper, it would have been entitled to assert the common-law defense of impossibility of 11 performance against Horowitz's claim for breach. Although that defense is traditionally unavailable where the 12 barrier to performance arises from the act of the party seeking discharge, see Restatement (Second) of Contracts
13 Section(s) 261; 2 E. Farnsworth, Farnsworth on Contracts Section(s) 9.6, p. 551 (1990); cf. W. R. Grace & Co.
14 v. Rubber Workers, 461 U.S. 757, 767-768, n. 10 (1983), Horowitz held that the "public and general" acts of the 15 sovereign are not attributable to the Government as contractor so as to bar the Government's right to discharge.
16 The sovereign acts doctrine thus balances the Government's need for freedom to legislate with its obligation to 17 honor its contracts by asking whether the sovereign act is properly attributable to the Government as contractor.
18 If the answer is no, the Government's defense to liability depends on the answer to the further question, whether 19 that act would otherwise release the Government from liability under ordinary principles of contract law.<sup>40</sup>
20 Neither question can be answered in the Government's favor here.

21 If the Government is to be treated like other contractors, some line has to be drawn in situations like the one
22 before us between regulatory legislation that is relatively free of government self-interest and therefore
23 cognizable for the purpose of a legal impossibility defense and, on the other hand, statutes tainted by a
24 governmental object of self-relief. Such an object is not necessarily inconsistent with a public purpose, of course,
25 and when we speak of governmental "self-interest," we simply mean to identify instances in which the Government
26 seeks to shift the costs of meeting its legitimate public responsibilities to private parties. Cf. Armstrong v. United 27 States, 364 U.S., at 49 (The Government may not "forc[e] some people alone to bear public burdens which . . .
28 should be borne by the public as a whole"). Hence, while the Government might legitimately conclude that a 29 given contractual commitment was no longer in the public interest, a government seeking relief from such 30 commitments through legislation would obviously not be in a position comparable to that of the private contractor
31 who willy-nilly was barred by law from performance. There would be, then, good reason in such circumstance to 32 find the regulatory and contractual characters of the Government fused together, in Horowitz's terms, so that the 33 Government should not have the benefit of the defense.<sup>35</sup>

34 Horowitz's criterion of "public and general act" thus reflects the traditional "rule of law" assumption that 35 generality in the terms by which the use of power is authorized will tend to guard against its misuse to burden or 36 benefit the few unjustifiably.<sup>36</sup> See, e.g., Hurtado v. California, 110 U.S. 516, 535-536 (1884) ("Law . . . must be
37 not a special rule for a particular person or a particular case, but . . . [t]he general law . . . so that every citizen
38 shall hold his life, liberty, property and immunities under the protection of the general rules which govern
39 society") (citation omitted).<sup>37</sup> Hence, governmental action will not be held against the Government for purposes

<sup>33</sup> Moreover, if the dissent were correct that the sovereign acts doctrine permits the Government to abrogate its contractual commitments in "regulatory" cases even where it simply sought to avoid contracts it had come to regret, then the Government's sovereign contracting power would be of very little use in this broad sphere of public activity. We rejected a virtually identical argument in Perry v. United States, 294 U.S. 330 (1935), in which Congress had passed a resolution regulating the payment of obligations in gold. We held that the law could not be applied to the Government's own obligations, noting that "the right to make binding obligations is a competence attaching to sovereignty." Id., at 353.

<sup>37</sup> The dissent accuses us of transplanting this due process principle into alien soil, see post, at 9. But this Court did not even wait until the term following Hurtado before applying its principle of generality to a case that, like this one, involved the deprivation of property rights. See Hagar v. Reclamation Dist. No. 108, 111 U.S. 701, 708 (1884). More importantly, it would be surprising indeed if the sovereign acts doctrine, resting on the inherent nature of sovereignty, were not shaped by fundamental principles about how sovereigns ought to behave.

1 of the impossibility defense so long as the action's impact upon public contracts is, as in Horowitz, merely
2 incidental to the accomplishment of a broader governmental objective. See O'Neill v. United States, 231 Ct.Cl.
3 823, 926 (1982) (noting that the sovereign acts doctrine recognizes that "the Government's actions, otherwise
4 legal, will occasionally incidentally impair the performance of contracts").<sup>38</sup> The greater the Government's self-
5 interest, however, the more suspect becomes the claim that its private contracting partners ought to bear the 6 financial burden of the Government's own improvidence, and where a substantial part of the impact of the 7 Government's action rendering performance impossible falls on its own contractual obligations, the defense will 8 be unavailable. Cf. Sun Oil Co. v. United States, 215 Ct.Cl. 716, 768, 572 F.2d. 786, 817 (1978) (rejecting 9 sovereign acts defense where the Secretary of the Interior's actions were "directed principally and primarily at 10 plaintiffs' contractual right").<sup>39</sup>

11 The dissent would adopt a different rule that the Government's dual roles of contractor and sovereign may never 12 be treated as fused, relying upon Deming's pronouncement that "[t]he United States as a contractor are not 13 responsible for the United States as a lawgiver." Post, at 9 (quoting 1 Ct. Cl., at 191). But that view would simply 14 eliminate the "public and general" requirement, which presupposes that the Government's capacities must be 15 treated as fused when the Government acts in a non-general way. Deming itself twice refers to the "general"
16 quality of the enactment at issue, 1 Ct. Cl., at 191, and notes that "[t]he statute bears upon [the governmental 17 contract] as it bears upon all similar contracts between citizens, and affects it in no other way." Ibid. At the other 18 extreme, of course, it is clear that any benefit at all to the Government will not disqualify an act as "public and 19 general"; the silk embargo in Horowitz, for example, had the incidental effect of releasing the Government from 20 its contractual obligation to transport Mr. Horowitz's shipment. Our holding that a governmental act will not be 21 public and general if it has the substantial effect of releasing the Government from its contractual obligations
22 strikes a middle course between these two extremes.<sup>40</sup>

23 3. Century Exploration New Orleans, LLC v. United States (C.C., 2013), Case No. 11-54 C, Court of Federal 24 Claims

25 The sovereign acts doctrine is a variation of the common law doctrine of impossibility, adapted for the unique
26 circumstances faced by the government as a contractor. Under the impossibility doctrine, also known as the 27 impracticability doctrine, [w]here, after a contract is made, a party's performance is made impracticable
28 without his fault by the occurrence of an event the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption upon 29 which the contract was made, his duty to render that performance is discharged, unless the language or the 30 circumstances indicate the contrary.

31 Restatement (Second) of Contracts §261. The impossibility doctrine applies to, inter alia, statutory, regulatory,
32 or other legal changes that render performance by one of the contracting parties impracticable:

33 If the performance of a duty is made impracticable by having to comply with a domestic or foreign governmental 34 regulation or order, that regulation or order is an event the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption on 35 which the contract was made.

36 Id. § 264; see Hicks v. United States, 89 Fed.Cl. 243, 258 (2009) (noting that the doctrine may be applied when 37 performance by one of the parties is rendered impracticable because of an intervening government order).

38 In general, the impossibility defense is not available when the barrier to performance was created by the party
39 seeking to invoke the defense. See Restatement (Second) of Contracts §261 (limiting a contractor's use of the 40 defense to impracticability caused by the occurrence of an event "without his fault"); id. § 261, comment d ("If 41 the event is due to the fault of the obligor himself, this Section does not apply."). The sovereign acts doctrine was
42 established in the early years of the Court of Claims, see Wilson v. United States, 11 Ct.Cl. 513 (1875); Jones
43 v. United States, 1 Ct.Cl. 383 (1865); Deming v. United States, 1 Ct.Cl. 190 (1865), and addresses situations in 44 which the government's acts as a sovereign render the performance of its duties as a contractor impracticable.
45 In such cases, "[t]he two characters which the government possesses as a contractor and as a sovereign cannot 46 be thus fused; nor can the United States while sued in the one character be made liable in damages for their acts
47 done in the other." Jones, 1 Ct.Cl. at 384.

<sup>38</sup> See also Speidel, 51 Geo. L. J., at 539-540 (observing that "the commonly expressed conditions to the availability of the sovereign acts defense" are not only that "the act . . . must have been 'public and general,'" but also that "the damage to the contractor must have been caused indirectly"); cf. Exxon Corp. v. Eagerton, 462 U.S. 176, 191-192 (1983) (distinguishing between direct and incidental impairments under the Contract Clause).

<sup>40</sup> A different intermediate position would be possible, at least in theory. One might say that a governmental action was not "public and general" under Horowitz if its predominant purpose or effect was avoidance of the Government's contractual commitments. The difficulty, however, of ascertaining the relative intended or resulting impacts on governmental and purely private contracts persuades us that this test would prove very difficult to apply.

1 In those early cases, the court emphasized that the sovereign acts doctrine did not afford any special treatment
2 for the government. Rather, its purpose was to ensure that the government as contractor was treated the same
3 as any private contractor whose performance was rendered impracticable by an intervening act of the 4 government. See id. ("In this court the United States appear simply as contractors; and they are to be held liable
5 only within the same limits that any other defendant would be in any other court."); Deming, 1 Ct.Cl. at 191 ("In 6 this court the United States can be held to no greater liability than other contractors in other courts.").

7 In order to ensure that the government was afforded the same treatment as a private contractor, the court held
8 that it was necessary to draw a sharp distinction between the government-as-sovereign and the government-
9 as-contractor, and that the distinction between the two would be maintained as long as the sovereign acts that 10 rendered performance impracticable were "public and general." See Jones, 1 Ct.Cl. at 384 ("Whatever acts the
11 government may do, be they legislative or executive, so long as they be public and general, cannot be deemed
12 specially to alter, modify, obstruct or violate the particular contracts into which it enters with private persons.");
13 see also Wilson, 11 Ct.Cl. at 521 ("This double character of the Government cannot be lost sight of in any of its 14 transactions."); Deming, 1 Ct.Cl. at 191 ("The United States as a contractor are not responsible for the United 15 States as a lawgiver.").

16 The doctrine was later adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States, see Horowitz v. United States, 267
17 U.S. 458, 461 \(1925\) ("It has long been held by the Court of Claims that the United States when sued as a
18 contractor cannot be held liable for an obstruction to the performance of the particular contract resulting from 19 its public and general acts as a sovereign."), and it has been applied in a number of cases by this court and the 20 Federal Circuit. In the leading case on the doctrine, the Supreme Court explained that [t]he sovereign acts
21 doctrine thus balances the Government's need for freedom to legislate with its obligation to honor its contracts
22 by asking whether the sovereign act is properly attributable to the Government as contractor. If the answer is no,
23 the Government's defense to liability depends on the answer to the further question, whether that act would 24 otherwise release the Government from liability under ordinary principles of contract law.

25 United States v. Winstar Corp., 518 U.S. 839, 896 (1996).

26 In subsequent years, the Federal Circuit has followed the general approach set forth by the Court of Claims in 27 its earliest cases on the sovereign acts doctrine. First, that court has explained that the government-as-sovereign
28 must be separated from the government-as-contractor, and that the latter must be treated in the same manner
29 as any private contractor:

30 The basic notion of the sovereign acts doctrine is that the United States as a contracting party acts in a different
31 capacity from its role as a sovereign. As a contractor, it stands in the same shoes as any private party would in 32 dealing with another private party; as a sovereign, it stands apart. The acts of one are not to be 'fused' with 33 the other - if an act of the Government as sovereign would justify non-performance by any other defendant
34 being sued for contract breach, then the Government as contractor is equally free from liability for non-35 performance.

36 Stockton East, 583 F.3d. at 1366.

37 Further, when the government's actions render performance impracticable, those actions will be viewed as 38 sovereign acts only if they are public and general, while any interference with the government's contracts must 39 be only incidental. See Klamath Irrigation Dist. v. United States, 635 F.3d. 505, 520 (Fed. Cir. 2011) ("The
40 government is not liable for breach of contract whenever it takes any generally applicable action in its sovereign
41 capacity that incidentally frustrates performance of a contract to which it is a party."); see also Winstar, 518 U.S.
42 at 896 (noting that "governmental action will not be held against the Government for purposes of the impossibility
43 defense so long as the action's impact upon public contracts is, as in Horowitz, merely incidental to the 44 accomplishment of a broader governmental objective").

45 In contrast, the sovereign acts defense never applies when the government's actions were designed to target its 46 contractual obligations or when those actions have the substantial effect of releasing it from its obligations.
47 See Winstar, 518 U.S. at 899 (explaining that a government action is not public and general when "it has the 48 substantial effect of releasing the Government from its contractual obligations"); Stockton East, 583 F.3d. at 49 1366 (noting that the relevant question is whether the "act [is] simply one designed to relieve the Government of 50 its contract duties, or is it a genuinely public and general act that only incidentally falls upon the contract?");
51 Conner Bros., 550 F.3d. at 1374 ("[T]he sovereign acts defense is unavailable where the governmental action is 52 specifically directed at nullifying contract rights."); Yankee Atomic Elec. Co. v. United States, 112 F.3d. 1569, 53 1575 (Fed. Cir. 1997) ("The Government-as-contractor cannot exercise the power of its twin, the Government-
54 as-sovereign, for the purpose of altering, modifying, obstructing or violating the particular contracts into which 55 it had entered with private parties.").

56 Finally, even if the government demonstrates that its actions were sovereign in nature, it must still prove that 57 those actions rendered its performance impossible. Casitas Mun. Water Dist. v. United States, 543 F.3d. 1276, 58 1287 (Fed. Cir. 2008) ("[P]erformance by the government is excused under the sovereign acts defense only 59 when the sovereign act renders the government's performance impossible."). However, the Federal Circuit 60 "and its predecessor have long recognized that the doctrine of impossibility does not require a showing of actual

1 or literal impossibility of performance but only a showing of commercial impracticability." Seaboard Lumber Co.
2 v. United States, 308 F.3d. 1283, 1294 \(Fed. Cir. 2002\). For the reasons noted below, the court concludes that
3 the actions challenged here were sovereign in nature - i.e., they were public and general - and rendered the 4 government's performance under the lease not only impracticable, but legally impossible.

5 Based on the above cases, we summarize the Sovereign Acts Doctrine as follows:

- 6 1. The sovereign acts doctrine is a variation of the common law doctrine of impossibility, adapted for the unique 7 circumstances faced by the government as a contractor.
- 8 2. The sovereign acts doctrine originated in the U.S. Court of Claims and was later adopted by the U.S. Supreme Court.
- 9 3. The sovereign acts doctrine can be invoked by the government as a defense in court when the government has breached
10 a contract with a private party and seeks to be relieved of liability for the contractual consequences of the breach.
- 11 4. In early cases, the court emphasized that the sovereign acts doctrine did not afford any special treatment for the 12 government. Rather, its purpose was to ensure that the government as contractor was treated the same as any private 13 contractor whose performance was rendered impracticable by an intervening act of the government.
- 14 5. The sovereign acts defense never applies when the government's actions were designed to target its contractual 15 obligations or when those actions have the substantial effect or purpose of releasing it from its obligations.
- 16 6. In order to invoke the Sovereign Acts Doctrine, the government must prove that:
  - 17 6.1. The government's actions rendered its performance impossible. . .AND
  - 18 6.2. The performance of the government is a commercial impracticability.
- 19 7. Since the early cases on the subject:
  - 20 7.1. Some of the functions of the Court of Claims have been transferred to the Court of International Trade, which has 21 been made into an Article III constitutional court just like the original Court of Claims.
  - 22 7.2. At this time, the Court of Claims is an Article I franchise court.<sup>41</sup>

23 We think that the Sovereign Acts Doctrine completely misses the point of what governments are for. Governments
24 are created EXCLUSIVELY to protect PRIVATE rights and to promote JUSTICE. That's what the Declaration
25 of Independence and the Constitution says or implies.

26 "We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator

41 Justice, in turn, is legally defined as the "right to be left alone". Even judges of the U.S. Supreme Court are called

<sup>41</sup> See Glidden v. Zdanok, 370 U.S. 530 (1962). 28 U.S.C. §171(a) now identifies the Court of Claims as an Article I court. The only Article III federal courts are the U.S. Supreme Court and the Court of International Trade. The Wikipedia article on the Court of Claims is FALSE on this subject, and identifies the Court of Claims as having Article III powers.

1 life; property, or the totality of the instruments of action; honor, or the ideal existence; and finally freedom, or
2 the possibility of fashioning one's life as an end in itself. The law defends these different spheres, thus giving rise
3 to a corresponding number of spheres of rights, each being protected by a prohibition. . . . To violate the rights,
4 to interfere with the interests of others, is injustice. All injustice is ultimately directed against the life of the
5 neighbor; it is an open avowal that the latter is not an end in itself, having the same value as the individual's own
6 life. The general formula of the duty of justice may therefore be stated as follows: Do no wrong yourself, and
7 permit no wrong to be done, so far as lies in your power; or, expressed positively: Respect and protect the right."
8 [Readings on the History and System of the Common Law, Second Edition, Roscoe Pound, 1925, p. 2]
9

10 "The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
11 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
12 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect 13 Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the 14 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized
15 men."
16 [Olmstead v. United States, 277 U.S. 438, 478 (1928) (Brandeis, J., dissenting); see also Washington v. Harper,
17 494 U.S. 210 (1990)]

18 "Justice" BEGINS with the GOVERNMENT leaving you alone. If THEY won't leave you and your property
19 alone, you shouldn't be hiring them to protect OTHERS from interfering with your right to be left alone.
20 Therefore, government's FIRST job is to ensure that your PRIVATE property STAYS private, is NEVER
21 converted to PUBLIC property, and that they LEAVE YOU ALONE and don't try to regulate, tax, or take away
22 the exercise of your PRIVATE property or PRIVATE rights. The essence of "ownership" of PRIVATE property,
23 in fact, is the right to exclude ALL OTHERS, including governments, from using or benefitting from the use of 24 your PRIVATE property.

25 "We have repeatedly held that, as to property reserved by its owner for private use, "the right to exclude [others
26 is] one of the most essential sticks in the bundle of rights that are commonly characterized as property."
27 Loretto v. Teleprompter Manhattan CATV Corp., 458 U.S. 419, 433 (1982), quoting Kaiser Aetna v. United States,
28 444 U.S. 164, 176 (1979). "
29 [Nollan v. California Coastal Comm'n, 483 U.S. 825 (1987)]

30
31 "In this case, we hold that the "right to exclude," so universally held to be a fundamental element of the 32 property right,<sup>[11]</sup> falls within this category of interests that the Government cannot take without 33 compensation."
34 [Kaiser Aetna v. United States, 444 U.S. 164 (1979)]

35 [11] See, e. g., United States v. Pueblo of San Ildefonso, 206 Ct.Cl. 649, 669-670, 513 F.2d. 1383, 1394 (1975);
36 United States v. Lutz, 295 F.2d. 736, 740 (CA5 1961). As stated by Mr. Justice Brandeis, "[a]n essential element
37 of individual property is the legal right to exclude others from enjoying it." International News Service v.
38 Associated Press, 248 U.S. 215, 250 (1918) (dissenting opinion).

39 If government takes away your right of PRIVATE property by taking away your right to exclude THEM from 40 using or benefitting from the property, they have essentially STOLEN your property and converted it to PUBLIC
41 property and made you into an EQUITABLE rather than legal owner. If they do that in the context of any of your 42 PRIVATE property, or if they harass, punish, or intimidate people who refuse to act in a PUBLIC officer capacity
43 or refuse to donate their PRIVATE property to the government, then they are not only NOT a classical 44 "government", but in fact are what we call an ANTI-government. An ANTI-government has the OPPOSITE
45 purpose for which governments are created and insists on owning EVERYTHING and EVERYONE, and thereby 46 to become LIKE God, just like Satan.

47 Satan Tempts Jesus

48 Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world
49 and their glory. And he said to Him, "All these things [ALL PROPERTY and power] I will give You if You will 50 fall down and worship me."

51 Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and 52 Him only you shall serve.'"

1 Then the devil left Him, and behold, angels came and ministered to Him.
2 [Matt. 4:8-11, Bible, NKJV]

3
4
5 "By the abundance of your trading [for OTHER people's STOLEN property]
6 You [Satan and all de facto governments who WORSHIP Satan] became filled with violence within,
7 And you sinned;
8 Therefore I cast you as a profane thing
9 Out of the mountain of God;
10 And I destroyed you, O covering cherub,
11 From the midst of the fiery stones."
12 [Ezekial 28:16, Bible, NKJV]

13 To give you an example application, consider the vehicle code in your state. Governments are created to 14 PROTECT your PRIVATE property, including your vehicle. However, in order to give them jurisdiction to 15 protect it, you have to "register it". Once it becomes a REGISTERED vehicle, they acquire the right to TAKE IT
16 AWAY from you if you operate it without a license in most states. Hence, now the owner has to become a
17 PUBLIC officer called a "driver" and go do work for the government without compensation in order to operate
18 the vehicle. That's what a "driver" is: a PUBLIC officer. Hence, by registering it, the so-called "government"
19 becomes the ABSOLUTE owner and you convert from the ABSOLUTE owner to the QUALIFIED owner with 20 EQUITABLE interest in the vehicle. Essentially, you had to donate ABSOLUTE ownership of the vehicle to the 21 government before they would consent to protect the vehicle. Imagine hiring a security guard to protect something
22 and the contract you sign with the security guard mandates that you DONATE the essence of your ownership to 23 them. Would you knowingly sign such a contract? We wouldn't. This is a SCAM and anyone that would call
24 themselves a "government" is not only NOT a government, but an ANTI-GOVERNMENT!

25 Therefore, by our criteria the Vehicle Code as currently implemented is not a classical "government" function and 26 the enforcement of it is NOT a "sovereign act" of any government that can therefore be protected with "sovereign
27 immunity". As described in the above cases, the government is essentially a private contractor and not a classical 28 "government" in the context of how current vehicle codes are implemented. If your state government removed 29 the right (in the Vehicle Code) to take away the vehicle from those who are unlicensed and removed the right to 30 compel you through any means to become a statutory "driver", the vehicle code could once again be a "government 31 function" and a "sovereign act".

32 8.4 The "Market Participant Doctrine" of the U.S. Supreme Court

33 In addition to the Sovereign Acts Doctrine of the U.S. Supreme Court, other doctrines can be used to distinguish 34 whether the Body Corporate is acting in a PRIVATE capacity. The "Market Participant Doctrine" is an example,
35 as explained below by the U.S. Supreme Court:

36 B. Market Participant

37 NYTA argues that, even if plaintiffs have standing to pursue their dormant Commerce Clause claim, the policy is 38 not unconstitutional because of the so-called "market participant" doctrine. This doctrine "differentiates
39 between a State's acting in its distinctive governmental capacity, and a State's acting in the more general
40 capacity of a market participant; only the former is subject to the limitations of the [dormant] Commerce
41 Clause." New Energy Co. of Ind. v. Limbach, 486 U.S. 269, 277, 108 S.Ct. 1803, 100 L.Ed.2d 302 (1988). The 42 Supreme Court has held that "Nothing in the purposes animating the Commerce Clause prohibits a State, in the 43 absence of congressional action, from participating in the market and exercising the right to favor its own citizens
44 over others." Reeves, Inc. v. Stake, 447 U.S. 429, 436, 100 S.Ct. 2271, 65 L.Ed.2d 244 (1980). The Court has not
45 articulated a bright-line rule to discern governmental regulation of commerce from market participation; courts
46 must make fact-specific inquiries on a case-by-case basis. "Thus, for example, when a State chooses to 47 manufacture and sell cement, its business methods, including those that favor its residents, are of no greater
48 constitutional concern than those of a private business." New Energy Co., 486 U.S. at 277, 108 S.Ct. 1803 (citing
49 Reeves, 447 U.S. at 438-39, 100 S.Ct. 2271); see also Hughes, 426 U.S. at 809, 96 S.Ct. 2488 (holding that a
50 state's program of purchasing abandoned vehicles from within the state but not from other states did not burden
51 interstate commerce). But see Toomer v. Witsell, 334 U.S. 385, 406, 68 S.Ct. 1156, 92 L.Ed. 1460 (1948) (holding 52 that the Commerce Clause was violated where a state required that shrimp boats fishing off of its coast pack their 53 shrimp and pay state taxes before transporting their catch interstate). In sum, a court reviewing a claim that the 54 dormant Commerce Clause has been violated must consider in each specific context if the government is acting 55 like a private business or a governmental entity.

1 NYTA contends that "in setting toll rates to raise revenue to maintain its property and satisfy its bondholders,
2 [NYTA] is not regulating commerce, but is acting in a proprietary capacity as a market participant in the local
3 highway transportation market." Appellee's Br. 9-10. However, the statute creating NYTA provides that NYTA
4 "shall be regarded as performing a governmental function in carrying out its corporate purpose and in 5 exercising the powers granted by this title." N.Y. Pub. Auth. § 353 (emphasis added). There is good reason for 6 this designation and for our repeated observation that building and maintaining roads is a core governmental
7 function. See USA Recycling, Inc. v. Town of Babylon, 66 F.3d 1272, 1284 (2d Cir.1995) ("State governments
8 have turned to the private sector to 'contract out' or 'outsource' numerous governmental functions, including
9 ... the operation of toll roads." (emphasis added)); Murray v. City of Milford, 380 F.2d 468, 470 (2d Cir.1967)
10 ("The construction and maintenance of roads is a 'governmental function....'"). Although there is undoubtedly 11 a market comprised of private entities competing with one another for government contracts, we see no
12 evidence in the record that NYTA competes with other entities that are also seeking to build and maintain 13 highway systems. Unlike a private actor, NYTA may (1) use or possess any real [584 F.3d. 94] property or 14 rights in real property acquired by the state, see N.Y. Pub. Auth. §357, (2) avoid holdouts by resorting to 15 eminent domain to amass the property necessary to build roads, see id. §§ 358, 358-a, and (3) issue bonds that 16 are "fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the state" in order to raise capital to fund road construction and 17 maintenance projects, id. § 366(1). NYTA may also "accept any gifts or any grant of funds or property from 18 the federal government or from the state ... or any other federal or state public body." Id. § 354(14).

19 NYTA's reliance on Endsley v. City of Chicago, 230 F.3d. 276, 283-85 (7th Cir.2000), for the proposition that 20 a state may "act[ ] in a proprietary capacity as an entrant into the local highway transportation market," 21 Appellee's Br. 17, is misplaced. In Endsley, plaintiffs challenging Chicago's operation of the city's Skyway toll 22 bridge essentially "plead themselves out of court" by noting in their complaint that, "[s]ince its inception,
23 Chicago has operated [the bridge] as a proprietary enterprise, and not in its governmental capacity." 230 F.3d.
24 at 284. The Seventh Circuit's observation that "the facts suggest that Chicago was indeed a market
25 participant," id., was dicta and, in any event, not binding authority for this Court. On this record, we see no
26 reason to conclude that the instant case is like Reeves, where South Dakota entered a market to produce and 27 sell cement in competition with private cement suppliers, see 447 U.S. at 440, 100 S.Ct. 2271, or Hughes, where
28 Maryland entered "into the market as a purchaser, in effect, of a potential article of interstate commerce," 426
29 U.S. at 808, 96 S.Ct. 2488. In short, nothing in this record permits the conclusion that, in this instance, NYTA is 30 a market participant.

31 We need not reach the question whether, or under what circumstances, a governmental entity may act as a market
32 participant by building and maintaining roads. We hold simply that, at least in this stage of the litigation, a finding 33 that NYTA acted as a "market participant" (rather than in its governmental capacity) is not warranted. As we 34 explain below, the toll may well be permissible, but, absent a finding that NYTA acted as a market participant, it
35 is subject to scrutiny under the dormant Commerce Clause.

37 8.5 Abuse of Franchises are How De Jure Governments are Transformed into Corrupt De 38 Facto Governments<sup>42</sup>

39 "Governments never do anything by accident; if government does something you can bet it was carefully 40 planned."
41 [Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States]

42 Franchises and/or their abuse are the main method by which:

- 43 1. De jure governments are transformed into corrupted de facto governments.
- 44 2. The requirement for consent of the governed is systematically eliminated.
- 45 3. The equal protection that is the foundation of the Constitution is replaced with inequality, privilege, hypocrisy, and 46 partiality in which the government is a parens patriae and possesses an unconstitutional "title of nobility" in relation to 47 those it is supposed to be serving and protecting.
- 48 4. The separation of powers between the states and federal government are eliminated.
- 49 5. The separation between what is "public" and what is "private" is destroyed. Everything becomes PUBLIC and is owned 50 by the "collective". There is not private property and what you think is private property is really just equitable title in 51 PUBLIC property.
- 52 6. Constitutional rights attaching to the land you stand on are replaced with statutory privileges created through your right 53 to contract and your "status" under a franchise agreement.

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 14;

1                    “You shall make no covenant [contract or franchise] with them [foreigners, pagans], nor with their [pagan
2 government] gods [laws or judges]. They shall not dwell in your land [and you shall not dwell in theirs by
3 becoming a “resident” or domiciliary in the process of contracting with them], lest they make you sin against Me
4 [God]. For if you serve their [government] gods [under contract or agreement or franchise], it will surely be a
5 snare to you.”
6 [Exodus 23:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

7 7. Your legal identity is “laundered”, and kidnapped or transported to a foreign jurisdiction, the District of Criminals, and 8 which is not protected by the Constitution.

9                    “For the upright will dwell in the land,
10 And the blameless will remain in it;
11 But the wicked will be cut off from the earth,
12 And the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.”
13 [Prov. 2:21-22, Bible, NKJV]

- 14 8. The protections of the Constitution for your rights are eliminated.
15 9. Rights are transformed into privileges.
16 10. Republics based on individual rights are transformed into socialist democracies based on collective rights and individual
17 privileges.
18 11. The status of “citizen, resident, or inhabitant” is devolved into nothing but an “employee” or “officer” of a corporation.
19 12. Constitutional courts are transformed into franchise courts.
20 13. Conflicts of interest are introduced into the legal and court systems that perpetuate a further expansion of the de facto 21 system.
22 14. Socialism is introduced into a republican form of government.
23 15. The sovereignty of people in the states of the Union are destroyed.

24 The gravely injurious effects of participating in government franchises include the following.

- 25 1. Those who participate are effectively and unilaterally elected into public office by their own consent. Thereafter, they 26 become surety for the office that is:
27 1.1. Domiciled in the federal zone.
28 1.2. A statutory “U.S. person”.
29 1.3. A statutory “resident alien” in respect to the federal government.
30 2. Those who participate unlawfully are treated as “trustees” of the “public trust” and “public officers” of the federal 31 government and suffer great legal disability as a consequence:

32                    “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be
33 exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer. 43
34 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
35 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under
36 every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal financial gain
37 from a discharge of their trusts. 44 That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship to the political 38 entity on whose behalf he or she serves. 45 and owes a fiduciary duty to the public. 46 It has been said that
39 the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private individual. 47

8 “The restrictions that the Constitution places upon the government in its capacity as lawmaker, i.e., as the
9 regulator of private conduct, are not the same as the restrictions that it places upon the government in its 10 capacity as employer. We have recognized this in many contexts, with respect to many different constitutional 11 guarantees. Private citizens perhaps cannot be prevented from wearing long hair, but policemen can. Kelley v.
12 Johnson, 425 U.S. 238, 247 (1976). Private citizens cannot have their property searched without probable cause,
13 but in many circumstances government employees can. O’Connor v. Ortega, 480 U.S. 709, 723 (1987) (plurality 14 opinion); id., at 732 (SCALIA, J., concurring in judgment). Private citizens cannot be punished for refusing to 15 provide the government information that may incriminate them, but government employees can be dismissed when 16 the incriminating information that they refuse to provide relates to the performance of their job. Gardner v.
17 Broderick, [497 U.S. 62, 95] 392 U.S. 273, 277-278 (1968). With regard to freedom of speech in particular:
18 Private citizens cannot be punished for speech of merely private concern, but government employees can be fired
19 for that reason. Connick v. Myers, 461 U.S. 138, 147 (1983). Private citizens cannot be punished for partisan

- 24 4. Those who participate may lawfully be deprived of equal protection of the law, which is the foundation of the U.S.
25 Constitution. This deprivation of equal protection UNLAWFULLY becomes a provision of the franchise agreement.
26 5. Those who participate can lawfully be deprived of remedy for abuses in federal courts.

27 “These general rules are well settled: (1) That the United States, when it creates rights in individuals against 28 itself [a “public right”, which is a euphemism for a “franchise” to help the court disguise the nature of the 29 transaction], is under no obligation to provide a remedy through the courts. United States ex rel. Dunlap v.
30 Black, 128 U.S. 40, 9 Sup.Ct. 12, 32 L.Ed. 354; Ex parte Atocha, 17 Wall. 439, 21 L.Ed. 696; Gordon v. United

32 v. Vasse, 1 Pet. 193, 212, 7 L.Ed. 108. (2) That where a statute creates a right and provides a special remedy, 33 that remedy is exclusive. Wilder Manufacturing Co. v. Corn Products Co., 236 U.S. 165, 174, 175, 35 Sup.Ct.
34 398, 59 L.Ed. 520, Ann.Cas. 1916A, 118; Arnsion v. Murphy, 109 U.S. 238, 3 Sup.Ct. 184, 27 L.Ed. 920; Barner
35 v. National Bank, 98 U.S. 555, 558, 25 L.Ed. 212; Farmers’ & Mechanics’ National Bank v. Dearing, 91 U.S. 29,
36 35, 23 L.Ed. 196. Still the fact that the right and the remedy are thus intertwined might not, if the provision stood
37 alone, require us to hold that the remedy expressly given excludes a right of review by the Court of Claims, where 38 the decision of the special tribunal involved no disputed question of fact and the denial of compensation was 39 rested wholly upon the construction of the act. See Medbury v. United States, 173 U.S. 492, 198, 19 Sup.Ct. 503,
40 43 L.Ed. 779; Parish v. MacVeagh, 214 U.S. 124, 29 Sup.Ct. 556, 53 L.Ed. 936; McLean v. United States, 226

- 44 6. Those who participate can be directed which federal courts they may litigate in and can lawfully be deprived of a
45 Constitutional Article III judge or Article III court and forced to seek remedy ONLY in an Article I or Article IV
46 legislative or administrative tribunal within the Legislative rather than Judicial branch of the government.

47 Although Crowell and Raddatz do not explicitly distinguish between rights created by Congress and other rights,
48 such a distinction underlies in part Crowell’s and Raddatz’ recognition of a critical difference between rights
49 created by federal statute and rights recognized by the Constitution. Moreover, such a distinction seems to us
50 to be necessary in light of the delicate accommodations required by the principle of separation of powers reflected 51 in Art. III. The constitutional system of checks and balances is designed to guard against “encroachment or 52 aggrandizement” by Congress at the expense of the other branches of government. Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S., 53 at 122, 96 S.Ct. at 683. But when Congress creates a statutory right [a “privilege” in this case, such as a “trade 54 or business”], it clearly has the discretion, in defining that right, to create presumptions, or assign burdens of 55 proof, or prescribe remedies; it may also provide that persons seeking to vindicate that right must do so before
56 particularized tribunals created to perform the specialized adjudicative tasks related to that right. FN35 Such 57 provisions do, in a sense, affect the exercise of judicial power, but they are also incidental to Congress’ power to

<sup>48</sup> Indiana State Ethics Comm’n v. Nelson (Ind App), 656 N.E.2d. 1172, reh gr (Ind App) 659 N.E.2d. 260, reh den (Jan 24, 1996) and transfer den (May 28, 1996).

1 define the right that it has created. No comparable justification exists, however, when the right being adjudicated
2 is not of congressional creation. In such a situation, substantial inroads into functions that have traditionally
3 been performed by the Judiciary cannot be characterized merely as incidental extensions of Congress' power to 4 define rights that it has created. Rather, such inroads suggest unwarranted encroachments upon the judicial 5 power of the United States, which our Constitution reserves for Art. III courts.

7 Since the founding of our country, franchises have systematically been employed in every area of government to 8 transform a government based on equal protection into a for-profit private corporation based on privilege,
9 partiality, and favoritism. The effects of this form of corruption are exhaustively described in the following 10 memorandum of law on our website:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11 What are the mechanisms by which this corruption has been implemented by the Executive Branch? This section 12 will detail the main mechanisms to sensitize you to how to fix the problem and will relate how it was implemented 13 by exploiting the separation of powers doctrine.

14 The foundation of the separation of powers is the notion that the powers delegated to one branch of government
15 by the Constitution cannot be re-delegated to another branch.

16 “...a power definitely assigned by the Constitution to one department can neither be surrendered nor delegated
17 by that department, nor vested by statute in another department or agency. Compare Springer v. Philippine 18 Islands, 277 U.S. 189, 201, 202, 48 S.Ct. 480, 72 L.Ed. 845.”
19 [Williams v. U.S., 289 U.S. 553, 53 S.Ct. 751 (1933)]

20 Keenly aware of the above limitation, lawmakers over the years have used it to their advantage in creating a tax
21 system that is exempt from any kind of judicial interference and which completely destroys all separation of 22 powers. Below is a summary of the mechanism, in the exact sequence it was executed at the federal level:

- 23 1. Create a franchise based upon a “public office” in the Executive or Legislative Branch. This:
  - 24 1.1. Allows statutes passed by Congress to be directly enforced against those who participate.
  - 25 1.2. Eliminates the need for publication in the Federal Register of enforcement implementing regulations for the statutes.
26 See 5 U.S.C. §553\(a\) and 44 U.S.C. §1505\(a\)\(1\).
  - 27 1.3. Causes those engaged in the franchise to act in a representative capacity as “public officers” of the United States
28 government pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b), which is defined in 28 U.S.C. §3002\(15\)\(A\) as a 29 federal corporation.
  - 30 1.4. Causes all those engaged in the franchise to become “officers of a corporation”, which is the United States, pursuant 31 to 26 U.S.C. §6671\(b\) and 26 U.S.C. §7343.
- 32 2. Give the franchise a deceptive “word of art” name that will deceive everyone into believing that they are engaged in it.
  - 33 2.1. The franchise is called a “trade or business” and is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(26\) as “the functions of a public 34 office”. How many people know this, and do they teach this in the public (government) schools or the IRS
35 publications? NOT!
  - 36 2.2. Earnings connected with the franchise are called “effectively connected with a trade or business in the United 37 States”. The term “United States” deceptively means the GOVERNMENT, and not the geographical United States.
- 38 3. In the franchise agreement, define the effective domicile or choice of law of all those who participate as being on federal 39 territory within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States. 26 U.S.C. §7408\(d\) and 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(39\) place
40 the effective domicile of all “franchisees” called “taxpayers” within the District of Columbia. If the feds really had 41 jurisdiction within states of the Union, do you think they would need this devious device to “kidnap your legal identity”
42 or “res” and move it to a foreign jurisdiction where you don’t physically live?
- 43 4. Place a excise tax upon the franchise proportional to the income earned from the franchise. In the case of the Internal 44 Revenue Code, all such income is described as income which is “effectively connected with a trade or business within 45 the United States”.

46 “Excises are taxes laid upon the manufacture, sale or consumption of commodities within the country, upon
47 licenses to pursue certain occupations and upon corporate privileges...the requirement to pay such taxes
48 involves the exercise of [220 U.S. 107, 152] privileges, and the element of absolute and unavoidable demand
49 is lacking...

1 ...It is therefore well settled by the decisions of this court that when the sovereign authority has exercised the right
2 to tax a legitimate subject of taxation as an exercise of a franchise or privilege, it is no objection that the measure
3 of taxation is found in the income produced in part from property which of itself considered is nontaxable...

4 Conceding the power of Congress to tax the business activities of private corporations.. the tax must be measured
5 by some standard..."

6 [Flint v. Stone Tracy Co., 220 U.S. 107 \(1911\)]

- 7 5. Mandate that those engaged in the franchise must have usually false evidence submitted by ignorant third parties that 8 connects them to the franchise. IRS information returns, including IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, and 1099, are the 9 mechanism. 26 U.S.C. §6041 says that these information returns may ONLY be filed in connection with a "trade or 10 business", which is a code word for the name of the franchise.
- 11 6. Write statutes prohibiting interference by the courts with the collection of "taxes" (kickbacks) associated with the 12 franchise based on the idea that courts in the Judicial Branch may not interfere with the internal affairs of another branch
13 such as the Executive Branch. Hence, the "INTERNAL Revenue Service". This will protect the franchise from 14 interference by other branches of the government and ensure that it relentlessly expands.
- 15 6.1. The Anti-Injunction Act, 26 U.S.C. §7421 is an example of an act that enjoins judicial interference with tax 16 collection or assessment.
- 17 6.2. The Declaratory Judgments Act, 28 U.S.C. §2201(a) prohibits federal courts from pronouncing the rights or status
18 of persons in regard to federal "taxes". This has the effect of gagging the courts from telling the truth about the 19 nature of the federal income tax.
- 20 6.3. The word "internal" means INTERNAL to the Executive Branch and the United States government, not 21 INTERNAL to the geographical United States of America.
- 22 7. Create administrative "franchise" courts in the Executive Branch which administer the program pursuant to Articles I 23 and IV of the United States Constitution.
- 24 7.1. U.S. Tax Court. 26 U.S.C. §7441 identifies the U.S. Tax Court as an Article I court.
- 25 7.2. U.S. District Courts. There is no statute establishing any United States District Court as an Article III court.
26 Consequently, even if the judges are Article III judges, they are not filling an Article III office and instead are filling
27 an Article IV office. Consequently, they are Article IV judges. All of these courts were turned into franchise courts
28 in the Judicial Code of 1911 by being renamed from the "District Court of the United States" to the "United States 29 District Court".

30 For details on the above scam, see:

What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 31 8. Create other attractive federal franchises that piggyback in their agreements a requirement to participate in the franchise.
32 For instance, the original Social Security Act of 1935 contains a provision that those who sign up for this program, also 33 simultaneously become subject to the Internal Revenue Code.

34 Section 8 of the Social Security Act
35 INCOME TAX ON EMPLOYEES

36
37 SECTION 801. In addition to other taxes, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the income of every 38 individual a tax equal to the following percentages of the wages (as defined in section 811) received by him after 39 December 31, 1936, with respect to employment (as defined in section 811) after such date:

40 (1) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1937, 1938, and 1939, the rate shall be 1 per centum.

41 (2) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1940, 1941, and 1942, the rate shall be 1 1/2 per centum.

42 (3) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1943, 1944, and 1945, the rate shall be 2 per centum.

43 (4) With respect to employment during the calendar years 1946, 1947, and 1948, the rate shall be 2 1/2 per

45 (5) With respect to employment after December 31, 1948, the rate shall be 3 per centum.

- 46 9. Offer an opportunity for private citizens not domiciled within the jurisdiction of Congress to "volunteer" by license or 47 private agreement to participate in the franchise and thereby become "public officers" within the Executive Branch. The 48 W-4 and Social Security SS-5 is an example of such a contract.
- 49 9.1. Call these volunteers "taxpayers".
- 50 9.2. Call EVERYONE "taxpayers" so everyone believes that the franchise is MANDATORY.
- 51 9.3. Do not even acknowledge the existence of those who do not participate in the franchise. These people are called 52 "nontaxpayers" and they are not mentioned in any IRS publication.
- 53 9.4. Make the process of signing the agreement invisible by calling it a "Withholding Allowance Certificate" instead of 54 what it really is, which is a "license" to become a "taxpayer" and call all of your earnings "wages" and "gross 55 income".

14 An employee and his employer may enter into an agreement under section 3402(b) to provide for the 15 withholding of income tax upon payments of amounts described in paragraph (b)(1) of §31.3401(a)-3, made
16 after December 31, 1970. An agreement may be entered into under this section only with respect to amounts
17 which are includible in the gross income of the employee under section 61, and must be applicable to all
18 such amounts paid by the employer to the employee. The amount to be withheld pursuant to an agreement
19 under section 3402(p) shall be determined under the rules contained in section 3402 and the regulations
20 thereunder. See §31.3405(c)-1, Q&A-3 concerning agreements to have more than 20-percent Federal income 21 tax withheld from eligible rollover distributions within the meaning of section 402.

- 22 10. Create a commissioner to service the franchise who becomes the “fall guy”, who then establishes a “bureau” without the 23 authority of any law and which is a private corporation that is not part of the U.S. government.

24 53 Stat. 489

25 Revenue Act of 1939, 53 Stat. 489

26 Chapter 43: Internal Revenue Agents

27 Section 4000 Appointment

28 *The Commissioner may, whenever in his judgment the necessities of the service so require, employ competent
29 agents, who shall be known and designated as internal revenue agents, and, except as provided for in this title,
30 no general or special agent or inspector of the Treasury Department in connection with internal revenue, by* 31 *whatever designation he may be known, shall be appointed, commissioned, or employed.
32

33 The above means that everyone who works for the Internal Revenue Service is private contractor not appointed,
34 commissioned, or employed by anyone in the government. They operate on commission and their pay derives from the 35 amount of plunder they steal. See also:

- 36 11. Create an environment that encourages irresponsibility, lies, and dishonesty within the bureau that administers the 37 franchise.

38 11.1. Indemnify these private contractors from liability by giving them “pseudonyms” so that they can disguise their
39 identity and be indemnified from liability for their criminal acts. The IRS Restructuring and Reform Act, Pub.Law
40 105-206, Title III, Section 3706, 112 Stat. 778 and Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 1.2.4 both authorize 41 these pseudonyms.

42 11.2. Place a disclaimer on the website of this private THIEF contractor indemnifying them from liability for the 43 truthfulness or accuracy of any of their statements or publications. See Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 44 4.10.7.2.8.

45 “IRS Publications, issued by the National Office, explain the law in plain language for taxpayers and their 46 advisors... While a good source of general information, publications should not be cited to sustain a position.”
47 [Internal Revenue Manual (I.R.M.), Section 4.10.7.2.8 (05-14-1999)]

48 11.3. Omit the most important key facts and information from publications of the franchise administrator that would 49 expose the proper application of the “tax” and the proper audience. See the following, which is over 2000 pages
50 of information that are conveniently “omitted” from the IRS website about the proper application of the franchise
51 and its nature as a “franchise”:

Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 1 11.4. Establish precedent in federal courts that you can't trust anything that anyone in the government tells you, and 2 especially those who administer the franchise. See:
3 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>
- 4 12. Use the lies and deceptions created in the previous step to promote several false perceptions in the public at large that 5 will expand the market for the franchise. These include:
6 12.1. That the franchise is NOT a franchise, but a mandatory requirement that applies to ALL.
7 12.2. That participation is mandatory for ALL, instead of only for franchisees called "taxpayers".
8 12.3. That the IRS is an "agency" of the United States government that has authority to interact directly with the public
9 at large. In fact, it is a "bureau" that can ONLY lawfully service the needs of other federal agencies within the 10 Executive Branch and which may NOT interface directly with the public at large.
11 12.4. That the statutes implementing the franchise are "public law" that applies to everyone, instead of "private law" that 12 only applies to those who individually consent to participate in the franchise.
- 13 13. Create a system to service those who prepare tax returns for others whereby those who accept being "licensed" and 14 regulated get special favors. This system created by the IRS essentially punishes those who do not participate by giving 15 the horrible service and making them suffer inconvenience and waiting long in line if they don't accept the "privilege"
16 of being certified. Once they are certified, if they begin telling people the truth about what the law says and encourage 17 following the law by refusing to volunteer, their credentials are pulled. This sort of censorship is accomplished through:
18 13.1. IRS Enrolled Agent Program.
19 13.2. Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensing.
20 13.3. Treasury Circular 230.
- 21 14. Engage in a pattern of "selective enforcement" and propoganda to broaden and expand the scam. For instance:
22 14.1. Refuse to answer simple questions about the proper application of the franchise and the taxes associated with it.
23 See:
24 If the IRS Were Selling Used Cars, Family Guardian Fellowship
25 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/FalseRhetoric/IRSSellingCars.htm>
- 26 14.2. Prosecute those who submit false TAX returns, but not those who submit false INFORMATION returns. This 27 causes the audience of "taxpayers" to expand because false reports are connecting innocent third parties to 28 franchises that they are not in fact engaged in.
29 14.3. Use confusion over the rules of statutory construction and the word "includes" to fool people into believing that 30 those who are "included" in the franchise are not spelled out in the law in their entirety. This leaves undue discretion
31 in the hands of IRS employees to compel ignorant "nontaxpayers" to become franchisees. See the following:
32 Legal Deception, Propaganda, and Fraud, Form #05.014
33 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 34 14.4. Refuse to define the words used on government forms, use terms that are not defined in the code such as "U.S.
35 citizen", and try to confuse "words of art" found in the law with common terms in order to use the presumptuous
36 behavior of the average American to expand the misperception that everyone has a legal DUTY to become a 37 "franchisee" and a "taxpayer".
38 14.5. Refuse to accept corrected information returns that might protect innocent "nontaxpayers" so that they are inducted 39 involuntarily into the franchise as well.

36 The above process is WICKED in the most extreme way. It describes EXACTLY how our public servants have 37 made themselves into our masters and systematically replaced every one of our rights with "privileges" and 38 franchises. The Constitutional prohibition against this sort of corruption is described as follows by the courts:

39 "It would be a palpable incongruity to strike down an act of state legislation which, by words of express
40 divestment, seeks to strip the citizen of rights guaranteed by the federal Constitution, but to uphold an act by
41 which the same result is accomplished under the guise of a surrender of a right in exchange for a valuable
42 privilege which the state threatens otherwise to withhold. It is not necessary to challenge the proposition that, as
43 a general rule, the state, having power to deny a privilege altogether, may grant it upon such conditions as it sees
44 fit to impose. But the power of the state in that respect is not unlimited, and one of the limitations is that it may
45 not impose conditions which require the relinquishment of Constitutional rights. If the state may compel the 46 surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a surrender of all.
47 It is inconceivable that guaranties embedded in the Constitution of the United States may thus be manipulated 48 out of existence."

49 [Frost v. Railroad Commission, 271 U.S. 583, 46 S.Ct. 605 (1926)]

1                   "A right common in every citizen such as the right to own property or to engage in business of a character not
2 requiring regulation CANNOT, however, be taxed as a special franchise by first prohibiting its exercise and then
3 permitting its enjoyment upon the payment of a certain sum of money."
4 [Stevens v. State, 2 Ark. 291; 35 Am. Dec. 72, Spring Val. Water Works v. Barber, 99 Cal. 36, 33 Pac. 735, 21
5 L.R.A. 416. Note 57 L.R.A. 416]

6                   "The individual, unlike the corporation, cannot be taxed for the mere privilege of existing. The corporation is an
7 artificial entity which owes its existence and charter power to the State, but the individual's right to live and own
8 property are natural rights for the enjoyment of which an excise cannot be imposed."
9 [Redfield v. Fisher, 292 Oregon 814, 817]

10                   "Legislature...cannot name something to be a taxable privilege unless it is first a privilege." [Taxation West Key
11 43]... "The Right to receive income or earnings is a right belonging to every person and realization and receipt 12 of income is therefore not a 'privilege', that can be taxed."
13 [Jack Cole Co. v. MacFarland, 337 S.E.2d. 453, Tenn.

14 Through the above process of corruption, the separation of powers is completely destroyed and nearly every 15 American has essentially been "assimilated" into the Executive Branch of the government, leaving the 16 Constitutional Republic bequeathed to us by our founding fathers vacant and abandoned. Nearly every service 17 that we expect from government has been systematically converted over the years into a franchise using the 18 techniques described above. The political and legal changes resulting from the above have been tabulated to show
19 the "BEFORE" and the "AFTER" so their extremely harmful effects become crystal clear in your mind. This 20 process of corruption, by the way, is not unique to the United States, but is found in every major industrialized 21 country on earth.

7 9 The United States Government is a "Federal Corporation" franchise

8 The U.S. Supreme Court has admitted that all governments are corporations. To wit:

9 "Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created by
10 usage and common consent, or grants and charters which create a body politic for prescribed purposes; but
11 whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise of
12 power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the 13 instrument by which the incorporation is made. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is
14 a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all
15 persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 Inst.
16 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same footing
17 of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect that of
18 individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law, is a
19 principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the federal
20 government, by the amendments to the constitution."
21 [Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of Warren Bridge, 36 U.S. 420 (1837)]

22 The U.S. Supreme Court has also held that the "United States" is a corporation:

23 At common law, a "corporation" was an "artificial perso[n] endowed with the legal capacity of perpetual 24 succession" consisting either of a single individual (termed a "corporation sole") or of a collection of several 25 individuals (a "corporation aggregate"). 3 H. Stephen, Commentaries on the Laws of England 166, 168 (1st Am.
26 ed. 1845). The sovereign was considered a corporation. See id., at 170; see also 1 W. Blackstone, Commentaries
27 **467. Under the definitions supplied by contemporary law dictionaries, Territories would have been classified as*
28 "corporations" (and hence as "persons") at the time that 1983 was enacted and the Dictionary Act recodified.
29 See W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 261 (1893) ("All corporations were originally modeled upon a state or 30 nation"); I. J. Bouvier, A Law Dictionary Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America

35 (United States is "a corporation"). See generally Trustees of Dartmouth College v. Woodward, 4 Wheat. 518,
36 561-562 (1819) (explaining history of term "corporation").
37 [Ngiraingas v. Sanchez, 495 U.S. 182 (1990) ]

38 The U.S. Code treats ALL GOVERNMENTS throughout the world as corporations who are "residents" of the 39 place they were incorporated, in fact:

40 TITLE 26 > Subtitle A > CHAPTER 1 > Subchapter N > PART II > Subpart D > § 892
41 § 892. Income of foreign governments and of international organizations

1 (a) Foreign governments

2 (3) Treatment as resident

3 For purposes of this title, a foreign government shall be treated as a corporate resident of its country. A foreign
4 government shall be so treated for purposes of any income tax treaty obligation of the United States if such
5 government grants equivalent treatment to the Government of the United States.

6 According to 28 U.S.C. §1349, if the United States government owns more than half of the stock of a corporation,
7 then it is a federal corporation:

8 TITLE 28 > PART IV > CHAPTER 85 > § 1349
9 § 1349. Corporation organized under federal law as party

10 The district courts shall not have jurisdiction of any civil action by or against any corporation upon the ground
11 that it was incorporated by or under an Act of Congress, unless the United States is the owner of more than one-
12 half of its capital stock.

13 The U.S. Code also admits that the term “United States” means a federal corporation:

14 United States Code
15 TITLE 28 - JUDICIARY AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURE
16 PART VI - PARTICULAR PROCEEDINGS
17 CHAPTER 176 - FEDERAL DEBT COLLECTION PROCEDURE
18 SUBCHAPTER A - DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS
19 Sec. 3002. Definitions

20
21 (15) "United States" means -
22 (A) a Federal corporation;
23 (B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or
24 (C) an instrumentality of the United States.

25 Therefore, the United States government is both a corporation and federal corporation which is a “resident” of the 26 of place of its incorporation, which is the District of Columbia. The Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.) Legal 27 Encyclopedia also recognizes that the U.S. government, in relation to a state of the Union, is a “foreign 28 corporation”:

29 "A foreign corporation is one that derives its existence solely from the laws of another state, government, or
30 country, and the term is used indiscriminately, sometimes in statutes, to designate either a corporation created
31 by or under the laws of another state or a corporation created by or under the laws of a foreign country."

32 "A federal corporation operating within a state is considered a domestic corporation rather than a foreign 33 corporation. The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state."
34 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §883 (2003)]

35 The Internal Revenue Code defines a corporation as follows:

36 TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 79 > § 7701
37 §7701. Definitions

38 (a) When used in this title, where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent
39 thereof—

40 (3) Corporation

41 The term “corporation” includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

42 All of the federal corporations indicated in I.R.C. §7701(a)(3) are wholly owned subsidiaries of the U.S.
43 government, because the only “taxpayers” within the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A are “public officers”.

10 State corporations

10.1 States under the Articles of Confederation ("Republic of _____")

The first official act of separation of America from Britain was the Declaration of Independence issued on July 4, 1776. Following the issuance of that document, the former British colonies assembled into a confederation called the Continental Congress. The President of the Continental Congress was named George Hansen. Therefore, he was the FIRST "President of the United States of America". Under his leadership, the Continental Congress published the Articles of Confederation on November 15, 1777, which was subsequently ratified by all the former British Colonies on March 1, 1781.

The Articles of Confederation established a corporation called "The United States of America", which was identified by the U.S. Supreme Court as follows:

As a result of the separation from Great Britain by the colonies, acting as a unit, the powers of external sovereignty passed from the Crown not to the colonies severally, but to the colonies in their collective and corporate capacity as the United States of America. Even before the Declaration, the colonies were a unit in foreign affairs, acting through a common agency-namely, the Continental Congress, composed of delegates from the thirteen colonies. That agency exercised the powers of war and peace, raised an army, created a navy, and finally adopted the Declaration of Independence. Rulers come and go; governments end and forms of

1 government change; but sovereignty survives. A political society cannot endure [299 U.S. 304, 317] without a
2 supreme will somewhere. Sovereignty is never held in suspense. When, therefore, the external sovereignty of
3 Great Britain in respect of the colonies ceased, it immediately passed to the Union. See Penhallow v. Doane, 3
4 Dall. 54, 80, 81, Fed.Cas. No. 10925. That fact was given practical application almost at once. The treaty of
5 peace, made on September 3, 1783, was concluded between his Britannic Majesty and the 'United States of
6 America.' 8 Stat., European Treaties, 80.

7 *The Union existed before the Constitution, which was ordained and established among other things to form 'a
8 more perfect Union.'* Prior to that event, it is clear that the Union, declared by the Articles of Confederation to
9 be 'perpetual,' was the sole possessor of external sovereignty, and in the Union it remained without change
10 save in so far as the Constitution in express terms qualified its exercise. The Framers' Convention was called
11 and exerted its powers upon the irrefutable postulate that though the states were several their people in respect
12 of foreign affairs were one.

13 [United States v. Curtiss-Wright Export Corporation, 299 U.S. 304 (1936)]

14 The above case distinguishes FOREIGN (international) affairs from DOMESTIC (INTERNAL AFFAIRS) within 15 the states. For the purposes of INTERNAL affairs, the separate states under the Articles of Confederation behaved
16 as independent, sovereign nations in nearly every respect. Each of these sovereign States were self-governing 17 Republics which were legislatively “foreign” and “alien” in respect to any and every act of the Continental
18 Congress. Because the Articles of Confederation identify themselves as “perpetual”, then these separate,
19 legislatively “foreign”, and sovereign states and Republics continued to exist even after the USA Constitution was 20 ratified. No act of Congress has ever repealed the Articles of Confederation and therefore, these states continue
21 to exist even to this day, as does the corporation called “The United States of America” established by the Articles
22 of Confederation.

23 The proper name for the Republics under the Articles of Confederation was and is “California, Virginia, 24 Texas,....” Etc. It wasn’t until the Constitution was ratified that these same political entities ALSO acquired an 25 ADDITIONAL name as “State of California, State of Virginia, State of Texas...”.

26 In acts of Congress written after the Constitution was ratified, the sovereign and legislatively foreign states under 27 the Articles of Confederation are referred to as the “Republic of_____”. These entities are where all 28 EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE and therefore legislatively foreign property is held, protected, and maintained. As 29 EXCLUSIVELY private property, this property is NOT SUBJECT to the legislative jurisdiction of ANY
30 government:

31 *When one becomes a member of society, he necessarily parts with some rights or privileges which, as an
32 individual not affected by his relations to others, he might retain. "A body politic," as aptly defined in the 33 preamble of the Constitution of Massachusetts, "is a social compact by which the whole people covenants with
34 each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common
35 good." This does not confer power upon the whole people to control rights
36 which are purely and exclusively private, Thorpe v. R. & B. Railroad Co., 37 27 Vt. 143; but it does authorize the establishment of laws requiring each citizen to so conduct himself,
38 and so use his own property, as not unnecessarily to injure another. This is the very essence of government,
39 and 125*125 has found expression in the maxim sic utere tuo ut alienum non laedas. From this source come
40 the police powers, which, as was said by Mr. Chief Justice Taney in the License Cases, 5 How. 583, "are 41 nothing more or less than the powers of government inherent in every sovereignty, . . . that is to say, . . . the 42 power to govern men and things." Under these powers the government regulates the conduct of its citizens one
43 towards another, and the manner in which each shall use his own property, when such regulation becomes 44 necessary for the public good.*

45 [Munn v. Illinois, 94 U.S. 113 (1876),

46 SOURCE: http://scholar.google.com/scholar\_case?case=6419197193322400931]

47 Based on the above, the key to whether a government can REGULATE or LEGISLATE for the use of specific 48 property or rights to property then is whether:

- 49 1. The owner holds title as a “citizen” who has VOLUNTARILY SUBMITTED himself to the government. NO ONE
50 can FORCE you to become a statutory citizen, and therefore no one can FORCE you to be subject to the CIVIL laws
51 passed by the government you are a “citizen” of. Those who don’t VOLUNTEER to become citizens and retain their

1 status as statutory Non-citizen nationals CAN COMPLAIN if the government tries to regulate their use of
2 EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE PROPERTY. OR

3 "The citizen cannot complain [about the laws or the tax system], because he has voluntarily submitted himself
4 to such a form of government. He owes allegiance to the two departments, so to speak, and within their respective
5 spheres must pay the penalties which each exacts for disobedience to its laws. In return, he can demand protection
6 from each within its own jurisdiction."
7 United States v. Cruikshank, [92 U.S. 542 (1875) [emphasis added]]

- 8 2. The owner donated the property in its entirety or ANY interest in the property to a public use or public purpose and 9 thereby subjected the used to government regulations.

10 "Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, - 'life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;'
11 *and to 'secure,' not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
12 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it
13 to his neighbor's injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor's benefit [e.g. SOCIAL
14 SECURITY, Medicare, and every other public "benefit"]; second, that if he devotes it to a 15 public use, he gives to the public a right to control that use; and third, that 16 whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due compensation."
17 Budd v. People of State of New York, [143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

18 Anyone who has done NEITHER of the above:

- 19 1. Retains ABSOLUTE, UNQUALIFIED, FEE SIMPLE ownership over said property.
20 2. Resides in the Constitutional State, which is where ABSOLUTE OWNERSHIP is exercised over all EXCLUSIVELY
21 PRIVATE PROPERTY.
22 3. Resides or is domiciled OUTSIDE the "State of ____".
23 4. Is legislatively foreign and alien in relation to all civil law of the government in question.

24 10.2 States under the USA Constitution ("State of ____")

25 This section describes how a specific state, the state of Texas, was divided into two contradictory parts:

- 26 1. The federal Statutory State under the USA Constitution.
27 2. The republic or sovereign state under the Articles of Confederation.

28 This document provides evidence of how these two states were created and legally separated by our founding
29 fathers. The implications of this process to Jurisdiction, the payment of taxes, insurance and the requirement of 30 driver's and marriage licenses is substantial. We won't cover all of the states, but simply use the biggest state as 31 an example. All the other states were done the same way. Our analysis will answer an important question:

32 Is the constitutional prohibition found in Article 4, Section 3, Clause 1 against creating a "State within a State"
33 violated by turning a Constitutional State into a statutory corporation or statutory "State" within federal law?

34 Let's start by looking at the term "double standard". This is how Black's law Dictionary defines it:

35 double standard.

36 "A set of principles permitting greater opportunity or greater lenience for one class of people than for another,
37 usu. based on a difference such as gender or race. "

38 It could also be based on citizenship or rights and privileges or contracts and franchises. The understanding 39 of these words will be important to those of you who decide to take back control of their life by pursuing further
40 study on this subject. For better understanding of this subject matter please read:

Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006 FORMS PAGE: http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm DIRECT LINK: http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/WhyANational.pdf
---

1 As for the term “dual nature” I believe everyone will agree that it is something having a double character or 2 purpose.

3 Now we will discover through the law and the legal meaning of certain words the reason for our two-state
4 dichotomy.

5 The U.S. Constitution; Article 4, Section 3, Clause 1:

6 New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; But no new State shall be formed or erected within
7 the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States, or Parts of 8 States, without the Consent of the Legislatures of the States concerned as well as of the Congress.

9 The first two sentences of this clause are the ones we will be focusing on. The first sentence seems relatively 10 harmless. New states may be admitted by the Congress into this Union, right? That is what I thought until I decided 11 to test my knowledge of certain words. For example:

12 “NEW. As an element in numerous compound terms and phrases of the law, this word may denote novelty, or the 13 condition of being previously unknown or of recent or fresh origin, but ordinarily it is a purely relative term and 14 is employed in contrasting the date, origin, or character of one thing with the corresponding attributes of another 15 thing of the same kind or class.
16 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Second Edition, 1910]

17 Most of us understand the first part of the definition of “new,” but how many of us understood the second part?

18 “it is a purely relative term and is employed in contrasting the date, origin, or character of one thing with the 19 corresponding attributes of another thing of the same kind or class.”

20 “Contrast” means:

21 to set in opposition in order to emphasize differences,

22 . . .and “opposition” means

23 the condition of being in conflict.

24 Therefore we can safely conclude that the “character” of the “New” state is one that is in conflict with the old one
25 (in our case our Republic) in order to emphasize the differences.

26 Now let’s look at the second sentence of that article; “But no new State shall be formed or erected within the 27 jurisdiction of any other State.” Like everyone, my first thought is that you can’t form another state within the 28 boundaries of any one state. But why didn’t they say that? Why did they use the word jurisdiction which mainly 29 applies to the judicial system of our government? In 1787 the term jurisdiction was defined as:

30 “The authority by which judicial officers take cognizance of and decide causes.”
31 [Bouvier’s Law Dictionary 3rd Rev. 1914]

32 Instead of jurisdiction they could have used the word “boundaries” or words “exterior limits.” That would make 33 more sense to the common man with common knowledge. The basic definition of jurisdiction is the right and 34 power to interpret and apply the law. This definition is aptly applied to the courts in our judicial system, but how 35 do we apply that to our sentence? It still seems confusing. Another common, but not legal, definition of jurisdiction
36 is authority or control. (Am. Heritage Dict. 2nd college Ed.) That makes a little more sense but is still pretty vague.
37 So now we can say:

38 “But no new State shall be formed or erected within the authority or control of any other State. “

39 Until 1999 there was no legal definition of jurisdiction that had any connection with any physical boundaries of 40 land or any powers of government. ( with the exception of the territorial jurisdiction of a court which was defined

1 as a geographic area such as a county or judicial district.) You will notice the expansion of the definition in the 2 7th edition of Black's Law Dictionary printed in 1999. Then in the 8th edition they expanded the definition of 3 jurisdiction even further:

4 "Jurisdiction.

5 A government's general power to exercise authority over all persons and things within its territory; esp., a state's 6 power to create interests that will be recognized under common-law principles as valid in other states."
7 [Black's Law Dictionary, Eighth Edition]

8 No wonder this definition wasn't available when they wrote the Constitution. It never would have been ratified 9 or adopted.

10 "The determination of the Framers Convention and the ratifying conventions to preserve complete and
11 unimpaired state self-government in all matters not committed to the general government is one of the plainest
12 facts which emerges from the history of their deliberations. And adherence to that determination is incumbent
13 equally upon the federal government and the states. State powers can neither be appropriated on the one hand
14 nor abdicated on the other. As this court said in Texas v. White, 7 Wall. 700, 725, 'The preservation of the 15 States, and the maintenance of their governments, are as much within the design and care of the Constitution
16 as the preservation of the Union and the maintenance of the National government. The Constitution, in all its
17 provisions, looks to an indestructible Union, composed of indestructible States.' Every journey to a forbidden end
18 begins with the first step; and the danger of such a step by the federal government in the direction of taking over
19 the powers of the states is that the end of the journey may find the states so despoiled of their powers, or-what
20 may amount to the same thing-so [298 U.S. 238, 296] relieved of the responsibilities which possession of the 21 powers necessarily enjoins, as to reduce them to little more than geographical subdivisions of the national
22 domain. It is safe to say that if, when the Constitution was under consideration, it had been thought that any such 23 danger lurked behind its plain words, it would never have been ratified."
24 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 (1936) ]

25 We believe now you can start to understand why they waited 200 years to reveal their secret definition of the 26 word "jurisdiction".

27 We can now also understand Article 4, Section 3, Clause 1 of the U.S. Constitution to mean:

28 "But no contrasting Statutory State (de facto) shall be formed or erected within the territory of any other (de jure)
29 state."

30 That makes perfect sense! Or does it? The word use of jurisdiction in this sentence was and is very confusing.
31 Why did they not use the word territory? Here is why.

32 "Territory - a part of a country separated from the rest, and subject to a particular jurisdiction. In American law
33 - a portion of the United States, not within the limits of any state, which has not yet been admitted as a state of 34 the Union, but is organized, with a separate legislature, and with executive and judicial officers appointed by 35 the president."
36 [Black's Law Dictionary, Second Edition, 1910]

37 The reason they didn't use the word territory is because it states plainly the facts and would have given their plan
38 away, whereas the other words they used mean the same thing but are very confusing and hard to understand when 39 we apply our common definitions.

40 Let's compare the definition of territorial jurisdiction by dates. 1776 – 1999:

41 "territorial jurisdiction. Jurisdiction as considered as limited to cases arising or persons residing within a 42 defined territory, as, a county."
43 [Black's Law Dictionary, Second Edition, 1910, p. 673]

44 In Black's Law 7th Ed., printed in 1999, they expanded the definition to include:

45 "2. Territory over which a government, one of its courts, or one of its subdivisions has jurisdiction."
46 [Black's Law Dictionary, Seventh Edition, p. 857]

1 The reason for the inclusion of this definition is because it now defines the jurisdiction of an incorporated state as 2 compared to the previous definition which could also include a constitutional republic. They now define this
3 Statutory State as a federal state in Black's Law Dictionary.

4 "Federated State. An independent central organism, having its own machinery absorbing, in view of 5 international law, all the individual states associated together. "
6 [Black's Law Dictionary, Revised Fourth Edition, p.740]

7 It is time to look at the word "erect" in that sentence. Most of us would agree that the common definition of this
8 word would be to "construct or establish" and you would be correct in this general sense. But this is a legal 9 document therefore you should know the legal definition of such words. This is how Black's Law Dictionary,
10 Second Ed. defines it:

11 "Erect - One of the formal words of incorporation in royal charters. "
12 [Black's Law Dictionary, Second Edition, p. 434]

13 "We do, incorporate, erect, ordain, name, constitute, and establish." Does this sound familiar to anyone? Erect 14 means to incorporate and in general terms incorporate means to create a corporation, but let's look further.

15 Incorporate - To unite with or blend indistinguishably into something already in existence.
16 [Am. Heritage Dict., Second Ed.]

17 "Incorporate. 1. To create a corporation; to confer a corporate franchise upon determinate persons. 2. To declare
18 that another document shall be taken as part of the document in which the declaration is made as much as if it 19 were set out at length therein. "
20 [Black's Law Dictionary, 2nd Ed.]

21 The second definition is saying they can combine their corporate constitution with the republic's constitution.
22 For absolute proof of this trick we have included a highlighted copy of Art. 5, Judicial Department, of the Texas
23 Constitution later so you may see how they did this.

24 It is now time to translate the first two sentences of Article 4, Section 3, Clause 1 of the U.S. Constitution with 25 the legal definitions provided above. The U.S. Constitution says,

26 "New States may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; But no new State shall be formed or erected within 27 the jurisdiction of any other state;"

28 When we define the words therein and apply the definitions to these two sentences, it reads thus:

29 "States that contrast in origin or character to their Republics may be admitted by the Congress into this Union;
30 But this contrasting corporate or federal state shall not have any authority or control, ["jurisdiction"], within
31 the other state or Republic which is under the Articles of Confederation, because this contrasting Statutory State
32 consists of territory or property ceded to the United States [Art. 1, Sect. 8, Cl. 17] that does not come within the 33 limits of the republics and are organized with a separate legislature and with executive and judicial officers
34 appointed by the president. Therefore by erecting or incorporating we will unite and blend indistinguishably into 35 the Republic while combining the constitution of the Republic with our federal state corporate constitution.

36 And we shall call this contrasting corporate federal state the "STATE OF TEXAS" or any other "STATE OF 37 _____ for that matter.

38 "For whatever is hidden is meant to be disclosed, and whatever is concealed is meant to be brought out into the 39 open. "
40 [Mark 4:22, New International Version, 1984]

41 The Congress has provided themselves with a safety net though in Art. 4, Sect. 3, Cl. 2. The first sentence of this 42 clause is quoted often, mainly for explaining the development and power of our legislative courts. The second
43 sentence in this clause is the one they wrote to safeguard themselves in case you figured out what Art. 4, Sect. 3, 44 Cl. 1 meant. Art. 4, Sect. 3, Cl. 2, second sentence:

1 “. . .and nothing in this Constitution shall be so CONSTRUED as to PREJUDICE any CLAIMS of the United
2 States, or of any particular State.”

3 Let’s use Black’s Law 8th Ed. to define the above sentence; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so (construed
4 - analyze and explain the meaning of the sentence or passage.) as to (prejudice - damage or detriment one’s legal 5 right or claims) any (claims - assertion of a legal right.) of the United States, or any particular State.

6 So in common parlance what they are saying is:

7 When you are able to determine what the constitution really says and discover that you have been betrayed, you
8 can’t hold us responsible because this document gives us the authority to govern in this capacity. We assert this
9 right and you can’t damage it. Besides, you volunteered into our corporation therefore we can legally hold you
10 responsible for all taxes, rules and regulations in this federal Statutory State of Texas. “Ignorance of the Law is 11 no excuse.”

12 Those of you who question the true intentions of the men in charge of formulating our constitution need to read 13 this:

14 Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States (1833),
15 by Joseph L. Story
16 Book 3, Chapter 1
17 Origin and Adoption of the Constitution

18 Judge Storey comments:

19 § 276. The convention, at the same time, addressed a letter to congress, expounding their reasons for their acts,
20 from which the following extract cannot but be interesting. “It is obviously impracticable (says the address) in 21 the federal government of these states, to secure all rights of independent sovereignty to each, and yet provide
22 *for the interest and safety of all. Individuals, entering into society, must give up a share of liberty to preserve
23 *the rest. The magnitude of the sacrifice must depend, as well on situation and circumstance, as on the object
24 to be obtained. It is at all times difficult to draw with precision the line between those rights, which must be
25 surrendered, and those, which may be reserved; and on the present occasion this difficulty was increased by
26 difference among the several states, as to their situation, extent, habits, and particular interests. In all our 27 deliberations on this subject, we kept steadily in our view that, which appears to us the greatest interest of every 28 true American, the consolidation of our Union, in which is involved our prosperity, felicity, safety, perhaps our 29 national existence. This important consideration, seriously and deeply impressed on our minds, led each state in 30 the convention to be less rigid on points of inferior magnitude, than might have been otherwise expected, And 31 thus the constitution, which we now present, is the result of a spirit of amity, and of that mutual deference and 32 concession, which the peculiarity of our political situation rendered indispensable.

33 (12 Journ. of Congress, 109, 110; Journ. of Convention, 367, 368; 5 Marsh. Life of Wash. 129.) (emphasis added)

34 Are they kidding? Apparently not! Note that the rights and corresponding responsibilities they are referring to 35 above that had to be surrendered to join the Union are referred to collectively as “State of ____”.

36 We can now confirm through the U.S. Constitution that the “State of Texas” is a federal (NOT “national”) 37 corporation consisting of property ceded to it by our Republic or sovereign state (recognized in the Articles of 38 Confederation). This property and the corporation that manages it is what the “State of Texas” consists of. This 39 “State of Texas” is the “body corporate” that makes up HALF of what all governments are. Recall that in order
40 to satisfy the legal definition of “government”, one must have BOTH a “body corporate” AND a “body politic”.

41 *Both before and after the time when the Dictionary Act and § 1983 were passed, the phrase “bodies politic and
42 corporate” was understood to include the [governments of the] States. See, e.g., J. Bouvier, 1 A Law Dictionary*
43 Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America 185 (11th ed. 1866); W. Shumaker & G.
44 Longsdorf, Cyclopedic Dictionary of Law 104 (1901); Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. \(2 Dall.\) 419, 447, 1 L.Ed.
45 *440 \(1793\) (Iredell, J.); id., at 468 (Cushing, J.); Cotton v. United States, 52 U.S. \(11 How.\) 229, 231, 13 L.Ed.*
46 675 \(1851\) (“Every sovereign State is of necessity a body politic, or artificial person”); Poindexter v. Greenhow,
47 114 U.S. 270, 288, 5 S.Ct. 903, 29 L.Ed. 185 \(1885\); McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 24, 13 S.Ct. 3, 6, 36
48 L.Ed. 869 \(1892\); Heim v. McCall, 239 U.S. 175, 188, 36 S.Ct. 78, 82, 60 L.Ed. 206 \(1915\). See also United
49 *States v. Maurice, 2 Brock. 96, 109, 26 F.Cas. 1211 \(CC Va.1823\) (Marshall, C.J.) (“The United States is a
50 government, and, consequently, a body politic and corporate”); Van Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154,*
51 6 S.Ct. 670, 672, 29 L.Ed. 845 \(1886\) (same). Indeed, the very legislators who passed § 1 referred to States in
52 *these terms. See, e.g., Cong. Globe, 42d Cong., 1st Sess., 661-662 (1871) (Sen. Vickers) (“What is a State? Is *79*
53 *it not a body politic and corporate?”); id., at 696 (Sen. Edmunds) (“A State is a corporation”).*

1 The reason why States are “bodies politic and corporate” is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can
2 act only through its agents, “[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can
3 command only by laws.” Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black’s
4 Law Dictionary 159 (5th ed. 1979) (“Body politic or corporate”: “A social compact by which the whole people
5 covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for
6 the common good”). As a “body politic and corporate,” a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act’s
7 definition of a “person.”

8 While it is certainly true that the phrase “bodies politic and corporate” referred to private and public
9 corporations, see ante, at 2311, and n. 9, this fact does not draw into question the conclusion that this phrase
10 also applied to the States. Phrases may, of course, have multiple referents. Indeed, each and every dictionary
11 cited by the Court accords a broader realm-one **2317 that comfortably, and in most cases explicitly, includes
12 the sovereign-to this phrase than the Court gives it today. See 1B. Abbott, Dictionary of Terms and Phrases Used
13 in American or English Jurisprudence 155 (1879) (“[T]he term body politic is often used in a general way, as
14 meaning the state or the sovereign power, or the city government, without implying any distinct express
15 incorporation”); W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 127 (1893) (“Body politic”: “The governmental, sovereign
16 power: a city or a State”); Black’s Law Dictionary 143 (1891) (“Body politic”: “It is often used, in a rather
17 loose way, to designate the state or nation or sovereign power, or the government of a county or municipality,
18 without distinctly connoting any express and individual corporate charter”); I.A. Burrill, A Law Dictionary and 19 Glossary 212 (2d ed. 1871) (“Body politic”: “A body to take in succession, framed by policy”;
20 “[p]articularly*80 applied, in the old books, to a Corporation sole”); id., at 383 (“Corporation sole” includes
21 the sovereign in England).
22 [Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich.,1989)]

23 The “State of Texas” does not include your PRIVATE property, real or tangible, unless you have done any of the 24 following and thereby donated said property to a “public use” by availing yourself of the “benefits” of a 25 government franchise:

- 26 1. Registered it with the “State of Texas”.
- 27 2. Incorporated within the “State of Texas”.
- 28 3. Held title to the property as an officer of the government by associating a government issued identification number 29 with the title holder.

30 For further evidence of this corporate federal state we will now consider the document that annexed Texas into 31 the Union and see how it coincides perfectly with our interpretation of Article 4, Sect. 3, Cl. 1.

14 Approved, March 1, 1845.

15 Let's analyze and interpret the first paragraph by inserting the definitions above after the key words which have 16 been capitalized.

17 "That Congress doth consent that the TERRITORY [a portion of the United States, not within the limits of any
18 state, which has not yet been admitted as a state of the Union, but is organized, with a separate legislature, and

20 Power to exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, . . . and to exercise like Authority over all
21 Places purchased by the Consent of the Legislature of the State in which the Same shall be, for the Erection of 22 Fort, Magazines, Arsenals, dock-Yards, and other needful Buildings; (Art. 1, Sect. 8, Cl. 17)] properly included
23 within and rightfully belonging to the Republic of Texas, may be ERECTED [incorporated as united with or 24 blended indistinguishably into something already in existence (Am. Heritage Dict. 2nd Ed.)] and To declare that
25 another document shall be taken as part of the document in which the declaration is made as much as if it were 26 set out at length therein). [Blk's Law, 2nd Ed.] into a NEW [contrasting the date, origin, or character of one 27 thing with the corresponding attributes of another thing of the same kind or class. (Black's Law Dictionary, 2nd
28 Ed.)] State to be called the State of Texas, with a republican form of government adopted by the people of said
29 Republic, by deputies in convention assembled, with the consent of the existing Government in order that the same
30 may be admitted as one of the States of this Union.

31 Can you see how this document corresponds beautifully with Art. 4, Sect. 3, Cl. 1 of the Constitution. These 32 TRAITORS were geniuses! Also, take notice that the word "State" is capitalized in this joint resolution and refers
33 to the corporate or federal State since it is the congress who is authoring this document. (Rules of capitalization 34 and Statutory construction.) The word "state," in blue represents the republic since it is the foreign state in this 35 federal document. These roles will be reversed when you are reading the Texas Constitution because the sovereign
36 authoring that document (Texas Constitution) is the people of the Republic of Texas.

37 To verify that the government has actually combined the two constitutions, download a copy of the Texas
38 Constitution and or Statutes at

<http://www.constitution.legis.state.tx.us/>

39 ..then type in the find box the word "state." As you click on "Find next" you will notice that the word state is 40 sometimes capitalized and other times it is written with a small "s." According to the rules of grammar the capital
41 "S" denotes the sovereign who is writing the document which would be the Republic, and the small "s" denotes 42 the foreign state, the corporate or federal state.

43 The following is a highlighted example from Article 5, Section 3 of the Texas Constitution. You will notice even 44 the Republic's Supreme Court is capitalized and not the supreme court of the Statutory State. The de jure state 45 (republic) is in blue, and the de facto state (corporation) is in red. You will find this anomaly throughout the entire 46 Texas Constitution.

22 AND IS ONE OF THE STATES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA UNDER THE ARTICLES
23 OF CONFEDERATION! PLEASE UNDERSTAND THE DIFFERENCE.

24   For conclusive proof that the “State of Texas” is a corporate federal state please see the Statutes at Large of the 25   United States of America from Dec. 1, 1845 to March 3, 1851 Volume IX. It states in pertinent part:

26                   “Chapter I - An Act to extend the Laws of the United States over the State of Texas, and for other Purposes.

27                   Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
28 That all the laws of the United States are hereby declared to extend to and over, and to have full force and effect
29 *within the State of Texas, admitted at the present session of Congress into the Confederacy AND Union of the 30 United States. (emphasis added)”

31                   [Statutes at Large of the United States of America from Dec. 1, 1845 to March 3, 1851 Volume IX]

32   Note the language above “into the Confederacy AND Union”. The Confederacy they are talking about is that 33   established under the Articles of Confederation, which identify themselves as “perpetual” and continue to this 34   day. The “Union” they are referring to is that established by the USA Constitution.

35   We have been deceived by what is called “words of art.” The men involved in creating the United States
36   Constitution committed treason and were traitors. That would especially include George Washington. We believe 37   Benjamin Franklin was quoted as saying: “We have given you a republic if you can keep it.” We don’t know
38   about you folks, but we think he knew what was going on also! The American people were deceived from the 39   beginning. But that doesn’t matter now because our Constitutions and our Declaration of Independence say we 40   can abolish our government any time we want.

41   I believe being armed with this information we can now challenge each and every public official in our government
42   to either represent our republic, resign or be prosecuted as an enemy of our state. Their choice!

43                   . . . “that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to
44 alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles and organizing
45 its Powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.”

1 [Declaration of Independence]

2 Remember both of our Constitutions, U.S. and Texas, guarantee us a republican form of government and the 3 common law. The Texas constitution: Article 1, Sec.2. says:

4 “INHERENT POLITICAL POWER; REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

5 All political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and
6 instituted for their benefit. The faith of the people of Texas stands pledged to the preservation of a republican
7 form of government, and, subject to this limitation only, they have at all times the inalienable right to alter,
8 reform or abolish their government in such manner as they may think expedient.

9 [Texas Constitution: Article 1, Sec.2]

10 and the Declaration of Independence says:

11 “WE hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
12 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness—That to 13 secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of 14 the governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the 15 People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles and 16 organizing its Powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.”

17 [Declaration of Independence]

18 All good things come from God. He is the only one you owe allegiance to. Put him first and the rest will fall in 19 place, including government. I have provided you with the evidence. It is now up to you to change your 20 circumstances. No one can do it for you. That is the whole concept of being self-governing and keeping or getting 21 back your Liberty. Those of you who enjoy the subsidies of the U.S. or State governments and remain statutory 22 “U.S. Citizens” cannot complain about paying taxes or the unfairness of the laws and regulations. You can only 23 be governed by your consent as evidenced in the Declaration of Independence.

24 10.3 Territories formed AFTER the ratification of the Constitution (“Territory of ”)

25 Subsequent to the ratification of the USA Constitution, lands to the west of the colonies were organized into 26 territories by act of Congress. While in the status of being a “territory”, they are regarded as corporations:

27 At common law, a "corporation" was an "artificial perso[n] endowed with the legal capacity of perpetual
28 succession" consisting either of a single individual (termed a "corporation sole") or of a collection of several
29 individuals (a "corporation aggregate"). 3 H. Stephen, Commentaries on the Laws of England 166, 168 (1st Am.
30 ed. 1845). The sovereign was considered a corporation. See id., at 170; see also 1 W. Blackstone, Commentaries
31 **467. Under the definitions supplied by contemporary law dictionaries, Territories would have been classified*
32 as "corporations" (and hence as "persons") at the time that 1983 was enacted and the Dictionary Act
33 recodified. See W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 261 (1893) ("All corporations were originally modeled upon 34 a state or nation"); I J. Bouvier, A Law Dictionary Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of
35 America 318-319 (11th ed. 1866) ("In this extensive sense the United States may be termed a corporation"); Van
36 Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154 (1886) ("The United States is a . . . great corporation . . . ordained and 37 established by the American people") (quoting United [495 U.S. 182, 202] States v. Maurice, 26 F.Cas. 1211, 38 1216 (No. 15,747) (CC Va. 1823) (Marshall, C. J.); Cotton v. United States, 11 How. 229, 231 (1851) (United 39 States is "a corporation"). See generally Trustees of Dartmouth College v. Woodward, 4 Wheat. 518, 561-562
40 (1819) (explaining history of term "corporation").
41 [Ngiraingas v. Sanchez, 495 U.S. 182 (1990)]

42 The big question is WHICH of the TWO TYPES of corporations are they in relation to the general/national 43 government?:

- 44 1. FEDERAL corporation under the USA Constitution.
45 2. NATIONAL corporation under the exclusive jurisdiction of Congress, Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17.

46 In fact, they are the latter: NATIONAL and not FEDERAL corporations. Here is a hint:

47 “Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform
48 to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or
49 conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every

1 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
2 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and
3 is exercised by representatives elected by them.' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the 4 territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan,
5 Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing
6 a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative
7 power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not
8 until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the 9 people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress
10 thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that
11 the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of 12 habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
13 Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

14 AFTER territories organized and voted themselves to statehood:

- 15 1. They changed from NATIONAL corporations to FEDERAL corporations.
- 16 2. They changed from legislatively "DOMESTIC" to legislatively "FOREIGN" in relation to the national government.
- 17 3. They gained EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction over their own INTERNAL affairs.
- 18 4. They transitioned from being EXTERNALLY governed by the District of Columbia to be INTERNALLY governed by 19 their own elected representatives.
- 20 5. Federal courts within the territories went from courts of GENERAL/EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction to that of SUBJECT
21 MATTER (SPECIFIC) jurisdiction only.
- 22 6. State courts were erected within the territories having EXCLUSIVE jurisdiction.
- 23 7. Those who were "citizens" within territories went from STATUTORY "nationals and citizens at birth" under 8 U.S.C.
24 §1401 to:
  - 25 7.1. Statutory "aliens" under 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A) .
  - 26 7.2. "nationals" under 8 U.S.C. §1101(a)(21) and in some cases statutory "non-citizen nationals" under 8 U.S.C.
27 §1452.
  - 28 7.3. Constitutional "Citizens" as mentioned in Article I, Section 2, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution.
  - 29 7.4. Constitutional "citizen of the United States" per the Fourteenth Amendment.

30 The following reference from the Corpus Juris Secundum (CJS) legal encyclopedia confirms that above
31 conclusions and the proper legal relationship between a Territory ("Territory of___") and a Constitutional State
32 ("State of___") by identifying a FEDERAL/CONSTITUTIONAL "State" as a legislatively "foreign state" in 33 relation to both "territories" AND ordinary acts of Congress (the "national government"). By "ordinary act of 34 Congress" is meant the Internal Revenue Code, for instance:

35 "§1. Definitions, Nature, and Distinctions

36 "The word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization has a distinctive, fixed, and legal 37 meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and does not necessarily include all the territorial
38 possessions of the United States, but may include only the portions thereof which are organized and exercise
39 governmental functions under act of congress."

40 "While the term 'territory' is often loosely used, and has even been construed to include municipal subdivisions
41 of a territory, and 'territories of the' United States is sometimes used to refer to the entire domain over which the 42 United States exercises dominion, the word 'territory,' when used to designate a political organization, has a
43 distinctive, fixed, and legal meaning under the political institutions of the United States, and the term 'territory'
44 or 'territories' does not necessarily include only a portion or the portions thereof which are organized and
45 exercise government functions under acts of congress. The term 'territories' has been defined to be political 46 subdivisions of the outlying dominion of the United States, and in this sense the term 'territory' is not a description
47 of a definite area of land but of a political unit governing and being governed as such. The question whether a 48 particular subdivision or entity is a territory is not determined by the particular form of government with which 49 it is, more or less temporarily, invested.

50 "Territories' or 'territory' as including 'state' or 'states.'" While the term 'territories of the' United States may,
51 under certain circumstances, include the states of the Union, as used in the federal Constitution and in 52 ordinary acts of congress "territory" does not include a foreign state.

53 "As used in this title, the term 'territories' generally refers to the political subdivisions created by congress, 54 and not within the boundaries of any of the several states."

The U.S. Supreme Court also identified the territories as NOT being included geographically within the “United States” as used in the USA Constitution OR within the meaning of “State” as used in the USA Constitution:

*It is sufficient to observe in relation to these three fundamental instruments [Articles of Confederation, the United States Constitution, and the Treaty of Peace with Spain], that it can nowhere be inferred that the *251 territories were considered a part of the United States. The Constitution was created by the people of the United States, as a union of states, to be governed solely by representatives of the states; and even the provision relied upon here, that all duties, imposts, and excises shall be uniform ‘throughout the United States,’ is explained by subsequent provisions of the Constitution, that ‘no tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state,’ and ‘no preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one state be obliged to enter, clear, or pay duties in another.’ In short, the Constitution deals with states, their people, and their representatives.*

*“The earliest case is that of Hepburn v. Ellzey, 2 Cranch, 445, 2 L.Ed. 332, in which this court held that, under that clause of the Constitution limiting the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States to controversies between citizens of different states, a citizen of the District of Columbia could not maintain an action in the circuit court of the United States. It was argued that the word ‘state,’ in that connection, was used simply to denote a distinct political society. ‘But,’ said the Chief Justice, ‘as the act of Congress obviously used the word ‘state’ in reference to that term as used in the Constitution, it becomes necessary to inquire whether Columbia is a state in the sense of that instrument. The result of that examination is a conviction that the members of the American confederacy only are the states contemplated in the Constitution . . . and excludes from the term the signification attached to it by writers on the law of nations.’ This case was followed in Barney v. Baltimore, 6 Wall. 280, 18 L.Ed. 825, and quite recently in Hooe v. Jamieson, 166 U.S. 395, 41 L.Ed. 1049, 17 Sup.Ct. Rep. 596. The same rule was applied to citizens of territories in New Orleans v. Winter, 1 Wheat. 91, 4 L.Ed. 44, in which an attempt was made to distinguish a territory from the District of Columbia. But it was said that ‘neither of them is a state in the sense in which that term is used in the Constitution.’ In Scott v. Jones, 5 How. 343, 12 L.Ed. 181, and in Miners’ Bank v. Iowa ex rel. District Prosecuting Attorney, 12 How. 1, 13 L.Ed. 867, it was held that under the judiciary act, permitting writs of error to the supreme court of a state in cases where the validity of a state statute is drawn in question, an act of a territorial legislature was not within the contemplation of Congress.”
[Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]*

10.4 State corporations are NOT federal corporations or “persons” under federal law

Another very important concept we wish to emphasize is that a state-chartered corporation is NOT a “person” or a “corporation” under federal law. This limitation is imposed by the constitutional separation of powers between the state and national governments.

*“A corporation is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of which it was created, and of that state or country only.”
[19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §886 (2003)]*

---

*“It is very true that a corporation can have no legal existence out of the boundaries of the sovereignty by which it is created. It exists only in contemplation of law, and by force of the law; and where the law ceases to operate, and is no longer obligatory, the corporation can have no existence. It must dwell in the place of its creation, and cannot migrate to another sovereignty.”
[Bank of Augusta v. Earle, 38 U.S. (13 Pet.) 519, 10 L.Ed. 274 (1839)]*

Only those domiciled on federal territory can be “persons” under federal civil law. This fact is recognized within Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). Note that it says in the case of an individual, the individual’s DOMICILE determines the laws under which he or she can be sued:

*Federal Rules of Civil Procedure
IV. PARTIES > Rule 17.
Rule 17. Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity*

(b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

(1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

(2) for a corporation, by the law under which it was organized; and

(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and

(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.

The important thing to remember about the above rule is:

1. ALL law that is cited in civil court MUST derive from the domicile of the parties.
2. You can only be domiciled in ONE place at a time. This means that you cannot SIMULTANEOUSLY be domiciled within FEDERAL jurisdiction and STATE jurisdiction at the same time.
3. If one is acting in a representative capacity on behalf of an entity incorporated in a legislatively foreign jurisdiction, the civil law which applies is that of the domicile of the entity and not the person RERPRESENTING the entity.
4. The only way that a human being NOT domiciled on federal territory can be subject to federal law is to VOLUNTARILY REPRESENT a federal corporation which itself is domiciled on federal territory and created under FEDERAL and not STATE law. Such is the case of those engaging in a statutory "trade or business" per 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26), which is a public office within the FEDERAL and not STATE government. All "taxpayers" are, in fact, such public officers under Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A and C. This is covered in:

Why Your Government is Either a Thief or You are a "Public Officer" for Income Tax Purposes, Form #05.008
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

If you would like to know more about the subject of domicile, please consult the following:

Why Domicile and Becoming a "Taxpayer" Require Your Consent, Form #05.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

10.5 How STATE corporations are ILLEGALLY turned into FEDERAL corporations

The federal income tax system is an excise and a franchise upon public offices within the U.S. government. This is exhaustively proven in:

The "Trade or Business" Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The separation of powers doctrine forbids the enforcement of federal civil law within states of the Union OR the enforcement of any federal franchise within the borders of a constitutional state. This is exhaustively proven in:

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

The only way that a corporation chartered under the laws of a constitutional state can ALSO be treated as a "corporation" under FEDERAL law is to misrepresent their status on a government form or to apply for federal "benefit" or franchises that they aren't legally allowed to participate in. The reason they are not legally allowed to participate is because:

1. The U.S. government may not lawfully offer or enforce any national franchise within the borders of a constitutional state, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court:

"Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to

1 trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive
2 power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the
3 granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and give rights to the licensee.

4 But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this
5 commerce and trade Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs
6 exclusively to the States. No interference by Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State is
7 warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly incidental to the exercise of powers clearly granted to
8 the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly repugnant to the exclusive power of 9 the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive power. It is given
10 in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports, and it must 11 impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus limited, and 12 thus only, it reaches every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing subjects.
13 Congress cannot authorize a trade or business within a State in order to tax it.
14 License Tax Cases, [72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866)]

15 2. Congress has no civil legislative jurisdiction within the borders of a state.

16 *"It is no longer open to question that the general government, unlike the states, Hammer v. Dagenhart, 247 U.S.
17 251, 275, 38 S.Ct. 529, 3 A.L.R. 649, Ann.Cas.1918E 724, possesses no inherent power in respect of the internal 18 affairs of the states; and emphatically not with regard to legislation."*
19 Carter v. Carter Coal Co., [298 U.S. 238, 56 S.Ct. 855 (1936)]

20 3. It is often and crime AND a violation of the state constitution for any STATE officer, such as an officer of a STATE
21 corporation, to SIMULTANEOUSLY act as an officer of the federal government.

22 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the 23 one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."
24 [Matt. 6:23-25, Bible, NKJV]

25 This type of crime is called a financial conflict of interest and it applies not only to officers of a STATE corporation,
26 but the JUDGES in both state and federal court as well. This means that judges ALSO cannot simultaneously be 27 STATE "taxpayers" and FEDERAL "taxpayers" if the activity subject to tax is a public office in BOTH governments.
28 See 18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §455, 28 U.S.C. §144, and the state laws listed in:

The "Trade or Business" Scam, Form #05.001, Section 10.2
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

29 4. Even to this day, there is NO definition of "State" within any national franchise which EXPRESSLY includes a 30 CONSTITUTIONAL state or anything other than a federal territory or possession. Therefore, by the rules of statutory 31 construction, CONSTITUTIONAL states are PURPOSEFULLY excluded.

32 *"Expressio unius est exclusio alterius. A maxim of statutory interpretation meaning that the expression of one
33 thing is the exclusion of another. Burgin v. Forbes, 293 Ky. 456, 169 S.W.2d. 321, 325; Newblock v. Bowles,*
34 *170 Okl. 487, 40 P.2d. 1097, 1100. Mention of one thing implies exclusion of another. When certain persons or
35 things are specified in a law, contract, or will, an intention to exclude all others from its operation may be
36 inferred. Under this maxim, if statute specifies one exception to a general rule or assumes to specify the effects*
37 of a certain provision, other exceptions or effects are excluded."
38 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 581]

39 *"When a statute includes an explicit definition, we must follow that definition, even if it varies from that term's
40 ordinary meaning. Meese v. Keene, 481 U.S. 465, 484-485 (1987) ("It is axiomatic that the statutory definition*
41 of the term excludes unstated meanings of that term"); Colautti v. Franklin, 439 U.S. at 392-393, n. 10 ("As a
42 rule, `a definition which declares what a term "means" . . . excludes any meaning that is not stated"); Western
43 Union Telegraph Co. v. Lenroot, 323 U.S. 490, 502 (1945) ; Fox v. Standard Oil Co. of N.J., 294 U.S. 87, 95-96
44 (1935) (Cardozo, J.); see also 2A N. Singer, Sutherland on Statutes and Statutory Construction § 47.07, p. 152,
45 and n. 10 (5th ed. 1992) (collecting cases). That is to say, the statute, read "as a whole," post at 998 [530 U.S.
46 943] (THOMAS, J., dissenting), leads the reader to a definition. That definition does not include the Attorney
47 General's restriction -- "the child up to the head." Its words, "substantial portion," indicate the contrary."
48 Stenberg v. Carhart, [530 U.S. 914 (2000)]

49 Consequently, it is ILLEGAL and a criminal impersonation of a public office in the U.S. government pursuant to 50 18 U.S.C. §912 for a STATE chartered corporation to apply for, use, or receive the "benefits" of use of any 51 national identify number. All such numbers function as the equivalent of a what we call "a de facto license to 52 represent a federal public office". This is covered later in section 17.1. At the point when it commits this crime,

1 it will be treated AS IF it were ALSO a federal corporation and from that point, will serve TWO government
2 masters rather than only their STATE grantor.

3 10.6 Summary and conclusions

4 Based on the preceding subsections, we have proven that:

- 5 1. “Republic of ___” means the sovereign state under the Articles of Confederation. The Articles of Confederation have 6 never been repealed and refer to themselves as “perpetual”. They preceded the U.S.A. Constitution.
- 7 2. “State of ___” is a federal (NOT “national”, but “federal”) corporation under the corporate charter, the United States
8 Constitution.
- 9 3. The “State of ___” constitutional corporations are “foreign corporations” in relation to the national government.
10 Another way of stating this is that they are legislatively but not constitutionally foreign.

11 "A federal corporation operating within a state is considered a domestic corporation rather than a foreign
12 corporation. The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state."
13 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §883 (2003)]

- 14 4. The property held in public trust and managed by the Constitutional federal corporations consists of:
  - 15 4.1. The authority and powers delegated by the Constitution.
  - 16 4.2. The community chattel property and land held in trust and on behalf of the national government.
- 17 5. The provisions of Art. 4, Section 3, Clause 1 prohibiting the creation of a “State within a State” refers to 18 GEOGRAPHICAL states rather than VIRTUAL CORPORATIONS, or statutory “States” (under federal law).
- 19 6. It is a violation of fiduciary duty and a violation of the separation of powers for the officers of the constitutional state
20 corporations to ALSO serve as public officers within the national government. Hence, these public corporations may 21 not be regulated by the national government. Only when individual officers exceed their authority may they be 22 brought within a federal court under the authority of the Fourteenth Amendment and 42 U.S.C. §1983.
- 23 7. There are 3 states of Texas, as there are 3 states of all of the original 13 states. The other states came up the 24 commercial side into statehood as commercial territories and therefore never had a sovereign nation statehood.
  - 25 7.1. The state called “the state of Texas” is the dirt within the outer borders of Texas and the people sojourning on top 26 of the land who came from God in Heaven.
  - 27 7.2. The state called “the State of Texas” is the people collectively operating in their sovereign commercial capacity
28 through their lawfully elected house, senate, Secretary of State, Department of Treasury, and governor. Today we 29 only have “comptrollers” which are only commercial fascist corporate bean counters of "this state."
  - 30 7.3. The state called “this state” is a legal subdivision of “the state of Texas” and of "the United States" called “THE 31 STATE OF TEXAS” and is a communitarian welfare benefit plantation subsidiary of “the United States,” a 32 “district,” as defined on the CIA website, and the benefits are administered though the Texas State Department of 33 Labor, as are the benefits administered in all other states for their respective legal subdivisions, because the 34 benefits of "the United States" delivered are in relationship to the labor of the people/employees/slaves and their 35 ability to be taxed for the payment of the tribute and the interest on the debt of “the United States”, which 36 unapportioned debt service is applied to statutory “U.S. citizens”/”persons”/”employees”/slaves and collected
37 through the clause 4 of the 14th Amendment.
- 38 8. The three states, “state of ___”, “State of ___”, and “this state”, are NOT equivalent or the same legal “person”
39 because they have different capitalization. It is a maxim of law that nothing similar is the same. Therefore, each is a 40 DIFFERENT entity with different properties, jurisdictions, courts, and officers.

- 46 9. The several counties of this state are “legal” subdivisions of the state as defined in the Texas Constitution of 1876 at 47 Article 11, Section 1.
- 48 10. There can be no sovereign Texas judiciary in Article 5 of the Texas Constitution, because on November 5, 1985 the 49 people amended out of the constitution at Article 5, Section 12, the right of the judiciary to issue writs and process in 50 the name of the lawful collective of the people commercial state called “the State of Texas.” All law now moves only 51 by private contract.

- 1 11. Writs and process are now only issued out of the federal commercial state district called “this state,” “THE STATE OF 2 TEXAS.” The writs and process from the state called “this state” only apply to people who have become U.S.
3 persons/citizens by applying for and accepting membership into the Social Security Administration and who have
4 voluntarily become deemed employees of the government and therefore subject to benefits. See Ashwander v. TVA,
5 297 U.S. 288.

7 The reader is encouraged to perform a similar analysis for his/her state and submit their research to us for publication.

1 It is important to note WHICH of the corporations you are operating within. The way to easily determine which
2 it is would be to examine the CONTENT of the perjury statement on the government form you are filling out
3 and submitting to JOIN the program or system.

- 4 1. If the perjury statement says “under the laws of the State of ___” as the voter registration or driver’s license forms in 5 California currently do, then:
  - 6 1.1. You have surrendered the protection of the common law.
  - 7 1.2. You have DIVORCED yourself from the Republic and surrendered your right to have or to own EXCLUSIVELY
8 PRIVATE property.
  - 9 1.3. You have agreed to become a public officer within the “State of ___”. Since the “State of ___” has no
10 TERRITORY of its own but only chattel property, it is a VIRTUAL entity that one can only become subject to 11 the LAWS of by contracting into it.
- 12 2. The only kind of perjury statement you can sign if you want to maintain your EXCLUSIVELY PRIVATE, 13 legislatively “foreign”, and “alien” status is:
  - 14 2.1. “under the laws of the REPUBLIC OF _____ and NOT STATE OF _____”.
  - 15 2.2. From WITHOUT the “United States” and from WITHIN the “United States of America” per 28 U.S.C. §1746(1).

16 11 Corporate “Franchisees” are “residents” and “trustees” of the entity granting the privilege<sup>49</sup>

17 Governments cannot create corporate franchises without also bestowing upon themselves the ability to regulate 18 all those who participate in order to fulfill the purposes of the franchise. Private persons are not subject to 19 government jurisdiction by default.

20 “The power to “legislate generally upon” [PRIVATE] life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the “power to 21 provide modes of redress” against offensive state [e.g. “public”] action, was “repugnant” to the Constitution. Id.,
22 at 15. See also United States v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876); United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883)
23 ; James v. Bowman, 190 U.S. 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have 24 been superseded or modified, see, e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964); United 25 States v. Guest, 383 U.S. 745 (1966), their treatment of Congress’ §5 power as corrective or preventive, not 26 definitional, has not been questioned.”
27 [City of Boerne v. Florez, Archbishop of San Antonio, 521 U.S. 507 (1997)]

28 Likewise, governments can only lawfully tax those things that they create.

29 “What is a Constitution? It is the form of government, delineated by the mighty hand of the people, in which 30 certain first principles of fundamental laws are established. The Constitution is certain and fixed; it contains the 31 permanent will of the people, and is the supreme law of the land; it is paramount to the power of the Legislature,
32 *and can be revoked or altered only by the authority that made it. The life-giving principle and the death-doing
33 stroke must proceed from the same hand.”
34 [VanHorne’s Lessee v. Dorrance, 2 U.S. 304 (1795)]

35 *“The great principle is this: because the constitution will not permit a state to destroy, it will not permit a law 36 [including a tax law] involving the power to destroy.”
37 [Providence Bank v. Billings, 29 U.S. 514 (1830)]

38 *“The power to tax involves the power to destroy; the power to destroy may defeat and render useless the power
39 to create; and there is a plain repugnance in conferring on one government [THE FEDERAL 40 GOVERNMENT] a power to control the constitutional measures of another [WE THE PEOPLE], which other,
41 with respect to those very measures, is declared to be supreme over that which exerts the control.”
42 [Van Brocklin v. State of Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151 (1886)]

43 The purpose of offering franchises and incorporating the government is to increase government revenues, power,
44 and control over private citizens at the expense of their liberty, happiness, and property and to their extreme 45 detriment.

46 “The sentiments of men are known not only by what they receive, but what they reject also.”

4 "They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."

6 The following subsections will prove that:

- 7 1. When you sign up for a government franchise such as Social Security, Medicare, Unemployment, Employment, etc., you 8 create a constructive trust and a "res" that is the subject of the trust.
- 9 2. The "res" becomes a "resident" within the jurisdiction of the government granting the franchise. This "resident" 10 effectively is a statutory "alien" with a legal domicile within federal territory.
- 11 3. All franchisees are treated as officers of a federal corporation subject to federal law.
- 12 4. All franchisees are treated as "public officers" within the federal corporation subject to the penalty provisions of the 13 I.R.C. pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6671\(b\) and criminal provisions pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7343.

14 Notice in the above that we use the phrase "are treated as" rather than "become". It is our contention that federal 15 franchises cannot be used to create new public offices anywhere outside the District of Columbia, but rather add
16 additional privileges to EXISTING public offices lawfully created under Title 5 of the U.S. Code. In fact, we 17 prove elsewhere and in the following that offering franchises to otherwise PRIVATE human beings domiciled
18 outside of federal territory is a criminal act of bribery that amounts to treason and a destruction of the separation
19 of powers doctrine:

20 11.1 Why franchisees are all privileged "aliens" and NOT sovereign nonresident nationals

21 The Original Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, lawfully ratified in 1812 made it not only
22 an offense, but an expatriating act to confer, retain, or receive any title of nobility. That amendment was proposed 23 in 1810 and officially adopted in 1812. The Original Thirteenth Amendment reads as follows:

24 "If any citizen of the United States shall accept, claim, receive, or retain any title of nobility or honour, or shall
25 without the consent of Congress, accept and retain any present, pension, office, or emolument of any kind
26 whatever, from any emperor, king, prince, or foreign power, such person shall cease to be a citizen of the united 27 States, and shall be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under them, or either of them."
28 [Original 13th Amendment to the Constitution for the united states of America]

29 To lose one's citizenship and nationality is called "expatriation" within the legal field.

30 "Expatriation is the voluntary renunciation or abandonment of nationality and allegiance." Perkins v. Elg.,
31 1939, 307 U.S. 325, 59 S.Ct. 884, 83 L.Ed. 1320. In order to be relieved of the duties of allegiance, consent of 32 the sovereign is required. Mackenzi v. Hare, 1915, 239 U.S. 299, 36 S.Ct. 106, 60 L.Ed. 297. Congress has 33 provided that the right of expatriation is a natural and inherent right of all people, and has further made a
34 legislative declaration as to what acts shall amount to an exercise of such right. The enumerated methods set out 35 in the chapter are expressly made the sole means of expatriation."

36 "...municipal law determines how citizenship may be acquired..."

37 "The renunciations not being given a result of free and intelligent choice, but rather because of mental fear, 38 intimidation and coercion, they were held void and of no effect."
39 [Tomoya Kawakita v. United States, 190 F.2d. 506 (1951)]

40 Those who have been expatriated from a state become "aliens" in relation to that state. If they are also 41 domiciliated, meaning they have a domicile on federal territory, they become privileged "residents" (aliens) in 42 relation to both the de jure state and the Statutory State.

1 How does all this relate to the effect of participating in franchises upon one's status in relation to the de jure
2 constitutional government? Well, the practical effect upon one's status in relation to the government of signing
3 up for, accepting the benefits of, or participating in any government franchise are all the following:

- 4 1. You accept the equivalent of a title of nobility in violation of the Constitution.

5 Articles of Confederation
6 Article VI.

7 No State, without the consent of the United States in Congress assembled, shall send any embassy to, or receive
8 any embassy from, or enter into any conference, agreement, alliance or treaty with any King, Prince or State;
9 nor shall any person holding any office of profit or trust under the United States, or any of them, accept any 10 present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever from any King, Prince or foreign State; nor shall the 11 United States in Congress assembled, or any of them, grant any title of nobility.
12

13 United States Constitution
14 Article I, Section 9, Clause 8

15 No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust*
16 *under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any 17 kind whatever, from any King, Prince, or foreign State.
18

---

19 United States Constitution
20 Article I, Section. 10

21 No State shall enter into any Treaty, Alliance, or Confederation; grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal; coin
22 Money; emit Bills of Credit; make any Thing but gold and silver Coin a Tender in Payment of Debts; pass any 23 Bill of Attainder, ex post facto Law, or Law impairing the Obligation of Contracts, or grant any Title of Nobility.

- 24 2. You surrender the privileges and immunities of constitutional citizenship in exchange for the disabilities and privileges
25 of alienage as mandated by the Original Thirteenth Amendment.
26 3. You become a privileged "resident alien" in relation to the existing government under the terms of the franchise 27 agreement.

28 "Residents, as distinguished from citizens, are aliens who are permitted to take up a permanent abode in the
29 country. Being bound to the society by reason of their dwelling in it, they are subject to its laws so long as they*
30 *remain there, and being protected by it, they must defend it, although they do not enjoy all the rights of citizens.
31 They have only certain privileges which the law, or custom, gives them. Permanent residents are those who* 32 have been given the right of perpetual residence. They are a sort of citizens of a less privileged character, and 33 are subject to the society without enjoying all its advantages. Their children succeed to their status; for the right
34 of perpetual residence given them by the State passes to their children."
35 [The Law of Nations, Vattel, p. 87;
36 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/Resident-LawOfNations.pdf>]

- 37 4. You may not be treated as a constitutional "citizen" in relation to the government under the terms of the franchise
38 agreement and may not claim any of the "benefits" or protections of being a constitutional "citizen". Instead, you become 39 a STATUTORY citizen who is privileged and who is domiciled on federal territory not protected by the United States
40 Constitution. It is furthermore proven in the following references that your status as a statutory "U.S. citizen" under 8
41 U.S.C. §1401 is in fact, yet another franchise that has nothing to do with domicile or residence:

42 4.1. Federal Jurisdiction, Form #05.018, Section 5

43 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

44 4.2. Why You are a "national", "state national", and Constitutional but not Statutory Citizen, Form #05.006,
45 Sections 3 through 3.3.

46 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

47 However, news of the adoption of the Original Thirteenth Amendment has been silenced because it would 48 undermine and destroy nearly everything that our present government does, which is implemented almost entirely
49 using franchises and privileges. If the Original Thirteenth Amendment remained on the books, NO ONE could 50 call themselves an American or a Constitutional citizen and we would all be aliens in our own land because almost 51 everyone participates in government franchises of one kind or another at this time. In a real de jure and

1 constitutional government, there is no such thing as franchises or the titles of nobility they create because everyone
2 is equal.

3 You can find the complete story behind the ratification of the Original Thirteenth Amendment and its subsequent 4 mysterious “disappearance” from the Constitution in the following document on our website:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 6
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

5 Consistent with this section, Article IV of the Articles of Confederation also says that paupers and vagabonds are 6 not entitled to the privileges and immunities of citizenship.

7 “... the free inhabitants of each of these states, paupers, vagabonds and fugitives from Justice excepted, shall be 8 entitled to all privileges and immunities of free citizens in the several states”
9 [Articles of Confederation, Article IV]

10 Here is the definition of “paupers and vagabonds”:

11 *“Vagabond. A vagrant or homeless wanderer without means of honest livelihood. *Neering v. Illinois Cent. R.
12 Co., 383 Ill. 366, 50 N.E.2d. 497, 502. One who wanders from place to place, having no fixed dwelling, or, if he
13 has one, not abiding in it; a wanderer, especially such a person who is lazy and generally worthless without 14 means of honest livelihood.”
15 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1548]

16
17 *“Vagrant. At common law, wandering or going about from place to place by idle person who had no lawful or 18 visible means of support and who subsisted on charity and did not work, though able to do so. *State v. Harlowe,
19 174 Wash. 227, 24 P.2d. 601. A general term, including, in English law, the several classes of idle and disorderly
20 persons, rogues, and vagabonds, and incorrigible rogues. One who wanders from place to place; an idle wander,
21 specifically, one who has no settled habitation, nor any fixed income or livelihood. A vagabond; a tramp. A
22 person able to work who spends his time in idleness or immorality, having no property to support him and 23 without some visible and known means of fair, honest, and reputable livelihood. *State v. Oldham, 224 N.C.
24 *415, 30 S.E.2d. 318, 319. One who is apt to become a public charge through his own laziness. *People, on 25 Complaint of McDonough, v. Gesino, Sp.Sess., 22 N.Y.S.2d. 284, 285. See Vagabond; Vagrancy.”
26 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1548]

27 Incidentally, the above also happens to describe most of the people who work for the government. Most are do-
28 nothing no-loads who effectively are "retired on duty" (R.O.D.). Based on the above, those who must draw from 29 the government through charity or socialist welfare programs as a private citizen cannot have the rights or 30 privileges of constitutional citizenship under the original Articles of Confederation, and that is exactly what 31 happens to those who participate in our present Social Security or the government’s tax system: They become 32 privileged statutory “resident aliens” or statutory “citizens” domiciled on federal territory rather than 33 constitutional citizens.

34 Those participating in government franchises essentially elect the government as their “parens patriae”, or 35 government parent. The Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.) Legal Encyclopedia also agrees with this section by 36 affirming that those who are children or dependents or of unsound mind assume the domicile of the sovereign 37 who is their "caretaker" or “parent”.

38 PARTICULAR PERSONS
39 Infants
40 §20 In General

41 An infant, being non sui juris, cannot fix or change his domicile unless emancipated. A legitimate child's 42 domicile usually follows that of the father. In case of separation or divorce of parents, the child has the domicile
43 of the parent who has been awarded custody of the child.
44 [Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Domicile, §20 (2003);
45 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/Domicile-28CJS-20051203.pdf>]

1 As long as we are called "children of God" and are dependent exclusively on Him, we assume His domicile, which
2 is the Kingdom of God. If we elect government as our parent or caretaker through franchises, we fire God as our 3 provider and caretaker, become wards of the corporate government, and become government dependents who are 4 "persons", "resident aliens", "public officers", "trustees", and franchisees of the government subject to their 5 jurisdiction and who are their "property" and responsibility. In short, we become cattle and chattel of the 6 government.

7 The considerations in this section are the reason why:

- 8 1. No social benefit program entitles those participating to an enforceable right under equity as against the government.

9 "We must conclude that a person covered by the Act has not such a right in benefit payments... This is not to 10 say, however, that Congress may exercise its power to modify the statutory scheme free of all constitutional 11 restraint."

12 Flemming v. Nestor, [363 U.S. 603 (1960)]

- 13 2. Disputes relating to franchise "benefits" must be settled in administrative franchise courts in which you are unequal in 14 relation to the government and approach them more as a beggar and an employee than a sovereign.

15 Why, you might ask, is this? Because they couldn't succeed in their dastardly plan to convert all your rights in to 16 privileges if you retained your sovereignty and equity in relation to them under the terms of the franchise. They 17 want to transport you to the plunder zone, which is the federal zone, and destroy and plunder you rather than 18 protect you, in fact. They want to eliminate all constitutional courts and replace them with franchise courts and 19 make you into a government "employee" or "public officer" called a statutory "U.S. citizen". That is why the 20 U.S. Supreme Court referred to Social Security as a "statutory scheme". They weren't lying, folks!

21 11.2 Creation of the "Resident" entity

22 When two parties execute a franchise agreement or contract between them, they are engaging in "commerce". The 23 practical consequences of the franchise agreement are the following:

- 24 1. The main source of jurisdiction for the government is over commerce.
- 25 2. The mutual consideration passing between the parties provides the nexus for government jurisdiction over the 26 transaction.
- 27 3. Parties to the franchise agreement cannot engage in a franchise without implicitly surrendering governance over disputes
28 to the government granting the franchise. In that sense, their effective domicile shifts to the location of the seat of the 29 government granting the franchise.
- 30 4. The parties to the franchise agreement mutually and implicitly surrender their sovereign immunity under the Foreign 31 Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(2), which says that commerce within the legislative jurisdiction
32 of the "United States" constitutes constructive consent to be sued in the courts of the United States. This is discussed in 33 more detail in the previous section.

34 Another surprising result of engaging in franchises and public benefits that most people overlook is that the 35 commerce it represents, in fact, can have the practical effect of making a "nonresident" party "resident" for the 36 purposes of judicial jurisdiction. Here is the proof:

37 In International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945), the Supreme Court held that a court may exercise
38 personal jurisdiction over a defendant consistent with due process only if he or she has "certain minimum
39 contacts" with the relevant forum "such that the maintenance of the suit does not offend 'traditional notions of 40 fair play and substantial justice.'" Id. at 316 (quoting Milliken v. Meyer, 311 U.S. 457, 463 (1940)). Unless a 41 defendant's contacts with a forum are so substantial, continuous, and systematic that the defendant can be 42 deemed to be "present" in that forum for all purposes, a forum may exercise only "specific" jurisdiction - that 43 is, jurisdiction based on the relationship between the defendant's forum contacts and the plaintiff's claim. The 44 parties agree that only specific jurisdiction is at issue in this case.

45 In this circuit, we analyze specific jurisdiction according to a three-prong test:

- 1 (1) The non-resident defendant must purposefully direct his activities or consummate some transaction with the 2 forum or resident thereof; or perform some act by which he purposefully avails himself of the privilege of 3 conducting activities in the forum, thereby invoking the benefits and protections of its laws;
4 (2) the claim must be one which arises out of or relates to the defendant's forum-related activities; and 5 (3) the exercise of jurisdiction must comport with fair play and substantial justice, i.e. it must be reasonable.

6 Schwarzenegger v. Fred Martin Motor Co., 374 F.3d. 797, 802 (9th Cir. 2004) (quoting Lake v. Lake, 817 F.2d.
7 1416, 1421 (9th Cir. 1987)). The first prong is determinative in this case. We have sometimes referred to it, in 8 shorthand fashion, as the "purposeful availment" prong. Schwarzenegger, 374 F.3d. at 802. Despite its label, this
9 prong includes both purposeful availment and purposeful direction. It may be satisfied by purposeful availment 10 of the privilege of doing business in the forum; by purposeful direction of activities at the forum; or by some 11 combination thereof.

12 We have typically treated "purposeful availment" somewhat differently in tort and contract cases. In tort cases, 13 we typically inquire whether a defendant "purposefully direct[s] his activities" at the forum state, applying an 14 "effects" test that focuses on the forum in which the defendant's actions were felt, whether or not the actions
15 themselves occurred within the forum. See Schwarzenegger, 374 F.3d. at 803 (citing Calder v. Jones, 465 U.S.
16 783, 789-90 (1984)). By contrast, in contract cases, we typically inquire whether a defendant "purposefully avails
17 itself of the privilege of conducting activities" or "consummate[s] [a] transaction" in the forum, focusing on 18 activities such as delivering goods or executing a contract. See Schwarzenegger, 374 F.3d. at 802. However, this 19 case is neither a tort nor a contract case. Rather, it is a case in which Yahoo! argues, based on the First 20 Amendment, that the French court's interim orders are unenforceable by an American court.

22 Legal treatises on domicile also confirm that those who are "wards" or "dependents" of the state or the government
23 assume the same domicile or "residence" as their care giver. The practical effect of this is that by participating in 24 government franchises, we become "wards" of the government in receipt of welfare payments such as Social 25 Security, Medicare, etc. As "wards" under "guardianship" of the government, we assume the same domicile as 26 the government who is paying us the "benefits", which means the District of Columbia. Our domicile is whatever 27 the government, meaning the "court" wants it to be for their convenience:

28 PARTICULAR PERSONS
29 § 24. Wards

30 While it appears that an infant ward's domicile or residence ordinarily follows that of the guardian it does not 31 necessarily do so,<sup>50</sup> as so a guardian has been held to have no power to control an infant's domicile as against
32 her mother.<sup>51</sup> Where a guardian is permitted to remove the child to a new location, the child will not be held to 33 have acquired a new domicile if the guardian's authority does not extend to fixing the child's domicile. Domicile
34 of a child who is a ward of the court is the location of the court.<sup>52</sup>

35 Since a ward is not sui juris, he cannot change his domicile by removal,<sup>53</sup> nor or does the removal of the ward
36 to another state or county by relatives or friends, affect his domicile.<sup>54</sup> Absent an express indication by the court,
37 the authority of one having temporary control of a child to fix the child's domicile is ascertained by interpreting 38 the court's orders.<sup>55</sup>

41 This change in domicile of those who participate in government franchises and thereby become "wards" of the 42 government is also consistent with the U.S. Supreme Court's view of the government's relationship to those who 43 participate in government franchises. It calls the government a "parens patriae" in relation to them!:

44 "The proposition is that the United States, as the grantor of the franchises of the company, the author of its 45 charter, and the donor of lands, rights, and privileges of immense value, and as parens patriae, is a trustee, 46 invested with power to enforce the proper use of the property and franchises granted for the benefit of the 47 public."

8 One Congressman during the debates over the proposal of the Social Security Act in 1933 criticized the very 9 adverse effects of the franchise upon people's rights, including that upon the domicile of those who participate,
10 when he said:

11 Mr. Logan: "...Natural laws can not be created, repealed, or modified by legislation. Congress should know 12 there are many things which it can not do..."

13 "It is now proposed to make the Federal Government the guardian of its citizens. If that should be done, the 14 Nation soon must perish. There can only be a free nation when the people themselves are free and administer the 15 government which they have set up to protect their rights. Where the general government must provide work,
16 and incidentally food and clothing for its citizens, freedom and individuality will be destroyed and eventually 17 the citizens will become serfs to the general government..."

21 The Internal Revenue Code franchise agreement itself contains provisions which recognize this change in effective
22 domicile to the District of Columbia within 26 U.S.C. §7408(d) and 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39).

29 district, such citizen or resident shall be treated as residing ["domiciled"] in the District of Columbia for 30 purposes of any provision of this title relating to—

31 (A) jurisdiction of courts, or
32 (B) enforcement of summons.
33

34 TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 76 > Subchapter A > § 7408
35 §7408. Action to enjoin promoters of abusive tax shelters, etc.

36 (d) Citizens and residents outside the United States

37 If any citizen or resident of the United States does not reside in, and does not have his principal place of business
38 in, any United States judicial district, such citizen or resident shall be treated for purposes of this section as 39 residing in the District of Columbia.

40 The only legitimate purpose of all law and government is "protection". A person who selects or consents to have 41 a "domicile" or "residence" within the jurisdiction of the government granting the protection franchise has 42 effectively contracted to procure "protection" of that "sovereign" or "state". In exchange for the promise of 43 protection by the "state", they are legally obligated to give their "allegiance and support", thus nominating a 44 Master who will be above them.

45 "Allegiance and protection [by the government from harm] are, in this connection, reciprocal obligations. The 46 one is a compensation for the other; allegiance for protection and protection for allegiance."
47 [Minor v. Happersett, 88 U.S. (21 Wall.) 162, 166-168 (1874)]

1 Allegiance implies subservience to a superior sovereign. All allegiance must be voluntary and any consequences
2 arising from compelled allegiance may not be enforced in a court of law. When you revoke your voluntary consent
3 to the government's jurisdiction and the "domicile" or "residence" contract, you change your status from that of 4 a "domiciliary" or "resident" (alien) pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A) or "inhabitant" or "U.S. person"
5 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30) to that of a "transient foreigner". Transient foreigner is then defined below:

6 "Transient foreigner. One who visits the country, without the intention of remaining."
7 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1498]

8 Note again the language within the definition of "domicile" from Black's Law Dictionary relating to the word
9 "transient", which confirms that what makes your stay "permanent" is consent to the jurisdiction of the "state"
10 located in that place:

11 *"Domicile. [...] The established, fixed, permanent, or ordinary dwellingplace or place of residence of a person,
12 as distinguished from his temporary and transient, though actual, place of residence. It is his legal residence,
13 as distinguished from his temporary place of abode; or his home, as distinguished from a place to which business
14 or pleasure may temporarily call him. See also Abode; Residence."
15 *[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 485]

16 Since your Constitutional right to contract is unlimited, then you can have as many "residences" as you like, but
17 you can have only one legal "domicile", because your allegiance must be undivided, or you will have a conflict
18 of interest and allegiance.

19 *"No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the 20 one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."
21 *[Matt. 6:23-25, Bible, NKJV]

22 *"The doctrine is, that allegiance cannot be due to two sovereigns; and taking an oath of allegiance to a new,
23 is the strongest evidence of withdrawing allegiance from a previous, sovereign...."
24 *[Talbot v. Janson, 3 U.S. 133 (1795)]

25 Now do you understand the reasoning behind the following maxim of law? You become a "subject" and a
26 "resident" under the jurisdiction of a government's civil law by demanding its protection! If you want to "fire"
27 the government as your "protector", you MUST quit demanding anything from it by filling out government forms
28 or participating in its franchises:

29 Protectio trahit subjectionem, subjectio projectionem.
30 Protection draws to it subjection, subjection, protection. Co. Litt. 65.
31 [Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
32 SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviersMaxims.htm>]

33 Remember, "resident" is a combination of two word roots: "res", which is legally defined as a "thing", and 34 "ident", which stands for "identified".

35 *Res. Lat. The subject matter of a trust or will. In the civil law, a thing; an object. As a term of the law, this 36 word has a very wide and extensive signification, including not only things which are objects of property, but also 37 such as are not capable of individual ownership. And in old English law it is said to have a general import,
38 comprehending both corporeal and incorporeal things of whatever kind, nature, or species. By "res," according 39 to the modern civilians, is meant everything that may form an object of rights, in opposition to "persona," which
40 is regarded as a subject of rights. "Res," therefore, in its general meaning, comprises actions of all kinds; while 41 in its restricted sense it comprehends every object of right, except actions. This has reference to the fundamental 42 division of the Institutes that all law relates either to persons, to things, or to actions.*

43 *Res is everything that may form an object of rights and includes an object, subject-matter or status. In re
44 Riggle's Will, 11 A.D.2d. 51 205 N.Y.S.2d. 19, 21, 22. The term is particularly applied to an object, subject-
45 matter, or status, considered as the defendant in an action, or as an object against which, directly, proceedings
46 are taken. Thus, in a prize case, the captured vessel is "the res"; and proceedings of this character are said to 47 be in rem. (See In personam; In Rem.) "Res" may also denote the action or proceeding, as when a cause, which 48 is not between adversary parties, is entitled "In re _____".
49 *[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, pp. 1304-1306]

1 The “object, subject matter, or status” they are talking about above is the ALL CAPS incarnation of your legal
2 birth name and the government-issued number, usually an SSN, which is associated with it. Those two things
3 constitute the “straw man” or “trust” or “res” which you implicitly agree to represent at the time you sign up for
4 any franchise, benefit, or “public right”. When the government attacks someone for a tax liability or a debt, they
5 don’t attack you as a private person, but rather the collection of rights that attach to the ALL CAPS trust name
6 and associated Social Security Number. They start by placing a lien on the number, which actually is THEIR 7 number and not YOURS. 20 C.F.R. §422.103(d) says the number is THEIR property. They can lien their 8 property, which is public property in your temporary use and custody as a “trustee” of the “public trust”.
9 Everything that number is connected to acts as private property donated temporarily to a public use to procure the 10 benefits of the franchise. It is otherwise illegal to mix public property, such as the Social Security Number, with 11 private property, because that would constitute illegal and criminal embezzlement in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912.

12 “Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;’
13 *and to ‘secure,’ not grant or create, these rights, governments are instituted. That property [or income] which a
14 man has honestly acquired he retains full control of, subject to these limitations: First, that he shall not use it
15 to his neighbor’s injury, and that does not mean that he must use it for his neighbor’s benefit; second, that 16 if he devotes it to a public use, he gives to the public a right to control that 17 USE; and third, that whenever the public needs require, the public may take it upon payment of due
18 compensation.

19 Budd v. People of State of New York, [143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

20 Below is how the U.S. Supreme Court describes the practical effect of creating the trust and placing its “residence”
21 or “domicile” within the jurisdiction the specific government or “state” granting the franchise:

22 “Thus, the Court has frequently held that domicile or residence, more substantial than mere presence in transit
23 or sojourn, is an adequate basis for taxation, including income, property, and death taxes. Since the Fourteenth
24 *Amendment makes one a citizen of the state wherein he resides, the fact of residence creates universally
25 reciprocal duties [e.g. CONTRACTUAL DUTIES!!] of protection by the state and of allegiance and support
26 by the citizen. The latter obviously includes a duty to pay taxes, and their nature and measure is largely a
27 political matter. Of course, the situs of property may tax it regardless of the citizenship, domicile, or residence of* 28 the owner, the most obvious illustration being a tax on realty laid by the state in which the realty is located.”

29 Miller Brothers Co. v. Maryland, [347 U.S. 340 (1954)]

30 The implication is that you cannot be sovereign if either you or the entities you voluntarily represent have a
31 “domicile” or “residence” in any man-made government or in any place other than Heaven or the Kingdom of 32 Heaven on Earth. If you choose a “domicile” or “residence” any place on earth, then you become a “subject” in 33 relation to that place and voluntarily forfeit your sovereignty. This is NOT the status you want to have! A
34 “resident” by definition MUST therefore be within the legislative jurisdiction of the government, because the 35 government cannot lawfully write laws that will allow them to recognize or act upon anything that is NOT within 36 their legislative jurisdiction.

