Dear Taxpayer:

WHY ARE WE WRITING TO YOU?

Based on the additional information you gave us, we find that your response does not support a change to the marital status and/or withholding allowances specified in our letter dated Oct. 20, 2006.

WHAT ACTIONS WILL BE TAKEN?

Your employer above and any additional employers named on the last page of this letter must disregard any change to your marital status and/or withholding allowances (or claim to complete exemption from withholding) and withhold income tax based on the following status and allowances:

Marital Status: SINGLE
Withholding Allowances: 00

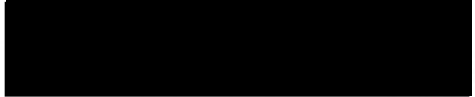

WHAT IF YOU HAVE MORE QUESTIONS?

If you have any questions, you may call the Withholding Compliance Unit, weekdays between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. at 186 [REDACTED] 289.

Please have the following information available to discuss. (If you file jointly you must have the same information available for your spouse)

1. Form W4 and worksheet.
2. Most current pay stub. (If you have more than one job, the most current pay stubs for all of your jobs.)
3. Number of allowances you (and your spouse) are currently claiming on your Form(s) W-4.
4. The number of allowances you (and your spouse) are entitled to claim.
5. The Social Security Number and/or dates of birth for any children claimed on your return and a copy of your most recent Schedule A deductions (if any).

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown below:
