We have no record of your 2005 California personal income tax return

This notice is a request for your 2005 tax return.

Why do we believe you need to file a 2005 California income tax return?

We received information that you made mortgage payments to GREENPOINT MORTGAGE FUNDING, INC. during 2005. Based upon the amount of mortgage interest you paid, it appears that you have sufficient income to have a filing requirement.

We checked our records, but cannot locate a 2005 California personal income tax return for you.

We understand that you may have already filed your return, or you may not have had a chance to file for 2005 yet, or that you may not have a filing requirement. We would like to work with you to resolve this matter as soon as possible.

Refer to the Filing Requirement Guidelines on Page 2 of this notice for 2005 income and filing requirements. You must file even if you believe you are due a refund.

What should you do to respond to this notice?

Filed Already?

The quickest way to resolve this matter is to visit our Website at www.ftb.ca.gov/inc. You can also call our automated phone service at (866) 204-7902. You will be prompted to enter the social security number under which you filed your tax return, so please have a copy of your return ready. Or, complete Section A of the "Reply to FTB" (enclosed) and send it in with a copy of your return by March 21, 2007.

No Filing Requirement?

If you believe you do not have a requirement to file, or are unsure if you have a requirement to file, quick resolution is available through our Website at www.ftb.ca.gov/inc. You may also call our automated phone service at (866) 204-7902 (available 24 hours a day), or complete Section B of the "Reply to FTB" (enclosed) and return it to us by March 21, 2007.

Haven't Filed Yet?

If you have a requirement to file but have not filed yet, please complete your 2005 personal income tax return and send it to us. Since you did not file your return on time, we will assess a late filing penalty and applicable interest if your return shows a balance due. If you do not file or respond to this notice by March 21, 2007 we will estimate your income and assess tax, a late filing penalty and interest.

Persons with hearing or speech impairments please call TTY/TDD (800) 822-6268.

2005 CALIFORNIA FILING REQUIREMENT GUIDELINES

Read down the first column to find your filing status at the end of 2005. Read across to find your age at the end of 2005, and number of dependents you are entitled to claim for 2005. You must file a return if either your California gross income or your California adjusted gross income was more than the amount shown for your filing status, age, and number of dependents.

Even if you do not have a filing requirement based on the chart below, you should file a return in order to get a refund if California state income tax was withheld from your pay, or if you made California estimated tax payments.

¹ Gross income is all income you received from all sources in the form of money, goods, property, and services that are not exempt from tax. Gross income does not include any adjustments or deductions.

² Adjusted gross income is your federal adjusted gross income from all sources reduced or increased by all California income adjustments.

³ If your 65th birthday is on January 1, 2006, you are considered to be age 65 on December 31, 2005.

ANSWERS TO FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What if I can't pay the amount due on my return?

A: It is important that you file even if you can't pay. We will work with you to set up a monthly installment agreement once you file your return. For more information, call (916) 845-4470. To make credit card payments, call (888) 2 PAY-TAX and enter code 1555.

Q: I am not a California resident. Why did I get this notice?

A: Even if you're not a resident of California, you must file a California tax return and pay tax on income derived from a California source. Examples of California source income include gain from the sale of property located in California, income from a partnership or S corporation doing business in California, wages earned while working in California, income from a California rental property, and payments received for services performed in California. You should file your return using our Form 540NR. For additional information on nonresident or part-year resident filing requirements, please see FTB Pub. 1031 (or FTB Pub. 1032 for military personnel).

Q: I can't locate my W-2 form. What should I do?

A: Contact your employer and ask for a copy to be sent to you. If you can't get a copy, you may report your income on our Substitute for Form W-2 (FTB 3525). You can get this form on our Website, www.ftb.ca.gov, or by calling our toll-free number (800) 338-0505.

Q: What will happen if I don't respond to this notice?

A: If we send you a notice the law requires you to respond to the notice by: (1) filing your 2005 California personal income tax return, or (2) providing information that you do not have a requirement to file, or (3) showing that you have already filed your 2005 tax return.

If you don't file the required return, we will assess:

- ◆ Tax - Tax is based upon information available to us.
- ◆ A Late Return Penalty - If you don't file your income tax return by the extended due date, we impose a penalty of 5 percent of the tax due, after applying any payments and credits made on or before the original due date, for each month or part of a month the return is late. The maximum penalty is 25 percent. We impose the penalty from the original due date of the return. (For a return that shows a balance due, the minimum penalty for filing a return more than 60 days late is $100 or 100 percent of the tax due after applying timely payments and credits, whichever is less.) (Revenue and Taxation Code Section 19131.)
- ◆ Interest - Interest accrues on unpaid liabilities from the original due date of the return until the date we receive payment in full. We also charge interest on penalties (Revenue and Taxation Code Section 19101).

Q: What is a Mental Health Services Tax?

A: The Mental Health Services Act imposes an additional 1% tax on taxable incomes over $1,000,000.