37 All law is territorial in nature, and can act only upon the territory under the exclusive control of the government
38 or upon its franchises, contracts, and real and chattel property, which are “property” under its management and 39 control pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. The only lawful way that 40 government laws can reach beyond the territory of the sovereign who controls them is through explicit, informed,
41 mutual consent of the individual parties involved, and this field of law is called “private law”.

42 “Judge Story, in his treatise on the Conflicts of Laws, lays down, as the basis upon which all reasonings on the
43 *law of comity must necessarily rest, the following maxims: First ‘that every nation possesses an exclusive
44 sovereignty and jurisdiction within its own territory’; secondly, ‘that no state or nation can by its laws directly
45 affect or bind property out of its own territory, or bind persons not resident therein, whether they are natural
46 born subjects or others.’ The learned judge then adds: ‘From these two maxims or propositions there follows a*
47 third, and that is that whatever force and obligation the laws of one country have in another depend solely upon 48 the laws and municipal regulation of the latter; that is to say, upon its own proper jurisdiction and polity, and 49 upon its own express or tacit consent.” Story on Conflict of Laws §23.”

50 [Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Co. v. Chambers, 73 Ohio.St. 16, 76 N.E. 91, 11 L.R.A., N.S., 1012 (1905)]

1 A person who is “subject” to government jurisdiction cannot be a “sovereign”, because a sovereign is not subject
2 to the law, but the AUTHOR of the law. Only citizens are the authors of the law because only “citizens” can vote.

3 “Sovereignty itself is, of course, not subject to law, for it is the author and source of law; but in our system,
4 while sovereign powers are delegated to the agencies of government, sovereignty itself remains with the people,
5 by whom and for whom all government exists and acts. And the law is the definition and limitation of power.”
6 [Yick Wo v. Hopkins, 118 U.S. 356 (1886)]

7 11.3 Creation of the “Trustee” entity

8 “Government is competent when all who compose it work as trustees for the whole people. It can make constant
9 progress when it keeps abreast of all the facts. It can obtain justified support and legitimate criticism when the 10 people receive true information of all that government does.

11 “If I know aught of the will of our people, they will demand that these conditions of effective government shall be 12 created and maintained. They will demand a nation uncorrupted by cancers of injustice and, therefore, strong 13 among the nations in its example of the will to peace.
14 [Franklin D. Roosevelt, Second Inaugural Address, January 20, 1937;
15 SOURCE: <http://www.bartleby.com/124/pres50.html>]

16 All biological people start out as “sovereigns” who are foreign to nearly every subject matter of federal and state
17 legislation:

18 “In common usage, the term ‘person’ does not include the sovereign, and statutes employing the word are 19 ordinarily construed to exclude it.”
20 [Wilson v. Omaha Indian Tribe, 442 U.S. 653, 667 (1979)]

21 The United States maintains it does not, invoking the Court’s “longstanding interpretive presumption that ‘person’
22 does not include the sovereign,” a presumption that “may be disregarded only upon some affirmative showing of 23 statutory intent to the contrary.” Brief for United States as Amicus Curiae 7-8 (quoting Vermont Agency of 24 Natural Resources v. United States ex rel. Stevens, 529 U.S. 765, 780-781 (2000)); see Will, 491 U.S. at 64.
25 [Inyo County, California v. Paiute Shoshone Indians, 538 U.S. 701 (2003)]

26 “Since in common usage, the term person does not include the sovereign, statutes not employing the phrase are 27 ordinarily construed to exclude it.”
28 [United States v. Cooper Corporation, 312 U.S. 600 (1941)]

29 When you exercise your right to contract by signing up for a government franchise or “public right”, there is an 30 implied waiver of sovereign immunity in respect to the other party to the contract and a new legal “person” is 31 created who is within the jurisdiction of the franchise agreement. The legal “person” who is created by the contract
32 is a “public officer” within the government granting the privilege or franchise. An example of such a statutory 33 person is found in the penalty provisions of the Internal Revenue Code:

34 TITLE 26 > Subtitle F > CHAPTER 68 > Subchapter B > PART I > § 6671
35 § 6671. Rules for application of assessable penalties

36 (b) Person defined

37 The term “person”, as used in this subchapter, includes an officer or employee of a corporation, or a member or 38 employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect
39 of which the violation occurs.

40 The legal “person” described above is a person who consented to the franchise agreement and who may therefore 41 become the lawful object of government enforcement activity. It otherwise constitutes an unconstitutional bill of 42 attainder to administratively penalize anyone without their consent, as indicated in Article 1, Section 10 and 43 Article 1, Section 9, Clause 3 of the U.S. Constitution.

44 U.S. Constitution
45 Article 1, Section 9, Clause 3

46 “No State shall pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts.” A bill 47 of attainder is a legislative act which inflicts punishment without a judicial trial.

Bill of attainder. Legislative acts, no matter what their form, that apply either to named individuals or to easily ascertainable members of a group in such a way as to inflict punishment on them without a judicial trial. United States v. Brown, 381 U.S. 437, 448-49, 85 S.Ct. 1707, 1715, 14 L.Ed. 484, 492; United States v. Lovett, 328 U.S. 303, 315, 66 S.Ct. 1073, 1079, 90 L.Ed. 1252. An act is a "bill of attainder" when the punishment is death and a "bill of pains and penalties" when the punishment is less severe; both kinds of punishment fall within the scope of the constitutional prohibition. U.S.Const. Art. I, Sect 9, Cl. 3 (as to Congress); Art. I, Sec. 10 (as to state legislatures).
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 165]

This "public officer" entity created by the exercise of your right to contract is alluded to in Bouvier's Maxims of Law, which states on the subject:

Quando duo juro concurrunt in und personâ, aequum est ac si essent in diversis.
When two rights concur in one person [public AND private rights], it is the same as if they were in two separate persons. 4 Co. 118.
[Bouvier's Maxims of Law, 1856;
SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/BouvierMaximsOfLaw/BouviereMaxims.htm>]

The rights they are talking about are "private rights" and "public rights" coexisting in the same physical person. This public officer is also a "trustee" of the "public trust", because public service is a "public trust":

"Trustee. Person holding property in trust. Restatement, Second, Trusts, §3(3). The person appointed, or required by law, to execute a trust. One in whom an implied agreement to administer or exercise it for the benefit or to the use of another. One who holds legal title to property "in trust" for the benefit of another person (beneficiary) and who must carry out specific duties with regard to the property. The trustee owes a fiduciary duty to the beneficiary. Reineck v. Smith, Ill., 289 U.S. 172, 53 S.Ct. 570, 77 L.Ed. 1109."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1514]

American Jurisprudence identifies a franchise as a temporary conveyance of "public property" to the franchisee for use and safekeeping for the benefit of the public at large:

"In a legal or narrower sense, the term "franchise" is more often used to designate a right or privilege conferred by law,<sup>56</sup> and the view taken in a number of cases is that to be a franchise, the right possessed must be such as cannot be exercised without the express permission of the sovereign power<sup>57</sup> –that is, a privilege or immunity of a public nature which cannot be legally exercised without legislative grant.<sup>58</sup> It is a privilege conferred by government on an individual or a corporation to do that "which does not belong to the citizens of the country generally by common right."<sup>59</sup> For example, a right to lay rail or pipes, or to string wires or poles along a public

The term "franchise" is generic, covering all the rights granted by the state. Atlantic & G. R. Co. v. Georgia, 98 U.S. 359, 25 L.Ed. 185.

street, is not an ordinary use which everyone may make of the streets, but is a special privilege, or franchise, to be granted for the accomplishment of public objects<sup>60</sup> which, except for the grant, would be a trespass.<sup>61</sup> In this connection, the term "franchise" has sometimes been construed as meaning a grant of a right to use public property, or at least the property over which the granting authority has control.<sup>62</sup>
[American Jurisprudence 2d., Franchises, §1: Definitions (1999)]

An example of the conveyance of “public property” for temporary use is the Social Security Number, which is identified as property NOT of the user, but of the Social Security Administration and the “public”:

Title 20: Employees' Benefits
PART 422—ORGANIZATION AND PROCEDURES
Subpart B—General Procedures
§422.103 Social security numbers.

(d) Social security number cards.

A person who is assigned a social security number will receive a social security number card from SSA within a reasonable time after the number has been assigned. (See §422.104 regarding the assignment of social security number cards to aliens.) Social security number cards are the property of SSA and must be returned upon request.

The conveyance of the Social Security Card and associated number to a private person makes that person into a “trustee” and “fiduciary” over the “public property” and creates an obligation to use everything it connects or attaches to ONLY for a “public purpose” and exclusively for the benefit of the public, who are the beneficiaries of the “public trust”. He holds temporary “title” to the card while it is in his possession and loses title when he returns it to the government. SSA Form SS-5 is the method for requesting temporary custody of the public property called the Social Security Card and becoming a “trustee” over said property. You will note that the form is entitled “Application for Social Security Card” and NOT “Application for Social Security Benefits”.

The ONLY definition of “income” found within the Internal Revenue Code, Section 643 is entirely consistent with the notion that it can only be earned by “trustees” or fiduciaries participating in federal franchises. The Social Security Trust, in fact, is the real “taxpayer”. Those representing the trust by using the number, which is “public

For purposes of this subpart and subparts B, C, and D, the term “income”, when not preceded by the words “taxable”, “distributable net”, “undistributed net”, or “gross”, means the amount of income of the estate or trust for the taxable year determined under the terms of the governing instrument and applicable local law. Items of gross income constituting extraordinary dividends or taxable stock dividends which the fiduciary, acting in good faith, determines to be allocable to corpus under the terms of the governing instrument and applicable local law shall not be considered income.

As we alluded to in the previous section, when you sign up to the government franchise, a trust is created in which you as the natural person become the “trustee” and “public officer” or “fiduciary” serving on behalf of the government. The entities created by exercising your right to contract with the government offering the franchise usually consist of a “public office”, which is a position of trust created for the exercise of powers under the franchise agreement. For instance, in exchange for exercising your First Amendment right to politically associate and thereby registering to vote in a community, you become a “public officer”. This is confirmed by 18 U.S.C. §201\(a\)\(1\):

§201. Bribery of public officials and witnesses

The franchise agreement then functions as the equivalent of a trust, and you become essentially an “employee” or “officer” of the trust. The trust, in turn, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the federal corporation called the “United States”, and which is defined in 28 U.S.C. §3002\(15\)\(A\).

(15) “United States” means -

(A) a Federal corporation;

(B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or

(C) an instrumentality of the United States.

A person who is acting as an “officer” or “public officer” of the United States federal corporation then becomes “an officer of a corporation” who is subject to the laws applying to the place of incorporation of that corporation, which is the District of Columbia in the case of the federal government. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17\(b\) recognizes this result explicitly by stating that the laws which apply are those of the place where the corporation itself is domiciled:

(b) Capacity to Sue or be Sued.

Capacity to sue or be sued is determined as follows:

(1) for an individual who is not acting in a representative capacity, by the law of the individual's domicile;

(2) for a corporation [a federal corporation called the "United States", in this case], by the law under which it was organized; and

(3) for all other parties, by the law of the state where the court is located, except that:

(A) a partnership or other unincorporated association with no such capacity under that state's law may sue or be sued in its common name to enforce a substantive right existing under the United States Constitution or laws; and

(B) 28 U.S.C. §§754 and 959(a) govern the capacity of a receiver appointed by a United States court to sue or be sued in a United States court.

When you signed up to become the "trustee" of the trust by making application for the franchise or public benefit, the trust becomes a "resident" in the eyes of the government: it becomes a "thing" that is now "identified" and which is within their legislative jurisdiction and completely subject to it. Hence, it is a "RES-IDENT" within government jurisdiction. Notice that a "res" is defined above as the "object of a trust above". They created the trust and you are simply the custodian and "trustee" over it as a "public officer". As the Creator of the trust, they and not you have full control and discretion over it and all those who participate in it. That trust is the "public trust" created by the Constitution and all laws passed pursuant to it.

18 (a) Financial institutions of the following classes are designated as Depositaries and Financial Agents of the 19 Government if they meet the eligibility requirements stated in paragraph (b) of this section:

20 (1) Financial institutions insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

21 (2) Credit unions insured by the National Credit Union
22 Administration.

23 (3) Banks, savings banks, savings and loan, building and loan, and homestead associations, credit unions

25 or by a corporation chartered by a State for the sole purpose of insuring deposits or accounts of such financial 26 institutions, United States branches of foreign banking corporations authorized by the State in which they are 27 located to transact commercial banking business, and Federal branches of foreign banking corporations, the 28 establishment of which has been approved by the Comptroller of the Currency.

29 (b) In order to be eligible for designation, a financial institution is required to possess, under its charter and 30 the regulations issued by its chartering authority, either general or specific authority to perform the services
31 outlined in Sec. 202.3(b). A financial institution is required also to possess the authority to pledge collateral to

35 The “privilege” or “benefit” of either receiving FDIC insurance, or recognition by the Comptroller of the 40 to the res of the trust and thereby donated to a “public use” to procure the benefits of the franchise, which consists

41 of deferred employment compensation to the trustee for managing the trust. The U.S. Supreme Court has said
42 that when a man donates his property to a “public use”, he implicitly gives the public the right to control that use.

7 11.4 Example: Christianity

8 The very same principles as government operates under with respect to “resident” also apply to Christianity as 9 well. When we become Christians, we consent to the contract or covenant with God called the Bible. That 10 covenant requires us to accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. This makes us a “resident” of Heaven and 11 “pilgrims and sojourners” (transient foreigners) on earth:

12 "For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ"
13 [Philippians 3:20, Bible, NKJV]

14 *"Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners [in relation to the Kingdom of Heaven], but fellow 15 citizens with the saints and members of the household of God."
16 [Ephesians 2:19, Bible, NKJV]

17 "These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them,
18 *embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims [transient foreigners] on the earth."
19 [Hebrews 11:13, Bible, NKJV]

20 "Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul..."
21 [1 Peter 2:11, Bible, NKJV]

22 For those who consent to the Bible covenant with God the Father, Jesus becomes our protector, spokesperson,
23 Counselor, and Advocate before the Father. We become a Member of His family!

24 Jesus' Mother and Brothers Send for Him

25 While He was still talking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with 26 Him. Then one said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with 27 You."

28 But He answered and said to the one who told Him, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?" And He 29 stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! For whoever does 30 the will of My Father in heaven is My brother and sister and mother."
31 [Matt. 12:46-50, Bible, NKJV]

32 By doing God's will on Earth and accepting His covenant or private contract with us, which is the Bible, He 33 becomes our Father and we become His children. The law of domicile says that children assume the same domicile
34 as their parents and are legally dependent on them:

35 A person acquires a domicile of origin at birth.<sup>69</sup> The law attributes to every individual a domicile of origin,<sup>70</sup>

6 The legal dependence they are talking about is God's Law, which then becomes our main source of protection and
7 dependence on God. We as believers then recognize Jesus' existence as a "thing" we "identify" in our daily life
8 and in return, He recognizes our existence before the Father. Here is what He said on this subject as proof:

9 Confess Christ Before Men

10 "Therefore whoever confesses Me [recognizes My legal existence under God's law, the Bible, and acknowledges
11 My sovereignty] before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me
12 before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven."
13 [Matt. 10:32-33, Bible, NKJV]

14 Below are some scriptural references that prove that all those who have availed themselves of the salvation
15 franchise become "fiduciaries" of God.

16 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My 17 Father in heaven."
18 Jesus in [Matt. 7:21, Bible, NKJV]

19 "He who has [understands and learns] My commandments [laws in the Bible (OFFSITE LINK)] and keeps
20 them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest
21 Myself to him."
22 [John 14:21, Bible, NKJV]

23 "And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love [obedience
24 to God's Laws] abides in [and is a FIDUCIARY of] God, and God in him."
25 [1 John 4:16, Bible, NKJV]

26 "Now by this we know that we know Him [God], if we keep His commandments. He who says, "I know Him," and 27 does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoever keeps His word, truly the 28 love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him [His fiduciaries]. He who says he abides in 29 Him [as a fiduciary] ought himself also to walk just as He [Jesus] walked."
30 [1 John 2:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

31 All of the following phrases above prove the existence of a fiduciary relation and/or agency:

32 ". . . he who does the will of My Father in heaven."

33 "God is love, and he who abides in love [obedience to God's Laws] abides in [and is a FIDUCIARY of] God,
34 and God in him."

35 "But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him [His 36 fiduciaries]."

37 In conclusion, you CAN'T claim to love God and therefore be a recipient of His gift of salvation WITHOUT 38 becoming His fiduciary, steward, agent, and ambassador on a foreign mission to an alien planet: Earth!
39 Furthermore, the Bible also implies that we CANNOT serve as an agent or fiduciary of ANYONE except the true
40 and living God!:

2 "You shall not make for yourself a carved image--any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in 3 the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; 5you shall not bow down to them nor SERVE
4 [worship or act as an AGENT for] them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God,
5 visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,
6 <sup>6</sup>but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments."
7 [Exodus 20:3-4, Bible, NKJV]

8 The above is also confirmed by the following scripture:

9 "Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame; for you will
10 forget the shame of your youth, and will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. For your
11 Maker is your husband, the Lord of hosts is His name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; He is
12 called the God of the whole earth, for the Lord has called you like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, like
13 a youthful wife when you were refused," says your God. "For a mere moment I have forsaken you, but with great
14 mercies I will gather you. With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting kindness
15 I will have mercy on you," says the Lord, your Redeemer."
16 [Isaiah 54:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

17 The California Family Code identifies those who are married as the equivalent of business partners with a fiduciary
18 duty towards each other. Therefore, they are agents, fiduciaries, and "trustees" of each other acting in the other's 19 best interest, not unlike we must act in relation to God as one of his children, stewards, and agents:

20 California Family Code
21 Section 721

22 (b) Except as provided in Sections 143, 144, 146, 16040, and 16047 of the Probate Code, in transactions between 23 themselves, a husband and wife are subject to the general rules governing fiduciary relationships which control
24 the actions of persons occupying confidential relations with each other. This confidential relationship imposes a 25 duty of the highest good faith and fair dealing on each spouse, and neither shall take any unfair advantage of the 26 other. This confidential relationship is a fiduciary relationship subject to the same rights and duties of nonmarital
27 business partners, as provided in Sections 16403, 16404, and 16503 of the Corporations Code, including, but not 28 limited to, the following:
29 SOURCE: [http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/cgi-

31 The above family code is a franchise, because you cannot become subject to it without first voluntarily applying
32 for and accepting a "marriage license". There is no such thing in California as "common law marriage", and so
33 you can't come under the jurisdiction of the California Family Code franchise without explicitly consenting in 34 writing. This licensed marriage creates a fiduciary duty and "trustee" relation between the THREE parties, one 35 of whom is the government. This is further explained in the document below:

36 11.5 Example: Opening a Bank Account

37 Let's use a simple example to illustrate our point in relation to the world. You want to open a checking account
38 at a bank. You go to the bank to open the account. The clerk presents you with an agreement that you must sign
39 before you open the account. If you won't sign the agreement, then the clerk will tell you that they can't open an 40 account for you. Before you sign the account agreement, the bank doesn't know anything about you and you
41 don't have an account there, so you are the equivalent of an "alien". An "alien" is someone the bank will not 42 recognize or interact with or help. They can only lawfully help "customers", not "aliens". After you exercise
43 your right to contract by signing the bank account agreement, then you now become a "resident" of the bank. You 44 are a "resident" because:

- 1 1. You are a “thing” that they can now “identify” in their computer system and their records because you have an “account”
2 there. They now know your name and “account number” and will recognize you when you walk in the door to ask for 3 help.
- 4 2. They issued you an ATM card and a PIN so you can control and manage your “account”. These things that they issued
5 you are the “privileges” associated with being party to the account agreement. No one who is not party to such an 6 agreement can avail themselves of such “privileges”.
- 7 3. The account agreement gives you the “privilege” to demand “services” from the bank of one kind or another. The legal 8 requirement for the bank to perform these “services” creates the legal equivalent of “agency” on their part in doing what 9 you want them to do. In effect, you have “hired” them to perform a “service” that you want and need.
- 10 4. The account agreement gives the bank the legal right to demand certain behaviors out of you of one kind or another. For 11 instance, you must pay all account fees and not overdraw your account and maintain a certain minimum balance. The 12 legal requirement to perform these behaviors creates the legal equivalent of “agency” on your part in respect to the bank.
- 13 5. The legal obligations created by the account agreement give the two parties to it legal jurisdiction over each other defined
14 by the agreement or contract itself. The contract fixes the legal relations between the parties. If either party violates the 15 agreement, then the other party has legal recourse to sue for exceeding the bounds of the “contractual agency” created
16 by the agreement. Any litigation that results must be undertaken consistent with what the agreement authorizes and in a 17 mode or “forum” (e.g. court) that the agreement specifies.

18 11.6 Summary

19 The government does things exactly the same way as how Christianity itself functions: They have created a civil 20 religion that is a substitute for and a violation of God’s law and plan for society. In that sense, they are a counterfeit
21 of God’s Biblical plan and a cheap, satanic imitation. Satan has always been an imitator of God’s creation. The 22 only difference is the product they deliver. The bank delivers financial services, and the government delivers
23 “protection” and “social” services. The account number is the social security number. You can’t have or use a
24 Social Security Number and avail yourself of its benefits without consenting to the jurisdiction of the franchise
25 agreement and trust document that authorized its’ issuance, which is the Social Security Act found in Title 42 of 26 the U.S. Code.

27 CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE
28 DIVISION 3. OBLIGATIONS
29 PART 2. CONTRACTS
30 CHAPTER 3. CONSENT
31 Section 1589

32
33 1589. A voluntary acceptance of the benefit of a [government benefit] transaction is equivalent to a consent to 34 all the obligations [and legal liabilities] arising from it, so far as the facts are known, or ought to be known, to 35 the person accepting.

36 Therefore, you can’t avail yourself of the “privileges” associated with the Social Security account agreement
37 without also being a “resident” of the “United States”, which means an alien who has signed a contract to procure
38 services from the government. That contract can be explicit, which means a contract in writing, or implicit,
39 meaning that it is created through your behavior. For instance, if you drive on the roads within a state, that act
40 implied your consent to be bound by the vehicle code of that state. In that sense, driving a car became a voluntary 41 exercise of your right to contract.

42 A mere innocent act can imply or trigger “constructive consent” to a legal contract, and in many cases, you may 43 not even be aware that you are exercising your right to contract. Watch out! For instance, the criminal code in 44 your state behaves like a contract. The “police” are simply there to enforce the contract. As a matter of fact, their 45 job was created by that contract. This is called the “police power” of the state. If you do not commit any of the 46 acts in the criminal or penal code, then you are not subject to it and it is “foreign” to you. You become the 47 equivalent of a “resident” within the criminal code and subject to the legislative jurisdiction of that code ONLY
48 by committing a “crime” identified within it. That “crime” triggers “constructive consent” to the terms of the 49 contract and all the obligations that flow from it, including prison time and a court trial. This analysis helps to 50 establish that in a free society, all law is a contract of one form or another, because it can only be passed by the 51 consent of the majority of those who will be subject to it. The people who will be subject to the laws of a “state”

1 are those with a “domicile” or “residence” within the jurisdiction of that “state”. Those who don’t have such a
2 “domicile” or “residence” and who are therefore not subject to the civil laws of that state are called “transient
3 foreigners”. This is a very interesting subject that we find most people are simply fascinated with, because it helps 4 to emphasize the “voluntary nature” of all law.

5 12 Legal standing and status of corporations in Federal Courts

6 12.1 Corporations are statutory but not constitutional “citizens”

7 In law, all corporations are considered to be statutory but not constitutional “citizens” or “residents” of the place
8 they were incorporated and of that place ONLY:

9 "A corporation is a citizen, resident, or inhabitant of the state or country by or under the laws of which it was 10 created, and of that state or country only."

12
13 "It is very true that a corporation can have no legal existence [STATUS such as STATUTORY “citizen” or 14 “resident”] out of the boundaries of the sovereignty by which it is created. It exists only in contemplation of 15 law, and by force of the law; and where the law ceases to operate, and is no longer obligatory, the corporation
16 can have no existence. It must dwell in the place of its creation, and cannot migrate to another sovereignty."

17 [Bank of Augusta v. Earle, 38 U.S. (13 Pet.) 519, 10 L.Ed. 274 (1839)]

18 Statutory citizenship, however, does not derive from citizenship under the constitution of a state of the Union.
19 The types of “citizens” spoken of in the United States Constitution are ONLY biological people and not artificial 20 creations such as corporations. Here is what the Annotated Fourteenth Amendment published by the 21 Congressional Research Service has to say about this subject:

22 "Citizens of the United States within the meaning of this Amendment must be natural and not artificial 23 persons; a corporate body is not a citizen of the United States.<sup>14</sup>

24
25 *14 Insurance Co. v. New Orleans, 13 Fed.Cas. 67 (C.C.D.La. 1870). Not being citizens of the United States,
26 corporations accordingly have been declared unable "to claim the protection of that clause of the Fourteenth
27 Amendment which secures the privileges and immunities of citizens of the United States against abridgment or 28 impairment by the law of a State." Orient Ins. Co. v. Daggs, 172 U.S. 557, 561 (1869) . This conclusion was in
29 harmony with the earlier holding in Paul v. Virginia, 75 U.S. (8 Wall.) 168 (1869), to the effect that corporations
30 were not within the scope of the privileges and immunities clause of state citizenship set out in Article IV, Sec. 2.

36 12.2 Corporations cannot sue in a CONSTITUTIONAL federal court and may only sue in a 37 STATUTORY franchise court

38 Provisions of the United States Constitution dealing with the capacity to sue or be sued in federal court dictate
39 that ONLY CONSTITUTIONAL “citizens” or “residents” may entertain suits in Article III federal court:

40 U.S. Constitution, Article III, Section 2

41 *The judicial Power shall extend to all Cases, in Law and Equity, arising under this Constitution, the Laws of the 42 United States, and Treaties made, or which shall be made, under their Authority;--to all Cases affecting 43 Ambassadors, other public ministers and Consuls;--to all Cases of admiralty and maritime Jurisdiction;--to 44 Controversies to which the United States shall be a Party;--to Controversies between two or more States;--
45 between a State and Citizens of another State;--between Citizens of different States;--between Citizens of the 46 same State claiming Lands under Grants of different States, and between a State, or the Citizens thereof, and 47 foreign States, Citizens or Subjects.*

1 The U.S. Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the “citizen” or “resident” they are talking about in the above
2 provision is CONSTITUTIONAL and not STATUTORY in nature.

3 It is important that the style and character of this party litigant, as well as the source and manner of its existence,
4 be borne in mind, as both are deemed material in considering the question of the jurisdiction of this court, and of
5 the Circuit Court. It is important, too, to be remembered, that the question here raised stands wholly unaffected
6 by any legislation, competent or incompetent, which may have been attempted in the organization of the courts
7 of the United States; but depends exclusively upon the construction of the 2d section of the 3d article of the 8 Constitution, which defines the judicial power of the United States; first, with respect to the subjects embraced
9 within that power; and, secondly, with respect to those whose character may give them access, as parties, to the 10 courts of the United States. In the second branch of this definition, we find the following enumeration, as 11 descriptive of those whose position, as parties, will authorize their pleading or being impleaded in those courts;
12 *and this position is limited to "controversies to which the United States are a party; controversies 97*97 between* 13 two or more States, — between citizens of different States, — between citizens of the same State, claiming lands
14 under grants of different States, — and between the citizens of a State and foreign citizens or subjects."

15 Now, it has not been, and will not be, pretended, that this corporation can, in any sense, be identified with the 16 United States, or is endowed with the privileges of the latter; or if it could be, it would clearly be exempted from 17 all liability to be sued in the Federal courts. Nor is it pretended, that this corporation is a State of this Union;
18 nor, being created by, and situated within, the State of New Jersey, can it be held to be the citizen or subject of a
19 foreign State. It must be, then, under that part of the enumeration in the article quoted, which gives to the 20 courts of the United States jurisdiction in controversies between citizens of different States, that either the 21 Circuit Court or this court can take cognizance of the corporation as a party; and this is, in truth, the sole
22 foundation on which that cognizance has been assumed, or is attempted to be maintained. The proposition,
23 then, on which the authority of the Circuit Court and of this tribunal is based, is this: The Delaware and 24 Raritan Canal Company is either a citizen of the United States, or it is a citizen of the State of New Jersey.
25 This proposition, startling as its terms may appear, either to the legal or political apprehension, is undeniably
26 the basis of the jurisdiction asserted in this case, and in all others of a similar character, and must be
27 established, or that jurisdiction wholly fails. Let this proposition be examined a little more closely.

28 The term citizen will be found rarely occurring in the writers upon English law; those writers almost universally
29 adopting, as descriptive of those possessing rights or sustaining obligations, political or social, the term subject,
30 as more suited to their peculiar local institutions. But, in the writers of other nations, and under systems of polity
31 deemed less liberal than that of England, we find the term citizen familiarly reviving, and the character and the 32 rights and duties that term implies, particularly defined. Thus, Vattel, in his 4th book, has a chapter, (cap. 6th,) the title of which is: "The concern a nation may have in the actions of her citizens." A few words from the text of 33 that chapter will show the apprehension of this author in relation to this term. "Private persons," says he, "who 34 are members of one nation, may offend and ill-treat the citizens of another; it remains for us to examine what 35 share a state may have in the actions of her citizens, and what are the rights and obligations of sovereigns in that
36 respect." And again: "Whoever uses a citizen ill, indirectly offends the state, which is bound to protect this 37 *citizen." The meaning of the term citizen 98*98 or subject, in the apprehension of English jurists, as indicating* 38 persons in their natural character, in contradistinction to artificial or fictitious persons created by law, is 39 further elucidated by those jurists, in their treatises upon the origin and capacities and objects of those artificial
40 persons designated by the name of corporations. Thus, Mr. Justice Blackstone, in the 18th chapter of his 1st
41 volume, holds this language: "We have hitherto considered persons in their natural capacities, and have treated
42 of their rights and duties. But, as all personal rights die with the person; and, as the necessary forms of investing
43 a series of individuals, one after another, with the same identical rights, would be inconvenient, if not 44 impracticable; it has been found necessary, when it is for the advantage of the public to have any particular 45 rights kept on foot and continued, to constitute artificial persons, who maintain a perpetual succession, and 46 enjoy a kind of legal immortality. These artificial persons are called corporations."

47
48 This same distinguished writer, in the first book of his Commentaries, p. 123, says, "The rights of persons are
49 such as concern and are annexed to the persons of men, and when the person to whom they are due is regarded,
50 are called simply rights; but when we consider the person from whom they are due, they are then denominated,
51 duties," And again, cap. 10th of the same book, treating of the PEOPLE, he says, "The people are either aliens,
52 that is, born out of the dominions or allegiance of the crown; or natives, that is, such as are born within it." Under 53 our own systems of polity, the term, citizen, implying the same or similar relations to the government and to 54 society which appertain to the term, subject, in England, is familiar to all. Under either system, the term used is 55 designed to apply to man in his individual character, and to his natural capacities; to a being, or agent,
56 possessing social and political rights, and sustaining, social, political, and moral obligations. It is in this 57 acceptation only, therefore, that the term, citizen, in the article of the Constitution, can be received and 58 understood. When distributing the judicial power, that article extends it to controversies between citizens of 59 different States. This must mean the natural physical beings composing those separate communities, and can,
60 by no violence of interpretation, be made to signify artificial, incorporeal, theoretical, and invisible creations.
61 A corporation, therefore, being not a natural person, but a mere creature of the mind, invisible and intangible,
62 cannot be a citizen of a State, or of the United States, and cannot fall within the terms or the power of the 63 above-mentioned article, and can therefore neither plead nor be impleaded in the courts of the United States.
64 *Against this position it may be urged, that the 99*99 converse thereof has been ruled by this court, and that this*
65 matter is no longer open for question. In answer to such an argument, I would reply, that this is a matter involving 66 a construction of the Constitution, and that wherever the construction or the integrity of that sacred instrument

1 is involved, I can hold myself trammelled by no precedent or number of precedents. That instrument is above all
2 precedents; and its integrity every one is bound to vindicate against any number of precedents, if believed to
3 trench upon its supremacy. Let us examine into what this court has propounded in reference to its jurisdiction in 4 cases in which corporations have been parties; and endeavor to ascertain the influence that may be claimed for 5 what they have heretofore ruled in support of such jurisdiction. The first instance in which this question was 6 brought directly before this court, was that of the Bank of the United States v. Deveaux, 5 Cranch, 61. An 7 examination of this case will present a striking instance of the error into which the strongest minds may be led,
8 whenever they shall depart from the plain, common acceptance of terms, or from well ascertained truths, for the 9 attainment of conclusions, which the subtlest ingenuity is incompetent to sustain. This criticism upon the decision
10 in the case of the Bank v. Deveaux, may perhaps be shielded from the charge of presumptuousness, by a 11 subsequent decision of this court, hereafter to be mentioned. In the former case, the Bank of the United States,
12 a corporation created by Congress, was the party plaintiff, and upon the question of the capacity of such a
13 party to sue in the courts of the United States, this court said, in reference to that question, "The jurisdiction
14 of this court being limited, so far as respects the character of the parties in this particular case, to controversies
15 between citizens of different States, both parties must be citizens, to come within the description. That invisible, 16 intangible, and artificial being, that mere legal entity, a corporation aggregate, is certainly not a citizen, and 17 consequently cannot sue or be sued in the courts of the United States, unless the rights of the members in this 18 respect can be exercised in their corporate name. If the corporation be considered as a mere faculty, and not
19 as a company of individuals, who, in transacting their business, may use a legal name, they must be excluded
20 from the courts of the Union." The court having shown the necessity for citizenship in both parties, in order to 21 give jurisdiction; having shown farther, from the nature of corporations, their absolute incompatibility with 22 citizenship, attempts some qualification of these indisputable and clearly stated positions, which, if intelligible at 23 all, must be taken as wholly subversive of the positions so laid down. After stating the requisite of citizenship, and 24 showing that a corporation 100*100 cannot be a citizen, "and consequently that it cannot sue or be sued in the 25 courts of the United States," the court goes on to add, "unless the rights of the members can be exercised in their 26 corporate name." Now, it is submitted that it is in this mode only, viz. in their corporate name, that the rights of 27 the members can be exercised; that it is this which constitutes the character, and being, and functions of a
28 corporation. If it is meant beyond this, that each member, or the separate members, or a portion of them, can take 29 to themselves the character and functions of the aggregate and merely legal being, then the corporation would 30 be dissolved; its unity and perpetuity, the essential features of its nature, and the great objects of its existence,
31 would be at an end. It would present the anomaly of a being existing and not existing at the same time. This 32 strange and obscure qualification, attempted by the court, of the clear, legal principles previously announced by 33 them, forms the introduction to, and apology for, the proceeding, adopted by them, by which they undertook to 34 adjudicate upon the rights of the corporation, through the supposed citizenship of the individuals interested in 35 that corporation. They assert the power to look beyond the corporation, to presume or to ascertain the residence
36 of the individuals composing it, and to model their decision upon that foundation. In other words, they affirm that 37 in an action at law, the purely legal rights, asserted by one of the parties upon the record, may be maintained by 38 showing or presuming that these rights are vested in some other person who is no party to the controversy before
39 them.

40 Thus stood the decision of the Bank of the United States v. Deveaux, wholly irreconcilable with correct definition,
41 and a puzzle to professional apprehension, until it was encountered by this court, in the decision of the Louisville
42 and Cincinnati Railroad Company v. Letson, reported in 2 Howard, 497. In the latter decision, the court, unable 43 to untie the judicial entanglement of the Bank and Deveaux, seem to have applied to it the sword of the conqueror;
44 but, unfortunately, in the blow they have dealt at the ligature which perplexed them, they have severed a portion
45 of the temple itself. They have not only contravened all the known definitions and adjudications with respect to 46 the nature of corporations, but they have repudiated the doctrines of the civilians as to what is imported by the 47 term subject or citizen, and repealed, at the same time, that restriction in the Constitution which limited the 48 jurisdiction of the courts of the United States to controversies between "citizens of different States." They have 49 asserted that, "a corporation created by, and transacting business in a State, is to be deemed an inhabitant of the 50 State, capable of being treated 101*101 as a citizen, for all the purposes of suing and being sued, and that an 51 averment of the facts of its creation, and the place of transacting its business, is sufficient to give the circuit 52 court's jurisdiction.

53 The first thing which strikes attention, in the position thus affirmed, is the want of precision and perspicuity in its 54 terms. The court affirm that a corporation created by, and transacting business within a State, is to be deemed 55 an inhabitant of that State. But the article of the Constitution does not make inhabitancy a requisite of the 56 condition of suing or being sued; that requisite is citizenship. Moreover, although citizenship implies the right
57 of residence, the latter by no means implies citizenship. Again, it is said that these corporations may be treated
58 as citizens, for the purpose of suing or being sued. Even if the distinction here attempted were comprehensible, it
59 would be a sufficient reply to it, that the Constitution does not provide that those who may be treated as citizens, 60 may sue or be sued, but that the jurisdiction shall be limited to citizens only; citizens in right and in fact. The 61 distinction attempted seems to be without meaning, for the Constitution or the laws nowhere define such a
62 being as a quasi citizen, to be called into existence for particular purposes; a being without any of the attributes
63 of citizenship, but the one for which he may be temporarily and arbitrarily created, and to be dismissed from 64 existence the moment the particular purposes of his creation shall have been answered. In a political, or legal 65 sense, none can be treated or dealt with by the government as citizens, but those who are citizens in reality. It
66 would follow, then, by necessary induction, from the argument of the court, that as a corporation must be treated
67 as a citizen, it must be so treated to all intents and purposes, because it is a citizen. Each citizen (if not under old 68 governments) certainly does, under our system of polity, possess the same rights and faculties, and sustain the 69 same obligations, political, social, and moral, which appertain to each of his fellow-citizens. As a citizen, then,

1 of a State, or of the United States, a corporation would be eligible to the State or Federal legislatures; and if
2 created by either the State or Federal governments, might, as a native-born citizen, aspire to the office of 3 President of the United States — or to the command of armies, or fleets, in which last example, so far as the 4 character of the commander would form a part of it, we should have the poetical romance of the spectre ship
5 realized in our Republic. And should this incorporeal and invisible commander not acquit himself in color or in 6 conduct, we might see him, provided his arrest were practicable, sent to answer his delinquencies before a court-
7 martial, and subjected to the penalties 102*102 of the articles of war. Sir Edward Coke has declared, that a
8 corporation cannot commit treason, felony, or other crime; neither is it capable of suffering a traitor's or felon's
9 punishment; for it is not liable to corporeal penalties — that it can perform no personal duties, for it cannot take 10 an oath for the due execution of an office; neither can it be arrested or committed to prison, for its existence being 11 ideal, no man can arrest it; neither can it be excommunicated, for it has no soul. But these doctrines of Lord Coke
12 were founded upon an apprehension of the law now treated as antiquated and obsolete. His lordship did not 13 anticipate an improvement by which a corporation could be transformed into a citizen, and by that transformation
14 be given a physical existence, and endowed with soul and body too. The incongruities here attempted to be shown
15 as necessarily deducible from the decisions of the cases of the Bank of the United States v. Deveaux, and of the 16 Cincinnati and Louisville Railroad Company v. Letson, afford some illustration of the effects which must ever
17 follow a departure from the settled principles of the law. These principles are always traceable to a wise and 18 deeply founded experience; they are, therefore, ever consentaneous, and in harmony with themselves and with 19 reason; and whenever abandoned as guides to the judicial course, the aberration must lead to bewildering
20 uncertainty and confusion. Conducted by these principles, consecrated both by time and the 21 obedience of sages, I am brought to the following conclusions: 1st. That by no sound or 22 reasonable interpretation, can a corporation — a mere faculty in law, be transformed
23 into a citizen, or treated as a citizen. 2d. That the second section of the third article of 24 the Constitution, investing the courts of the United States with jurisdiction in 25 controversies between citizens of different States, cannot be made to embrace 26 controversies to which corporations and not citizens are parties; and that the 27 assumption, by those courts, of jurisdiction in such cases, must involve a palpable
28 infraction of the article and section just referred to. 3d. That in the cause before us, the 29 party defendant in the Circuit Court having been a corporation aggregate, created by the 30 State of New Jersey, the Circuit Court could not properly take cognizance thereof; and,
31 therefore, this cause should be remanded to the Circuit Court, with directions that it be 32 dismissed for the want of jurisdiction.

33 [Rundle Et Al v. Delaware and Raritan Canal Company, 55 U.S. 80 (1852)]

34 12.3 Only PRIVATE natural beings can sue in CONSTITUTIONAL court and they must 35 privately invoke the RIGHTS of the corporation franchise in doing so

36 The following case mentioned in the above case also establishes that when someone sues in an Article III
37 CONSTITUTIONAL court, they must do so in their own name as a natural being and invoke rights associated 38 with the corporation. They cannot sue as a corporation, even if they are officers:

39 "Aliens, or citizens of different states, are not less susceptible of these apprehensions, nor can they be supposed
40 *to be less the objects of constitutional provision, because they are allowed to sue by a corporate name. That
41 name, indeed, cannot be an alien or a citizen; but the persons whom it represents may be the one or the other;
42 and the controversy is, in fact and in law, between those persons suing in their corporate character, by their
43 corporate name, for a corporate right, and the individual against whom the suit may be instituted. Substantially*
44 **88 and essentially, the parties in such a case, where the members of the corporation are aliens, or citizens of a*
45 different state from the opposite party, come within the spirit and terms of the jurisdiction conferred by the 46 constitution on the national tribunals."

47 [. . .]

48 If the constitution would authorize congress to give the courts of the union jurisdiction in this case, in
49 consequence of the character of the members of the corporation, then the judicial act ought to be construed to
50 give it. For the term citizen ought to be understood as it is used in the constitution, and as it is used in other
51 laws. That is, to describe the real persons who come into court, in this case, under their corporate name.

52 That corporations composed of citizens are considered by the legislature as citizens, under certain [STATUTORY 53 but not CONSTITUTIONAL] circumstances, is to be strongly inferred from the registering act. It never could be 54 intended that an American registered vessel, abandoned to an insurance company composed of citizens, should 55 lose her character as an American vessel; and yet this would be the consequence of declaring that the members 56 of the corporation were, to every intent and purpose, out of view, and merged in the corporation.

1 The court feels itself authorized by the case in 12 Mod. on a question of jurisdiction, to look to 92*92 the
2 character of the individuals who compose the corporation, and they think that the precedents of this court,
3 though they were not decisions on argument, ought not to be absolutely disregarded.”
4 [Bank of United States v. Deveaux, 9 U.S. 61(1809)]

5 We wish to emphasize that if you face a corporation in a federal court and they plead in their own name instead
6 of as individuals representing the corporation, then you can only do so in an Article IV, Section 3, Clause 2
7 franchise court and against a FEDERAL corporation domiciled in the District of Columbia and NOT within any 8 state of the Union. Examples of such Article IV and/or franchise courts include:

- 9 1. “United States District Courts”. Only “District Courts of the United States” as identified in Article III are 10 CONSTITUTIONAL courts. There are no such courts remaining after they were disestablished in the early 1900’s.

11 The term 'District Courts of the United States,' as used in the rules, without an addition expressing a wider
12 *connotation, has its historic significance. It describes the constitutional courts created under article 3 of the 13 Constitution. Courts of the Territories are legislative [FRANCHISE] courts, properly speaking, and are not
14 District Courts of the United States. We have often held that vesting a territorial court with jurisdiction similar
15 to that vested in the District Courts of the United States does not make it a 'District Court of the United States.'
16 Reynolds v. United States, 98 U.S. 145, 154; The City of Panama, 101 U.S. 453, 460; In re Mills, 135 U.S. 263,
17 268, 10 S.Ct. 762; McAllister v. United States, 141 U.S. 174, 182, 183 S., 11 S.Ct. 949; Stephens v. Cherokee

19 38; United States v. Burroughs, 289 U.S. 159, 163, 53 S.Ct. 574. Not only did the promulgating order use the 20 term District Courts of the United States in its historic and proper sense, but the omission of provision for the 21 application of the rules to the territorial courts and other courts mentioned in the authorizing act clearly shows
22 the limitation that was intended.
23 [Mookini v. United State, 303 U.S. 201 (1938)]

- 24 2. Circuit Courts of the United States acting in their appellate jurisdiction. These are presumed to be LEGISLATIVE 25 FRANCHISE courts because no enactment of congress EXPRESSLY establishes them with Article III jurisdiction.
26 The only capacity in which they can act as Article III courts is under Supreme Court Rule 17, when a traveling 27 supreme court justice hears the case.

28 Rule 17.
29 Procedure in an Original Action

32 extraordinary writ in aid of the Court's appellate jurisdiction shall be filed as provided in Rule 20.

- 33 3. U.S. Supreme Court in its APPELLATE jurisdiction from lower district courts. Only when acting in the ORIGINAL 34 jurisdiction can it act in an Article III capacity.

43 (3) All actions or proceedings by a State against the citizens of another State or against aliens.

- 44 4. United States Tax Court. This court is an Article I franchise court per 26 U.S.C. §7441.

45 The subject of whether a court is an Article III CONSTITUTIONAL court or an Article IV
46 STATUTORY/FRANCHISE court is exhaustively dealt with in the following document:

Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030, Section 21
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

1 The content of this section explains why:

- 2 1. Corporations are considered franchises of the government and officers of the corporation are public officers: Because 3 the common law and constitutional law do not permit them to be regulated so they must join the government and be 4 regulated through franchise contracts.
- 5 2. You cannot sue the government, which is a corporation, without its consent: It DOESN'T PHYSICALLY EXIST and 6 therefore can only act through REAL agents and officers!
- 7 3. When the government violates your right, you have to sue the HUMAN BEING who injured you and not the 8 "government" or "United States" as a legal person.
- 9 4. The IRS cannot lawfully enforce against PRIVATE people and can only enforce against those who HAVE and who 10 USE government license numbers. The SSN and TIN act as de facto licenses to exercise the functions of a public 11 office within the "U.S. Inc." federal corporation identified in 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A).
- 12 5. The "United States" government is identified as a "foreign corporation" in relation to a Constitutional State: because 13 all those inside the state are statutory aliens and it is "foreign" not only in CONSTITUTIONAL STATE courts, but 14 also CONSTITUTIONAL FEDERAL courts! Anything that DOESN'T LEGALLY EXIST is ALWAYS "foreign".

15 "The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state"
16 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum \(C.J.S.\), Corporations, §§883-884 \(2003\)]

- 17 6. When the government prosecutes a crime, it must do so in the name of a specific, flesh and blood injured person.
- 18 7. When the government sues in federal civil court, they name "United States of America" as the Plaintiff, which is a 19 PRIVATE corporation incorporated in the state of Delaware rather than a de jure government. See:

SEDM Exhibit #08.007 http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm
---

20 Keep in mind also the following crucial facts if you face the government in a federal CONSTITUTIONAL court 21 as defendant or respondent:

- 22 1. Because only INDIVIDUALS can sue in federal court under diversity of citizenship, then their case has to be 23 dismissed since they are not a natural being.
- 24 2. If they defend your request to dismiss the case against you in federal civil court by stating that the court is an Article 25 IV legislative franchise court, then they also have to satisfy the burden of proving that:
  - 26 2.1. The matter involves a public right.
  - 27 2.2. You were lawfully elected or appointed to a public office and are therefore surety for the office exercising the 28 right.
  - 29 2.3. You were domiciled on federal territory at the time you were elected or appointed, so that you could "alienate" an 30 otherwise "inalienable right" and become a public officer.

41 13 How Legitimate De Jure Governments are transformed into De Facto Private Corporations

42 This section will explain in greater detail the techniques described at the end of section 1 for transforming a 43 legitimate de jure government into a de facto private corporation.

13.1 Background

Going along with the notion of corporatization of the government is privatization of the government. By privatization, we mean that:

1. Franchises are used to UNLAWFULLY recruit and procure new public officers of the private corporate government. When people sign up for franchises, they:
  - 1.1. Change their status and their domicile from foreign to domestic in relation to the national government under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).
  - 1.2. Abandon the body politic and join the body corporate as an officer of the federal corporation participating in franchises. The Beast is really just a for-profit de facto corporation impersonating a de jure government. As the Bible would say "It has a form of godliness, but denies the power [of the PEOPLE who created it] thereof."
  - 1.3. Abandon the rights protected by the Constitution and voluntarily exchange them for statutory privileges as a public officer in the government. Since all governments are corporations, then those receiving government benefits are "officers of a corporation" under 26 U.S.C. §6671(b) and 26 U.S.C. §7343. It is otherwise illegal to pay PUBLIC funds to private persons, so you must become a "public officer" and a "public person" to receive payments or "benefits" from the government.
2. Statutory "U.S. citizens" and "permanent residents" with a domicile in the "United States" are treated as de facto officers of a private federal corporation.
  - 2.1. They hired on as "employees" (5 U.S.C. §2105(a)) and public officers the minute they filled out a government form describing themselves as "U.S. citizens".
  - 2.2. Choosing the "U.S. citizen" status is the method by which they politically and legally associated with the body corporate but NOT the body politic.
  - 2.3. All the statutes passed by the corporation are special law and private law that can only lawfully apply to officers of the corporation called statutory "U.S. citizens" under 8 U.S.C. §1401. In that sense, nearly all law is just corporate policy disguised to look like public law that applies to those who don't work for the corporation. See:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
  - 2.4. Government agencies will summarily deny service to those who are not officers of the corporation called by impeding or refusing the processing of any government form submitted that does not describe the applicant as an officer of the corporation called a statutory "U.S. citizen".
  - 2.5. Information returns such as IRS Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, and 1099 connected with tax administration are being used to involuntarily "elect" formerly private parties into public office within the federal government without their consent. Since these returns are filed annually, people are "elected" annually into public office within the private corporate government. 26 U.S.C. §6041(a) says these information returns can only be lawfully filed for those engaged in a "trade or business", which in turn is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office". If you don't rebut these usually false reports, then you just got elected and will not only NOT receive compensation, but will have to PAY for the "privilege" of occupying said public office under the terms of the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitles A and C public officer kickback program, franchise, and "employment" agreement. See:

Correcting Erroneous Information Returns, Form #04.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
3. The state and federal governments we have now are private, for-profit corporations that are PRETENDING to be "public trusts" for the equal benefit of all, but really only benefit the rulers:
  - 3.1. These corporations are no longer tied to a territory or land mass. After the Civil War and the enactment of the first federal income tax in 1862 and the corporatization of the U.S. government in 1871, all the states of the Union rewrote their constitutions to remove references to their territorial boundaries and became corporations with no territory. In a sense, they divorced themselves from the land and became a strictly political entity. Everything they do is a consequence of contract and consent, and contracts know no place. These contracts consist of franchise agreements, and all franchises are the subject of a contract<sup>79</sup>:

9 Note that the de jure constitutions from before the Civil War were not repealed, but simply replaced with new ones
10 no longer tied to specific territorial boundaries, making them “bodies corporate” and removing the status of “body 11 politic” from them.

12 3.2. These de facto corporations are called the “State of _____” or the “United States”. The corporate charter is called:

13 3.2.1. The United States Constitution instead of the “United States of America Constitution” in the case of the federal 14 government.

15 3.2.2. The new State constitutions as opposed to the old de jure constitutions.

16 3.3. Those who are “employees” and “officers” of this corporation are the only ones with a “domicile” or “residence”
17 within this private, for-profit corporation. All such “persons” doing business with this corporation are required to 18 present a “license” to act in the capacity of officer of this corporation, and this de facto license is called a Social 19 Security Number (SSN) of the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN). The instructions for IRS Form 1042-S admit
20 that you only need the number when you are engaging in a “trade or business”, which is then defined in 26 U.S.C.
21 §7701(a)(26) as “the functions of a public office”:

- 27 • Any foreign person claiming a reduced rate of, or exemption from, tax under a tax treaty between a 28 foreign country and the United States, unless the income is an unexpected payment (as described in 29 Regulations section 1.1441-6(g)) or consists of dividends and interest from stocks and debt obligations
30 that are actively traded; dividends from any redeemable security issued by an investment company
31 registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (mutual fund); dividends, interest, or royalties
32 from units of beneficial interest in a unit investment trust that are (or were, upon issuance) publicly 33 offered and are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 34 1933; and amounts paid with respect to loans of any of the above securities.
- 35 • Any nonresident alien individual claiming exemption from tax under section 871(f) for certain 36 annuities received under qualified plans.
- 37 • A foreign organization claiming an exemption from tax solely because of its status as a tax-exempt 38 organization under section 501(c ) or as a private foundation.
- 39 • Any QI.
- 40 • Any WP or WT.
- 41 • Any nonresident alien individual claiming exemption from withholding on compensation for 42 independent personal services [services connected with a “trade or business”].
- 43 • Any foreign grantor trust with five or fewer grantors.
- 44 • Any branch of a foreign bank or foreign insurance company that is treated as a U.S. person.

45 If a foreign person provides a TIN on a Form W-8, but is not required to do so, the withholding agent must 46 include the TIN on Form 1042-S.

47 [IRS Form 1042-S Instructions (2006), p. 14]

48 3.4. Government forms, such as tax and court forms, which ask you to declare that you are “within the State of _____” or 49 “within the United States” under penalty of perjury are really asking you to indicate that you are an officer serving
50 WITHIN the government and therefore subject to the direct, statutory supervision of the government without the 51 need for implementing regulations. It would otherwise be illegal for them to directly enforce federal or state statutes
52 against private individuals, because the ability to regulate private conduct is repugnant to the Constitution.

- 9 4. The goal of the state and federal governments has shifted from the equal benefit of all in the public under a charitable 10 "public trust" to the private benefit of a few under a "private trust" . If you don't have a license number and participate
11 in any government franchise, you don't even exist legally and they won't talk to you or service you. Equal protection,
12 on the other hand, requires that they must service EVERYONE, including those without "employment" (public office)
13 account numbers called Social Security Numbers (SSNs) or Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TINs). In effect, those 14 having or using licenses to act as public officers in the form of Social Security Numbers and Taxpayer Identification
15 Numbers are in receipt of an unconstitutional "title of nobility" and enjoy special privileges not enjoyed by private 16 persons. This, of course, violates the intent of the U.S. Constitution, which forbids "titles of nobility" in Art. 1, Section 17 9, Clause 8 and Article 1, Section 10.
- 18 5. What courts call "public service" is really "private service" or simply "private employment".
- 19 5.1. We never had a real judicial branch. Our federal courts have always been Executive Branch agencies that administer 20 federal franchises.
- 21 5.2. Our federal courts are really nothing but legislatively created corporate "franchise courts" and "corporate arbitration 22 boards" established under Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the constitution, not Article III constitutional courts.

23 See:

<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/WhatHappJustice/WhatHappJustice.htm>

- 24 6. Government and especially courts are illegally abusing sovereign immunity to protect and extend the private, for-profit 25 corporate franchise monopolies represented by our present de facto state and federal corporate/private 26 pseudo=governments:
- 27 6.1. Sovereign immunity can only lawfully be used to protect a public purpose, not a private purpose.
- 28 6.2. Courts and executive branch agencies are lying to the public by labeling what they do as a "public purpose" that is 29 susceptible to protection under the judicial doctrine of sovereign immunity.
- 30 7. Both State and Federal de facto Governments have abandoned the republics established by Article 4, Section 4 and the 31 Articles of Confederation and unconstitutionally moved all their operations to federal territory and implemented nearly 32 all of the services they offer exclusively through fee-based franchises. The Constitution identifies itself as "the law of 33 the land" and "the land" they are talking about is ONLY federal territory! This devious scheme to replace "rights" with 34 "privileges":
- 35 7.1. Can only lawfully operate on federal territory not protected by the Bill of Rights. The Declaration of Independence
36 says our rights are "unalienable", which means that they cannot be bargained away in relation to the government in 37 places where they exist and therefore cannot be forfeited under the terms of a franchise agreement. Consequently,
38 any attempt to offer franchises to persons domiciled on land protected by the Bill of Rights constitutes a criminal 39 conspiracy against rights in violation of 42 U.S.C. §1983 and 18 U.S.C. §241.

40 "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
41 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
42 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
43 --"
44 [Declaration of Independence]

45 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
46 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

- 47 7.2. Has shifted the basis for operating the government from that of "equal protection" to "unequal privilege".
48 Everything that happens on federal territory is privileged and requires statutory authorization from the government
49 because there are not rights on most federal territory, but only statutory privileges.
- 50 7.3. Compels those who require any kind of government service to commit perjury on a government form and declare
51 themselves to be domiciled on federal territory by identifying themselves to be a statutory "U.S. citizen" pursuant 52 to 8 U.S.C. §1401, a statutory "resident" (alien) pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(b)(1)(A), or a statutory "U.S. person"
53 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(30). This allows formerly "private" men and women to take on a "public" character
54 and thereby become a "person", an "individual" as defined in 5 U.S.C. §552a(a)(2), and "federal personnel" as defined in 5 U.S.C. §552a\(a\)\(13\) who may then and only then lawfully participate in this enfranchised form of government as a “public officer”.

- 7.4. Destroys the separation of powers between what is “public” and what is “private” and between the states of the Union and the federal government. The constitution is supposed to separate what is “public” from what is “private” in order mainly to protect what is private from the encroachments of the government. Everything that is “public” occurs on federal territory and your devious lawyer “public servants” must move you to federal territory and make you into a “public officer” before they can legislate for you or enforce the legislation against you. See the following for how they do this:

Federal Enforcement Authority Within States of the Union, Form #05.032
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 7.5. Causes nearly all Americans to effectively become “public officers” within the government by virtue of their participation in federal franchises and makes them subject to law that is exclusively intended for the government rather than private individuals. See:

8. The meaning of the word “state” has been systematically shifted from “We the People” collectively within a jurisdiction to the people working as public officers exclusively within the private corporation called “State of _____”. Attorneys admitted to practice law now take an oath to the government and not the “state” which it serves. In that sense:

8.1. Persons within the government are no longer obligated to recognize the sovereignty of the People as human beings.

8.2. The source of sovereignty has shifted from “We the People” to the public servants, thereby creating a dulocracy.

The words “so much license and privilege” in the definition should be a clue that the tables were turned upside down using franchises.

“Dulocracy. A government where servants and slaves have so much license and privilege that they domineer.”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 501]

- 8.3. Attorneys have a conflict of interest and no longer serve “the state” in its classical de jure meaning.

“State. A people permanently occupying a fixed territory bound together by common-law habits and custom into one body politic exercising, through the medium of an organized government, independent sovereignty and control over all persons and things within its boundaries, capable of making war and peace and of entering into international relations with other communities of the globe. United States v. Kusche, D.C.Cal., 56 F.Supp. 201 207, 208. The organization of social life which exercises sovereign power in behalf of the people. Delany v. Moralitis, C.C.A.Md., 136 F.2d. 129, 130. In its largest sense, a “state” is a body politic or a society of men. Beagle v. Motor Vehicle Acc. Indemnification Corp., 44 Misc.2d. 636, 254 N.Y.S.2d. 763, 765. A body of people occupying a definite territory and politically organized under one government. State ex re. Maisano v. Mitchell, 155 Conn. 256, 231 A.2d. 539, 542. A territorial unit with a distinct general body of law. Restatement, Second, Conflicts, §3. Term may refer either to body politic of a nation (e.g. United States) or to an individual government unit of such nation (e.g. California).”
[Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1407]

“I do solemnly swear or affirm to support the Constitution of the United States. That I will bear true faith and allegiance to the government [not “the State”, but the “government”] of the United States. That I will maintain respect due to the courts of justice, and judicial officers, and that I will demean myself as an attorney proctor, advocate, solicitor, and counselor of this court uprightly. (So help me God)

“I certify that I am a member in good standing of the Bar of the State of California.”

9. The purpose for the existence of our so-called “government” is the financial and personal benefit of those who serve in it and “invest” in it through payroll deductions, and not the “public” at large. In that sense, so-called “government employees” are engaging in a “private purpose” rather than a “public purpose”. Anything you must surrender rights or obtain a license to participate in and which results in a government subsidy, or “social insurance” constitutes a “private” and not “public” purpose.

“Public purpose. In the law of taxation, eminent domain, etc., this is a term of classification to distinguish the objects for which, according to settled usage, the government is to provide, from those which, by the like usage, are left to private interest, inclination, or liberality. The constitutional requirement that the purpose of any tax, police regulation, or particular exertion of the power of eminent domain shall be the convenience, safety, or welfare of the entire community and not the welfare of a specific individual or class of persons [such as, for instance, federal benefit recipients as individuals]. “Public purpose” that will justify expenditure of public money generally means such an activity as will serve as benefit to community as a body and which at same time is directly related function of government. Pack v. Southwestern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 Tenn. 503, 387 S.W.2d. 789, 794.

The term is synonymous with governmental purpose. As employed to denote the objects for which taxes may be levied, it has no relation to the urgency of the public need or to the extent of the public benefit which is to follow; the essential requisite being that a public service or use shall affect the inhabitants as a community, and not merely as individuals. A public purpose or public business has for its objective the promotion of the public health, safety, morals, general welfare, security, prosperity, and contentment of all the inhabitants or residents within a given political division, as, for example, a state, the sovereign powers of which are exercised to promote such public purpose or public business.”

“To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under legislative forms.

Nor is it taxation. ‘A tax,’ says Webster’s Dictionary, ‘is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.’ ‘Taxes are burdens or charges imposed by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.’ Cooley, Const. Lim., 479.

Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John’s Church, 13 Pa.St. 104 says, very forcibly, ‘I think the common mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they are imposed for a public purpose.’ See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St. 69; Matter of Mayor of N.Y., 11 Johns., 77; Camden v. Allen, 2 Dutch., 398; Sharpless v. Mayor, supra; Hanson v. Vernon, 27 Ia., 47; Whiting v. Fond du Lac, supra.”

13.2 Rules for Changing a Republic Based on Equality to a Monarchy Based on Inequality and Privilege

Those who had opposed the Constitution thought their fears justified by the conduct of the government that began to function in 1789. Under the aggressive leadership of Alexander Hamilton, the secretary of the treasury, economic measures were taken that favored the few, while an effective party machine was organized and the army strengthened in such a way as to suggest an intent to control rather than to represent the many. The whole tone of Washington's administration was aristocratic, favoring as it did the educated, the wealthy, the clergy, and the press, who were fearful of "mob rule" and preferred to see what Hamilton called "gentlemen of principle and property" in command. As Hamilton had at his service a newspaper --- John Fenno's Gazette of the United States --- to support his policies, his opponents, led by Jefferson and Madison, decided to establish a rival newspaper, the National Gazette. Philip Freneau, an experienced journalist of known democratic leanings, was chosen to edit the paper. The editorial, reprinted here, is typical of those in which Freneau criticized the Hamiltonian program from 1791 to 1793.

Rules for changing a limited republican government into an unlimited hereditary one.

1. It being necessary, in order to effect the change, to get rid of constitutional shackles and popular prejudices, all possible means and occasions are to be used for both these purposes.

1 2. Nothing being more likely to prepare the vulgar mind for aristocratical ranks and hereditary powers than titles,
2 endeavor in the offset of the government to confer these on its most dignified officers. If the principal magistrate
3 should happen to be particularly venerable in the eyes of the people, take advantage of that fortunate circumstance
4 in setting the example.

5 3. Should the attempt fail through his republican aversion to it, or from the danger of alarming the people, do not
6 abandon the enterprise altogether, but lay up the proposition in record. Time may gain it respect, and it will be 7 there always ready, cut and dried, for any favorable conjuncture that may offer.

8 4. In drawing all bills, resolutions, and reports, keep constantly in view that the limitations in the Constitution are 9 ultimately to be explained away. Precedents and phrases may thus be shuffled in, without being adverted to by 10 candid or weak people, of which good use may afterward be made.

11 5. As the novelty and bustle of inaugurating the government will for some time keep the public mind in a heedless
12 and unsettled state, let the press during this period be busy in propogating the doctrines of monarchy and 13 aristocracy. For this purpose it will be particularly useful to confound a mobbish democracy with a representative
14 republic, that by exhibiting all the turbulent examples and enormities of the former, an odium may be thrown on 15 the character of the latter. Review all the civil contests, convulsions, factions, broils, squabbles, bickerings, black 16 eyes, and bloody noses of ancient, middle, and modern ages; caricature them into the most frightful forms and
17 colors that can be imagined; and unfold one scene of the horrible tragedy after another till the people be made, if 18 possible, to tremble at their own shadows. Let the discourses on Davila then contrast with these pictures of terror 19 the quiet of hereditary succession, the reverence claimed by birth and nobility, and the fascinating influence of 20 stars, and ribands, and garters, cautiously suppressing all the bloody tragedies and unceasing oppressions which 21 form the history of this species of government. No pains should be spared in this part of the undertaking, for the 22 greatest will be wanted, it being extremely difficult, especially when a people have been taught to reason and feel 23 their rights, to convince them that a king, who is always an enemy to the people, and a nobility, who are perhaps 24 still more so, will take better care of the people than the people will take of themselves.

25 6. But the grand nostrum will be a public debt, provided enough of it can be got and it be medicated with the 26 proper ingredients. If by good fortune a debt be ready at hand, the most is to be made of it. Stretch it and swell it
27 to the utmost the items will bear. Allow as many extra claims as decency will permit. Assume all the debts of your 28 neighbors --- in a word, get as much debt as can be raked and scraped together, and when you have got all you
29 can, "advertise" for more, and have the debt made as big as possible. This object being accomplished, the next 30 will be to make it as perpetual as possible; and the next to that, to get it into as few hands as possible. The more 31 effectually to bring this about, modify the debt, complicate it, divide it, subdivide it, subtract it, postpone it, let 32 there be one-third of two-thirds, and two-thirds of one-third, and two-thirds of two-thirds; let there be 3 percents,
33 and 4 percents, and 6 percents, and present 6 percents, and future 6 percents. To be brief, let the whole be such a 34 mystery that a few only can understand it; and let all possible opportunities and informations fall in the way of 35 these few, to clinch their advantages over the many.

