Notice Of Penalty Charge

666

You have been charged a penalty under Section 6702 of the Internal Revenue Code for Civil Penalty for Frivolous Tax Returns.

Tax Statement

Prior Balance	$.00
Penalty Assessment	$10,000.00
Interest Charged	$.00
Bad Check Penalty	$.00
Balance Due	$10,000.00

We charged you a penalty under IRC section 6702(a) for filing a frivolous tax return. The penalty applies when a person files what purports to be a return but-

- A. 1. fails to include information on which the substantial correctness of the self-assessment may be judged or
- 2. includes information that on its face indicates that the selfassessment is substantially incorrect and
- B. 1. the penalty applies when the underlying conduct in relation to filing such return is based on a position that the Internal Revenue Service has identified as frivolous (see Notice 2007-30) or
- 2. the underlying conduct reflects a desire to delay or impede the administration of Federal tax laws.

The penalty is $5,000 for each person who files a frivolous tax return.

If you wish to contest the assertion of this penalty, you must fully pay the entire penalty and file a claim for refund with the IRS within three years from the time a return associated with the penalty was filed or two years from the date the penalty was paid, whichever period expires later.

If your refund claim is pending for six months or more and the IRS has not issued a notice of claim disallowance with regard to the claim, you may file suit in the United States District Court or United States Court of Federal Claims to contest the assertion of the penalty at any time. Once the IRS issues a notice of claim disallowance, however, you must file suit in the United States District Court or The United States Court of Federal Claims within two years of the date the IRS mails a notice of disallowance to you denying the refund claim.