36 7. It must not be forgotten that the members of the legislative body are to have a deep stake in the game. This is 37 an essential point, and happily is attended with no difficulty. A sufficient number, properly disposed, can 38 alternately legislate and speculate, and speculate and legislate, and buy and sell, and sell and buy, until a due
39 portion of the property of their constituents has passed into their hands to give them an interest against their
40 constituents, and to ensure the part they are to act. All this, however, must be carried on under cover of the closest
41 secrecy; and it is particularly lucky that dealings in paper admit of more secrecy than any other. Should a discovery
42 take place, the whole plan may be blown up.

43 8. The ways in which a great debt, so constituted and applied, will contribute to the ultimate end in view are both
44 numerous and obvious. (1) The favorite few, thus possessed of it, whether within or without the government, will 45 feel the staunchest fealty to it, and will go through thick and thin to support it in all its oppressions and usurpations.
46 (2) Their money will give them consequence and influence, even among those who have been tricked out of it.

1 (3) They will be the readiest materials that can be found for a hereditary aristocratic order, whenever matters are
2 ripe for one. (4) A great debt will require great taxes; great taxes, many taxgatherers and other officers; and all
3 officers are auxiliaries of power. (5) Heavy taxes may produce discontents; these may threaten resistance; and in
4 proportion to this danger will be the pretense for a standing army to repel it. (6) A standing army, in its turn, will
5 increase the moral force of the government by means of its appointments, and give it physical force by means of 6 the sword, thus doubly forwarding the main object.

7 9. The management of a great funded debt and an extensive system of taxes will afford a plea, not to be neglected,
8 for establishing a great incorporated bank. The use of such a machine is well understood. If the Constitution, 9 according to its fair meaning, should not authorize it, so much the better. Push it through by a forced meaning and 10 you will get in the bargain an admirable precedent for future misconstructions.

11 In fashioning the bank, remember that it is to be made particularly instrumental in enriching and aggrandizing the 12 elect few, who are to be called in due season to the honors and felicities of the kingdom preparing for them, and
13 who are the pillars that must support it. It will be easy to throw the benefit entirely into their hands, and to make 14 it a solid addition of 50, or 60, or 70 percent to their former capitals of 800 percent, or 900 percent, without costing 15 them a shilling; while it will be so difficult to explain to the people that this gain of the few is at the cost of the 16 many, that the contrary may be boldly and safely pretended. The bank will be pregnant with other important
17 advantages. It will admit the same men to be, at the same time, members of the bank and members of the 18 government. The two institutions will thus be soldered together, and each made the stronger. Money will be put 19 under the direction of the government, and government under the direction of money. To crown the whole, the 20 bank will have a proper interest in swelling and perpetuating the public debt and public taxes, with all the blessings
21 of both, because its agency and its profits will be extended in exact proportion.

22 10. "Divide and govern" is a maxim consecrated by the experience of ages, and should be as familiar in its use to 23 every politician as the knife he carries in his pocket. In the work here to be executed, the best effects may be 24 produced by this maxim, and with peculiar facility. An extensive republic made up of lesser republics necessarily 25 contains various sorts of people, distinguished by local and other interests and prejudices. Let the whole group be 26 well examined in all its parts and relations, geographical and political, metaphysical and metaphorical; let there
27 be first a northern and a southern section, by a line running east and west, and then an eastern and western section,
28 by a line running north and south. By a suitable nomenclature, the landholders cultivating different articles can be 29 discriminated from one another, all from the class of merchants, and both from that of manufacturers.

30 One of the subordinate republics may be represented as a commercial state, another as a navigation state, another
31 as a manufacturing state, others as agricultural states; and although the great body of the people in each be really 32 agricultural, and the other characters be more or less common to all, still it will be politic to take advantage of 33 such an arrangement. Should the members of the great republic be of different sizes, and subject to little jealousies
34 on that account, another important division will be ready formed to your hand. Add again the divisions that may 35 be carved out of personal interests, political opinions, and local parties. With so convenient an assortment of votes, 36 especially with the help of the marked ones, a majority may be packed for any question with as much ease as the 37 odd trick by an adroit gamester, and any measure whatever be carried or defeated, as the great revolution to be 38 brought about may require.

39 It is only necessary, therefore, to recommend that full use be made of the resource; and to remark that, besides the 40 direct benefit to be drawn from these artificial divisions, they will tend to smother the true and natural one, existing 41 in all societies, between the few who are always impatient of political equality and the many who can never rise
42 above it; between those who are to mount to the prerogatives and those who are to be saddled with the burdens of 43 the hereditary government to be introduced --- in one word, between the general mass of the people, attached to 44 their republican government and republican interests, and the chosen band devoted to monarchy and Mammon. It
45 is of infinite importance that this distinction should be kept out of sight. The success of the project absolutely 46 requires it.

1 11. As soon as sufficient progress in the intended change shall have been made, and the public mind duly prepared
2 according to the rules already laid down, it will be proper to venture on another and a bolder step toward a removal
3 of the constitutional landmarks. Here the aid of the former encroachments and all the other precedents and way-
4 paving maneuvers will be called in of course. But, in order to render success the more certain, it will be of special
5 moment to give the most plausible and popular name that can be found to the power that is to be usurped. It may 6 be called, for example, a power for the common safety or the public good, or, "the general welfare." If the people
7 should not be too much enlightened, the name will have a most imposing effect. It will escape attention that it
8 means, in fact, the same thing with a power to do anything the government pleases "in all cases whatsoever." To 9 oppose the power may consequently seem to the ignorant, and be called by the artful, opposing the "general
10 welfare," any may be cried down under that deception.

11 As the people, however, may not run so readily into the snare as might be wished, it will be prudent to bait it well 12 with some specious popular interest, such as the encouragement of manufactures, or even of agriculture, taking 13 due care not even to mention any unpopular object to which the power is equally applicable, such as religion, etc.
14 By this contrivance, particular classes of people may possibly be taken in who will be a valuable reinforcement.

15 With respect to the patronage of agriculture there is not indeed much to be expected from it. It will be too quickly
16 seen through by the owners and tillers of the soil, that to tax them with one hand and pay back a part only with 17 the other is a losing game on their side. From the power over manufactures more is to be hoped. It will not be so 18 easily perceived that the premium bestowed may not be equal to the circuitous tax on consumption which pays it.
19 There are particular reasons, too, for pushing the experiment on this class of citizens.

20 (1) As they live in towns and can act together, it is of vast consequence to gain them over to the interest of 21 monarchy. (2) If the power over them be once established, the government can grant favors or monopolies, as it
22 pleases; can raise or depress this or that place, as it pleases; can gratify this or that individual, as it pleases; in a
23 word, by creating a dependence in so numerous and important a class of citizens, it will increase its own
24 independence of every class and be more free to pursue the grand object in contemplation. (3) The expense of this 25 operation will not in the end cost the government a shilling, for the moment any branch of manufacture has been 26 brought to a state of tolerable maturity the exciseman will be ready with his constable and his search warrant to 27 demand a reimbursement, and as much more can be squeezed out of the article. All this, it is to be remembered,
28 supposes that the manufacturers will be weak enough to be cheated, in some respects, out of their own interests,
29 and wicked enough, in others, to betray those of their fellow citizens; a supposition that, if known, would totally 30 mar the experiment. Great care, therefore, must be taken to prevent it from leaking out.

31 12. The expediency of seizing every occasion of external danger for augmenting and perpetuating the standing
32 military force is too obvious to escape. So important is this matter that for any loss or disaster whatever attending 33 the national arms, there will be ample consolation and compensation in the opportunity for enlarging the 34 establishment. A military defeat will become a political victory, and the loss of a little vulgar blood contribute to 35 ennoble that which flows in the veins of our future dukes and marquesses.

36 13. The same prudence will improve the opportunity afforded by an increase of military expenditures for 37 perpetuating the taxes required for them. If the inconsistency and absurdity of establishing a perpetual tax for a 38 temporary service should produce any difficulty in the business, Rule 10 must be resorted to. Throw in as many 39 extraneous motives as will make up a majority, and the thing is effected in an instant. What was before evil will 40 become good as easily as black could be made white by the same magical operation.

41 14. Throughout this great undertaking it will be wise to have some particular model constantly in view. The work
42 can then be carried on more systematically, and every measure be fortified, in the progress, by apt illustrations
43 and authorities. Should there exist a particular monarchy against which there are fewer prejudices than against 44 any other; should it contain a mixture of the representative principle so as to present on one side the semblance of 45 a republican aspect; should it, moreover, have a great, funded, complicated, irredeemable debt, with all the 46 apparatus and appurtenances of excises, banks, etc., upon that a steady eye is to be kept. In all cases it will assist,

1 and in most its statute book will furnish a precise pattern by which there may be cut out any moneyed or 2 monarchical project that may be wanted.

3 15. As it is not to be expected that the change of a republic into a monarchy, with the rapidity desired, can be
4 carried through without occasional suspicions and alarms, it will be necessary to be prepared for such events. The
5 best general rule on the subject is to be taken from the example of crying "Stop thief" first --- neither lungs nor 6 pens must be spared in charging every man who whispers, or even thinks, that the revolution on foot is meditated,
7 with being himself an enemy to the established government and meaning to overturn it. Let the charge be reiterated
8 and reverberated till at last such confusion and uncertainty be produced that the people, being not able to find out
9 where the truth lies, withdraw their attention from the contest.

10 Many other rules of great wisdom and efficacy might be added; but it is conceived that the above will be 11 abundantly enough for the purpose. This will certainly be the case if the people can be either kept asleep so as not 12 to discover, or be thrown into artificial divisions so as not to resist, what is silently going forward. Should it be 13 found impossible, however, to prevent the people from awakening and uniting; should all artificial distinctions
14 give way to the natural division between the lordly minded few and the well-disposed many; should all who have 15 common interest make a common cause and show an inflexible attachment to republicanism in opposition to a 16 government of monarchy and of money, why then * * *

19 private corporation<sup>80</sup>

20 The United States went "Bankrupt" in 1933 and was declared so by President Roosevelt by Executive Orders
21 6073, 6102, 6111 and Executive Order No. 6260, [See: Senate Report 93-549, pgs. 187 & 594 under the "Trading
22 With The Enemy Act" [Sixty-Fifth Congress, Sess. I, Chs. 105, 106, October 6, 1917], and as codified at 12
23 U.S.C.A. §95a. The several States of the Union then pledged the faith and credit thereof to the aid of the National 24 Government, and formed numerous socialist committees, such as the "Council Of State Governments," "Social 25 Security Administration" etc., to purportedly deal with the economic "Emergency." These Organizations operated 26 under the "Declaration Of INTERdependence" of January 22, 1937, and published some of their activities in "The 27 Book Of The States." The 1937 Edition of The Book Of The States openly declared that the people engaged in 28 such activities as the Farming/Husbandry Industry had been reduced to mere feudal "Tenants" on their Land.
29 [Book Of The States, 1937, pg. 155] This of course was compounded by such activities as price fixing wheat and 30 grains [7 U.S.C.A. §1903], quota regulation 17 U.S.C.A. §1371], and livestock products [7 U.S.C.A. §1903],
31 which have been held consistently below the costs of production; interest on loans and inflation of the paper "Bills
32 of Credit"; leaving the food producers and others in a state of peonage and involuntary servitude, constituting the 33 taking of private property, for the benefit and use of others, without just compensation.

34 Note: The Council Of State Governments has now been absorbed into such things as the "National Conference
35 Of Commissioners On Uniform State Laws," whose Headquarters Office is located at 676 North Street, Clair
36 Street, Suite 1700, Chicago, Illinois 60611, and "all" being "members of the Bar," and operating under a different
37 "Constitution And By-Laws" has promulgated, lobbied for, passed, adjudicated and ordered the implementation
38 and execution of their purported statutory provisions, to "help implement international treaties of the United States
39 or where world uniformity would be desirable." [See: 1990/91 Reference Book, National Council Of 40 Commissioners On Uniform State Laws, pg. 2] This is apparently what Robert Bork meant when he wrote "we 41 are governed not by law or elected representatives but by an unelected, unrepresentative, unaccountable committee
42 of lawyers applying no will but their own." [See: The Tempting Of America. Robert H. Bork. pg. 130]

1 The United States thereafter entered the second World War during which time the "League of Nations" was
2 reinstated under pretense of the "United Nations" and the "Bretton Woods Agreement." [See: 60 Stat. 1401]
3 The United States as a corporate body politic (artificial), came out of World War II in worse economic shape than 4 when it entered, and in 1950 declared Bankruptcy and "Reorganization." The Reorganization is located in Title
5 5 of United States Codes Annotated. The "Explanation" at the beginning of 5 U.S.C.A. is most informative
6 reading. The "Secretary of Treasury" was appointed as the "Receiver" in Bankruptcy. [See: Reorganization Plan
7 No. 26. 5 U.S.C.A. §903. Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5967] The United States went down the 8 road and periodically filed for further Reorganization. Things and situations worsened, having done what they 9 were Commanded NOT to do, [See: Madison's Notes, Constitutional Convention, August 16, 1787, Federalist
10 Paper No. 44 and in 1965 passed the "Coinage Act of 1965" completely debasing the Constitutional Coin (gold &
11 silver i.e. Dollar)]. [See: 18 U.S.C.A. §§331 & 332, U.S. v. Marigold, 50 U.S. 560, 13 L.Ed. 257] At the signing
12 of the Coinage Act on July 23, 1965, Lyndon B. Johnson stated in his Press Release that:

13 "When I have signed this bill before me, we will have made the first fundamental change in our coinage in 173
14 years. The Coinage Act of 1965 supersedes the Act of 1792. And that Act had the title: An Act Establishing a 15 Mint and Regulating the Coinage of the United States ..."

16 "Now I will sign this bill to make the first change in our coinage system since the 18th Century. To those members
17 of Congress, who are here on this historic occasion, I want to assure you that in making this change from the 18 18th Century we have no idea of returning to it."

19 It is important to take cognizance of the fact that NO Constitutional Amendment was ever obtained to 20 FUNDAMENTALLY "CHANGE," amend, abridge, or abolish the Constitutional mandates, provisions, or 21 prohibitions, but due to internal and external diversions surrounding the Viet Nam War, etc., the usurpation and 22 breach went basically unchallenged and unnoticed by the general public at large, who became "a wealthy man's 23 cannon fodder or cheap source of slave labor." [See: Silent Weapons For Quiet Wars, TM-SW7905.1, pgs. 6, 7,
24 8, 9, 12, 13 and 56] Congress was clearly delegated the Power and Authority to regulate and maintain the true
25 and inherent "value" of the Coin within the scope and purview of Article I, Section 8, Clauses 5 & 6 and Article
26 I, Section 10, Clause 1, of the ordained Constitution (1787), and further, under a corresponding duty and obligation
27 to maintain said gold and silver Coin and Foreign Coin at and within the necessary and proper "equal weights and 28 measures" clause. [See also: Bible, Deuteronomy, Chapter 25, verses 13 through 16, Public Law 97-289, 96 Stat.
29 1211]

30 Those exercising the Offices of the several States, in equal measure, knew such "De Facto Transitions" were 31 unlawful and unauthorized, but sanctioned, implemented and enforced the complete debauchment and the 32 resulting "governmental, social, industrial economic change" in the "De Jure" States and in United States of 33 America [See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5936, 5945, 31 U.S.C.A. §314, 31 U.S.C.A. §321,
34 31 U.S.C.A. §5112, C. (Colorado) R.S. 11-61-101, C.R.S. 39-22-103.5 and C.R.S. 18-11-203, and were and are 35 now under the delusion that they can do both directly and indirectly what they were absolutely prohibited from 36 doing. [See also, Federalist Paper No. 44, Craig vs. Missouri, 4 Peters 903]

37 In 1966, Congress being severely compromised, passed the "Federal Tax Lien Act of 1966, by which the entire 38 taxing and monetary system i.e. "Essential Engine" [See: Federalist Paper No. 31] was placed under the Uniform
39 Commercial Code (U.C.C.). [See: Public Law 89-719, Legislative History, pg. 3722, also see: C. (Colorado) R.S.
40 5-1-106] The Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.) was, of course, promulgated by the National Conferences Of 41 Commissioners On Uniform State Laws in collusion with the American Law Institute for the "banking and 42 business interests." [See: Handbook Of The National Conference Of Commissioners On Uniform State Laws, 43 (1966) Ed. pgs, 152 & 153] The United States being engaged in numerous U.N. conflicts, including the Korean
44 and the Viet Nam conflicts, which were under the direction of the United Nations [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §287d], and 45 agreeing to foot the bill [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §287j], and not being able to honor their obligations and re-
46 hypothecated debt credit, openly and publicly dishonored and disavowed their "Notes" and "obligations" [12
47 U.S.C.A. §411] i.e. "Federal Reserve Notes" through Public Law 90-262, Section 2, 82 Stat. 50 (1968) to wit:

48 "Sec. 2. The first sentence of section 15 of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 391) is amended by striking 'and 49 the funds provided in this Act for the redemption of Federal Reserve notes'."

1 Things steadily grew worse and on March 28, 1970; President Nixon issued Proclamation No. 3972, declaring an
2 "emergency" because the Postal Employees struck against the de facto government(?) for higher pay, due to
3 inflation of the paper "Bills of Credit." [See: Senate Report No. 93-549. pg. 596] Nixon placed the U.S. Postal 4 Department under control of the "Department of Defense." [See: Department Of The Army Field Manual. FM 41-
5 10 (1969 ed.)]

6 "The System has been faltering for a decade, but the bench mark date of the collapse is put at August 15, 1971.
7 On this day, President Nixon reversed U.S. international monetary policy by officially declaring the non-
8 convertibility of the U.S. dollar [F.R.N.] into gold."
9 [See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5937 & Senate Report No. 93-549, Foreword, pg. III.
10 Proclamation No. 4074, pg. 597, 31 U.S.C.A. §314 & 31 U.S.C.A. §5112]

11 On September 21, 1973. Congress passed Public Law 93-110, amending the Bretton Woods Par Value
12 Modification Act, 82 Stat. 116, [31 U.S.C.A. §412], and reiterated the "Emergency," [12 U.S.C.A. §95a], and 13 Section 8 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act of 1945 [22 U.S.C.A. §286f], and which included "reports of 14 foreign currency transactions." [Also see: Executive Order No. 10033] This Act further declared in Section 2(b) 15 that:

16 "No provision of any law in effect on the date of enactment of this Act, and no rule, regulation, or order under 17 authority of any such law, may be construed to prohibit any person from purchasing, holding, selling, or otherwise 18 dealing with gold."

19 On January 19, 1976, Marjorie S. Holt noted for the record, a second "Declaration Of INTERdependence" and 20 clearly identified the U.N. as a "Communist" organization, and that they were seeking both production and 21 monetary control over the Union and the People through International Organization promoting the "One World
22 Order," [8 U.S.C.A. §1101(40)] also see [50 U.S.C.A. §§781 & 783]

23 The social/economic situation worsened as noted in the Complaint/Petition filed in the U.S. Court of Claims,
24 Docket No. 41-76, on February 11, 1976, by 44 Federal Judges. [Atkins et al. vs. U.S.] Atkins et al. complained
25 that "As a result of inflation, the compensation of federal judges has been substantially diminished each year since 26 1969, causing direct and continuing monetary harm to plaintiffs ... the real value of the dollar decreased by 27 approximately 34.5 percent from March 15th, 1969 to October 1, 1975. As a result, plaintiffs have suffered an 28 unconstitutional deprivation of earnings," and in the prayer for relief claimed "damages for the constitutional
29 violations enumerated above, measured as the diminution of his earnings for the entire period since March 9,
30 1969." It is quite apparent that the persons holding and enjoying Offices of Public Trust, Honor and for-profit 31 knew of the emergency emergent problem and sought protection for themselves, to the damage and injury of the 32 People and Children, who were classified as "a club that has many other members" who "have no remedy." And 33 knowing that "heinous" acts had been committed, stated that they [judges/lawyers] would not apply the Law, nor 34 would any substantive remedy be applied ("checked more or less, but never stopped) "until all of us [judges] are 35 dead." Such persons Fraudulently swore an Oath to uphold, defend and preserve the sovereignty of the Nation
36 and several Republican States of the Union, and breached the Duty to protect the People/Citizens and their 37 Posterity from fraud, imposition, avarice and stealthy encroachment. [See: Atkins et al. vs. U.S., 556 F.2d. 1028,
38 pg. 1072, 1074, The Tempting Of America, supra, pgs. 155-159, also see: 5 U.S.C.A. §§5305 & 5335, Senate
39 Report No. 93-549, pgs. 69-71, C. (Colorado) R.S. 24-75-101] This is verified in Public Law 94-564, Legislative 40 History, pg. 5944, which states:

41 "Moving to a floating exchange rate for international commerce means private enterprise and not central 42 governments bear the risk of currency fluctuations."

43 Numerous serious debates were held in Congress, including but not limited to, Tuesday, July 27, 1976 [See:
44 Congressional Record - House, July 27, 1976] concerning the International Financial Institutions and their 45 operations. Representative, Ron Paul, Chairman of the House Banking Committee, made numerous references to 46 the true practices of the "International" financial institutions, including but not limited to, the conversion of 47 27,000,000 (27 million) in gold, contributed by the United States as part of its "quota obligations," which the 48 International Monetary Fund (Governor-Secretary of Treasury) sold [See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History,

1 pg. 5945 & 5946] under some very questionable terms and concessions. [Also see: The Ron Paul Money Book,
2 (1991), by Ron Paul, Plantation Publishing. 837 W. Plantation, Clute, Texas 77531]

3 On October 28, 1977 the passage of Public Law 95-147, [91 Stat. 1227] declared most banking institutions,
4 including State banks, to be under direction and control of the corporate "Governor" of the International Monetary
5 Fund [See: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5942, United States Government Manual 1990/91, pgs.
6 480-481]. The Act further declared that:

7 "(2) Section 10(a) of the Gold Reserve Act of 1934 (31 U.S.C. 822a(b)) is amended by striking out the phrase
8 'stabilizing the exchange value of the dollar' ... "

9 " (c) The joint resolution entitled ' Joint resolution to assure uniform value to the coins and currencies of the 10 United States', approved June 5, 1933 (31 U.S.C. 463) shall not apply to obligations issued on or after the date
11 of enactment of this section."

12 The United States, as Corporator, [22 U.S.C.A. §286e, et seq.] and "State" [C. (Colorado) R.S. 24-36-104, C.R.S.
13 24-60-1301(h)] had declared "Insolvency." [See: 26 U.S.C. §165(g)(1), U.C.C. §1-201(23), C.R.S. 39-22-103.5,
14 Westfall vs. Braley, 10 Ohio 188, 75 Am. Dec. 509, Adams vs. Richardson, 337 S.W.2d. 911, Ward v. Smith, 7
15 Wall. 447] A permanent state of "Emergency" was instituted, formed and erected within the Union through the 16 contrivances, fraud, and avarice of the International Financial Institutions, Organizations, Corporations and 17 Associations, including the Federal Reserve, their "fiscal and depository agent." [22 U.S.C.A. §286d] This has 18 led to such "Emergency" legislation is the "Public Debt Limit- Balance Budget And Emergency Deficit Control
19 Act of 1985," Public Law 99-177, etc.

20 The government, by becoming a corporator, [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §286e] lays down its sovereignty and takes on that 21 of a private citizen. It can exercise no power which is not derived from the corporate charter. [See: The Bank of 22 the United States vs. Planters Bank of Georgia, 6 L.Ed. (9 Wheat) 244, U.S. v. Burr, 309 U.S. 242] The real party
23 of interest is not the de jure "United States of America" or "State," but "The Bank" and "The Fund." [22 U.S.C.A.
24 §286, et seq., C. (Colorado) R.S. 11-60- 103] The acts committed under fraud, force, and seizures are many times
25 done under "Letters of Marque and Reprisal" i.e. "recapture." [See: 31 U.S.C.A. §5323] Such principles as "Fraud
26 and Justice never dwell together" [Wingate's Maxims 680], and "A right of action cannot arise out of fraud."
27 [Broom's Maxims 297, 729; Cowper's Reports 343; 5 Scott's New Reports 558; 10 Mass. 276; 38 Fed. 800] And 28 do not rightfully contemplate the thought concept, as "Due Process," "Just Compensation" and Justice itself.
29 Honor is earned by honesty and integrity, not under false and fraudulent pretenses, nor will the color of the cloth
30 one wears cover-up the usurpations, lies, trickery, and deceits. When Black is fraudulently declared to be White,
31 not all will live in darkness. As astutely observed by Will Rogers, "there are men running governments who 32 shouldn't be allowed to play with matches," and is as applicable today as Jesus' statements about Lawyers.

33 The contrived "emergency" has created numerous abuses and usurpations, and abridgments of delegated Powers
34 and Authority. As stated in Senate Report 93-549:

35 "These proclamations give force to 470 provisions of Federal law. These hundreds of statutes delegate to the 36 President extraordinary powers, ordinarily exercised by the Congress, which affect the lives of American citizens
37 in a host of all-encompassing manners. This vast range of powers, taken together, confer enough authority to 38 rule the country without reference to normal constitutional process.

39 "Under the powers delegated by these statutes, the President may; seize property; organize and control the means
40 of production; seize commodities; assign military forces abroad; institute martial law; seize and control all
41 transportation and communication; regulate the operation of private enterprise; restrict travel; and in a plethora
42 of particular ways, control the lives of all American citizens."

43 [See: Foreword, pg. III,

44 SOURCE: <http://www.famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/Articles/SenateReport93-549.htm>]

45 The "Introduction," on page 1, begins with a phenomenal declaration, to wit:

1 "A majority of the people of the United States have lived all of their lives under emergency rule. For 40 years,
2 freedoms and governmental procedures guaranteed by the Constitution have in varying degrees been abridged
3 by laws brought into force by states of national emergency ..."

4 According to the research done in 16 American Jurisprudence, 2nd Edition, Constitution, Sections 71 and 82
5 (1999), no "emergency" justifies a violation of any Constitutional provision. Arguendo, "Supremacy Clause" and
6 "Separation of Powers," it is clearly admitted in Senate Report No. 93-549 that abridgment has occurred. The 7 statements heard in the Federal and State Tribunals, on numerous occasions, that Constitutional arguments are 8 "immaterial," "frivolous," etc., are based upon the concealment, furtherance, and compounding of the Frauds and 9 "Emergency" created and sustained by the "Expatriated," ALIENS of the United Nations and its Organizations,
10 Corporations, and Associations. [See: Letter, Insight Magazine, February 18, 1991, pg. 7, Lowell L. Flanders,
11 President, U.N. Staff Union, New York]. Please note that, [8 U.S.C.A. §1481] is one of the controlling Statutes
12 on expatriation, as is [22 U.S.C.A. §§611, 612, & 613] and [50 U.S.C.A. §781].

13 The Internal Revenue Service entered into a "service agreement" with the U.S. Treasury Department [See: Public
14 Law 94-564; Legislative History, pg. 5967; Reorganization Plan No. 26] and the Agency for International 15 Development, pursuant to Treasury Delegation Order No. 91. The Agency For International Development is an 16 International paramilitary operation [See: Department Of The Army Field Manual, (1969) FM 41-10, pgs. 1-4,
17 Sec. 1-7(b) & 1-6, Section 1-10(7)(c)(1), 22 U.S.C.A. §284], and includes such activities as "Assumption of full 18 or partial executive, legislative, and judicial authority over a country or area." [See: FM 41-10, pg. 1-7, Section
19 110(7)(c)(4)] also see, Agreement Between The United Nations And The United States Of America Regarding 20 The Headquarters Of The United Nations, Section 7(d) & (8), 22 U.S.C.A. §287 (1979 Ed.) at pg. 241. It is to be 21 further observed that the "Agreement" regarding the Headquarters District of the United Nations was NOT agreed
22 to [See: Congressional Record - Senate, December 13, 1967, Mr. Thurnond], and is illegally in the Country in the 23 first instant.

24 The International Organizational intents, purposes, and activities include complete control of "Public Finance" i.e.
25 "control, supervision, and audit of indigenous fiscal resources, budget practices, taxation. expenditures of public
26 funds, currency issues, and banking agencies and affiliates." [See: FM 41-10, pgs. 2-30 through 2-31, Section
27 251. Public Finance] This of course complies with "Silent Weapons For Quiet Wars" Research Technical Manual
28 TM-SW7905.1, which discloses a declaration of war upon the American people (See: pgs. 3 & 7), monetary
29 control by the Internationalist, through information etc., solicited and collected by the Internal Revenue Service
30 [See: TM-S\7905.1, pg. 48, also see, 22 U.S.C.A. §286F & Executive Order No. 10033, 26 U.S.C.A.
31 §6103(k)(4)] and who is operating and enforcing the seditious International program. [See: TM-S\7905.1, pg.
32 52] The 1985 Edition of the Department Of The Army Field Manual, FM 41-10 further describes the International 33 "Civil Affairs" operations. At page 3-6 it is admitted that the A.I.D. is autonomous and under direction of the 34 International Development Cooperation Agency, and at pages 3-8, that the operation is "paramilitary." The 35 International Organization(s) intents and purposes was to promote, implement, and enforce a "DICTATORSHIP
36 OVER FINANCE IN THE UNITED STATES." [See: Senate Report No. 93-549, pg. 186]

37 It appears from the documentary evidence that the Internal Revenue Service Agents etc., are "Agents of a Foreign 38 Principal" within the meaning and intent of the "Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938." They are directed and 39 controlled by the corporate "Governor" of "The Fund" also known as "Secretary of Treasury" [See: Public Law
40 94-564, supra, pg. 5942, United States Government Manual 1990/91, pgs. 480-481, 26 U.S.C.A. §7701(a)(11),
41 Treasury Delegation Order No. 150-10, and the corporate "Governor" of "The Bank" 22 U.S.C.A. §§286 and 42 286a, acting as "information service employees [22 U.S.C.A. §611(c)(ii)], and have been and do now "solicit,
43 collect, disburse or dispense contribution [Tax - pecuniary contribution, Black's Law Dictionary 5th edition],
44 loans, money or other things of value for or in interest of such foreign principal 22 U.S.C.A. §611(c)(iii), and they
45 entered into agreements with a Foreign Principal pursuant to Treasury Delegation Order No. 91 i.e. the "Agency
46 For International Development." [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §611(c)(2)] The Internal Revenue Service is also an agency
47 of the International Criminal Police Organization and solicits and collects information for 150 Foreign Powers.
48 [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §263a, United States Government Manual 1990/91, pg. 385, see also, The Ron Paul Money
49 Book, pgs. 250-251] It should be further noted that Congress has appropriated, transferred, and converted vast

1 sums to Foreign Powers [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §262c(b)] and has entered into numerous Foreign Taxing Treaties
2 (conventions) [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §285g, 22 U.S.C.A. §287j] and other Agreements which are solicited and
3 collected pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §6103(k)(4). Along with the other documentary evidence submitted herewith,
4 this should absolve any further doubt as to the true character of the party. Such restrictions as "For the general
5 welfare and common defense of the United States" [See: Constitution (1787), Article 1, Section 8, Clause 1]
6 apparently aren't applicable, and the fraudulent re-hypothecated debt credit will be merely added to the insolvent
7 nature of the continual "emergency," and the reciprocal social/economic repercussions laid upon present and 8 future generations.

9 Among other reasons for lack of authority to act, such as a Foreign Agents Registration Statement, 22 U.S.C.A.
10 §612 and 18 U.S.C.A. §§219 & 951, military authority cannot be imposed into civil affairs. [See: Department Of 11 The Army Pamphlet 27100-70, Military Law Review, Vol. 70] The United Nations Charter, Article 2, Section 7, 12 further prohibits the U.N. from "intervening in matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of 13 any state ...." Korea, Viet Nam, Ethiopia, Angola, Kuwait, etc., etc., are evidence enough of the "BAD FAITH"
14 of the United Nations and its Organizations, Corporations and Associations, not to mention the seizing of two 15 daycare centers in the State of Minnesota by their agents, and holding the children as collateral hostages for 16 payment/ransom of their fraudulent, dishonored, re-hypothecated debt credit, worthless securities. Such is the 17 "Rule of Law" "as envisioned by the Founders" of the United Nations. Such is Communist terrorism, despotism
18 and tyranny. ALL WERE AND ARE OUTLAWED HERE.

19 I hope this communication finds you well' and mentally strong for the occasion. It is quite apparent that the 20 "Treasonous" and "Seditious" are brewing up a storm of untold magnitude. Bush's public address of September
21 11, 1991 [See: Weekly Compilation Of Presidential Documents] should further qualify what is being said here.
22 He admitted "Interdependence" [See also: Public Law 94-564, Legislative History, pg. 5950], "One World Order"
23 [See also: Extension Of Remarks, January 19, 1976, Marjorie S. Holt, 8 U.S.C.A. §1101(40)], affiliation and 24 collusion with the Soviet Union Oligarchy [50 U.S.C.A. §781], direction by the U.N., 22 U.S.C.A. §611, etc..
25 You might also find it interesting that Treasury Delegation Order No. 92 states that the I.R.S. is trained under 26 direction of the Division of "Human Resources" (U.N.) and the Commissioner (INTERNATIONAL), by the 27 "Office Of Personnel Management." In the 1979 Edition of 22 U.S.C.A. §287, the United Nations, at pg. 248,
28 you will find Executive Order No. 10422. The Office of Personnel Management is under direction of the Secretary
29 General of the United Nations. And as stated previously, the I.R.S. is also a member in a one hundred fifty (150)
30 Nation pact called the "International Criminal Police Organization" found at [22 U.S.C.A. §263a]. The 31 "Memorandum & Agreement" between the Secretary of Treasury/Corporate Governor of "The Fund" and "The 32 Bank" and the Office of the U.S. Attorney General would indicate that the Attorney General and his associate are 33 soliciting and collecting information for Foreign Principals. [See also, United States Government Manual
34 1990/91, pg. 385, also see, The Ron Paul Money Book, supra, pgs. 250, 251]

35 It is worthy of note that each and every Attorney/Representative, Judge or Officer is required to file a "Foreign 36 Agents Registration Statement" pursuant to [22 U.S.C.A. §§611(c)(I)(iv) & 612], if representing the interests of a 37 Foreign Principal or Power. [See: 22 U.S.C.A. §613, Rabinowitz vs. Kennedy, 376 U.S. 605, 11 L.Ed.2d. 940,
38 18 U.S.C.A. §§219 & 951]

39 On January 17, 1980, the President and Senate confirmed another "Constitution," namely, the "Constitution Of 40 The United Nations Industrial Development Organization," found at Senate, Treaty Document No. 97-19, 97th
41 Congress, 1st Session. A perusal of this Foreign Constitution should more than qualify the internationalist intents.
42 The "Preamble," Article 1, "Objectives," and Article 2, "Functions," clearly evidences their intent to direct,
43 control, finance and subsidize all "natural and human resources" and "agro-related as well as basic industries," 44 through "dynamic social and economic changes" "with a view to assisting in the establishment of a new 45 international economic order." The high-flown rhetoric is obviously of "Communist" origin and intents. An 46 unelected, unrepresentative, unaccountable oligarchy of expatriates and aliens, who fraudulently claim, in the 47 Preamble, that they intend to establish "rational and equitable international economic relations," yet openly 48 declared that they no longer "stabilize the value of the dollar" nor "assure the value of the coin and currency of

1 the United States" is purely misrepresentation, deceit and fraud. [See: Public Law 95-147, 91 Stat. 1227, at pg.
2 1229] This was augmented by [Public Law 101-167], 103 Stat. 1195, which discloses massive appropriations of 3 re-hypothecated debt for the general welfare and common defense of other Foreign Powers, including
4 "Communist" countries or satellites, International control of natural and human resources, etc. etc.. A "Resource"
5 is a claim of "property" "and when related to people constitutes 'slavery'."

6 It is now necessary to ask, "Which Constitution they are operating under?" The "Constitution For The Newstates
7 Of The United States." This effort was the subject matter of the book entitled: "The Emerging Constitution" by 8 Rexford G. Tugwell, which was accomplished under the auspices of the Rockefeller tax-exempt foundation called 9 the "Center For The Study of Democratic Institutions." The People and Citizens of the Nation were forewarned
10 against formation of "Democracies." "Democracies have every been the spectacles of turbulence and contention;
11 have ever been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property; and have in general, been as 12 short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths." [See: Federalist Paper No. 10, also see, The Law,
13 Fredrick Bastiat, Code Of Professional Responsibility, Preamble] This Alien Constitution, however, has nothing
14 to do with democracy in reality. It is the basis of and for a despotic, tyrannical oligarch. Article I, "Rights and 15 Responsibilities," Sections 1 and 15 evidence their knowledge of the "emergency." The Rights of expression,
16 communication, movement, assembly, petition and Habeas Corpus are all excepted from being exercised under 17 and in a "declared emergency." The Constitution for the Newstates of America, openly declares, among other 18 seditious things and delusions that "Until each indicated change in the government shall have been completed the 19 provisions of the existing Constitution and the organs of government shall be in effect." [See: Article XII, Section
20 3] "All operations of the national government shall cease as they are replaced by those authorized under this 21 Constitution." [See: Article XII, Section 4] This is apparently what Burger was promoting in 1976, after he 22 resigned as Supreme Court Justice and took up the promotion of a "Constitutional Convention." No trial by jury
23 is mentioned, "JUST" compensation has been removed, along with being informed of the "Nature & Cause of the 24 Accusation," etc., etc., and every one will of course participate in the "democracy." This Constitution is but a 25 reiteration of the Communist Doctrines, intents and purposes, and clearly establishes a "Police Power" State, under 26 direction and control of a self-appointed oligarchy.

27 Apparently the present operation of the "de facto" government is under Foreign/Alien Constitutions, Laws, Rules,
28 and Regulations. The overthrow of the "essential engine" declared in and by the ordained and established
29 Constitution for the United States of America (1787), and by and under the "Bill of Rights" (1791) is obvious.
30 The covert procedure used to implement and enforce these Foreign Constitutions, Laws, Procedures, Rules,
31 Regulations, etc., has not, to my knowledge, been collected and assimilated nor presented as evidence to establish 32 seditious collusion and conspiracy.

33 Fortunately, and Unfortunately, in my Land it is necessary to seek, obtain, and present EVIDENCE to sustain a
34 conviction and/or judgment. Our patience and tolerance for those who pervert the very necessary and basic 35 foundations of society has been pushed to insufferable levels. They have "fundamentally" changed the form and 36 substance of the de jure Republican form of Government, exhibited a willful and wanton disregard for the Rights,
37 Safety, and Property of others, evinced a despotic design to reduce my people to slavery, peonage and involuntary
38 servitude, under a fraudulent, tyrannical, seditious foreign oligarchy, with intent and purpose to institute, erect
39 and form a "Dictatorship" over the Citizens and our Posterity. They have completely debauched the de jure
40 monetary system, destroyed the Livelihood and Lives of thousands, aided and abetted our enemies, declared War
41 upon us and our Posterity, destroyed untold families and made homeless over 750,000 children in the middle of 42 winter, afflicted widows and orphans, turned Sodomites lose among our young, implemented foreign laws, rules,
43 regulations and procedures within the body of the country, incited insurrection, rebellion, sedition and anarchy
44 within the de jure society, illegally entered our Land, taken false Oaths, entered into Seditious Foreign 45 Constitutions, Agreements, Pacts, Confederations, and Alliances, and under pretense of "emergency," which they 46 themselves created, promoted and furthered, formed a multitude of offices and retained those of alien allegiance
47 to perpetuate their frauds and to eat out the substance of the good and productive people of our Land, and have 48 arbitrarily dismissed and held mock trials for those who trespassed upon our lives, Liberties, Properties, and 49 Families and endangered our Peace, Safety, Welfare, and Dignity. The damage, injury and costs have been higher

1 than mere money can repay. They have done that which they were COMMANDED NOT TO DO. The time for 2 just correction is NOW!

3 Sincere consideration of "Presentment" to a Grand Jury under the ordained and established Constitution for the 4 United States of America (1787), Amendment V is in order. Numerous High Crimes and Misdemeanors have
5 been committed under the Constitution for the United States of America, and Laws made in Pursuance thereof,
6 and under the Constitution for the States, and the laws made in Pursuance thereof, and against the Peace and
7 Dignity of the People including, but not limited to, C. (Colorado) R.S. 18-11-203 which defines and prescribes
8 punishment for "Seditious Associations" which is applicable to the other constitutions, and the intents and 9 professed purposes of their Organizations, Corporations and Associations. If the Presentment should be 10 obstructed by the members of the Bar, ARREST THEM.

11 I could go on, but the story is long! I hope this information and research is of assistance to you. Much remains
12 to be uncovered and disclosed, as it is necessary and imperative to secure the Lives, Liberties, Property, Peace
13 and Dignity of the People and our Posterity. Good Hunting and the Good Lord be with you in all your endeavors.

14 13.4 Corroborating evidence of privatization

15 We believe that it is easy to prove that we no longer have a government, but a private corporate monopoly orders
16 of magnitude more evil than the Enron fraud. We call it "Enron to the tenth power". Below are several facts
17 which easily prove this hypothesis. We encourage you to rebut any of these facts which prove our hypothesis, but 18 no one to date has been able to rebut even one of them:

- 19 1. The "United States" is identified as a "federal corporation" in the statutes:

20 TITLE 28 - JUDICIARY AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURE
21 *PART VI - PARTICULAR PROCEEDINGS*
22 *CHAPTER 176 - FEDERAL DEBT COLLECTION PROCEDURE*
23 *SUBCHAPTER A - DEFINITIONS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS*
24 *Sec. 3002. Definitions*

25 (15) "United States" means -
26 (A) a Federal corporation;
27 (B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or 28 (C) an instrumentality of the United States.

- 29 2. The "United States" is a "foreign corporation" with respect to states of the Union:

30 "A federal corporation operating within a state is considered a domestic corporation rather than a foreign
31 corporation. The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state."
32 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §883 (2003)]

- 33 3. The domicile of the "United States" corporation is the District of Columbia, which also is a corporation:

34 Uniform Commercial Code (U.C.C.)
35 § 9-307. LOCATION OF DEBTOR.

36 (h) [Location of United States.]

37 The United States is located in the District of Columbia.

41

42 TITLE 26 > Subtitle A > CHAPTER 1 > Subchapter N > PART II > Subpart D > § 892
43 §892. Income of foreign governments and of international organizations

1 (a) Foreign governments

2 (3) Treatment as resident

3 For purposes of this title, a foreign government shall be treated as a corporate resident of its country. A foreign
4 government shall be so treated for purposes of any income tax treaty obligation of the United States if such
5 government grants equivalent treatment to the Government of the United States.

6 If you want to see proof from the Statutes at Large that the District of Columbia is a corporation and not a geographic 7 place, see:

8 SEDM Exhibits #08.008 and #08.009
9 <http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibiIndex.htm>

- 10 4. The private corporation called the “United States” issues “stocks” in the corporation called Federal Reserve Notes. Those 11 in possession of said stocks are bondholders”, “stockholders”, and “investors” of the corporation.
12 4.1. Interest on these bonds called “Federal Reserve Notes” are paid to the Federal Reserve, which is neither federal nor 13 a “reserve”. Instead, it is a consortium of private, for-profit international banks. The Federal Reserve is no more
14 “federal” than “Federal Express”!
15 4.2. Black’s Law Dictionary defines “money” in such a way that it excludes “notes”, which also means that it excludes 16 “Federal Reserve Notes”.

17 “Money: In usual and ordinary acceptance it means coins and paper currency used as circulating medium of 18 exchange, and does not embrace notes, bonds, evidences of debt, or other personal or real 19 estate. Lane v. Railey, 280 Ky. 319, 133 S.W.2d. 74, 79, 81.”
20 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1005]

- 21 4.3. The courts have ruled that the formation of any corporation amounts to a contract with the officers and the 22 stockholders of the corporation. Therefore, everyone in possession of said “bonds” and corporate “stocks” called 23 Federal Reserve Notes are contractors of the United States!:

24 The court held that the first company’s charter was a contract between it and the state, within the protection of 25 the constitution of the United States, and that the charter to the last company was therefore null and void., Mr.
26 *Justice DAVIS, delivering the opinion of the court, said that, if anything was settled by an unbroken chain of 27 decisions in the federal courts, it was that an act of incorporation was a contract between the state and the
28 stockholders, ‘a departure from which now would involve dangers to society that cannot be foreseen, would 29 shock the sense of justice of the country, unhinge its business interests, and weaken, if not destroy, that respect
30 which has always been felt for the judicial department of the government.’
31 [New Orleans Gas Co. v. Louisiana Light Co., 115 U.S. 650 (1885) ]

- 32 5. The Constitution forbids any branch of the government to delegate any of its powers to any other branch and especially 33 not to a private corporation such as the Federal Reserve. That is why:
34 5.1. The U.S. Congress did not and cannot lawfully delegate its power to coin money to the PRIVATE Federal Reserve
35 under Article 1, Section 8, Clause 5 of the Constitution.

36 Where Congress exceeds its authority relative to the States, therefore, the departure from the constitutional
37 plan cannot be ratified by the “consent” of state officials. An analogy to the separation of powers among the 38 branches of the Federal Government clarifies this point. The Constitution’s division of power among the three 39 branches is violated where one branch invades the territory of another, whether or not the encroached-upon
40 branch approves the encroachment. In Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 118 -137 (1976), for instance, the Court
41 held that Congress had infringed the President’s appointment power, despite the fact that the President himself
42 had manifested his consent to the statute that caused the infringement by signing it into law. See National League
43 of Cities v. Usery, 426 U.S., at 842, n. 12. In INS v. Chadha, 462 U.S. 919, 944 -959 (1983), we held that the 44 legislative veto violated the constitutional requirement that legislation be presented to the President, despite 45 Presidents’ approval of hundreds of statutes containing a legislative veto provision. See id., at 944-945. The 46 constitutional authority of Congress cannot be expanded by the “consent” of the governmental unit whose domain is thereby narrowed, whether that unit is the Executive Branch or the States.
[New York v. United States, 505 U.S. 144, 112 S.Ct. 2408, 120 L.Ed.2d. 120 (1992)]

- 47 5.2. Federal Reserve Notes are issued NOT under the Constitutional power to coin money found in Article 1, Section
48 8, Clause 5, but under the power borrow money found in Article 1, Section 8, Clause 2. The Treasury prints Federal 49 Reserve Notes, sells them to the Federal Reserve for three cents on the dollar, and the United States Government
50 then borrows them back AT INTEREST from the Federal Reserve.

- 1 6. All of the federal courts and agencies within the alleged “government” are listed as corporations within Dunn and 2 Bradstreet's credit tracking system as “businesses”. See:
3 <http://smallbusiness.dnb.com/>
4 7. Walter Burien has been studying de facto state governments for years. He has uncovered extensive evidence that these
5 state governments are “cooking the books” by keeping two sets of books. One set is identified as private, but all the 6 assets and real earnings of the private government are carefully kept secret. He has been persecuted for exposing this 7 dichotomy by these private governments. You can visit his website at:
8 <http://www.cafrman.com/>
9 8. The U.S. Supreme Court has said that when an agent of the government exceeds his authority under the law, then he is 10 acting as a “private individual” rather than a “public official”.

11 “... the maxim that the King can do no wrong has no place in our system of government; yet it is also true, in 12 respect to the State itself, that whatever wrong is attempted in its name is imputable to its government and not
13 to the State, for, as it can speak and act only by law, whatever it does say and do must be lawful. That which 14 therefore is unlawful because made so by the supreme law, the Constitution of the United States, is not the 15 word or deed of the State, but is the mere wrong and trespass of those individual persons who falsely spread 16 and act in its name.”

17 “This distinction is essential to the idea of constitutional government. To deny it or blot it out obliterates the line 18 of demarcation that separates constitutional government from absolutism, free self- government based on the 19 sovereignty of the people from that despotism, whether of the one or the many, which enables the agent of the 20 state to declare and decree that he is the state; to say 'L'Etat, c'est moi.' Of what avail are written constitutions,
21 whose bills of right, for the security of individual liberty, have been written too often with the blood of martyrs
22 shed upon the battle-field and the scaffold, if their limitations and restraints upon power may be overpassed with
23 impunity by the very agencies created and appointed to guard, defend, and enforce them; and that, too, with the 24 sacred authority of law, not only compelling obedience, but entitled to respect? And how else can these principles
25 of individual liberty and right be maintained, if, when violated, the judicial tribunals are forbidden to visit
26 penalties upon individual offenders, who are the instruments of wrong, whenever they interpose the shield of the 27 state? The doctrine is not to be tolerated. The whole frame and scheme of the political 28 institutions of this country, state and federal, protest against it. Their continued existence is not compatible with 29 it. It is the doctrine of absolutism, pure, simple, and naked, and of communism which is its twin, the double 30 progeny of the same evil birth.”

31 [Poindexter v. Greenhow, 114 U.S. 270, 5 S.Ct. 903 \(1885\)]

32 Judges and federal prosecutors exceed their jurisdiction and authority all the time by self-servingly interpreting the 33 meaning of words within federal law so that they apply outside of federal territory. For instance, they interpret the word
34 “State” within federal statutes to include states of the Union, even though this is a violation of the Separation of Powers
35 Doctrine.

36 In another, not unrelated context, Chief Justice Marshall's exposition in Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. 264, 5
37 L.Ed. 257 (1821), could well have been the explanation of the Rule of Necessity; he wrote that a court “must take
38 *jurisdiction if it should. The judiciary cannot, as the legislature may, avoid a measure because it approaches
39 the confines of the constitution. We cannot pass it by, because it is doubtful. With whatever doubts, with 40 whatever difficulties, a case may be attended, we must decide it, if it be brought before us. We have no more
41 right to decline the exercise of jurisdiction which is given, than to usurp that which is not given. The one or
42 the other would be treason to the constitution. Questions may occur which we would gladly avoid; but we cannot* 43 avoid them.” Id., at 404 (emphasis added).

44 [U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 200, 101 S.Ct. 471 \(U.S.Ill.,1980\)]

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 46 9. Alleged “government employees”, and especially those within the IRS and the federal judiciary, blatantly, frequently, 47 and with impunity exceed the constitutional and statutory limitations upon their conduct. Consequently, they cease to 48 represent the government and are acting merely as “private individuals” within what amounts to a “sham trust” that
49 started out as a “public trust” and was transformed by usurpers into a private, for-profit, corporate monopoly:

50 “In addition, there are several well known subordinate principles. The Government may not be sued except by its 51 consent. The United States has not submitted to suit for specific performance<sup>99</sup> or for an injunction. This
52 *immunity may not be avoided by naming an officer of the Government as a defendant. The officer may be sued
53 only if he acts in excess of his statutory authority or in violation of the Constitution for then he ceases to 54 represent the Government.”

55 [U.S. ex. rel. Brookfield Const. Co. v. Stewart, 284 F.Supp. 94 \(1964\)]

10. Judges act essentially as a “protection racket” for this organized crime corporate monopoly and syndicate. In many counties, judges pick the grand jurors. They always pick the most ignorant, compliant, complacent people to be on these grand juries who are most likely to act as putty in the hands of pseudo/corporate government prosecutors and who are least likely to prosecute the judges, who are the worst perpetrators of the scam. The jurors that these corrupted pseudo/franchise judges are most likely to pick are fellow federal “employees” called “U.S. citizens” with a financial conflict of interest in criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §208 because in receipt of socialist benefits, such as Social Security, Medicare, etc. There is no better way to rig a trial than to fill the courtroom with officers of the government who are all “tax consumers”. See:

Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

11. The U.S. Supreme Court has held that when the federal corporation called the “United States” enters into private business, it takes on the character of any other private corporation:

“...when the United States [or a State, for that matter] enters into commercial business it abandons its sovereign capacity and is treated like any other corporation...”
[91 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), United States, §4 (2003)]

“What, then, is meant by the doctrine that contracts are made with reference to the taxing power resident in the State, and in subordination to it? Is it meant that when a person lends money to a State, or to a municipal division of the State having the power of taxation, there is in the contract a tacit reservation of a right in the debtor to raise contributions out of the money promised to be paid before payment? That cannot be, because if it could, the contract (in the language of Alexander Hamilton) would ‘involve two contradictory things: an obligation to do, and a right not to do; an obligation to pay a certain sum, and a right to retain it in the shape of a tax. It is against the rules, both of law and of reason, to admit by implication in the construction of a contract a principle which goes in destruction of it.’ The truth is, States and cities, when they borrow money and contract to repay it with interest, are not acting as sovereignties. They come down to the level of ordinary individuals. Their contracts have the same meaning as that of similar contracts between private persons. Hence, instead of there being in the undertaking of a State or city to pay, a reservation of a sovereign right to withhold payment, the contract should be regarded as an assurance that such a right will not be exercised. A promise to pay, with a reserved right to deny or change the effect of the promise, is an absurdity.”

“Is, then, property, which consists in the promise of a State, or of a municipality of a State, beyond the reach of taxation? We do not affirm that it is. A State may undoubtedly tax any of its creditors within its jurisdiction for the debt due to him, and regulate the amount of the tax by the rate of interest the debt bears, if its promise be left unchanged. A tax thus laid impairs no obligation assumed. It leaves the contract untouched. But until payment of the debt or interest has been made, as stipulated, we think no act of State sovereignty can work an exoneration from what has been promised to the [446] creditor; namely, payment to him, without a violation of the Constitution. ‘The true rule of every case of property founded on contract with the government is this: It must first be reduced into possession, and then it will become subject, in common with other similar property, to the right of the government to raise contributions upon it. It may be said that the government may fulfil this principle by paying the interest with one hand, and taking back the amount of the tax with the other. But to this the answer is, that, to comply truly with the rule, the tax must be upon all the money of the community, not upon the particular portion of it which is paid to the public creditors, and it ought besides to be so regulated as not to include a lien of the tax upon the fund. The creditor should be no otherwise acted upon than as every other possessor of money; and, consequently, the money he receives from the public can then only be a fit subject of taxation when it is entirely separated’ (from the contract), ‘and thrown undistinguished into the common mass.’ 3 Hamilton, Works, 514 et seq. Thus only can contracts with the State be allowed to have the same meaning as all other similar contracts have.”
[Murray v. City of Charleston, 96 U.S. 432 (1877)]

12. The IRS is not an agency within the United States Government, but a private, for-profit corporation. Evidence supporting these conclusions includes the following:

12.1. The IRS has no statutory authority to even exist anywhere within 26 U.S.C. or with 31 U.S.C., which established the Treasury Department. It is a racketeering ring, as exhaustively proven in the following:

Origins and Authority of the Internal Revenue Service, Form #05.005
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

12.2. The IRS was incorporated in 1933 the state of Delaware as a private corporation. See the following for proof:

SEDM Exhibit #08.006

<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

12.3. The U.S. Department of Justice has admitted under penalty of perjury that the I.R.S. is not an agency of the United States Government. See:

<http://fanguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/USGovDeniesIRS/USGovDeniesIRS.htm>

12.4. The “United States of America, Inc.” was registered as a private, for-profit corporation. See the following for proof:

SEDM Exhibit #08.007

<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

13. Both the states and the federal government have entered into “compacts” called Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) that authorize concurrent jurisdiction over income taxes of “public officers” under the authority of the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 and the Buck Act of 1940, 4 U.S.C. §105-110. These acts apply only within federal territory within the exterior limits of the state under the authority of the Buck Act, and yet:

13.1. They are being enforced illegally outside of federal areas by the states. In that sense, states of the Union are acting as federal corporate subdivisions of the national government without any lawful authority.

13.2. They are being enforced illegally outside of federal areas by the federal government.

13.3. They are being misrepresented by the state and federal governments to the public at large as applying everywhere.

All of the above types of unlawful tax enforcements outside of federal territories and federal areas represent “private business” which has NO public character because the law plainly does not authorize it. See the following for more proof:

State Income Taxes, Form #05.031

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

14. The Social Security Act and the Internal Revenue Code Subtitle A are both “private law” and “special law” that only apply to those who individually consent expressly in writing or implicitly by their conduct. The IRS admitted this on government stationary!

IRS Agent Cynthia Mills letter, SEDM Exhibit #09.023

<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

As such, they represent a private “franchise” not unlike McDonalds or Burger King and private business that the federal government is engaging in within states of the Union and which does not apply to other than domiciliaries of federal territory wherever they are situated. When they apply it to those not domiciled on federal territory, it becomes “private business” and not a “public purpose”. See sections 11 through 11.6 of the following:

Requirement for Consent, Form #05.003

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

15. The Social Security Act only authorizes statutory “U.S. citizens” pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 and statutory “permanent residents” to participate. Constitutional citizens are not allowed to participate, which includes all those domiciled within the exclusive jurisdiction of states of the Union. See 20 C.F.R. §422.103(d). What these two groups have in common is a legal domicile on federal territory and not within the exclusive jurisdiction of any state of the Union. The Social Security Administration tries to bend these rules by using the vague and undefined term “U.S. citizen” on the SSA Form SS-5, and refuses to answer questions about what it means, knowing full well that it is defined in 8 U.S.C. §1401 as a person subject to exclusive federal jurisdiction with a domicile on federal territory and not within any state of the Union and excludes all persons domiciled in states of the Union. See:

SEDM Exhibit #07.012

<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

This causes an unintentional and ignorant election to waive sovereign immunity under the authority of 28 U.S.C. §1605(a)(2) and 28 U.S.C. §1603(b)(3) and unlawfully extends federal civil jurisdiction into states of the Union and thereby destroys the separation of powers. Therefore, all such constructive fraud not authorized by law constitutes “private business” as defined by the Supreme Court and:

15.1. Causes the SSA Form SS-5 form to act as a private contract to go to work for the government and become their “employee”. 5 U.S.C. §2105 defines this “employee” as an elected or appointed officer of the government and NOT an ordinary “worker”.

15.2. Makes the Internal Revenue Code and Title 5 of the U.S. Code into an “employment agreement” for those who want to go to work for the “private corporation” called the United States as its “officers” or “public officers”.

15.3. Creates a gigantic monopoly in which the U.S. pseudo-government becomes a Kelly Girl that rents out its “employees”/officers to private employers and makes them into “trustees” and “transferees” over earnings paid to its loaned out employees using the income tax system. These “trustees” and “transferees” are described in 26 U.S.C. §§6901 and 6903 and they are the only persons over whom the franchise court called “Tax Court” has jurisdiction.

16. The foundation of a de jure lawful, Constitutional government is “equal protection”. The foundation of a private, for-profit corporation is “privilege” and personal and collective “profit”. The measure of whether we have a lawful de jure

1 constitutional “government” v. a private corporation is the extent to which some citizens pay more for the same service
2 than others or receive more benefit than others. The following commercial transactions all prove that we don’t have a
3 government, but a private corporation because some pay more than others for the SAME “service”:

4 16.1. The income tax under I.R.C. Section 1 imposes a graduated rate of tax rather than a flat rate. The vast majority of
5 Americans file the IRS Form 1040 which applies this graduated rate of tax. The graduated rate can only be enforced
6 where there are no constitutional protections and therefore no requirement for equal protection. That place is federal 7 territory, and more especially, employment with the government as a “public officer” within the District of 8 Columbia. Several state courts have ruled that graduated rates of tax are unconstitutional if enforced within states
9 of the Union on other than federal territory. See Culliton v. Chase, 25 P.2d. 81 (1933) and Jensen v. Henneford,
10 53 P.2d. 607 (1936).

11 16.2. Not all citizens or residents receive the same amount in their government payments. Some citizens receive more
12 in their social security checks than others. All must receive an EQUAL amount regardless of what they pay in order
13 for the government to not be operating in a private capacity.

14 16.3. Nearly everything our government does involves some type of commerce and a “service” connected with it. All
15 such transactions are implemented using “franchises”, and since franchises are based on consent, the requirement
16 for equal protection no longer applies. This includes Social Security, Medicare, Unemployment Insurance, 17 professional licenses, driver’s license, and marriage licenses.

18 We have proven that the government has become a private corporate monopoly that has replaced the need for 19 equal protection with privileges and franchises. The U.S. Supreme Court has said that this is unconstitutional:

20 “It would be a palpable incongruity to strike down an act of state legislation which, by words of express
21 divestment, seeks to strip the citizen of rights guaranteed by the federal Constitution, but to uphold an act by
22 which the same result is accomplished under the guise of a surrender of a right in exchange for a valuable
23 privilege which the state threatens otherwise to withhold. It is not necessary to challenge the proposition that, as
24 a general rule, the state, having power to deny a privilege altogether, may grant it upon such conditions as it sees
25 fit to impose. But the power of the state in that respect is not unlimited, and one of the limitations is that it may
26 not impose conditions which require the relinquishment of Constitutional rights. If the state may compel the 27 surrender of one constitutional right as a condition of its favor, it may, in like manner, compel a surrender of all.
28 It is inconceivable that guaranties embedded in the Constitution of the United States may thus be manipulated
29 out or existence.”
30 [Frost v. Railroad Commission, 271 U.S. 583, 46 S.Ct. 605 (1926)]

31 13.5 Abuse of taxing power to redistribute wealth

32 The U.S. Supreme Court has held many times that the ONLY purpose for lawful, constitutional taxation is to 33 collect revenues to support ONLY the machinery and operations of the government and its “employees”. This 34 purpose, it calls a “public use” or “public purpose”:

35 “The power to tax is, therefore, the strongest, the most pervading of all powers of government, reaching directly 36 or indirectly to all classes of the people. It was said by Chief Justice Marshall, in the case of McCulloch v.
37 Md., 4 Wheat. 431, that the power to tax is the power to destroy. A striking instance of the truth of the proposition
38 is seen in the fact that the existing tax of ten per cent, imposed by the United States on the circulation of all other
39 *banks than the National Banks, drove out of existence every *state bank of circulation within a year or two after* 40 its passage. This power can be readily employed against one class of individuals and in favor of another, so as 41 to ruin the one class and give unlimited wealth and prosperity to the other, if there is no implied limitation of the 42 uses for which the power may be exercised.

43 To lay, with one hand, the power of the government on the property of the citizen, and with the other to bestow
44 it upon favored individuals to aid private enterprises and build up private fortunes, is none the less a robbery
45 because it is done under the forms of law and is called taxation. This is not legislation. It is a decree under 46 legislative forms.

47 Nor is it taxation. ‘A tax,’ says Webster’s Dictionary, ‘is a rate or sum of money assessed on the person or
48 property of a citizen by government for the use of the nation or State.’ ‘Taxes are burdens or charges imposed
49 by the Legislature upon persons or property to raise money for public purposes.’ Cooley, Const. Lim., 479.

50 Coulter, J., in Northern Liberties v. St. John’s Church, 13 Pa.St. 104 says, very forcibly, ‘I think the common
51 *mind has everywhere taken in the understanding that taxes are a public imposition, levied by authority of the
52 government for the purposes of carrying on the government in all its machinery and operations—that they are
53 imposed for a public purpose.’ See, also Pray v. Northern Liberties, 31 Pa.St. 69; Matter of Mayor of N.Y., 11*
54 Johns., 77; Camden v. Allen, 2 Dutch., 398; Sharpless v. Mayor, supra; Hanson v. Vernon, 27 Ia., 47; Whiting v.

3 "A tax, in the general understanding of the term and as used in the constitution, signifies an exaction for the 4 support of the government. The word has never thought to connote the expropriation of money from one group
5 for the benefit of another."
6

[\[U.S. v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1 \(1936\)\]](#)

7 Black's Law Dictionary defines the word "public purpose" as follows:

8 "Public purpose. In the law of taxation, eminent domain, etc., this is a term of classification to distinguish the
9 objects for which, according to settled usage, the government is to provide, from those which, by the like usage,
10 are left to private interest, inclination, or liberality. The constitutional requirement that the purpose of any tax,
11 police regulation, or particular exertion of the power of eminent domain shall be the convenience, safety, or
12 welfare of the entire community and not the welfare of a specific individual or class of persons [such as, for
13 instance, federal benefit recipients as individuals]. "Public purpose" that will justify expenditure of public money
14 generally means such an activity as will serve as benefit to community as a body and which at same time is directly 15 related function of government. Pack v. Southwestern Bell Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 Tenn. 503, 387 S.W.2d. 789, 794.

16 The term is synonymous with governmental purpose. As employed to denote the objects for which taxes may be
17 levied, it has no relation to the urgency of the public need or to the extent of the public benefit which is to follow;
18 the essential requisite being that a public service or use shall affect the inhabitants as a community, and not
19 merely as individuals. A public purpose or public business has for its objective the promotion of the public
20 health, safety, morals, general welfare, security, prosperity, and contentment of all the inhabitants or residents
21 within a given political division, as, for example, a state, the sovereign powers of which are exercised to promote 22 such public purpose or public business."
23

[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1231, Emphasis added]

24 A related word defined in Black's Law Dictionary is "public use":

25 Public use. Eminent domain. The constitutional and statutory basis for taking property by eminent domain. For
26 condemnation purposes, "public use" is one which confers some benefit or advantage to the public; it is not
27 confined to actual use by public. It is measured in terms of right of public to use proposed facilities for which
28 condemnation is sought and, as long as public has right of use, whether exercised by one or many members of 29 public, a "public advantage" or "public benefit" accrues sufficient to constitute a public use. Montana Power
30 Co. v. Bokma, Mont., 457 P.2d. 769, 772, 773.

31 Public use, in constitutional provisions restricting the exercise of the right to take property in virtue of eminent
32 domain, means a use concerning the whole community distinguished from particular individuals. But each and
33 every member of society need not be equally interested in such use, or be personally and directly affected by it;
34 if the object is to satisfy a great public want or exigency, that is sufficient. Ringe Co. v. Los Angeles County, 262
35 U.S. 700, 43 S.Ct. 689, 692, 67 L.Ed. 1186. The term may be said to mean public usefulness, utility, or advantage,
36 or what is productive of general benefit. It may be limited to the inhabitants of a small or restricted locality,
37 but must be in common, and not for a particular individual. The use must be a needful one for the public, which 38 cannot be surrendered without obvious general loss and inconvenience. A "public use" for which land may be
39 taken defies absolute definition for it changes with varying conditions of society, new appliances in the sciences,
40 changing conceptions of scope and functions of government, and other differing circumstances brought about by
41 an increase in population and new modes of communication and transportation. Katz v. Brandon, 156 Conn.
42 521, 245 A.2d. 579, 586.

43 See also Condemnation; Eminent domain.

44 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1232]

45 Black's Law Dictionary also defines the word "tax" as follows:

46 "Tax: A charge by the government on the income of an individual, corporation, or trust, as well as the value
47 of an estate or gift. The objective in assessing the tax is to generate revenue to be used for the needs of the public.

48 A pecuniary [relating to money] burden laid upon individuals or property to support the government, and is a
49 *payment exacted by legislative authority. In re Mytinger, D.C.Tex. 31 F.Supp. 977,978,979. Essential

50 characteristics of a tax are that it is NOT A VOLUNTARY
51 PAYMENT OR DONATION, BUT AN ENFORCED
52 CONTRIBUTION, EXACTED PURSUANT TO

1 LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY. Michigan Employment Sec. Commission v. Patt, 4
2 Mich.App. 228, 144 N.W.2d. 663, 665. ...
3 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1457]

4 So in order to be legitimately called a “tax” or “taxation”, the money we pay to the government must fit all of the 5 following criteria:

- 6 1. The money must be used ONLY for the support of government.
- 7 2. The subject of the tax must be “liable”, and responsible to pay for the support of government under the force of law.
- 8 3. The money must go toward a “public purpose” rather than a “private purpose”.
- 9 4. The monies paid cannot be described as wealth transfer between two people or classes of people within society.
- 10 5. The monies paid cannot aid one group of private individuals in society at the expense of another group, because this 11 violates the concept of equal protection of law for all citizens found in Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment.

12 If the monies demanded by government do not fit all of the above requirements, then they are being used for a 13 “private” purpose and cannot be called “taxes” or “taxation”, according to the U.S. Supreme Court. Actions by 14 the government to enforce the payment of any monies that do not meet all the above requirements can therefore 15 only be described as:

- 16 1. Theft and robbery by the government in the guise of “taxation”
- 17 2. Government by decree rather than by law
- 18 3. Tyranny
- 19 4. Socialism
- 20 5. Mob rule and a tyranny by the “have-nots” against the “haves”
- 21 6. 18 U.S.C. §241: Conspiracy against rights. The IRS shares tax return information with states of the union, so that both 22 of them can conspire to deprive you of your property.
- 23 7. 18 U.S.C. §242: Deprivation of rights under the color of law. The Fifth Amendment says that people in states of the 24 Union cannot be deprived of their property without due process of law or a court hearing. Yet, the IRS tries to make it
25 appear like they have the authority to just STEAL these people’s property for a fabricated tax debt that they aren’t even 26 legally liable for.
- 27 8. 18 U.S.C. §247: Damage to religious property; obstruction of persons in the free exercise of religious beliefs
- 28 9. 18 U.S.C. §872: Extortion by officers or employees of the United States.
- 29 10. 18 U.S.C. §876: Mailing threatening communications. This includes all the threatening notices regarding levies, liens, 30 and idiotic IRS letters that refuse to justify why government thinks we are “liable”.
- 31 11. 18 U.S.C. §880: Receiving the proceeds of extortion. Any money collected from Americans through illegal enforcement
32 actions and for which the contributors are not "liable" under the law is extorted money, and the IRS is in receipt of the 33 proceeds of illegal extortion.
- 34 12. 18 U.S.C. §1581: Peonage, obstructing enforcement. IRS is obstructing the proper administration of the Internal 35 Revenue Code and the Constitution, which require that they respect those who choose NOT to volunteer to participate
36 in the federal donation program identified under subtitle A of the I.R.C.
- 37 13. 18 U.S.C. §1583: Enticement into slavery. IRS tries to enlist “nontaxpayers” to rejoin the ranks of other peons who pay 38 taxes they aren’t demonstrably liable for, which amount to slavery.
- 39 14. 18 U.S.C. §1589: Forced labor. Being forced to expend one’s personal time responding to frivolous IRS notices and 40 pay taxes on my labor that I am not liable for.

41 The U.S. Supreme Court has further characterized all efforts to abuse the tax system in order to accomplish “wealth
42 transfer” as “political heresy” that is a denial of republican principles that form the foundation of our Constitution, 43 when it issued the following strong words of rebuke. Incidentally, the case below also forms the backbone of 44 reasons why the Internal Revenue Code can never be anything more than private law that only applies to those 45 who volunteer into it:

46 “The Legislature may enjoin, permit, forbid, and punish; they may declare new crimes; and establish rules of 47 conduct for all its citizens in future cases; they may command what is right, and prohibit what is wrong; but they 48 [the government] cannot change innocence [a “nontaxpayer”] into guilt [a “taxpayer”]; or punish innocence
49 as a crime [criminally prosecute a “nontaxpayer” for violation of the tax laws]; or violate the right of an
50 antecedent lawful private contract; or the right of private property. To maintain that our Federal, or State,

1 Legislature possesses such powers [of THEFT and FRAUD], if they had not been expressly restrained; would,
2 *389 in my opinion, be a political heresy, altogether inadmissible in our free republican governments.
3 [Calder v. Bull, 3 U.S. 386 (1798)]

4 We also cannot assume or suppose that our government has the authority to make “gifts” of monies collected
5 through its taxation powers, and especially not when paid to private individuals or foreign countries because:

- 6 1. The Constitution DOES NOT authorize the government to “gift” money to anyone within states of the Union or in foreign 7 countries, and therefore, this is not a Constitutional use of public funds, nor does unauthorized expenditure of such funds
8 produce a tangible public benefit, but rather an injury, by forcing those who do not approve of the gift to subsidize it and 9 yet not derive any personal benefit whatsoever for it.
- 10 2. The Supreme Court identifies such abuse of taxing powers as “robbery in the name of taxation” above.

11 Based on the foregoing analysis, we are then forced to divide the monies collected by the government through its 12 taxing powers into only two distinct classes. We also emphasize that every tax collected and every expenditure
13 originating from the tax paid MUST fit into one of the two categories below:

1 Table 9: Two methods for taxation

#	Characteristic	Public use/purpose	Private use/purpose
1	Authority for tax	U.S. Constitution	Legislative fiat, tyranny
2	Monies collected described by Supreme Court as	Legitimate taxation	“Robbery in the name of taxation” (see Loan Assoc. v. Topeka , above)
3	Money paid only to following parties	Federal “employees”, contractors, and agents	Private parties with no contractual relationship or agency with the government
4	Government that practices this form of taxation is	A righteous government	A THIEF
5	This type of expenditure of revenues collected is:	Constitutional	Unconstitutional
6	Lawful means of collection	Apportioned direct or indirect taxation	Voluntary donation (cannot be lawfully implemented as a “tax”)
7	Tax system based on this approach is	A lawful means of running a government	A charity and welfare state for private interests, thieves, and criminals
8	Government which identifies payment of such monies as mandatory and enforceable is	A righteous government	A lying, thieving government that is deceiving the people.
9	When enforced, this type of tax leads to	Limited government that sticks to its corporate charter, the Constitution	Socialism Communism Mafia protection racket Organized extortion
10	Lawful subjects of Constitutional, federal taxation	Taxes on imports into states of the Union coming from foreign countries. See Constitution, Article 1, Section 8, Clause 3 (external) taxation.	No subjects of lawful taxation. Whatever unconstitutional judicial fiat and a deceived electorate will tolerate is what will be imposed and enforced at the point of a gun
11	Tax system based on	Private property VOLUNTARILY donated to a public use by its exclusive owner	All property owned by the state, which is FALSELY PRESUMED TO BE EVERYTHING. Tax becomes a means of “renting” what amounts to state property to private individuals for temporary use.

2 The U.S. Supreme Court also helped to clarify how to distinguish the two above categories when it said:

3 “It is undoubtedly the duty of the legislature which imposes or authorizes municipalities to impose a tax to see
 4 that it is not to be used for purposes of private interest instead of a public use, and the courts can only be justified
 5 in interposing when a violation of this principle is clear and the [87 U.S. 665] reason for interference cogent.
 6 And in deciding whether, in the given case, the object for which the taxes are assessed falls upon the one side
 7 or the other of this line, they must be governed mainly by the course and usage of the government, the objects
 8 for which taxes have been customarily and by long course of legislation levied, what objects or purposes have 9 been considered necessary to the support and for the proper use of the government, whether state or municipal.
 10 Whatever lawfully pertains to this and is sanctioned by time and the acquiescence of the people may well be 11 held to belong to the public use, and proper for the maintenance of good government, though this may not be 12 the only criterion of rightful taxation.”
 13 [Loan Association v. Topeka, 20 Wall. 655 (1874)]

14 If we give our government the benefit of the doubt by “assuming” or “presuming” that it is operating lawfully and 15 consistent with the model on the left above, then we have no choice but to conclude that everyone who lawfully
 16 receives any kind of federal payment MUST be either a federal “employee” or “federal contractor” on official 17 duty, and that the compensation received must be directly connected to the performance of a sovereign or 18 Constitutionally authorized function of government. Any other conclusion or characterization of a lawful tax
 19 other than this is irrational, inconsistent with the rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court on this subject, and an attempt
 20 to deceive the public about the role of limited Constitutional government based on Republican principles. This

1 means that you cannot participate in any of the following federal social insurance programs WITHOUT being a
2 federal “employee”, and if you refuse to identify yourself as a federal employee, then you are admitting that your 3 government is a thief and a robber that is abusing its taxing powers:

- 4 1. Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code. I.R.C. (26 U.S.C.) sections 1, 32, and 162 all confer privileged financial 5 benefits to the participant which constitute federal “employment” compensation.
- 6 2. Social Security.
- 7 3. Unemployment compensation.
- 8 4. Medicare.

9 An examination of the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. §552a\(a\)\(13\), in fact, identifies all those who participate in the above
10 programs as “federal personnel”, which means federal “employees”. To wit:

11 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a
12 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals

13 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

14 (13) the term “Federal personnel” means officers and employees of the Government of the United States,
15 members of the uniformed services (including members of the Reserve Components), individuals entitled to 16 receive immediate or deferred retirement benefits under any retirement program of the Government of the 17 United States (including survivor benefits).

18 The “individual” they are talking about above is further defined in 5 U.S.C. §552a\(a\)\(2\) as follows:

19 TITLE 5 > PART I > CHAPTER 5 > SUBCHAPTER II > § 552a
20 § 552a. Records maintained on individuals

21 (a) Definitions.— For purposes of this section—

22 (2) the term “individual” means a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent
23 residence;

24 The “citizen of the United States” they are talking about above is based on the statutory rather than constitutional
25 definition of the “United States”, which means it refers to the federal zone and excludes states of the Union. Also,
26 note that both of the two preceding definitions are found within Title 5 of the U.S. Code, which is entitled
27 “Government Organization and Employees”. Therefore, it refers ONLY to government employees and excludes
28 private employees. There is no definition of the term “individual” anywhere in Title 26 (I.R.C.) of the U.S. Code
29 or any other title that refers to private natural persons, because Congress cannot legislate for them. Notice the 30 use of the phrase “private business” in the U.S. Supreme Court ruling below:

31 *“The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen. He is entitled to carry on his private
32 business in his own way [unregulated by the government]. His power to contract is unlimited. He owes no duty
33 to the State or to his neighbor to divulge his business, or to open his doors to an investigation, so far as it may
34 tend to criminate him. He owes no such duty to the State, since he receives nothing therefrom, beyond the
35 protection of his life and property. His rights are such as existed by the law of the land long antecedent to the*
36 organization of the State, and can only be taken from him by due process of law, and in accordance with the
37 Constitution. Among his rights are a refusal to incriminate himself, and the immunity of himself and his property
38 *from arrest or seizure except under a warrant of the law. He owes nothing to the public [including so-called 39 “taxes” under Subtitle A of the I.R.C.] so long as he does not trespass upon their rights.”
40 Hale v. Henkel, [201 U.S. 43, 74 (1906)]

41 The purpose of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights instead is to REMOVE authority of the Congress to legislate
42 for private persons and thereby protect their sovereignty and dignity. That is why the U.S. Supreme Court ruled 43 the following:

44 “The makers of our Constitution undertook to secure conditions favorable to the pursuit of happiness. They
45 recognized the significance of man's spiritual nature, of his feelings and of his intellect. They knew that only a
46 part of the pain, pleasure and satisfactions of life are to be found in material things. They sought to protect
47 *Americans in their beliefs, their thoughts, their emotions and their sensations. They conferred, as against the

1 Government, the right to be let alone - the most comprehensive of rights and the right most valued by civilized

4 494 U.S. 210 (1990)]

5 QUESTIONS FOR DOUBTERS: If you aren't a federal "employee" as a person participating in Social Security
6 and the Internal Revenue Code, then why are all of the Social Security Regulations located in Title 20 of the Code
7 of Federal Regulations under parts 400-499, entitled "Employee Benefits"? See for yourself:

10 Another very important point to make here is that the purpose of nearly all federal law is to regulate "public
11 conduct" rather than "private conduct". Congress must write laws to regulate and control every aspect of the 12 behavior of its employees so that they do not adversely affect the rights of private individuals like you, who they 13 exist exclusively to serve and protect. Most federal statutes, in fact, are exclusively for use by those working in 14 government and simply do not apply to private citizens in the conduct of their private lives. Federal law cannot 15 apply to the private public at large because the Thirteenth Amendment says that involuntary servitude has been 16 abolished. If involuntary servitude is abolished, then they can't use, or in this case "abuse" the authority of law to 17 impose ANY kind of duty against anyone in the private public except possibly the responsibility to avoid hurting
18 their neighbor and thereby depriving him of the equal rights he enjoys.

19 *For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You
20 shall not bear false witness," "You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, are all summed up 21 in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."*

22 Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of [the ONLY requirement of] the law [which 23 is to avoid hurting your neighbor and thereby love him].

24 [Romans 13:9-10, Bible, NKJV]
25

26 "Do not strive with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm."
27 [Prov. 3:30, Bible, NKJV]

28 Thomas Jefferson, our most revered founding father, summed up this singular duty of government to LEAVE
29 PEOPLE ALONE and only interfere or impose a "duty" using the authority of law when and only when they are 30 hurting each other in order to protect them and prevent the harm when he said.

31 *"With all [our] blessings, what more is necessary to make us a happy and a prosperous people? Still one thing
32 more, fellow citizens--a wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall
33 leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from 34 the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government, and this is necessary to close the 35 circle of our felicities."*

36 [Thomas Jefferson: 1st Inaugural, 1801. ME 3:320]

37 The U.S. Supreme Court confirmed this view, when it ruled:

38 *"The power to "legislate generally upon" life, liberty, and property, as opposed to the "power to provide modes
39 of redress" against offensive state action, was "repugnant" to the Constitution. Id., at 15. See also United States
40 v. Reese, 92 U.S. 214, 218 (1876); United States v. Harris, 106 U.S. 629, 639 (1883); James v. Bowman, 190 U.S.
41 127, 139 (1903). Although the specific holdings of these early cases might have been superseded or modified, see,
42 e.g., Heart of Atlanta Motel, Inc. v. United States, 379 U.S. 241 (1964); United States v. Guest, 383 U.S. 745
43 (1966), their treatment of Congress' §5 power as corrective or preventive, not definitional, has not been 44 questioned."*

45 [City of Boerne v. Flores, Archbishop of San Antonio, 521 U.S. 507 (1997)]

46 What the U.S. Supreme Court is saying above is that the government has no authority to tell you how to run your 47 private life. This is contrary to the whole idea of the Internal Revenue Code, whose main purpose is to monitor
48 and control every aspect of those who are subject to it. In fact, it has become the chief means for Congress to 49 implement what we call "social engineering". Just by the deductions they offer, people are incentivized into all

1 kinds of crazy behaviors in pursuit of reductions in a liability that they in fact do not even have. Therefore, the
2 only reasonable thing to conclude is that Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, which would “appear” to
3 regulate the private conduct of all individuals in states of the Union, in fact only applies to federal instrumentalities
4 or “public employees” in the official conduct of their duties on behalf of the municipal corporation located in the 5 District of Columbia, which 4 U.S.C. §72 makes the “seat of government”. The I.R.C. therefore essentially 6 amounts to a part of the job responsibility and the “employment contract” of “public employees” and federal 7 instrumentalities. This was also confirmed by the House of Representatives, who said that only those who take 8 an oath of “public office” are subject to the requirements of the personal income tax. See:

9 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Evidence/PublicOrPrivate-Tax-Return.pdf>

10 Within the Internal Revenue Code, those legal “persons” who work for the government are identified as engaging
11 in a “public office”. A “public office” within the Internal Revenue Code is called a “trade or business”, which is 12 defined below. We emphasize that engaging in a privileged “trade or business” is the main excise taxable activity
13 that in fact and in deed is what REALLY makes a person a “taxpayer” subject to the Internal Revenue Code,
14 Subtitle A:

15 26 U.S.C. Sec. 7701\(a\)\(26\)

16 “The term ‘trade or business’ includes the performance of the functions of a public office.”

17 Below is the definition of “public office”:

18 Public office

19 “Essential characteristics of a ‘public office’ are:

20 (1) Authority conferred by law,

21 (2) Fixed tenure of office, and

22 (3) Power to exercise some of the sovereign functions of government.

23 (4) Key element of such test is that “officer is carrying out a sovereign function’.

24 (5) Essential elements to establish public position as ‘public office’ are:

25 (a) Position must be created by Constitution, legislature, or through authority conferred by legislature.

26 (b) Portion of sovereign power of government must be delegated to position,

27 (c) Duties and powers must be defined, directly or implied, by legislature or through legislative authority.

28 (d) Duties must be performed independently without control of superior power other than law, and 29 (e) Position must have some permanency.”

30 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1230]

31 Those who are fulfilling the “functions of a public office” are under a legal, fiduciary duty as “trustees” of the 32 “public trust”, while working as “volunteers” for the “charitable trust” called the “United States Government
33 Corporation”, which we affectionately call “U.S. Inc.”:

34 “As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be 35 exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer.”<sup>81</sup>

36 Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level
37 of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under

29 Those who are acting as “public officers” for “U.S. Inc.” have essentially donated their formerly private property

5 Below is what the U.S. Supreme Court says about those who have donated their private property to a “public use”.
6 The ability to volunteer your private property for “public use”, by the way, also implies the ability to 7 UNVOLUNTEER at any time, which is the part no government employee we have ever found is willing to talk
8 about. I wonder why....DUHHHH!:

9 “Men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, -life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;’

16 [Budd v. People of State of New York, 143 U.S. 517 (1892)]

17 Any legal person, whether it be a natural person, a corporation, or a trust, may become a “public office” if it
18 volunteers to do so. A subset of those engaging in such a “public office” are federal “employees”, but the term
19 “public office” or “trade or business” encompass much more than just government “employees”. In law, when a 20 legal “person” volunteers to accept the legal duties of a “public office”, it therefore becomes a “trustee”, an agent,
21 and fiduciary (as defined in 26 U.S.C. §6903) acting on behalf of the federal government by the operation of 22 private contract law. It becomes essentially a “franchisee” of the federal government carrying out the provisions 23 of the franchise agreement, which is found in:

- 24 1. Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A, in the case of the federal income tax.
- 25 2. The Social Security Act, which is found in Title 42 of the U.S. Code.

26 If you would like to learn more about how this “trade or business” scam works, consult the authoritative article
27 below:

The “Trade or Business” Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/TradeOrBusScam.pdf>

28 If you would like to know more about the extreme dangers of participating in all government franchises and why
29 you destroy ALL your Constitutional rights and protections by doing so, see:

- 30 1. Government Instituted Slavery Using Franchises, Form #05.030
31 <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
- 32 2. Liberty University, Section 4:
33 <http://sedm.org/LibertyU/LibertyU.htm>

34 The IRS Form 1042-S Instructions confirm that all those who use Social Security Numbers are engaged in the 35 “trade or business” franchise:

36 Box 14, Recipient’s U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

37 You must obtain and enter a U.S. taxpayer identification number (TIN) for:

- 38 • Any recipient whose income is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the 39 United States.

40 [IRS Form 1042-S Instructions \(2006\), p. 14]

1 Engaging in a “trade or business” therefore implies a “public office”, which makes the person using the number
2 into a “public officer” who has donated his formerly private time and services to a “public use” and agreed to give
3 the public the right to control and regulate that use through the operation of the franchise agreement, which is the 4 Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A and the Social Security Act found in Title 42 of the U.S. Code. The Social
5 Security Number is therefore the equivalent of a “license number” to act as a “public officer” for the federal
6 government, who is a fiduciary or trustee subject to the plenary legislative jurisdiction of the federal government
7 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(39\), 26 U.S.C. §7408\(c\) , and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 17\(b\),
8 regardless of where he might be found geographically, including within a state of the Union. The franchise
9 agreement governs “choice of law” and where it’s terms may be litigated, which is the District of Columbia, based 10 on the agreement itself.

11 Now let’s apply what we have learned to your employment situation. God said you cannot work for two 12 companies at once. You can only serve one company, and that company is the federal government if you are 13 receiving federal benefits:

14 *“No one can serve two masters [two employers, for instance]; for either he will hate the one and love the other,
15 or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon [government].”
16 [Luke 16:13, Bible, NKJV. Written by a tax collector]*

17 Everything you make while working for your slave master, the federal government, is their property over which 18 you are a fiduciary and “public officer”.

19 “THE” + “IRS” = “THEIRS”

20 A federal “public officer” has no rights in relation to their master, the federal government:

21 *“The restrictions that the Constitution places upon the government in its capacity as lawmaker, i.e., as the
22 regulator of private conduct, are not the same as the restrictions that it places upon the government in its capacity
23 as employer. We have recognized this in many contexts, with respect to many different constitutional guarantees.
24 Private citizens perhaps cannot be prevented from wearing long hair, but policemen can. Kelley v. Johnson, 425
25 U.S. 238, 247 (1976). Private citizens cannot have their property searched without probable cause, but in many 26 circumstances government employees can. O’Connor v. Ortega, 480 U.S. 709, 723 (1987) (plurality opinion);
27 id., at 732 (SCALIA, J., concurring in judgment). Private citizens cannot be punished for refusing to provide the 28 government information that may incriminate them, but government employees can be dismissed when the 29 incriminating information that they refuse to provide relates to the performance of their job. Gardner v.
30 Broderick, [497 U.S. 62, 95] 392 U.S. 273, 277 -278 (1968). With regard to freedom of speech in particular:
31 Private citizens cannot be punished for speech of merely private concern, but government employees can be fired
32 for that reason. Connick v. Myers, 461 U.S. 138, 147 (1983). Private citizens cannot be punished for partisan
33 political activity, but federal and state employees can be dismissed and otherwise punished for that reason. Public
34 Workers v. Mitchell, 330 U.S. 75, 101 (1947); Civil Service Comm’n v. Letter Carriers, 413 U.S. 548, 556 (1973);
35 Broadrick v. Oklahoma, 413 U.S. 601, 616 -617 (1973).”
36 [Rutan v. Republican Party of Illinois, 497 U.S. 62 (1990)]*

37 Your existence and your earnings as a federal “public officer” and “trustee” and “fiduciary” are entirely subject
38 to the whim and pleasure of corrupted lawyers and politicians, and you must beg and grovel if you expect to retain 39 anything:

40 *“In the general course of human nature, A POWER OVER A MAN’S SUBSISTENCE AMOUNTS TO A POWER 41 OVER HIS WILL.”
42 [Alexander Hamilton, Federalist Paper No. 79]*

43 You will need an “exemption” from your new slave master specifically spelled out in law to justify anything you
44 want to keep while working on the federal plantation. The IRS Form 1040 return is a profit and loss statement
45 for a federal business corporation called the “United States”. You are in partnership with your slave master and 46 they decide what scraps they want to throw to you in your legal “cage” AFTER they figure out whatever is left in 47 financing their favorite pork barrel project and paying off interest on an ever-expanding and endless national debt.
48 Do you really want to reward this type of irresponsibility and surety?

1 The IRS Form W-4 therefore essentially amounts to a federal employment application. It is your badge of
2 dishonor and a tacit admission that you can't or won't trust God and yourself to provide for yourself. Instead, you
3 need a corrupted "protector" to steal money from your neighbor or counterfeit (print) it to help you pay your bills
4 and run your life. Furthermore, if your private employer forced you to fill out the W-4 against your will or 5 instituted any duress to get you to fill it out, such as threatening to fire or not hire you unless you fill it out, then 6 he/she is:

- 7 1. Acting as an employment recruiter for the federal government.
- 8 2. Recruiting you into federal slavery in violation of the Thirteenth Amendment, and 42 U.S.C. §1994.
- 9 3. Involved in a conspiracy to commit grand theft by stealing money from you to pay for services and protection you don't 10 want and don't need.
- 11 4. Involved in racketeering and extortion in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1951.
- 12 5. Involved in money laundering for the federal government, by sending in money stolen from you to them, in violation of 13 18 U.S.C. §1956.

14 The higher ups at the IRS probably know the above, and they certainly aren't going to tell private employers or 15 their underlings the truth, because they aren't going to look a gift horse in the mouth and don't want to surrender
16 their defense of "plausible deniability". They will NEVER tell a thief who is stealing for them that they are 17 stealing, especially if they don't have to assume liability for the consequences of the theft. No one who practices
18 this kind of slavery, deceit, and evil can rightly claim that they are loving their neighbor and once they know they 19 are involved in such deceit, they have a duty to correct it or become an "accessory after the fact" in violation of 20 18 U.S.C. §3. This form of deceit is also the sin most hated by God in the Bible. Below is a famous Bible
21 commentary on Prov. 11:1:

22 "As religion towards God is a branch of universal righteousness (he is not an honest man that is not devout), so
23 righteousness towards men is a branch of true religion, for he is not a godly man that is not honest, nor can he*
24 *expect that his devotion should be accepted; for, 1. Nothing is more offensive to God than deceit in commerce.
25 A false balance is here put for all manner of unjust and fraudulent practices [of our public dis-servants] in 26 dealing with any person [within the public], which are all an abomination to the Lord, and render those 27 abominable [hated] to him that allow themselves in the use of such accursed arts of thriving. It is an affront
28 to justice, which God is the patron of, as well as a wrong to our neighbour, whom God is the protector of. Men
29 [in the IRS and the Congress] make light of such frauds, and think there is no sin in that which there is money
30 to be got by, and, while it passes undiscovered, they cannot blame themselves for it; a blot is no blot till it is hit,
31 Hos. 12:7, 8. But they are not the less an abomination to God, who will be the avenger of those that are 32 defrauded by their brethren. 2. Nothing is more pleasing to God than fair and honest dealing, nor more**
33 necessary to make us and our devotions acceptable to him: A just weight is his delight. He himself goes by a*
34 just weight, and holds the scale of judgment with an even hand, and therefore is pleased with those that are herein
35 followers of him. A balance cheats, under pretence of doing right most exactly, and therefore is the greater 36 abomination to God."
37 [Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Whole Bible; Henry, M., 1996, c1991, under Prov. 11:1]

38 The Bible also says that those who participate in this kind of "commerce" with the government are practicing 39 harlotry and idolatry. The Bible book of Revelation describes a woman called "Babylon the Great Harlot".

40 "And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten
41 horns. The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls,
42 having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the filthiness of her fornication. And on her forehead a 43 name was written:

44 MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE 45 EARTH.

46 I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw 47 her, I marveled with great amazement."
48 [Rev. 17:3-6, Bible, NKJV]

49 This despicable harlot is described below as the "woman who sits on many waters".

50 "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot [Babylon the Great Harlot] who sits on many waters,
51 with whom the kings of the earth [politicians and rulers] committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth
52 were made drunk [indulged] with the wine of her fornication."

1 [\[Rev. 17:1-2, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

2 These waters are simply symbolic of a democracy controlled by mobs of atheistic people who are fornicating with 3 the Beast and who have made it their false, man-made god and idol:

4 "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and tongues."
5 [\[Rev. 17:15, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

6 The Beast is then defined in Rev. 19:19 as "the kings of the earth", which today would be our political rulers:

7 "And I saw the beast, the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him who
8 sat on the horse and against His army."
9 [\[Rev. 19:19, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

10 Babylon the Great Harlot is "fornicating" with the government by engaging in commerce with it. Black's Law
11 Dictionary defines "commerce" as "intercourse":

12 "Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or
13 inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the 14 instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it
15 is carried on..."
16 [\[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269\]](#)

17 If you want your rights back people, you can't pursue government employment in the context of your private job.
18 If you do, the Bible, not us, says you are a harlot and that you are CONDEMNED to hell!

19 And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest
20 you receive of her plagues. For her sins have reached to heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. Render 21 to her just as she rendered to you, and repay her double according to her works; in the cup which she has mixed,
22 mix double for her. In the measure that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously, in the same measure give her
23 torment and sorrow; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as queen, and am no widow, and will not see sorrow.'
24 Therefore her plagues will come in one day—death and mourning and famine. And she will be utterly burned
25 with fire, for strong is the Lord God who judges her.
26 [\[Rev. 18:4-8, Bible, NKJV\]](#)

27 13.6 Abuse of Franchises to compel conversion of "Unalienable Rights" into statutory 28 "privileges"

29 All corporations are what is called "franchises". Below is the definition of "franchise":

30 FRANCHISE. A special privilege conferred by government on individual or corporation, and which does not 31 belong to citizens of country generally of common right. Elliott v. City of Eugene, 135 Or. 108, 294 P. 358, 360.
32 In England it is defined to be a royal privilege in the hands of a subject.

33 A "franchise," as used by Blackstone in defining quo warranto, (3 Com. 262 [4th Am. Ed.] 322), had reference
34 to a royal privilege or branch of the king's prerogative subsisting in the hands of the subject, and must arise from 35 the king's grant, or be held by prescription, but today we understand a franchise to be some special privilege
36 conferred by government on an individual, natural or artificial, which is not enjoyed by its citizens in general.
37 State v. Fernandez, 106 Fla. 779, 143 So. 638, 639, 86 A.L.R. 240.

38 In this country a franchise is a privilege or immunity of a public nature, which cannot be legally exercised
39 without legislative grant. To be a corporation is a franchise. The various powers conferred on corporations are* 40 franchises. The execution of a policy of insurance by an insurance company [e.g. Social Insurance/Social 41 Security], and the issuing a bank note by an incorporated bank [such as a Federal Reserve NOTE], are 42 franchises. People v. Utica Ins. Co., 15 Johns., N.Y., 387, 8 Am.Dec. 243. But it does not embrace the property
43 acquired by the exercise of the franchise. Bridgeport v. New York & N. H. R. Co., 36 Conn. 255, 4 Arn.Rep. 63.
44 *Nor involve interest in land acquired by grantee. Whitbeck v. Funk, 140 Or. 70, 12 P.2d. 1019, 1020 In a popular
45 sense, the political rights of subjects and citizens are franchises, such as the right of suffrage. etc. Pierce v.
46 Emery, 32 N.H. 484; State v. Black Diamond Co., 97 Ohio.St. 24, 119 N.E. 195, 199, L.R.A.1918E, 352.

47 Elective Franchise. The right of suffrage: the right or privilege of voting in public elections.

48 Exclusive Franchise. See Exclusive Privilege or Franchise.

1 General and Special. The charter of a corporation is its "general" franchise, while a "special" franchise consists
2 in any rights granted by the public to use property for a public use but-with private profit. Lord v. Equitable Life
3 Assur. Soc., 194 N.Y. 212, 81 N.E. 443, 22 L.R.A.,N.S., 420.

4 Personal Franchise. A franchise of corporate existence, or one which authorizes the formation and existence of 5 a corporation, is sometimes called a "personal" franchise. as distinguished from a "property" franchise, which
6 authorizes a corporation so formed to apply its property to some particular enterprise or exercise some special
7 privilege in its employment, as, for example, to construct and operate a railroad. See Sandham v. Nye, 9 Misc.Rep.
8 541, 30 N.Y.S. 552.

9 Secondary Franchises. The franchise of corporate existence being sometimes called the "primary" franchise of a
10 corporation, its "secondary" franchises are the special and peculiar rights, privileges, or grants which it may,
11 receive under its charter or from a municipal corporation, such as the right to use the public streets, exact tolls,
12 collect fares, etc. State v. Topeka Water Co., 61 Kan. 547, 60 P. 337; Virginia Canon Toll Road Co. v. People,
13 22 Colo. 429, 45 P. 398, 37 L.R.A. 711. The franchises of a corporation are divisible into (1) corporate or general
14 franchises; and (2) "special or secondary franchises. The former is the franchise to exist as a corporation, while 15 the latter are certain rights and privileges conferred upon existing corporations. Gulf Refining Co. v. Cleveland
16 Trust Co., 166 Miss. 759, 108 So. 158, 160.

17 Special Franchisee. See Secondary Franchises, supra.
18 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, pp. 786-787]

19 A "franchise" is an arrangement usually between you and the government, the voluntary acceptance of which puts 20 you into a "privileged" state and causes a surrender of constitutional rights of one kind or another. The courts call 21 "franchises" by various pseudonyms such as "public right" to disguise the nature of the inferior relation to the 22 government of "franchisees". Franchises include:

- 23 1. Domicile in the forum state, which causes one to end up being one of the following:
  - 24 1.1. Statutory "U.S. citizen" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 if a domestic national.
  - 25 1.2. Statutory "Permanent resident" pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\)\(1\)\(A\) if a foreign national.
- 26 2. Becoming a registered "voter" rather than an "elector".
- 27 3. I.R.C. Section 501\(c\)\(3\) status for churches. Churches that register under this program become government "trustees"
28 and "public officials" that are part of the government. Is THIS what you call "separation of church and state"? See:
29 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/spirituality.htm#TAXATION OF CHURCHES AND CHURCH GOERS>:
- 30 4. Serving as a jurist. 18 U.S.C. §201\(a\)\(1\) says that all persons serving as federal jurists are "public officials".
- 31 5. Attorney licenses. All attorneys are "officers of the court" and the courts in turn are part of the government. See the 32 following for details:

Why You Don't Want An Attorney, Family Guardian Fellowship
[http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/LegalEthics/Corruption/WhyYouDontWantAnAtty/
WhyYouDon'tWantAnAttorney.htm](http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/LegalEthics/Corruption/WhyYouDontWantAnAtty/WhyYouDon'tWantAnAttorney.htm)
- 33 6. Marriage licenses. See the following for details:

Sovereign Christian Marriage, Form #13.009
<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/SovChristianMarriage/SovChristianMarriage.htm>
- 34 7. Driver's licenses. See the following for details:

Defending Your Right to Travel, Form #06.010
<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/DefYourRightToTravel.htm>
- 35 8. Professional licenses.
- 36 9. Fishing licenses.
- 37 10. Social Security benefits. See the following for details:

Resignation of Compelled Social Security Trustee, Form #06.002
<http://sedm.org/Forms/10-Emancipation/SSTrustIndenture.pdf>
- 38 11. Medicare.
- 39 12. Medicaid.
- 40 13. FDIC insurance of banks. 31 C.F.R. §202.2 says all FDIC insured banks are "agents" of the federal government and 41 therefore "public officers".

42 The U.S. Supreme Court acknowledged that private conduct is beyond the reach of the government and that certain 43 harmful, and therefore regulated activities may cause the actors to become "public officers" when it held the 44 following.

1 "One great object of the Constitution is to permit citizens to structure their private relations as they choose
2 subject only to the constraints of statutory or decisional law. [500 U.S. 614, 620]

3 To implement these principles, courts must consider from time to time where the governmental sphere [e.g.
4 "public purpose" and "public office"] ends and the private sphere begins. Although the conduct of private parties
5 lies beyond the Constitution's scope in most instances, governmental authority may dominate an activity to such 6 an extent that its participants must be deemed to act with the authority of the government and, as a result, be 7 subject to constitutional constraints. This is the jurisprudence of state action, which explores the "essential 8 dichotomy" between the private sphere and the public sphere, with all its attendant constitutional obligations.
9 Moose Lodge, supra, at 172."

10 [. . .]

11 Given that the statutory authorization for the challenges exercised in this case is clear, the remainder of our state
12 action analysis centers around the second part of the Lugar test, whether a private litigant, in all fairness, must
13 be deemed a government actor in the use of peremptory challenges. Although we have recognized that this aspect
14 of the analysis is often a fact-bound inquiry, see Lugar, supra, 457 U.S. at 939, our cases disclose certain
15 principles of general application. Our precedents establish that, in determining whether a particular action or 16 course of conduct is governmental in character, it is relevant to examine the following:

17 [1] the extent to which the actor relies on governmental assistance and benefits, see Tulsa Professional Collection
18 Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478 (1988); Burton v. Wilmington Parking Authority, 365 U.S. 715 (1961);

19 [2] whether the actor is performing a traditional governmental function, see Terry v. Adams, 345 U.S. 461 (1953)
20 ; Marsh v. Alabama, 326 U.S. 501 (1946); cf. San Francisco Arts & Athletics, Inc. v. United States Olympic [500
21 U.S. 614, 622] Committee, 483 U.S. 522, 544 -545 (1987);

22 [3] and whether the injury caused is aggravated in a unique way by the incidents of governmental authority, see 23 Shelley v. Kraemer, 334 U.S. 1 (1948).

24 Based on our application of these three principles to the circumstances here, we hold that the exercise of 25 peremptory challenges by the defendant in the District Court was pursuant to a course of state action.
26 [Edmonson v. Leesville Concrete Company, 500 U.S. 614 (1991) ]

27 Note that the "statutory or decisional law" they are referring to above are ONLY.

- 28 1. Criminal law.
- 29 2. Franchises that you consensually engage in using your right to contract.

30 For an explanation of why this is, see:

Why Statutory Civil Law is Law for Government and Not Private Persons, Form #05.037
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

31 Nearly every type of government-issued benefit, license, or "privilege" you could possibly procure makes you
32 into a "public officer", "public official", "fiduciary", "alien", "resident", "transferee", or "trustee" of the government
33 of one kind or another with a "residence" on federal territory.

34 "All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be
35 carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made
36 with [private] individuals."
37 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824) ]

38 The application or license to procure the "benefits" of the franchise constitutes the contract mentioned above that 39 creates the public office and the "RES" which is "IDENT-ified" within the government's legislative jurisdiction
40 on federal territory. Hence "RES-IDENT"/"resident".

41 "Res. Lat. The subject matter of a trust or will [or legislation]. In the civil law, a thing; an object. As a term
42 of the law, this word has a very wide and extensive signification, including not only things which are objects of 43 property, but also such as are not capable of individual ownership. And in old English law it is said to have a
44 general import, comprehending both corporeal and incorporeal things of whatever kind, nature, or species. By 45 "res," according to the modern civilians, is meant everything that may form an object of rights, in opposition
46 to "persona," which is regarded as a subject of rights. "Res," therefore, in its general meaning, comprises

1 actions [or CONSEQUENCES of choices and CONTRACTS/AGREEMENTS you make by procuring
2 BENEFITS] of all kinds; while in its restricted sense it comprehends every object of right, except actions. This
3 has reference to the fundamental division of the Institutes that all law relates either to persons, to things, or to 4 actions.

5 Res is everything that may form an object of rights and includes an object, subject-matter or status. In re
6 Riggle's Will, 11 A.D.2d. 51 205 N.Y.S.2d. 19, 21, 22. The term is particularly applied to an object, subject-
7 matter, or status, considered as the defendant [hence, the ALL CAPS NAME] in an action, or as an object
8 against which, directly, proceedings are taken. Thus, in a prize case, the captured vessel is "the res"; and 9 proceedings of this character are said to be in rem. (See In personam; In Rem.) "Res" may also denote the action
10 or proceeding, as when a cause, which is not between adversary parties, is entitled "In re _____".
11 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, pp. 1304-1306]

12 The "subject matter or status" they are talking about includes all privileged statuses such as "taxpayer", "benefit 13 recipient", "citizen", or "resident". Even domicile is a type of franchise--a "protection franchise", to be 14 precise. This "res-ident" is what most people in the freedom community would refer to as your "straw man". If 15 a state-issued license or benefit is at issue, the territory that the privilege or franchise attaches to is federal territory
16 that is usually in a federal area within the exterior limits of the state. The reason all licenses must presume
17 domicile of the "person" on federal territory is that they are implemented using civil law and they regulate the 18 exercise of rights protected by the Constitution, which in turn is a violation of rights. The Constitution and the 19 Bill of Rights portion of the Constitution does not apply on federal territory, and therefore there is no conflict with 20 the Constitution in regulating the exercise of rights there.

21 "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform
22 to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or
23 conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every
24 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
25 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and
26 is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the
27 territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan,
28 Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing
29 a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative
30 power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not
31 until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the
32 people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress
33 thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that
34 the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of 35 habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
36 [Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

37 In that sense, applying for any kind of "privilege" or franchise from the government amounts to your constructive
38 consent to be treated as a "resident alien" who is domiciled on federal territory and who has no constitutional
39 rights. The following articles and forms describe this straw man and provide tools to notify the government that 40 you have disconnected yourself from this "straw man" who is the "public officer" that is the only proper or lawful 41 subject of most federal legislation:

- 42 1. Proof That There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042

50 Participating in federal franchises has the following affects upon the legal status of various types of "persons"
51 listed below. The right column describes the status of the "public officer" you represent while you are acting in 52 that capacity. The right column is a judicial creation not found directly in the statutes and which results from the 53 application of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act \(F.S.I.A.\), 28 U.S.C. §1605. It does not describe your own
54 private status. This "public officer" in the right column is the "straw man" that is the subject of nearly all federal

1 legislation that could or does regulate your conduct. Without the existence of the straw man, the Thirteenth
2 Amendment would make it illegal to enforce federal civil law against human beings because of the prohibition
3 against involuntary servitude. For details on how the change in "choice of law" is effected by you voluntarily
4 consenting to assume the duties of the "public officer" straw man, read sections 12 through 12.5 of our pamphlet

WARNING: Participating in ANY government franchise can leave you entirely without standing or remedy in any federal court! Essentially, by eating out of the government's hand, you are SCREWED, BLACK AND BLUED, and TATTOOED!

"These general rules are well settled: (1) That the United States, when it creates rights in individuals against itself [a "public right", which is a euphemism for a "franchise" to help the court disguise the nature of the transaction], is under no obligation to provide a remedy through the courts. United States ex rel. Dunlap v. Black, 128 U.S. 40, 9 Sup.Ct. 12, 32 L.Ed. 354; Ex parte Atocha, 17 Wall. 439, 21 L.Ed. 696; Gordon v. United States, 7 Wall. 188, 195, 19 L.Ed. 35; De Groot v. United States, 5 Wall. 419, 431, 433, 18 L.Ed. 700 Comegys v. Vasse, 1 Pet. 193, 212, 7 L.Ed. 108. (2) That where a statute creates a right and provides a special remedy, that remedy is exclusive. Wilder Manufacturing Co. v. Corn Products Co., 236 U.S. 165, 174, 175, 35 Sup.Ct. 398, 59 L.Ed. 520, Ann.Cas. 1916A, 118; Arnson v. Murphy, 109 U.S. 238, 3 Sup.Ct. 184, 27 L.Ed. 920; Barnet v. Still the fact that the right and the remedy are thus intertwined might not, if the provision stood alone, require us to hold that the remedy expressly given excludes a right of review by the Court of Claims, where the decision of the special tribunal involved no disputed question of fact and the denial of compensation was rested wholly upon the construction of the act. See [Medbury v. United States, 173 U.S. 492, 198, 19 Sup.Ct. 503, 43 L.Ed. 779; Parish v. MacVeagh, 214 U.S. 124, 29 Sup.Ct. 556, 53 L.Ed. 936; [McLean v. But here Congress has provided: [U.S. v. Babcock, 250 U.S. 328, 39 S.Ct. 464 (1919) ]

Signing up for government entitlements hands them essentially a blank check, because they, and not you, determine the cost for the service and how much you will pay for it beyond that point. This makes the public servant into your Master and beyond that point, you must lick the hands that feed you. Watch Out! NEVER, EVER take a hand-out from the government of ANY kind, or you'll end up being their CHEAP WHORE. The Bible calls this WHORE "Babylon the Great Harlot". Remember: Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce", e.g. commerce with the GOVERNMENT, as "intercourse". Bend over!

Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it is carried on..."*
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

Government franchises and licenses are the main method for destroying the sovereignty of the people pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1603\(b\)\(3\) and 28 U.S.C. §1605\(a\)\(2\). For further details, read the Sovereignty Forms and Instructions Manual, Form #10.005, Sections 1.4 through 1.11.

13.7 Franchise Courts: The Executive Branch judicial "protection racket"

"The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands, whether of one, a few, or many, and whether hereditary, selfappointed, or elective, may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny."
[James Madison, Federalist Paper #47, January 30, 1788]

The quote above from founding father James Madison establishes that when powers of one branch of government are consolidated into any other branch, we will have tyranny. The originator of the Separation of Powers upon which our constitutional design for government was based also said the same thing:

"When the legislative and executive powers are united in the same person, or in the same body of magistrates, there can be no liberty; because apprehensions may arise, lest the same monarch or senate should enact tyrannical laws, to execute them in a tyrannical manner."
[Montesquieu, The Spirit of the Laws, vol. 1, trans. Thomas Nugent (London: J. Nourse, 1777), pp. 221-237, passim.]

Franchise courts are an example where such tyranny occurs because they consolidate judicial functions into the executive branch of the government. All franchise courts such as the U.S. Tax Court are in the Executive Branch, as held by the U.S. Supreme Court in Freytag v. Commissioner, 501 U.S. 868 (1991).

1                   “Since the Tax Court is not a court of law, unless the Chief Judge is the head of a department, the appointment
2 of the Special Trial Judge was void. Unlike the Court, I think he is. [501 U.S. 915]

3                   I have already explained that the Tax Court, like its predecessors, exercises the executive power of the United
4 States. This does not, of course, suffice to market a "Department[t]" for purposes of the Appointments Clause. If,
5 for instance, the Tax Court were a subdivision of the Department of the Treasury -- as the Board of Tax
6 Appeals used to be -- it would not qualify. In fact, however, the Tax Court is a freestanding, self-contained
7 entity in the Executive Branch, whose Chief Judge is removable by the President (and, save impeachment, no
8 one else). Nevertheless, the Court holds that the Chief Judge is not the head of a department.”
9 [Freytag v. Commissioner, 501 U.S. 868, 914-915 (1991)]

10 We can now apply these concepts to show those areas in the courts where judicial discretion is being abused as 11 the equivalent of a “protection racket” for an organized crime syndicate called the “United States” in order to 12 spread a private corporate monopoly over certain segments of the private commercial marketplace. These areas
13 include “social insurance”, postal delivery, courts, and police protection. A truly free economy would allow and 14 even promote privatization of all these areas and prohibit the courts by statutes from doing all the following things:

- 15 1. Constitutional courts may not shirk or undermine their duty to protect PRIVATE rights. The purpose of the creation of 16 all government, in fact, is to protect PRIVATE rights. The first step in protecting PRIVATE rights is to prevent them
17 from being converted into public rights, public offices, or a public use without the consent of the owner.
- 18 2. De jure constitutional courts cannot participate in or allow Congress to put into effect ANY enactment that would 19 undermine the protection of private rights. For instance, they cannot invoke the Declaratory Judgments Act, 28 U.S.C.
20 §2201(a) to evade the duty to issue a declaratory judgment in the case of a NONTAXPAYER. All statutory “taxpayers”
21 under the I.R.C. are public officers in the U.S. government, but NONTAXPAYERS are PRIVATE human beings with 22 constitutional rights that are UNALIENABLE and MUST be protected by all de jure constitutional courts.
- 23 3. Franchises within the government may not lawfully be protected by the courts using sovereign immunity. If the courts 24 extend sovereign immunity to protect any government franchise, then they are furthering private business interests at the 25 expense of the Constitutional rights to property of individuals.
- 26 4. The government may not deny that any franchise they are administering is private business and not government business 27 or a “public purpose”.
- 28 5. The government may not exempt itself from the provisions of the Sherman Antitrust Act in the area of franchises or 29 benefits it offers. In all cases involving franchises, the federal government, like every other private corporation, must 30 implicitly surrender sovereign immunity and be sued in any court, not just federal court, for any infractions or violations 31 under the franchise agreement.
- 32 6. The federal government may not use Article III constitutional courts to enforce participation in or collection of revenues 33 to pay any franchise, nor may they impose an obligation upon private citizens to officiate over disputes arising under the 34 private franchise agreement by forcing them to act as jurists in courts that are hearing cases involving franchises. This
35 causes public institutions to be abused for a “private purpose”, which amounts to theft of people’s time for the private 36 benefit of a few individuals in the government. 18 U.S.C. §201(a)(1) says that all those presiding as jurists are “public 37 officers”, and public property may not be abused for private gain without committing embezzlement.
- 38 7. The courts must carefully distinguish between “United States” when used in the context of the government only and 39 “United States” when used in the context of a specific geographic place. They deliberately confuse these two in the 40 Internal Revenue Code in order to deceive people into believing that participation in the Internal (to the government)
41 Revenue Code “scheme” pertains to all individuals, rather than more properly only to those within the government who 42 are “public officers”, federal corporations, and franchisees.

43 We remind our readers that no entity deserves to be called a “government” that interferes with anyone or any 44 business setup to compete with the services it officers. To deny this:

- 45 1. Represents hypocrisy and unequal protection.
  - 46 1.1. It is hypocrisy for the government to promote capitalism and competition in the private industry and yet prevent 47 the privatization or competition in the services that government itself offers. If the property taxes are too high and 48 therefore police and fire protection and schools cost too much, citizens should be able to select which of those
49 services they want to contract out and fire the government in and they should be billed for and be required to pay
50 for only those services that they specifically and individually request in a written contract.
  - 51 1.2. It is hypocrisy on the one hand to pass a law prohibiting monopolies, and yet also further the largest corporate 52 monopoly in the world, the U.S. government, or “U.S. Inc”.
- 53 2. Denies the intent of the Constitution, which is to preserve as much SELF government to the people as possible:

1 “The determination of the Framers Convention and the ratifying conventions to preserve complete and
2 unimpaired state self-government in all matters not committed to the general government is one of the plainest
3 facts which emerges from the history of their deliberations. And adherence to that determination is incumbent
4 equally upon the federal government and the states. State powers can neither be appropriated on the one hand
5 nor abdicated on the other. As this court said in Texas v. White, 7 Wall. 700, 725, ‘The preservation of the
6 States, and the maintenance of their governments, are as much within the design and care of the Constitution
7 as the preservation of the Union and the maintenance of the National government. The Constitution, in all its
8 provisions, looks to an indestructible Union, composed of indestructible States.’ Every journey to a forbidden end
9 begins with the first step; and the danger of such a step by the federal government in the direction of taking over
10 the powers of the states is that the end of the journey may find the states so despoiled of their powers, or-what
11 may amount to the same thing-so [298 U.S. 238, 296] relieved of the responsibilities which possession of the 12 powers necessarily enjoins, as to reduce them to little more than geographical subdivisions of the national
13 domain. It is safe to say that if, when the Constitution was under consideration, it had been thought that any such 14 danger lurked behind its plain words, it would never have been ratified.”
15 [Carter v. Carter Coal Co., 298 U.S. 238 (1936)]

- 16 3. Denies the legislative intent of the Declaration of Independence, that says it is the right and DUTY even of people to 17 setup their own governments, and by implication government services, that provide better security and safety for their 18 rights.

19 “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator
20 with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure
21 these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
22 --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to
23 alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing
24 its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness.”
25 [Declaration of Independence]

26 The “form of government” referred to above by Jefferson is all the component services offered by the government, which 27 we believe can and should be subject to competition and choice and privatization.

- 28 4. Denies others the right of self-government in a way they choose.

29 Ultimately, the courts are being abused for is to create a corporate welfare state for a gigantic private corporate 30 monopoly of malfeasant, inefficient tyrants who demand to be worshipped and glorified as a pagan deity and a
31 religion, not a government. They are Microsoft to the Tenth power, not a government. This is exhaustively proven 32 in the following document:

Socialism: The New American Civil Religion, Form #05.016
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

33 In modern lingo, they are a fascist corporate dictatorship, whereby privilege and “adhesion contracts” have 34 replaced equal protection and equal rights. Benito Mussolini (1883-1945) named his form of socialism, "fascism"
35 after the "fasces", the symbol of bound sticks used as a totem of power in ancient Rome, which is now the symbol
36 for the United States Tax Court which symbol is a descriptive and appropriate symbol for this particularized
37 tribunal because this so-called court is Satanic and Fascist and created to give only the illusion of justice while 38 establishing compliance to the 2nd Plank of the Communist Manifesto.

2 The same “fasces” used in the U.S. Tax Court symbol above also appears in the statue outside the U.S. Supreme

13.8 Rules for determining whether a corporation is an extension of the government

An important aspect of discerning whether government functions have been privatized is the ability to determine whether a corporation is considered an officer or agent of the government by the courts. On this subject, the U.S. Supreme Court has held the following:

The ultimate question for determination is whether the employment of defendant Strang as an inspector by the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, without more, made him an agent of the government within the meaning of section 41, Criminal Code.

'Sec. 41. No officer or agent of any corporation, joint-stock company, or association, and no member or agent of any firm, or person directly or indirectly interested in the pecuniary profits or contracts of such corporation, joint-stock company, association, or firm, shall be employed or shall act as an officer or agent of the United States for the transaction of business with such corporation, joint-stock company, association, or firm. Whoever shall violate the provision of this section shall be fined not more than two thousand dollars and imprisoned not more than two years.' Comp. St. § 10205.

Holding that this employment did not suffice to create the relation alleged, the trial court sustained a demurrer to the indictment. It contains four counts, three of which charge that Strang unlawfully acted as agent of the United States in transacting business with the Duval Ship Outfitting Company, a copartnership of which he was a member, in that while an employee of the Fleet Corporation as an inspector he signed and executed (February, 1919) three separate orders to the Outfitting Company for repairs and alterations on the steamship Lone Star. The other defendants are charged with aiding and abetting him. The trial court and counsel here have treated the fourth count as charging all the defendants with conspiracy to commit the offenses set forth in the three preceding counts. United States v. Colgate & Co., 250 U.S. 300, 39 Sup.Ct. 465, 63 L.Ed. 992, 7 A.L.R. 443.

1 Counsel for the government maintain that the Fleet *493 Corporation is an agency or instrumentality of the 2 United States formed only as an arm for executing purely governmental powers and duties vested by Congress
3 in the President and by him delegated to it; that the acts of the corporation within its delegated authority are
4 the acts of the United **166 States; that therefore in placing orders with the Duval Company in behalf of the 5 Fleet Corporation while performing the duties as inspector Strang necessarily acted as agent of the United 6 States.

7 The demurrer was properly sustained.

8 As authorized by the Act of September 7, 1916 (39 Stat. 728), the United States Shipping Board caused the Fleet
9 Corporation to be organized (April 16, 1917) under laws of the District of Columbia with $50,000,000 capital
10 stock, all owned by the United States, and it became an operating agency of that board. Later, the President
11 directed that the corporation should have and exercise a specified portion of the power and authority in respect
12 of ships granted to him by the Act of June 15, 1917 (40 Stat. 182), and he likewise authorized the Shipping Board
13 to exercise through it another portion of such power and authority. See The Lake Monroe, 250 U.S. 246, 252, 39
14 Sup.Ct. 460, 63 L.Ed. 962. The corporation was controlled and managed by its own officers and appointed its 15 own servants and agents who became directly responsible to it. Notwithstanding all its stock was owned by the 16 United States it must be regarded as a separate entity. Its inspectors were not appointed by the President, nor 17 by any officer designated by Congress; they were subject to removal by the corporation only and could contract
18 only for it. In such circumstances we think they were not agents of the United States within the true intentment 19 of section 41.

20 Generally agents of a corporation are not agents of the stockholders and cannot contract for the latter.
21 Apparently this was one reason why Congress authorized organization of the Fleet Corporation. *494 Bank of
22 the United States v. Planters' Bank of Georgia, 9 Wheat. 904, 907, 908, 6 L.Ed. 244; Bank of Kentucky v.
23 Wister et al., 2 Pet. 318, 7 L.Ed. 437; Briscoe et al. v. Bank of Kentucky, 11 Pet. 257, 9 L.Ed. 709; Salas v.
24 United States, 234 Fed. 842, 148 C. C. A. 440. The view of Congress is further indicated by the provision in 25 section 7, Appropriation Act of October 6, 1917 (40 Stats. 345, 384 [Comp. St. 1918, Comp. St. Ann. Supp. 1919, 26 § 251b]):

27 'Provided, that the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation shall be considered a government
28 establishment for the purposes of this section.'

29 Also, by the Act of October 23, 1918 (chapter 194, 40 Stats. 1015 [Comp. St. Ann. Supp 1919, § 10199]) which 30 amends section 35, Criminal Code, and renders it criminal to defraud or conspire to defraud a corporation in 31 which the United States owns stock.

32 [U.S. v. Strang, 254 U.S. 491, 41 S.Ct. 165 (U.S. 1921)]

33 The rules for determining whether a corporation whose stock is owned by the government is considered part of 34 the government are summarized below:

- 35 1. Agents of a corporation are not agents of the stockholders and cannot contract for the latter. Therefore, even if the 36 government owns the stock of a corporation, the agents or officers of the corporation cannot be considered an agency or 37 instrumentality of the government.
- 38 2. An officer or agent of the corporation can only be considered part of the government to the extent that he or she:
39 2.1. Is appointed by the President or by an officer designated by Congress.
40 2.2. Is able to contract for or on behalf of the government.

41 In fulfillment of the above, the reader should note that the definition of "employee" found in Title 5 of the U.S.
42 Code has as a prerequisite that all "employees" are officers of the "United States":

43 TITLE 5 > PART III > Subpart A > CHAPTER 21 > § 2105
44 § 2105. Employee

45 (a) For the purpose of this title, "employee", except as otherwise provided by this section or when specifically 46 modified, means an officer and an individual who is—

47 (1) appointed in the civil service by one of the following acting in an official capacity—

48 (A) the President;

49 (B) a Member or Members of Congress, or the Congress;

50 (C) a member of a uniformed service;

51 (D) an individual who is an employee under this section;

52 (E) the head of a Government controlled corporation; or

53 (F) an adjutant general designated by the Secretary concerned under section 709 (c) of title 32;

1 (2) engaged in the performance of a Federal function under authority of law or an Executive act; and

2 (3) subject to the supervision of an individual named by paragraph (1) of this subsection while engaged in the 3 performance of the duties of his position.

4 Consequently:

- 5 1. “employees” described in 5 U.S.C. §2105 would be considered “officers and agents of the United States” and therefore 6 part of the government.
- 7 2. Only the head of a government-controlled corporation would qualify as an “employee”, officer, or agent of the 8 government. Everyone below him or her would not.

11 14 Legal Evidence of Corporatization of State and Federal Governments

12 The following subsections document how the state and federal governments have been corporatized. They appear 13 in the time order they were accomplished.

15 and Executive Orders mentioned in the following subsections, we recommend:

16 14.1 Historical Outline of the corporatization

17 This section describes, in chronological order, the specific events which transformed a de jure or original 18 jurisdiction government into a for-profit, private corporation.

19 1863: Martial Law is declared by President Lincoln on April 24th, 1863, with General Orders No. 100; under 20 martial law authority, Congress and President Lincoln institute continuous martial law by ordering the states
21 (people) either conscribe troops and or provide money in support of the North or be recognized as enemies of the 22 nation; this martial law Act of Congress is still in effect today. This martial law authority gives the President
23 (with or without Congress) the dictatorial authority to do anything that can be done by government in accord with 24 the Constitution of the United States of America. This conscription act remains in effect to this very day and is 25 the foundation of Presidential Executive Orders authority; it was magnified in 1917 with The Trading with the 26 Enemy Act (Public Law 65-91, 65th Congress, Session I, Chapters 105, 106, October 6, 1917). and again in 1933
27 with the Emergency War Powers Act, which is ratified and enhanced almost every year to this date by Congress.
28 Today these Acts address the people of the United States themselves as their enemy.

31 1871: District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871, 16 Stat. 419-429 created a “municipal corporation” to govern
32 the District of Columbia. Considering the fact that the municipal corporation itself was incorporated in 1801, an 33 “Organic Act” (first Act affecting D.C. which invokes the term “organic”). We prove later in section 14.4 that 34 this corporation is a PRIVATE corporation. Hereinafter we will call that private corporation, “Corp. U.S.” By 35 consistent usage, Corp. U.S. trademarked the name, “United States Government” referring to themselves. The 36 District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871, 16 Stat. 419-429 places Congress in control (like a corporate board)

1 and gives the purpose of the act to form a governing body over the municipality; this allowed Congress to direct
2 the business needs of the government under the existent martial law and provided them with corporate abilities
3 they would not otherwise have. This was done under the constitutional authority for Congress to pass any law
4 within the ten mile square of the District of Columbia.

13 1912: Corp. U.S. began to generate debts via bonds etc., which came due in 1912, but they could not pay their 14 debts so the 7 families that bought up the bonds demanded payment and Corp. U.S. could not pay. Said families 15 settled the debt for the payments of all of Corp. U.S.' assets and for all of the assets of the Treasury of the United 16 States of America.

17 _____
18 _____
19 1913: As 1913 began, Corp. U.S. had no funds to carry out the necessary business needs of the government so
20 they went to said families and asked if they could borrow some money. The families said no (Corp. U.S. had 21 already demonstrated that they would not repay their debts in full). The families had foreseen this situation and 22 had the year before finalized the creation of a private corporation of the name "Federal Reserve Bank". Corp.
23 U.S. formed a relationship with the Federal Reserve Bank whereby they could transact their business via note
24 rather than with money. Notice that this relationship was one made between two private corporations and did not
25 involve government; that is where most people error in understanding the Federal Reserve Bank system—again
26 it has no government relation at all. The private contracts that set the whole system up even recognize that if 27 anything therein proposed is found illegal or impossible to perform it is excluded from the agreements and the 28 remaining elements remain in full force and effect.

29 _____
30 _____
31 1913: Almost simultaneously with the last fact (also in 1913), Corp. U.S. adopts (as if ratified) their own 16th
32 amendment. Tax protesters challenge the IRS tax collection system based on this fact, however when we 33 remember that Corp. U.S. originally created their constitution by simply drafting it and adopting it; there is no
34 difference between that adoption and this—such is the nature of corporate enactments—when the corporate board
35 (Congress) tells the secretary to enter the amendment as ratified (even though the States had not ratified it) the 36 Secretary was instructed that the Representatives word alone was sufficient for ratification. You must also note,
37 this amendment has nothing to do with our nation, with our people or with our national Constitution, which already 38 had its own 16th amendment. The Supreme Court (in Brushaber v. Union Pacific R. Co., 240 U.S. 1 (1916)) ruled

1 the 16th amendment did nothing that was not already done other than to make plain and clear the right of the 2 United States (Corp. U.S.) to tax corporations and government employees. We agree, considering that they were 3 created under the authority of Corp. U.S.

4
5
6 1913: Next (also 1913) Corp. U.S., through Congress, adopts (as if ratified) its 17th amendment. This amendment
7 is not only not ratified, it is not constitutional; the nation's Constitution forbids Congress from even discussing the 8 matter of where Senators are elected, which is the subject matter of this amendment; therefore they cannot pass
9 such and Act and then of their own volition, order it entered as ratified. According to the United States Supreme
10 Court, for Congress to propose such an amendment they would first have to pass an amendment that gave them 11 the authority to discuss the matter.

---

12
13
14 1914: Accordingly, in 1914, the Freshman class and all Senators that successfully ran for reelection in 1913 by 15 popular vote were seated in Corp. U.S. Senate capacity only; their respective seats from their States remained 16 vacant because neither the State Senates nor the State Governors appointed new Senators to replace them as is 17 still required by the national Constitution for placement of a national Senator.

---

18
19
20 1916: In 1916, President Wilson is reelected by the Electoral College but their election is required to be confirmed
21 by the constitutionally set Senate; where the new Corp. U.S. only Senators were allowed to participate in the 22 Electoral College vote confirmation the only authority that could possibly have been used for electoral 23 confirmation was corporate only. Therefore, President Wilson was not confirmed into office for his second term
24 as President of the United States of America and was only seated in the Corp. U.S. Presidential capacity. Therefore 25 the original jurisdiction government's seats were vacated because the people didn't seat any original jurisdiction
26 government officers. *It is important to note here that President Wilson retained his capacity as Commander in 27 Chief of the military. Many people wonder about this fact imagining that such a capacity is bound to the President
28 of the nation; however, When John Adams was President he assigned George Washington to the capacity of 29 Commander in Chief of the military in preparation for an impending war with France. During this period, Mr.
30 Adams became quite concerned because Mr. Washington became quite Ill. and passed on his acting military
31 authority through his lead General Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Adams was concerned that if war did break out Mr.
32 Hamilton would use that authority to create a military dictatorship of the nation. Mr. Adams averted the war
33 through diplomacy and the title of Commander in Chief was returned to him. (See: John Adams, by David 34 McCullough, this book covers Mr. Adams concerns over this matter quite well. Mr. Adams was a fascinating 35 man.)*

6 1933: March 9: The Emergency Banking Relief Act, 48 Stat. 1, enacted March 9, 1933 amends the Trading with

9 1935+: Some time after 1935, you ask Social Security Administration for a relationship with their program. With 10 the express purpose of generating Beneficiary funds to United States General Trust Fund (GTF) the Social Security
11 Administration creates an entity with a name (that sounds like your name but is spelled with all capital letters) and 12 an account number (Social Security number). They give you the Social Security card and let you know that the 13 card does not belong to you but you are to hold it for them until they want it back. If you are willing to accept 14 that responsibility over the card you activate the card by signing it, which gives you the ability to act as the 15 fiduciary for the card’s actual owner Corp. U.S. and you can use the card’s name and number to thus transact
16 business relations for the card’s actual owner. You are also to note that though the card verifies its agency (you 17 as the single person with authority to control the entity so created) it is not for use as identification. On review:
18 notice the Social Security Administration was the creator of the entity, they offered you the opportunity to serve
19 its Trustee capacity (by lending it actual consciousness and physical capacity), they gave you something (the card)
20 that does not belong to you to hold in trust and they reserved the actual owner of the thing (Corp. U.S.) as the 21 beneficiary of the entity—by definition, this only describes the creation and existence of a Trust. More
22 importantly: the name they gave this Trust is not your name, the number they gave the Trust is not your number
23 and your lending actual consciousness and physical capacity to this Trust’s Trustee capacity does not limit you or 24 your capacity to separately act in your natural sovereign capacity in any way—what you do, when you do it and 25 how you do it is still totally up to you.

26 _____
27 _____
28 1944 and 1945: Under the Bretton Woods Agreement, Corp. U.S. is quit claimed to the International Monetary
29 Fund, and becomes a foreign controlled private corporation. The Bretton Woods Agreements of 1944 and 1945
30 established the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (a.k.a. the World Bank) and the 31 International Monetary Fund. The United Nations Monetary and Financial Conference was held in July 1944 at 32 Bretton Woods, New Hampshire. The organizations became operational in 1946 after a sufficient number of 33 countries had ratified the agreement. The architecture of a post-World War II international financial system has 34 largely stayed in place, despite major shifts in monetary policy (including eliminating the gold standard).

35 This is an International Agreement [Treaty] which by the Constitution had to be signed by the President and then 36 ratified by 2/3rds of the Senate. So this obviously was not done under the treaty power. Therefore the "United 37 States" in this statute could not have been the government but must be the 1871 corporation known as the “District
38 of Columbia” with the “United States Government” reorganized under it in 1878.

39 What are the elements of a Quit Claim Deed?

- 40 1. There must be a Grantor (The true United States Government)
41 2. There must be a Grantee (The International Monetary Fund)
42 3. There must be assets or rights granted (The Treasury of the Corporation known as the United States")

1 Congress passes the Bretton Woods Agreement granting to the IMF the "United States Treasury" as "The
2 individual drawing account" for the IMF. The President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate shall
3 appoint a governor of the Fund who shall serve as government of the Bank (22 U.S.C. §286a). The person chosen
4 by the President as Governor of the Bank and IMF is The Secretary of the Treasury (acting as a Foreign Agent).

5 Hidden Agenda: U.S. Inc. is quit-claimed into the newly formed International Monetary Fund in exchange for 6 the power allowing U.S. Inc.'s President the right of naming (seating and controlling) the governors and general
7 managers of the International Monetary Fund, The World Bank for Reconstruction and Development, and the 8 Inter-American Bank also formed in that agreement (codified at United States Code Title 22 § 286). It must be 9 noted that this act created an unlawful conflict of interest between US Inc. (with its new foreign owner) and its 10 purpose of carrying out the business needs of the national government. This is the cause of our use of the term
11 "original-jurisdiction" government. With the new foreign owner of U.S. Inc. a conflict of interest is created
12 between the national government and U.S. Inc., even though the contracted purpose of U.S. Inc. has not changed 13 on its face

14 _____
15 _____

16 1968: In 1968, at the National Governor's Conference in Lexington, Kentucky, the IMF leaders of the event
17 proposed the dilemma the State governors were in for carrying out their business dealings in Federal Reserve
18 Notes (foreign notes), which is forbidden in the national and State constitutions, alleging that if they did not do
19 something to protect themselves the people would discover what had been done with their money and would likely 20 to kill them all and start over. They suggested the States form corporations like Corp. U.S. and showed the 21 advantages of the resultant uniform codes that could be created, which would allow better and more powerful
22 control over the people, which thing the original jurisdiction governments of this nation had no capacity to do.
23 Our Constitutions secure that the governments do not govern the people rather they govern themselves in accord
24 with the limits of Law. The people govern themselves. Such is the foundational nature of our Constitutional 25 Republic.

26 _____
27 _____

28 1971: By 1971, every State government in the union of States had formed such private corporations (Corp. State),
29 in accord with the IMF admonition, and the people ceased to seat original jurisdiction government officials in 30 their State government seats. These private corporations are called "State of _____" instead of " 31 Republic" within corporate registries such as Dunn and Bradstreet.

32 _____
33 _____

34 1971: Proclamation #4074 was issued by President Nixon, which dismantled the Bretton Woods agreement and 35 devalues the dollar by announcing the U.S. currency no longer redeemable to foreign countries at a fixed Gold
36 price of $35 an ounce. Now the U.S. currency will float. So the Dollar is allowed to "float" which means the 37 Dollar is allowed to assume a somewhat free market value (except for Federal Reserve Bank manipulations). This 38 makes Federal Reserve Notes the de facto fiat currency and allows them to act essentially as corporate script for 39 the federal slave plantation. In that capacity, they act essentially as a political commodity and a "permission slip"
40 to conduct commerce as a government "public officer".

41 Get it into your brain the U.S. currency "floats" in value. It is only the international money system that has 42 conditioned people to think that the dollar is fixed and commodity constantly change prices. You have fallen into 43 the monetary game/trap the Bankers want you to live and work within. Free your mind from the mental 44 programming you have received! Understand commodities are "real" substance. Gold represents "true" monetary
45 value/substance. Federal Reserve Notes are valueless pieces of printed paper used for daily commercial exchange

1 purposes, they have zero “true” value. Granted any one commodity does change value from the supply and
2 demand market forces but the total overall commodity index is relatively stable in value over long periods of time
3 and it is really the Dollar/FRN’s that goes up and down in value.

4 After this Proclamation on Aug 15, 1971; Gold prices over the following ten years go from $35 per ounce to over
5 $600 per ounce [Gold price chart]. Remember to correct your thinking process: Gold is a stable value and the 6 Dollar “floats”. What this means is the artificial government fixed value of the Dollar underwent a 10 year free
7 market correction to end up at less than 1/10th the original value. U.S. Currency made a huge Free Market
8 devaluation of over 1,000% in ten years. This ten year free fall drop in Dollar value was seen in the U.S. has 9 double digit inflation.

10 So when people say gold went up today, all they are saying is that the federal reserve note became more worthless
11 than it was yesterday because you now need more paper to buy what you bought yesterday. That is how they put 12 more debt, their notes, in service. Now you have to work a longer time to obtain more paper to buy that same 13 ounce of gold.

14 Here is a brief recap of when our “substance” was stolen from “We the People”. In 1810 the Dollar was fixed at 15 a Gold price of $20.67 per ounce so One Dollar was worth 25.8 grains of Gold. In 1934 President Franklin
16 Roosevelt changed the Dollar to a fixed Gold Price of $35 per ounce so One Dollar was worth 13.7 grains of Gold.
17 After President Nixon allows the Dollar to float a Gold price of $340 per ounce really means One Dollar was 18 worth only 0.7 grains of Gold. Understand that with Gold priced at $340 per ounce our “Dollar” is worth only 19 2% of what it was worth before 1933 (now gold is over $400 per ounce and climbing). Is it any wonder that $100
20 dollars does not buy much anymore? What has happened is when the bankers removed the gold backing to make 21 way for their private paper notes, they stole the gold from “We the People” who had the rightful claim to the actual 22 physical Gold backing the Dollar. The Bankers have inflated the currency or amount of paper money needed to 23 obtain the same weight of Gold. They made the people think that gold went up but the reality it was their paper
24 money that became more worthless over time. Remember that one ounce of gold remained the same but you
25 needed more paper to obtain the same weight in Gold which means your “value” is constant disappearing. For 29 Now, having stated these historical facts, we ask you not to believe us, but rather prove these facts for yourself.

30 We then ask you to contact us and share your discovery with us.

31 When you find there is no error in this historical outline, then remember these simple facts and let no one dissuade
32 you from the truth.

33 The Bottom Line: when you speak about these private foreign corporations remember that is what they are and 34 stop calling them government.

35 Further, it is very important that we cease to attempt to fix them. It is far more important that we learn how to 36 reseat our original jurisdiction government and spread the word about the truth. By reseating our State and 37 national governments in their original jurisdiction nature, we gain the capacity to hold these private foreign 38 corporations accountable. They owe us a lot of money; in fact they owe us more money than there is available in 39 the world. In fact it is impossible for them to pay and that gives us the leverage we need to take back our nation
40 and put things right. The process is a simple one. The difficulty is in getting our people to wake up to the truth.
41 That's why we ask you to prove the truth for yourself and contact us with your discovery.

1 That means that you must stop acting and communicating like you are anything other than the sovereign that God
2 created you to be. And, stop referring to Corp. U.S. or the STATE OF 'X' as anything other than the private
3 foreign corporations that they are. And, finally, stop listening to the Bigfoot Patriot Mythology that is espoused
4 by those that only give these facts lip service.

5 It's time to wake up and follow the truth, time to repent and become a moral and honorable society instead of 6 lauding our Piety while we stand guilty of:

- 7 1. Not knowing the truth;
- 8 2. Not living the truth;
- 9 3. Believing God will save us even though we have the tools to know the truth the ability to use the tools but we refuse to 10 live by the truth and use the tools we have to save ourselves and thereby become free.

11 The biggest problem with those who get all excited about uniting against the tyranny of Corp. U.S. is that they are 12 blind to the truth, having no remedy, so they bail out of "the system" hell bent for a rebellion that even the scripture
13 says cannot be won with conventional weapons of war. We wish that more people would instead follow the 14 admonition of the King of Kings and unite with truth to legally, lawfully and peacefully reseal our original 15 jurisdiction government thereby taking back the control of our nation in accord with the organic law.

16 14.2 Articles of Confederation

17 Furthermore, under the Articles of Confederation, the term "United States of America" is the "stile" or phrase that 18 was used to *describe* the Union formed legally by those Articles:

19 Articles of Confederation and perpetual Union between the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts bay, Rhode 20 Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, 21 *Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and* *Georgia.*

22 Article I. The Stile of this Confederacy shall be "The United States of America."

23 Article II. Each state retains its sovereignty, freedom, and independence, and every power, jurisdiction, and right,
24 which is not by this Confederation expressly delegated to the United States, in Congress assembled."

25 [Articles of Confederation, 1776]

26 When they came together the first time to form a Union of several (plural) States, they decided to call themselves
27 the "United States of America".

28 Note also that those Articles clearly distinguished "United States of America" from "United States" in Congress
29 assembled. The States formally delegated certain powers to the federal government, which is clearly identified in 30 those Articles as the "United States".

31 14.3 Bouvier's Law Dictionary

32 Bouvier's Law Dictionary defines "United States of America" as follows:

33 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. The name of this country. The United States, now thirty-one in number, are 34 Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Louisiana, 35 Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York
36 North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, 37 Wisconsin, and California.

38 2. The territory of which these states are composed was at one time dependent generally on the crown of Great
39 Britain, though governed by the local legislatures of the country. It is not within the plan of this work to give a 40 history of the colonies; on this subject the reader is referred to Kent's Com. sect. 10; Story on the Constitution,
41 Book I; 8 Wheat. Rep. 543; Marshall, Hist. Colon.

1 3. The neglect of the British government to redress grievances which had been felt by the people, induced the 2 colonies to form a closer connexion than their former isolated state, in the hopes that by a union they might
3 procure what they had separately endeavored in vain, to obtain. In 1774, Massachusetts recommended that a
4 congress of the colonies should be assembled to deliberate upon the state of public affairs; and on the fourth of 5 September of the following year, the delegates to such a congress assembled in Philadelphia. Connecticut,
6 Delaware, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania,
7 Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Virginia, were represented by their delegates; Georgia alone was not
8 represented. This congress, thus organized, exercised de facto and de jure, a sovereign authority, not as the 9 delegated agents of the governments de facto of the colonies, but in virtue of the original powers derived from the 10 people. This, which was called the revolutionary government, terminated only when superseded by the 11 confederated government under the articles of confederation, ratified in 1781. Serg. on the Const. Intr. 7, 8.

12 4. The state of alarm and danger in which the colonies then stood induced the formation of a second congress.
13 The delegates, representing all the states, met in May, 1775. This congress put the country in a state of defence,
14 and made provisions for carrying on the war with the mother country; and for the internal regulations of which
15 they were then in need; and on the fourth day of July, 1776, adopted and issued the Declaration of Independence.
16 (q.v.) The articles of confederation, (q.v.) adopted on the first day of March, 1781, 1 Story on the Const. Sec. 225;
17 1 Kent's Comm. 211, continued in force until the first Wednesday in March, 1789, when the present constitution
18 was adopted. 5 Wheat. 420.

31 Note that the plural verb "are" was used, providing further evidence that the "United States of America" *are*
32 plural, as implied by the plural term "States". Also, the author of that definition switches to "United States" in the 33 second sentence. This only adds to the confusion, because the term "United States" has three (3) different legal 34 meanings.

35 14.4 District of Columbia Became a PRIVATE Corporation in 1871

36 In examining legislative history, an "organic act" is one that establishes a government for a territory. The District
37 of Columbia is one such territory.

47 The "District of Columbia" was created as a municipal corporation by the District of Columbia Act of 1871, 16
48 Stat. 419, 426, Sec. 34. The relevant portions of that act read as follows:

49 CHAP. LXII. – An Act to provide a Government for the District of Columbia

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
2 That all that part of the territory of the United States included within the limits of the District of Columbia be,
3 and the same is hereby, created into a government of the name of the District of Columbia, by which name it
4 is hereby constituted a body corporate for municipal purposes, and may contract and be contracted with, sue
5 and be sued, plead and be impleaded, have a seal, and exercise all other powers of a municipal corporation not
6 inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States and the provisions of this act.

9 We are not here going to delve into the Act in its entirety, suffice it to say, looking over the situation we find the 10 Act is one made by the original jurisdiction Congress, set by the Constitution for the United States of America.
11 The first thing we notice is that the act created “a body corporate for municipal purposes”, and NOT a “body
12 corporate AND politic”. This subtle distinction is important, because a “body politic and corporate” is a de
13 jure government, while a “body corporate” with the phrase “politic” removed is simply a private 14 corporation that is NOT a “government”. The U.S. Supreme Court confirmed this conclusion when it held the 15 following:

16 Both before and after the time when the Dictionary Act and § 1983 were passed, the phrase “bodies politic and
17 corporate” was understood to include the [governments of the] States. See, e.g., J. Bouvier, 1 A Law Dictionary
18 Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America 185 (11th ed. 1866); W. Shumaker & G.
19 Longsdorf, Cyclopedic Dictionary of Law 104 (1901); Chisholm v. Georgia, 2 U.S. \(2 Dall.\) 419, 447, 1 L.Ed.
20 *440 \(1793\) (Iredell, J.); id., at 468 (Cushing, J.); Cotton v. United States, 52 U.S. \(11 How.\) 229, 231, 13 L.Ed.*
21 675 \(1851\) (“Every sovereign State is of necessity a body politic, or artificial person”); Poindexter v. Greenhow,
22 114 U.S. 270, 288, 5 S.Ct. 903, 29 L.Ed. 185 \(1885\); McPherson v. Blacker, 146 U.S. 1, 24, 13 S.Ct. 3, 6, 36
23 L.Ed. 869 \(1892\); Heim v. McCall, 239 U.S. 175, 188, 36 S.Ct. 78, 82, 60 L.Ed. 206 \(1915\). See also United
24 *States v. Maurice, 2 Brock. 96, 109, 26 F.Cas. 1211 \(CC Va.1823\) (Marshall, C.J.) (“The United States is a
25 government, and, consequently, a body politic and corporate”); Van Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154,*
26 6 S.Ct. 670, 672, 29 L.Ed. 845 \(1886\) (same). Indeed, the very legislators who passed § 1 referred to States in
27 *these terms. See, e.g., Cong. Globe, 42d Cong., 1st Sess., 661-662 (1871) (Sen. Vickers) (“What is a State? Is *79*
28 *it not a body politic and corporate?”); id., at 696 (Sen. Edmunds) (“A State is a corporation”).*

29 The reason why States are “bodies politic and corporate” is simple: just as a corporation is an entity that can
30 act only through its agents, “[t]he State is a political corporate body, can act only through agents, and can
31 command only by laws.” Poindexter v. Greenhow, supra, 114 U.S., at 288, 5 S.Ct. at 912-913. See also Black’s
32 Law Dictionary 159 \(5th ed. 1979\) (“[B]ody politic or corporate”: “A social compact by which the whole people
33 covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for
34 the common good”). As a “body politic and corporate,” a State falls squarely within the Dictionary Act’s
35 definition of a “person.”

36 While it is certainly true that the phrase “bodies politic and corporate” referred to private and public
37 corporations, see ante, at 2311, and n. 9, this fact does not draw into question the conclusion that this phrase
38 also applied to the States. Phrases may, of course, have multiple referents. Indeed, each and every dictionary
39 *cited by the Court accords a broader realm-one **2317 that comfortably, and in most cases explicitly, includes*
40 the sovereign-to this phrase than the Court gives it today. See 1B. Abbott, Dictionary of Terms and Phrases Used
41 in American or English Jurisprudence 155 \(1879\) (“[T]he term body politic is often used in a general way, as
42 meaning the state or the sovereign power, or the city government, without implying any distinct express
43 incorporation”); W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 127 \(1893\) (“[B]ody politic”: “The governmental, sovereign
44 power: a city or a State”); Black’s Law Dictionary 143 \(1891\) (“[B]ody politic”: “It is often used, in a rather
45 loose way, to designate the state or nation or sovereign power, or the government of a county or municipality,
46 without distinctly connoting any express and individual corporate charter”); I.A. Burrill, A Law Dictionary and
47 Glossary 212 \(2d ed. 1871\) (“[B]ody politic”: “A body to take in succession, framed by policy”;
48 *“[p]articularly*80 applied, in the old books, to a Corporation sole”); id., at 383 (“Corporation sole” includes*
49 the sovereign in England).
50 [Will v. Michigan Dept. of State Police, 491 U.S. 58, 109 S.Ct. 2304 (U.S.Mich.,1989)]

51 Note also the following language, which establishes that even PRIVATE corporations can truthfully be described 52 as BOTH “bodies corporate and bodies politic”.

53 “While it is certainly true that the phrase “bodies politic and corporate” referred to private and public 54 corporations, see ante, at 2311, and n. 9,”

55 Hence, calling a creation by Congress a “government” doesn’t MAKE it a “body politic”, a PUBLIC entity, or a
56 de jure government. A “body politic” at least needs to REPRESENT the people it serves, and the District of 57 Columbia corporation doesn’t do this. Rather, as a federal territory, it is organized more akin to a British Crown
58 colony than a republican state of America:

1           "Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform
2 to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or
3 conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every
4 state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the
5 definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and
6 is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the
7 territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan,
8 Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing
9 a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative
10 power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not
11 until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the
12 people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress
13 thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that
14 the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of 15 habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights."
16 Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

17 We allege that the District of Columbia is NOT a "body politic" for the people who live there, because they have 18 no representation in Congress like all the other Constitutional States. The fact that the act creating it as a
19 corporation also called it a "government" STILL doesn't make it anything more than a PRIVATE municipal 20 corporation because said act NEVER expressly identified it as a PUBLIC corporation nor called it a "body politic".

21 The U.S. Supreme Court also held that the formation of a corporation alone does not "confer political power or 22 political character", which is to say, form a "body politic". The creation of a "body politic" within any act of 23 Congress therefore requires an express declaration, which declaration is nowhere to be found within the organic
24 act of 1871, 16 Stat. 419, or any subsequent act affecting the District of Columbia:

25           "The mere creation of a corporation, does not confer political power or political character. So this Court
26 decided in Dartmouth College v. Woodward, already referred to. If I may be allowed to paraphrase the language
27 of the Chief Justice, I would say, a bank incorporated, is no more a State instrument, than a natural person
28 performing the same business would be. If, then, a natural person, engaged in the trade of banking, should 29 contract with the government to receive the public money upon deposit, to transmit it from place to place, without
30 charging for commission or difference of exchange, and to perform, when called upon, the duties of commissioner 31 of loans, would not thereby become a public officer, how is it that this artificial being, created by law for the 32 purpose of being employed by the government for the same purposes, should become a part of the civil government
33 of the country? Is it because its existence, its capacities, its powers, are given by law? because the government
34 has given it power to take and hold property in a particular form, and to employ that property for particular
35 purposes, and in the disposition of it to use a particular name? because the government has sold it a privilege
36 [22 U.S. 738, 774] for a large sum of money, and has bargained with it to do certain things; is it, therefore, a 37 part of the very government with which the contract is made?"
38 Osborn v. Bank of U.S., [22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

39 The District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871 describes its venue as:

40           "... all that part of the territory of the United States included within the limits of the District of Columbia".

41 The District of Columbia was originally provided for in the Constitution for the United States of America (Sept.
42 17, 1787) at Article 1, Section 8, specifically in the last two clauses. Then, on July 16, 1790, in accord with the 43 provisions of those clauses, the Territory was formed in the District of Columbia Act, 1 Stat. 130, wherein the 44 "ten mile square" territory was permanently created and made the permanent location of the country's government,
45 that is to say, the "territory" includes the actual government. Under the Act Congress also made the President the 46 civic leader of the local government in all matters in said Territory and the date for transfer of all offices to this 47 new location was then set at the first Monday in December, 1800. You can view this act at the link below:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/DistrictOfColumbia-1Stat130.pdf>

48 Then on February 27, 1801, 2 Stat. 103-108, under the second District of Columbia Act, two counties were formed,
49 and their respective officers and district judges were appointed. You can read this act below:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/DistrictOfColumbia-2Stat103-108-18010227.pdf>

1 Further, the established town governments of Alexandria, Georgetown and Washington were recognized as
2 constituted and placed under the laws of the District, its judges, etc. Then on March 3, 1801, 2 Stat. 115-116 a
3 Supplementary Act to that last Act, noted here, added the authority that the Marshals appointed by the respective
4 District Court Judges collectively form a County Commission with the authority to appoint all officers as may be
5 needed in similarity to the respective State officials in the states whence the counties Washington and Alexandria
6 came, those being Maryland and Virginia, respectively. See:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/DistrictOfColumbia-2Stat115-116.pdf>

7 According to the United States Supreme Court those charter acts (first acts) were the official incorporation of the 8 townships of Alexandria, Georgetown, and Washington that formed the District of Columbia as chartered by 9 Congress in accord with the Constitution's provision. Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264 (1821). You can read this 10 case below:

<http://famguardian.org/TaxFreedom/CitesByTopic/DistrictOfColumbia-CohensVVirginia-19US164-1821.pdf>

11 Nowhere between 1790 and the Organic Act of 1871, however, has the U.S. Supreme Court ever recognized the 12 phrase "District of Columbia" as a corporation by itself. Since 1801, the Supreme Court called the City of 13 Washington "a corporation", with the right to sue and be sued in Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264 (1821). The 14 "District of Columbia", however, was not officially and separately recognized as a "corporation" by the courts
15 until after the act of 1871. Some people erroneously try to argue the contrary. Below is an example that has no
16 evidentiary support, and the source is identified. Those parts which are in error are underlined:

17 "The United States Supreme Court has repeatedly called this act the "District of Columbia Organic Act" or the 18 "Charter Act of the District" and recognized it as the incorporation of the "municipality" known as the "District
19 of Columbia". Then on March 3, 1801 a Supplementary Act to that last Act, noted here, added the authority that 20 the Marshals appointed by the respective District Court Judges collectively form a County Commission with the 21 authority to appoint all officers as may be needed in similarity to the respective State officials in the states whence
22 the counties Washington and Alexandria came, those being Maryland and Virginia, respectively.

23 According to the United States Supreme Court those charter acts (first acts) were the official incorporation of the 24 formal municipal government of the District of Columbia as chartered by Congress in accord with the 25 Constitution's provision. Again, the Supreme Court called that body of government "a corporation", with the 26 right to sue and be sued. Since 1801 The District of Columbia has been consistently recognized as a "municipal 27 corporation" with its own government."

30 Finally in The Organic Act of 1878, 20 Stat. 102-108, the District of Columbia was made into a municipal 31 corporation.

32 We searched all rulings of the U.S. Supreme Court from the beginning, and there is no mention of the phrase
33 "District of Columbia Organic Act" or "Charter Act of the District of Columbia" or of "incorporation" in reference
34 to the phrase "District of Columbia". This is simply false. Between 1801 and 1871, the term "corporation" is 35 only used to refer to the cities that are geographically within the District of Columbia, but not to the "District of 36 Columbia" separately as a "corporation".

37 That sets the basics for the first rule of our Standard for Review, know the parties. What we have presented is 38 sufficient to show the basics of who the parties are as they related to resolving the answer to the question above.
39 We admonish everyone to prove the facts for themselves by their own research.

40 The second rule from our Standard for Review is: "Then you must understand the environmental nature of the 41 relationship." With that in mind let's consider the events of the time: the Civil War had recently ended and the 42 country was still under Lincoln's Conscriptio Act (Martial Law). Congress had at least three problems they 43 could see no way to directly cure by following the laws of the land: they were out of funds, they had promised 40
44 acres of land to each slave that left the South to fight for the North and they had to reintegrate the south into the

1 Union, which they could not do without controlling the appointment of the Southern States Congressional
2 members. There were other problems but these three stand out from the rest. That is enough about the 3 environment for the purposes of this review, however the more you study the historical events of this time the 4 more obvious the relationships will become and the more proof you will amass to prove the facts of what actually 5 happened. In the interest of time and space in this response we will move on.

6 The last step of the Standard for Review's discovery process requires a review of the actual terms of the 7 relationship. Thus, we review the first paragraph of the District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871, which follows:

8 *"That all that part of the territory of the United States included within the limits of the District of Columbia be,
9 and the same is hereby, created into a government by the name of the District of Columbia, by which name it is 10 hereby constituted a body corporate for municipal purposes ... and exercise all other powers of a municipal 11 corporation"*

12 When you consider the historical facts, the only meaning left for the terms given in the opening paragraph of the 13 District of Columbia Organic Act of 1871 (and that which follows) is:

- 14 1. The "corporation" that was created is not a "body politic AND corporate" but simply a "body corporate", which means 15 it is not a government within the meaning of the original jurisdiction of the constitution, but simply a private, for-profit
16 corporation.
- 17 2. The "corporation" was presided over by commissioners appointed by the national government rather than the people 18 domiciled there through a popular election.
- 19 3. The "corporation" that was created is owned by the "United States", which like all governments is also a corporation.
20 See 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A).

21 *"Corporations are also of all grades, and made for varied objects; all governments are corporations, created by
22 usage and common consent, or grants and charters which create a body politic for prescribed purposes; but
23 whether they are private, local or general, in their objects, for the enjoyment of property, or the exercise of
24 power, they are all governed by the same rules of law, as to the construction and the obligation of the
25 instrument by which the incorporation is made. One universal rule of law protects persons and property. It is
26 a fundamental principle of the common law of England, that the term freemen of the kingdom, includes 'all
27 persons,' ecclesiastical and temporal, incorporate, politique or natural; it is a part of their magna charta (2 Inst.
28 4), and is incorporated into our institutions. The persons of the members of corporations are on the same footing
29 of protection as other persons, and their corporate property secured by the same laws which protect that of
30 individuals. 2 Inst. 46-7. 'No man shall be taken,' 'no man shall be disseised,' without due process of law, is a
31 principle taken from magna charta, infused into all our state constitutions, and is made inviolable by the federal 32 government, by the amendments to the constitution."
33 *[Proprietors of Charles River Bridge v. Proprietors of Warren Bridge, 36 U.S. 420 (1837)]

- 34 4. The only "government" created in that Act was the same government any private corporation has within the operation
35 of its own corporate construct and on its own private land. Thus, we call it Corp. U.S. The rules of WalMart, for instance,
36 apply only on its own facilities and so long as notice is given to all who step onto those facilities, then the corporate rules
37 of the landlord apply to all "tenants".

38 We also note Congress reserved the right, granted them in the Constitution at Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17, to 39 complete dictatorial authority over their Corp. U.S. construct, without regard for its internal operations or officers.
40 Thus, Congress can use it within the ten mile square as they see fit to both govern the municipality as if it were 41 the municipal government and to use it to do things the Constitution did not grant them the privilege of doing.

42 We refer to the "District of Columbia" as a private corporation because at the time of its creation:

- 43 1. There was no "body politic". The "government" was populated "by commissioners appointed by the President rather than 44 representatives.
- 45 2. The citizens of the District were not able to elect EVERYONE in the chain of command up to the President. Therefore 46 it was not a "representative democracy".

47 Later on, the District of Columbia was permitted LIMITED democratic elections, but they were and are still 48 presided over by commissioners appointed by the President rather than their own citizens. Hence, they continue
49 to be a "BODY COPORATE" without a true "BODY POLITIC" and therefore a PRIVATE corporation.

1 The U.S. Supreme Court has identified the nature of this private corporation called the “District of Columbia” by
2 identifying it as equivalent to the “national government”. To wit:

3 The argument that congressional powers over the District are not to be exercised outside of its territorial limits
4 also is pressed upon us. But this same contention has long been held by this Court to be untenable.

5 In Cohens [337 U.S. 582 , 601] v. Commonwealth of Virginia, 6 Wheat. 264, 429, Chief Justice Marshall,
6 answering the argument that Congress, when legislating for the District, 'was reduced to a mere local legislature,
7 whose laws could possess no obligation out of the ten miles square,' said 'Congress is not a local legislature, but
8 exercises this particular power, like all its other powers, in its high character, as the legislature of the Union.

9 The American people thought it a necessary power, and they conferred it for their own benefit. Being so conferred
10 it carries with it all those incidental powers which are necessary to its complete and effectual execution.' In 11 O'Donoghue v. United States, 289 U.S. 516, 539 , 746, this Court approved a statement made by Circuit Judge
12 Taft, later Chief Justice of this Court, speaking for himself and Judge (later Mr. Justice) Lurton, that "The object 13 of the grant of exclusive legislation over the district was, therefore, national in the highest sense, and the city
14 organized under the grant became the city, not of a state, not of a district, but of a nation.

15 In the same article which granted the powers of exclusive legislation over its seat of government are conferred
16 all the other great powers which make the nation, including the power to borrow money on the credit of the United
17 States. He would be a strict constructionist, indeed, who should deny to congress the exercise of this latter power
18 in furtherance of that of organizing and maintaining a proper local government at the seat of government. Each
19 *is for a national purpose, and the one may be used in aid of the other.' * * ** And, just prior to enactment of the 20 statute now challenged on this ground, the Court of Appeals for the District itself, sitting en banc, and relying on 21 *the foregoing authorities, had said that Congress 'possesses full and unlimited jurisdiction to provide for the

1 The “District of Columbia” private corporation was modeled after the first Bank of the United States, which was 2 also a corporation and which also was intended to operate outside of the District of Columbia and directly upon
3 citizens in states of the Union. The limitations of such a corporation operating within states of the Union is
4 exhaustively analyzed in the case of Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824), if you would like to investigate
5 further. The limitations upon the operation of this private corporation when it interacts with persons within a state
6 of the Union, as explained in Osborn, are as follows:

- 7 1. The corporation itself is NOT a “public office” by virtue of having been created and chartered by the U.S. government.

8 If the Court adopt this reasoning of one of themselves, the point is decided. The act of incorporation, in the case
9 supposed, does neither create a public office, nor a public corporation. The association, notwithstanding their 10 charter, remain a private association, the proprietors and conductors of a private trade, bound by contract, for 11 a consideration paid, to perform certain employments for the government.”

12 [. . .]

13 The appellants rely greatly on the distinction between the Bank and the public institutions, such as the mint or 14 the post office. The agents in those offices are, it is said, officers of government, and are excluded from a seat in 15 *Congress. Not so the directors of the Bank. The connexion of the government with the Bank, is likened to that 16 with contractors.

17 It will not be contended, that the directors, or *867 other officers of the Bank, are officers of government. But
18 it is contended, that, were their resemblance to contractors more perfect than it is, the right of the State to control
19 its operations, if those operations be necessary to its character, as a machine employed by the government, cannot 20 be maintained. Can a contractor for supplying a military post with provisions, be restrained from making
21 purchases within any State, or from transporting the provisions to the place at which the troops were stationed?
22 or could he be fined or taxed for doing so? We have not yet heard these questions answered in the affirmative. It
23 is true, that the property of the contractor may be taxed, as the property of other citizens; and so may the local
24 property of the Bank. But we do not admit that the act of purchasing, or of conveying the articles purchased, can 25 be under State control.
26 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738, 771-772 (1824)]

- 27 2. The corporation has no political power or political character, and therefore is NOT a “body politic”:

28 “The mere creation of a corporation, does not confer political power or political character. So this Court decided
29 *in Dartmouth College v. Woodward, already referred to. If I may be allowed to paraphrase the language of the* 30 Chief Justice, I would say, a bank incorporated, is no more a State instrument, than a natural person performing 31 the same business would be.”
32 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738, 773 (1824)]

- 33 3. It is not subject to taxation or regulation by the state it is located in.

34 “A stamp duty is one mode of collecting revenue from individuals engaged in private trade, but it is not the only
35 *mode. The principle which exempts the Bank of the United States from the payment of a stamp duty imposed
36 by a State, is supposed to exempt it from the payment of any tax assessed by State authority. It is deemed an 37 incident attached to the charter, because that charter is conferred by the supreme authority. It is said, that if 38 any other than the supreme authority that confers the faculty, is permitted to tax the trade or business to be
39 carried on under it, the faculty itself may be rendered useless, and the object of granting it entirely defeated.
40 The power to confer the faculty, and the power to tax the business, if vested in different hands, are thus held
41 to be incompatible, and from this incompatibility the exemption is deemed a necessary incident to the charter,
42 because, without it, it cannot exist. For we must here repeat, that this Court have said, that a corporation*
43 ‘possesses only those properties which the charter of its creation confers upon it, either expressly, or as incidental
44 to its very existence. <sup>FN5</sup>”
45 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738, 778-779 (1824)]

- 46 4. Any disputes between it and persons domiciled within the state it is located within must litigated consistent with the 47 charter of the corporation. In the case of the Bank of the United States, the charter granted authority to the federal courts
48 and therefore the suit was conducted in the federal courts:

49 “It is competent for Congress to determine what Court shall have jurisdiction in this class of cases, which it has 50 done as to the Bank, by giving it, the right of suing in the Circuit Courts of the Union.”

51 [. . .]

1                   The act of incorporation, then, confers jurisdiction on the Circuit Courts of the United States, if Congress can
2                   confer it.
3                   [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738, 798, 818 (1824)]

4 Below is a summary of the history of the District of Columbia from NARPAC Website:

5 1. GENERAL HISTORY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

- 6 1.1. When the United States Constitution was adopted on September 15, 1787, Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17, included
7 language authorizing the establishment of a federal district. This district was not to exceed 10 miles square, under 8 the exclusive legislative authority of Congress. On July 16, 1790, Congress authorized President George
9 Washington to choose a permanent site for the capital city and, on December 1, 1800, the capital was moved from 10 Philadelphia to an area along the Potomac River. The census of 1800 showed that the new capital had a population 11 of 14,103.
- 12 1.2. The District of Columbia Bicentennial Commission was established to develop plans for the celebration of various 13 anniversary dates in District of Columbia history. The commission is comprised of 39 members with a specified
14 number of commissioners appointed by the mayor, the chairman of the D.C. Council, council members, the District
15 delegate to the House of Representatives, the courts, and the District of Columbia Bar.
- 16 1.3. Among the events celebrated are the 200th anniversary of the Residency Act, which established that there shall be 17 a permanent seat of government on the Potomac River (July 16, 1990); the 200th anniversary of President George 18 Washington's proclamation of the site for the federal district (January 24, 1991); and the 200th anniversary of the 19 arrival of Pierre L'Enfant, Benjamin Banneker and Andrew Ellicott. The commission may designate other 20 bicentennial events for celebration.
- 21 1.4. There have been several forms of appointed and elected governments in the District of Columbia: an appointed,
22 three-member commission (1790-1802); elected councils and an appointed mayor (1802-1820); elected councils
23 and an elected mayor (1820-1871); an appointed governor, a two-house legislature (one appointed and the other 24 elected), and an elected, non-voting delegate to the Congress (1871-1874); and another appointed, three-member
25 commission (1874-1967). Following the defeat by Congress of a home rule effort in 1967, then-President Lyndon 26 B. Johnson reorganized the District government and created the positions of an appointed mayor/commissioner and 27 an appointed nine-member council.
- 28 1.5. District residents won the right to vote in a presidential election on March 29, 1961, to elect a board of education
29 in 1968 and, in 1970, to elect a non-voting delegate to the House of Representatives. In 1973, Congress approved
30 a bill that provided District residents with an elected form of government with limited home rule authority; as a
31 result, District residents voted for a mayor and a council for the first time in more than 100 years. District residents
32 accepted the home rule charter by referendum vote in 1974. Congress delegated to the District government the 33 authority, functions and powers of a state, with a very important exception:
- 34 1.6. Congress retains control over the District's revenue and expenditures by annually reviewing the entire District
35 government budget. In addition, Congress has repeatedly prohibited the District from imposing a non-resident 36 income tax.
- 37 1.7. In 1980, District voters approved a statehood initiative by a majority of 60 percent; delegates to a statehood
38 constitutional convention were elected in 1981 and, in 1983, a bill for the admission of the state of New Columbia
39 was introduced in Congress. The "Constitution for the State of New Columbia" is still under congressional 40 consideration and is reintroduced into each new congressional session. Under the specifications of the statehood
41 initiatives, most of the land area of the District of Columbia would become the state of New Columbia; the District
42 of Columbia would continue to exist, albeit reduced in size to an area consisting of the White House, the Capitol,
43 the Supreme Court, the Mall and federal monuments and government buildings adjacent to the Mall.

44 2. CHRONOLOGY OF SOME EVENTS IN THE HISTORY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

- 45 2.1. May 15, 1751: The Maryland Assembly appoints commissioners to lay a town on the Potomac River, above the 46 mouth of Rock Creek, on 60 acres of land to be purchased from George Gordon and George Beall. This settlement 47 becomes Georgetown.
- 48 2.2. February 27, 1752: The survey and plat of Georgetown into 80 lots is completed.
- 49 2.3. September 17, 1787: The Constitution is signed by the members of the Constitutional Convention.
- 50 2.4. June 21, 1788: The 1788 U.S. Constitution, as adopted by the Constitutional Convention on September 15, 1787,
51 is ratified by the states. Article 1, Section 8, Clause 17, gives Congress authority "to exercise exclusive legislation
52 in all cases whatsoever, over such District (not exceeding ten miles square) as may by cession of particular States,
53 and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of the government of the United States...."
- 54 2.5. July 16, 1790: The Residency Act of 1790 gives the president power to choose a site for the capital city on the east
55 bank of the Potomac River between the mouth of the Eastern Branch and the Connogocheague Creek (now 56 Conococheague) near Hagerstown, nearly 70 miles upstream.

- 1 2.6. January 22, 1791: George Washington appoints Thomas Johnson and Daniel Carroll of Rock Creek, representing 2 Maryland and Dr. David Stuart, to represent Virginia, as "Commissioners for surveying the District of (sic)
3 Territory accepted by the said Act for the permanent seat of the Government of the United States...."
- 4 2.7. January 24, 1791: President George Washington selects a site that includes portions of Maryland and Virginia.
- 5 2.8. December 1, 1800: The federal capital is transferred from Philadelphia to the site on the Potomac River now called 6 the City of Washington, in the territory of Columbia. At the time of the 1800 census, the population of the new 7 capital included 10,066 whites, 793 free Negroes and 3,244 slaves.
- 8 2.9. February 27, 1801: Congress divides the [District] into the counties of Washington and Alexandria.
- 9 2.10. May 3, 1802: Congress grants the City of Washington its first municipal charter. Voters, defined as white males
10 who pay taxes and have lived in the city for at least a year, receive the right to elect a 12-member council. The 11 mayor is appointed by the president.
- 12 2.11. May 4, 1812: Congress amends the charter of the City of Washington to provide for an eight-member board of 13 aldermen and a 12-member common council. The aldermen and the common council elect the mayor.
- 14 2.12. March 15, 1820: Under the Act of 1820, Congress amends the Charter of the City of Washington for the direct 15 election of the mayor by resident voters.
- 16 2.13. July 9, 1846: Congress passes a law returning the city of Alexandria and Alexandria County to the state of Virginia.
- 17 2.14. May 17, 1848: Congress adopts a new charter for the City of Washington and expands the number of elected offices 18 to include a board of assessors, a surveyor, a collector and a registrar.
- 19 2.15. April 16, 1862: Congress abolishes slavery in the federal district (the City of Washington, Washington County, and 20 Georgetown). This action predates both the Emancipation Proclamation and the adoption of the 13th Amendment 21 to the Constitution.
- 22 2.16. January 8, 1867: Congress grants black males the right to vote in local elections.
- 23 2.17. June 1, 1871: The elected mayor and council of Washington City and Georgetown, and the County Levy Court are 24 abolished by Congress and replaced by a governor and council appointed by the president. An elected House of 25 Delegates and a non-voting delegate to Congress are created. In this act, the jurisdiction and territorial government
26 came to be called the District of Columbia, thus combining the governments of Georgetown, the City of Washington
27 and the County of Washington. A seal and motto, "Justitia Omnibus" (Justice for All), are adopted for the District
28 of Columbia.
- 29 2.18. June 20, 1874: The territorial government of the District of Columbia, including the non-voting delegate to 30 Congress, is abolished. Three temporary commissioners and a subordinate military engineer are appointed by the 31 president.
- 32 2.19. June 11, 1878: In The Organic Act of 1878 [20 Stat. 102-108], Congress approves the establishment of the District
33 of Columbia government as a municipal corporation governed by three presidentially appointed commissioners _
34 two civilian commissioners and a commissioner from the military corps of engineers. This form of government
35 lasted until August 1967.
- 36 2.20. July 4, 1906: The District Building, on 14th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, becomes the official City Hall.
- 37 2.21. July 1, 1952: The Reorganization Plan of 1952 transfers to the three commissioners the functions of more than 50 38 boards.
- 39 2.22. March 29, 1961: The 23rd Amendment to the Constitution gives District residents the right to vote for president.
- 40 2.23. February 20, 1967: The Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority is created through a compact between the 41 District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia.
- 42 2.24. April 22, 1968: District residents receive the right to elect a Board of Education.
- 43 2.25. December 24, 1973: Congress approves the District of Columbia Self-Government and Governmental 44 Reorganization Act, P.L. 93-198, which establishes an elected mayor and a 13-member council.
- 45 2.26. May 7, 1974: Voters of the District of Columbia approve by referendum the District Charter and the establishment 46 of advisory neighborhood commissions.
- 47 2.27. General elections are held for mayor and council on November 5, 1974.
- 48 2.28. January 2, 1975: The newly elected Mayor Walter Washington and first elected council take office.
- 49 2.29. February 3, 1976: The first election for advisory neighborhood commissioners is held.
- 50 2.30. March 29, 1978: The first segment of the Metrorail Red Line opens.
- 51 2.31. August 22, 1978: Congress approves the District of Columbia Voting Rights Amendment, which would give 52 District residents voting representation in the House and the Senate. The proposed constitutional amendment was 53 not ratified by the necessary number of states (38) within the allotted seven years.
- 54 2.32. January 2, 1979: The Mayor Marion Barry takes office.
- 55 2.33. November 4, 1980: District electors approve the District of Columbia Statehood Constitutional Convention of 1979, 56 which became D.C. Law 3-171 and which called for convening a state constitutional convention.

- 1 2.34. November 2, 1982: After the constitutional convention, a Constitution for the State of New Columbia is ratified by
- 2 District voters.
- 3 2.35. October 1, 1984: The District enters the municipal bond market.
- 4 2.36. October 29, 1986: Congress approves an amendment to the District of Columbia Stadium Act of 1957, which
- 5 authorizes the transfer of Robert F. Kennedy Stadium from the federal government to the District of Columbia
- 6 government.
- 7 2.37. February 20, 1987: The Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority is created to acquire Washington National
- 8 and Washington - Dulles International airports from the federal government, pursuant to P.L. 99-151, The
- 9 Metropolitan Washington Airports Act of 1986. The authority begins operating the airports on June 7, 1987.
- 10 2.38. October 1, 1987: Saint Elizabeth's Hospital is transferred to the District of Columbia government pursuant to P.L.
- 11 98-621, The St. Elizabeth's Hospital and the D.C. Mental Health Services Act of 1984.
- 12 2.39. January 2, 1992: Mayor Sharon Pratt Dixon, the first woman mayor, takes office.
- 13 2.40. January 2, 1995: Marion Barry takes office for an unprecedented fourth term as Mayor of the District of Columbia.
- 14 2.41. April 17, 1995: President Clinton signed the law creating a presidentially appointed District of Columbia Financial
- 15 Control Board and a mayor-appointed Chief Financial Officer.
- 16 2.42. July 13, 1995: The newly appointed financial control board holds its first public meeting. It is composed of Dr.
- 17 Andrew Brimmer, chair; and members:
- 18 2.43. Joyce A. Ladner, Constance B. Newman, Stephen D. Harlan and Edward A.
- 19 2.44. Singletary. John Hill is the Executive Director and Daniel Rezneck is the General Counsel.
- 20 2.45. February 14, 1996: Mayor Barry announces a transformation plan to reduce the size of government and increase its
- 21 efficiency.

23 14.5 Incorporation of the “United States of America” in Delaware

24 To make matters worse and to propagate more confusion, the entity "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA"

25 incorporated twice in the State of Delaware:

26 <http://www.supremelaw.org/cc/usa.inc>

27 <http://www.supremelaw.org/cc/usa.corp>

28 14.6 Actions in Federal Court relating to income taxation

29 Pay attention to what was said in that definition of “United States of America” in Bouvier’s Law Dictionary:

30 "no suit can be brought against the United States without authority of law".

31 [Bouvier's Law Dictionary, 1856; SOURCE: <http://famguardian.org/Publications/Bouviere/bouvieru.txt>]

32 That statement is not only correct. It also provides another important clue. Congress has conferred legal standing

33 on the "United States" to sue and be sued at 28 U.S.C. §1345 and 1346 respectively:

34 TITLE 28 > PART IV > CHAPTER 85 > § 1345

35 § 1345. United States as plaintiff

36 Except as otherwise provided by Act of Congress, the district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil

37 actions, suits or proceedings commenced by the United States, or by any agency or officer thereof expressly

38 authorized to sue by Act of Congress.

39 _____

40 TITLE 28 > PART IV > CHAPTER 85 > § 1346

41 § 1346. United States as defendant

42 (a)The district courts shall have original jurisdiction, concurrent with the United States Court of Federal Claims,

43 of: . . .

1 Congress has NOT conferred comparable legal standing upon the "United States of America" to sue, or be sued,
2 as such.

3 The main problem that arises from these questions is that United States* Attorneys are now filing lawsuits and
4 prosecuting criminal INDICTMENTS in the name of the "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" [*sic*] but without 5 any powers of attorney to do so. Compare 28 U.S.C. §547 (which confers powers of attorney to represent the 6 "United States" and *its* agencies in federal courts):

7 TITLE 28 > PART II > CHAPTER 35 > § 547
8 § 547. Duties

9 Except as otherwise provided by law, each United States attorney, within his district, shall—

10 (1) prosecute for all offenses against the United States:

11 (2) prosecute or defend, for the Government, all civil actions, suits or proceedings in which the United States is 12 concerned;

13 (3) appear in behalf of the defendants in all civil actions, suits or proceedings pending in his district against 14 collectors, or other officers of the revenue or customs for any act done by them or for the recovery of any money
15 exactd by or paid to these officers, and by them paid into the Treasury;

16 (4) institute and prosecute proceedings for the collection of fines, penalties, and forfeitures incurred for violation
17 of any revenue law, unless satisfied on investigation that justice does not require the proceedings; and

18 (5) make such reports as the Attorney General may direct.

19 They are NOT "United States of America Attorneys", OK? Why? Because:

- 20 1. They do NOT have any powers of attorney to represent Delaware corporations in federal courts; Congress never 21 appropriated funds for them to do so and Congress never conferred any powers of attorney on them to do so either.
22 2. The 50 States are already adequately represented by their respective State Attorneys General; therefore, U.S. Attorneys
23 have no powers of attorney to represent any of the 50 States of the Union, or any of *their* agencies, either.

24 They are "U.S. Attorneys" NOT "U.S.A. Attorneys", OK?

25 Accordingly, it is willful misrepresentation for any U.S. Attorney to attempt to appear in any State or federal court
26 on behalf of the "UNITED STATES OF AMERICA" [*sic*]. And, such misrepresentation is actionable under the 27 McDade Act, 28 U.S.C. §530B:

28 TITLE 28 > PART II > CHAPTER 31 > § 530B
29 § 530B. Ethical standards for attorneys for the Government

30 (a) An attorney for the Government shall be subject to State laws and rules, and local Federal court rules,
31 governing attorneys in each State where such attorney engages in that attorney's duties, to the same extent and 32 in the same manner as other attorneys in that State.

33 (b) The Attorney General shall make and amend rules of the Department of Justice to assure compliance with this 34 section.

35 (c) As used in this section, the term "attorney for the Government" includes any attorney described in section
36 77.2(a) of part 77 of title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations and also includes any independent counsel, or 37 employee of such a counsel, appointed under chapter 40.

14.7 States of the Union have been replaced by Federal Corporations<sup>87</sup>

The governments of each state of the Union preside over TWO mutually exclusive and separate jurisdictions, which we summarize below:

1. Constitutional State. Land within the exclusive jurisdiction of a constitutional state of the Union fall within this area.
2. Statutory State. This area consists of federal areas within the exterior limits of a Constitutional State. These areas are federal territory not protected by the Constitution of the United States or the Bill of Rights and are “instrumentalities” of the federal government. Jurisdiction over these areas is shared with the federal government under the auspices of the following legal authorities:
  - 2.1. The Assimilated Crimes Act, 18 U.S.C. §13.
  - 2.2. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652. This act prescribes which of the two conflicting laws shall prevail in the case of crimes on federal territory.
  - 2.3. 28 U.S.C. §2679\(c\), which says that any action against an officer or employee of the United States in which the officer or employee is acting outside their authority shall be prosecuted in a state court.
  - 2.4. Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) between the state and the Secretary of the Treasury.

The situation above in respect to a state is not unlike our national government, which has two mutually exclusive jurisdictions:

“It is clear that Congress, as a legislative body, exercise two species of legislative power: the one, limited as to its objects, but extending all over the Union: the other, an absolute, exclusive legislative power over the District of Columbia. The preliminary inquiry in the case now before the Court, is, by virtue of which of these authorities was the law in question passed?”
[Cohens v. Virginia, 19 U.S. 264, 6 Wheat. 265; 5 L.Ed. 257 (1821)]

“Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to 'guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government' (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the definition of Webster, 'a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and is exercised by representatives elected by them,' Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights.”
[Downes v. Bidwell, 182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

The hard part is figuring out which of the two jurisdictions that any particular state statute applies to. What makes this process difficult are the following complicating factors:

1. There is no constitutional requirement that the laws passed by the state legislature must clearly state which of the two jurisdiction they apply to. This was also confirmed in the following exhibit, which is a letter from a United States Congressman:

Congressman Zoe Lofgren Letter, Exhibit #04.003
<http://sedm.org/Exhibits/ExhibitIndex.htm>

2. Crafty state legislators deliberately obfuscate the statutes they write so as to encourage those within the Republic to obey laws that in fact only apply to the Statutory State so as to unlawfully increase their revenues, power, and control.
3. Courts of INjustice and the judges who serve in them refuse to acknowledge that most statutes passed by the legislature can only lawfully affect federal areas and persons who consent to be treated as though they inhabit these areas.

Within federal law, the Constitutional State is referred to as a “foreign state”. To wit:

1 "Foreign states. Nations which are outside the United States. Term may also refer to another state; i.e. a sister
2 state."
3 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 648]

4 "Generally, the states of the Union sustain toward each other the relationship of independent sovereigns or 5 independent foreign states, except in so far as the United States is paramount as the dominating government, and 6 in so far as the states are bound to recognize the fraternity among sovereignties established by the federal 7 Constitution, as by the provision requiring each state to give full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and 8 judicial proceedings of the other states..."
9 [81A Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), United States, §29 (2003)]

10 "The United States Government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state." [N.Y. v. re Merriam 36 N.E.

13 Even the U.S. Supreme Court admits that the Constitutional State are legislatively "foreign states" with respect to 14 the federal government:

15 We have held, upon full consideration, that although under existing statutes a circuit court of the United States
16 has jurisdiction upon habeas corpus to discharge from the custody of state officers or tribunals one restrained of 17 his liberty in violation of the Constitution of the United States, it is not required in every case to exercise its power

25 between the judicial tribunals of the Union and of the states, and in recognition of the fact that the public good 26 requires that those relations be not disturbed by unnecessary conflict between courts equally bound to guard and

2 jurisdiction in the premises, and because the accused, being a Federal officer, 'may, upon conviction, be

13 [NOTE: The federal Courts of the United States as used above do not have the authority to interpose in foreign 14 countries, but only in states of the Union for violations of the Constitution, and since they did interpose above,
15 and since they did so in a "foreign state" and described that foreign state as a state of the Union, they are admitting 16 of no federal jurisdiction within any state of the Union]

17 Whenever the Constitutional State accepts a benefit from the federal government, it surrenders its sovereign
18 immunity and acts in the dual capacity of a Statutory State under the following concepts:

- 19 1. States borrowing money are treated as ordinary private creditors. This includes when they borrow money from the 20 federal government.

21 "What, then, is meant by the doctrine that contracts are made with reference to the taxing power resident in the 22 State, and in subordination to it? Is it meant that when a person lends money to a State, or to a municipal division
23 of the State having the power of taxation, there is in the contract a tacit reservation of a right in the debtor to 24 raise contributions out of the money promised to be paid before payment? That cannot be, because if it could, the 25 contract (in the language of Alexander Hamilton) would 'involve two contradictory things: an obligation to do,
26 and a right not to do; an obligation to pay a certain sum, and a right to retain it in the shape of a tax. It is against 27 the rules, both of law and of reason, to admit by implication in the construction of a contract a principle which 28 goes in destruction of it.' The truth is, States and cities, when they borrow money and contract to repay it with 29 interest, are not acting as sovereignties. They come down to the level of ordinary individuals. Their contracts
30 have the same meaning as that of similar contracts between private persons. Hence, instead of there being in the 31 undertaking of a State or city to pay, a reservation of a sovereign right to withhold payment, the contract should 32 be regarded as an assurance that such a right will not be exercised. A promise to pay, with a reserved right to 33 deny or change the effect of the promise, is an absurdity."
34 [Murray v. City of Charleston, 96 U.S. 432 (1877)]

- 35 2. States which engage in ordinary private business or contracts implicitly surrender their sovereign immunity.

36 When a State engages in ordinary commercial ventures, it acts like a private person, outside the area of its 37 "core" responsibilities, and in a way unlikely to prove essential to the fulfillment of a basic governmental
38 obligation. A Congress that decides to regulate those state commercial activities rather than to exempt the State
39 likely believes that an exemption, by treating the State differently from identically situated private persons,
40 would threaten the objectives of a federal regulatory program aimed primarily at private conduct. Compare,
41 e.g., 12 U.S.C. §1841(b) (1994 ed., Supp. III) (exempting state companies from regulations covering federal bank 42 holding companies); 15 U.S.C. §77c(a)(2) (exempting state-issued securities from federal securities laws); and 43 29 U.S.C. §652(5) (exempting States from the definition of "employer[s]" subject to federal occupational safety 44 and health laws), with 11 U.S.C. §106(a) (subjecting States to federal bankruptcy court judgments); 15 U.S.C.
45 §1122(a) (subjecting States to suit for violation of Lanham Act); 17 U.S.C. §511(a) (subjecting States to suit for 46 copyright infringement); 35 U.S.C. §271(h) (subjecting States to suit for patent infringement). And a Congress
47 that includes the State not only within its substantive regulatory rules but also (expressly) within a related system
48 of private remedies likely believes that a remedial exemption would similarly threaten that program. See Florida
49 Prepaid Postsecondary Ed. Expense Bd. v. College Savings Bank, ante, at ___ (Stevens, J., dissenting). It
50 thereby avoids an enforcement gap which, when allied with the pressures of a competitive marketplace, could 51 place the State's regulated private competitors at a significant disadvantage.

52 These considerations make Congress' need to possess the power to condition entry into the market upon a 53 waiver of sovereign immunity (as "necessary and proper" to the exercise of its commerce power) unusually 54 strong, for to deny Congress that power would deny Congress the power effectively to regulate private conduct.
55 Cf. California v. Taylor, 353 U.S. 553, 566 (1957). At the same time they make a State's need to exercise
56 sovereign immunity unusually weak, for the State is unlikely to have to supply what private firms already supply,
57 nor may it fairly demand special treatment, even to protect the public purse, when it does so. Neither can one
58 easily imagine what the Constitution's founders would have thought about the assertion of sovereign immunity in 59 this special context. These considerations, differing in kind or degree from those that would support a general
60 congressional "abrogation" power, indicate that Parden's holding is sound, irrespective of this Court's decisions
61 in Seminole Tribe of Fla. v. Florida, 517 U.S. 44 (1996), and Alden v. Maine, ante, p. ____.
62 [College Savings Bank v. Florida Prepaid Postsecondary Education Expense, 527 U.S. 666 (1999)]

3. States which avail themselves of federal benefits or contracts with the federal government forfeit their sovereign immunity. To conclude otherwise would be to sanction what amounts to theft. In addition to the below, see also West Virginia v. United States, 497 U.S. 305, 107 S.Ct. 702 (1987)

“The Government urges that the Power Company is estopped to question the validity of the Act creating the Tennessee Valley Authority, and hence that the stockholders, suing in the right of the corporation, cannot [297 U.S. 323] maintain this suit. .... The principle is invoked that one who accepts the benefit of a statute cannot be heard to question its constitutionality. Great Falls Manufacturing Co. v. Attorney General, 124 U.S. 581; Wall v. Parrot Silver & Copper Co., 244 U.S. 407; St. Louis Casting Co. v. Prendergast Construction Co., 260 U.S. 469.”
[Ashwander v. Tennessee Valley Auth., 297 U.S. 288 (1936)]

A nondiscriminatory taxing measure that operates to defray the cost of a federal program by recovering a fair approximation of each beneficiary's share of the cost is surely no more offensive to the constitutional scheme than is either a tax on the income earned by state employees or a tax on a State's sale of bottled water. 18 The National Government's interest in being compensated for its expenditures is only too apparent. More significantly perhaps, such revenue measures by their very nature cannot possess the attributes that led Mr. Chief Justice Marshall to proclaim that the power to tax is the power [435 U.S. 444, 461] to destroy. There is no danger that such measures will not be based on benefits conferred or that they will function as regulatory devices unduly burdening essential state activities. It is, of course, the case that a revenue provision that forces a State to pay its own way when performing an essential function will increase the cost of the state activity. But Graves v. New York ex rel. O'Keefe, and its precursors, see 306 U.S., at 483 and the cases cited in n. 3, teach that an economic burden on traditional state functions without more is not a sufficient basis for sustaining a claim of immunity. Indeed, since the Constitution explicitly requires States to bear similar economic burdens when engaged in essential operations, see U.S. Const., Amdts. 5, 14; Pennsylvania Coal Co. v. Mahon, 260 U.S. 393 (1922) (State must pay just compensation when it "takes" private property for a public purpose); U.S. Const., Art. I, 10, cl. 1; United States Trust Co. v. New Jersey, 431 U.S. 1 (1977) (even when burdensome, a State often must comply with the obligations of its contracts), it cannot be seriously contended that federal exactions from the States of their fair share of the cost of specific benefits they receive from federal programs offend the constitutional scheme.

Our decisions in analogous context support this conclusion. We have repeatedly held that the Federal Government may impose appropriate conditions on the use of federal property or privileges and may require that state instrumentalities comply with conditions that are reasonably related to the federal interest in particular national projects or programs. See, e. g., Ivanhoe Irrigation Dist. v. McCracken, 357 U.S. 275, 294 - 296 (1958); Oklahoma v. Civil Service Comm'n, 330 U.S. 127, 142 -144 (1947); United States v. San Francisco, 310 U.S. 16 (1940); cf. National League of Cities v. Usery, 426 U.S. 833, 853 (1976); Fry v. United States, 421 U.S. 542 (1975). A requirement that States, like all other users, pay a portion of the costs of the benefits they enjoy from federal programs is surely permissible since it is closely related to the [435 U.S. 444, 462] federal interest in recovering costs from those who benefit and since it effects no greater interference with state sovereignty than do the restrictions which this Court has approved.
[Massachusetts v. United States, 435 U.S. 444 (1978)]

The Founding Fathers recognized the above dual agency in the Federalist Papers:

“It is true, that the Confederacy is to possess, and may exercise, the power of collecting internal as well as external taxes throughout the States; but it is probable that this power will not be resorted to, except for supplemental purposes of revenue; that an option will then be given to the States to supply their quotas by previous collections of their own; and that the eventual collection, under the immediate authority of the Union, will generally be made by the officers, and according to the rules, appointed by the several States. Indeed it is extremely probable, that in other instances, particularly in the organization of the judicial power, the officers of the States will be clothed with the correspondent authority of the Union.”

“Should it happen, however, that separate collectors of internal revenue should be appointed under the federal government, the influence of the whole number would not bear a comparison with that of the multitude of State officers in the opposite scale.”

“Within every district to which a federal collector would be allotted, there would not be less than thirty or forty, or even more, officers of different descriptions, and many of them persons of character and weight, whose influence would lie on the side of the State. The powers delegated by the proposed Constitution to the federal government are few and defined. Those which are to remain in the State governments are numerous and indefinite. The former will be exercised principally on external objects, as war, peace, negotiation, and foreign

1 commerce; with which last the power of taxation will, for the most part, be connected. The powers reserved to
2 the several States will extend to all the objects which, in the ordinary course of affairs, concern the lives, 3 liberties, and properties of the people, and the internal order, improvement, and prosperity of the State. The 4 operations of the federal government will be most extensive and important in times of war and danger; those
5 of the State governments, in times of peace and security. As the former periods will probably bear a small 6 proportion to the latter, the State governments will here enjoy another advantage over the federal government.

8 be those scenes of danger which might favor their ascendancy over the governments of the particular States.”
9 [Federalist Paper No 45 (Jan. 1788), James Madison]

10 The Statutory State is the corporate entity and legal “person” that interfaces with, contracts with, and acts as an 11 agent for the federal government in the context of said contracts. All contracts or what the U.S. Supreme Court
12 calls “compacts” create agency on the part of those who consent toward the other parties to the contract.

13 “All the powers of the government [including ALL of its civil enforcement powers against the public] must be
14 carried into operation by individual agency, either through the medium of public officers, or contracts made
15 with [private] individuals.”
16 [Osborn v. Bank of U.S., 22 U.S. 738 (1824)]

17 We allege that it is THIS “individual” who is a corporation is the only proper subject of the federal income tax
18 and every other type of government legislation. This is the same “individual” defined in the I.R.C. below:

32 under chapter 3 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

33 The Statutory State essentially acts as an agency or instrumentality or “public officer” of the U.S. government,
34 assisting in the management and control over federal areas within their borders in the context of all federal benefit
35 programs which they participate in. In that capacity, they implicitly surrender sovereign immunity and agree to 36 accept the supervision of the federal courts in what amounts to their essentially private business concerns with the 37 federal government. In the context of income taxation, this federal “agency” is created by an Agreement on 38 Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) between the state and the federal government, and it represents a
39 delegation of authority by the federal government to allow the state government to enforce their taxes and laws
40 ONLY within the Statutory State and the federal areas within the exterior limits of the state which comprise it.
41 These federal areas qualify as “possessions” of the United States, and therefore “States” within federal law:

42 TITLE 4 > CHAPTER 4 > § 110
43 § 110. Same: definitions

44 (d) The term “State” includes any Territory or possession of the United States.

45 The term “possession” is nowhere defined in the law that we have been able to locate. However, Black’s Law
46 Dictionary indicates that all “rights” or franchises constitute “property”.

20 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1216]

21 If franchises are property and the Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) creates a 22 franchise, then the collections of rights, privileges, and benefits it conveys to the federal government constitutes
23 “property” and therefore a “possession of the United States” from a legal perspective. Article 4, Section 3, Clause
24 2 of the Constitution is what authorizes the federal courts to regulate the exercise of federal franchises by states.

25 United States Constitution
26 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

27 The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the Territory
28 or other Property [including franchises and the benefits they confer] belonging to the United States; and 29 nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any 30 particular State.

31 An example of federal territorial possessions include American Samoa and Swain’s Island, which are mentioned
32 in 48 U.S.C. Chapter 13. Over possessions of the United States, federal legislative jurisdiction is “plenary”, 33 meaning exclusive, except to the extent that they surrender any portion of it through legislation implementing 34 what is called “comity”.

35 “Plenary. Full, entire, complete, absolute, perfect, unqualified. Mashunkashney v. Mashunkashney, 191 Okl.
36 501, 134 P.2d. 976, 979.”
37 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1154]

38 All such surrenders of sovereignty over federal areas or possessions are called “comity”:

39 comity. Courtesy; complaisance; respect; a willingness to grant a privilege, not as a matter of right, but out of 40 deference and good will. Recognition that one sovereignty allows within its territory to the legislative, executive,
41 or judicial act of another sovereignty, having due regard to rights of its own citizens. Nowell v. Nowell,
42 Tex.Civ.App., 408 S.W.2d. 550, 553. In general, principle of “comity” is that courts of one state or jurisdiction
43 will give effect to laws and judicial decisions of another state or jurisdiction, not as a matter of obligation, but 44 out of deference and mutual respect. Brown v. Babbitt Ford, Inc., 117 Ariz. 192, 571 P.2d. 689, 695. See also 45 Full faith and credit clause.
46 [Black’s Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 267]

47 An example of comity in action is the Buck Act, in which Congress authorized “States” as defined in 4 U.S.C.
48 §110\(d\) to tax federal “public officials” working within federal areas.

49 TITLE 4 - FLAG AND SEAL, SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE STATES
50 CHAPTER 4 - THE STATES

1 Sec. 110. Same; definitions

2 (d) The term "State" includes any Territory or possession of the United States.

3 This provision was implemented as an outgrowth of the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939. You can read this act
4 below:

<http://famguardian.org/PublishedAuthors/Govt/HistoricalActs/PublSalaryTaxAct1939.htm>

5 To wit:

6 TITLE 4 > CHAPTER 4 > § 106
7 § 106. Same; income tax

8 (a) No person shall be relieved from liability for any income tax levied by any State, or by any duly constituted
9 taxing authority therein, having jurisdiction to levy such a tax, by reason of his residing within a Federal area or 10 receiving income from transactions occurring or services performed in such area; and such State or taxing
11 authority shall have full jurisdiction and power to levy and collect such tax in any Federal area within such 12 State to the same extent and with the same effect as though such area was not a Federal area.

13 (b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall be applicable only with respect to income or receipts received after 14 December 31, 1940.

15 The state maintains a "trusteeship" over federal areas within its border and act as the equivalent of a federal 16 "Government corporation". To wit:

17 TITLE 5 > PART 1 > CHAPTER 1 > § 103
18 § 103. Government corporation

19 For the purpose of this title—

20 (1) "Government corporation" means a corporation owned or controlled by the Government of the United 21 States; and

22 The "control" referred to above is the authority delegated by the Buck Act, the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939, the 23 Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.), and the Assimilated Crimes Act, 18 U.S.C. §13.
24 To view the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939, see:

25 The subject of taxation of territories and possessions is discussed in the document below:

Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302, Section 5.14
<http://famguardian.org/Publications/GreatIRSHoax/GreatIRSHoax.htm>

26 The U.S. Supreme Court has also held that all federal territories are "corporations", which implies that possessions
27 can just as readily be thought of the same way:

28 At common law, a "corporation" was an "artificial perso[n] endowed with the legal capacity of perpetual
29 succession" consisting either of a single individual (termed a "corporation sole") or of a collection of several
30 individuals (a "corporation aggregate"). 3 H. Stephen, Commentaries on the Laws of England 166, 168 (1st Am.
31 ed. 1845). The sovereign was considered a corporation. See id., at 170; see also 1 W. Blackstone, Commentaries
32 **467. Under the definitions supplied by contemporary law dictionaries, Territories would have been classified*
33 as "corporations" (and hence as "persons") at the time that 1983 was enacted and the Dictionary Act
34 recodified. See W. Anderson, A Dictionary of Law 261 (1893) ("All corporations were originally modeled upon 35 a state or nation"); 1 J. Bouvier, A Law Dictionary Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of
36 America 318-319 (11th ed. 1866) ("In this extensive sense the United States may be termed a corporation"); Van
37 Brocklin v. Tennessee, 117 U.S. 151, 154 (1886) ("The United States is a . . . great corporation . . . ordained 38 and established by the American people") (quoting United [495 U.S. 182, 202] States v. Maurice, 26 F.Cas.
39 1211, 1216 (No. 15,747) (CC Va. 1823) (Marshall, C. J.); Cotton v. United States, 11 How. 229, 231 (1851)

(United States is "a corporation"). See generally Trustees of Dartmouth College v. Woodward, 4 Wheat. 518, 561-562 (1819) (explaining history of term "corporation").
 [Ngiraingas v. Sanchez, 495 U.S. 182 (1990)]

We will now end this section by comparing the Constitutional State with the Statutory State to make the content of this section perfectly clear for visually minded readers:

Table 11: Comparison of Constitutional State v. Statutory State

1 14.8 Your City and County are Corporations Traded Commercially

2 Dunn and Bradstreet is responsible for keeping records on various publicly traded corporations and businesses.
3 As an experiment, search for your city and county, and see if they are publicly traded corporations. You may be
4 surprised to find that they are. It's all commercial. Below is one example search of Dunn and Bradstreet records
5 sent to us by a reader that proves that the state bar, the city, and the county where he lives are publicly traded
6 corporations, not governments.

Note that the "CITY OF AUSTIN also trades as CITY CLERK"

2 14.9 Corporatization of the U.S. government well underway<sup>88</sup>

3 Still think you're free? Still think all you have to do is vote the incumbent out of office and everything will
4 automatically return to 'normal'? It's too late! Protesting, voting, or - laughably - letters to the editor won't change
5 anything! Look at the corporate info I found at the Delaware Secretary of State website at:

<https://sos-res.state.de.us/tin/GINameSearch.jsp>

6 Here is just a short listing, and there are probably many more in other states that we have not yet found:

- 7 1. INTERNAL REVENUE TAX AND AUDIT SERVICE (IRS) FOR-PROFIT General Delaware Corporation

31 Keep in mind - these are just the listings I could find. For example, I tracked down the Bureau of Engraving and 32 Printing - in the state of Texas (foreign corporation in respect to the District of Columbia).

33 This means, as 'citizens,' we are assets of the corporation. It doesn't matter who is in office, the board of directors
34 and the shareholders own and run the country - just as in any other corporation. Roosevelt's quote has an entirely 35 different meaning now:

36 "The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the large centers has owned the 37 government of the U.S. since the days of Andrew Jackson."
38 [Franklin D. Roosevelt, Letter written Nov. 21, 1933 to Colonel E. Mandell House]

1 The thing to find out, and we're hoping the corporate records will show, is who are the shareholders? Who profits
2 - for example - from the 'private, for-profit, corporate CIA' or the 'private, for-profit, corporate IRS' or the 'private,
3 for-profit Social Security' - that those in charge are now telling us is 'broke.' Who is on the board of directors of
4 'UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INC.'

5 Ask anyone you know if they are aware of this. Call your congressman's office and ask them. Why doesn't anyone
6 know? Why isn't this casually mentioned in the news? 'The Board of Directors of the United States of America,
7 Inc., today ruled.....' 'The Board of Directors of the Social Security.....' 'Today, the Central Intelligence
8 Authority filed as a private for-profit corporation.' Why do those in charge never mention this ? Why, searching 9 on any search engine, doesn't this information come up?

10 Because we're being lied to !

11 Ever wonder why those who fight the IRS are not allowed to bring up their Constitutional Rights in tax court ?
12 Constitutional Rights do not apply in an equity court against a government that is a private corporation all of 13 whose laws are simply work rules for its "employees" and "officer". Contract law supersedes individual and 14 Constitutional Rights. Corporate law is a totally different animal from common law. Ask any corporate attorney.

15 You've inadvertently signed or consented to franchise agreements with this bastard entity posing as the 'free'
16 United States of America - when you registered to vote, when you applied for a checking account (at a Federal 17 Reserve corp bank - look at your signature card, it states you will comply with all rulings from the Secretary of 18 the Treasury), when you applied for a social security card.....

19 Ever look at the trust corporations (such as the RESOLUTION TRUST CORP (RTC) associated with the UNITED 20 STATES OF AMERICA, INC.?)

21 Trust - a fiduciary relationship in which one party holds legal title to another's property for the benefit of a party
22 who holds equitable title to the property.

23 Who holds the equitable title? Ever notice property deeds state 'tenant' when referring to the supposed owner?
24 We are ruled by fictitious entities - corporations are fictions. We have been lied to, our entire lives, that we are 25 free !

26 The United States is owned, lock, stock, and barrel. Each of us as "citizens of the United States" is owned. The 27 question to which I want the answer is: Who owns us ?

28 "The few who understand the system, will either be so interested in its profits, or so dependent on its favors that
29 there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of people, mentally incapable
30 of comprehending the tremendous advantages...will bear its burden without complaint, and perhaps without 31 suspecting that the system is inimical to their best interests."

32 [Rothschild Brothers of London communiqué to associates in New York June 25, 1863;

34 Another U.S. Corporation - U.S. Treasury. If you didn't follow our contributed piece last week on how major
35 U.S. government agencies are being set up as corporations, you want to be sure to click over to below link and 36 read up. Then, read this from our intrepid researcher:

39 And, they say, Matrix ? Yeah, right !

1 14.10 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A)

2 Some freedom activists cite 28 U.S.C. §3002 as their only “proof” that the “United States” was incorporated by 3 Congress. This is shaky ground unless supported by other additional evidence found elsewhere in this
4 memorandum. Here’s the pertinent text of that statute:

5 TITLE 28 > PART VI > CHAPTER 176 > SUBCHAPTER A > § 3002
6 § 3002. Definitions

7 As used in this chapter:

8 ...

9 (15) "United States" means --
10 (A) a Federal corporation;
11 (B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or
12 (C) an instrumentality of the United States.

13 First of all, note well that the stated scope of this definition is limited to “this chapter” i.e. Title 28, *CHAPTER
14 176– Federal Debt Collection Procedures. The above definition is consistent with the Corpus Juris Secundum
15 definition of “United States”, which establishes the “United States” government as a foreign corporation in relation 16 to those domiciled within a constitutional state of the Union:

17 "A foreign corporation is one that derives its existence solely from the laws of another state, government, or
18 country, and the term is used indiscriminately, sometimes in statutes, to designate either a corporation created
19 by or under the laws of another state or a corporation created by or under the laws of a foreign country."

20 "A federal corporation operating within a state is considered a domestic corporation rather than a foreign
21 corporation. The United States government is a foreign corporation with respect to a state."
22 [19 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), Corporations, §883 (2003)]

23 Overlooking the limited scope of definitions such as 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A) is a very common error among 24 many, if not all self-styled experts. At best, this section cannot be used as the ONLY evidence that the federal 25 government should be treated as a valid corporation for all other intents and purposes.

26 Secondly, the statute at 28 U.S.C. §3002 defines the term “United States” to embrace all existing federal 27 corporations and instrumentalities. This would include wholly owned corporations such as, for instance, the 28 Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (F.D.I.C.), Red Cross, Fannie Mae, etc.

29 Thirdly, in Eisner v. Macomber, 252 U.S. 189 (1920) the U.S. Supreme Court told Congress that it was barred
30 from re-defining any terms that are used in the federal Constitution.

31 "In order, therefore, that the clauses cited from Article I of the Constitution may have proper force and effect,
32 save only as modified by the [Sixteenth] Amendment, and that the latter also may have proper effect, it becomes 33 essential to distinguish between what is and what is not "income," as the term is there used; and to apply the 34 distinction, as cases arise, according to truth and substance, without regard to form. Congress cannot by any 35 definition it may adopt conclude the matter, since it cannot by legislation alter the Constitution, from which 36 alone it derives its power to legislate, and within whose limitations alone that power can be lawfully exercised."
37 [Eisner v. Macomber, 252 U.S. 189 (1920)]

38 “United States” occurs in several places within the Constitution, because it is central to the entire purpose of that 39 Constitution. Therefore, the legislative attempt to re-define “United States” at section 3002:

- 40 1. Must be limited to areas where Congress has EXCLUSIVE legislative jurisdiction, and which are NOT protected by 41 the Constitution. Namely, federal territory.
42 2. Would necessarily be unconstitutional if enforced within a constitutional state of the Union, because it violates the 43 Eisner Prohibition.

1 Fourthly, 28 U.S.C. §3002(15)(A) also exhibits 2 subtle tautologies, which render it null and void for vagueness.
2 Here they are, in case you missed them:

3 “United States” means ...an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or 4 “United States” means ... an instrumentality of the United States.

5 It is a fundamental violation of proper English grammar to use the term being defined in any definition of that
6 term, and such a violation has clearly happened here. If you don’t yet recognize the tautologies, then change one
7 part of this definition to read:

8 14.11 Hard Evidence of Corporate Takeover at All Levels of Government in America, as Well as 9 of the United Nations: DUNS Numbers within both state and federal governments

10 Dunn & Bradstreet (D&B) DUNS code number are assigned to corporations in America to track their credit
11 ratings. Below you will find the DUNS numbers for the aggregate US government and each of its major agencies,
12 those of the aggregate governments of each US state along with that of its largest city, and those of the aggregate
13 United Nations and some of its major agencies. These corporate code numbers can be verified by using the 14 following link to the D&B website and typing in the required information: http://mycredit.dnb.com/search-for-
15 duns-number/

16 In checking DUNS code numbers for governments, you will find that they have many subsidiaries and shell
17 corporations to lessen financial accountability. You will find that some of them are listed as being in a
18 geographical location other than in their territorial authority, making their operations even more suspicious. The 19 City of Chicago corporation, for example, is located in Washington, DC, the State of Montana Corporation is 20 located in Chicago, Illinois and the State of Maine corporation – listed with seemingly sardonic humor as “State-21 O-Maine Inc.” – is located in New York City, New York. You will often also see executive, legislative and 22 judicial offices themselves listed as corporations.

23 Manta.com is a website for obtaining data on corporations. If the names of any of these government entities are 24 entered, you will find that virtually all of them are listed as private, for-profit corporations. You will also see in 25 the aggregate valuations of their assets that Manta.com provides is vastly greater than what is listed in these private 26 government corporations’ fraudulent but well-publicized budget documents that seek to justify draconian but 27 fraudulent budget cuts and their related tax-based extortion rackets.

28 This confirms that many hundreds of trillions of dollars of the people’s money listed in the semi-secret government
29 comprehensive annual financial reports (CAFRs) as government institutional investments are being siphoned off
30 by the global banking cartel and those sinister forces behind it.

31 They are doing this via that obscure subsidiary of the private, for-profit Federal Reserve System known as the 32 Depository Trust Clearing Center (DTCC), dba Cede Inc. (Again, note the sardonic humor.) This semi-secret
33 entity fraudulently confiscates these investment funds as an executor after they have been registered by brokers,
34 relegating investors to mere beneficiaries whose funds can then be lawfully – at least according to presently and 35 commonly used Universal Commercial Code (UCC)-based statutory law, not constitutional or common law --
36 confiscated at the will of said executor.

37 The implications of this are staggering: not only has this corporate subversion of government happened in 38 America and with the United Nations headquartered here, but it has happened in almost all of the nations of the 39 world by means of similar corporate subversion enacted under different names. This definitely explains why
40 governments at all levels in almost all nations no longer protect the public interest, but only special interests –
41 specifically, the interests of their fellow predatory for-profit corporations whose actions are now destroying this 42 planet and all life upon it.

1 This explains why the people of the world are soon going to see sweeping constitutionally based legal and law
 2 enforcement actions in all of the nations of the world against those who, unrepentantly abusing these ill-gotten
 3 gains, have perpetrated crimes against nature and humanity. This also explains the honest transitional
 4 governments and financial systems that are going to be installed as the callous, corrupt human systems of the past
 5 collapse. The new transparent governmental and financial models now being tested in the nation of Iceland, as 6 well as the likewise poorly publicized/contextualized mass resignations of government, banking and corporate 7 officials now occurring worldwide are heralds of these imminent planetary events.

2 15 There is no state sovereignty

3 A classical "State" can only be sovereign if it is following its charter, which is the constitution. That charter
4 requires it to first and foremost protect PRIVATE property and PRIVATE rights. If it deviates from that mission
5 and ESPECIALLY if it does the OPPOSITE, it ceases to be a classical or common law "State" and devolves into 6 a PRIVATE, for-profit corporation doing business primarily for its own "benefit" RATHER than the benefit of 7 those it is SUPPOSED to serve as its "sovereign". When it does this, it is devoid of "sovereign immunity",
8 becomes PRIVATE, and can only approach anyone and everyone else in equity under the common law rather than 9 statute law.

10 A state is doing the OPPOSITE of its charter and ceasing to protect PRIVATE rights and PRIVATE property 11 when it does any one or more of the following:

- 12 1. Refuses to recognize PRIVATE rights, PRIVATE property, or even CONSTITUTIONAL rights. For instance, it 13 provides no state on its forms that recognizes "non-franchisees" or non-resident non-persons" who are NOT its 14 customers.
- 15 2. Requires you to convert PRIVATE property to PUBLIC property for the PRIVILEGE of "protection". For instance,
16 only enforces PUBLIC civil franchise statutes and refuses to recognize COMMON LAW rights in the protection of 17 rights. PRIVILEGES and RIGHTS cannot coexist. PUBLIC PRIVILEGES DESTROY and CONVERT PRIVATE 18 RIGHTS when they are mixed together.
- 19 3. Makes a profitable business or "franchise" out of protecting anything or anyone.
- 20 4. Denies protection to non-franchisees. This is a denial of equal protection.

21 Corporate de facto states operating in a private capacity do all the above. They were created, in fact, to do ONLY
22 the above. They are a "straw man" designed to permit things to be done that would otherwise be illegal under the 23 organic law, meaning the Constitution:

24 "Straw man. A "front"; a third party who is put up in name only to take part in a transaction. Nominal party to 25 a transaction; one who acts as an agent for another for the purpose of taking title to real property and executing
26 whatever documents and instruments the principal may direct respecting the property. Person who purchases 27 property, or to accomplish some purpose otherwise not allowed."
28 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1421]

29 The abuse of "straw men" to accomplish otherwise illegal or unconstitutional activities is exhaustively described 30 in the following:

Proof That There Is a "Straw Man", Form #05.042
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

31 The de facto Statutory States were created to circumvent the "inalienability" of PRIVATE rights found in the 32 Declaration of Independence. They not only ALLOW alienation of PRIVATE rights, but encourage and COERCE 33 it economically.

34 "Unalienable. Inalienable; incapable of being aliened, that is, sold and transferred."
35 [Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 1693]

1 That is why we say that we have a de facto, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde government that wears two hats and wants
2 you to believe that they are both the same. That de facto government is described in:

De Facto Government Scam, Form #05.043
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

3 In furtherance of these observations, it may surprise readers to learn the following about their respective states:

- 4 1. CONSTITUTIONAL states are private and foreign in respect to the national government. They recognize and protect 5 PRIVATE property and PRIVATE rights using the constitution and the common law and NOT statutory law.
- 6 2. STATUTORY “States” are corporations that are PUBLIC. They only recognize and protect PUBLIC property and 7 PUBLIC rights using the STATUTORY franchise codes. They have no authority to hear disputes relating to the 8 constitution or the common law.
- 9 3. ALL STATUTORY “States” today have FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBERS and are ALL FEDERAL MUNICIPAL 10 CORPORATIONS.
  - 11 3.1. Their statutory franchise and revenue codes only apply in “federal areas” and “federal enclaves” under the Buck
12 Act and the Public Salary Tax Act of 1939.
  - 13 3.2. They DO NOT have statutory authority under the Buck Act, because the term “State” in 4 U.S.C. §110(d) does 14 not expressly include states of the Union. By the rules of statutory construction, anything not EXPRESSLY 15 included is PURPOSEFULLY excluded. However, they in effect, without constitutional delegated authority and 16 because of the love of money/mammon, “elect” to act as the federal territories described in this statute so that 17 they can enforce the IRS Code within federal areas within the external limits of their state.
  - 18 3.3. They have an Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) agreement with the national 19 Secretary of the Treasury. See:
20 <http://www.supremelaw.org/rsrc/acta/index.htm>
- 21 4. States with Federal Tax ID Numbers are, by operation of law, a Territory or Possession of the Corporate United States.
- 22 5. Every City in your STATUTORY STATE has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is in fact and law a FEDERAL 23 MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.
- 24 6. Every County in your STATUTORY STATE has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is in fact and law a FEDERAL 25 MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.
- 26 7. We do not have three (3) branches of government in any city, county, or state and there is no republican form of 27 government in place in any so called “state” today.
- 28 8. All cities, counties, and states are two (2) branch corporations.
- 29 9. All cities, counties, and states today only “service” or do business with their own statutory officers and employees 30 under the terms of a franchise.
  - 31 9.1. If you don’t have a PUBLIC franchise status (such as “person”, “individual”, “taxpayer”, “driver”, etc), then you 32 are legally dead as far as they are concerned.
  - 33 9.2. They refuse to even recognize private property and private rights and interfere with any attempt to invoke the 34 constitution or the common law against themselves for those who choose NOT to participate in the PUBLIC
35 corporation as officers of the corporation called “persons”.

36 The following subsections will prove these assertions using laws from the state of Washington. Your state has 37 similar laws.

38 15.1 Chronology of the transformation of CONSTITUTIONAL to STATUTORY “State” 39 Corporations

40 The transition from a de jure CONSTITUTIONAL state to a STATUTORY corporation and the coup de etat it 41 represents happened with the following steps:

- 42 1. The states were sovereign an independent before the civil war.
- 43 2. 1861-1865: During the civil war, Abraham Lincoln instituted the very first income tax in the Revenue Act of 1862. It 44 was a franchise/license tax.
- 45 3. 1865 and beyond: States of the Union, after the civil war, began rewriting their constitutions to remove references to 46 territory, so that they transitioned from TERRITORIAL entities to VIRTUAL/LEGAL entities called corporations.
  - 47 3.1. Anyone “inside” the virtual entity was a public officer.

3.2. Anyone “outside” the virtual entity and who refused to join the entity as a public officer was actively targeted for “selective enforcement” and denied constitutional and common law remedies.

4. 1872: In the License Tax Cases, the U.S. Supreme Court declared the first income tax passed to fund the war unconstitutional. Here was their language:

“Thus, Congress having power to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes, may, without doubt, provide for granting coasting licenses, licenses to pilots, licenses to trade with the Indians, and any other licenses necessary or proper for the exercise of that great and extensive power; and the same observation is applicable to every other power of Congress, to the exercise of which the granting of licenses may be incident. All such licenses confer authority, and give rights to the licensee.

But very different considerations apply to the internal commerce or domestic trade of the States. Over this commerce and trade Congress has no power of regulation nor any direct control. This power belongs exclusively to the States. No interference by Congress with the business of citizens transacted within a State is warranted by the Constitution, except such as is strictly incidental to the exercise of powers clearly granted to the legislature. The power to authorize a business within a State is plainly repugnant to the exclusive power of the State over the same subject. It is true that the power of Congress to tax is a very extensive power. It is given in the Constitution, with only one exception and only two qualifications. Congress cannot tax exports, and it must impose direct taxes by the rule of apportionment, and indirect taxes by the rule of uniformity. Thus limited, and thus only, it reaches every subject, and may be exercised at discretion. But, it reaches only existing subjects. Congress cannot authorize a trade or business within a State in order to tax it.”
License Tax Cases, [72 U.S. 462, 18 L.Ed. 497, 5 Wall. 462, 2 A.F.T.R. 2224 (1866) ]

5. 1895: Congress again tried to institute an income tax in the states as a franchise tax. It too was declared unconstitutional, and this case has NEVER been overruled. Hence, it still applies today, and it explains all the geographical definitions found in the Internal Revenue Code:

“Nothing can be clearer than that what the constitution intended to guard against was the exercise by the general government of the power of directly taxing persons and property within any state through a majority made up from the other states. It is true that the effect of requiring direct taxes to be apportioned among the states in proportion to their population is necessarily that the amount of taxes on the individual [157 U.S. 429, 583] taxpayer in a state having the taxable subject-matter to a larger extent in proportion to its population than another state has, would be less than in such other state; but this inequality must be held to have been contemplated, and was manifestly designed to operate to restrain the exercise of the power of direct taxation to extraordinary emergencies, and to prevent an attack upon accumulated property by mere force of numbers. “

“Here I close my opinion. I could not say less in view of questions of such gravity that they go down to the very foundations of the government. If the provisions of the Constitution can be set aside by an act of Congress, where is the course of usurpation to end?

The present assault upon capital is but the beginning. It will be but the stepping stone to others larger and more sweeping, until our political contest will become war of the poor against the rich; a war of growing intensity and bitterness.”
[Pollock v. Farmers’ Loan & Trust Co., 157 U.S. 429, 158 U.S. 601 (1895).]

6. 1909: President Taft Proposes the Sixteenth Amendment to Congress.

7. 1913: The 16th Amendment is fraudulently declared ratified by lame duck Secretary of State Philander Knox. See: The Law that Never Was, Bill Benson
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Law\_that\_Never\_Was

8. 1913: The Federal Reserve Act was passed during Christmas Recess by only six senators. Everyone else was on Christmas vacation. It was set to expire in 20 years but continues to this day even though it was not renewed. This allowed the following MASSIVE expansion of federal power:

- 8.1. Congress prints money.
- 8.2. Congress bribes/entices the states to sign up for socialist programs paid for with the printed money. This creates CRIMINAL financial conflicts of interest in state officers.
- 8.3. The states sign up ILLEGALLY, under such things as Agreements on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) agreements.
- 8.4. The IRS, which is a private corporation not within the national government, becomes the method of retiring EXCESS money from circulation in order to regulate the supply of fiat currency. This prevents inflation and stabilizes the prices.

- 1 9. 1918: Revenue Act of 1918. First income tax upon federal judges. This created a severe financial conflict of interest
2 in the judges that prejudiced the rights of state citizens.
- 3 10. 1920: Supreme Court struck down income tax on federal judges. Evans v. Gore, 253 U.S. 245 (1920).
- 4 11. 1924: Cook v. Tait, 265 U.S. 47 (1924). Ex-President Taft and now Chief Justice Taft declared the income tax
5 INTERNATIONAL in scope and applying EVERYWHERE.
- 6 12. 1925: The Certiorari Act was proposed before Congress by former President and now Chief Justice Taft. This would 7 allow the U.S. Supreme Court to:
8 12.1. Deny any appeal it didn't like that exposed any of the information in this pamphlet.
9 12.2. Criminally obstruct justice by interfering with any litigation effort designed to undo the socialist agenda of 10 enfranchisement of the states documented here.

- 13 13. 1929: Great Depression. The Federal Reserve knew that upon the expiration of the Federal Reserve Act on its 20th

20 State citizens wrongfully thought it pertained to THEM! To this day, covetous politicians continue to abuse

- 22 14.3. Nationalized the banks.
- 23 15. 1935: FDR passed the Social Security Act.
- 24 16. 1937: FDR packed the Supreme Court with extra SOCIALIST judges to get his socialist agenda through.
- 25 17. 1937-1938: The PACKED U.S. Supreme Court, complete with its newly appointed SOCIALIST judges, began a 26 series of cases to legitimize the UNCONSTITUTIONAL enforcement of acts of Congress within the borders of states.
This was necessary to allow federal franchises to be offered and enforced. These cases included:
27 17.1. United States v. Butler, 297 U.S. 1, 56 S.Ct. 312 (1936).
28 17.2. Helvering v. Davis, 301 U.S. 619, 57 S.Ct. 904.

30 17.4. Ashwander v. Tennessee Valley Authority, 297 U.S. 288, 56 S.Ct. 466 (1936).

32 the following fascinating book:

- 33 18. 1939: FDR codified the Internal Revenue Code and repealed all prior revenue codes.
- 34 19. 1939: The Public Salary Tax Act was passed. This imposed income taxes upon only public officers of the national 35 government. See:
36 <http://famguardian.org/PublishedAuthors/Govt/HistoricalActs/PublSalaryTaxAct1939.htm>
- 37 20. 1939: The Buck Act, 54 Stat. 1059 was passed. This act gave permission to TERRITORIES and not 38 CONSTITUTIONAL states to enforce state revenue codes against officers of the national government serving in the 39 territories. See 4 U.S.C. §111.
- 40 21. 1939: O'Malley v. Woodrough, 307 U.S. 277 (1939). The U.S. Supreme Court, after having been "packed" by 41 socialist FDR, overturned Evans v. Gore, 253 U.S. 245 (1920), thus making the income tax on federal judges
42 PERMANENT. This created a PERMANENT criminal financial conflict of interest in federal judges on the subject of 43 income taxes and all federal franchises in violation of 18 U.S.C. §208, 28 U.S.C. §§144, and 455.
- 44 22. 1940 on: States began enacting statutory income tax upon those domiciled within federal areas within their borders.
45 They would make the following improvements over time:
46 22.1. Adopt the Internal Revenue Code entirely. The geographical definitions in that code limit themselves to federal 47 areas and federal territory not within the exclusive jurisdiction of any state.

22.2. Confuse “residents” (aliens) with its own “citizens”.
22.3. Confuse STATUTORY and CONSTITUTIONAL context for geographical and citizenship terms to make them look equivalent so that they could impose the FEDERAL AREA income tax upon EVERYONE IN THE STATE!
22.4. Begin using their tax publications as a means to spread DISINFORMATION and propaganda. The supreme court would defend this propaganda war by declaring that you can’t trust anything a government worker or government publication says. See:

<http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Taxes/Articles/IRSNotResponsible.htm>

23. 1942: Congress Instituted the “Victory Tax” and got patriotic Americans everywhere to help with the war effort:

23.1. Filling out the “W-4” meant you were “For the War”.

23.2. The “W-2” for documented what went TO the war effort as a payroll deduction. It was the ORIGINAL income tax form!

24. 1945 on: IRS began obfuscating the tax forms to effect the following types of equivocation so as to make STATE citizens look and act like TERRITORIAL STATUTORY citizens and statutory “taxpayers”.

24.1. Calling all Americans “residents”.

24.2. Removing “nonresident” and “nontaxpayer” options from the status field on forms.

24.3. Illegally penalizing state citizens who file the correct NON-RESIDENT FORMS.

24.4. Encouraging the filing of FALSE information returns documenting the receipt of earnings from a public office by the party on the information return. See Forms W-2, 1042-S, 1098, 1099, etc.

24.5. Generally RIGGING all their forms. See:

15.2 The Evidence

Go down to your CITY CLERK and ask to purchase a CERTIFIED COPY of your CITY CHARTER and ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION for the City.

Go down to your COUNTY CLERK and ask to purchase a CERTIFIED COPY of your COUNTY CHARTER and ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION for the County.

You will find out that all cities only have two (2) branches of government!

You will find out that all counties only have two branches of government!

The ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION will show you that they incorporated a piece of dirt with the metes and bounds marked out!

What Legal or Lawful Authority does a Piece of Land that Incorporated and called itself the CITY OF SEATTLE have to hire an armed body of men called the SEATTLE POLICE?

The United States Supreme Court in a case called United States v. Soriano said that an ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCY is a creature of Statute created by the Legislature!

*“...an administrative agency is a creature of statute, having only those powers expressly granted to it by Congress or included by necessary implication from the Congressional grant. See CAB v. Delta Air Lines, Inc.”*

4 As a corporation is to its charter, the administrative is to its enabling legislation. This means the basic doctrine of 5 administrative law, as of corporate law, is the doctrine of ultra vires.

6 Ultra Vires

7 The modern technical designation, in the law of corporations, of acts beyond the scope of the powers of a
8 corporation, as defined by its charter or act of incorporation. State ex rel. v. Holston Trust Co., 168 Tenn. 546,
9 79 S.W.2d. 1012, 1016. The term has a broad. application and includes not only acts prohibited by the charter,
10 but acts which are in excess of powers granted and not prohibited. State ex rel. Supreme Temple of Pythian Sisters
11 v. Cook, 234 Mo.App. 898, 136 S.W.2d. 142, 146, and generally applied either when a corporation has no power
12 whatever to do an act, or when the corporation has the power but exercises it irregularly. People ex rel. Barrett
13 v. Bank of Peoria, 295 Ill.App. 543, 15 N.E.2d. 333, 335. Act is "ultra vires" when corporation is without authority
14 to perform it under any circumstances or for any purpose. Orlando Orange Groves Co. v. Hale, 107 Fla. 304,
15 144 So. 674, 676.

24 The jurisdiction principle is the root principle of administrative power. The statute is the source of agency authority
25 as well as its limits. If an agency act is within the statutory limits (vires) it is valid. If it is outside them (ultra 26 vires), it is invalid. No statute is needed to establish this; it is inherent in the constitutional positions of agencies 27 and courts.

28 The Revised Code of Washington (R.C.W.) section R.C.W. §42.17.020(1), enacted sometime after the 29 establishment of Western Area Power Administration (WAPA), where the legislature specifically defined
30 "agency" to include "all state agencies and all local agencies." It more particularly defined "state agency" in the 31 statute to include "every state office, public official, department, division, bureau, board, commission or other 32 state agency."

33 The definition of "local agency" is equally particular and complete.

34 "Local agency" includes every county, city, city and county, school district, municipal corporation, district,
35 political subdivision, or any board, commission or agency thereof, or other local public agency.
36 [R.C.W. §42.17.020(1)]

22 Courts presiding over statutory or franchise matters rather than operating under the common law are mere clerks
23 for an agency and an extension of the agency that implements the statutory franchise. As such, they exist in the 24 Executive rather than Judicial Branch.

25 "It is well-settled in administrative law that: 'It is the accepted rule, not only in state courts, but, of the federal 26 courts as well, that when a judge is enforcing administrative law they are described as mere 'extensions of the 27 administrative agency for superior reviewing purposes' as a ministerial clerk for an agency..."
28 [30 Cal. 596; 167 Cal 762]

29 "A judge ceases to sit as a judicial officer because the governing principals of administrative law provides that 30 courts are prohibited from substituting their evidence, testimony, record, arguments and rationale for that of the 31 agency. Additionally, courts are prohibited from their substituting their judgments for that of the agency."
32 [AISI v. U.S., 568 F.2d. 284]

33 ". . . judges who become involved in enforcement of mere statutes (civil or criminal in nature and otherwise), act 34 as mere "clerks" of the involved agency..."
35 [K.C. Davis., ADMIN. LAW, Ch. 1 (CTP. West's 1965 Ed.)]

39 U.S. 428]

40 A so-called Municipal or District court that is not hearing a common law or constitutional matter is actually
41 operating as a legislative franchise court in the Executive rather than Judicial branch. In speaking on this subject
42 in relation to the Constitution for the united States of America, the supreme Court said:

43 "The term 'District Courts of the United States,' . . . without an addition expressing a wider connotation, has its 44 historic significance. It describes the constitutional courts created under Article III of the Constitution. Courts
45 of the Territories are legislative courts, properly speaking, and are not District Courts of the United States."
46 [Mookini v. United States, 303 U.S. 201, 205, 58 S.Ct. 543, 82 Led. 748 (1938)]

47 "When the Tax Court was statutorily denominated an "Article I Court" in 1969, its judges did not magically
48 acquire the judicial power. They still lack life tenure; their salaries may still be diminished; they are still 49 removable by the President for "inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office." 26 U.S.C. § 7443(f). (In 50 Bowsher v. Synar, supra at 729, we held that these latter terms are "very broad" and "could sustain removal . . .
51 for any number of actual or perceived transgressions.") How anyone with these characteristics can exercise
52 judicial power "independent . . . [of] the Executive Branch" is a complete mystery. It seems to me entirely
53 obvious that the Tax Court, like the Internal Revenue Service, the FCC, and the NLRB, exercises executive
54 power. Amar, Marbury, Section 13, and the Original Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, 56 U.Chi.L.Rev. 443, 55 451, n. 43 (1989). See also Northern Pipeline, 458 U.S. at 113 (WHITE, J., dissenting) (equating administrative 56 agencies and Article I courts); Samuels, Kramer & Co. v. Commissioner, 930 F.2d. 975, 992-993 (CA2 1991)
57 (collecting academic authorities for same proposition). [501 U.S. 913]

1 [Freytag v. Commissioner, 501 U.S. 868, 912 (1991)]

2 This expression of the supreme Court of the united States of America shows that no constitutional judicial power
3 is exercised by legislative franchise courts. Instead such courts only exercise a power derived from the legislative 4 branch as an extension of the legislative rather than judicial power. A legislative tribunal does not exercise judicial 5 power, but merely administers legislative powers according to the nature of its creation.

6 "Territorial courts are legislative courts, created in virtue of the general right of sovereignty which exists in the 7 government, or in virtue of that clause which enables Congress to make all needful rules and regulations
8 respecting the territory belonging to the United States. The jurisdiction with which they are invested is not a part
9 of that judicial power which is defined in the third article of the Constitution, but is conferred by Congress, in the 10 execution of those general powers which that body possesses over the territories of the United States."
11 [9 Federal Statutes Annotated 212]

12 In constitutional courts (those courts that exercise judicial powers) the legislative branch cannot prescribe any 13 qualification for the office of judge not prescribed by the constitution from which jurisdiction is vested. State ex
14 rel. Chapman v. Appling, 220 Or. 41, 348 P.2d. 759 (1960).

15 The power of the Municipal or District Court is that of the old "justice of the peace" courts which were courts of 16 "limited and special jurisdiction. State v. Officer, 4 Or. 180 (1871).

17 Inferior tribunals are subject to the supervisory control (judicial powers), and must show affirmative proof on the 18 face of the inferior tribunal record to sustain a conviction.

19 "If the court is . . . of some special statutory jurisdiction it is as to such proceedings an inferior court, and not 20 aided by presumption of jurisdiction."
21 [Norman v. Zeiber, 3 Or. 198]

22 Inferior tribunals have no presumption of jurisdiction in their favor and all that need to be done by a Petitioner, to 23 throw the burden of proving jurisdiction upon Respondent State of Washington, is to contest the applicability of 24 the inferior tribunal's jurisdiction to Petitioner.

25 " . . . if the record does not show upon its face the facts necessary to give jurisdiction, they will be presumed not 26 to have existed."
27 [Norman v. Zeiber, 3 Or. 198]

28 The constitutional rule for inferior tribunals was set down by the Oregon Supreme Court in Evans v. Marvin, 76
29 Or. 540, 148 P. 1119 (1915), a case involving a justice court:

30 " . . . the constitutional rule that justice courts are of limited jurisdiction. ...their judgments must be sustained 31 affirmatively by positive proof that they had jurisdiction of the cases they attempt to decide."
32 [Evans v. Marvin, 76 Or. 540, 148 P. 119 (1915)]

33 ALL Municipal Court's in STATE OF WASHINGTON were created by two Statutes R.C.W. §35.20 and R.C.W.
34 §3.50.010 which both were created by the LEGISLATURE.

35 "The town of Orting had elected to create a municipal court under the authority of R.C.W. §3.50.010. This statute
36 provides that procedure in the municipal court is subject to the rule-making authority of the Supreme Court.
37 R.C.W. §3.50.450. Thus, the controlling rules of procedure are found in the Traffic Rules for Courts of Limited
38 Jurisdiction promulgated by this court, effective July 1, 1963. See JTR T2, R.C.W. vol. 0.
39 [Orting v. Ruchner, 66 Wn 2d (Aug. 1965)]

40 All District Court's in STATE OF WASHINGTON were created by Statute R.C.W. §3.66 which was created by 41 the LEGISLATURE.

42 All Superior Courts in STATE OF WASHINGTON were created by Statute R.C.W. Title 2 which was created by 43 the LEGISLATURE.

1 The so-called SUPREME COURT of STATE OF WASHINGTON was created by Statute R.C.W. Title 2 which
2 was created by the Legislature.

3 ALL JUDICIAL DISTRICTS WERE ABOLISHED IN 1856 BY THE 34TH CONGRESS.

4 "The act of Congress Aug. 16, 1856, regulating Courts in this Territory, and requiring the Judges of the Supreme
5 *Court to assign places for holding Courts, took effect when the order was made, pursuant to the act. The Judicial
6 District of King county having been abolished, by the order of the judges, Nov. 10, 1856, under said act, the 7 clerk of that Court, from that date, lost his legal existence—hence his subsequent official acts were nullities. "A
8 majority of the Judges met in Olympia, then the Capital of the Territory, on the 10th day of November, 1856, and
9 made the necessary order to give effect to the act of Congress. It has been held by this court, in the case of the 10 Territory vs. Leschi, that this act took effect from the time the orders were made by the Judges of the Supreme 11 Court. It is claimed however, that the act of Congress contemplated something more than an informal meeting of 12 the Judges. It will be observed on an examination of the act, that no terms are used indicating orders in term
13 time—the reference is to the orders of the Judges, or a majority of them, and not of the Court. The organic act
14 confers upon the Judges the appointment of clerks for the District Courts. King county, up to the passage of the 15 act of Congress referred to, was a Judicial District. On the said order of the Judges made the 10th day of 16 November, 1856, the District Court for King County was merged into the District Court for the Second Judicial 17 District. The clerk of the King county District Court, for ministerial or judicial purposes, ceased to exist; and
18 as this suit was instituted subsequently to the order made by the Judges, and the bond on which the recovery is 19 claimed, was executed on the 13th day of December, 1856, it follows that there was no District Court for King
20 county — no clerk having a legal official existence, and the whole proceeding a nullity."
21 [Mary Ann Boyer v. Miles Fowler et al., 1 Wash.T Sup. Ct. Dec. 1860]

22 All city and county charters in every state will clearly show that we have only executive and legislative branches
23 in every state!

24 You will find that in every County Charter they name your Superior Court System something like they do in 25 Washington like the KING COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION.

26 "The King County Department of Judicial Administration by its name falls within the definition of 27 *agency. Furthermore, KING COUNTY CHARTER 350.20 PROVIDES THAT IT IS AN 28 EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT."
29 [Nast v. Michels, 107 Wn.2d. 300, 305, 730 P.2d. 54 (Dec. 4, 1986)]

30 Have you ever Failed To Appear (F.T.A.) for any type of a court appearance?

31 Have you ever been in court and heard the so called JUDGE a so-called JUDICIAL OFFICER say:

32 "ISSUE A WARRANT FOR HIS ARREST"???

33 That's because the so-called JUDGE a so-called JUDICIAL OFFICER IS NOT REALLY JUDICIAL, HE IS 34 EXECUTIVE.

35 Even your phony Constitution and your State Statutes will clearly show that the EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY is 36 vested solely in the office of the elected County Prosecutor, Deputy Prosecutor, Special Prosecutor and/or 37 Attorney General's Office.

38 All so-called Judges are in fact and law EXECUTIVE OFFICERS and that is why the so-called JUDGE CAN 39 ISSUE A WARRANT FOR YOUR ARREST WHEN YOU FAIL TO APPEAR! Traffic courts in California, for 40 instance, refer to those presiding as "commissioners", not "judges".

41 ALL so called State Courts are creatures of Statute created by the LEGISLATURE and are merely 42 ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES which only have the authority or jurisdiction conferred by a Statute.

43 If you search carefully the Senate and House Bills and the 1st Legislative Enactment or Session Law creating the 44 Superior Courts in your State, you will find that it says right in your own law books, that ALL your so-called State
45 Superior Courts are really LOWER DISTRICT FEDERAL COURTS!

1 THAT'S RIGHT, WE HAVE NO STATE COURT'S IN EXISTENCE TODAY!

2 Your STATE is merely a sub-chartered Federal Municipal Corporation pretending to be and fraudulently holding
3 itself out to be a State, but in fact and law is NOT a State in Original Jurisdiction pursuant to the authority of the 4 1st Original Judiciary Act wherein the District of Columbia is NOT a State.

5 Your STATE is merely a FEDERAL MUNICIPAL CORPORATION under the NEW JUDICIARY ACT wherein 6 the DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA is now on an Equal Footing as a STATE.

7 ALL so-called private employers like McDonald's, Safeway, Albertson's, Schuck's Auto Supply, Al's Auto
8 Supply, etc. have FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBERS issued from the FEDERAL MUNICIPAL STATUTORY 9 STATE and are ALL sub-chartered UNITED STATES corporations.

10 STATE OF WASHINGTON, STATE OF OREGON, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, etc. are all sub-chartered
11 UNITED STATES corporations.

12 When you put a SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER down on an employment application, you are asking UNCLE
13 SAM to put you on the government payroll for future Labor and Industry "benefits" if you get hurt on the job, and 14 future unemployment should you get laid off from your job, future food stamps, future Medicaid, future Medicare, 15 welfare, etc.

16 Every Municipal Court in your State has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL MUNICIPAL 17 CORPORATION. The number is what the FTC calls a "franchise mark". The use of a franchise license number 18 issued by the national government is proof that the entity is an agent of the issuer.

19 *"A franchise entails the right to operate a business that is "identified or associated with the franchisor's
20 trademark, or to offer, sell, or distribute goods, services, or commodities that are identified or associated with 21 the franchisor's trademark." The term "trademark" is intended to be read broadly to cover not only trademarks,
22 but any service mark, trade name, or other advertising or commercial symbol. This is generally referred to as the 23 "trademark" or "mark" element.*

24 The franchisor [the government] need not own the mark itself, but at the very least must have the right to
25 license the use of the mark to others. Indeed, the right to use the franchisor's mark in the operation of the
26 business - either by selling goods or performing services identified with the mark or by using the mark, in
27 whole or in part, in the business' name - is an integral part of franchising. In fact, a supplier can avoid Rule
28 coverage of a particular distribution arrangement by expressly prohibiting the distributor from using its mark."
29 [FTC Franchise Rule Compliance Guide, May 2008;
30 SOURCE: <http://business.ftc.gov/documents/bus70-franchise-rule-compliance-guide>]

31 Every District Court in your State has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL MUNICIPAL
32 CORPORATION.

33 Every Justice of the Peace Court in your State has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL 34 MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

35 Every Circuit Court in your State has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL MUNICIPAL
36 CORPORATION.

37 Every Superior Court in your State has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL MUNICIPAL
38 CORPORATION.

39 Every Supreme Court in every STATE has a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER and is also a FEDERAL 40 MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

41 If your so-called STATE COURT is really a State Court, why does it have a FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBER?

1 Do you really believe your STATE COURT is a State Court in Original Jurisdiction? Ha, Ha.

2 Did you folks know that EVERY SINGLE COURT IN EVERY STATE IS REALLY A LOWER DISTRICT
3 FEDERAL COURT??????????

4 Read the following Washington State case law that proves these assertions.

5 The Washington State Supreme Court states that they

8 In Hayne on New Trial and Appeal (Revised Edition), vol. 2, section 291, this language is used:

9 "Under the rule of stare decisis, as shown in the preceding section, if a decision be clearly erroneous and rights
10 have not grown up under it to any great extent, it may be overruled. But this is not true of a subsequent appeal in 11 the same cause. However erroneous a decision of the supreme court may be, it must be adhered to in all
12 subsequent stages of the same case. It becomes the law of the case and cannot be disregarded either by the trial
13 court or by the supreme court. This rule is firmly established."

33 THERE YOU HAVE IT: THE WASHINGTON STATE SUPREME COURT SAYS WE ARE BOUND TO THE 34 DECISIONS OF THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT THE SAME AS ANY OTHER "FEDERAL 35 COURT"!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

36 "The supreme court of the United States is a constitutional court. All other Federal courts have been established

13 [State v. Williams, 93 Wn. App. 340, 969 P.2d. 106 (December 4, 1998)]

14 There are NO State Courts in existence today period!

15 Look at State court civil rule 2 in most states and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 2 wherein they combined "law 16 and equity" into one form of action called CIVIL.

17 Did you know that CONGRESS NEVER empowered the States to combine "law and equity" into one form of 18 action called CIVIL?

19 Did you know that ALL Bankruptcy, Divorce and Property Disputes are IN REM proceedings? An In Rem
20 proceeding is one against a civil status under the statutes and the obligations associated with the civil status:

21 IN REM. A technical term used to designate proceedings or actions instituted against the thing, in 22 contradistinction to personal actions, which are said to be in personam. See In Personam. It is true that, in a
23 strict sense, a proceeding in rem is one taken directly against property, and has for its object the disposition of
24 property, without reference to the title of individual claimants; but, in a larger and more general sense, the terms
25 are applied to actions between parties, where the direct object is to reach and dispose of property owned by them,
26 or of some interest therein. Such are cases commenced by attachment against the property of debtors, or instituted
27 to partition real estate, foreclose a mortgage, or enforce a lien. So far as they affect property in this state, they 28 are substantially proceedings in rem in the broader sense which we have mentioned. Pennoyer v. Neff, 95 U.S.
29 734, 24 L.Ed. 565; Continental Gin Co. v. Arnold, 66 Okl. 132, 167 P. 613, 617, L.R.A.1918B, 511. In the strict
30 sense of the term, a proceeding "In rem" is one which is taken directly against property or one which is brought 31 to enforce a right in the thing Itself. Austin v. Royal League, 316 Ill. 188, 147 N.E. 106, 109.

32 A divorce suit is a "suit in rem." the essential characteristic of which is found in the power of the state through
33 the decree or judgment of its court to dispose of the subject-matter of the suit, the res, in accordance with the 34 object of the suit, whether that subject-matter be physical property or the status of one or both of the parties
35 litigant, which decree operates immediately and absolutely upon the status of the suitor which is the res in the 36 suit without the necessity of execution, attachment, or contempt proceedings to enforce it. Lister v. Lister, 86
37 N.J.Eq. 30, 97 A. 170, 173.

38 A proceeding "in rem" is in effect a proceeding against the owner, as well as a proceeding against the goods, for 39 it is his breach of the law which has to be proven to establish the forfeiture, and it is his property which is sought
40 to be forfeited. Mack v. Westbrook, 148 Ga. 690, 98 S.E. 339, 343.
41 [Blacks' Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 900]

42 The "civil status" that is the subject of all statutory franchise proceedings is CREATED by the state in the statute
43 itself, and therefore is "property" of the state. That property, in turn, is granted/rented to all those who use it, and 44 the terms of the rental are specified in the statute. From a biblical perspective, we know that the borrower is 45 always servant to the lender:

46 "The rich rules over the poor,
47 And the borrower is servant to the lender."
48 [Prov. 22:7, Bible, NKJV]

1 Did you know that CONGRESS NEVER empowered the States to proceed IN REM?

2 Did you know that in ALL IN REM proceedings original jurisdiction lies exclusive of the States and solely to the 3 FEDERAL COURTS or to the Courts of the Territories or Possessions?

4 Can one sovereign tax another sovereign?

5 *"The difficulties arising out of our dual form of government and the opportunities for differing opinions
6 concerning the relative rights of state and national governments are many; but for a very long time this court
7 has steadfastly adhered to the doctrine that the taxing power of Congress does not extend to the states or their
8 political subdivisions. The same basic reasoning which leads to that conclusion, we think, requires like limitation
9 upon the power which springs from the bankruptcy clause. United States v. Butler, supra."
10 [Ashton v. Cameron County Water Improvement District No. 1, 298 U.S. 513, 56 S.Ct. 892 (1936)]*

11 When was the above over-ruled, and if it was never over-ruled, what does this imply? It implies that the States,
12 when they act in an administrative capacity upon federal territorial entities and citizens, are not the "States"
13 contemplated in the Constitution. There has been a coup de etat!

14 Why then are FEDERAL TAXES being deducted out of all STATE COURT JUDGES PAYCHECKS?

15 McDonald's, Safeway, Albertsons, Schucks Auto Supply, Al's Auto Supply, etc., are ALL Political Subdivisions
16 of the FEDERAL MUNICIPAL STATUTORY STATE.

17 ALL employees of McDonald's, Safeway, Albertsons, Schucks Auto Supply, Al's Auto Supply, etc. are QUASI
18 FEDERAL GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES because these entities ALL have FEDERAL TAX ID NUMBERS
19 AND ARE ALL UNITED STATES CORPORATIONS.

20 State of Washington is a federal municipal corporation.

21 You cannot be a state citizen of these Statutory States!

22 MANY PATRIDOTS who are just too lazy to do their own research and even constitutional attorneys like Larry
23 Becraft have failed miserably in court and just have NO understanding of the law and have NO clue. They have 24 made the SILLY and FRIVOLOUS argument that they were NOT a STATUTORY "U.S. citizen" and U.S.
25 corporate slave and then turned around in the same sentence and claimed to be State Citizens of the current STATE
26 OF CALIFORNIA, STATE OF OREGON, STATE OF WASHINGTON, ETC. and the Judges and Prosecutors
27 just snickered and giggled prior to sending these yo-yos to jail.

28 It seems like EVERYBODY knows that there are THREE (3) different United States, but they sure don't act like 29 they know.

30 15.3 Suspension of the Original State Constitutions and the Buck Act/Public Salary Tax Act

31 All States suspended their Original State Constitutions and placed them into the Archives Division of their 32 Secretary of State's Office and then replaced them with a much watered down version which took away ALL of 33 our Rights and replaced them with corporate privileges and codified them and made the constitutions a mere 34 statute which is now superseded by the specific statute such as speeding, running a red light, etc. This happened
35 after the Civil War ended in 1865.

36 Every STATE has two, three or more constitutions, but NO State is operating or going by their Original 37 Constitution! And yes, that original constitution is still in full force and effect and CANNOT be repealed.

38 Did you know that every 1st Original State Constitution had the RIGHT TO TRAVEL written right in it and says
39 THE HIGHWAYS SHALL FOREVER BE TO ALL PERSONS FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF THEIR

1 PERSONS AND PROPERTY FOR FREE THE SAME AS THE WATERWAYS and are ALL worded or 2 patterned after the NORTHWEST ORDINANCE AND TREATY OF GUADALUPE which say THE 3 WATERWAYS SHALL FOREVER BE FREE FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF PERSONS AND THEIR 4 PROPERTY.

5 That's Right, THE RIGHT TO TRAVEL IS A STATE CONSTITUTIONALLY PROTECTED RIGHT AND 6 UNDER THE NORTHWEST ORDINANCE AND THE TREATY OF GUADALUPE IS THE SUPREME LAW
7 OF THE LAND UNDER THE SUPREMACY CLAUSE OF THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION.

8 ALL NEW STATE CONSTITUTIONS only gave authority to the STATUTORY STATES TO REGULATE 9 COMMON CARRIERS, PRIVATE CARRIERS AND CONTRACT CARRIERS.

10 Have you ever read the Buck Act?

11 "STATE OF WASHINGTON" is a fictional Statutory State within a REAL Constitutional State.

12 YOU NEED TO READ THE BUCK ACT TO UNDERSTAND THAT STATE OF WASHINGTON is a 13 corporate "STATE" WITHIN "The State of Washington."

14 See R.C.W. §82.04.200 which reads:

15 R.C.W. §82.04.200

16 In this state" and "within this state" "IN THIS STATE" and "WITHIN THIS STATE" includes all federal areas
17 lying within the exterior boundaries of the state. [1961 c 15 82.04.200. Prior: 1955 c 389 21; prior L 1949 c

19 1935 c 180 5, part; Rem. Supp. 1949 8370-5, part.] (emphasis added).

20 "IN THIS STATE," "WITHIN THIS STATE" as stated in the above current 1999 R.C.W. Code Section is not 21 one of the united States of America in its original jurisdiction, nor is it part of "The State of Washington." See 22 Session Laws of 1889-1890, December 13, 1889, page 94 making by Legislative Fiat, "State" or "State of 23 Washington" in the Law mean, Territory or Territory of Washington. "WA" is a "fictional State within a
24 state" which was NOT in existence at the time of the creation of The State of Washington, nor was it in 25 existence at the time of the creation of the Territorial Code of 1881 which is still valid law today pursuant 26 to the fact that the Code of 1881 has never been repealed.

27 See R.C.W. Titles 46 and 47 wherein their code sections apply only to the above defined federal areas, to wit: "In 28 this state" and "within this state. See the Buck Act of 1940 cited below at page 4, lines 22-24, to wit: it's 29 codification at 4 U.S.C. §§105,110, et. sec..

19 R.C.W. §47.42.920 FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS--CONFLICT AND ACCORD.

20 If the secretary of the United States department of transportation finds any part of this chapter to be in conflict
21 with federal requirements that are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the "state", the
22 conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict and with 23 respect to the agencies directly affected, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the 24 remainder of this chapter in its application to the agencies concerned. THE RULES UNDER THIS CHAPTER
25 SHALL MEET FEDERAL REQUIREMENTS THAT ARE A NECESSARY CONDITION TO THE RECEIPT OF 26 FEDERAL FUNDS BY THE STATE. [1985 c 142 § 4.]

27 In addition to the foregoing, R.C.W. §46.04.360, under the section titled "Nonresident," reads:

28 "Nonresident" means any person whose residence is outside this state and who is temporarily sojourning
29 WITHIN THIS STATE. [1961 c 12 § 46.04.360. Prior: 1959 c 49 § 37; prior: (i) 1943 c 153 § 1, part; 1937 c
30 188 § 1, part; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6312-1, part. (ii) 1937 c 189 § 1, part; RRS § 6360-1, part.] (emphasis added)
31 [R.C.W. §46.04.360]

32 How would we apply this in a traffic case? Here is an example:

33 Courts must take Mandatory Judicial Notice per Federal Rule of Evidence 201 and Federal Rule of Civil 34 Procedure 44.1 Determination of Foreign Law of which I now object, take exception and make an OFFER OF 35 PROOF Federal Rule of Evidence 103(2) that this "fictional court" has NO jurisdiction in the premises for failure
36 to provide proof that I was "driving" a "motor vehicle" in a "FEDERAL AREA".

37 See California and North Carolina's consistent definitions of those states "municipal laws" which require some 38 sort of "contract" for proper application within the "federal areas" of the "NEW UNION."

39 California Revenue and Taxation Code, Section 11205. "In this State" etc.

7 Carolina and includes all territories within such limits owned or ceded to the United States of America. (Added
8 Stats. 1941, c. 36, p. 536, section 1.)"

9 "N.C. G.S. Sections 105-187.2 A tax is imposed for the privilege of using the highways of this State. This tax is 10 in addition to all other taxes and fees imposed. (Stats. 19889, c.692, s.4.1)

11
12 "N.C. G.S. 12-3 Statutory Construction;

13 "State" and "United States".--The word "state," when applied to the different parts of the united States, shall be
14 construed to extend to and include the District of Columbia and the several territories, so called; and the words
15 "United States" shall be construed to include the said districts and territories and all dependencies.'

16 It is clear that North Carolina Statutes, California Statutes and Washington Statutes agree completely with the 17 "Buck Act" Title 4 U.S.C.S. sections 105-110, and is identical in implication and meaning. This tax is imposed
18 on every motor vehicle used in any "federal area" such as the Central District of STATE OF WASHINGTON aka
19 "WA", Social Security Area, federal ZIP Code area, etc.

20 These definitions are consistent with the definitions mandated by the "BUCK ACT" which states in part:

21 4 U.S.C. Flag and Seal, Seat of Government, and the States

22 "110(d) The term "State" includes any Territory or possession of the United States."

23 "11(e) The term "Federal Area" means any lands or premises held or acquired by or for the use of the United
24 States or any department, establishment, or agency of the United States; and any Federal area, or any part
25 thereof, which is located within the exterior boundaries of any State, shall be deemed to be a Federal area located 26 within such State."

27 The Social Security Department created 10 social security districts which like a thin plastic sheet overlay all the 28 50 states of the union. This creates a "fictional federal state within a state," for the purposes of applying the "Public 29 Salary Tax Act" to these areas.

30 "There has been created a fictional Federal "state within a state."
31 [Howard v. Commissioners of Sinking fund of Louisville, 344 U.S. 624, 73. S.Ct. 465, 476, 97 L.Ed. 617 (1953);
32 Schwartz v. O'Hara TP. School Dist., 100 A.2d. 621, 625, 375 Pa. 440]

33 (Compare also 31 C.F.R. Part 51.2 and 52.2, which also identifies a fictional State within a state.)

34 This fictional "State" is identified by the use of two-letter abbreviations like 'WA', "OR", "ID", "AZ", and "TX"
35 as distinguished from the authorized abbreviations like "Wash.", etc. This fictional State also uses a ZIP Codes
36 which are within the municipal, exclusive legislative jurisdiction of Congress.

37 There is a vestige of State sovereignty remaining which cannot be acquired by the United States (District of 38 Columbia) because of the limitation of the United States to powers delegated under the Constitution. See Cal. 7
39 Ops Atty Gen. 628; 37 Am. Jur, Municipal Corp sections 23, 26; Wichita Falls v. Bowen, 143 Tex. 45, 182

1 The creation of a fictional corporate "STATE" operating in federal areas within a territorial and constitutional
2 "State" was accomplished by the institution of the "Buck Act," 4 U.S.C.S. Sections 104-113. Congressman Buck,
3 who introduced the act, was killed when he discovered how the act would be put to the use it has today. The 4 Public Salary Tax Act of 1939 allowed officers of the national government to be taxed by state governments
5 within federal areas. At the same time, Social Security was offered illegally within the constitutional states and 6 the use of the Social Security created a prima facie presumption that the party so using it as a "franchisee" of the 7 national government is an officer and employee of the national government on official business. 26 C.F.R.
8 §301.6109-1(b) indicates that in the case of a foreign person, identifying numbers are only required if that person
9 is engaged in a "trade or business" or if they made an election to be a "U.S. person", meaning public officer in the 10 government. "Trade or business" is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) as "the functions of a public office".

17 (1) U.S. [GOVERNMENT] persons.

18 Every U.S. [federal government public officer] person who makes under this title a return, statement, or other
19 document must furnish its own taxpayer identifying number as required by the forms and the accompanying 20 instructions. A U.S. person whose number must be included on a document filed by another person must give the 21 taxpayer identifying number so required to the other person on request.

22 For penalties for failure to supply taxpayer identifying numbers, see sections 6721 through 6724. For provisions

27 (2) Foreign persons.

28 The provisions of paragraph (b)(1) of this section regarding the furnishing of one's own number shall apply to 29 the following foreign persons--

30 (i) A foreign person that has income effectively connected with the conduct of a U.S. trade or business at 31 any time during the taxable year;

32 (ii) A foreign person that has a U.S. office or place of business or a U.S. fiscal or paying agent at any time
33 during the taxable year;

34 (iii) A nonresident alien treated as a resident under section 6013(g) or (h);

35 (iv) A foreign person that makes a return of tax (including income, estate, and gift tax returns), an amended
36 return, or a refund claim under this title but excluding information returns, statements, or documents;

37 (v) A foreign person that makes an election under Sec. 301.7701-3(c);

38 (vi) A foreign person that furnishes a withholding certificate described in Sec. 1.1441-1(e)(2) or (3) of this 39 chapter or Sec. 1.1441-5(c)(2)(iv) or (3)(iii) of this chapter to the extent required under Sec. 1.1441-1(e)(4)(vii)
40 of this chapter;

41 (vii) A foreign person whose taxpayer identifying number is required to be furnished on any return, statement,
42 or other document as required by the income tax regulations under section 897 or 1445. This paragraph 43 (b)(2)(vii) applies as of November 3, 2003; and

44 (viii) A foreign person that furnishes a withholding certificate described in Sec. 1.1446-1(c)(2) or (3) of this 45 chapter or whose taxpayer identification number is required to be furnished on any return, statement, or other
46 document as required by the income tax regulations under section 1446. This paragraph (b)(2)(viii) shall apply
47 to partnership taxable years beginning after May 18, 2005, or such earlier time as the regulations under Sec.
48 Sec. 1.1446-1 through 1.1446-5 of this chapter apply by reason of an election under Sec. 1.1446-7 of this chapter.

1 This makes all private sector workers who have and "use" a Social Security number subject to all State and Federal
2 laws "within the State" a "fictional Federal area" overlaying all the land "within" the United States of America.

3 "Respondent contends article 2(a) R.C.W. 9.100.010 supports its argument that "state", as used in R.C.W.

40 967, 34 L.Ed.2d 234, 93 S.Ct. 293]

41 There is NO doubt that the fictional Federal Municipal Statutory State OF WASHINGTON is attempting to 42 impose directly a "USE" tax (excise) under the provision of 4 U.S.C.S. Section 105 which states in pertinent part:

43 4 U.S.C. Flag and Seal, Seat of Government, and the States

44 "Section 105. State and so forth, taxation affecting Federal Areas; sales and use tax.

45 (a) No person shall be relieved from liability for payment of, collection of, or accounting for any sales or use tax

49 any Federal area, within such State to the same extent and with the same effect as though such area was not a

51 "A "Federal area" is any area designated by any agency, Division, or establishment of the federal government.
52 This includes the Social Security areas designated by the Social Security Administration, any public housing area
53 that has federal funding, a home that has a federal bank loan, a road that has federal funding, and almost 54 everything that the federal government touches through any type of aid." Springfield v. Kenny, (1951 App.) 104
55 N.E.2d. 65

1 This "Federal area" attaches to anyone who has and "uses" a social security number or any personal "minimal
2 contacts" with the federal or State governments. Thus, the federal government has usurped the sovereignty of the 3 People and state sovereignty by creating these "fictional federal areas" within the boundaries of the state under 4 the authority of the Federal Constitution, Article IV, Section 2 which reads:

5 *"The Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needfull rules and regulations respecting the territory
6 or other property belonging to the United States, and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed as to 7 prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state."*

8 *"Therefore, the U.S. citizens [citizens of the District of Columbia] residing in one of the states of the union, are 9 classified as property and franchises of the federal government as an "individual entity."
10 [Wheeling Steel Corp. v. Fox, 298 U.S. 193, 80 L.Ed. 1143, 56 S.Ct. 773]*

11 *"A "U.S. Citizen" upon leaving the District of Columbia becomes involved in "interstate commerce", as a 12 "resident" does not have the common-law right to travel, of a Citizen of one of the several states."
13 [Hendrick v. Maryland, S.C. Reporter's Rd. 610-625. (1914)]*

25 15.4 What is a Resident?

26 Citizen and Resident are not synonymous terms, domicile and residence are not synonymous, therefore a Citizen
27 is a nonresident. Bouvier's, Blacks, Ballentine's Law Dictionaries.

28 *"Residence or doing business in a hostile territory is the test of an "alien enemy: within meaning of Trading with 29 the Enemy Act and Executive Orders thereunder."
30 [Executive Order March 11, 1942. No. 9095, as amended 50 U.S.C.A. Appendix 6: Trading with the enemy Act 5
31 (b). In re Oneida Nat. Bank & Trust Co. of Utica, 53 N.Y.S. 2d 416, 420, 421, 183 Misc. 374]*

32 *"By the modern phrase, a man who resides under the allegiance and protection of a hostile state for commercial 33 purposes is to be considered to all civil purposes as much as an 'alien enemy' as if he were born there."
34 [Hutchinson v. Brock, 11 Mass. 119, 122]*

35 See also Internal Revenue Code Section 7701(39) which reads:

36 "I.R.C. Section 7701(39) IF ANY CITIZEN OR RESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT RESIDE IN 37 (AND IS NOT FOUND IN) ANY UNITED STATES JUDICIAL DISTRICT, SUCH CITIZEN OR RESIDENT 38 SHALL BE TREATED AS RESIDING IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA FOR PURPOSES OF ANY 39 PROVISIONS OF THIS TITLE TO-

40 (A) jurisdiction of courts, or

41 (B) enforcement of summons."

42 Also see Internal Revenue Code, Section 7408(c) and Art. 1, Section 8, Clause 17 Constitution for the United 43 States of America as defined and reinstated in National Mutual Insurance Company of the District of Columbia,
44 337 U.S. 582, 93 L.Ed. 1556 (1948) and further states that citizens of the District of Columbia are not embraced
45 by the judicial power under Article III of the Constitution for the United States of America, the same statement is 46 held in Hepburn v. Dundas v. Elizzey, 2 Cranch (U.S.) 445, 2 L.Ed. 332.; In 1804, the Supreme Court, through 47 Chief Justice Marshall, held that a citizen of the District of Columbia was not a citizen of a state.

1 In National Mutual Insurance Company of the District of Columbia v. Tidewater Transfer Company, (SUPRA):

2 "We therefore decline to overrule the opinion of Chief Justice Marshall, and we hold that the District of Columbia
3 is not a state within Article 3 of the Constitution. In other words cases between citizens of the District and those
4 of the states were not included of the catalogue of controversies over which the Congress could give jurisdiction
5 to the federal courts by virtue of Article 3."
6 [National Mut Ins Co of District of Columbia v. Tidewater Transfer Co Inc, 337 U.S. 582, 69 S.Ct. 1173, 93 L.Ed.
7 1556 (1949)]

8 In other words Congress has exclusive legislative jurisdiction over citizens of Washington District of Columbia
9 and through their plenary power nationally covers those citizens even when in one of the several states as though
10 the district expands for the purpose of regulating its citizens wherever they go throughout the states in union. And 11 furthermore, there is a limitation of power defined as follows:

12 4 U.S.C. §71. Permanent seat of Government

13 All that part of the territory of the United States included within the present limits of the District of Columbia
14 shall be the permanent seat of government of the United States.
15 (July 30, 1947, chapter 389, 61 Stat. 643.)

16 4 U.S.C. §72. Public offices, at seat of Government

17 All offices attached to the seat of government shall be exercised in the District of Columbia, and not elsewhere,
18 except as expressly provided by law.
19 (July 30, 1947, chapter 389, 61 Stat 643.)

20 15.5 What is or Who are Citizens?

21 It is shown that Fourteenth Amendment citizens/subjects are artificial persons created by the legislature
22 (Congress) and cannot claim protections secured by Article IV, section 2.

23 III. Who are Citizens – 1. "Corporations as Citizens. – Corporations are not citizens within the meaning of this
24 clause. The term 'citizen' as there used applies only to natural persons, members of the body politic owing 25 allegiance to the state, not to artificial persons created by the legislature and possessing only the attributes which 26 the legislature has prescribed."
27 [Volume IX 1888 Fed. Stats. Page 162]

28 "To aliens we extend these privileges (citizenship via Fourteenth Amendment) by courtesy; to others we secure
29 them--" (emphasis Added..)
30 [Van Valkenburg v. Brown, 43 Cal. Supreme Ct. 43, 48 (1872)]

31 15.6 What is an Alien Enemy?

32 So you can further understand the word Alien Enemy and what it means to be declared an enemy of the 33 government, read the following definitions: The phrase Alien Enemy is defined in Bouvier's Law Dictionary as :

34 "One who owes allegiance to the adverse belligerent."
35 [1 Kent 73]

36 "He who owes a temporary but not a permanent allegiance is an alien enemy in respects to acts done during such 37 temporary allegiance only; and when his allegiance terminates, his hostile character terminates also;
38 [1 B. & P. 163]

39 "Alien enemies are said to have no rights, no privileges, unless by the king's favor during time of war;"
40 [1 Bla.Com. 372; Bynkershoek 195; 8 Term 166]

41 "The phrase Alien Enemy is defined in Words and Phrases as: Residence of person in territory of nation at war
42 with United States was sufficient to characterize him as "alien enemy" within Trading with the Enemy Act, even 43 if he had acquired and retained American citizenship."
44 [Matarrese v. Matarrese, 59 A.2d. 262, 265, 142 N.J.Eq. 226]

1 Under the "Buck Act" 4 U.S.C.S. sections 105-110, the federal government has created a fictional "Federal area"
2 within the boundaries of North Carolina, California and Washington. This area is similar to any territory that the
3 federal government acquires through purchase or conquest, thereby imposing federal territorial law upon those
4 "residing" in said "Federal area" which is called the "State of Washington." In fine point of fact and law, the 5 enforcement of registration and taxation of motor vehicles is being carried out under federal military territorial
6 law as evidenced by the Executive Branch's yellow fringed military and territorial U.S. Flag flying in the 7 courtrooms and Department of Licensing offices. See R.C.W. 38 Militia and Military Affairs.

8 15.7 The Term "Person" Includes This State

9 In order to use a civil process to enforce a private right, there must be an agreement upon which the private right
10 is alleged. The R.C.W. is a compilation of private laws Copyrighted Codes intended to govern the members
11 of the private corporation "forum state" known as "STATE OF WASHINGTON". STATE OF WASHINGTON
12 having left any previously held plain of sovereignty to take on the status of a private corporation.

13 "It is for some purposes, although not others, treated as a "person." When the United States enters into a 14 commercial business, it abandons its sovereign capacity and is to be treated like any other corporation."
15 [91 Corpus Juris Secundum (C.J.S.), United States, §4]

16 The term person identifies this state:

17 R.C.W. §1.16.080(1)

18 The term "person" may be construed to include the United States, this state, or any state or territory, or any 19 public or private corporation or limited liability company, as well as an individual.

20 The definition would not include this state IF this state was Sovereign.

21 "In Common Usage, the term "person" does not include the sovereign and statute employing it will ordinarily not 22 be construed to do so."
23 [U.S. v. United Mine Workers of America, U.S. 258,91]

24 See also United States v. Fox, 94 U.S. 315. The "person" liable to the R.C.W. is a legal fiction. R.C.W. §9A.04.110
25 (17)

26 "Person", "he", and "actor" include any natural person and, where relevant, a corporation, joint stock
27 association, or an unincorporated association"

28 Or see R.C.W. §46.04.405

29 "Person" includes every natural person, firm, copartnership, corporation, association, or organization."

30 The term "person" as used in the R.C.W. is always a fictional entity. See also cannon of statutory construction
31 Ejusdem Generis to wit:

32 "Of the same kind, class or nature. In the construction of laws, wills, and other instruments, the "ejusdem generis
33 rule" is that where general words follow an enumeration of persons or things, by words of a particular and 34 specific meaning, such general words are not to be construed in their widest extent, but are to be held as applying
35 only to persons or things of the same general kind or class as those specifically mentioned. U.S. v. LaBrecque"
36 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition]

37 State of Washington is merely a municipal corporation:

38 "The territory is a municipal corporation and government, representing all the people within its borders. The 39 county of Spokane is an agency of the territory to carry on certain functions of government. Neither the territory
40 nor county are the real party in interest; but the inhabitants are. The territory by statute is authorized to accept 41 and collect these bonds for the use of the people, and is a trustee of a trust expressed by statute."
42 [Ainsworth v. Territory of Washington, 2 Wash. Territory 270, 278 (January 21, 1887)]

1 "That a state government comes within the purview of the act is manifest by the definition of "person" contained
2 in section 302 (h) (U.S.C.A. (Supt.), section 942 (h)). If state governments are not included within the term "any
3 other government," then no political subdivision of any state nor any state agency comes within the purview of 4 the act, for, obviously, the political subdivisions and agencies "of the foregoing" are such as are set up and 5 included within "any other government" within the scope of the act."
6 [Soundview Pulp Co. v. Taylor, 21 Wn.(d) 261, 276 (July 22, 1944)]

7
8 "The state acts in two capacities: governmental and proprietary. The distinction between the two is best stated in 9 Cincinnati v. Cameron, 33 Ohio St. 336, approved by this court in Seattle v. Stirrat, 55 Wash. 560, 104 Pac. 834,
10 30 L.R.A. (N.S.) 1275:

11 "In its governmental or public character, it represents the state, while in the other it is a mere private corporation.
12 As a political institution, the municipality occupies a different position, and is subject to different liabilities from 13 those which are imposed upon the private corporation. But because these two characters are united in the same
14 legal entity, it does not follow that the shield which covers the political equally protects the private corporation."
15 [Strand v. State, 16 Wn.(2d) 107, 116 (January 6, 1943)]

16 How would we apply this in a traffic case?:

17 "It is an undisputed Fact of Law pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(d) that I the Sovereign accused
18 do not reside or travel "in this state" or "within this state" or within any other "FEDERAL AREAS" lying within 19 the exterior boundaries of the State, when I temporarily sojourn or locomote on the "public highways" in a
20 "recreational vehicle" pursuant to R.C.W. §46.25.050(1)(c) and defined at W.A.C. §308-100-210, as I am
21 "STATELESS" to the "STATUTORY STATES," and without the conterminous United States of America and its 22 instrumentalities. I do not in "RE" on any "SIDE" of the court "in this state" or "within this state."

23 I am not a member of, nor do I have allegiance to, the Federal Conterminous United States of America, or its

30 Instead, you as a non-member and non-officer of the federal municipal corporation are an internationally protected
31 person (18 U.S.C. §112) who is neither a "RESIDENT", nor [c]itizen, of the Federal Municipal Corporation AKA
32 "STATE OF WASHINGTON", nor the UNITED STATES. As such you have no 'minimal contracts' which are 33 made with the STATE OF WASHINGTON, or STATE OF OREGON which the Supreme Court concludes is

1 The great CONSTITUTIONAL State of Washington is a "foreign country" within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. §11,
2 and you are a member of a body of insurgents, within the State of Washington known to the United States as 3 "Americans".

4 As such, you are a member of a foreign government and qualifies for protection from the State of Washington, as 5 "any other representative" Statute at Large 15, of said body of insurgents (who are peaceful in their actions)
6 [18 U.S.C. §1116 (b)(4)(B)] and is entitled to "special protection" from the State of Washington or State of 7 Oregon, both Federal Municipal Corporations. This court lacks subject and personam jurisdiction over the 8 Defendant, and Personam jurisdiction over the Defendant for the charges against him. The Plaintiff bears the 9 burden of proof of jurisdiction and statutory authority.

10 The word "territory" should not go without mention because of its use in connection with the word state. Like the 11 word state, the word territory has more than one meaning. Sometimes it is referring strictly to the geographical 12 boundaries of a state, but most often it is used in the combined sense of both jurisdiction and a geographical 13 boundary.

14 Since both the government of the state and "We, the people" of the State exist as states simultaneously within the 15 same geographical territory of a state, then, it is obvious that the territory of a state must mean something more 16 than just a geographical boundary. This is a reasonable conclusion because Black's defines the term "Territory" 17 as:

18 "Territory: A part of a country separated from the rest, and subject to a particular jurisdiction. Geographical 19 area under the jurisdiction of another country or sovereign power.

20 A portion of the United States not within the limits of any state, which has not yet been admitted as a state of the 21 Union, but is organized with a separate legislature, and with executive and judicial powers appointed by the 22 President."
23 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1473]

24 The above fraud of the "Territory of Washington" is further evidenced on the 13th day in the month of December
25 in the year A.D. 1889 in the session laws of 1889 (page 94).

26 The courts unlawfully order by rule the wrong style of process and order up unconstitutional seals. The judicial 27 operates under "STATE OF WASHINGTON" meaning "territory of Washington" as defined under "Act of Dec.
28 13, page 94, Session Laws 1889-90, Resolution 33, 1889-90 and Article 27 Const. of WA," and two
29 unconstitutional state statutes, creating the superior and supreme courts by statute without authority of law. This 30 usurpation making or retaining a "Federal Territorial" jurisdiction unlawfully subjecting We, the People, the 31 Posterity of the framers of the Constitution for the united States of America and subject to the principals of the 32 Unanimous Declaration of the 13 united States of America, enacted the 4th day of July, A.D. 1776, to be not 33 within the equal footing doctrine guaranteed by the Enabling Act of "Congress" and the Constitution of 1787, as 34 amended 1791, to suffer martial law rule, (no law at all), no Republic and other peonage by you perpetrators
35 pretending to be operating under the law of We, the People, the State of Washington.

36 The First Session Laws of 1889_90, at page 26, of the "phony legislature" for the Corporation AKA "STATE
37 OF WASHINGTON" pretended to enact provisions to purchase Barton's Hand Book and "pretend" Legislature
38 Manual of Washington. At page 37 of this book are the words "STATE OF WASHINGTON," prefacing by itself,
39 the Enabling Act and the Constitution. The intent of Senate Joint Resolution No. 33, page 792 of the Session
40 Laws of 1889_90, was carried to its completion. The original and independent authority, of Article XXVII of the 41 constitution was used to create a parallel government which is in fact and law a "Federal Municipal Corporation"
42 pretending to be our lawful government not authorized by the Constitution and certainly not republican in form.

43 The unconstitutional legislatively created "statutory courts," with no constitutional Power, can only take 44 "jurisdiction in the premises" of the case which is the law (private law) and copyrighted by West publishing of the 45 case or at law and only hear the issue as predicated through the syllogisms in the complaint as purviewed through

1 or defined in the "Territorial Code of 1881" which is further laid out in your revised code of Washington which is
2 in fact and law the "Territorial Code of 1881" revised, in particular R.C.W. §82.04.200, excise and occupational
3 tax, ""In this state" or "within this state" includes all Federal areas lying within the exterior boundaries of the state
4 of Washington." Includes as defined in Black's Law Dictionary, Fourth Edition, p. 905, "to shut up, contain,
5 include ". "Jurisdiction in the premises" constitutes stipulation and bars litigants from challenging the rules and 6 code unless the original premises are rebutted and debunked. This Declaration rebuts, denies and debunks the 7 premise we are in original jurisdiction and Of "WASHINGTON'S" premises upon premises upon premises that it
8 and its code are constitutional and republican in form AND OPENS THIS SOPHISTRY FOR ALL TO SEE.

9 If "The State of Washington" or Oregon government had been established according to law, (the Constitution for 10 the State of Washington) or Oregon) the Superior and Supreme Courts would not need a statute to operate under 11 and they would take jurisdiction in law not in the premises (see, In Re Rafferty, and other cases), all process and 12 prosecutions would be in the style and modes as mandated by the People in the Constitution. The issues would be 13 heard under the rules of common-law. The Fundamental Common Law, (the law of God and His nature) would 14 be the prevailing factor, along with the lawful Statutes of the Legislature would be the law in the courts, not the 15 R.C.W.. Article IV, Section 24, mandates the superior courts promulgate and establish their own rules, the courts
16 would declare the law, the juries, (12 Men, common-law rule), would rule on the law and the facts in all cases
17 AND BE INSTRUCTED THAT THEY HOLD THE POWER AND THE RIGHT TO DO SO, each county under 18 the rule of the common law would need different rules as the common law of each county would evolve somewhat
19 different from the others. There would be Citizen Grand Jury investigations of violations of law instead of coroners
20 and police inquest and trials with 6 chainmen (persons) advising the harbor master ("judge") on facts pertaining 21 to the territorial maritime code violations. We, the People, would be self-governing, with true Liberty and justice
22 for all, IN EQUITY AND ALL, THE COURTS WOULD DECLARE THE LAW, not rule on code violations.
23 You should deny all venue and jurisdiction to this state, within this state, in this state, state and STATE OF 24 WASHINGTON OR WA, and the same argument applies to Oregon, State of Oregon, or "STATE OF OREGON", 25 OR, ALL THESE TERMS MEANING TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON OR OREGON AN 26 INSTRUMENTALITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

27 A geographical boundary then, is of secondary importance; of primary importance is jurisdiction. It should be 28 noted that, in most instances, the word state is synonymous with the word jurisdiction, both being used to mean
29 the same thing. Obviously then, two elements must be present in order to have a complete definition of a state's 30 territory:

- 31 (1) its jurisdiction and
32 (2) its geographical boundary.

33 If a little "reason," "logic" and common sense is applied to the foregoing definition of the word "territory," one
34 can easily see that the Constitution for The State of Washington created "a particular jurisdiction" in a "part of a
35 country [state] separated from the rest," in a "Geographical area under the jurisdiction of another....sovereign
36 power." In other words, "We, the People," the "sovereign power" "of The State of Washington created an entity
37 known as the government of The State of Washington, which is "a particular jurisdiction" "separated from" "We,
38 the People" in the "Geographical area" known as The State of Washington. However you rascals, not the People
39 attempted to create a false government and almost got away with it, foisting STATE OF WASHINGTON off as 40 The State of Washington.

37 "Governments lose their immunity and descend to level of private corporations when involved in commercial

25 16 How CorpGov forces you to UNLAWFULLY become its "employee" or "officer"<sup>89</sup>

26 Government-issued identification is the method by which most people in private industry authenticate the identity
27 of the holder. This authentication usually occurs in the context of a commercial transaction of some kind in order
28 to prevent fraud and to secure the transaction in case the services contracted are not paid for or the contract terms
29 are violated. The issuance of government ID therefore constitutes a formal recognition of the legitimacy of the 30 identity of a person by the government involved.

31 The primary method of issuing government identification documents is at the state level by the issuance of either
32 a driver's license or a state ID, both of which are issued usually by the Department of Motor Vehicles within the 33 corporate and not de jure state. In all cases we are familiar with, these government issued driver's licenses and 34 state ID's may only be issued to persons who have a "domicile" within the CORPORATE and not DE JURE
35 "State", and who therefore consent or agree to be subject to the civil laws and "employment agreement" applying
36 to officers of that state:

38 516. "Resident" means any person who manifests an intent to live or be located in this state on more than a
39 temporary or transient basis. Presence in the state for six months or more in any 12-month period gives rise to 40 a rebuttable presumption of residency.

41 The following are evidence of residency for purposes of vehicle registration:

35 Most private organizations will not accept privately issued ID or anything other than government issued ID, which 36 in turn implies that only those who possess government issued ID within a jurisdiction may engage in commerce
 37 within that same jurisdiction. In that sense, commerce within any jurisdiction is made into a "privilege" and a
 38 franchise that is only available to those who consent to choose a domicile within the Statutory State because state-
 39 issued ID is not available to those with no domicile within the Statutory State. The problem with this approach is 40 that:

- 41 1. Having a domicile within a jurisdiction has nothing to do with maintaining safe roads that are the goal of "driver's 42 licenses", and is therefore IRRELEVANT to the licensing or qualification process.
 43 2. Those with no domicile within the jurisdiction where they physically are called "strangers" in the Bible, and the Bible
 44 forbids oppressing or discriminating against strangers and requires that citizens and strangers be treated EQUALLY.
 45 Refusing to issue IDs to strangers certainly constitutes "oppression" within the Biblical context:

46 "You shall neither mistreat a stranger nor oppress him, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt."
 47 [Exodus 22:21, Bible, NKJV]

48 "One law shall be for the native-born and for the stranger who dwells among you."
 49 [Exodus 12:49, Bible, NKJV]

50
 51 Based on the above, the government has turned "oppressing strangers" into the source of nearly all of its jurisdiction by 52 denying IDs to those who prefer to remain "strangers" and "transient foreigners" rather than "citizens", "residents", or 53 "inhabitants". In that sense, they are interfering with free religious exercise, because the Bible COMMANDS Christians
 54 to remain "strangers":

55 "Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship [and "citizenship"] with the world [or the 56 governments of the world] is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend ["citizen" or 57 "taxpayer" or "resident" or "inhabitant"] of the world makes himself an enemy of God."

3. Choice of domicile is a protected First Amendment choice of political association. The choice of legal domicile cannot lawfully be compelled by the government, because that would violate the First Amendment prohibition against “compelled association”:

“The right to associate or not to associate with others solely on the basis of individual choice, not being absolute, may conflict with a societal interest in requiring one to associate with others, or to prohibit one from associating with others, in order to accomplish what the state deems to be the common good. The Supreme Court, though rarely called upon to examine this aspect of the right to freedom of association, has nevertheless established certain basic rules which will cover many situations involving forced or prohibited associations. Thus, where a sufficiently compelling state interest, outside the political spectrum, can be accomplished only by requiring individuals to associate together for the common good, then such forced association is constitutional. <sup>90</sup> But the Supreme Court has made it clear that compelling an individual to become a member of an organization with political aspects, or compelling an individual to become a member of an organization which financially supports, in more than an insignificant way, political personages or goals which the individual does not wish to support, is an infringement of the individual's constitutional right to freedom of association. <sup>91</sup> The First Amendment prevents the government, except in the most compelling circumstances, from wielding its power to interfere with its employees' freedom to believe and associate, or to not believe and not associate; it is not merely a tenure provision that protects public employees from actual or constructive discharge. <sup>92</sup> Thus, First Amendment principles prohibit a state from compelling any individual to associate with a political party, as a condition of retaining public employment. <sup>93</sup> The First Amendment protects nonpolicymaking public employees from discrimination based on their political beliefs or affiliation. <sup>94</sup> But the First Amendment protects the right of political party members to advocate that a specific person be elected or appointed to a particular office and that a specific person be hired to perform a governmental function. <sup>95</sup> In the First Amendment context, the political patronage exception to the First Amendment protection for public employees is to be construed broadly, so as presumptively to encompass positions placed by legislature outside of “merit” civil service. Positions specifically named in relevant federal, state, county, or municipal laws to which discretionary authority with respect to enforcement of that law or carrying out of some other policy of political concern is granted, such as a secretary of state given statutory authority over various state corporation law practices, fall within the political patronage

23 Consequently, the only place that driver’s licenses can be issued is on federal territory not protected by the Constitution
24 and where Constitutional Rights do not exist that could be surrendered.

25 It is primarily by this method of refusing to issue ID’s to transients or persons who have no domicile or “residence”
26 in CorpGov that the government unconstitutionally compels a violation of the First Amendment by those who are 27 “transient foreigners” with respect to a jurisdiction and compels these persons to become subject to their 28 jurisdiction, “taxpayers”, “citizens”, “residents”, and “inhabitants”.

29 The Constitution requires that all persons within a jurisdiction shall have the same rights as those similarly situated

South Carolina’s exemption statute that limits exemption for personal injury awards to only South Carolina residents did not deprive a nonresident of equal protection of the laws where the classification of residents versus nonresidents was reasonably related to the legislative purpose of protecting residents from financial indigency, and where the classification was based upon the state’s interest in preventing its citizens from becoming dependent on the state for

1 governing the same conduct for citizens of sister states, except in a case when the apparent discrimination is
2 not to cast a heavier burden upon the nonresident in its ultimate operation than the one falling upon residents,
3 but is to restore the equilibrium by withdrawing an unfair advantage.<sup>99</sup> On the other hand, a nonresident may 4 not complain of a restriction no different from that placed upon residents.<sup>100</sup>

5 The limitation on the right of one state to establish preferences in favor of its own citizens does not depend solely 6 on the guarantee of equal protection of the laws,<sup>101</sup> which does not protect persons not within the jurisdiction of
7 such a state. These limitations are broader, and nonresidents of a state who are noncitizens are also—even though
8 they are not within the jurisdiction of a state, as that phrase is employed in the Equal Protection Clause—protected
9 from discrimination by Article IV, § 2 of the Federal Constitution, which secures equal privileges and immunities
10 in the several states to the citizens of each state. Moreover, any citizen of the United States, regardless of 11 residence or whether he or she is within the jurisdiction of a state, is protected in the privileges and immunities
12 which arise from his United States citizenship by the privileges and immunities clause of the Fourteenth 13 Amendment.

14 There is much authority which recognizes the right of the state under certain circumstances to classify residents
15 and nonresidents.<sup>102</sup> Utilization of different, but otherwise constitutionally adequate, procedures for residents
16 and nonresidents does not, by itself, trigger heightened scrutiny under the Equal Protection Clause.<sup>103</sup> Thus,
17 reasonable residency requirements are permissible under the Equal Protection Clause in cases involving voting

Classifications between resident and nonresident vendors established by a statute which gives preference to resident vendors, under certain circumstances, when the state purchases supplies, services, and goods are rationally related to the state's legitimate interest to benefit its taxpayers, and thus do not deny equal protection of the laws to nonresidents, even though nonresidents who maintain offices in the state and pay state taxes are accorded a preference over other nonresidents. *Gary Concrete Products, Inc. v. 3 though not always, held to be valid and proper. However, a statute providing for county-wide territorial

In the absence of a showing that the provisions of state statutes and of a District of Columbia statute enacted by Congress, prohibiting public assistance benefits to residents of less than a year, were necessary to promote compelling governmental interests, such prohibitions create a classification which constitutes an invidious discrimination denying such residents equal protection of the laws. 1                   The constitutional guarantee as to the equal protection of the laws may render invalid statutes and ordinances
2                   which effect an unlawful discrimination in favor of a municipality or its inhabitants. Such enactments invalidly
3                   attempt to give a preference to a class consisting of residents of a political subdivision of a state.<sup>115</sup>
4                   [American Jurisprudence 2d., Constitutional Law, §856: Residence and State Citizenship (1999)]

5                   The moment one becomes a “citizen”, “resident” (alien), or “inhabitant” of a jurisdiction, they no longer have
6                   sovereignty or sovereign immunity under the laws of that jurisdiction. This fact is confirmed by the Foreign 7                   Sovereign Immunities Act (F.S.I.A.), which says:

8                   TITLE 28 > PART IV > CHAPTER 97 > § 1603
9                   § 1603. Definitions

10                   

11                   (b) An “agency or instrumentality of a foreign state” means any entity—

12                   (3) which is neither a citizen of a State of the United States as defined in section 1332 (c) and (e) of this title,
13                   nor created under the laws of any third country.

14                   Consequently, the government, by refusing to issue ID to nonresident persons physically located within the 15                   boundaries of its jurisdiction but who do not maintain a domicile there, is:

- 16                   1. Engaging in compelled association in violation of the First Amendment.
- 17                   2. Engaging in a conspiracy against rights, by forcing those who simply want to work and support themselves to engage in 18                   government franchises that cause a surrender of constitutional rights.
- 19                   3. Engaging in racketeering in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1951, by essentially forcing those who do not wish to associate with 20                   a “state” or choose a “domicile” therein to accept legal disabilities within the marketplace because they cannot obtain 21                   employment or engage in commerce.

22                   Those “transient foreigners” who have no domicile or “residence” within the government’s jurisdiction and who 23                   therefore retain their sovereignty, when they try to assert the same right to refuse to recognize the very government
24                   that refuses to recognize them, can and often are destroyed and harassed by the taxing authorities for asserting the 25                   same EQUAL right that the government has asserted. This kind of hypocrisy and inequality is absolutely 26                   reprehensible.

27                   Now let’s apply the same EQUAL standard to the government. If all men are created equal, then no creation of a
28                   single man or group of men can be delegated any more rights than a single man. Consequently, those persons
29                   who wish to get together and form their own competing “state” or government and issue their own licenses and 30                   ID are often discriminated against by employers, financial institutions, and governments by the following means:

- 31                   1. Government refuses to recognize the legitimacy of the ID’s and calls them a “scam”.
- 32                   2. Government refuses to prosecute quasi-government institutions such as banks that refuse to recognize the legitimacy of 33                   the ID. This is illegal, because 31 C.F.R. §202.2 requires that all banks that are FDIC insured are considered part of the 34                   government, and therefore their discrimination takes on the character of “state action” and is regulated by the
35                   Constitution.

36                   Our precedents establish that, in determining whether a particular action or course of conduct is governmental 37                   in character, it is relevant to examine the following: the extent to which the actor relies on governmental 38                   assistance and benefits, see Tulsa Professional Collection Services, Inc. v. Pope, 485 U.S. 478 (1988); Burton v.
39                   Wilmington Parking Authority, 365 U.S. 715 (1961); whether the actor is performing a traditional governmental 40                   function, see Terry v. Adams, 345 U.S. 461 (1953); Marsh v. Alabama, 326 U.S. 501 (1946); cf. San Francisco

- 1 3. Those who use the IDs are accused of issued “fake” IDs.
2 4. The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) prosecutes these entities for issuing fake IDs. See:

[FTC Closes Down Fake I.D. Mill On The Internet, 12-12-2000
http://www.ftc.gov/opa/2000/12/martinez.shtm](http://www.ftc.gov/opa/2000/12/martinez.shtm)

3 The implications of the above are clear:

- 4 1. Governments want to ensure that they have a monopoly on providing “protection”, and that all those who would 5 challenge such a monopoly are criminals and are persecuted and harassed endlessly. This violates the notion of equal
6 protection of the law and constitutes hypocrisy. The main motivation for such hypocrisy is the desire to manufacture
7 more “taxpayers”, sponsors, and “citizens” who will subsidize a terrorist government to provide services that the 8 compelled participants do not want, do not need, and which are actually harmful for them.
9 2. Governments want to compel you into becoming their “employee” and “officer” and connect your otherwise private 10 property to “public office” and “public use” so they can control you and steal your property from you. This is done by 11 connecting your property to government issued identifying numbers such as Social Security Numbers and Taxpayer
12 Identification Numbers, all of which are ONLY available to “public offices” within the government and not private 13 individuals. This explains why they DEMAND a government issued number whenever you apply for their state ID.
14 3. By refusing to recognize privately issued IDs and refusing to prosecute those “public officers” under their control for 15 refusal to recognize them, they are sanctioning compelled conversion of private property to a public use and a “public
16 office” in obtaining government issued IDs. This is a criminal violation of 18 U.S.C. §654.

17 We emphasize that the central characteristic of socialism is state ownership or control over all property, and that 18 control is effected by compelling you to participate in government franchises, such as domicile, “residence”, 19 government issued ID’s, Social Security, professional licensing, etc. The method for avoiding these franchises is 20 documented below:

21 One of our readers sent us a very insightful question about the content of this section which we would like to 22 comment on:

23 QUESTION: Ultimately I am a little confused between the whole Private vs. Public thing. Ultimately hasn't 24 everything been turned Commercial. See <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/CorpGovt.pdf>.

25 I am wondering if there is even a “Public” anymore. What we're mistakenly calling Government apparently are
26 just Private Corporations. If everything has been turned into a Commercial World there isn't really a Public / 27 Private anymore. It just seems just one big system as follows:

- 28 1. UNTIED STATES CORPORATION
29 2. SUB CORPORATIONS OF THE USA
30 3. STATES AS CORPORATIONS
31 4. SUB CORPORATIONS OF THE STATE
32 5. CITIES AS CORPORATIONS
33 6. SUB CORPORATIONS OF CITIES
34 7. IBM
35 8. ABC
36 9. WENDY'S
37 ETC..ETC.

38 My question is: The Biblical principle is you owe your allegiance to your Creator.

- 39 1. Man owes allegiance to God the Creator
40 2. “US Citizen” owes his allegiance to the USA
41 3. “Taxpayer” owes his allegiance to the IRS
42 and so forth.....

43 I am confused. How can I claim to be a “Private Worker” working for a “Private Company” per Private Contract
44 when this "Private Company" had to get a License or get State issued Corporate Charter to do business / exist.
45 If the STATE Created them...then they are a STATE Created Entity and therefore not a Private Entity or Public
46 but just a subsidiary of the System that Created them. Therefore while I may be a Private Worker ....I am actually

1 working for a Government/State created entity. I may as well be working for the Govt/State itself therefore making
2 me a Government Worker. Hence then I still become required to pay the Govt/State wage taxes whether I fill out
3 a W-4 or not with the so called "Private Company".

4 I could claim to be a non-resident, file a W-8 BEN, etc, etc. But again ultimately I am working for a Company
5 that got created by the STATE and therefore I may as well be a STATE worker. Hence still required to pay the 6 "wage" taxes like I am still a Govt Worker.

7 Where is my logic wrong???

8 ANSWER: Very interesting question! Your confusion is understandable, however, because there is a LOT to 9 learn before you can see the whole picture clearly. It took us seven years of study to reach this point so please be 10 patient with yourself. You apparently don't understand that the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A tax is a tax
11 upon a "trade or business", which is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(26\) as "the functions of a public office", and 12 you don't understand all the implications of that reality:

13 1. The nature of the I.R.C. as an excise tax upon the privileges and franchises of a "public office" in the U.S. government 14 is documented below:

The "Trade or Business" Scam, Form #05.001
<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 15 2. Since the income tax is an excise tax upon "public offices", then it follows that:
- 16 2.1. You are not a "taxpayer" if you are not a "public officer".
- 17 2.2. Only the officers of the pseudo-government corporation are "public officers" as legally defined, and not the 18 common worker. See 26 U.S.C. §6671\(b\) and 26 U.S.C. §7343. Ordinary workers are not "public officers".
- 19 2.3. The pseudo-government that the officers of the corporation are "public officers" within depends on the nature of 20 the corporate charter. If it is a state corporation, then they are "public officers" of the state and NOT the federal 21 government. If it is a federal corporation, then they are officers of the federal and NOT state government.
- 22 2.4. It is unlawful for a person who is a "public officer" within the U.S. government to serve outside the District of 23 Columbia pursuant to 4 U.S.C. §72. Even if the corporation requested and obtained an Employee Identification
24 Number (EIN), if the place of incorporation of the corporation is not physically located in the District of Columbia,
25 then they are not a federal corporation and therefore not "public officers" within the meaning of the Internal 26 Revenue Code. The only "public officers" the federal government can legislate for are its own public officers and 27 not those of the state governments. The state and federal governments are "foreign" with respect to each other for 28 the purposes of legislative jurisdiction.
- 29 3. The limits upon the agency of the corporation as "public officers" of the government extends only to the subjects
30 indicated in the "social insurance" franchise agreement that they are party to, which is codified in the Social Security
31 Act and Internal Revenue Code Subtitle A. Nothing beyond the franchise agreement itself may be enforced against the 32 "public officers" of the federal government.
- 33 4. You can be an employee of a company in a common law sense without being a "public officer" of the U.S. government
34 as legally defined and without being the "employee" defined in the I.R.C. at 26 U.S.C. §3401\(c\) or 5 U.S.C. §2105,
35 both of whom are "public officers" in the U.S. government.

36 Treatise on the Law of Public Offices and Officers
37 Book 1: Of the Office and the Officer: How Officer Chosen and Qualified
38 Chapter I: Definitions and Divisions

39 §2 How Office Differs from Employment.-A public office differs in material particulars from a public employment,
40 for, as was said by Chief Justice MARSHALL, "although an office is an employment, it does not follow that every 41 employment is an office. A man may certainly be employed under a contract, express or implied, to perform a 42 service without becoming an officer."

43 "We apprehend that the term 'office,'" said the judges of the supreme court of Maine, "implies a delegation of a 44 portion of the sovereign power to, and the possession of it by, the person filling the office; and the exercise of 45 such power within legal limits constitutes the correct discharge of the duties of such office. The power thus 46 delegated and possessed may be a portion belonging sometimes to one of the three great departments and 47 sometimes to another; still it is a legal power which may be rightfully exercised, and in its effects it will bind the 48 rights of others and be subject to revision and correction only according to the standing laws of the state. An 49 employment merely has none of these distinguishing features. A public agent acts only on behalf of his principal,
50 the public, whose sanction is generally considered as necessary to give the acts performed the authority and 51 power of a public act or law. And if the act be such as not to require subsequent sanction, still it is only a species of service performed under the public authority and for the public good, but not in the exercise of any standing laws which are considered as roles of action and guardians of rights."

"The officer is distinguished from the employee," says Judge COOLEY, "in the greater importance, dignity and independence of his position; in being required to take an official oath, and perhaps to give an official bond; in the liability to be called to account as a public offender for misfeasance or non-feasance in office, and usually, though not necessarily, in the tenure of his position. In particular cases, other distinctions will appear which are not general."

"As expressed otherwise, the powers delegated to a public officer are held in trust for the people and are to be exercised in behalf of the government or of all citizens who may need the intervention of the officer. <sup>116</sup> Furthermore, the view has been expressed that all public officers, within whatever branch and whatever level of government, and whatever be their private vocations, are trustees of the people, and accordingly labor under every disability and prohibition imposed by law upon trustees relative to the making of personal financial gain from a discharge of their trusts. <sup>117</sup> That is, a public officer occupies a fiduciary relationship to the political entity on whose behalf he or she serves. <sup>118</sup> and owes a fiduciary duty to the public. <sup>119</sup> It has been said that the fiduciary responsibilities of a public officer cannot be less than those of a private individual. <sup>120</sup> Furthermore, it has been stated that any enterprise undertaken by the public official which tends to weaken public confidence and undermine the sense of security for individual rights is against public policy. <sup>121</sup>"

[63C American Jurisprudence 2d., Public Officers and Employees, §247 (1999)]

5. If you aren't a "public officer" but an ordinary worker, then the only way you can lawfully earn "wages" and therefore be a "taxpayer" is to volunteer by signing and submitting and IRS Form W-4, and thereby become a federal "employee" in receipt of "income" connected to the "trade or business" and "social insurance" franchise:

26 C.F.R. §31.3401\(a\)-3 Amounts deemed wages under voluntary withholding agreements

(a) In general.

Notwithstanding the exceptions to the definition of wages specified in section 3401(a) and the regulations thereunder, the term "wages" includes the amounts described in paragraph (b)(1) of this section with respect to which there is a voluntary withholding agreement in effect under section 3402(p). References in this chapter to the definition of wages contained in section 3401(a) shall be deemed to refer also to this section (§31.3401(a)-3).

(b) Remuneration for services.

(1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the amounts referred to in paragraph (a) of this section include any remuneration for services performed by an employee for an employer which, without regard to this section, does not constitute wages under section 3401(a). For example, remuneration for services performed by an agricultural worker or a domestic worker in a private home (amounts which are specifically excluded from the definition of wages by section 3401(a) (2) and (3), respectively) are amounts with respect to which a voluntary withholding agreement may be entered into under section 3402(p). - 15 6. The filing of IRS Form W-2 against a worker is prima facie evidence that the worker is engaged in a “public office”, as 16 indicated in 26 U.S.C. §6041(a), where “trade or business” is defined in 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(26) to mean a “public
17 office”. If he is not a “public officer”, then it is a crime to file such a report in violation of 18 U.S.C. §912, impersonating
18 a federal employee or officer. Per 26 U.S.C. §7434, it is a civil tort to file an IRS Form W-2 against a worker who never 19 signed a W-4 and who is not ALREADY a “public officer”. If a W-2 was filed against a non-consenting worker, the 20 form would have to report ZERO for “wages” because he didn’t consent to connect himself to the franchise and thereby 21 call his earnings reportable “wages” and “gross income” under the terms of the franchise agreement.
- 22 7. All “employees” within the I.R.C. are “public officers”. This is confirmed by 26 U.S.C. §3401(c), 26 C.F.R. §1.3401(c)-
23 1, and 5 U.S.C. §2105.
- 24 8. There is no provision within the Internal Revenue Code, Subtitle A that CREATES public offices. It is a tax upon 25 EXISTING public offices. You can’t lawfully “elect” yourself into a public office by simply filing a tax form. Instead,
26 you must ALREADY lawfully occupy a public office and take an oath as a public officer BEFORE you can become a 27 “taxpayer”.
- 28 9. We have not found any evidence to suggest that just because you work for a corporation, that makes you an “officer of 29 the corporation”. Even if you were an officer of the corporation, that would not make you a “public officer” and a
30 “trustee” of the government, nor can they make you such an officer without your consent. The Thirteenth Amendment
31 hasn’t been repealed. Involuntary servitude is still illegal, so you can still choose whether you want to be a franchisee
32 called a “public officer”, or simply a “worker” who earns no “wages” as legally defined and is therefore not a “taxpayer”.
33 In that sense, we have two governments operating side by side, just like service stations sell two types of gas:
- 34 9.1. The “unleaded” government, which is the republic that only engages in EQUAL protection and not franchises, and 35 does not offer “social insurance” or any other kind of payments to the public at large, and which has no “taxpayers”.
36 This is the “Constitutional State” described earlier.
- 37 9.2. The “premium” government, which is the socialist democracy that offers “social insurance” PLUS protection. This 38 is the “Statutory State”.
- 39 The government that I am a “citizen” of is the “Constitutional State”. I have commercially and legally divorced the 40 Statutory State. I cannot have or use any federal identifying number, and I don’t function as an “employee”, but an 41 independent contractor wherever I go. When someone wants to contract with me, they go through non-statutory foreign 42 entities I create. These entities are my interface into the commercial world, which has become essentially entirely 43 government owned and controlled.

44 Consequently, there is nothing to be confused about. Your confusion stems from an incomplete study or 45 understanding of the nature of the income tax. Ultimately, the pseudo-government is in the “protection” business
46 as a private corporation. You can’t owe a tax unless you are a “citizen” or “resident”, which are just code words
47 in the I.R.C. for those who work for the corporation as “public officers” by electing to have a “domicile” on federal 48 territory in the District of Columbia pursuant to:

- 49 1. 26 U.S.C. §911(d)(3).
50 2. 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(9) and (a)(10).
51 3. 26 U.S.C. §7701(a)(39).
52 4. 26 U.S.C. §7408(d).

1 Since you can't be compelled to choose a domicile and all tax liability originates from your voluntary choice of
2 domicile, then you can't become a "taxpayer" without your consent. At that point, it doesn't matter whether you
3 are working for the "STATE" or not, as long as you own yourself and all the fruits of your labor. You need to 4 read our document below for further details about how tax withholding and reporting works, because this will 5 clear up your confusion:

6 17 Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

7 17.1 Is a corporation doing business with the U.S. government as a contractor a "trade or 8 business" or a statutory "taxpayer"?

9 QUESTION:

10 Have been learning and researching legal definitions for several weeks, and reading as much as I can. Discovered
11 this site through a search for definitions of "trade or business". But, would like specific information for 12 corporations, and those that manufacture products for the U.S. government. Specifically, is a corporation that 13 contracts with the U.S. Department of Defense to provide/sell a product we build considered to be a "trade or 14 business" or a "taxpayer"? Are the officers and workers of the corporation subjected to "taxpayer" status? If you 15 cannot elaborate, can you point me to specific reading sections?

16 ANSWER:

17 There are TWO types of corporations and two types of human beings: PUBLIC and PRIVATE.

- 18 1. PUBLIC corporations or human beings:
  - 19 1.1. Are registered with the state.
  - 20 1.2. Have "Taxpayer Identification Numbers".
  - 21 1.3. Open ENUMERATED bank accounts using a TIN or EIN.
  - 22 1.4. Allow information returns to be filed against their transactions.
- 23 2. PRIVATE corporations or human beings:
  - 24 2.1. Are NOT registered with the state. They do not have any status under state codes or the Internal Revenue Code, 25 such as "S-Corp", etc.
  - 26 2.2. Do NOT use "Taxpayer Identification Numbers" or "Employer Identification Numbers".
  - 27 2.3. Open UNENUMERATED bank accounts as a "non-resident non-persons". See:
28 Non-Resident Non-Person Position, Form #05.020
FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>
DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/NonresidentAlienPosition.pdf>
  - 29 2.4. Do not have and do not allow information returns to be filed against any of their earnings.
  - 30 2.5. Submit criminal complaints against all filers of information returns and those compelling use of TINs.

31 The owners of the corporation or the officers within the corporation as human beings determine which of the 32 above statuses they want to have by HOW they CHOOSE to incorporate, how they fill out their withholding
33 paperwork. and who they do business with. Generally, those contracting with the government will be told that 34 they MUST have a "Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)" or "Employer Identification Number (EIN)", not as 35 a matter of LAW, but as a matter of the POLICY of the agency letting the contract. Hence, those corporations
36 bidding for government contracts will then be subjected to usually FALSE information return reporting AFTER 37 they win the contract, whether they want to or not. If you examine the regulations requiring use of TINS, which 38 incidentally do NOT pertain to PRIVATE corporations, you will see that there IS no requirement to have or use
39 EINs, and so the policy of the agency granting the contract amounts to a CRIME, THEFT, conversion, and eminent domain over other otherwise PRIVATE property.

1 There is NO LEGAL requirement that such corporations or human beings MUST have a TIN or EIN, but POLICY
2 of the government is what effectively compels them to have one. That compulsion is a CRIME, as you can learn 3 by reading:

About SSNs and TINs on Government Forms and Correspondence, Form #05.012, Section 9

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/05-MemLaw/AboutSSNsAndTINs.pdf>

4 The first CRIME comes in compelling the bidding corporation or the people working for the corporation
5 (including officers of the corporation) to SUBMIT an EIN, and therefore to OBTAIN one. After that, multiple 6 crimes are committed by the agency when the false information returns are submitted using the compelled and 7 CRIMINAL EIN. If the corporation being victimized by this form of government terrorism doesn't submit criminal 8 complaints to stop it and file a civil suit to prosecute it, the abuse continues.

9 The same situation is also used against human beings. For further details on why use of TINs is a crime by those 10 who are not ALREADY occupying a public office and why APPLYING for an EIN or TIN CANNOT and DOES 11 NOT create any new public offices, see:

Why It Is Illegal for Me to Request or Use a "Taxpayer Identification Number", Form #04.205

FORMS PAGE: <http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

DIRECT LINK: <http://sedm.org/Forms/Tax/Withholding/WhyTINIlegal.pdf>

12 There is also a separation between STATE corporations and FEDERAL corporation. A corporation can be 13 incorporated under the laws of a STATE and yet NOT be a FEDERAL corporation. What makes a STATE
14 corporation into a FEDERAL corporation and therefore a "person" under the I.R.C. is the VOLUNTARY (not 15 compelled) application for and the use of an "Employer Identification Number (EIN)".

16 18 Conclusions and Summary

- 17 1. De jure constitutional governments are:
  - 18 1.1. Charitable trusts and public trusts, not corporations.
  - 19 1.2. Established as a "body politic" AND "body corporate", not just a "body corporate".
- 20 2. The Constitution does NOT confer the power to incorporate upon the national government. Neither does it confer the 21 authority to delegate any government function to a private, for-profit corporation such as the "District of Columbia".
22 They therefore do NOT have it and have NEVER had it. This is confirmed by the debates in the federal convention.
23 The Tenth Amendment reserves all powers not delegated to the national government to the people or the states.
24 Therefore, the power to turn the government into a corporation is one of the reserved powers that the government may 25 not employ in order to enslave those it is supposed to be protecting.
- 26 3. Most of the services associated with what most people regard as "government" have been maliciously transformed by 27 errant public DIS-servants into private, for-profit franchises which destroy the constitutional rights that a REAL de jure
28 government is established to protect. This includes:
  - 29 3.1. Domicile in the forum state, which causes one to end up being one of the following:
    - 30 3.1.1. Statutory "U.S. citizen" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 if a domestic national.
    - 31 3.1.2. Statutory "Permanent resident" pursuant to 26 U.S.C. §7701\(b\)\(1\)\(A\) if a foreign national.
  - 32 3.2. Becoming a registered "voter" rather than an "elector".
  - 33 3.3. I.R.C. §501\(c\)\(3\) status for churches. Churches that register under this program become government "trustees"
34 and "public officials" that are part of the government. Is THIS what you call "separation of church and state"? See:
35 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/Spirituality/spirituality.htm>
  - 36 3.4. Serving as a jurist. 18 U.S.C. §201\(a\)\(1\) says that all persons serving as federal jurists are "public officials".
  - 37 3.5. Attorney licenses. All attorneys are "officers of the court" and the courts in turn are part of the government. See:
38 <http://famguardian.org/Subjects/LawAndGovt/LegalEthics/Corruption/WhyYouDontWantAnAtty/WhyYouDon'tWantAnAttorney.htm>
  - 39 3.6. Marriage licenses. See:
40 <http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/SovChristianMarriage/SovChristianMarriage.htm>
  - 41 3.7. Driver's licenses. See:
42 <http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/DefYourRightToTravel.htm>

- 3.8. Professional licenses.
- 3.9. Fishing licenses.
- 3.10. Social Security benefits. See:
<http://sedm.org/Forms/10-Emancipation/SSTrustIndenture.pdf>
- 3.11. Medicare.
- 3.12. Medicaid.
- 3.13. FDIC insurance of banks. 31 C.F.R. §202.2 says all FDIC insured banks are "agents" of the federal government and therefore "public officers".

- 4. The corporatization and privatization of the United States government began with the incorporation of the District of Columbia in 1871. Statutes at Large, 16 Stat. 419 (1871)
- 5. The federal pseudo-government we have now has become a for-profit private corporation.
  - 5.1. The Constitution is the corporate charter.
  - 5.2. We The People are the stockholders.
  - 5.3. Federal Reserve Notes are the corporate stocks in the corporation.
  - 5.4. Members of the Executive and Legislative Branches, which are the only remaining branches, are the board of directors of this corporation.
  - 5.5. The so-called "Federal Judiciary" always was and currently is an agency within the Executive Branch of the government, and the purpose of this administrative and not judicial agency is to arbitrate disputes relating to federal franchises pursuant to Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution. The only Article III federal court in existence is the original jurisdiction U.S. Supreme Court and not any lower court. See:
What Happened to Justice?, Form #06.012
<http://sedm.org/ItemInfo/Ebooks/WhatHappJustice/WhatHappJustice.htm>
- 5.6. This private corporation started out as a charitable "public trust" and has since become a "sham trust" administered primarily for the personal benefit of the trustees, who are the corporate board of directors called the President and Congress. The President, in fact, is the CEO. In a sense, our pseudo-government has become Enron to the tenth power!
- 6. Our money has been transformed into securities of the corporation:
  - 6.1. Congress has replaced its power to coin money under Constitution Article 1, Section 8, Clause 5 with its power to issue obligations of the United States government, "Federal Reserve Notes", pursuant to Article 1, Section 8. Clause 2.

*"Money: In usual and ordinary acceptance it means coins and paper currency used as circulating medium of exchange, and does not embrace notes, bonds, evidences of debt, or other personal or real estate. Lane v. Railey, 280 Ky. 319, 133 S.W.2d. 74, 79, 81."
[Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 1005]*

- 6.2. The Federal Reserve (FRN) is neither "federal" nor a reserve. It is a private, for-profit consortium of banks. It is also a counterfeiting franchise that exists solely to print (e.g. STEAL) enough corporate bonds to subsidize the day-to-day operations of CorpGov. Member banks, in exchange for joining the franchise, are granted the ability essentially to create money out of thin air by lending ten times the amount of corporate bonds that they have on deposit. The fiat currency that is created by the counterfeiting franchise is created by monetizing loan documents and simply entering the amount created into a computer memory bank.
- 6.3. Statutory "U.S. citizens" pursuant to 8 U.S.C. §1401 holding FRN corporate securities are the equivalent of shareholders of the corporation. That makes them stockholders in a federal corporation and contractors for the government, because the U.S. Supreme Court has held that an act of incorporation constitutes a contract between the government and the shareholders:

*The court held that the first company's charter was a contract between it and the state, within the protection of the constitution of the United States, and that the charter to the last company was therefore null and void., Mr. Justice DAVIS, delivering the opinion of the court, said that, if anything was settled by an unbroken chain of decisions in the federal courts, it was that an act of incorporation was a contract between the state and the stockholders, a departure from which now would involve dangers to society that cannot be foreseen, would shock the sense of justice of the country, unhinge its business interests, and weaken, if not destroy, that respect which has always been felt for the judicial department of the government.'
[New Orleans Gas Co. v. Louisiana Light Co., 115 U.S. 650 (1885)]*

7. The purpose of taxation in the de jure government of collecting revenues to support the institutionalized equal “protection” of the government has been replaced with the sole purpose of regulating the supply of fiat corporate securities (e.g. Federal Reserve Notes), where the private corporation which pretends to be government prints as much corporate securities as it needs to sustain its operation. Without the ability to retire excess currency generated by the Federal Reserve counterfeiting franchise, our monetary system would quickly become unstable, and hyperinflation would result. All those stupid enough to be duped by the fraud of the income tax system essentially become surety to pay off the debts created by the Federal Reserve counterfeiting franchise. The income tax is a stupidity tax upon people who don’t read, learn, or follow the law and who glorify the nanny corporate pseudo-government as a pagan deity. See:

Great IRS Hoax, Form #11.302

<http://famguardian.org/Publications/GreatIRSHoax/GreatIRSHoax.htm>

8. What were once de jure sovereign states of the Union have become federal corporations and U.S. pseudo-government subsidiaries:

8.1. De jure states of the Union tied to specific “territory” have now become “virtual states” or “private corporations” rather than geographic states and whose occupants are all statutory “U.S. citizens” and “residents” residing on federal territory regardless of where they physically live. This transformation began after the Civil War, when most states rewrote their constitutions to remove references to their geographical boundaries. In that sense, they became strictly political and business entities with no actual “territory” of their own.

8.2. All “taxpayers” within the I.R.C. are aliens engaged in a “trade or business”. This must be so, because one of the few things the federal government can do to reach inside a state is regulating the behavior of aliens. They can’t control sovereign citizens, so they must make everyone into aliens in order to destroy the separation of powers completely and compress us into one mass, as Thomas Jefferson warned they would do:

*In accord with ancient principles of the international law of nation-states, the Court in The Chinese Exclusion Case, 130 U.S. 581, 609 (1889), and in Fong Yue Ting v. United States, 149 U.S. 698 (1893), held broadly, as the Government describes it, Brief for Appellants 20, that the power to exclude aliens is "inherent in sovereignty, necessary for maintaining normal international relations and defending the country against foreign encroachments and dangers - a power to be exercised exclusively by the political branches of government . . . ." Since that time, the Court's general reaffirmations of this principle have [408 U.S. 753, 766] been legion. 6 The Court without exception has sustained Congress' "plenary power to make rules for the admission of aliens and to exclude those who possess those characteristics which Congress has forbidden." Boutilier v. Immigration and Naturalization Service, 387 U.S. 118, 123 (1967). "Over no conceivable subject is the legislative power of Congress more complete than it is over" the admission of aliens. Oceanic Navigation Co. v. Stranahan, 214 U.S. 320, 339 (1909). [Kleindienst v. Mandel, 408 U.S. 753 (1972)]*

While under our constitution and form of government the great mass of local matters is controlled by local authorities, the United States, in their relation to foreign countries and their subjects or citizens, are one nation, invested with powers which belong to independent nations, the exercise of which can be invoked for the maintenance of its absolute independence and security throughout its entire territory. The powers to declare war, make treaties, suppress insurrection, repel invasion, regulate foreign commerce, secure republican governments to the states, and admit subjects of other nations to citizenship, are all sovereign powers, restricted in their exercise only by the constitution itself and considerations of public policy and justice which control, more or less, the conduct of all civilized nations. As said by this court in the case of Cohens v. Virginia, 6 Wheat. 264, 413, speaking by the same great chief justice: "That the United States form, for many, and for most important purposes, a single nation, has not yet been denied. In war, we are one people. In making peace, we are one people. In all commercial regulations, we are one and the same people. In many other respects, the American people are one; and the government which is alone capable of controlling and managing their interests in all these respects is the government of the Union. It is their government, and in that character they have no other. America has chosen to [130 U.S. 581, 605] be in many respects, and to many purposes, a nation; and for all these purposes her government is complete; to all these objects, it is competent. The people have declared that in the exercise of all powers given for these objects it is supreme. It can, then, in effecting these objects, legitimately control all individuals or governments within the American territory."

"The power of exclusion of foreigners being an incident of sovereignty belonging to the government of the United States as a part of those sovereign powers delegated by the constitution, the right to its exercise at any time when, in the judgment of the government, the interests of the country require it, cannot be granted away or restrained on behalf of any one. The powers of government are delegated in trust to the United States, and are incapable of transfer to any other parties. They cannot be abandoned or surrendered. Nor can their exercise be hampered, when needed for the public good, by any considerations of private interest. The exercise of these public trusts is not the subject of barter or contract." [Chae Chan Ping v. U.S., 130 U.S. 581 (1889)]

- 1 8.3. The exercise of the power to contract of the de jure Constitutional States have made them into Statutory States and 2 federal subsidiaries of the United States federal government under the Agreement on Coordination of Tax
 3 Administration (A.C.T.A.) have made them into agents and fiduciaries of the “United States” mother corporation
 4 under the Buck Act, 4 U.S.C. §105 et seq, and moved their effective domicile to the District of Columbia pursuant
 5 to 26 U.S.C. §7408\(d\), 26 U.S.C. §7701\(a\)\(39\), and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). By tacitly agreeing to 6 participate in the “trade or business”/“public office”/“social insurance” franchise, they agreed to represent a federal 7 corporation as officers of said corporation and the laws which apply are the place of incorporation of that federal 8 corporation, which is the District of Columbia.
- 9 8.4. You must contract to procure the franchises of the Statutory States and the “United States” in order to “qualify” for 10 them to service any of your needs. Those who refuse to partake of franchises are treated as though they don’t exist
 11 at all by the pseudo-government. If you don’t have a license number to act as a “public officer” called a “Social 12 Security Number”, then you may as well live in a foreign country, because they won’t even talk to you.
- 13 8.5. When you engage in the franchise, your effective domicile becomes federal territory within the state and you 14 become a “public officer” by virtue of partaking in the franchise.
- 15 8.6. The term “State of _____” is the name for this de facto corporation.

- 20 8.7. The term “County of _____” means a subdivision of the de facto private CorpGov state. De jure counties are 21 called “_____ county”
- 22 8.8. All those with a “residence” within this Statutory State are officers and employees of CorpGov who are also resident 23 aliens completely subject to federal jurisdiction.
- 24 8.9. The perjury statement on most state forms places you “within” this corporate, fictitious political state as a “public 25 officer”.

31 Private persons are not physically present and domiciled within this corporate “State”. The only “persons” the de
 32 jure government can lawfully legislate for without engaging in involuntary servitude in violation of the Thirteenth
 33 Amendment are “residents” of this fictitious corporate pseudo-government state. All of these “persons” are “public 34 officers” participating in pseudo-government franchises who are also resident aliens. All of them are “residents” of 35 the Statutory State by virtue of signing up for the franchises using their right to contract. A person who is not a 36 “public officer” participating in pseudo-government franchises would be committing perjury under penalty of 37 perjury to admit that he is “under the laws of the State of _____” as a private person.

- 38 9. In order to form a legitimate government, you need people, laws, and territory. The Statutory States have people and 39 laws but no territory of their own.
- 40 9.1. All of the “territory” of the Statutory States is borrowed from the federal pseudo-government under the Buck Act,
 41 4 U.S.C. §105 et seq. This territory consists of the federal areas within the exterior limits of the state and it qualifies
 42 as a “possession” of the United States under the Buck Act, 4 U.S.C. §110\(d\) and is part of the federal zone.
- 43 9.2. The borrowed territory of the Statutory States is a place where both state and federal legislative jurisdiction
 44 coincide. It is the ONLY place, in fact, where these jurisdictions coincide because of the separation of powers
 45 doctrine. See:

Government Conspiracy to Destroy the Separation of Powers, Form #05.023

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 46 9.3. Virtually all the laws passed by the Statutory States are intended exclusively for this shared territory within the 47 federal zone. Ditto for the federal pseudo-government.
- 48 9.4. The statutes and contracts which regulate the “sharing” of federal territory by the Statutory State are found in:
- 49 9.4.1. The Buck Act, 4 U.S.C. §105 et seq.
- 50 9.4.2. The Assimilated Crimes Act, 18 U.S.C. §13.

9.4.3. The Rules of Decision Act, 28 U.S.C. §1652. This act prescribes which of the two conflicting laws shall prevail in the case of crimes on federal territory.

9.4.4. 28 U.S.C. §2679, which says that any action against an officer or employee of the United States in which the officer or employee is acting outside their authority may be prosecuted in a state court and is not a “federal question”.

9.4.5. Agreement on Coordination of Tax Administration (A.C.T.A.) between the state and the Secretary of the Treasury.

9.4.6. 26 U.S.C. §6361-6365, which governs states who are part to the above ACTA agreement. These statutes say they are repealed, but they implement contracts between the states and federal pseudo-government and so they can’t be repealed. Those acts of Congress in the Statutes At Large that embody them are still in full force.

9.4.7. Regulations implementing 26 U.S.C. §6361-6365, which have not been repealed and are still in force.

10. The federal areas within the exterior limits of your state:

10.1. Are the effective domicile or “residence” of the pseudo-government apparatus of the Statutory State. Anyone who works as a public officer for the state pseudo-government is treated as a resident alien with a domicile in this place for the purposes of the official functions of their office.

TITLE 26 > Subtitle A > CHAPTER 1 > Subchapter N > PART II > Subpart D > § 892
§ 892. Income of foreign governments and of international organizations

(a) Foreign governments

(3) Treatment as resident

For purposes of this title, a foreign government shall be treated as a corporate resident of its country. A foreign government shall be so treated for purposes of any income tax treaty obligation of the United States if such government grants equivalent treatment to the Government of the United States.

10.2. Are not protected by the Bill of Rights. EVERYTHING is a franchise and a privilege within these areas:

“Indeed, the practical interpretation put by Congress upon the Constitution has been long continued and uniform to the effect [182 U.S. 244, 279] that the Constitution is applicable to territories acquired by purchase or conquest, only when and so far as Congress shall so direct. Notwithstanding its duty to ‘guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government’ (art. 4, 4), by which we understand, according to the definition of Webster, ‘a government in which the supreme power resides in the whole body of the people, and is exercised by representatives elected by them,’ Congress did not hesitate, in the original organization of the territories of Louisiana, Florida, the Northwest Territory, and its subdivisions of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin and still more recently in the case of Alaska, to establish a form of government bearing a much greater analogy to a British Crown colony than a republican state of America, and to vest the legislative power either in a governor and council, or a governor and judges, to be appointed by the President. It was not until they had attained a certain population that power was given them to organize a legislature by vote of the people. In all these cases, as well as in territories subsequently organized west of the Mississippi, Congress thought it necessary either to extend to Constitution and laws of the United States over them, or to declare that the inhabitants should be entitled to enjoy the right of trial by jury, of bail, and of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, as well as other privileges of the bill of rights.”
Downes v. Bidwell, [182 U.S. 244 (1901)]

10.3. Are the effective domicile of all those who participate in pseudo-government franchises, including the income tax, driver’s licenses, and marriage licenses.

10.4. Are the legal place where all business is conducted with the pseudo-government.

11. The all caps rendition of your birthname in association with a federally issued identifying number is the “res” and the “public officer” who is the legal object of all the pseudo-government laws that regulate franchises and “residents” of the fictitious corporate “State of_____”.

11.1. All these persons are “residents” of the federal territory within the exterior limits of the state. Since federal territory is not protected by the Bill of Rights, these fictitious entities have no rights, but only legislatively granted “privileges” as officers of the pseudo-government corporation.

11.2. These “straw men” persons are the only lawful “taxpayers”, “individuals”, and “residents” on most pseudo-government forms. They are the ONLY persons the pseudo-government can lawfully legislate for in the context of civil litigation.

11.3. If the pseudo-government writes a letter or correspondence or files a lawsuit against this artificial “res” and you respond, then you just “volunteered” to work for the pseudo-government for free and elected yourself into “public office” simply by cooperating with them. The Thirteenth Amendment says you can’t be compelled to volunteer.

1 In that sense, nearly all civil laws passed by the pseudo-government are entirely voluntary. If you don't want to
2 work for the pseudo-government for free, simply decline their offer of "public office" by denying the existence of 3 the straw man and demand compensation for acting on his behalf that you and not they determine. This technique
4 is great for stopping tax collection activity.

- 5 11.4. If you want to harness the straw man entity for your own use and benefit but insulate yourself from the liabilities
6 associated with said use, the following form is very helpful:

<http://sedm.org/Forms/FormIndex.htm>

- 9 12. What used to be called a "citizen" is now nothing more than a glorified privileged corporate "employee" or "officer" or 10 "public officer" of a gigantic corporate monopoly. The term "United States" as used in most federal statutes implies the 11 pseudo-GOVERNMENT corporation, and not the geographical states of the Union. In that sense, all states have 12 transitioned from territorial political entities to entirely corporate and business entities.

- 30 13. The statutes or "laws" passed by the officers of CorpGov are nothing more than private internal directives or "rules"
31 intended exclusively for company "employees" and "officers" called statutory "U.S. citizens" and "permanent residents",
32 who collectively are domiciled in the District of Columbia. The authority to make these "rules" are described below:

33 United States Constitution
34 Article 4, Section 3, Clause 2

35 *The Congress shall have Power to dispose of and make all needful Rules and Regulations respecting the
36 Territory or other Property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this Constitution shall be so construed*
37 as to Prejudice any Claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

38 In that sense, nearly all federal statutory law is "private law" and "special law" which applies to those who implicitly
39 consent by partaking of federal franchises and thereby joining the pseudo-government as one of their "public officers".
40 Remember that all "franchises" are contracts, all contracts convey rights, and that all rights are property. Therefore,
41 those participating in franchises are in custody or receipt or agency over public property. For details, see:

8 15. The Bible warns us that all of this was going to happen, but we didn't heed its warnings:

9 15.1. The Book of Revelation describes an entity called "The Beast", which is then defined in Rev. 19:19 as "the kings
10 of the earth". In modern times, that would be our political rulers.

11 15.2. Babylon the Great Harlot is described as the woman who sits on many waters, which are described as "peoples, 12 multitudes, nations, and tongues" in Rev. 17:15.

13 15.3. Babylon the Great is fornicating with the Beast. Black's Law Dictionary defines "commerce" as "intercourse".
14 The people are "fornicating" because the Bible says they are married to God and not the pseudo-government and 15 may not commit such harlotry:

16 *"Commerce. ...Intercourse by way of trade and traffic between different peoples or states and the citizens or
17 inhabitants thereof, including not only the purchase, sale, and exchange of commodities, but also the 18 instrumentalities [governments] and agencies by which it is promoted and the means and appliances by which it 19 is carried on..."*

20 [Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Edition, p. 269]

21 *"Do not fear, for you will not be ashamed; neither be disgraced, for you will not be put to shame; for you will
22 forget the shame of your youth, and will not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore. For your
23 Maker is your husband, the Lord of hosts is His name; and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel; He is
24 called the God of the whole earth, for the Lord has called you like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, like
25 a youthful wife when you were refused," says your God. "For a mere moment I have forsaken you, but with great
26 mercies I will gather you. With a little wrath I hid My face from you for a moment; but with everlasting kindness

28 [Isaiah 54:4-8, Bible, NKJV]

29 15.4. God's chosen elect have been readily and easily deceived by their crafty lawyer servants because they did not love
30 the truth:

31 *"For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He [God] who now restrains will do so until He is taken
32 out of the way. And then the lawless one [Satan] will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath
33 of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming. The coming of the lawless one [Satan] is according 34 to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among 35 those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved [don't be one of 36 them!]. And for this reason God will send them strong delusion [from their own government], that they should 37 believe a lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in 38 unrighteousness."*

39 [2 Thess. 2:3-17, Bible, NKJV]

41 *"Woe to the rebellious children," says the Lord, "Who take counsel, but not of Me, and who devise plans, but 42 not of My Spirit, that they may add sin to sin; who walk to go down to Egypt, and have not asked My advice,
43 to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore the 44 strength of Pharaoh shall be your shame, and trust in the shadow of Egypt shall be your humiliation ...

45 *Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and note it on a scroll, that it may be for time to come, forever and ever:
46 that this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the Lord; who say to the 47 seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things' Speak to us smooth [politically 48 correct] things, prophesy deceits. Get out of the way, turn aside from the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to 49 cease from before us."*

50 Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

51 *"Because you despise this word [God's word], and trust in oppression and perversity, and rely on them,
52 therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes 53 suddenly, in an instant. And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel, which is broken in pieces;
54 He shall not spare. So there shall not be found among its fragments a shard to take fire from the hearth, or to 55 take water from the cistern."*
